RUSSIA QUILTS BIG WAR GAME AND DISBANDS ARMY

London, Feb. 11.—A German government wireless dispatch received here this evening confirms dispatches received from Amsterdam during the day that Russia had ordered a cessation of war and the demobilization of the Russian armies on all fronts.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Amsterdam says: "There is great enthusiasm in Germany over the reported end of the state of war between the Central Powers and Russia. Cities everywhere are beflagged and there is much rejoicing over Trotsky's unconditional surrender."

"It has been arranged that the Central Economic Commission now in Petrograd shall settle the details of the resumption of relations between Russia and the Central Powers."

Although no formal treaty has yet been signed between the Russians and the Central Powers, the Bolshevik government has ordered a cessation of hostilities by the Russians against Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria and the withdrawal of its troops from the trenches and fortified positions on the Baltic Sea to the Rumanian frontier. It had long been foreseen that such an outcome eventually would follow upon the revolutionary movement in Russia, where for nearly a year civil strife and war weariness generally proved most potent factors in weakening the battle front. Long ago the enemy forces began the withdrawal of troops from this front, and virtually only a handful of them have been faced by Russia's there.

President Confident Farmers Will Do "Level Best" During the War

In receiving a delegation representing the Farmers' Co-operative and Educational Union, on Friday, February 8, the president made the following remarks: "Gentlemen: I can not, of course, offhand answer so important a memorial as this, and I need not tell you that it will receive my most careful and respectful attention. Many of the questions that are raised here have been matters of very deep and constant concern with us for months past, and I believe that many of them are approaching as successful a solution as we can work out for them, but just what those steps are I can not now detail to you. You are probably familiar with some of them."

I want to say that I fully recognize, as Mr. Davis has said, that you gentlemen do not mean that your utmost efforts will be dependent upon the acceptance of these suggestions. I know you are going to do your level best in any circumstances, and I count on you with the utmost confidence in that. There has never been a time, gentlemen, which tested the real quality of folks as this time is going to test it; because we are fighting for something bigger than any man's imagination can grasp. This is the final tackle between the things that America has always been opposed to and was organized to fight and the things that she stands for. It is the final contest, and to lose it would set the world back, not a hundred, perhaps several—years in the development of human rights. The thing can not be exaggerated in its importance, and I know that you men are ready, as I am, to spend every ounce of energy we have got in solving this thing. If we can not solve it in the best way, we will solve it in the next best way, and if the next best way is not available, we will solve it in the way next best to that, but we will tackle it in some way and do it as well as we can.

I am complimented by a visit of so large a representation, and thank you for the candid presentation of this interesting memorial.

Father and Son Week

This week is being generally observed throughout the land as "Father and Son" week. The purpose of it is "to challenge the men and boys to come together in closer fellowship in their common service to our country; to awaken the parents and communities to the importance of boy life; and to enlist boys and men under the standard of Jesus Christ." There was rendered at the school building on Thursday night a special program by the Boys' Club. The bible schools and churches of the town will have special "Father and Son" services next Sunday. The fathers of the community are asked to attend Sunday school and church next Sunday, taking their boys with them and sitting together during the preaching services.

Take Him Out and Finish the Job

Bang! and three finger on the right hand of Charles Edlish, a Scales, Ky., selective army soldier back home on a furlough, were nearly shot off when a shotgun accidentally (?) discharged, while he was hunting Tuesday afternoon. In some unaccountable manner the gun was fired while the hunter was endeavoring to climb a rail fence, according to Edlish. He is a selective army soldier and has been training at Camp Shelby, Miss.

Mrs. E. B. Newman, who has been here since the death of her mother, Mrs. Maggie Williams, left the first of the week for her home in Houston, Tex.

Attention Business Men—

A special representative of the Ledger will call on the merchants and business men of the town next week in behalf of a move that has for its purpose wholly that of benefitting the business interests of the town. Give the gentleman a hearing, he is not asking you to do anything for anyone other than yourself. The cost is a mere trifle, only sufficient will be asked to pay the legitimate expense of an educational campaign in the interest of buy at home.

County Board is Directed to Send 38 Men to Camp 27th.

The county exemption board is in receipt of an official notice from the war department to be ready to send thirty-eight men from this county to Camp Zachary Taylor on Wednesday, February 27. This county is yet due fifty men to fill its quota, but owing to the fact that the negroes included in the county's quota have not been ordered to camp yet it will only be necessary for thirty-eight more white men to be sent. Twelve negroes are included in the first quota of 140 troops ordered from this county and they will be ordered to report for service at an early date and when they arrive in camp the county's full quota will then be in service.

The thirty-eight men who will leave here the morning of the 27th at 7:20 o'clock, will be in the order in which their names appeared in the Ledger last week. The list contained the names of fifty men, including six negroes, leaving forty-four white men in the list. Of this number the board is not yet fully advised regarding some of the men who asked for a transfer of examination to other boards, but the list is approximately correct and if your name appeared there among the first thirty-eight names make your arrangements to be in Murray on the morning of the 27th inst.

John H. Turner Suffers Loss

John H. Turner, of Calloway county, arrived in the city Friday and while here stated that while enroute to Mayfield Thursday evening one of his mules fell off the embankment near the city, in the high water and came near drowning the mule, ruining his tobacco and getting him wet. As soon as Mr. Turner got in this position where he could not go forward or backward he yelled for help, and some negroes living near came to his rescue. He told them if Mr. Bennett lived near there he would like for them to get him as he thought the mules of Mr. Bennett would be able to pull him out. Mr. Bennett was soon notified and he, together with the mules, soon had helped Mr. Turner to safety.

