Mayor Asserts Water Supply Not Polluted

Believes Samples Containing Filth Had Same Origin

POINTS TO REPORTS
Mayor T. T. Boaz this morning issued a statement for publication in regard to the purity of the city's water supply. Mr. Boaz charges that all water samples which showed pollution and contamination when tested came from the same tap.

The complete text of Mr. Boaz' statement follows:
To the People of Fulton, Kentucky:

It has been brought to my attention that a report was given by the health officers at a meeting of one of the civic clubs that the Fulton water supply of the City of Fulton was contaminated.

This is to advise you that the current test which has just been received, and the last three tests have proved that the water was not contaminated. We are taking all of the precautions possible under our present system and the facilities at hand and are daily chlorinating the water supply.

This matter has not been brought to the attention of the Mayor and City Council officially by any representative of the Board of Health, and had it been brought to our attention in the proper manner we would have taken the steps necessary to save you the worry and fear, which would be natural from such a report.

According to the best information which I have been able to obtain, all of the tests which showed pollution and contamination came from one tap. None of the tests which were taken from various points in the city have shown pollution.

We are making every attempt possible to determine the place and source of pollution and you may be assured that we will take all the precautions necessary to give you a clean and uncontaminated water supply.

Sincerely yours,
T. T. BOAZ, Mayor

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—The Republican National committee today formally announced the resignation of Miss Martin as assistant chairman and director of its woman's division.

The resignation is effective Jan. 1.

Her work as director of the woman's division will be taken over by Mrs. Jane Hamilton Macaulay, who has been on the committee staff since 1936 and who has been an assistant director of the woman's division for a year.

Miss Martin, of Bangor, Me., earlier in the day made known she had submitted her resignation.

UNRRA Will Quit In Three Months

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—The 49-nation UNRRA council dispersed today after setting a tentative three month deadline for completion of its good Samaritan ministering to the world's hungry nations.

Climaxing a four-day meeting, the organization accepted the resignation of Director General Fiorello H. LaGuardia and elected Maj. Gen. Lowell W. Rooks as his successor.

President Truman sent Under Secretary of State Dean Acheson to give LaGuardia the nation's highest civilian decoration the Medal for Merit.

Need Not Raise Hand In Court, Atty. Gen. Rules

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 14—(AP)—A person does not have to raise his hand in affirming his testimony in Kentucky, Thomas Hensley of Botto was advised by the Attorney General's office today. He asked whether a person who believed the Bible bans swearing, would have to lift up his hand when he substituted "I affirm" for "I swear" in legal matters.

No Comment On Morehead Ban

State Officials Haven't Told Views On School Being Dropped by SACSS

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 14—(AP)—Comment was lacking from officials here today on the action of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools meeting at Memphis in removing Morehead State Teachers College from its membership rolls.

Gov. Simeon Willis said he had no comment and John Fred Williams, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, replied "no comment—at present."

Morehead school officials likewise declined to comment. What effect the Association's action would have on the status of Morehead students or graduates was not determined immediately. An Association news source said at Memphis "some of the larger schools in the Association are doing their own accrediting directly and could recognize (Morehead) students if they wanted to. Others will not recognize them."

The Southern Association attributed its action to "political interference" at Morehead. Dr. W. J. Baird was chosen president of Morehead by the Board of Regents last Aug. 6 as a successor to Dr. William H. Vaughan.

The board had refused to renew Dr. Vaughan's contract and he said he planned to ask an investigation by the Southern Association and the American Association of Teachers Colleges.

Student groups and others criticized the board's failure to renew Dr. Vaughan's contract. They blamed the action on "politics."

Gov. Willis said at the time such protests resulted from political motives and that "politics went out with Dr. Vaughan."

Librarian Killer Given Life Term

Bryan, O., Dec. 14—(AP)—Common Pleas Judge Russell Maxwell today sentenced 21-year-old James Robert Engle to life imprisonment in Ohio State penitentiary for the slaying of comely Emily Abernathy in the Bryan Public Library Sept. 19.

The navy veteran, who said a war-born "urge to kill" caused him to knife, beat and strangle the librarian, stood calmly as sentence was pronounced. Engle will be taken to the prison at Columbus Tuesday morning.

Billy Evans Wants To Be Vice-President Of Tigers

Fairgrounds To Be Annexed By City Of Fulton

Petition Asking For Annexation To Go To Court

ORDINANCE PUBLISHED

An ordinance published in today's paper gives notice of the city's intention to file a petition in the circuit court of Fulton county for annexation of what is known as the Fairgrounds Property.

The tract contains 24 9-10 acres, and includes the baseball field, race track, and adjoining picnic and show grounds. The only structures on the property are those on the baseball field section.

The city purchased the property from the Fulton school board in June 1946. The school board had acquired it from the Fulton County Fair Association.

After three publications of the ordinance the petition for annexation will be filed in circuit court, as provided by Section 81.210 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

Housing Policy Being Studied

Non-Veterans May Become Eligible For New Homes Under Tentative Plans

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—Key agency heads whittled away at the nation's housing policy today amid signs they may take non-veterans eligible for new-home priorities.

If this is done, housing men reported privately, those permitted to build will be required to release their old apartments or houses for rental to veterans. Veterans' organizations opposed the idea when it was put forth by former Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt. But they have reconsidered, it was stated, on the theory that it may open up shelter to many veterans who cannot themselves afford to buy new houses at present inflated prices.

