Fulton Marine Officer Was On Missing Plane

Col. Robertson's Parents Notified By Corps Dec. 12

Lt. Col. Alben C. Robertson, U. S. marine corps, was one of 32 marines aboard a transport plane reported missing on a flight from San Diego, Calif., to Seattle, Wash., his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robertson of Fulton, learned yesterday. The transport has been missing for three days.

A wire from the marine corps headquarters in Washington, D. C., told Mr. and Mrs. Robertson: "You are assured that the most thorough search possible is being conducted and when further information is received you will be informed."

Following is the latest Associated Press report on the search for the plane:

Seattle, Dec. 12—(AP)—Hope was today for the safety of 32 marines aboard a transport plane missing for three days as the worst storm conditions in a decade stymied searching parties.

The plane disappeared while enroute here from San Diego, Calif. Official sources were silent but searchers, based on Mount Rainier, expressed fears there can be no survivors of the missing plane.

The plane last reported herself south of Toledo, Wash., at 8:15 p.m. (CST) Tuesday. Toledo is some 40 miles southwest of the mountain.

Search turned to Mt. Rainier after Park Sup't. John C. Preston reported hearing a plane overhead about 8:15 p.m. Tuesday during a heavy downpour, and a ranger at Paradise Valley, near the glacier, also told of hearing the plane.

Preston said that if the plane struck the mountain, it would have been buried in the deep snow, and it may be some time before it can be located even after the weather clears.

The plane was one of six transferring Marines to Seattle. The weather forced four to stop at Portland. A fifth made it safely to Seattle.

The SACSS Drops Morehead STC

Kentucky School Subject To Political Pressure, College Group Charges

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 12—(AP)—The Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, charging that the institution was subject to "political interference," dropped Morehead State Teachers College of Morehead, Ky., from its membership here today.

The school has an enrollment of some 750 students. The action was taken by the association on the recommendation of its higher learning.

The membership voted down an appeal by Dr. W. J. Baird, new president of the school, who asked that Morehead Teachers merely be placed on probation for two years with final action on the school's status to be taken at the end of that period.

Dr. Baird contended that "political interference" no longer existed at the school.

Earlier, the association adopted a recommendation that the minimum salary of teachers in membership schools be fixed at $1,500 annually.

Dr. Baird was chosen president of the board of regents in a meeting at Lexington. The board declined to renew the contract of Dr. William H. Vaughan, the previous president and declared the office vacant at the expiration of Vaughan's four-year contract last June 30.

This action resulted in a series of accusations and denials that "politics" was involved in the action.

Two Of Many Receiving Social Security Benefits

The federal government's old-age and survivors insurance system under Social Security is doing much throughout the United States, Fulton county included, to remove the fear of dependence in old-age, or in case of a wage earner's premature death.

Benefit payments in Fulton county, as of September 30 payable under the law to the families of workers who have died. The case selected concerns Mrs. Edna E. McCollum, who gave written permission to use her story since information of this sort is held strictly confidential by the Social Security Administration and is disclosed only with the special consent of those concerned.

Mrs. McCollum is the widow of Clay C. McCollum. Her husband was employed by the Standard Oil Company of Fulton Kentucky, at the time of his death. Mrs. McCollum and her two children, Wallace and Joan, were entitled to insurance payments of $73.29 a month beginning with April 1943. The monthly checks included one for $31.41 for Mrs. McCollum and two for $20.94 each in equal amounts for Wallace and Joan. Wallace's checks ceased on his attainment of age 18. He is now away at school.

Checks like these, Rucker said, will keep coming each month. The family will receive by the time Joan is 18 a total of $3,381.81. Mrs. McCollum's checks will also be based upon Joan's attainment of age 18, but will begin coming again when she is 65 provided she has not remarried or is not working on a job covered by the Social Security system. Thereafter, monthly checks will continue to come as long as she lives. As required by law, Mrs. McCollum had paid Social Security contributions of one percent of his wages, which were matched by his employer every payday and turned over to the United States Treasury for the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund.

Other benefits payable under the Social Security Act are as follows: Monthly payments to retired workers 65 years of age or over, based on their average monthly wages. Payments equal to half the amount of the husband's benefit go to a retired worker's wife if she is 65 or over. If there are children under 18 they also are entitled to monthly payments of half of the amount of the worker's benefit. In case of the worker's death, monthly payments equal to three-fourths of his benefit amount will go to his widow if she is 65 or over; if there are children under 18, monthly benefits are payable to the widow at any age and to the children until they are 18, as in the case illustrated above. In cases where there is no widow or children, parents of the worker who are 65 or over may be entitled to benefits, provided they were mainly dependent upon and supported by him. If no one is entitled to monthly benefits then a lump sum is payable in certain cases.

