Five-Alarm New York Blaze Kills At Least Eight While 38 Others Buried By Debris

Ice-House Wall Collapsed, Fell Across Tenement

FIRE CAUSE UNKNOWN

New York, Dec. 12.—(AP)—At least eight persons were dead and 38 others, including children, were believed buried under tons of debris following a five-alarm fire early today in an abandoned ice house on Manhattan's upper West side, which caused a five-story wall to collapse, crumpling an adjoining tenement building.

Police and firemen, digging frantically against time, removed four bodies from the wreckage and said they had sighted four more. Nearby hospitals admitted more than a score of injured. Ambulances were rushed to the scene and a first aid station was set up.

The identified dead are Frank Moorehead, 37-year-old fireman; Anthony Biancardi, 11; Daniel Corrado, 25, and Thomas Phillips, 70. All except the fireman were residents of the tenement building.

Fire Marshal Thomas P. Brophy said the cause of the fire was not known. A small rubbish fire had been extinguished the day before in the ice plant, located at 464 West 18th street.

The noise of the toppling walls caused first reports to list the disaster as an explosion.

The pile of debris from the tenement was flattened, the other wreckage by the force of the collapse, which virtually sheared the building in half.

Debris was piled up in a narrow alleyway between a tenement and a building over the debris to administer last night as two debris hit into the wreckage.

Police pulled from the wreckage a 3-year-old boy, who was found dead. He had been found and shot out by his brother and sister. He said his brother and sister were killed.

Side door, 20, also was pulled out. He guided his rescuers by shouting and throwing stones and rubble. His wife, brother and two little daughters still were missing under the rubble.

Special emergency crews tearing at the wreckage with bars, picks and bare hands came across the pitiful remnants of gaily wrapped Christmas packages, holly and bits of tinsel.

One priest, the Rev. David Regan, climbed a ladder to reach a broken body and gave last rites. He also saw the legs and feet of two others protruding from the wreckage.

Mayor William O'Dwyer rushed to the scene and promised an investigation. Crowds watched rescue efforts from nearby rooftops and police roped off nearby streets.

Among those listed as missing was a mother, Mrs. Edith Dirica, 31, and three children, Charles, 18, Margaret, 5, and Mary, six months.

The collapse came 15 minutes after the fire broke out at 12:10 a. m. Charles Whitcomb, nearby resident, said the "falling wall" "felt like an earthquake" and was followed by "terrible screaming of children."

After the collapse, firemen heard frantic cries from the ruins and were able to drag out a number of victims.

Burley Price Hits New High

Yesterday's Average For 10,766,916 Pounds Was $41.51, Ag. Dep't. Says

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 12.—(AP)—The State Department of Agriculture reported that 10,766,916 pounds of burley tobacco were sold on 22 of Kentucky's 23 counties, an average price of $41.51 a hundredweight, highest of the season. Receipts amounted to $448,091.97.

No sale was held at Paducah and reports on sales at Harrodsburg were not received, the department said.

Yesterday's average was 67 cents higher than that of last Friday, the last day that burley auctions were held before a two-day sales holiday was called by the burley auction warehouse association because of the soft coal strike which ended last Saturday. Sales Friday totaled 12,428,000 pounds.

Highest average of the day—$43.11—was reported yesterday at Danville, where 462,174 pounds sold for $213,566.87. The lowest average was reported at Mayfield, where 194,032 pounds sold at an average of $33.57.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture reported that average prices for a large number of grades offered on the one sucker tobacco markets from Dec. 2 to 10 were steady to slightly lower compared with the previous week's averages. Most of the declines were from 50 cents to 11 cents.

Gross sales for the period, the department added, amounted to 4,159,354 pounds at an average of $33.14 a hundredweight.

Waterfield Is Choice In Poll

First Replies In Survey Of 525 County Officials Rank Him As Nominee

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 12.—(AP)—First replies in a poll of 525 Kentucky Democratic county officials show that Harry Lee Waterfield of Clinton, publisher of the Fulton Daily Leader, is the first choice for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination next fall.

Other choices among the 277 replies received, include: Ben Kilgore, Franklin, second; Rep. Earle C. Clements, Morganfield, third; and Tom Underwood, Lexington, fourth.