This and other proposals, including the raising of the present $10,000 limit on the sales price of new homes, were being weighed by Presidential Assistant John E. Steelman, Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming, Director of the Office of Temporary Controls, and Wyatt's successors, Administrator Raymond Foley of the National Housing Administration and Housing Expediter Frank R. Creedon.

This group, along with census and federal lending officials, scheduled new conferences after two days of meeting behind closed doors at the White House with President Truman "looking in."

Five More Bodies Found After Fire

New York, Dec. 14—(AP)—Workers extricated five more bodies from the ruins of a collapsed Manhattan tenement house by noon today, bringing the total dead to 37, and returned to hunt for at least one more person believed missing.

Three bodies were identified as those of Mrs. Serafina de Vito, between 70 and 80 years old; Frank Maszini, 37, and Mrs. Catherine Gaekani, 29. The bodies of two women were unidentified.

Victim Removed From Train Wreck

Wreck Death Toll Rises To 19

Mansfield, O., Dec. 14—(AP)—The death toll in the Pennsylvania railroad three-train collision rose to 19 today.

The 19th was Edwin Gene Krautblatt, 19, a soldier, of Chicago, who died in a Crestline hospital of injuries received in yesterday's wreck, which caused heavy casualties among some 150 draftees headed home for a Christmas furlough before leaving for Japan.

The injured list totaled 50, also mostly soldiers, four of them in critical condition here. Eighteen others were transferred to the Fort Hayes hospital in Columbus last night, eight by litter. Some were treated for minor injuries near the wreck scene.

One coach of the Pennsylvania Railroad's "Golden Triangle," Pittsburgh-Chicago Flyer which plowed into two eastbound freight trains, carried 62 soldiers who left Fort Dix, N. J., Thursday enroute to the army's port of embarkation at Camp Stoneham, Pittsburgh, Calif., with seven days delay enroute at their homes. Maj. Cornelius T. Morris of Fort Dix said last night.

The "Golden Triangle" piled up on two eastbound freight trains that had crashed a few seconds earlier 12 miles southeast of here at 2:45 a. m. yesterday.

Twelve hours later, rescue crews completed their search of the twisted steel cars for bodies, freeing many of the dead and injured with acetylene torches. Engineer Louis Petoskey, 55, of

Didn't Get A Dollar—Bilbo

Senator Denies Receiving Part Of $25,000 Given Party By Contractor

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—Senator Theodore G. Bilbo (D-Miss.), testified today "I didn't get a damn dollar" of $25,000 cash contributed by a war contractor in a 1942 Mississippi political campaign.

Bilbo made his first statement of a senate war contracts investigation as Senators Mead (D-Ny.) and Ferguson (R-Rich.), tried to trace the $25,000 contribution made by F. T. Newton, Mississippi war contractor.

Earlier witnesses testified that all this cash and other funds were used in an unsuccessful effort to re-elect Will Doxey as a senator in 1942. Doxey now is Senate sergeant-at-arms.

Forrest Jackson, Jackson, Miss., attorney and personal counsel to Bilbo at the hearing and Robert Gandy, Jackson insurance man and Bilbo political adviser, had told the senate war investigating subcommittee that all the $25,000 was used on the Doxey campaign.

But neither Jackson nor Gandy could actually trace the full disposition of the cash.

Ferguson then suggested that Bilbo be called to clear up this phase of the inquiry.

"I'll be glad to testify but I prefer to make my statement at the conclusion after all the evidence has been presented and in writing form," Bilbo said without taking the witness chair or being sworn.

The veteran senator had difficulty speaking because he is unable to wear his lower dental plate as a result of a mouth ailment.

Burley Prices Hit New Peak

Average Yesterday Was $42.32; Previous State High Was $41.95 Dec. 11

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 14—(AP)—Prices were the best this season and volume was up $77,503 pounds from the previous day on Kentucky's burley tobacco markets yesterday.

The State Department of Agriculture reported 10,769,997 lbs were auctioned at 22 of Kentucky's 24 markets yesterday for $4,558,090.42, an average of $42.32. The previous high state-wide average was $41.59 on Dec. 11.

No sale was held at the Mayfield market yesterday, and no report was available from Paducah, the State Department of Agriculture said.

Lexington's big market sold 2,428,124 lbs. yesterday for $1,100,564.93, an average of $45.33. This represented a gain of $1.19 over the average there Thursday.

Top average yesterday was $46.60 at Danville, where 417,172 pounds were sold for $194,408.64. Low was $35.19 at Covington where 160,926 pounds were auctioned for $56,936.02.

UN General Assembly Gives Final, Unanimous Approval To Arms Reduction Proposal

Thieves Run Riot In Fog

Britain Still Gripped By Paralyzing Curfew As Theft Losses Mount

London, Dec. 14—(AP)—Fog today dogged Britain for the third straight day, helplessly smothering traffic, tying up shipping, causing at least three deaths and giving comparatively free rein to thieves and pickpockets.

Train and plane schedules were disrupted and motor traffic was at a virtual standstill. Scotland Yard operatives, already hard pressed by a series of new crimes, announced that the American-born Marquis de Zahara was robbed last night of $22,000 worth of jewels and cash by someone who apparently cut her handbag from its shoulder strap in Victoria Railroad Station.

The Marquis, the former Betty Byrne, widow of a Spanish Minister to Paris, was returning from Paris.

Police also sought a mysterious "woman in slacks"—believed to be a skilled judge of fur able to mingle in high society and endowed with the agility of a trapeze artist—in connection with recent burglaries. The officers disclosed that a woman's heel print was found outside a bedroom near Faghol where Mrs. Irene G. Roberts was robbed Thursday night of $32,000 in jewelry. It also was understood that there was other evidence that a woman was a member of a gang suspected of a long string of robberies, including the theft last October of $200,000 worth of jewels from the Duke and Duchess of Windsor.