Mr. Turner had read in the Messenger of the Lee Bennett mules and he knew that they could pull him out if any could. Mr. Turner lives near Backusburg, in Calloway county, at the place known as "Possum Hollow"—Mayfield Messenger.

HOOVER COMES TO RESCUE OF EGG PRODUCING HENS

Calloway county poultry dealers are not buying hens or pullets for shipment. They are permitted to receive poultry contracted for previous to Tuesday of this week and will make their last shipment Friday of Saturday of this week.

Trading in live or freshly killed hens or pullets anywhere in the United States is forbidden in an order announced Tuesday by the Federal Food Administration. Feb. 23 is fixed as the date when fresh stock must be disposed of, and goods that additional stock may not be purchased.

The food administration estimates that over 150,000,000 eggs would be lost to the food supply of the United States if the old practice of sending hens to market at this season was continued. Figures compiled by the poultry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture show that more than 5,000,000 laying hens, each capable of producing 30 eggs, are sent to market from the Southern states in the winter and early spring.

Every effort, therefore, is being made to encourage farmers to keep their hens until after the spring laying season, thereby getting a dividend for keeping the hen through the winter. The specialists point out that when a hen is sold for meat early in the spring, the farmer gets no egg return for feeding and keeping her through the worst months of the year.

Moreover, the hen is marketable as poultry after she has produced her spring eggs. Poultry in May may bring two cents a pound less than it does in February, but they want the 20 eggs produced by the hen, lately from winter, more than offset any reduction in the price offered for the poultry.

Look Out for This Fraud.

Some gink at Washington, claiming to be affiliated with the war department, has mailed out circulars urging people to plant castor beans, which are to be used in making oil for aeroplanes. His graft is in the sale of seed, for which each farmer is to send him about $15 part payment for the seed necessary to plant the ten acres required. In turn he guarantees $3 per bushel for the entire crop. Citizens of West Kentucky got suspicious and wired the department and learned that the man was an imposter and bogus, having no connection with the war department. Congressman Barkley says that he has the postoffice officials on the gentleman's trail, and he will be prosecuted for using the mails for fraudulent purposes.—Bardwell News.

W. J. Freund and wife, of St. Louis, Mo., are the guests of her mother, Mrs. W. E. King, of this city.

BONDED WHISKEY WILL LAST BUT ANOTHER YEAR

Washington, Feb. 8.—If the war lasts a couple of years more, America is apt to run out of hard liquor before it runs into national prohibition, statistics showed today. There's only enough left now to keep us in toddies and plow-benders for eighteen months. Forbidden to distill any more till the war ends, the liquor men fear that thousands of swinging doors will close as early as January 1, 1919, and that even before then booze may be so high that nobody can afford to get full but a millionaire.

Already hundreds of saloons have closed because of high booze prices and the heavy tax. But the records show that the nation's sincere drinkers are going it as strong as ever.

According to records compiled at the office of the international revenue commissioner, there were approximately 157,000,000 gallons of distilled liquor held in bonded warehouses near the end of January.

The daily drain on this stock is at a rate which will aggregate more than 100,000,000 gallons annually.

The threatened exhaustion has not yet caused a decrease in the withdrawal from the warehouses, officials said. Although the internal revenue commissioner has no direct reports on the consumption of liquor for beverage purposes, it was declared the amount used for that purpose was no less than in comparative periods of other years.

The demand for alcohol for medicinal purposes has increased, but that it has been more than offset by the manufacture of substitutes and by the government's distribution of from 6,000,000 to 7,000,000 each month. Distilled spirits, however, are controlled by the government for commercial institutions now is provided by the federal controlled plants.

The announcement of the small existing stock of distilled liquors gave the supporters of the prohibition cause added courage. They counted on this as one means by which prohibition might be accomplished even before recalcitrant legislatures could be lined up to vote on the national amendment.

Kentucky Soldier Murdered.

Hattiesburg, Miss., Feb. 12.—Jack Bush, age 26, a member of Company I, 149th Infantry, formerly the First Kentucky, was found dead last night near the Squaw Camp, with a bullet hole in his head. Bush had been missing since December 22 and was supposed to have deserted, and his description had been sent to civil and military authorities as being absent without leave. At that time he had $110 in his possession, and when the body was found the money was gone.

The supposition is that he was robbed and murdered. Bush enlisted in May at Hazard, Ky., and his father is Pleas Bush, a well-to-do citizen of Elkatawa, Breathitt county, Ky.

The camp authorities are looking for a man who was last seen with Bush and who is listed as a deserter. The spot where Bush was found is quite public and is passed many times a day by soldiers and civilians, which lead the camp authorities to believe that Bush was murdered somewhere else and kept concealed until an opportunity was found to place the body where it was discovered.

The school in the Antioch district being taught by Mrs. Clara McNeely is drawing to a close. "Miss Clara," as the children call her, seems to have won the respect of the entire district by her ability and faithfulness as an educator. An entertainment was given by the school on Friday night of last week to an audience that packed the house. A small charge was made for the benefit of the Red Cross and a considerable sum was raised.

Yes, we are willing to live on corn bread, leave off meat part of the time and do most anything else that will help to win the war.—Billie.

