END OF WAR MEANS LOSS OF MANY POWERS

The Chief Executive made a firm statement, without mincing words, during his address at the close of the war, announcing a revamping of war agencies which it was his intention to send three separate amendments to the Senate. The subject was brought to the attention of the Prime Minister, who submitted a blank request for the purpose of the same. The Chief Executive gave only a summary of the conclusion of the war and the war agencies will be revamping.

Selected To Head Religious Group

Seattle, Wash. — Charles P. Traft, layman, was selected by the 54th president of the World Methodist Conference, just held in Los Angeles, as the next general secretary of the Methodist Church, which has two main denominational groups.

The meeting was taken in the interest of strengthening the bond between the two groups.

There are 150 members and 35 leaders in the Methodist group.

Worth its wait in Golden Moments

The first big moment comes, of course, when you step out of your car, and there's your very own Buick, all ready and waiting. The next one comes when you roll down the window to your very own Buick, all ready and waiting.

The whisper of the engine, the soft tread of your foot on the floorboard, will fill your very own Buick, all ready and waiting. But the most important thing — when you think it out — is what other car says to you — what Other Car Says to You — when you get another lift the first time you meet country mad — and the whisper of the engine, the soft tread of your foot on the floorboard, will fill your very own Buick, all ready and waiting.

The club's board of governors, under the chairmanship of President Louis M. Coles, prepared a program which was a big hit for Mrs. Alice Hager, the president of the Associated Women's Organizations of America.

Mrs. Truman was received at the door to vote on election day. She went to vote on election day.

Mrs. Clinton P. Anderson, Secretary of Agriculture and Tom Clark, wife of the Attorney General, had an early vote.
