Agricultural and Home Fair To Be Held Oct. 14-15 Declare Farm Committees

HOMEWORK, FOOD, FIELD PRODUCTS TO BE ON DISPLAY

Every Community in County is Represented on Finance Committee

PREMIUM LIST TO BE COMPREHENSIVE

The fruit of the field and the loom, the vineyard and the flock, will find a representative place among the exhibits of Calloway county's agricultural and community handwork in the livestock and feature booths of Calloway county's annual agricultural fair to be held Friday and Saturday, October 14 and 15.

In charge of the fair will be the Calloway Farm Bureau organization in cooperation with agricultural offices all over the county and the county agent's office.

Miss Frances Whitnell, farm bureau secretary, announced that committees have been appointed all over the county to consider the quite necessary matter of financing the fair. Prizes, of course, will be given both for farm and home displays, and it will be the duty of the finance committee to raise enough money to liquidate such obligations.

Committees are to be active in every community. A publicity committee composed of Garland Neale, who is president of the farm bureau in this county and also general manager of the fair—Superintendent T. C. Cochran, and County Agent J. T. Cochran said today the farm organization is now busily engaged working up its premium list.

As was done last year, the works of the home will have just as much display as those of the field. Needlecraft, crochery, hand-weaving, canning, and other things will be exhibited. There will be special places in the arena for livestock. Even a dog show will be on the schedule.

A brand new but by no means uncustomary offering will be the utility program given Saturday night in the closing hours of the fair. Reminiscent of the old time country fair, it will incorporate hog-calling and husband-calling contests with slap-stick comedy dances and pantomime features.
Competent judges and a master of ceremonies will be in charge.

Finance committees for the different communities in the county are listed as follows: Kirksey—H.
A. Lassiter, Rex Watson, Hugh Gingles, Harvey Dixon, and Mrs.
J. H. Walston; Hazel, Vernon
James, Marvin Hill, Ethel Mae
Paschall, and L. D. Miller; Lynn Grove, Buron Jeffrey, C. J. Williams, Eula Mae Doherty, and E.
L. Kuykendall; Faxon, Holman
Jones, Laymon Fawcett, E. P.
Jones, and Irene Brandon; Concord, L. A. Rains, W. B. Patterson, and Mrs. J. R. Williams; Almo, Raymond Story, R. A. Walston, Prentice Lassiter, and Mrs.
Raymond Story; and Murray, Ed
Filbeck, Mrs. M. C. Walker, H. L.
Parker, Perry Thornton, and Wells Purdum.

Civil War Rages In Czech State; Minister to Hitler

Bloody war raged today throughout the Sudeten German provinces of Czechoslovakia, many dying and hundreds falling wounded under crossfires from Sudeten and Czech soldiers.

In the meantime, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain of Britain, in a history-making effort to avert war, made arrangements to fly to Germany today to confer with Adolf Hitler in a frank and last minute attempt to manufacture peace.

At the same time, France and England placed government activity under wartime procedure and groomed their soldiers for battle.

MURRAY STATE TO PLAY WISCONSIN TOMORROW NIGHT

Twenty Racehorses Make Trip to Superior, Wis.,
by Auto

FRESHMAN SQUAD IS LIMITED TO 21

Murray's football Thoroughbreds, 29-strong not counting Coaches Roy Stewart and Jim Moore, were due to arrive in Superior, Wis., today where they will go through a practice scrimmage tonight in preparation for their opening football battle of the 1938 season with Wisconsin State tomorrow night.

The team was in excellent spirit and was in good shape, and members of the squad—If. Coaches Moore or Stewart were not—were free in predicting they would duplicate last year's feat when they handed the Yellowjackets a 27-7 setback.

Just before he left, Coach Stewart said he plans to start Johnson at center, Neese and Downey at guards; Gudauskas and Donohoe at tackles; Deibert and Love at ends; McRaven at the fullback area;
and Yarbrough running from the wingback. In case the starting line-up fails to click, Stewart has numerous capable reserves to substitute with.

Coach Ted Wheareat's boys constitute practically the same outfit that came to Murray last year,
with such stars as Gentile, Cirilli, Paquette, Tonish, and Milutinovich all back, supplemented by some strong freshmen recruits.