TOBACCO MARKET IN MURRAY MORE ACTIVE THIS WEEK

The local market this week has been a fairly active one, and as a result many loads of tobacco have been sold on the streets. Prices ranged from $12 to $15 around. The condition of the roads and the fact that many farmers are not yet through stripping is assigned for the yet comparatively slow movement of the weed. Griffin & Pitt, Italian contract buyers, entered the market Wednesday morning and will continue active purchasers until their contract is completed. There yet remains a few buyers who have not commenced to buy but it is generally believed that all firms that will have a contract to buy on this market will enter the field within the next few days. Much of the tobacco that is being hauled here is in very high order and as a result the best price has not been offered for such crops. Dealers are urging the growers to wait until their crops are in good keeping order before offering them for sale. The total amount offered here this week will reach several hundreds of loads.

Mayfield, Ky., Feb. 13.—The greatest number of wagons that has been here during this season was in the city today, numbering perhaps 500. The banks have paid out perhaps an hundred thousand dollars for tobacco today. The prices have ranged about as they have been heretofore, except that W. F. Wright & Co. paid Ed Phillips $16 around for his crop of about 4,000 pounds.

This is perhaps the highest price that has been paid on this market this year and it is said it was of a specially excellent quality. The Italian market opened here for the first time this morning and hundreds of loads of tobacco were bought by Mr. Cousins, their local agent here, and wended their way to their big tobacco house on North Seventh street.

All other buyers are active and are purchasing all they can get. Tobacco is high in order, too much so, especially for the lower grades, and the farmers have gotten the right idea and are selling their tobacco as fast as they can bring it to market.

The Union Services.

The largest congregation that has yet been recorded was present at the union services at the First Methodist church last Sunday night. The church was practically filled. The sermon was preached by Kyle Brooks, of the First Christian church, who took as his text, Matthew 5:48: "Ye therefore shall be perfect as your Heavenly Father is perfect." Some splendid music was rendered by the large choir. Next Sunday night the union services, according to program, will be held at the First Christian church and H. W. Brooks, of the First Methodist church, will preach the sermon. As this week is being observed throughout the nation as "Father and Son" week, Rev. Brooks will take as his subject, "What Our Community Owes Its Boys and What the Boys Owe the Community." There ought to be a packed house present. The union services are growing in interest and power each week, and are exerting a most wholesome influence upon the community. "In unity there is strength, in division there is weakness." Attend the services next Sunday night.

A Jaaper over in Trigg county last week took occasion to air his views through the columns of the Cadiz Record in opposition to a county farm agent and we have just finished reading his balderdash. He devotes most of his space to bellyaching about farm products not being high enough and like most every other damned jackass on earth wants more laws passed, to protect his class in their profiteering demands. Such gluttons as he would place the price of bread beyond the reach of every human being on earth who did not produce wheat with which to make it, and if the hills of Trigg county were made of butter and he owned the outlay he would refuse an orphan enough to grease a crust of bread. When such cattle as this fall into hell the angels of heaven will get an odor of singed hair and roasting hide, and molten lava will trickle down the walls of the pit for a week following his plunge into the place of his final reward.

He professed religion and joined the Methodist church in 1873, in which he lived a true, consecrated life till death. To know him was to love him. I am sure the spirit of Christ has never been manifested more fully by anyone than by this man of God. The final call came to Brother Hopkins at the ripe age of three score and ten years, caused by erysipelas. Besides a wife, Mrs. M. E. The burial took place in the Fulton graveyard.

TRUTH TRIUMPHS

Murray Citizens Testify for the Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of a Murray citizen, given in his own words, should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. If you suffer from backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, urinary disorders or any form of kidney ills, use a tested kidney medicine.

A Murray citizen tells of Doan's Kidney Pills.

R. S. Miller, prop. of repair shop, Poplar St., Murray, says: "Some five years ago my kidneys troubled me. They acted too frequently at times and the secretions burned in passage. My back pained me occasionally and caused me considerable annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me and I have not had to use any kidney medicine since."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy. Get Doan's Kidney Pills the same that Mr. Miller had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., New York, N. Y.

Doan's Remedies are recommended by many who say they operate easily without griping and without bad after effects at all drug stores.

RUSSIA QUILTS BIG WAR GAME AND DISBANDS ARMY

London, Feb. 11.—A German government wireless dispatch received here this evening confirms dispatches received from Amsterdam during the day that Russia had ordered a cessation of war and the demobilization of the Russian armies on all fronts.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Amsterdam says: "There is great enthusiasm in Germany over the reported end of the state of war between the Central Powers and Russia. Cities everywhere are balladed and there is much rejoicing over Trotsky's unconditional surrender."

"It has been arranged that the Central Economic Commission now in Petrograd shall settle the details of the resumption of relations between Russia and the Central Powers."

Although no formal treaty has yet been signed between the Russians and the Central Powers, the Bolshevik government has ordered a cessation of hostilities by the Russians against Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria and the withdrawal of its troops from the trenches and fortified positions from the Baltic Sea to the Romanian frontier. It had long been foreseen that such an outcome eventually would follow upon the revolutionary movement in Russia, where for nearly a year civil strife and war weariness generally proved most potent factors in weakening the battle front. Long ago the enemy forces began the withdrawal of troops from this front, and virtually only a handful of them have been faced by Russians there.

President Confident Farmers Will Do "Level Best" During the War

In receiving a delegation representing the Farmers' Cooperative and Educational Union, on Friday, February 8, the president made the following remarks:

Gentlemen: I can not, of course, offhand answer so important a memorial as this, and I need not tell you that it will receive my most careful and respectful attention. Many of the questions that are raised here have been matters of very deep and constant concern with us for months past, and I believe that many of them are approaching as successful a solution as we can work out for them, but just what those steps are I can not now detail to you. You are probably familiar with some of them.