Whittle at the same time said the state had postponed further hearings on the company's rate increase plea in Kentucky.

Whittle said Walter R. McDonald, chairman of Georgia's commission and president of the Southeastern Conference of State Public Utility Commissions, replied in response to the suggestion that he would take the matter up with other members of the conference and be guided by their wishes.

Brumleve explained that the ban will not affect renewal of permits or applications in cases where the need for additional cabs is evident.

He added that the ban was invoked to enable him to make a further inquiry into the taxicab situation in the state. The action was prompted largely, he said, by the recent taxicab-bus dispute in Harlan county which led to a large bus line halting operations.

Brumleve said reports indicated the cabbies interfered with the bus line's operating in retaliation for arrests of cabbies found picking up passengers on bus routes.

Brumleve said 33 cab drivers were convicted of usurping bus rights in violations of state law. He added he soon will order the drivers and their employes to show cause why their taxi permits and occupational licenses should not be revoked.

Brumleve said he had been advised by P. D. Avnet, a district supervisor for the division, there were "entirely too many taxis operating in Harlan county, in proportion to the population."

Division records here show 91 cabs are licensed in Harlan county.

State Editor Is Presented Award

Madisonville, Ky., Dec. 14—(AP)—Edgar Arnold, editor and publisher of the Madisonville Messenger, has been selected by representatives of 10 civic clubs here as the city's most outstanding citizen for 1946.

The award, presented annually by the Madisonville Lions club, was made to Arnold this year "because of his unceasing efforts toward making Madisonville and community a better place in which to live."

The boy, Townsend Anna, motherless son of a hotel waiter, suffered a scalp wound and was in what Gallinger Hospital attaches described as a "fair" condition.

The pistol duel occurred in a 17th Street night club section. Detectives G. W. Chapman and F. L. Caver, who arrested Anna, said in addition to an empty Luger pistol he was armed with a single-shot air pistol. Townsend said his first words on being captured were: "Did I kill the policeman?"

Measure Includes Joint Control Of All Mass Killers

RUSSIA VOTES YES

New York, Dec. 14—(AP)—The general assembly of the United Nations today gave final approval to a basic plan for worldwide arms reduction, including atomic and other weapons of mass destruction.

The long-debated measure was approved unanimously, a wave of applause.

The assembly's action handed the 11-nation security council the task of formulating a detailed plan which will be submitted later to a special session of the assembly and then to individual nations for ratification.

Approval of the measure was hailed by delegates as the first step toward an eventual universal arms limitation program and was generally regarded as the major issue before the assembly.

The assembly's action came after major speeches last night by Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, all of whom threw their support behind the plan.

The delegates, driving for adjournment now believed possible by Sunday or Monday turned immediately to the controversial question of international troop control, but the three top ranking diplomats were absent. Both Bevin and Molotov were preparing to sail today on the Queen Elizabeth.

While expressing complete accord with the United States and Britain in the arms slash program, Secretary of State James F. Byrnes charged that America's stockpile of atomic bombs had been built up for use against foreign territory and not for defense.

Molotov's declaration was one highlight of a pace-setting assembly session that included these decisive steps along the road toward peace and security:

(1) Secretary of State James F. Byrnes disclosed to the world the disposition of all American troops outside U. S. borders, setting the figure "at less than 550,000" and thus became the first major power to meet Russia's original demand for such data.

(2) British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said his country was ready to supply any information desired, reported that Britain had slashed its forces from "over 6,000,000 to well below a million" and observed that after occupation commitments had been discharged the figure would go down even further.

(3) By a vote of 36 to 6, with Russia dissenting, the assembly adopted a watered-down resolution on the controversial security-council veto which does little more than urge the Big Five to use their special voting privilege more sparingly.

(4) The way was paved for setting up U. N.'s last major body—the trusteeship council—with the approval of eight trusteeship agreement for League of Nations mandated territories submitted by Great Britain, France, Belgium, New Zealand and Australia.

Boy Accused Of Killing Officer, Shooting Himself

Washington, Dec. 14—(AP)—A 14 year old boy accused of killing a policeman and then turning a pistol on himself during a wild gun battle three blocks from the White House last night was held in a hospital today for observation.

The boy, Townsend Anna, motherless son of a hotel waiter, suffered a scalp wound and was in what Gallinger Hospital attaches described as a "fair" condition.

The pistol duel occurred in a 17th Street night club section. Detectives G. W. Chapman and F. L. Caver, who arrested Anna, said in addition to an empty Luger pistol he was armed with a single-shot air pistol. Townsend said his first words on being captured were: "Did I kill the policeman?"

Reds Don't Want A Stable China

By J. M. Roberts, Jr., AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Edwin W. Pauley's report that Russia had "long-range strategic reasons" for stripping Manchuria of its industry seems to imply that Moscow has been contributing to the continuance of unsettled conditions in China to give the communists there a better opportunity.

It was obvious immediately after the end of the Japanese war that, if the Red army was not lending direct aid to the Chinese communists, it at least was making it easy for them to arm themselves with former enemy materiel.

The United States, well aware that the Chiang Kai-Shek regime was not all that it should be, nevertheless has been striving to arrange a truce between it and the communists with the idea that, once both were participating, a central government of some balance would be established as a step toward compromise settlement of some of China's major woes.