Waterfield, who served as speaker of the House of Representatives during the 1946 session of the state legislature, received 92 votes. Kilgore received 72, Clements 66 and Underwood 19.

The poll, being conducted by a Frankfort Democrat holding a responsible public office, was launched Nov. 30.

Gibson Trustee Faces Charges

Grand Jury Indictment Says He Embezzled Funds During Terms In Office

TRENTON, TENN.—Felix Collins, former trustee of Gibson county, has been indicted by the county grand jury on four counts of embezzlement.

The indictment charges that he used a total of $75,118.93 during the year he served as deputy trustee and the four years he served as trustee. He left office August 31.

Judge Lyle Cherry set a $5000 appearance bond for the hearing at the April term of court.

The indictment came a few hours before State Comptroller James DeLong reported that state auditors had found a shortage of $75,118.93 on the books of the Gibson county trustee. The audit was begun about two months ago on the request of the present trustee, John L. Hudson, World War II veteran who defeated Collins for the office in August.

Jobless Pay Checks To Vets To Be Mailed Today

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Kentucky veterans drawing jobless benefits won't have to wait much longer for their money, the state unemployment compensation commission announced today, for a supply of 180,000 blank checks has been received.

There are 42,000 ex G. I.'s on the rolls here and 144,000 checks had been delayed, the commission said. Some of the veterans will get from eight to 12 checks at once. They should be in the mails before tomorrow.

Southern Moonshiners Aren't Type To Quit Just Because Of Hard Times, Alcohol Tax Unit Says

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Moonshiners of the southern states, it appears, do not give up so easily in hard times as do the illicit distillers of other sections.

Sugar rationing, aiding and abetting the "revenuers" since May 1942, has made things tougher for the moonshiner.

Some 94 states during October had no stills seized by Federal investigators, an alcohol tax unit report showed today.

In contrast, 477 out of the 538 stills seized in the entire country during the month were in eight southern states.

The southern states have always had more illicit stills, an official said, and when the seizure and arrest figures for the nation drop, the concentration in the south becomes greater.

Georgia had more stills seized, property taken and arrests during October than any other state, with 119 stills seized, 135 arrests and $21,941 worth of property taken.

Other state figures: North Carolina, 86 stills, $16,434 property value, and 86 arrests; Alabama, 66 stills, $10,723 property, and 65 arrests; South Carolina, 98 stills, $12,093 property, and 43 arrests; Virginia, 45 stills, $9,319 property, and 40 arrests; Tennessee, 32 stills, $7,428

UN Committee Approves Half Arms Cut Plan

Add New Clause On Peaceful Use Of Atomic Energy

GROUP ACTS QUICKLY

New York, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A United Nations sub-committee with an unexpected burst of speed quickly approved the first half of a draft plan on world arms reduction today after voting two amendments.

The new provisions injected into the arms plan:

1. Added a requirement that any program adopted by the security council must be approved by a special session of the 54-nation General Assembly in addition to a stipulation already accepted that it must be ratified by individual U.N. member states.

2. Laid down a specific condition that any arms reduction program must provide for the control of atomic energy "to the extent necessary to ensure its use only for peaceful purposes."

Both provisions were offered by Canada and accepted with little debate, the first by a 10 to 9 vote and the second unanimously.

Meanwhile, the General Assembly in plenary session debated a resolution, already approved by the 54-nation political committee, recommending that all member states immediately recall their ambassadors and ministers from Franco Spain.

Polish delegate Oscar Lange sought to have the Spanish debate postponed because of light attendance at the session but was voted down 21 to 18.

The sub-committee on arms reduction drove ahead with its work, and a report on the work of the committee was prepared to be presented to the U.N. General Assembly in New York "until Christmas 1946" if necessary to break the stalemate over the arms reduction and troop census plans.

Fulbright Still Asks Resignation

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Senator J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) credited President Truman today with a "very good job" in handling the coal strike crisis but clung to his recommendation that the Chief Executive resign in favor of a Republican.

Despite a barrage of criticism from both fellow Democrats and Republicans, the 41-year-old lawmaker said he still is convinced that Mr. Truman should step down "for the good of the country and for the good of his party."

