Waterfield For Governor Move Is Inaugurated

Democratic Party Leaders Meet In Paducah Tuesday

A movement to boom Harry Lee Waterfield, Clinton and Fulton publisher and speaker of the state House of Representatives, for governor of Kentucky was launched at an informal meeting of 59 Democratic leaders of the 14 counties of the First District at Paducah Tuesday night.

State Senator Henry Ward of Paducah, who served as chairman at the dinner meeting, said that enthusiastic support for Waterfield was voiced by Democratic representatives of all 14 counties.

He added that the meeting was sponsored by members of the state legislature of this district as a means of sounding out sentiment regarding the governor's race next year and to ascertain whether united support can be achieved for Waterfield in this district.

"Because the hotel was able to arrange a dinner for only a limited number, we were able to invite only a few from each county, and it is understood, of course, that they were speaking for themselves, but what they reported indicated that there will be strong support in this district for Waterfield," Ward said.

"These leaders agreed to go back into their own counties and begin the organization of Waterfield For Governor clubs and the formulation of specific plans to let the rest of the state know that this district is behind Waterfield in an enthusiastic manner," Ward added.

Plans for the organization of a finance committee to accept contributions for a campaign fund also were discussed. Ben Giffey, Clinton banker, was named temporary chairman for this committee.

Ward said that the Democratic leaders who talked to the group said that reports, sent to the district, indicate a general recognition of the fact that if the Democrats are to win the governor's race next year, enthusiasm for the state Democratic ticket must be aroused in the First district of the state.

"In Harry Lee Waterfield, this district can offer to the state a man who is versed in state government, who knows what Kentucky needs, who can win the governorship," Ward said.

"He would have the advantage of being a candidate with no political scars from others races he has run, for he has never been a candidate for a state or district office. He has an excellent reputation, gained from the four terms he has served as a member of the state legislature. He has been active in the welfare of the Democratic party in many campaigns, and as a result has many close personal friends and political connections all over Kentucky. He is a man behind whom the Democrats of the state can unite and with whom the party can win next November."

Waterfield has represented Hickman and Fulton counties in the House of Representatives since 1938, and served as speaker of the House at the 1944 and 1946 sessions, being elected without opposition both times.

In the Democratic gubernatorial primary of 1945, he was state campaign manager for Ben Kilgore, and was the state publicity chairman for the Democratic campaign in November of that year. In 1944 he was made director of organization for the Democratic state central committee, and has held that post since then. He was the state campaign manager for President Roosevelt and the Democratic ticket in the election of 1944.

Ward said that other meetings are being planned of district leaders and groups that may be interested in helping develop the campaign for Waterfield.

W K Y B, Paducah Now Is On Air

New Radio Station Will Be On Air Sunrise To Sunset At 800 On Dial

Radio station WKYB, owned and operated by the Paducah Sun-Democrat, went on the air this week with 1,000 watts power on a frequency of 800 kilocycles. The new Paducah station operates from local sunrise to sunset, and is affiliated with the Mutual Broadcasting System.

All male members of WKYB's staff except one saw overseas service during World War II. All staff members save one are natives of Kentucky and all but two are from Paducah and its immediate area.

Edwin J. Paxton, Sr., Sun-Democrat publisher, pioneered radio in West Kentucky when he put radio station WJAR on the air at Paducah in 1922. WKYB is being managed by his son, E. J. Paxton, Jr., who returned General MacArthur's "Voice of Freedom" radio program to the air when the American forces reconquered the Philippines in 1944 and 1945.

C. G. (Prescher) Sims, veteran radio engineer and a member of the Paducah city commission, is WKYB's technical chief, and Sam Livingston, for 20 years sports editor of the Paducah Evening Sun and of the Sun-Democrat, is commercial manager and sports director. Neil McIntyre, who worked with Paxton, Jr., on the Voice of Freedom, is program director.

Miss Marie Richardson is director of women's affairs for the station, which also enjoys the services of its own full-time news staff, headed by William (Speedy) Allen of Murray.