It was not considered unnatural that the Russians should let the Chinese communists fill the vacuum created by the defeat of the Japanese and their own subsequent retirement. And while there was unhappiness among the allies that the Soviet should take as "war booty" the machinery which they were known to need, that, too, was in line with Russian policy elsewhere. So would be a China too weak to represent a threat to Russia's border and her Mongolian interests. But now Pauley, President Truman's reparations investigator, points up the situation in a different light.

"The chaos caused (in Manchuria) by the Soviets," his report says, "has produced a condition of instability both politically and economically which will take a long time to correct. It left a populace cold, hungry and full of unrest."

Those are conditions under which the world communists do their best work. It means as much to them in preparing for their ultimate harvest as do plowing and marrowing to the farmer.

With its industrial plants and natural resources, Pauley points out, Manchuria would have been the logical place to begin the rehabilitation of China. That was undoubtedly in the minds of Roosevelt and Churchill at Cairo when they promised Chiang, long before the defeat of Japan was in sight, that Manchuria would be returned to China. The area represented the nucleus of a new economic order without which all of China's plans for stable government would be terribly handicapped.

This is the objective which General Marshall has been trying to get both the Kuomintang and communists to join in working toward. A stable China has been for several years the hope of those who seek long-term peace in the orient. She is the logical "monitor" of Asia.

But a stable China and a China in which the communists can expand their sphere of control are two different things. Pauley's report does everything but say outright that the Russians are well aware of this.

Wilkins Scintillates

I do so wish people would leave off criticising our beloved Fulton. Is it possible that there is something wrong with the best little country town in the world? We don't have anything to be ashamed of. This is supposed to make us a good country town. But now somebody comes along and wants to know why we don't have Christmas lights up on the streets. Ain't that the limit?

Recently a visitor to Fulton who had passed through several states on the way here, asked, "What's the matter you don't have Christmas decorations?" This party thought that because all other towns have Christmas decorations we would have them too. If she stays long enough, she will discover that we don't do things like other towns do. We are odd.

Suppose we did put up Christmas lights.

After Christmas what would you have? Why, the job of taking them down, of course. Sure as shootin' somebody would be opposed to that. It might take a lot of arguing to get those pretty decorations down. We might not get them down for a long time. It would look funny to have Christmas decorations up on the Fourth of July.

Of course, people may think that we don't have much Christmas or civic spirit. They might even think that we don't know it is Christmas. Let's be unique. We will put a big banner across Lake street with these words in it: WE KNOW IT IS CHRISTMAS, TOO. Then other folks will see that we are as smart as they are.

Yours,
Wilkins Micawber.

Turned Down Movie Offer

Australian Girl Chose To Be With Husband In Preference To Money

AP Newsfeatures Sydney, Australia—A blonde outdoor girl in a remote northern Australian settlement of only 400 population has turned down a chance to become a movie star.

Instead she married a local fella and now has set up house-keeping in Alice Springs, which is a far cry from Hollywood or the gilded capitals of the world which beckoned her to fame.

When she made her choice, blue-eyed, athletic Daphne Campbell turned down several big-time film offers from London.

When the film was shown in London, Daphne was hailed as a potential star. But she had already determined to get married. Now she has a home and a baby at Alice Springs and helps her husband, Sam Calder, with his backcountry airline.

Several hundred bushels of apples were bought cooperatively by the Pendleton County Farm Bureau.

Due to good weather, farmers in Todd county sowed large acreages of wheat, barley, rye and winter oats.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr. New York, Dec. 14—(AP)—The Eastern Athletic Conference—better known as "Aca Bushnell's Office"—will make an effort next week to reorganize itself into a real conference with the avowed purpose of tossing its weight around in national athletic affairs. As it stands, the E.A.C. comprises about 100 schools who hold nearly 500 memberships in the organization. They belong to various leagues and groups which in turn are members of the conference. You can see where the vote of the Four-team Gymnastic League or the Three Eye Hockey League wouldn't influence colleges of other sections when something comes up like the subsidy and eligibility questions that are expected to cause quite a ruckus at the NCAA convention next month. But a united stand by 100 influential eastern colleges would mean a lot. Incidentally, Bushnell hints that the easterners may have to police their own ranks a bit, but the conference will do it.

No Pre-Christmas Slump Expected In Burley Sales

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 13—(AP)—Another day of steady prices was indicated on Kentucky burley tobacco markets today on the basis of early sales. Some top-grade baskets drew prices slightly lower than the trend that has prevailed since the marketing season opened, but there was nothing to indicate a slump before the Christmas holidays, warehousemen said.

SEC Announces It Will Play Fresh Signing By July 1

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Dec. 14—(AP)—Look for a rush of Southeastern Conference schools to enroll freshmen before next July 1. The conference, at its annual meeting yesterday, voted to allow first-year students enrolled prior to that date to play four years of varsity competition or one freshman year and three varsity years. To qualify for four years of varsity competition, the student must play varsity ball the first year, which would prevent him from declining to play one season and playing with the first stringers for the next four. While the rule covers "any student" it was specifically pointed out that it was intended to cover only freshmen, and not junior college graduates, transfers, or migrant students who are covered by other rules.

