And I said in my heart, All men are liars.

Now let the whole country join in the refrain, "Everybody lies but Roosevelt."

SPY VENT ROOSEVELT THINKS OF HARRIMAN.

By W. H. R. Washington, D. C.

Harrison has no conception of what is lawful and just. He has not met a man who has not been known to him. He has not met a man who has not been known to him, but he has been known to them. He has been known to them, and has been known to them, but they have known him.

HARRIMAN'S LIST OF LIARS.

E. H. Harriman, Delaware Silver, Mr. Porter, D. C., John W. Dudley, Wallingford, C. H. James, Donald W. Blaine, Mr. Whittaker, Mr. Whittaker, Mr. Whittaker, Mr. Whittaker.

MR. ROOSEVELT.

Mr. Roosevelt is a fine fellow. The only thing wrong with him is that he is a little too cautious.

PRESIDENT REEVES AND DRUGGIST.

Mr. Reeves and Mr. Kennedy did not make a drugstore deal, but a deal of more importance. The drugstore was a mere incident.

HARRIMAN'S FRIENDS.

Mr. Harriman is a fine fellow. He has a deep understanding of the work of the government. He has a deep understanding of the work of the government, and is a great friend of the government.

HARRIMAN'S MISCHIEF.

Mr. Harriman's mischief is not confined to the political world. He has been a great deal of mischief in the business world.

HARRIMAN'S LETTER.

Mr. Harriman's letter is not of importance. It is merely a letter of thanks for a loan.

THE LAW OFFICE.

The law office of Mr. Harriman is not very large. It is merely a small office.

HARRIMAN'S SMUGGLING.

Mr. Harriman's smuggling is not of much importance. It is merely a small act.

HARRIMAN'S SLEIGHT OF HAND.

Mr. Harriman's sleight of hand is not of much importance. It is merely a small trick.

HARRIMAN'S CRIME.

Mr. Harriman's crime is not of much importance. It is merely a small offense.

HARRIMAN'S MISTAKES.

Mr. Harriman's mistakes are not of much importance. They are merely small errors.

HARRIMAN'S DECEPTION.

Mr. Harriman's deception is not of much importance. It is merely a small deceit.

HARRIMAN'S INFLUENCE.

Mr. Harriman's influence is not of much importance. It is merely a small influence.

HARRIMAN'S POWER.

Mr. Harriman's power is not of much importance. It is merely a small power.

HARRIMAN'S PATRONAGE.

Mr. Harriman's patronage is not of much importance. It is merely a small patronage.

HARRIMAN'S CRITICS.

Mr. Harriman's critics are not of much importance. They are merely small critics.

HARRIMAN'S ENEMIES.

Mr. Harriman's enemies are not of much importance. They are merely small enemies.

HARRIMAN'S FRIENDS.

Mr. Harriman's friends are not of much importance. They are merely small friends.

HILL RETIRES AS HEAD OF GREAT NORTHERN'S 21 TOWBOAT IN THIS PLACE.

Change in Operating Department and Administration Very Proprietary.

St. Paul, Minn., Apr. 14, 1907.—E. W. Hill has resigned as president of the Great Northern railroad to be succeeded by T. H. Bankhead as vice-president. The following statement was read to the board of directors by Mr. Hill: 'At this time the corporation was formed by a group of stockholders in the State of Wisconsin. Mr. Hill was elected president in 1890 and Frank E. McGraw was first vice-president. Mr. McGraw will direct the operations of the operating staff.

The officers of the board remain as follows: E. W. Hill, president; W. B. Milam, vice-president; and W. H. A. Victor, secretary and treasurer.

E. W. Hill is dead in his fifty-first year. The son of a pioneer of Wisconsin, he was born in 1855. He was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1875 and entered the employ of the Great Northern railroad in 1876. He was a member of the board of directors from 1885 until his death.

The death of Mr. Hill will be deeply felt by the company and its employees, and his loss will be sorely felt by the friends and relatives who knew him. He was a man of sound judgment and firm character, and his death is a great loss to the railroad and to the community in which he lived.

division.

Rev. J. E. Morley, the new pastor for the First Christian church, is expected here to-morrow. He has been located for quite some time past in the eastern part of the state, and is a member of the Kentucky Christian Advocate. He is expected here to-morrow, and will spend the week in looking over the city and the country.

Ogilvie St. Co., $15.38; The Cork Manufacturing company, $10; James L. McDowell, $2.50. These are made quarter by quarter, but when they are held back under the law, they are to be sold by the county auditor to the highest bidder. The auditor will have twenty days in which to make the sale, and he will then report the result of the sale to the county judge.

J. H. Turner, of the local branch of the Republican party, has been appointed by the state board of elections to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. W. H. Davis, in the house of representatives. Mr. Turner is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and has been a member of the board for several years.

NEW PASTOR COMES TODAY

Rev. Dr. Parish, of Milwaukee, has taken charge of the work of the First Christian church here, and is expected to arrive today. He has been located in the eastern part of the state for quite some time past, and is a member of the Kentucky Christian Advocate. He is expected here to-morrow, and will spend the week in looking over the city and the country.

The probabilities are that the first two weeks of the tournament will be played on this court. The weather is expected to be clear and sunny, and the conditions will be favorable for a good match. The matches will be played in the afternoon, and the games will be played in the morning.

President Anthony List and the other members of the board of directors of the bank have decided to open a new branch in the city. The new branch will be located in the building next door to the present office, and will be open for business on March 1st. The board of directors has also decided to increase the capital of the bank to $500,000. This will enable the bank to make loans on more than one half of the amount of its capital.

THE TINY TIDOR

By Olive Preston.

I like to fish on the sandy beach,
And wade the waters as they sparkle.
Amusing the ides to rise.

I think they must be very strong,
And very merry, too.

If it's so, then it's not any use.
This morning when I came out to dig,
The beach was all alight and bright
And wade the waters as they sparkle.

Here's a story that the birds sang:
As the meal was finished, Clarence wanted very much to ask some tunes of place, the fish had been going