CIO Demands Said Unjust

Industry Leaders Say Insistence In Pay Hike May Cause New Strikes

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Industry leaders declared today that CIO's fresh insistence that wages can be raised without boosting prices may lead to "another series of serious strikes."

They recalled the CIO had employed the same argument in pressing its initial postwar wage demands in the steel, automobile and other heavy industries last spring but that prices had gone up following the wage increases.

In preparing for a new round of pay demands, CIO President Philip Murray said yesterday CIO unions will emerge as their "guidepost" a survey contented that present industry profits levels will permit wages to be raised up to 25 percent without hitting prices or cutting profits much below wartime peaks.

This survey was made for the CIO by Robert R. Nathan, consulting economist and former leading government economic planner and war agency official.

Nathan cautioned that unless wages are increased promptly or prices reduced sharply, lagging purchasing power on the part of workers may plunge the nation into a depression.

The Nathan report drew the assertion from Walter B. Weisenburger, executive vice president of the national association of manufacturers, that it means "an invitation for a new round of wage demands, possibly followed by another series of serious strikes."

A similar reaction came from George Romney, general manager of the automobile manufacturers association.

Strikes Have Delayed War's End, President Truman Charges; Says, War Agencies Will Be Revamped

NAREB Urges Control Death

Real Estate Man Thinks Junking Of Controls On Housing Is Necessary

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Calvin K. Snyder, speaking for the National Association of Real Estate Boards, told senators today that immediate junking of all housing controls will bring a "decided increase" in home building within six months.

He said his conclusion is based on an NAREB survey in 157 cities in 36 states. Snyder is secretary of the Association's Washington Committee. He testified before the Committee on Small Business Committee.

Another witness, vice president George M. Fuller of the National Lumber Manufacturers Association, said "production of enough lumber to supply the housing program no longer is a problem." Fuller also urged that controls on building materials be removed.

Snyder said the NAREB survey disclosed that "the complexities of government regulations price ceilings and rent control on new residential construction and a universal lack of materials are all factors in retarding building of homes."

He added that a "contributing factor is the continuation of rent control on existing dwellings."

Ninety percent of the Association's local boards, Snyder said, reported that rent controls "limit investment of private capital."

Even before hearing these witnesses, chairman Stewart (D-Tenn.) of the senate group commented to reporters that he believed "the veterans' housing program is bogging down."

Both Mead and Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) suggested that if Bilbo or his attorney had any questions they wished asked of witnesses, the questions could be presented in writing to the committee.

Opening the hearing, Chairman Mead said that the war investigating committee has "instructed us to ascertain the truth with respect to alleged transactions between a member of the senate and certain war contractors."

Chief Executive Will Send Three Messages To Republican Congress; Won't Discuss Proposed Tax Cuts

END OF WAR MEANS LOSS OF MANY POWERS

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—If it hadn't been for strikes, President Truman said today, it would have been possible to end the war emergency before now.

The Chief Executive made the flat statement, without elaboration, during questioning at a news conference in which he announced a revamping of war agencies and disclosed he intends to send three separate messages to the new Republican-controlled Congress.

The subject was brought up by a reporter who asked when the President might recommend termination of the war emergency. He declined to speculate but observed that it could have been done before this if strikes had not interrupted reconversion.

Many of the executive powers now held by the President will cease with the conclusion of the war emergency.

The Chief Executive gave only a bare outline of his forthcoming messages to congress and declined to talk about the outlook for any reduction in taxes. Some Republican leaders have advocated a tax cut, while Democratic legislative chiefs have insisted that the public debt should be paid first.

Told that the Republicans in congress were saying they would not cooperate if he makes "radical" recommendations, Mr. Truman asked, who can say what is radical?

He said his recommendations in his state of the union message would call for what he believes to be necessary for the welfare of the United States.

This message will embrace his viewpoint, he said, adding that members of congress were entitled to have them.

He refused to be drawn into a discussion of the administration's future policy toward John L. Lewis, chief of the United Mine Workers, against whom the government is waging a court fight.

