Paging Mr. Patterson

Dr. F. H. R. Potter was doing the reading of the pastor for the morning service at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday. He was in charge of the opening of the service and the reading of the announcements. He also directed the singing of the hymns and the singing of the anthems. He then introduced the preacher for the morning service, Mr. Edward Kinney, who preached on the text: "The Kingdom of God is within you." The sermon was well received by the congregation.

Mr. Patterson, this is a final appeal for your assistance. If you can help, please contact the police department immediately. There is a serious situation unfolding that requires your immediate attention.

Mrs. M. A. Harris is doing fine. She is recovering from her recent illness.

Mrs. J. G. Piantt is improving. She is recovering from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alton, of Hazard, were visiting in town yesterday. They are scheduled to attend the Christmas program at the church Sunday night.

Mr. Edward Dunn of Hazard, was held to the grand jury yesterday on a charge of being in the possession of a stolen automobile. He was held on a $1,000 bond.

Late Sunday, the elderly couple, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Choate, were in the squad car which was turned home after visiting their daughter in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mullins, of Hazard, were in the squad car which was turned home after visiting their daughter in New York City.