I want to say that I fully recognize, as Mr. Davis has said, that you gentlemen do not mean that your utmost efforts will be dependent upon the acceptance of these suggestions. I know you are going to do your level best in any circumstances, and I count on you with the utmost confidence in that. There has never been a time, gentlemen, which tested the real quality of folks as this time is going to test it; because we are fighting for something bigger than any man's imagination can grasp. This is the final tackle between the things that America has always been opposed to and was organized to fight and the things that she stands for. It is the final contest, and to loose it would set the world back, not a hundred, perhaps several—years in the development of human rights. The thing can not be exaggerated in its importance, and I know that you men are ready, as I am, to spend every ounce of energy we have got in solving this thing. If we can not solve it in the best way, and if the next best way is not available, we will solve it in the way next best to that, but we will tackle it in some way and do it as well as we can.

I am complimented by a visit of so large a representation, and thank you for the candid presentation of this interesting memorial.

Father and Son Week.

This week is being generally observed throughout the land as "Father and Son" week. The purpose of it is to challenge the men and boys to come together in closer fellowship in their common service to our country; to awaken the parents and communities to the importance of boy life; and to enlist boys and men under the standard of Jesus Christ. There was rendered at the school building on Thursday night a special program by the Boys' Club. The bible schools and churches of the town will have special "Father and Son" services next Sunday. The fathers of the community are asked to attend Sunday school and church next Sunday, taking their boys with them and sitting together during the preaching services.

Take Him Out and Finish the Job

Bang! and three finger on the right hand of Charles Edlish, a Scale, Ky., selective army soldier back home on a furlough, were nearly shot off when a shot-pun accidentally (?) discharged, while he was hunting Tuesday afternoon. In some unaccountable manner the gun was fired while the hunter was endeavoring to climb a rail fence, according to Edlish. He is a selective army soldier and has been training at Camp Shelby, Miss.

Mrs. E. B. Newman, who has been here since the death of her mother, Mrs. Maggie Williams, left the first of the week for her home in Houston, Tex.

Give the gentleman a hearing; he is not asking you to do anything for anyone other than yourself. The cost is a mere trifle, only sufficient will be asked to pay the legitimate expense of an educational campaign in the interest of buy at home.

County Board is Directed to Send 38 Men to Camp 27th.

The county exemption board is in receipt of an official notice from the war department to be ready to send thirty-eight men from this county to Camp Zachary Taylor on Wednesday, February 27. This county is yet due fifty men to fill its quota, but owing to the fact that the negroes included in the county's quota have not been ordered to camp yet it will only be necessary for thirty-eight more white men to be sent. Twelve negroes are included in the first quota of 140 troops ordered from this county and they will be ordered to report for service at an early date and when they arrive in camp the county's full quota will then be in service.

John H. Turner Suffers Loss.

John H. Turner, of Calloway county, arrived in the city Friday and while here stated that while enroute to Mayfield Thursday evening one of his mules fell off the embankment near the city, in the high water and came near drowning the mule, ruining his tobacco and getting him wet. As soon as Mr. Turner got in this position where he could not go forward or backward he yelled for help, and some negroes living near came to his rescue. He told them if Mr. Bennett lived near there he would like for them to get him as he thought the mules of Mr. Bennett would be able to pull him out. Mr. Bennett was soon notified and he, together with the mules, soon had helped Mr. Turner to safety.

Mr. Turner had read in the Messenger of the Lee Bennett mules and he knew that they could pull him out if any could. Mr. Turner lives near Backusburg, in Calloway county, at the place known as "Possum Hollow"—Mayfield Messenger.

HOOVER COMES TO RESCUE BONDED WHISKEY WILL LAST BUT ANOTHER YEAR

Calloway county poultry dealers are not buying hens or pullets for shipment. They are permitted to receive poultry contracted for previous to Tuesday of this week and will make their last shipment Friday of Saturday of this week.

Trading in live or freshly killed hens or pullets anywhere in the United States is forbidden in an order announced Tuesday by the Federal Food Administration. Feb 23 is fixed as the date when fresh stock must be disposed of, and adds that additional stock may not be purchased.

The food administration estimates that over 150,000,000 eggs would be lost to the food supply of the United States if the old practice of sending hens to market at this season was continued. Figures compiled by the poultry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture show that more than 5,000,000 laying hens, each capable of producing 30 eggs, are sent to market from the Southern states in the winter and early spring.

Every effort, therefore, is being made to encourage farmers to keep their hens until after the spring laying season, thereby getting a dividend for keeping the hen through the winter. The specialists point out that when a hen is sold for meat early in the spring, the farmer gets no egg return for feeding and keeping her through the worst months of the year.

Moreover, the hen is marketable as poultry after she has produced her spring eggs. Poultry in May may bring two cents a pound less than it does in February, but, they point out, the 30 eggs produced by the hen, largely from wastes, more than offset any reduction in the price offered for live poultry.

The demand for alcohol for commercial purposes has increased, but that it has been more than balanced by the manufacturing of substitutes and by the government's distillation of from 5,000,000 to 7,000,000 each month distilled spirits formerly purchased by the government from commercial institutions now is provided by the federal controlled plants.

The announcement of the small existing stock of distilled liquors gave the supporters of the prohibition cause added courage. They counted on this as one means by which prohibition might be accomplished even before recalcitrant legislatures could be lined up to vote on the national amendment.

Kentucky Soldier Murdered.

Hattiesburg, Miss., Feb. 12.—Jack Bush, age 24, a member of Company I, 149th Infantry, formerly the First Kentucky, was found dead last night near the Squaw Camp, with a bullet hole in his head. Bush had been missing since December 22 and was supposed to have deserted, and his description had been sent to civil and military authorities as being absent without leave. At that time he had $110 in his possession, and when the body was found the money was gone.