Arizona Cowhands Organize Anti-High-Toned Fox-Hunting Club

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 29 (AP)—Arizona cattlemen like their shooting straight and their hunting strictly western—none of that pink-coated, high-falootin' fox chasing for them.

With disgusted sneers in regard to "fancy pink clothes" and "dudes," a new organization was born here yesterday: The Arizona Old-Time Cowhands' Anti-High-Toned Fox Hunting Association.

It all started when cattlemen read about plans for an English-Style Fox Hunt at Tucson this Sunday.

"Ridiculous," said John Edward Dalton, President of the new Anti-High-Toned. "I sure never thought anyone would get himself all rigged up in fancy pink clothes and go chasing a little fox around this Arizona country."

Dalton was once a bartender in roaring old Tombstone and formerly owned The Big Wagon

Two Cars Collide On Martin Hwy Thursday Night

A 1946 Dodge automobile, driven by Art Grissom of Detroit, carrying four passengers, collided with a Chevrolet sedan while returning to Fulton last night at about 12:15 a. m., approximately two miles north of Martin on highway 45 E.

Both cars were damaged considerably and several occupants required immediate hospital treatment. Billy McClain of Martin, who was in the Chevrolet going to Martin, is the most seriously hurt. He is at the Fulton hospital, where he is responding favorably to treatment.

Russ Eilber, Detroit, while not so seriously injured, is also at the hospital at the same hospital. It is reported that other passengers in both cars were not seriously injured, although Miss Dorothy Nannery and Mrs. Elaine Mauck were admitted to the Fulton hospital after the accident.

Arriving at the scene of the accident shortly after it occurred were John Paul McConnell and Pat Nannery. Assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Tucker Brown, Harry Reams and Miss Wilma Jean Harris, who were returning from Martin, they administered first aid to the injured and rushed them to the hospital.

State's Chain Store Tax Is Invalidated

Appeals Court Rules Against 1940 Tax Bill

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 29 (AP)—Kentucky's chain store tax which brings in approximately $150,000 annually was invalidated by the Court of Appeals today.

The commonwealth's highest tribunal had previously knocked out a 1934 chain store tax, and the one acted upon today was passed in 1940. The state revenue department estimated that refund or retention in the state treasury of around $1,000,000 hinged on today's building.

The 1934 act was designated a revenue measure and after that failed to stand the court test, the 1940 general Assembly designated the new one as being passed under the state's police powers.

The preamble to the 1940 act set out it was designed to preserve individually owned stores and to curb monopolies "in the interest of the general welfare."

The tax on the sliding scale, ranging from $25 a year for each of two to five units operated in a chain up to $200 per store for all over 250 in a chain.

Suit filed in 1942 by 30 chain demanded refund of $206,000 paid by them up to that time as license fees, but it was pointed out license fees paid since then would be affected by the final ruling today. Firms filing the suit ruled upon today were:

Adam Hat Stores, Inc.; Cannon Shoe Co.; DeJays Stores, Inc.; Edison Bros. Stores; Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.; General Shoe Corp.; H. F. Goodrich Co.; Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.; W. T. Grant Co.; Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.; H. L. Green Co.; Green United Stores, Inc.; The Interstate Co.; S. S. Kresge Co.; S. H. ## Fulton Had A Quiet Holiday

Most Remained At Home For Thanksgiving Meal; Others Hunted, Visited

Most residents of Fulton and nearby communities enjoyed a quiet Thanksgiving holiday at home yesterday. Practically all business houses were closed for the day.

The traditional Thanksgiving foods, though a bit higher priced, were more plentiful this year than in the previous three or four years. Restaurants and groceries were well-stocked with turkeys, chickens, ducks, ham and other holiday delicacies.

Local observance of Thanksgiving began with the community worship service Wednesday evening at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

While a majority of Fulton folk remained at home for a hearty dinner and a lazy afternoon yesterday, several hunters were out to try their luck and a number of football fans saw Thanksgiving rivalries renewed. Attracting the largest number from here was the Mayfield-Paduach game at Mayfield, which the Tighman Tornado won 14-0.