Bulldogs, Pups Take Both Tilts From S. Fulton

First Team Wins 31 to 22; Second Team Ahead 7 to 4

CUBA IS NEXT FOE

Eugene Cates' last-quarter scoring spree almost brought South Fulton a victory over the Fulton Bulldogs in the new gym last night, but the Fulton lads settled down in the final three minutes and made nine points to win 31-22. The Pups piled up a total of seven points to take the preliminary game by a three-point margin. The last quarter of the first game opened with Fulton ahead 21-16. Cates looped one in to make it 21-18, and Forrest followed with one point for Fulton. The South Fulton forward came back with a field goal and a foul shot to bring his team to within one point of the winner, but from then on it was Fulton's game. Eugene Pigue sank a free throw, Forrest dropped in two quick two-pointers, and Bone followed suit. Cates, lone scorer for South Fulton in the last period, got a foul throw just before the last Fulton goal. The score was 6-8 at the end of the first quarter, and Fulton led 14-10 at the half. High for the Bulldogs was Forrest, who had six field goals and one free pitch, followed by Bone with five fielders. Cates led his team with four two-pointers and two fouls. It was the record defeat of the year for the Red Devils in five games, and the first win in two for Coach Carter's squad. Fulton made five fouls in 10 attempts, and South Fulton got four of eight. The Bulldogs play next at Cuba Tuesday night. South Fulton's second team couldn't get going in the first quarter of their game, and let the Pups score three points. Neither team found the hoop in the second quarter. Things livened up a bit in the third, however, with Fulton dropping in two field goals and South Fulton getting one. The Imps added their second two points in the last quarter. Lineups: First game: Fulton Pos FG FT PF TP A. Wall Street Report

New York, Dec. 14—(AP)—Narrow irregularity continued to cloud the general direction of today's stock market.

Fractional gains and losses were pretty evenly divided at a fairly active opening. Dealings then slowed appreciably and the stalemate remained unbroken near the final hour.

Lack of any urgent liquidation was encouraging to bullish contingents.

Modest support was accorded Bethlehem, Anaconda, United Aircraft, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Woolworth, Air Reduction and Du Pont. Declines were recorded for Engineers Public Service, General Motors, Chrysler, Goodyear, Pennsylvania Railroad, Standard Oil (NJ) and International Nickel. Numerous pivots were unchanged.

Bonds and cotton were a shade uneven.

Out Of Sorts? Eat Some Liver

That's The Advice Given By UK Home Economist As Result Of Recent Study

Pork liver, often neglected by the housewife, is worth almost its weight in gold in food value stated Miss Ruth Boyden, research assistant in home economics at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics, following extensive tests on pork livers.

Lean meat and liver of pork contain the B-complex vitamins—riboflavin, niacin and thiamine—which are essential in keeping the nerves on an even keel. Miss Boyden explained so necessary are these regulating substances that even a slight deficiency may result in "nervousness."

Other sources of supply are milk, cheese, whole grains and meat.

U. S., German Children Sing Carols Together During Holiday Week

By Richard Kaschke
AP Newsfeatures
Berlin—This Christmas, for the first time since the war, American and German children will sing carols together.

These groups are now rehearsing weekly for appearances during the holiday week in Army hospitals and other American institutions.

The American children are teenagers, 14 to 18 years old, dependents of soldiers and military government personnel stationed here. They are a group without a club name organized by Mrs. Robert A. McClure, wife of Brigadier General McClure, chief of the American Military Government's information control section.

Mrs. McClure organized the young group at the request of the American Women's Club of Berlin, of which she is a member. Its social activities include a monthly dance at which young people of the Allied nations are guests.

Now the American group, numbering about 50, has formed a choral group which has joined with about 20 members of the German Madrigal choral group for Christmas singing. They practice every Tuesday afternoon under a German singing instructor at an American-occupied hotel here.

The German singers selected for the joint group also are teen-agers.

Win Over Inez Team High Spot of Season For Prestonsburg Hi

After hitting the skids for their first defeat of the season by a strong Garrett team on the Garrett floor last Saturday night, the Prestonsburg Black Cats came back Tuesday evening to defeat a highly favored Inez five here for their most pleasing victory of the still-young season.
 Friday night, the Cats romped to a 70 to 32 win over the Pikeville Academy here, with Tommy Blackberry setting a Prestonsburg high school scoring record with 34 points.
 At Garrett, however, the Cats were off form and facing a fast team that must be considered a threat in district play. Garrett jumped into the lead in the first quarter and was never headed, with the scoring being fairly evenly divided among the five men starting and finishing the contest.
 Here Tuesday night, Prestonsburg was off in front in opening minutes of the contest to the surprise of fans who had conceded the powerful Indians the game. The quarter ended with the two teams tied, but the Cats drew ahead at the half, 22-19. The score at the end of the third quarter stood, 33-27, Prestonsburg, with Inez threatening to stage a comeback, and in the final stanza the visitors drew within five points of a tie. At that point, however, the Prestonsburg players stepped forward by Porter in latter stages of the game.
 This week, the Cats are undertaking five games in as many nights. After Inez, Belfry was here Wednesday night, then undefeated Olive Hill on Thursday night. Friday night the Cats go to Hindman, then return home to entertain the Betsy Layne Bobcats Saturday night.

Mrs. Crisp Entertains With Bear Meat, Venison

Mrs. Florence Crisp, of Martin, had as her special guests Saturday night County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall and his wife, Oval, and Former Superintendent Town Hall and his wife, Hollie B. The main course was bear meat and deer, with all the trimmings, prepared in full by Mrs. Crisp's own hands. The bear and deer were killed in Wisconsin by James Crisp, Mrs. Crisp's son, formerly of the U. S. army, and the Martin studio man, Rev. J. D. Payne, who had spent several days in Wisconsin at Mr. Payne's ranch hunting bear and deer.

Of course, bear meat and gravy and wild venison were just part of the meal. The sweet potatoes and fall beans from Mrs. Crisp's own garden, seasoned with hog lard, were delicious. Strong coffee, the kind Uncle Shade Combs adored, was in abundance. The fruit salad was superb; and the chocolate and banana pies, baked by Mrs. Crisp herself were outstanding. Other good things to eat, too numerous to mention, graced the table.