The supposition is that he was robbed and murdered. Bush enlisted in May at Hazard, Ky., and his father is Pleas Bush, a well to do citizen of Elkatawa, Breathitt county, Ky.

The camp authorities are looking for a man who was last seen with Bush and who is listed as a deserter. The spot where Bush was found is quite public and is passed many times a day by soldiers and civilians, which lead the camp authorities to believe that Bush was murdered somewhere else and kept concealed until an opportunity was found to place the body where it was discovered.

Brown's Grove.

Mrs. Wm. Chunn slipped and fell on the ice recently resulting in painful injuries in her hip. Mr. Wm. Mayfield is still on the sick list, but is doing as well as could be expected for a man of his age.

Some tobacco is being stripped and a few loads carried to town and sold for a good price, some as high as $15.

Yes, we had to get wood in the snow and haul in on a slide pulling it by hand.

The school in the Antioch district being taught by Mrs. Clara McNeely is drawing to a close. "Miss Clara," as the children call her, seems to have won the respect of the entire district by her ability and faithfulness as an educator. An entertainment was given by the school on Friday night of last week to an audience that packed the house.

A small charge was made for the benefit of the Red Cross and a considerable sum was raised.

Yes, we are willing to live on corn bread, leave off meat part of the time and do most anything else that will help to win the war.—Billie.

TOBACCO MARKET IN MURRAY MORE ACTIVE THIS WEEK

The local market this week has been a fairly active one, and as a result many loads of tobacco have been sold on the streets. Prices ranged from $12 to $15 around. The condition of the roads and the fact that many farmers are not yet through stripping is assigned for the yet comparatively slow movement of the weed. Griffin & Pitt, Italian contract buyers, entered the market Wednesday morning and will continue active purchasers until their contract is completed. There yet remains a few buyers who have not commenced to buy but it is generally believed that all firms that will have a contract to buy on this market will enter the field within the next few days. Much of the tobacco that is being hauled here is in very high order and as a result the best price has not been offered for such crops. Dealers are urging the growers to wait until their crops are in good keeping order before offering them for sale. The total amount offered here this week will reach several hundreds of loads.

Mayfield, Ky., Feb. 13.—The greatest number of wagons that has been here during this season was in the city today, numbering perhaps 500. The banks have paid out perhaps an hundred thousand dollars for tobacco today. The prices have ranged about as they have been heretofore, except that W. F. Whitely & Co. paid Ed Phillips $16 around for his crop of about 4,000 pounds. This is perhaps the highest price that has been paid on this market this year and it is said it was of a specially excellent quality. The Italian market opened here for the first time this morning and hundreds of loads of tobacco were bought by Mr. Cousins, their local agent here, and wended their way to their big tobacco house on North Seventh street.

All other buyers are active and are purchasing all they can get. Tobacco is high in order, too much so, especially for the lower grades, and the farmers have gotten the right idea and are selling their tobacco as fast as they can bring it to market.

The Union Services.

The largest congregation that has yet been recorded was present at the union services at the First Methodist church last Sunday night. The church was practically full. The sermon was preached by Kyle Brooks, of the First Christian church, who took as his text, Matthew 5:48: "Ye therefore shall be perfect as your Heavenly Father is perfect." Some splendid music was rendered by the large choir. Next Sunday night the union services, according to program, will be held at the First Christian church and H. W. Brooks, of the First Methodist church, will preach the sermon. As this week is being observed throughout the nation as "Father and Son" week, Rev. Brooks will take as his subject, "What Our Community Owes Its Boys and—What the Boys Owe the Community." There ought to be a packed house present. The union services are growing in interest and power each week, and are exerting a most wholesome influence upon the community. "In unity there is strength, in division there is weakness." Attend the services next Sunday night.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1918

A Jasper over in Trig county last week took occasion to air his views through the columns of the Cadiz Record in opposition to a county farm agent and we have just finished reading his balderdash. He devotes most of his space to bellyaching about farm products not being high enough and like most every other damned jackass on earth wants more laws passed to protect his class in their profiteering demands. Such gluttons as he would place the price of bread beyond the reach of every human being on earth who did not produce wheat with which to make it, and if the bills of Trig county were made of butter and he owned the outlay he would refuse an orphan enough to grease a crust of bread. When such cattle as this fall into hell the angels of heaven will get an odor of singed hair and roasting hide, and molten lava will trickle down the walls of the pit for a week following his plunge into the place of his final reward.

Mr. Hopkins was born on the east side of this county in 1847, where he lived till 1900, at which time he moved with his family to this city, making this city his home till death. He was married in 1869 to Miss Mary E. Hopkins, and to this union were born five children, two of whom survive their father. He professed religion and joined the Methodist church in 1873, in which he lived a true, consecrated life till death. To know him was to love him. I am sure the spirit of Christ has never been manifested more fully by anyone than by this man of God. The final call came to Brother Hopkins at the ripe age of three score and ten years, caused by erysipelas. Besides a wife, Mrs. M. E. Hopkins, one son, Delton Hopkins, of Fulton, Ky.; one daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Nanny, of Memphis, Tenn.; three brothers, Ben, Henry and George Hopkins, all this county, and five grand children mourn his death. He is gone. He can not come to us but we can go to him if we live as he did. If we live right we are sure to die right as he did. After funeral services conducted by Rev. J. The burial took place in the Fulton graveyard.