Fulton and South Fulton schools remained closed today, and will re-open for their regular schedule Monday morning, December 2.

Mexico Opens Cortes Casket

Government Authorities And Historians Believe Remains Are Authentic

Mexico City, Nov. 29 (AP)—While historians stood by as witnesses, government authorities last night opened the Cortes casket and gold urn said to contain the remains of Hernan Cortes, conqueror of Mexico, and pronounced authentic its contents of a skull, bones and a rolled document.

The document, dated Dec. 6, 1498, was found to agree in every detail with a copy possessed by Baeza Y. Moreno, one of the four discoverers of the hidden urn.

Historians assumed from the date that the urn was removed from its former resting place in the Chapel of Jesus Hospital during Antispanish riots of 1823, but was not hidden in the wall of the chapel until 13 years later.

The document, signed by church authorities, attested to the authenticity of the urn's contents and briefly recounted their history to that date.

President Manuel Avila Camacho has ordered the urn turned over to the national historical and anthropological institute for safekeeping.

Lewis Is Ordered To Trial On Contempt Charge; Judge Goldsborough Denies Mine Leader's Plea For Dismissal, Saying Norris Act Not Applicable

Federal Judge Holds His Court Has Right To Enjoin Labor Union From Acting Contrary To Good Of Public

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP)—Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough ordered John L. Lewis to trial on contempt charges today and upheld the court's right to enjoin a walkout in the soft coal mines despite Federal Anti-Injunction Laws.

Overruling Lewis' motion for dismissal of the contempt action brought by the Government, Goldsborough declared:

"The Norris-La Guardia Act did not and does not apply, and the court has the same rights as it had prior to passage of the Norris-La Guardia Act."

Goldsborough said his court had the right to enjoin "A Labor Union which was about to do something against the good of the public and the union itself."

Lewis and his United Mine Workers contended that the Norris-La Guardia Act, curbing the use of restraining orders and injunctions in labor disputes, nullified Goldsborough's restraining order of Nov. 18 and was grounds for dismissal of the whole contempt of court action, saying Lewis had the right to ignore it.

Government attorneys on the other hand contended the law did not apply where the Government itself was acting as operator of the 3,300 soft coal mines seized during another crippling strike last spring.

Ends Argument
Goldsborough's ruling cut short a day and half of argument by attorneys for Lewis that the court lacked authority to restrain the UMW from terminating its government contract. This notice by Lewis was followed by a walkout of 400,000 miners.

"The court repeats," Goldsborough said, "that this proceeding was for the sole purpose of maintaining the status quo in this dispute."

Before handing down his decision, the judge had remarked that Lewis in effect had "pleaded guilty" to contempt by refusing to obey the court's order to keep the coal contract in force.

This was promptly challenged by one of Lewis' lawyers, T. C. Townsend, who said:

"He hasn't entered any plea of guilty, your honor." After some argument over legal technicalities, the judge ruled: "The motion to discharge and vacate the motion is overruled."

Witness Ready
He then called a minute recess. Chief government counsel John F. Bonnett announced that the government was ready to present its first witness against Lewis—Navy Captain N. H. Collinson, Federal Coal Mines Administrator.

In his statement leading up to dismissal of the UMW motion, Goldsborough declared that the court had a right to enjoin "A labor union which was about to do something against the good of the public and the union itself."

Holiday Hangover Cured By Climb Up, Down Chimney

Newark, N. J., Nov. 29 (AP)—A pair of blistered hands and a slight cough from coal gas inhalation were pertinent reminders today to 23-year-old Thomas Dowling of the Thanksgiving morning spent clambering up and down the inside of a 162-ft. chimney.

Dowling who lives in nearby Orange told Lt. Andrew Perkins of the Pennsylvania Railroad Police that he awoke yesterday after a pre-Thanksgiving celebration to find himself locked up in the Pennsylvania Railroad Station heating plant.