The Social Security Act was amended by Congress in August 1946, and the amendments include a provision whereby the families of honorably discharged veterans of World War II, who served not less than 90 days and who die within three years of discharge, may receive these Social Security payments. Exception is made of veterans' survivors who are receiving compensation or pensions from the Veterans Administration, but not including National Service Life Insurance. Therefore families of veterans who died after discharge should get in touch with the Paducah Social Security Office immediately.

Mr. Rucker stated that, in order to receive Social Security payments at the earliest possible date and to prevent loss of some payments by delay in making the necessary application, every worker under Social Security should visit or write the office when he is 65, whether or not he intends to continue working. The immediate family or some near relative of every worker who dies should likewise get in touch promptly with the nearest Social Security office. The office serving this area is located in the post office building Paducah.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 12—(AP)—The 92 municipalities and 46 cooperatives in seven southern states distributing Tennessee Valley Authority power sold $43,500,000 worth of current in the fiscal year 1946 on which they made a net profit of $8,300,000, the TVA reported today.

In making public the financial statements and operating statistics of the various distributors, the TVA said the net income was after all expenses, including depreciation, interest, taxes and payments to the government agency for wholesale power had been deducted.

The 138 distributors represent towns and cooperatives covering 80,000 square miles in Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Kentucky, Georgia, North Carolina and Virginia.

Banker Called To Bilbo Probe

May Give Information On Mysterious Absence Of Senator's Ex-Secretary

Washington, Dec. 12—(AP)—A senate war investigating subcommittee today ordered a Jackson, Miss., banker summoned to Washington for testimony which may throw some light on the mysterious disappearance of Edward P. Terry, former secretary to Senator Bilbo (D-Miss.).

Chairman Mead (D-NY) announced that committee agents would serve a subpoena today on J. M. Quinn, executive vice president of the Jackson State National Bank, for an appearance here Monday.

George Meader, committee counsel, said that Quinn, in a telephone conversation with him yesterday afternoon, said he recently had suffered a heart attack and that his doctor might forbid such a long trip.

Quinn's name was brought into the investigation late yesterday by Forrest Jackson, attorney for Bilbo in the senators' inquiry into Bilbo's relations with a group of war contractors on Mississippi army air fields.

Jackson said that Quinn recently informed him that Terry had told the banker he would use alleged threats against his life as an excuse for not testifying in the investigation of his former boss. Jackson quoted Quinn as saying Terry explained also that his testimony might incriminate himself (Terry.)

Harlan Co. $1.25 School Tax Levy Upheld By Court

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 12—(AP)—Harlan county's property tax levy of $1.25 per $100 valuation for school purposes was upheld by the court of appeals today.

In a 1946 legislative act, effective last June 19, all counties were authorized to levy from 25 cents to $1.50 per $100 for school purposes, other than sinking funds.

Harlan's fiscal court met last June 11 and fixed the rate at $1.25 then met again June 21, after the new law came into force, and repeated its levy.

Halleck Boomed As New Head Of House Majority

Washington, Dec. 12—(AP)—A compromise to designate Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana house majority leader in the new congress and Rep. Clarence J. Brown of Ohio chairman of the house Republican steering committee is in the making today.

While party leaders officially disclaimed knowledge of it, several acknowledged privately that there is more than mere rumor and speculation in the reported "deal."

It was advanced by highly-placed Republicans in a move to avert an open fight between Brown and Halleck for the leadership post which Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts will vacate when he becomes speaker on January 3.

UAW To Seek 23c Pay Hike

Would Total $1,692,000 Per Day Increase For Its 900,000 Members In '47

New York, Dec. 12—(AP)—The United Automobile Workers of America (UAW) will head into its 1947 contract negotiations with demands for general wage increases of 23.5 cents an hour for its 900,000 members—a total of $1,692,000 a day.

"Catching up with inflation is an immediate and imperative demand of our workers," Union President Walter P. Reuther said in announcing the decision of UAW's international executive board last night. He said the increase could be granted without an increase in prices.

More than a half-million more non-union workers in the auto trades also would benefit from any increases won by UAW. Reuther said in announcing demands at a news conference after a board session.

Blast Creates Human Torch

Drenched With Flaming Gasoline, Man Seriously Burned But Cheats Death

Philadelphia, Dec. 12—(AP)—A tremendous explosion rocked a gasoline station last night setting off a fire which turned a man into a human torch.