TRUTH TRIUMPHS

Murray Citizens Testify for the Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of a Murray citizen, given in his own words, should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. "If you suffer from backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, urinary disorders or any form of kidney ills, use a tested kidney medicine."

A Murray citizen tells of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Could you demand more convincing proof of merit? R. S. Miller, prop. of repair shop, Poplar St., Murray, says: "Some five years ago my kidneys troubled me. They acted too frequently at times and the secretions burned in passage. My back pained me occasionally and caused me considerable annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me and I have not had to use any kidney medicine since."

Camp Taylor, Ky., Feb. 7. Mr. O. J. Jennings, Murray.

Dear Friend:—As I have been deprived the privilege of reading the dear old Ledger for some time I thought I would let you hear from me and ask you to send me the paper.

The Calloway boys have been pretty well scattered over the camp. Some eight or ten are still in the depot brigade and some are in the 336th Infantry. As far as I know at present all are well, and liking army life better each day.

We are furnished with plenty of entertainment by the Y. M. C. A. and the camp theaters. I can truly say that the Y. M. C. A. is doing a great work for the boys in uniform here. I also say and truthfully anyone wanting to contribute to the needs of the boys can not place the money to any better cause than to the Y. M. C. A. or Red Cross.

Mr. Jennings, I feel that I have hit it lucky. I was first a private in the 79th Co.; then made a mechanic, which paid $36; then I was transferred to headquarters 2nd qr. 159th Depot brigade as a mechanic. I did all the carpenters work they had for me to do, and through January I was used as a general "nunkie," carrying orders and moping, scouring, sweeping and some office work. But always took my time, took lots of bunk fatigue. I am now cooking for three officers and eight men of the detachment, and like it fairly well.

Since I was examined before the county board I have gained 29 pounds, so you see I have had plenty of good, wholesome food. We also have plenty cover and clothing to keep us warm, so army life is not so bad as a lot of us thought it would be.

I hear that the boys who are to come in this month will be as

Build Now!

Buying lumber at this time is the best investment you ever made. There are several very good reasons.

Unusual conditions make it possible to get twice as much lumber as you did in 1914 for the same amount of farm produce.

Investment in lumber and the placing of new buildings on your property will increase its value out of all proportion to the lumber's cost.

Lumber---the world's greatest building material---has advanced much less than any other material used for building.

Double value can be had without sacrificing quality---and the lumber of today is better than ever before.

Nothing is more important than conservation at this time, and all grain, stock and implements must be properly sheltered.

Opportunity---such as you have NOW---may never come again. After the war lumber prices may be higher.

We are giving you this information in the right spirit---with a desire to see you buy when you can get more for your farm produce.

Billy Sunday's Prayer

The following prayer was delivered by Evangelist Billy Sunday in the house of representatives at Washington on January 10. It is such a departure from the "cut and dried" prayer offered by the chaplains that it makes exceptionally good reading.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee and rejoice that through faith in Thee and Thy word this government was built upon that foundation.

We thank Thee that the compact signed in the cabin of the Mayflower by our ancestors was for democracy, liberty, freedom and the right to worship Thee according to the dictates of our own conscience. We thank Thee that as a nation we have the courage to proclaim to the world our continued belief in Thee by stamping on our coins the inscription "In God We Trust."

We thank Thee that we are Americans and live beneath the protecting folds of the Stars and Stripes. We thank Thee that Thou canst look over the battlements of glory on our land and see that there is not one stain on any star or stripe in Old Glory. We thank Thee for our happy homes. We thank Thee for our wives and little ones. We thank Thee for the fruitful trees and bountiful harvests. We thank Thee that as a nation we have never gone to bed hungry or scraped the bottom of our flour barrel, and we pray Thy continued mercy and blessing upon us. We pray Thee that Thou wilt forgive our transgressions and blot out all our iniquities.

Then knowest, O Lord, that we are in a life-and-death struggle with one of the most infamous, vile, greedy, avaricious, bloodthirsty, sensual and vicious nations that has ever disgraced the pages of history. Thou knowest that Germany has drawn from the eyes of mankind enough tears to make another sea; that she has drawn blood enough to red-dens every wave upon that sea; that she has drawn enough groans and shrieks from the hearts of men, women and children to make another mountain. We pray Thee that Thou wilt make bare Thou mighty arm and beat back that great pack of hungry, wolfish Huns, whose fangs drip with blood and gore. We pray Thee that the stars in their courses and the winds and waves may fight against them.

We pray Thee that Thou wilt bless our beloved president and give him strength of mind and body and courage of heart for his arduous duties in these sorrow-laden, staggering days. We pray Thee to bless the secretary of state, the secretary of war and the secretary of the navy, and bless, we pray Thee, the naval strategy board. Bless, we pray Thee, Lord, the cowboys at the head of the range. Bless the men across the sea, "somewhere in France," and bless those protecting our transports, loaded to the water's edge with men and provisions. Bless our boys at home who are in the cantonments. Bless, we pray Thee, the senate and house of representatives and give them wisdom and strength, for they seem to have come into the kingdom for such a time as this. And Lord, may every man, woman and child, from Maine to California and from Minnesota to Louisiana, stand up to the last ditch and be glad and willing to suffer and endure until final victory shall come. Bless our allies and may victory be ours. And in Thy own time and in Thy own way, we pray Thee that Thou wilt release the white-winged dove of peace until Thou shalt dispel the storm clouds that hang lowering over this sin-cursed, blood-soaked and sorrowing world; and when it is all over we will uncover our heads and lift our faces to the heavens and sing with a new meaning

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of Liberty,
Of thee I sing.