Present for the meal, also, was Mrs. Billiter, of Martin, a daughter of Mrs. Crisp. James Crisp, who had helped provide the bear and deer, was too busy over in Martin selling bear meat and deer to be present. After the supper was over the guests, Mrs. Crisp and her daughter sat around the table for hours and talked over old times while more strong coffee was brewed. Really the occasion was enjoyed by all present. 11.

NEWS FOR THE VETERAN

VA FACTS AND FIGURES
Material covering all phases of the national economy as related to the veteran's welfare is available in the Veterans Administration historical library at Washington or thru extensive inter-library loan facilities.

A total of 23 chaplains are on duty in the nine Veterans Administration hospitals in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky. They minister to the spiritual needs of more than 7,500 veteran-patients. Of the 23, 13 are Protestant and 10 are Catholic.

VETS' N EDUCATION REACH RECORD HIGH
World War II veterans enrolled in educational institutions in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky under provisions of Public Law 346 (G.I. Bill) and Public Law 16 (Vocational Rehabilitation Act for disabled veterans) totaled 147,434 as of Nov. 1, according to the Veterans Administration Columbus, Ohio, Branch Office for the three states.

The total included 63,128 in Ohio, 64,455 in Michigan and 19,851 in Kentucky. Enrollments in the three-state area during October totaled 66,855. The number of World War II veterans enrolled in educational institutions and in on-the-job training programs in the three states under both Public Laws 346 and 16 totaled 210,583 as of November 1, compared with 132,880 on October 1.

VA EXPEDITING SUBSISTENCE PAYMENT TO VET TRAINEES
The Veterans Administration Branch Office in Columbus, O., has instructed its field offices in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky to make every effort to expedite payment of substance allowance before December 30 to veterans who have not been receiving these payments while enrolled in educational or training institutions.

VA Deputy Administrator Ralph H. Stone directed that an immediate check be made at all educational and training institutions, enabling VA to rush payment in delinquent cases.
VA admitted there have been numerous cases of delayed payments, resulting chiefly from the unprecedented enrollment of veterans at educational and training institutions. As of November 1, this number totaled 210,583 in the three states, including 98,268 in Ohio, 82,589 in Michigan, and 29,726 in Kentucky. Other factors causing delay in payment have been failure of institutions and veterans to submit proper forms to VA and the failure of many veterans to report changes of address.

PROOF OF SERVICE NEEDED BY VA CLAIMS APPLICANTS
Proof of military or naval service should be submitted to the Veterans Administration by persons making application for disability or death compensation or pension benefits, claims officials at the VA's Columbus Branch Office emphasized this week. In determining entitlement to such benefits, the VA will accept as evidence of service an actual discharge certificate, a photostatic copy, or any copy or abstract certified by a person authorized under law to administer oaths.

VA claims officials pointed out, however, that in some cases it may be necessary to obtain additional information not given on the discharge certificate.
Veterans or their dependents, when making inquiry at a VA office concerning disability or death compensation or pension benefits, should have with them all available evidence of service in the armed forces upon which their claims may be based.

VETS CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EASY AND EARLY THIS YEAR

Hospitalized veterans are getting their Christmas shopping completed early and easily this year through the co-operation of various organizations who have sponsored free gift shops in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky Veterans Administration hospitals.

Here, the patient can select gifts, at no expense, to be sent to his family or sweetheart. The hospital recreation staff and volunteer workers are on hand to assist in the selection—gift wrap, address and mail the presents. In addition mobile gift carts make rounds of the wards, enabling bedridden patients to participate in the novel Christmas shopping service.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Q I am taking training under the G.I. Bill and am working at night for which I receive the usual 10 per cent differential. Do I have to report this differential to the Veterans Administration in making a report of my income?
A. Yes. Both the base pay and the 10 per cent differential would be included as wages in determining the rate of subsistence allowance payable and accordingly must be reported by the veteran and the employer.

Q Is it possible for a veteran to complete his elementary school under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act?
A. Yes.

Q If the insured prefers the beneficiary to receive NSLI in monthly payments, may he designate over how long a period they are to extend?
A. Yes. The insured may select a period of 36 months to 240 months in multiples of 12. Or, the insured may select a monthly income for life with 120 months certain, or a Refund Life income, depending on age.

Q Is it possible for a disabled veteran taking vocational training under Public Law 16 to make a small loan from the government?

Auxier Plays Lucky 7th After 6 Starts in Vain; Wins 2 Straight Games

Auxier, Ky., Dec. 9 (Spl.)—After six unsuccessful bids for a victory, the Auxier Hornets finally broke into the win column with victories last week over Flat Gap and Wheelwright.

Friday night, Auxier defeated a big, rugged Flat Gap team, 30 to 24. Auxier scored after one minute of play and was never headed, although Flat Gap threatened several times. Auxier's ability to hit shots in the clutches enabled them to win. Patton and Sparks tied for high scoring honors with nine points each for Auxier. Every boy on the squad played inspired ball. Webb led the attack for Flat Gap with nine points.

On the following night the Hornets eased by the Wheelwright Ma-rooms, 29 to 28. Auxier took the lead in this game, seconds after the beginning whistle, and held a narrow lead throughout. Sparks was leading scorer for the winners with 10 points, while Fain led the attack for the losers with eight points.