The Thoroughbreds stopped at Rockford, Ill., last night. They will leave Superior Saturday morning, and will reach here Sunday night. Members of the Murray squad to make the trip were Co-Captains Deibert and Yarbrough,
Love, Bland, Atwell, McMurray, Gudauskas, Donohoe, Morris, Brandeis, Downey, Neese, Walters, Chupa, Applegate, Holander, Johnson, Putnam, McGarvey, Finley, Beale, Wray, McEwen, Inman,
Spalding, Mitchell, Lee, Jasper,
Yarbrough, and Labonte.

Freshman Squad Cut

Murray's freshman squad which has numbered at one time over 50, was cut down to 21 men Tuesday by the coaching staff, with the number expected to bounce back to 28 when school starts.

Those who were kept on the squad following a two-week tryout period were: Centers: George Speth and Harman Wray; Guards: Ken Valentine, Jack Bratton, Charles
Donnigan, and Johnson; tackles,
Martin Petek, Henry Skwarew-ski, Pete Weddell; ends, Jimmy Tucker and Ed Gray; backs, Jimmie Hill, Harold Faxon, Cal Forza, Andy Coglian, Johnny Buckle, Pete Koss, James Nanney, Clarence Houts, Shirley Gilbert, and Steve Levandowski.

The frosh have games scheduled with Austin Peay Normal, University of Tennessee Junior College, Western and Union University freshmen.

Craekers. "Oswald" was good enough for Elmo Workman, proprietor of the Standard Oil Station, but N. P. Huston, dealer in fertilizer and farm supplies here, was contented with "Walking Jim".
You couldn't fool the Ledger & Times, however. The Ledger said those other names were all right, but "Front Page" was always first,
so there! M. C. Garrett, BMA agent at Mayfield, was of the opinion that a turtle by the name of "Protection" might teach a little bit of salary assurance, but Gordon Crouch, Lynn Grove, felt he could get along with just a "Doughball".

The Double Cola Bottling Company wasn't sure whether "a great drink, a mighty flavor" was too long a name or not and compromised with simply "Double Cola". Not so, Wallis Drug, who said if it didn't have it, it could get it or it couldn't be got, and so it named its multiplier "Emma". Economy Feed Store was sure you could see the difference
if you watched "Kernel Purina".
The "where men trade" store,
Corn-Austin, if you please said they'd lay you dollars to doughnuts that "Hyde Park" wins the race. (Watch out, "Front Page") Porter Motor Company, full of service and perhaps the sales that go with it, figured a "Chevrolet" could get along as fast if not faster than any of 'em.

You wouldn't believe it, but Murray Lumber Company was positive that every step "Sam" took would be a square deal. B.
C. Swann had obviously just got

Furniture Store To Be Opened by Murray Citizens

Nathan Lassiter and Dewey
Ragsdale To Operate New Establishment

Announcement was made here Wednesday of the opening of a new furniture store in this city in the Tom Morris room on the west side of the court square in the room formerly occupied by the Scott-Lassiter Hardware Store.

Nathan Lassiter and Dewey
Ragsdale will open a new modern furniture store there about October 1, handling a complete line of furniture, stoves, rugs and novelty gifts. The firm will be styled the Lassiter-Ragsdale Furniture Company.

Mr. Lassiter is well known locally having been connected with the E. S. Duguid Store here since 1928, and prior to that he operated the 10c store, which is now Mc-Elroy's, from 1922 to 1928. He bought the store from McElroy's in 1922 and sold back to them in 1928.

Dewey Ragsdale is a native Calloway county man having been raised on the east side of the county in the Faxon neighborhood, and served as deputy clerk under George Parker. He is the son of the late J. N. Ragsdale, and has been in Florida for about the last 15 years as deputy clerk of Polk county there, located in the city of Bartow. He has been back here for the last six months, and working for the E. M. Farmer Tobacco Company.

They will completely redecorate the store before moving in their stock of goods. All their friends are wishing them success in their new business enterprise.

Excuse Us, Please

In the Bank of Murray ad in last week's Dam issue of the Ledger & Times, the name of E. J. Beale was omitted from the list of the Board of Directors. This was an unintentional error, and the omission is greatly regretted by this newspaper.

500 REGISTER AT MURRAY HIGH AT OPENING SESSION

The Rev. Sam P. Martin
Gives Opening Talk;
Filbeck in Charge

CHARLES FARMER IS NEW MUSIC LEADER

Murray high school began its 1938 fall semester Monday morning, registering more than 500 pupils in all departments on an enrollment schedule which it is believed will exceed 550 pupils.
Principal Ed. Filbeck was in charge.