And the praise shall be to Thee forever, through Jesus Christ, Amen.

TOOK TO WATER JUST AS NATURALLY AS A DUCK

The Mayfield Messenger of last week contained the following:

"Bro. T. B. Thompson, of Murray, Lee Bennett, east of town, and J. W. Smith, rural carrier on Route 1 of Mayfield, are examples of men who will do things worth while."

"Bro. Thompson preaches for the Bethel congregation, east of town on the Backsburg road, on fourth Sundays this year. Last Saturday the weather was so bad the brethren were not looking for him, but late in the afternoon, Saturday he motored in by Mayfield and on out to L. N. Gray's home, accompanied by another young preacher, Bro. Curd."

"Sunday morning he was to convey Bro. Curd back to Mayfield to meet an appointment and thence back to Bethel to meet his own. When he reached Mayfield creek he found the water and ice so deep that he had to back out, and after he returned to Mr. Gray's he learned that he couldn't cross Vulton creek bottom in his car."

"Mr. Gray had only one horse with ice shoes on, and his saddle being loaned out, Bro. Thompson got on the horse bareback and met his appointment."

"Well, Mrs. Gray supposed, as the preacher couldn't get out either way, that she would go to entertain them until Monday and was making her arrangements for a 2:30 dinner. But when the preacher got back he informed her that he had an appointment at Lynn Grove at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and one at Murray in the evening and had no time for her 2:30 dinner, so with a little sausage and biscuit he started for Murray by way of Mayfield, supposing that the creek had run down."

The Lord was seeing after the preacher and he got his monthly allowance. A stalwart young negro man who lives on Lee Bennett's farm came along and wanted a ride across the water, and of course the preacher took him in. They made it part of the way through and stuck tight and fast in the ice and water. "Well! well!" said the preacher, "How we are to get out of here I don't know." "I know," said the negro. "Well, how?" asked the preacher. "Mr. Lee Bennett has got a big team of mules with ice shoes on, an' he can pull yer out." "What will you take to wade back and send him down here?" "Fifty cents," said the negro. "You are traded with," said the preacher, "and here is a quarter for good measure. Get busy." In a little while the second 'hero' was on the stage, and the preacher was soon landed in Mayfield, where he left his car and took the train for his next appointment.

RURAL LIFE CONFERENCE AT STATE NORMAL IN FEB.

The second Rural Life Conference will be held at the Western Kentucky State Normal School, Bowling Green, Ky., on February 14th to the 22d. The program, which many people last year declared to be the greatest ever offered in Kentucky, will be even more attractive and extensive this year.

Among the many prominent speakers who will appear on the program are Ex President William Howard Taft, Charles Edward Russell, the noted socialist who was a member of the recent American commission sent to Russia, and Lieut. Paul Perigord, of the French army, who tells a thrilling story of his life in the trenches. A representative of the national bureau of agriculture, Dean Cooper, new head of the agricultural department at our state university, and many of the prominent agriculturists and all members of the various war boards of the state will also be present and take part

Telephone Courtesy

The people who get the greatest amount of good out of their telephone are those who talk over it as though face to face.

Courtesy smooths out difficulties and promotes the promptest possible connections.

The operators of the BELL System are trained to be patient and polite under all circumstances, but they will do better work if they meet with patience and politeness on the part of the telephone users.

The fact that you cannot see the operator or the other party should not cause you to overlook this. The best results come through the practice of mutual courtesy.

Camp Taylor, Ky., Feb. 7. Mr. O. J. Jennings, Murray. Dear Friend:—As I have been deprived the privilege of reading the dear old Ledger for some time I thought I would let you hear from me and ask you to send me the paper. The Calloway boys have been pretty well scattered over the camp. Some eight or ten are still in the depot brigade and some are in the 336th Infantry. As far as I know at present all are well, and liking army life better each day.

We are furnished with plenty entertainment by the Y. M. C. A. and the camp theaters. I can truly say that the Y. M. C. A. is doing a great work for the boys in uniform here. I also say and truthfully anyone wanting to contribute to the needs of the boys can not place the money to any better cause than to the Y. M. C. A. or Red Cross.

Mr. Jennings, I feel that I have hit it lucky. I was first a private in the 79th Co.; then made a mechanic, which paid $36; then I was transferred to headquarters 2nd qr. 159th Depot brigade as a mechanic. I did all the carpenters work they had for me to do, and through January I was used as a general "funkey," carrying orders and moping, scouring, sweeping and some office work. But always took my time, took lots of bunk fatigue. I am now cooking for three officers and eight men of the detachment, and like it fairly well.

Since I was examined before the county board I have gained 29 pounds, so you see I have had plenty of good, wholesome food. We also have plenty cover and clothing to keep us warm, so army life is not so bad as a lot of us thought it would be.

I hear that the boys who are to come in this month will be as

Lumber---the world's greatest building material---has advanced much less than any other material used for building.

Double value can be had without sacrificing quality---and the lumber of today is better than ever before.

Nothing is more important than conservation at this time, and all grain, stock and implements must be properly sheltered.

Oppportunity---such as you have NOW---may never come again. After the war lumber prices may be higher.

We are giving you this information in the right spirit---with a desire to see you buy when you can get more for your farm produce.

Billy Sunday's Prayer

The following prayer was delivered by Evangelist Billy Sunday in the house of representatives at Washington on January 10. It is such a departure from the "cut and dried" prayer offered by the chaplains that it makes exceptionally good reading.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee and rejoice that through faith in Thee and Thy word this government was built upon that foundation.