Mr. Truman told questioners the Lewis matter was in the courts and he would have nothing to say about the mine workers' leader or about the recent coal strike.

"You hope the courts will follow the election returns?" One reporter pressed. Mr. Truman replied with a simple no comment.

The president said he would send three messages to congress: one on the state of the union, one on the budget and a third message based on the report to be made soon by his economic advisory "maximum employment" council.

These messages, the President said, will be sent to Capitol Hill on separate days.

Asked whether he saw any chance for reduction of taxes, the President said he did not want to discuss what recommendations he will make.

He did say, however, that he will renew his request for a merger of the armed forces as one point in his state of the union message.

Told that there had been reports he proposed to recommend modification of the War Relocation Authority Act, the President replied bluntly that nobody had a right to quote him until he made public his message to congress.

The President made public at his news conference an executive order under which he named Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming as head of a new office of Temporary Controls, which will carry on remaining functions of OPA, OWMR, the Civilian Production Administration, and the Office of Economic Stabilization.

John R. Steelman, the new Assistant to the President, has been Reconversion Director and Economic Stabilizer.

Mr. Truman at the same time named Raymond M. Foley as Housing Administrator and Frank R. Creeden as Housing Expediter, the two posts recently relinquished by Wilson W. Watt after a controversy with the RFC over loans for prefabricated housing.

In an executive order the President abolished the Wage Stabilization Board as of February 24, and the Economic Stabilization Board immediately.

The Chief Executive made it clear that he has no intention of abandoning rent controls.

Card From Prison Says, "Wish You Were Here"

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 12.—(AP)—The Christmas card received by State's Attorney John W. Curran wasn't as much of a holiday message as he thought.

The card was postmarked from the state penitentiary and bore the legend "having a very dull time. Wish you were here." It was signed by a man who can thank the prosecutor for his 10 year lease on his quarters there.

An Unpleasant Parallel

By J. M. Roberts, Jr. (Subbing for MacKenzie)
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Great Britain's trouble with Albania over the mining of Corfu channel, with resultant heavy damage to two British destroyers and the loss of 44 lives, is strangely of a pattern with the U. S.-Yugoslav row over the shooting down of American planes.

In each case Russian satellite governments have taken violent, almost hysterical action (of the British charge is true) in the guise of defending their sovereignty. Age-old principles involving the protection of peacetime travelers have been thrown out the window in insipid fashion.

If it is true that Albania deliberately and secretly mined a traditionally free channel, nobody will know what to expect next. If the mining was done for fear of what passing British ships might observe ashore, the implications would be a cause for even greater anxiety than the act itself.

In one respect the Albanian incident, aside the greater loss of life, is of greater significance than the Tito affair, for Russian control in Albania is much more direct than in Yugoslavia.

In Yugoslavia there is a communist-dominated government, conducted by Moscow-trained operatives, but one which operates with a certain degree of autonomy. Tito, instead of being merely an executive of Moscow's orders, is more of a collaborator. He follows the line to which he is well-trained, to be sure, but up to the point where he might cross the Kremlin he is his own man. Although he had Russian precedent for getting tough with American planes which flew over prohibited areas, the trouble he got into with us was essentially his own.

In Albania, on the other hand, reliable reports have it that Russians actually occupy the key position. After last year's so-called elections the United States and Britain withheld recognition of the government. The Russians, however, did not jump aboard the bandwagon. They apparently took over the reins. Russian Minister Dimitri Tchouvalov arrived last January with a staff of experts and has since then counted at least 100,000 votes for the government.

Will You Help?

Would you like to make some child happy this Christmas? It won't take much of your time, won't cost you anything.

Here's how. Give the Junior Woman's Club some toy, some piece of clothing, something that you'll never use or want, to be passed along to some underprivileged Fulton child.

It doesn't take much to gladden the heart of a child Christmas day—something you give through the Junior Woman's Club might be the only Christmas present a boy or girl here in Fulton will get. There's a big difference between one present and no present.

The club will meet next Monday to prepare gifts for the children's party, which will be held the following Thursday. They need your help in bringing Christmas cheer to children who might think there is no Santa Claus.

His Works Will Live

Thousands of friends and readers of his short stories and columns were saddened by the news of Damon Runyon's death in a New York hospital.