Drenched with flaming gasoline, even his hair afire, 24-year-old Emil Tagliari ran from the station but was thrown to the ground by two neighbors, whose prompt action in beating out flames was hailed by hospital attaches as probably saving Tagliari's life.

Tagliari, who was standing under his automobile, which was on a hydraulic lift, with David Silver, 27, the garage owner, when the blast occurred.

All Hope Lost For Sixteen Buried In N. York Tenement

New York, Dec. 12—(AP)—Heavy workers who dug the bodies of 16 persons from the wreckage of a collapsed tenement house in a slow, grim procession of death gave up hope today for the lives of 16 others believed under tons of rubble.

As the broken body of Rose Fucci, 15, was carefully extracted from the ruins, police said they planned to set three steam shovels to work on the ruins of the building in which more than 30 were injured. Workers had previously carefully dug by hand because they feared heavy machinery would cause more crashes.

The building at 2515 Amsterdam avenue in upper Manhattan, which housed 22 families, was smashed early yesterday by a two-foot thick wall of an adjoining ice house which toppled on it after a five-alarm fire in the ice house.

Gasoline Seeping On Covington Lot Threatens Blaze

Step Down, Sen. Fulbright

Senator Fulbright of Arkansas, a Democrat, still insists that it would be wise for President Truman to resign in favor of a Republican president since the Eightieth Congress will be dominated by the Republican party.

As a member of the Fulton Lions Club pointed out in a round-table discussion last week, Truman by remaining in office has an opportunity to be a statesman, not just a politician, in the remaining months of his term.

If the Arkansas Senator's idea were carried out to its ultimate conclusion, he also would resign, since he is a member of the minority party.

How about it, Mr. Fulbright, ready to go back to Arkansas?

The Winner, Still Champ

The South may lag behind the rest of the nation in many things, but we can claim clear-cut superiority in the number of moonshiners and the gallons of mountain dew they produce.

We Southerners have shown we have what it takes to keep going when the odds are against us. Sugar rationing and hundreds of "revenuers" have failed to deter us. We go right along making our liquid slow death, and seem to be ready to continue to measure corn by the gallon rather than by the barrel.

Just this once, though, we're about ready to let the rest of the nation outdo us. We wouldn't be too perturbed to see our title as king of corn likker pass to some other section of the U. S. A.

Should Be Censored

Things we shouldn't think about—but do: We thought it was illegal to shoot firecrackers in downtown Fulton, but evidently it isn't because they're popping all around every day and far into the night.

Noted that Mayfield took $52 from its new parking meters the first day of operation and $23.50 for the first six days. Wondered if Fulton could use an extra $230 or so weekly to buy a few Christmas presents for the city, e. g., a chlorinator, etc.

Mailman Dead Tired

Evanton, Ill.—(AP)—Two police squads, an ambulance, and inhalator were sent to Mrs. Anna Ekstrand's home after she telephoned Sgt. Edgar Fellows.

"It's my son, Carl," she cried. "I've been shaking him and can't wake him."

Carl, 29, stretched out in bed, appeared lifeless. Police applied artificial respiration and then a whiff of oxygen.

Finally Ekstrand, who is a letter carrier, sat up, eyed the activities and said sleepily: "Can't you let a fellow sleep? I'm dead tired, Ma, walkin' and carryin' all that Christmas mail."

OUR READERS SAY

How Long Must We Boil Water?

I am a Fulton housewife. This morning I boiled three large buckets of Fulton water and set it aside for my family to use as drinking water, water to brush our teeth in, water to wash our hands and faces in, water to wash uncooked vegetables in, and water to wash our dishes in.

How long am I going to have to go to all this trouble in order to feel safe in using the water which we pay enough for to have an unquestioned water supply? If the water has been free of contamination for any reasonable length of time and the source of our water supply is in such condition as to give no further anxiety why don't our councilmen and mayor demand a retraction from the state health department?

Aside from the anxiety and inconvenience it is causing the people of the town, it is damaging the town of Fulton as a place in which to own property. I am a property owner.

Why don't we get out in the open, laying aside littleness, spitefulness, and grudges, and find out where we stand? After all, it is of major importance to all of us, regardless of which side of the fence we stand on. The state health department says it "is" (contaminated)—the city fathers say it "ain't" (contaminated). Who is in the better position to know? When is something going to be done?

If I do boil the water, it's lots of trouble. If I don't boil the water and my children have some unusual sickness, I am going to blame myself—and who else?