The Rev. Sam P. Martin, pastor of the First Baptist church here, delivered the opening address, declaring that if the South were lacking in education it did not follow that it was lacking in spirit. Mr.
Martin stressed the need for faculty-student cooperation.

Classwork did not begin until Tuesday morning.
Charles Farmer, a graduate of Murray State College and of Murray high school, was elected to replace Everett Crane as head of the high school department of music after Crane had resigned to accept a similar position at Harrisburg, Ill.

Farmer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Farmer, of Murray.
Last year, he was instructor of music and dramatics at Heath high school in McCracken county. He comes well recommended from Murray College where he was a leader in campus activities which included such features as play production, band, orchestra, mixed ensembles, news work.

Other instructors at Murray high school this year are Principal Ed.
Filbeck, Preston Holland, coach;
W. B. Moser, biology; Ardath
Canon, chemistry; Wilburn Cavitt, mathematics and woodshop; Myra Bagwell, English and French;
Hazel Tarry, English; Meadow Huie,
history; Marguerite Holcomb, home economics; Lala Cain, commerce; Ruth Lassiter, junior high math; Mrs. Ruth Churchill, geography; Lettie Clayton Beck, fourth grade; Mary Lou Outland, fifth grade; Nellie Jones, fourth; Mrs.
B. F. Crawford, third; Lucy Lee, second; Kathleen Patterson, first and second; and Margaret Graves, first.

W. J. Caplinger is superintendent of the city school system. Business according to the superintendent are as usual.

MURRAY TIGERS TO TACKLE HOPTOWN IN OPENING BATTLE

Buchanan, Gardner Out of Lineup Because of Injuries
Prospects Gloomy

THOMAS FARLEY IS UTILITY DISCOVERY

Beset by misfortune that took three of their best men, the Murray high school Tigers went through their last scrimmage session Wednesday before their game Friday night with Hopkinsville in Hopkinsville.

Early practices had been built around James Buchanan, fullback, and C. Crider, tackle, co-captains.
Solon Hale and Gardner, tall ends.
After the second day's practice session, Buchanan was stricken with appendicitis and an emergency operation was necessary. Hale withdrew from school to attend a military academy; and Tuesday Gardner, the very nucleus of Murray's passing attack, was in a Murray hospital after being operated on for the recurrence of an old injury—hot gained in football.

It left Coach Preston Holland with a team conspicuous for its inexperience. Only three men are seniors—Hart, Gingles, and Crider—the others are either freshmen or sophomores, with a few seniors.

Coach Holland has more than 40 candidates out for the team, and declared the reserves are more on a par than they've been in several years. He was rather pessimistic about his team's chances for winning a major percentage of their games this year, but with the fine crop of youngsters who are out he believes there is a good chance for victories in coming seasons.

Although he is not looking for a victory for his proteges Friday night, Coach Holland believes the score may not show more than a touchdown or two difference.

Several of Holland's starting men are sophomores. Among the standouts are Thomas Farley, a utility player who holds down any position seemingly equally well, who in all likelihood will gain a starting berth either at halfback or guard against Hopkinsville Friday night. Other excellent prospects coming up from the ranks are Farmer, halfback; Scott, tackle, and Erwin, end.

Coach Holland gave his probable starting lineup for the game Friday night as Phillips or King-ins, left end; Brumley, left tackle;
Baker, or Farley, left guard; Mc-Nutt or Farley, center; Outland or Parker, right guard; Captain Crider, right tackle; Hart, right end;
Patterson, or Boggs, quarterback; Gingles, halfback; Robinson, halfback; and Huie, fullback.

Hopkinsville, according to reports coming here, is exceptionally good this year and is expected to come close to winning the pennant. This is Murray's first time to play the Hoppers in several years, but it begins a series which will last a while. Hopkinsville will play here next year.

Murray's next home game is with Dawson Springs at Murray Friday night, September 23.

gency operation for appendicitis.
She underwent the operation satisfactorily.

Rains, principal of New Concord school, said the livestock judging team, composed of Harry Slidd, Wayne Wilson, and Earle Steele, today.

Architect Makes Plans for Newest Theatre in City

The Columbia Amusement Company, operator of the Capitol Theatre here, announced today that Architect O. W. Steigemeier, of St. Louis, has been surveying the various sites the company has under option for the location of its new $50,000 theatre to be built here. The definite location will not be announced until next week.