He was a man who got printers' ink on his hands early in life, and never lost interest in journalism and fiction-writing.

He wrote more acutely on the American scene than most of his contemporaries, and often took pleasure in debunking misconceptions of some phases of his own profession.

For instance, we recall his poking fun at Hollywood's version of the American newspaper reporter, who usually is shown streaking into the office screaming "Stop the presses." Back in his old home town of Pueblo, Colorado, Runyon once wrote, he mixed and mingled with the newspaper boys more than somewhat, and the only time he ever heard anyone shout, "Stop the presses," was when a printer's devil got his foot caught in the machinery.

Runyon had his finger on the pulse of New York, and of all America. He was a light, breezy style of writing that will be remembered and loved for many more years.

A Neat Trick

Treasury Secretary Snyder says he is ready to talk over proposed reduction of individual income taxes with Republican leaders any time they feel like it.

Some of the Grand Old Party's candidates, you remember, said in their campaign speeches this fall, and even after their election, that they had figured out how to cut taxes, balance the budget and pay on the national debt.

We don't claim to be very bright when it comes to financial matters of this kind, and would like to know how you can have more money coming into the treasury and at the same time reduce taxes. We'll venture the Fulton city council would like to have that trick explained to them, too.

OUR READERS SAY

Wilkins Ruminates

Ruminating over certain adverse criticism directed against the status quo of our dear, dear little country town in these latter days by some well-intentioned but over-eager persons, which aforeaid criticism made me feel bad that such things should be discussed thus callously in public, I, Wilkins Micawber, as well meaning a body as never in his life turned over an apple cart, herewith do declare that everything is fine and dandy.

Maybe we do have some little problems, but for that matter who does not? It were better that these things be talked about behind closed doors and drawn curtains, and not exposed to curious and profane ears. Like the family skeleton, they are really not so bad, and were best kept in the closet.

Our streets may be dirty, but it is such nice dirt. Our finances may be low, but then no one is tempted to run away with money. Our traffic and parking situation may be bad, but if we get to town early enough we can find a place to park. Our creek may overflow, but it affords an interesting spectacle and the children have so much fun wading in the water.

I say Fulton is one of the best little country towns in the world. What can they be thinking about who say that our little town is dirty? Don't we use one million gallons of water a day? Any town that uses that much water is bound to be clean.

Be patient, friends, everything will turn out for the best.

Yours,
"Wilkins Micawber."

Molasses Pays Off In McCracken Co.

Borghum molasses added approximately $100,000 to farm incomes in McCracken county in 1945, according to a survey made by County Agent Joe Hurt. Between 125 and 150 farmers grew 300 acres of cane which produced between $5,000 and $9,000 gallons of molasses. Most of it sold for $2 to $2.50 a gallon.

P. H. Keeling, 78 years old, stirred off 65 gallons a day during the cooking season. He has made sorghum every year for 32 years.

Southern Pacific Calls Tax Report, Methods In Error

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 12—(AP)—The Southern Pacific Railroad has charged that the state tax commission's tentative $873,000,000 assessment on the company's non-operating intangibles is "erroneous."

The company charged in a rebuttal brief filed with the commission yesterday that the methods recommended by special counsel for the commonwealth also are wrong.

The tentative assessment on the road's stocks and bonds would yield more than $4,000,000 annually in taxes, but state attorneys have contended the transportation system should be taxed $2,500,000 annually on its intangibles and its franchise.

Get Big Pay? Boss May Cuss

Movie Director Says He Was Unnerved By Boss' Ungentlemanly Epithets

Los Angeles, Dec. 12—(AP)—Federal court records indicated today that a four-figure weekly salary is a qualification for the privilege of getting cussed out by your boss in a Hollywood film studio.

Harry Cohn, top Columbia executive, was defending the studio yesterday against Director Charles Vidor's suit to breach his contract. Vidor claims that Cohn's profane tirades unnerved and unsettled him, and he wants to wash out his agreement reportedly paying him $20,000 a week—even while he's testifying against his boss.

"I never called Mr. Vidor a 'Cover Girl,'" Vidor's first big success, Cohn testified. "Before that he made cheap pictures."