We thank Thee that the compact signed in the cabin of the Mayflower by our ancestors was for democracy, liberty, freedom and the right to worship Thee according to the dictates of our own conscience. We thank Thee that as a nation we have the courage to proclaim to the world our continued belief in Thee by stamping on our coins the inscription "In God We Trust." We thank Thee that we are Americans and live beneath the stars and stripes of the stars and stripes.

We thank Thee that Thou canst look over the battle fields of glory on our land and see that there is no man in our army or navy who is not a Christian. We thank Thee for our brave soldiers and sailors who are fighting for our freedom and the freedom of the world.

There that as a nation we have never gone to bed hungry or scraped the bottom of our flour barrel, and we pray Thy continued mercy and blessing upon us. We pray Thee that Thou wilt forgive our transgressions and blot out all our iniquities.

Thou knowest, O Lord, that we are in a life-and-death struggle with one of the most infamous, vile, greedy, malicious, bloodthirsty, sensual and vicious nations that has ever disgraced the pages of history. Thou knowest that Germany has drawn from the ocean the blood of millions of our people. Thou knowest that she has drawn blood enough to red-dye every wave upon that sea that she has drawn enough groans and shrieks from the hearts of men, women and children to make another mountain. We pray Thee that Thou wilt make bare Thy mighty arm and beat back that great pack of hungry, wolfish Huns, whose fangs drip with blood and gore. We pray Thee that the stars in their courses and the winds and waves may fight against them.

We pray Thee that Thou wilt bless our brave president and give him strength of mind and across the sea. "Somewhere in France," and bless those protecting our transports, loaded to the water's edge with men and provisions. Bless our boys at home who are in the cantonments. Bless, we pray Thee, the senate and house of representatives and give them wisdom and strength, for they seem to have come into the kingdom for such a time as this. And Lord, may every man, woman and child, from Maine to California and from Minnesota to Louisiana, stand up to the last ditch and be glad and willing to suffer and endure until final victory shall come. Bless our allies, and may victory be ours. And in Thy own time and in Thy own way we pray Thee that Thou wilt release the white-winged dove of peace until Thou shalt dispel the storm clouds that hang lowering over this sin-cursed, blood-soaked and sorrowing world; and when it is all over we will uncover our heads and lift our faces to the heavens and sing with a new meaning.

My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing.

And the praise shall never cease, For thee, O God, our Father, Amen.

TOOK TO WATER JUST AS NATURALLY AS A DUCK

The Mayfield Messenger of last week contained the following:

"Bro. T. B. Thompson, of Murray, Lee Bennett, east of town, and J. W. Smith, rural carrier on Route 1 of Mayfield, are examples of men who will do things worth while."

"Bro. Thompson preaches for the Bethel congregation, east of town on the Backusburg road, on fourth Sundays this year. Last Saturday the weather was so hot the brethren were not looking for him, but late in the afternoon Saturday he motored by Mayfield and on out to T. B. Gray's home, accompanied by another young preacher, Bro. Curd."

"Sunday morning" he was to convey Bro. Curd back to Mayfield to meet an appointment and thence back to Bethel to meet his own. When he reached Mayfield creek he found the water back so deep that he had to back out, and after he returned to Mr. Gray's he learned that the water had crossed Vinton creek, but not in his car."

Mr. Gray had only one horse and his shoes were so worn and his saddle being lashed on the Thompson's car that he had to back out."

ments for a 2:30 dinner. But when the preacher got back he informed her that he had an appointment at Lynn Grove at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and one at Murray in the evening and had no time for her 3:30 dinner, so with a little sausage and biscuit he started for Murray by way of Mayfield, supposing that the creek had run down.

"The Lord was seeing after the preacher and he got his monthly allowance. A stalwart young negro man who lives on Lee Bennett's farm came along and wanted a ride across the water, and of course the preacher took him in. They made it part of the way through and stuck tight and fast in the ice and water. 'Well! well!' said the preacher, 'How we are to get out of here I don't know.' 'I know,' said the negro. 'Well, how?' asked the preacher. 'Mr. Lee Bennett has got a big team of mules with ice shoes on, and he can pull you out.' 'What will you take to wade back and send him down here?' 'Fifty cents,' said the negro. 'You are traded with,' said the preacher, 'and here is a quarter for good measure. Get busy.' In a little while the second 'hero' was on the stage, and the preacher was soon landed in Mayfield, where he left his car and took the train for his next appointment."

RURAL LIFE CONFERENCE AT STATE NORMAL IN FEB.

The second Rural Life Conference will be held at the Western Kentucky State Normal School, Bowling Green, Ky., on February 19th to the 23rd. The program, which many people last year declared to be the greatest ever offered in Kentucky, will be even more attractive and extensive this year.

Among the many prominent speakers who will appear on the program are Ex President William Howard Taft, Charles Edward Russell, the noted socialist who was a member of the recent American commission sent to Russia, and Lieut. Paul Perigord, of the French army, who tells a thrilling story of his life in the trenches. A representative of the national bureau of agriculture, Dean Cooper, now head of the agricultural department at our state university, and many of the prominent agriculturists and all members of the various war boards of the state will also be present and take part

The people who get the greatest amount of good out of their telephone are those who talk over it as though face to face.

Courtesy smooths out difficulties and promotes the promptest possible connections.

The operators of the BELL System are trained to be patient and polite under all circumstances, but they will do better work if they meet with patience and politeness on the part of the telephone users.

The fact that you cannot see the operator or the other party should not cause you to overlook this. The best results come through the practice of mutual courtesy.