The showplace will be called
"The Varsity". Harry Moore, architect had planned over 100 theatres in the mid-west and south, and his services were employed here to give local patrons the best designed and most comfortable theatre possible for their convenience.

An architect's sketch of the new movie palace will be published in the Ledger & Times in an early issue.

SUBSTITUTE FOR PHOSPHATE URGED

Supply of 47-Per Cent Fertilizer is Exhausted; Officials Urge Use of 20 Per Cent

Announcement from the office of the county agent here today that the supply of 47 per cent phosphate, which the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has been furnishing farmers throughout this territory to do soil-building practices with this year, has been exhausted. It is already in this area who have not yet earned their soil-building allowance; with the alternative of using a substitute for the 47 per cent fertilizer.

Such a substitute is 20 per cent
phosphate, except that 240 pounds of it is required for one unit, whereas 100 pounds of the 47 phosphate was all that was required.

County Agent J. T. Cochran recommended today that all farmers delinquent in their earned allowance should use the 20 per cent phosphate.

The county committee, the county agent, and the community committees expressed their eagerness today that every farmer in this county earn his soil-building allowance for 1938. To do this, they said, most farmers must do additional soil-building practices. The committees and agent were of the opinion the money paid to farmers in this county for such practices will increase from $25,000 to $30,000 over previous years' payments.

Library science is the latest department to be organized. Its purpose is to prepare teacher-librarians. Eventually, the college hopes to give both majors and minors in the department. W. J.
Gibson is head of the department.

A new heating plant has recently been installed on the campus, featuring two 20-ton water tubed boilers. Campus buildings are being redecorated and are under repair, but all will be in readiness for the opening of the fall semester Monday.

song leaders, soloists, and duet

be received for the convention
next year, it was announced.

back from a fishing trip for he gave his turtle-dove the midnick of "Reelfoot". (Yipee! Reelin' and a rockin', and she can't get along!) W. T. Siedel said "he'd string along with 'Man-O-War'." Graham & Jackson put their money on "Curlee". Dale & Stubbfield wanted to save with safety, so they named their worthy "Rexall". E. S. Duane said like some exterior decoration might not be amiss, and gave his representative the pseudonym of "Hot Point". Joe Whitnell, a life in automobile insurance man, picked "Repair" on the nose. Adams Brown-Bilt Sheet felt that "Buster Brown" would be nationally known could be locally owned; and C. E. Hale, agent for Shell Petroleum, put his best on "Super Shell" two to one.

Calloway county Lumber Company chose "The Ripper". Jack Brothers and Dalton, Lynn Grove dealers in gas, oil, and car repairs, named their terrapin "Koolmotor". New Concord Milling Company, which manufactures Via Pure meal in addition to flour, wanted to be "Exclusive" in their selection of turtles. Stokes-Smith Motor Company, which has watched the Fords go by a long time, was satisfied with a V-8. The Murray West Kentuckian would have nothing else with "Westie" (It might be because of the sound of the word, you know, we wouldn't even hazard a guess). H. B. Bailey in a quandary between "The Jeweler" and "On Time" chose the latter; Jones Drug Company thought it was all "Duckie". Paschall's Cleaners opined that "Luckum" might be able both to win races and clean clothes cleaner.

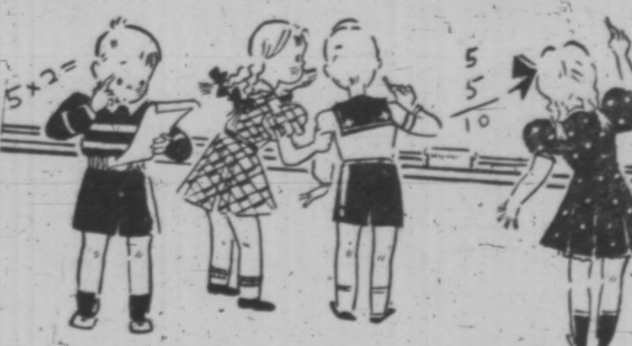

At the Collegiate Inn, Lloyd Allbritten wanted "Fun-Mun". We don't know what for. Crawford Service Station, at Lynn Grove thought that for fast going, "Shell" is best; the Lynn Grove Parent-Teacher Association declares "Progress" may be slow, but it is sure.

C. Ray, however, who oftentimes travels by bus, couldn't get away from the idea of "The Clipper". Lochridge and Ridgeway (you've got a ridge at both ends there), old reliable from Mayfield, named their entrant "Uncle Biz". Don't ask us why. But Coy's Cleaners, who say they are Murray's model dry cleaners, thought they'd better "Spruce Up" a bit.