In those days, Vidor's salary was $250 a week.

Cohn readily admitted that on occasion he addressed his ace director with blue-tinted adjective, as Vidor charged.

"O yes, I used to call him a Hungarian," Cohn testified with a wave of his arm.

"But we were good friends. That's the way I expressed my friendship."

U. S. Judge Ben Harrison looked a little puzzled. "Did he express his the same way?" he asked.

"Sure. Same way. That's the kind of relationship we had," Cohn replied.

That Vidor "could call me anything he liked," and that at studio luncheons everyone was free to "bawl out the boss" (himself) without fear of reprisal.

Urges Officials To Take Positive Constitution Stand

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 12—(AP)—H. Clyde Reeves, former state revenue commissioner, yesterday urged Kentucky county officials to take a positive stand for or against a new state constitution.

Speaking at a joint meeting of the associations of the county judges, county attorneys, and county clerks, Reeves told the officials "let's be for or against things in government. Let's be for or against a new constitution."

The State Department of Mines and Minerals reported yesterday that 16 coal mining fatalities in Kentucky during October boosted the year's total to 91, eleven more than were recorded for the first ten months of 1945.

Mining fatalities in Kentucky during October, 1945, numbered only four.

New York, Dec. 12—(AP)—A hand-picked group of assorted shares attracted support in a narrowly irregular stock market today.

Kentucky Soils Low On Nitrogen

Most Kentucky soils are low in nitrogen, according to the annual report of the University of Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station on commercial fertilizers. Enough nitrogen may be furnished by growing legumes and either returning part or all of the top growth to the land or feeding them and returning the manure.

"If this is not done," continues the report, "a nitrogen fertilizer may be used, if the value of the expected crop increase would exceed the cost of the fertilizer."

Question: Has the Soviet Union reversed its position on international inspection?

Answer: At a recent meeting of the United Nations the Soviet Union announced its acceptance of inspection as a part of international control of atomic and other weapons, and added that the right of veto has no relation to the work of any control or inspection committee, a principle part of the American plan for disarmament and control of atomic energy.

Question: What is the U. S. Resolution on Spain?

Answer: The United States proposed the General Assembly adopt a resolution barring the Franco Government from membership or participation in any United Nations activities, and calling on the Spanish people to give proof to the world that they have a Government which derives its authority from the people. To achieve this end the U. S. proposal suggests that General Franco surrender the power of government to a provisional government committee to respect freedom of speech, religion and assembly and to the prompt holding of an election in which the Spanish people may express their will.

Question: What is the U. S. British pact on Germany?

Answer: The United States and Great Britain have agreed to treat their two zones of occupation in Germany as one economic union and they expect that by 1950 both zones will be operated without cost to either government. The zones will continue to be politically independent.

Washington Letter

By Jane Ladd

Washington—Wealthy Mrs. George Meade of Newport, New York, and Washington—not to mention Pittsburgh and Oklahoma City—is one of the capital's most successful hostesses.

The other evening Mrs. Truman was to be the ranking guest at a very fancy affair Mrs. Meade gave for the newsmen of Washington. Mrs. Truman had to decline. Mrs. Truman was accompanying the President to Independence, Mo., where the two went to vote on election day.

Mrs. Truman sent two dozen American Beauty roses instead. They were placed in a huge bowl on a table in the vast reception hall of the exclusive Sulgrave Club, where the party was given.

The First Lady, however, will be back from her home town in time for another affair at the Sulgrave Club. Mrs. Marian Pike Stone, widow of the late Chief Justice of the United States, and president of the Club is giving a party, together with the club's board of governors in her honor.

But to get back to Mrs. Meade's party, which was really a success, with every top woman writer in town present—many with escorts.

Mrs. Meade wore a street-length dress of black lace over chiffon and a huge orchid corsage. Mrs. Alice Hager, president of the Women's National Press Club, and Mrs. William M. Campbell, president of the Newspaper Women's Organization, assisted in receiving.

There was an orchestra, and guests who didn't dance sat around small, flower-centered tables at the edge of the ballroom floor sipping champagne and cocktails and looking on.

