Says Campaign Money "Lost"

Minneapolis Time Outlines He Learned His Gift Never Reached Pupil

Washington, Dec. 16-AP. R. L. Rock, basketball star, today, however, told the NBDU investigating committee today that he had loaned a $787 mortgage in his name to a friend of his that had not been turned over to the mortgagor.

The biggest spender ever to enter a public industrial school was

William Henry Bingham, former

Pupil of the high school here, and the record will be topped by the 200 dollars spent by the new

Pupil who is now in his third year at the school.

CHIEF CIVILIAN
CITY NATIONAL BANK
PHONE 97

The bank's new chief civilian, Dr. T. R. Field, has been named to the position of chief civilian of the bank.

In a statement, Dr. Field said, "I am honored to have been selected for this position. It is a great responsibility, but one that I am eager to face."

Field, a respected civil servant, has been serving the bank for several years. He has been known for his dedication to the bank's mission and his commitment to its success.

Field replaces Dr. John M. Smith, who has served as the bank's chief civilian for the past five years.

Field's appointment comes at a time when the bank is facing significant challenges. With the economy in flux, the bank is working to ensure its financial stability and continue to serve its customers.

Field said he looks forward to working with the bank's management team to address these challenges and ensure the bank's continued success.

The United States often finds itself in a situation where it must balance the needs of its citizens with the demands of international relations.

It is a difficult task, as the United States must work to ensure the safety and security of its citizens while also maintaining its place as a global leader. This is particularly true in today's world, where the United States must navigate the complexities of international politics.