He boasted his five foot, 10 inch frame up the chimney—seven feet wide at the base and four feet at the peak.

But when he got to the top, Dowling said, there was no way of getting down the outside. He shouted for help. An attendant in a nearby parking lot opened a big iron door at the base of the chimney. Dowling clambered down and was taken to City Hospital for treatment.

63 Die In Holiday Traffic Accidents; 13 Other Violent Deaths Occur

by the associated press

Traffic accidents cost the lives of at least 63 persons—more than the toll estimated by the national safety council—as the Thanksgiving holiday yesterday. Violent deaths from miscellaneous causes totaled 13.

The safety council, which today reported 3,120 traffic fatalities in October and a total of 27,520 for the first 10 months of 1946, had estimated 50 persons would die in motor mishaps on the holiday. It said, however, that normally 110 persons are killed in traffic on a November Thursday, including deaths occurring later from injuries suffered that day.

California, Illinois and Michigan each reported five traffic deaths yesterday while four fatalities each were reported in Arizona, Florida, Georgia, New York and Ohio; three each in Indiana and Pennsylvania; two each in Colorado, Connecticut, Missouri and North Carolina, and one each in Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and Washington.

The safety council said that the traffic toll for the first 10 months this year was 25 percent higher than for the same period in 1945 and estimated that the fatalities for the entire year would approximate 34,000.

Rupp's Quintet Coasts To 78-36 Triumph Over Indiana Central Five

By The Associated Press

Coch Adolph Rupp's 1946-47 Kentucky basketball team appears to be every bit as good as the dupesters thought it would be.

The Wildcats sailed to a 78-36 triumph over Indiana Central at Lexington last night, with Rupp using substitutes three deep without impeding an offensive that rang up points with remarkable regularity.

In another college basketball game, Morehead State opened the season with a 60 to 39 victory over Southern Baptist at Morehead. The Eagles grabbed the lead in the opening minutes of play and relinquished it only once before the first whistle.

Rupp's Kentucky team, 1946 national invitational champions, who have been bolstered by returned service stars and promising freshmen, ran up 16 points before the Hoosier Grizzlies from Indianapolis could score, and coasted to a 32-17 halftime lead.

The Wildcats' point-making continued unabated in the second half. Ralph Beard, sophomore from Louisville and a hold-over from the 1945-46 team, led his teammates with 16 points.

The Morehead-Southern Baptist score was tied at the half, 21-21, but Morehead took a nine-point lead after the second half was but four minutes old and wasn't troubled thereafter.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, Nov. 29—(AP)—A man who is close to the center of minor league baseball affairs but not close enough to say for sure whether the reports that Judge W. G. Bramham will retire are true, claims that so many successors to the judge already have been "nominated" that Kilroy probably will turn up at Los Angeles next week and get into the picture. "He might not be a bad dark horse," our informant adds, acting on the theory that another unofficial nomination won't hurt, this corner offers the name of Jack Zeller, former general manager of the Tigers, for consideration if he is available. Zeller surely knows all the angles of baseball and his proposal to abolish farm systems should make him the logical candidate of the "independents" who don't want the minors ruled by the major leagues. One certainty is that the remaining unattached clubs will have to get behind one man or in the confusion the farm system will have their own way.

A Grand American Tradition

The Cuppers had a grand old family reunion last week—for the first time since the war.

Big and little Cuppers came, by car and train, from as far west as Nebraska and as far east as Vermont. They crowded Dea and Jane's house, set up quarters in the barns, or stopped with neighbors—and a jollier gathering you couldn't have imagined!

I was asked to their final Saturday night supper, when they sang old songs, drank beer and cider, reminisced. Dark Cuppers and blonde ones—Vermont accents and Alabama drawls—doctors and farmers . . . all with their differences of taste and politics, yet as close and harmonious in spirit as a group could be.

From where I sit, it's a great American tradition—not just family reunions, but the ability to get along as one harmonious family, regardless of differences of taste—whether it's taste for politics or farming, beer or cider.