Chief Justice and Mrs. Fred M. Vinson were present, as were the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. John Snyder, and the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Clinton P. Anderson. Mrs. Tom Clark, wife of the Attorney General, and Mrs. Lewis Schwellenbach, wife of the Secretary of Labor, had left their bands behind their desks.

The guests vied for honors with their new fall costumes and conversation-piece hats. Mrs. Douglas Hatch, wife of a prominent lawyer, wore an eye-taking chapeau of flame and strawberry-parfait-colored plumes dipping well over an eyebrow.

"My children gathered around as I put it on," she laughed. "They asked 'are you going to wear that on your head?' We thought it was a false face for Halloween."

Calloway 4-H's Had A Good Year

Different types of farming made money for 4-H club boys in Calloway county this year, according to Farm Agent S. V. Foy.

Edwin Wilson of the New Concord Club made $325 on his registered Jersey herd of five calves and heifers. He won both the grand champion and senior champion prizes at the county fair and seven other ribbons.

Dale Todd from the Faxon Club, county winner in beef production, made $624 above expenses on six calves.

Jack Mayfield of the Murray 4-H Club, county winner in swine, netted $210 from two litters of Duroc Jersey pigs.

Graves County's Garden Champ Is A Big Producer

William Pryor Wheeler, 4 club member in Graves county and district champion in gardening, produced an abundance of vegetables for his family this year, 34 bushels of root vegetables having been stored and 468 quarts canned. Then he sold $238 worth on the local market. In preparation for next year's garden, young Wheeler sowed a winter cover crop of balbo rye and vetch, said Robt. H. Ellis, assistant county agent.

Wheeler divided his two-acre garden plot, using half for early garden and the remainder for fall vegetables. After harvesting his early crop, he planted late corn, beans and turnips.

Worth its wait in Golden Moments

The first big moment comes, of course, when you step out of your door, and there's your very own Buick, all ready and waiting.

The next one comes when you roll down the street in this handsome creation—and practically feel the eyes of the passers-by following.

You get another lift the first time you meet a hill, and the voice of your Fireball straight-eight engine drops from baritone to bass as it meets the challenge—and tramps the grade down into easy levelness.

Then some night you'll find yourself alone on a quiet moonlit country road—and the whisper of your engine, the soft tread of your coil-sprung wheels, your gentle, cradled, easy stride, will fill your soul with a peace you wouldn't trade for worlds.

The simple truth is that it's not only an automobile you wait for when you wait for a Buick—it's an endless series of sweet satisfactions.

It's not just a matter of size and room and Fireball power and all-coil springing, as any Buick owner will tell you—it's the wonderful way all these add up to make a constant flow of golden moments.

You'd like those moments to start coming soon. So would the whole, hard-hitting crew that's waging relentless war against delays and shortages to produce Buicks for you—and fast.

But the most important thing—when you think it out—is what you get rather than when you get it—and what you really want is found nowhere else but in Buick.

Why not settle your mind on that and be done with it? You can place your order now for future delivery, with or without a car to turn in—though we like to get trade-ins for our used-car buyers.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
New York, Dec. 12—(AP)—A couple of kids named Charley Fusari and Chuck Taylor are going to have a fight at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. That's important mainly because they're top representatives of the first big crop of boxers developed since the war—the welterweights. Fusari, 21-year-old son of an Irvington, N. J., milkman, turned pro only two years ago and since then has racked up 46 straight victories, 32 knockouts. He was supposed to fight Tippy Larkin in a "Jersey Natural" that Mike Jacobs snatched for the Garden. Tippy couldn't get ready, so Mike called upon Taylor, a Coal-Port, Pa., kid who was developed in the "sticks" after leaving the army and who stepped into New York's big time less than a year ago. In addition to these two, the "new" welterweights include Tony Janiro, Tony Pelone, Ruby Kessler, Art Aragon, Billy Graham and a few others aiming at "oldster" Ray Robinson. The only other division to turn up many new fighters is the middleweight with such as Artie Levine, Pete Mead and Ded Priest and the percentage of pre-war fighters at the top of this group is higher.