Pencil Sharpener Prizes Whet Pupils' Interest, School Board Leads

That "extra added" incentive to attend school has been applied in many schools of the county this year in lieu of the former threat of the truant officer, and the result has been that attendance in these schools has been better for the second and fourth months when the plan was on trial than for the corresponding period last year, the Floyd County Board of Education has announced.

The Board offered as prizes Giant pencil sharpeners to rural and grade schools having the highest attendance for the two months. Teachers and pupils joined in a spirited campaign to keep all pupils at school every day. Some teachers offered individual prizes to promote attendance.

Schools and teachers winning sharpeners were:

BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

By EWING GALLOWAY

This little essay is about country roads. The first part of it is about a man I knew long ago, and it illustrates the difference between botchwork and patchwork. Maintenance of unpaved roads is 50 percent patchwork, done mainly with shovels. Botchwork is skimping patchwork and a deplorable waste of public money.

The man in the first part of the story was an auctioneer and village politician named Hart Floyd, undistinguished for sustained physical effort. Henderson county's country road work, such as it was, had been done under a contract system—so much per mile. Once a year the contractors ran one furrow on either side of the dirt roads with two-horse plows, then plowed the loose dirt into the ruts with a hoesdrawn grader.

If they used shovels at all it was to dig shallow trenches to half bury wooden culverts. Opening trenches to drain low places in the roads or shoveling ditches to let water go through the culverts was seldom thought of. In bad weather most of the roads in our district were all but impassable. That was botchwork. Country people complained so vigorously to the county judge and fiscal court that these officials abolished the contract system and hired the work done by the day, with a foreman in each magisterial district.

Hart Floyd's political prestige got him the foreman's job in our district. Knowing Floyd's reputation for liking easy jobs up to that time, the folks sighed and shook their heads, but he had a surprise in store for them.

Floyd hired a crew, greased an old grader, sharpened his plow points, bought some long-handled shovels, and went to work. He had his plowmen run two furrows instead of one, and the grader crowned the roads so that the water would run off. He worked with a shovel himself, opening all drains to let the water escape. Culverts that had been set too high were lowered, and new ones were buried deep enough to function efficiently. That was patchwork that counted. Not a dollar of the people's money was wasted.

But the contractors brought political pressure to bear and at the end of the year the fiscal court restored the old system. Floyd lost his job, but the effect of his good work lasted five years.

Then for more than 40 years there were no more Hart Floyds. Hardly any shoveling. Graders, maintainers were used on gravel roads and dirt lanes, but many drains were left without outlets. Low places in the roads became ponds or mudholes and stayed that way until the beginning of 1946.

The beginning of this year brought shovels back into use. County Judge Fred Vogel and his road engineer, Grover Conley, with co-operation from the board of magistrates, put a crew of patchworkers with shovels and other hand tools out with the county's big machines.

The work is not perfect, because there are too many miles of road that demand some attention, but by the end of the year more good work will have been done than in any previous five years in four decades. Even the poorest counties in the state can profit by Henderson county's experience. They can make every dollar of their road money count.

Carl Ford, of Berea, is spending a few days this week with his mother, Mrs. Grace D. Ford.

Rordam-Howard Vows Said at Miami, Fla., On November 24th

Choosing the date which marks the wedding anniversary of his brother and sister-in-law, Walter D. Howard and Mrs. Sonja Rordam exchanged nuptial vows Nov. 24 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Longman, 1909 S. Bayshore Lane, Miami, Florida.

Dr. Everett S. Smith, pastor of First Christian Church, read the marriage ceremony before an improvised altar in the Longman drawing room. Tall white tapers were lighted for the 5 p.m. service and a profusion of white chrysanthemums decked the scene. Mrs. Longman played music appropriate to the occasion.

Given in marriage by Walter F. van Landingham, the bride wore a lime green suit of soft wool, simply styled with long torso jacket and a slim skirt. Bands of silver sequins on the front of the cardigan coat were the ensemble's only trim. A matching halo of net sprinkled with the same sequins, white shoes and handbag completed her costume.

With her white Bible, Mrs. Rordam carried a corsage of white orchids and tuberoses.

Mrs. Van Landingham, mother of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. She selected, for the event a navy blue dress, accentuated with fuchsia and white print; a fuchsia hat and a lavender orchid corsage.

Joseph Telds served as best man for Mr. Howard who is the son of the late Dr. Grover L. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Landingham were guests for the wedding supper which took place in Coral Gables Country Club. During the dinner, Mr. Howard's brother, Grover L. Howard, Jr., telephoned his felicitations from Falling Rock, W. Va., where he and his wife now reside.

When the Howards return from a honeymoon in Havana, they will make their home temporarily with the Van Landinghams at 871 N.W. Third St., Miami.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Behring Rordam, Manhattan, N.Y., the bride was educated in New York schools. Mr. Howard was graduated from Kentucky Military Institute and attended the University of Miami prior to entering the army air corps.

Veteran of 68 months' duty, he spent much of that time flying "The Hump" in the China-Burma-India theater, earning the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with four battle stars. He now is associated with Koger's Electric Appliance.

TO RECEIVE A B. DEGREE

Miss Jane Hamilton Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clarke, will receive her A. B. degree at the University of Kentucky the latter part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will attend the graduation exercises. Miss Clarke will accompany them home.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT CHIEF EXPLAINS NEW MOTOR LAW

With Kentucky's new Safety-Responsibility Act becoming effective January 1, many citizens are seeking information on the law, and are learning that this measure will have a more far-reaching effect than they had anticipated. Commissioner O. M. Howard, of the Department of Revenue, said this week in briefy pointing out how this act may affect Kentuckians of various groups.