And that's that! Except the numbers go in order down to her 38. Numbers from there on out in order are 41, 42, 49, and 141.

Mr. M. W. McKenzie of Danville, Ky., has returned to his home after a several days' visit with his sister, Mrs. J. J. Moser and family in Langston Avenue.

Protemus Palaver

The final rush of fall work will soon be over and already the busy housewives are turning their minds to quilting and piecing quilts.

The quilting is finished, with only catgut making remaining to be done. Is there anything that surpasses the glow of realization that something has been accomplished throughout the summer, and that the winter may be spent in relaxation and ease?

Mrs. Belle Motheral is reported to be very ill at this writing. Mrs. Motheral fell almost three years ago and has been unable to walk since that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Cochran are building a new house. I'm almost envious of you, Hattie, I want a new house so badly.

The Mt. Pleasant meeting closed Saturday night. The Rev. C. C. Clements did the preaching. Bro. Clements is a very forceful speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Baker were visitors in the hope of Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Beach of Brown's Grove, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Honored.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Miller, our special merchant at Protemus, were quietly celebrating their respective birthdays on Sunday, September 4. Mr. Miller could look back upon 66 years of beautiful, active service, while Mrs. Miller, had reached her 63 milestone, rearing seven children and watching each of them leave the family fireside to establish their own homes.

Toward the noon hours relatives and friends began arriving with huge hampers of food, completely surprising both Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Among those present were their seven children and all their grand children, being the first family reunion in many years.

At noon huge tables were set upon the lawn, literally groaning with delicious food. Brother Copeland preached in the afternoon. Both Mr. and Mrs. Miller belong to the Sanctified Church and live exemplary-Christian lives.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Miller and son, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lovie Miller and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Golden Wilson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Midget and children, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Morris.

Mrs. Zoe Wood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob White and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Cole, Rev. and Mrs. Clay Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. Will Shankle, Rev. and Mrs. Copeland, Mrs. Netie Ann Haines and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dinsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Berry Brown, Mrs. Wilma Dublin, Euel Dick and son, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dunaway and son, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cook.

and children, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Motheral, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Lancy Morris and children, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Will Murdock and sons.

While in Murray Saturday, I saw Esaw and Sheriff Ira Fox and a deputy put a moonshine whiskey still on a motor truck and send it toward Mayfield as a souvenir.

I also saw a score of awful big-bellied "Bens", i. e.—Sudde Brooks, George Hart, Burgess Parker's brother, Walter Garrison, Hiram Finney, Jim Cochran, and ole Bud Weizer. Their pants have to be "brought on".

Was at Ledger & Times place, too. Locked up and gone to dinner. Then I went back to the Courthouse—where I saw John Clapton, "Poppey", Quintman Walker, John C. Morgan, of "Possum Holler" and...

built by Arthur Zee and C. A. Morgan. Arthur Zee has built in his lifetime, 81 years, enough buildings to constitute almost a city.

Mrs. Nellie Perdue said that they lost a $75.00 Jersey milk cow by it eating green sweet clover, and in the last few years had lost two mules and two other milk cows and besides the bulldog "Jesse".

Well, the Bible says that "lost" everything he possessed and lived through it all—happily every after. If I was to report all of my "bad luck" I would have to employ a graduate stenographer.

Was agreeably surprised to get 5 sections of the Ledger & Times last week. What a grand combination! All about Gilbertsville dam which is under construction. It had maps, diagrams, yes and pictures and names of prominent ladies and gentlemen of Murray and environs, and to cap the climax there was "Ole Eagle's" photo.

How funny—it should have been just about "Rainey" instead of below. Awful! blunder! Tee-hee! Mary Länier Magruder whose "column" appears in Sunday's Sun-Democrat, said that Detroit, where she is visiting, is headed for "dead broke". Auto machinery is being transferred to down in Dixie land. One thousand Detroit hirelings in Calloway "hid off" until Gabriel stands with one foot on land and the other foot on the sea and proclaims "time shall be no longer."

Cullie Steel's nephew caught a grasshopper on my collar and all colors of butterflies are flickering around laying eggs to make worms to destroy vegetation. Butterfly on wings of gold, June bug's wings all aflame, bed bug has no wings at all but gits that all the same.