Discouraging Outlook
Conclusion of a note from Elmer Salter, who just finished beating the drums for Auburn's footballers in a win 4 loss 6 season: "I am going to have to stick to our only winning team, cross country, because it looks like our basketball team will do well to win as many as our griders did."

Dots All, Brothers
Bob O'Shaughnessy, ace of that smooth-work-up Nevada basketball team, has agreed to sign with the baseball Dodgers when he leaves college. Coach Bo McMillin has won five more conference games in his football seasons at Indiana U. than eight predecessors did between 1900 and Bo's arrival. George Gallagher of Erie, Pa., has used the same pair of bowling shoes for 38 years. Obviously, quite a feat.

Clipper Smith Is Boston Yank Pick For Coach In '47

Boston, Dec. 12—(AP)—The Boston Yanks of the National Football League today produced Maurice (Clipper) Smith as their 1947 head coach.

Smith, who recently waived the last four of a five-year contract at the University of San Francisco, agreed to succeed Herb Kopf here on a short term basis.

He told Yanks officials he stepped out of San Francisco about a week ago because he doubted he could produce winning teams there under existing conditions. In his new contract he reserved the right to quit if unable to gain immediate success in professional ranks.

One of Notre Dame's earliest "watch charm" guards under the late Knute Rockne, Smith started his college coaching career at Santa Clara. He gained his greatest successes at Villanova from 1936-42 and during those years was reputed to have rejected three offers from Boston College and one from Holy Cross. During the war he was a lieutenant in the Marine Corps.

Vets' Education Is Explained

Army Officer, Paducah, Lists Provisions Of Law Relating To School Pay

"Men who have no prior service and who enlist after Oct. 6, 1944 will receive education allowances credits only for time served from date of entry into service until official termination of the war," announces C. F. Smith, first lieutenant, army recruiting station, Paducah.

"The government pays tuition, laboratory fees, etc., up to $500 per year, plus grants of $65 monthly for living expenses, and $90 monthly if the veteran is married.

"Education credits for all future enlistments will accrue only to the end of the war. One year of college after 90 days of service, plus one additional month for each month served, is provided. All other benefits under the G. I. Bill of Rights remain as they were before Oct. 6, 1944.

"Your army recruiting station, 19 post office building, Mayfield, is open Monday through Saturday, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., and they will be glad to discuss this further with you," Lt. Smith reminded ex-servicemen and women.

Meteorites Blaze In Heavens Over Midwest States

Omaha, Dec. 11—(AP)—Blazing meteorites, which astronomers said were part of an annual shower from the Gemma Constellation, were sighted during hours of darkness yesterday by five mid-western states.

Before dawn, the sky was brilliantly lighted for a 250-mile stretch between McPherson, Kas., and Garden City, Kas. At Garden City, Kas., freight handlers reported hearing a roar accompany the flashing light. At McPherson, a long white trail of smoke hung in a windless sky for 30 minutes after the meteorite passed.

Last night, reports of sighting meteorites came from such scattered points as Omaha, Springfield, Ill., Des Moines, Topeka, Kas., and Joplin, Mo. Some persons described the meteorites as having "a bright greenish blue with purple head" and others said they appeared as "a pale green ball with a very bright red tail."

Navy Recruiter Points To Types Training Offered

"If you are in the age group between 17 and 30 and feel that you can pass the required mental and physical examination, drop in and have a talk with the U. S. Navy recruiter," the CPO in charge of the recruiting sub-station, Union City, states.

"The navy has many opportunities for young men, such as electronics, radio, machine, electrical, music, pharmacists and many other fields," he said.

There is a traveling recruiter at the post office building, Fulton, at 9:15 a.m. each Friday.

Fulton has a population of about 3,500,000.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 12—(AP)—A hearing to determine whether the rates of Petroleum Exploration, Inc. of Louisville, W. Va., a wholesaler doing business in Kentucky, should be lowered was to be continued by the state public service commission here this afternoon.

Geologist J. E. Billingsley told the commission that Pet Ex had recoverable gas reserves in Clay and Knox counties at the start of 1946 totaling 28,734,000,000 cubic feet. He added that the company has 3,715 acres of undeveloped but proven property in the two Kentucky counties.