His explanation of the law follows: Car owners constitute the group most generally affected by the provisions of the Safety-Responsibility Act. Should a car owner become involved in an accident and not have liability insurance, he is required to establish financial responsibility by means of a surety bond or a cash deposit with the state treasurer in case the courts award a judgment against him. If he cannot meet these requirements, he then must forfeit his operator's license and registration of all motor vehicles in his name.

It is important to remember if he is involved in a traffic accident, he is required to submit an accident report to the Department. This applies to any traffic accident in which $50 or more in property damage is sustained by any party involved, or in which any person is killed or injured.

A fleet owner may furnish financial proof, under the new law, for any person operating a vehicle in his employ. If he as a fleet owner has registered in his name more than 25 motor vehicles he may qualify as a self-insurer. To do this he must obtain a certificate of self-insurance from the Department of Revenue. Such self-insurer is not then required to furnish security following accidents, as in the usual manner.

If an employed operator is involved in an accident while operating a motor vehicle in the employ of another person, he is nonetheless required to fill out the necessary accident report form. His operator's license, too, would be suspended if neither he nor the owner of the vehicle involved is able to give any suitable financial proof of ability to pay damages.

If a driver has an accident while driving the motor vehicle of another person and does not have such owner's permission, either expressed or implied, then he responsibility is solely his under the Safety Responsibility Act.

The new law says the owner of a motor vehicle may furnish financial proof for any number of his immediate family or household should they become involved in an accident requiring such security.

Under the new law motorists are still liable to pedestrians for any personal injury caused by a traffic accident.

A non-resident owner of a vehicle not registered in this state must comply with the provisions of the Safety-Responsibility Act. If he violates these provisions he forfeits his driving privileges in this state.

Stick Candy Helps Make Apple Butter

Despite the sugar shortage, Mrs. John Moore, of Boyd county, will have an ample supply of apple butter for her family this winter. Using red and white peppermint stick candy for sweetening, she has filled a number of jars with a delicious pink apple spread. This is the recipe she gave Home Agent Lois M. Sharp:

To two gallons of cooked apples, add two pounds of crushed red and white peppermint stick candy. Place the mixture in an uncovered roaster or other large pan in a medium oven, 350 to 400 degrees, for three to four hours until the butter is of the proper consistency. Stir frequently. Seal in jars. Two pounds of candy will supply the sweetening and flavor needed for about four pints of apple butter.

Former Floyd Girl To Wed Indianan

Mr. and Mrs. Whitten Reffitt, formerly of Langley, now residing in Kewanna, Indiana, announce the engagement of their daughter, Vada, to Mr. Howard Keith Bates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard O. Bates, Rochester, Indiana.

Miss Reffitt is a graduate of Cady Junior College and has attended Berea College and Morehead State Teachers College. She is now teaching in Rochester, Ind., city schools. Mr. Bates was graduated from Rochester high school and attended Manchester College, North Manchester, Indiana, for a year before entering the armed forces. He served in the army two years in the States and one year in the European theatre. He plans to enter the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music in January to continue his education.

The wedding will take place Dec. 22 at 8 o'clock in Grace Methodist Church, Rochester, Indiana.

Hotel Property in Jenkins Sold by Coal Company

Jenkins, Ky., Dec. 10—The ownership of one of the oldest and largest structures to rise with the advent of coal mining in the Jenkins district has changed hands.

D. D. Query, Marion, Va., announced the purchase from the Consolidation Coal Company of its re-creation building and hotel here at a reported price of more than $50,000.

Sale of the building, erected in 1913, is in line with moves by major coal firms in the Eastern Kentucky field to divest themselves of realty holdings.

The structure housed a theater, which was damaged by fire a year ago, and several smaller business establishments. Query announced he would rebuild the theater and remodel and enlarge the hotel.

Due to good weather, farmers in Todd county sowed large acreages of wheat, barley, rye and winter oats.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

By EWING GALLOWAY
Some years ago a friend of mine resigned from the board of directors of a public institution. He was a man of means and influence, and could spare the time the job demanded of him, which wasn't much.

"Why did you quit?" I asked him. "Too many headaches. Petty politics, personal jealousies—practically everything you can think of that would make it unpleasant. And, of course, no thanks from the public."

The incident illustrates forcefully one of the main reasons why, in general local government and institutional management in Kentucky in recent years have put us near the bottom of the list of states. Men and women capable of fine public service, the very persons we need, refuse to accept responsibilities because of inevitable headaches.

"Don't get me wrong. Hundreds of capable people of means are giving their best to their communities. But there are not enough of them. Too many who ought to serve in political jobs or as directors of public institutions prefer snugness to headaches.

Though I knew it was no use, I asked my friend if he recalled a great public man named Benjamin Franklin. Yes, he did. "You remember," I went on, "that Franklin retired from business life at 45 and went to work for his country when there were more headaches than in any other period in the nation's history. He gave to our tottering infant nation 30 years of service unexcelled in all history. And all that when headaches were headaches, not just temporary annoyances."

"But I'm not Ben Franklin," was the unexpected reply. Of course there are no more big Ben Franklins, but in Kentucky there are hundreds of men and women who might become little Franklins if they abandoned their snugness and assumed leadership in their own communities. We need leaders who are not afraid to fight for better things, no matter how strong the opposition is. The ultimate reward may be the greatest thing in life.

In winding up this little essay let me quote two wonderful lines I read many years ago in a story by Maxim Gorky:

"Let us sing a chant of praise for the daring and the brave."
"The freesty of courage is the wisdom of life."