HARD-STRONG RECITAL IS WELL RECEIVED

The Hard-Strong recital sponsored last night by the Fulton Woman's Club at the club home was well received by a large audience.

Woman's Club members are delighted to have sponsored the recital by these talented musicians.

P. T. A. Notes

As taken, verbatim, from "Character and Spiritual Education" by Mrs. H. W. Whitcomb, State Chairman.

Beginning in January an appropriate passage of scripture will be given. The prayer should regularly be read. Do not neglect the little things that mean so much—spiritual needs, love and understanding are necessary for a successful home.

Coming from the article on good citizenship, the writer explains that to prevent destruction and dissipation by youth due to broken homes, unhealthy homes, unwise parents, lack of recreation and supervision and questionable influences outside the home, all P. T. A.'s should co-operate with the Scouts, 4-H Clubs, etc., help establish libraries, encourage music appreciation, sports and recreation through supervision. All health programs should be encouraged. Parents should be constantly trained by parent education church attendance, racial tolerance.

ance and consideration of others.

Ideas to help you look forward to Christmas are: Emphasize the real meaning of Christmas, keep plans simple and make them early, budget your spendings, teach conservation make gifts and cards, secure help of the family to get ready use new sugar-saving ideas in foods. Happy Christmas will never be forgotten.

Some desirable books — "Told Under the Green Umbrella," "Told Under the Magic Umbrella," "Told Under the Silver Umbrella," "Heidi," "Black Beauty," "Pianocchio," "Little Women," "Jane Eyre," "Robin Hood," "Tell Me About God," and others.

Mrs. Kagin, state publicity chairman, would add personal publicity to former discussed inside and outside publicity. "Please be enthusiastic and thoughtful when you refer to your P. T. A. Don't repeat petty gossip!"

List of New Units 1946-47 to November 1 are two in First District besides eight others. Wise associations dwell upon projects and programs and soft-pedal money making.

Council News — Seven of the eight units of Hopkins County Council met in September. Mrs. Moore, president exhibited the Dawson Publicity Book, which won first award at the State Convention. She discussed the duties and importance of an active publicity chairman in each unit.

Terry Norman — Mrs. J. H. Patterson, Jr., has been appointed by Mrs. Kirksey, district president, to serve as Magazine Chairman for First District. A two page report from First District will appear in January State Bulletin.

Approximately 25 percent more acres in Harrison county were seeded to small grain and legume cover crops than two years ago.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
New York, Dec. 13—(AP)—They used to call them the monsters of the midway, but from the looks of things the Chicago Bears will be trying to run around the New York Giants in the National Football League playoff Sunday instead of pounding their way through the way monsters are supposed to do. The Giants line and back-up have been very stubborn this season, as the Bears discovered the last time they were here, but a few of the league's speedsters have discovered they can outrun the secondary and catch passes. So Chicago's strategy apparently will be to have Sid Luckman pitch to George McAfee, who has only played three games but has scored on three of the ten passes he has caught. Luckman, incidentally, should be better this time. On his last visit he spent considerable time looking after long-neglected business affairs and the pavement pounding didn't help him evade the charging Giants.

Shot in The Dark
The other day George Harvey, hunting and fishing expert of the Penn State College faculty, was moaning because, for the second time in 16 years of deer hunting, he had needed two shots to bring down his buck. Track Coach Chick Werner, who does most of his shooting with a starter's pistol, listened without too much sympathy. A few days before he had been quail hunting in Illinois and had brought down two birds with one shot.

Bowdoin... that spray gun used to squirt New York U. basketballs—and the floor—this season contains a "secret" reviving solution invented by Jake Webber, the old Fordham trainer. Chuck Taylor, who fights at the Garden tonight, says his missing front tooth is the result of a tank job—driving one in the army.

The Sports Mirror

Today a Year Ago—Cleveland won three places on A. P.'s All-Pro football team of 1945, with End Jim Benton, Guard Riley Matheson and Back Bob Waterfield.

Three Years Ago—Philadelphia Athletics got Bobo Newson from Washington Senators in trade for Roger Wolf, also a right-handed pitcher.

Five Years Ago—U. S. Lawn Tennis Association ranked Bobby Riggs and Frankie Kovacs No. 1 and No. 2 in national list for 1941 with Mrs. Sarah Ralston Cooke No. 1 among women players.

Ten Years Ago—Green Bay Packers defeated Boston Redskins 31-6 in playoff for national football league championship before 30,000 at New York for fourth title in seven years.