Faxon Facets

Can anyone guess why there is such an influx of students this year? Many families are returning to the industrial centers. But my observation suggests that not many men, with older children are leaving. I heard an assistant of the state superintendent suggest recently that an increase in attendance an enrollment, as well as a new demand for trained teachers, is prevalent all over the state this fall.

Brother Mathis met his monthly appointment at Liberty Sunday and preached to a large audience. A large group of young folks and older one took dinner at the Clay Wells home.

The usual large number attended Sunday School at Sugar Creek Sunday morning.

Many have reported a large crowd and a splendid sermon by Brother Meritt Youngblood at Friendship Sunday. One fine young woman confessed her faith in Christ, and another large crowd went to the water's edge to witness her act of obeying from the heart that form of doctrine delivered to the saints.

Mr. and Mrs. Youngblood and Mr. and Mrs. Mayron took dinner with Elder and Mrs. V. B. Folwell.

Mrs. Ellen Skinner of Paducah is visiting with her many relatives in Faxon community.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Folwell and Mary Ruth accompanied their aunt, Mrs. Ellen Skinner, to visit with her children in Paducah over the week-end. They took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Skinner of Reidland.

Misses Geneva Hargis and Audie Folwell accompanied Brother Til-man Taylor to Henderson, Ky., where he preached Sunday for the Church of Christ. His good sermon was well received and he was highly commended. Alf's good friends made us all very welcome, furnishing a pleasant and profitable week-end.

A number of persons have been indisposed, but there seems to be no serious sickness, for which we are thankful.

Little Miss Nancy Holland Parker one evening last week drank some camphorated oil, which made her lifeless. She was rushed to the doctor, who restored her unharmed.

The Faxon faculty is very busy at many things just now, with the community fair and the county agricultural fair, the FDEA program, the judging team, the faculty-student play, the athletic season, and many other things looming on the near horizon.

Besides soliciting nearly half of the new 1938 Faxon fair catalog, Miss Brandon, has been appointed on two committees of the county fair.—Alf.

Confidence . . .

A funeral director renders a most intimate and personal service. Thus, it is extremely important that you choose a man in whom you can have implicit confidence. When death occurs, stress of emotion often makes clear thinking impossible and then there is no time for investigation or comparison. Therefore decide now what funeral director to call.

Sincerely,

The J. H. Churchill Funeral Home

Less Monthly Discomfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDUL, a special medicine for women. They found it helped to increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Naturally there is less discomfort at monthly periods when the system has been strengthened and the various functions restored and regulated. CARDUL, praised by thousands of women, is well worth trying. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.

Hazel FFA Holds Meeting Tuesday

The Hazel chapter of FFA held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, September 13. The meeting was called to order by the president, Robert Hendon, and was formally opened with the regular ceremony. Reports were then made by Secretary James Overcast, and Treasurer Houston Hawley. William Adams was appointed news reporter.

The FFA judging team which is to enter in the dairy judging contest at Louisville, Ky., September 18, 17, and 18, is composed of Robert Hendon, Frank Ralph Cochran, and Robert Ross Craig. The future farmers decided at this meeting that a monthly newsletter should be published, the first copy to appear next month. A committee composed of James Overcast, Houston Hawley, and Herman Kelly Ellis, was selected to act as head of the newsletter.

The Future Farmer boys have been active this summer and enough money has been raised to buy the picture projector once owned by the agriculture teacher, also a nice selection of farm tools have been purchased since the last meeting. The boys will do landscaping about the campus. The plans and drawings of the campus have already been made to aid with the project. Also backstop for the tennis courts are just about completed.

Thursday night, September 22, was set for the initiation of freshmen boys into the club. Earl Knight, James Hugh Grogan, and Houston Hawley were appointed committeemen of the affair. It was then decided that a party would be given the following Tuesday night. A committee composed of Ed Miller, William Oliver, and Joe Parker was chosen. After this there was no other business brought up. The meeting was closed by the regular closing ceremony. Then the FFA boys played the Hazel Independents in a softball game.

Tapestry Weaving To Be Offered By MSC During Term

Tapestry weaving is one of the new courses being offered by the fine arts department at Murray State College that will be popular at Murray this fall, according to Prof. Price Doyle. Art majors will flock to this course as it offers them a ready medium for the execution of original designs, whether simple or complex. The course is equally interesting to craftsmen. In fact all who like to know how things are made, and enjoy making them, will find this course stimulating, Doyle said. Tapestry weaving is a highly perfected craft, and it is not necessary to weave original designs to enjoy the thrill of creating beautiful weavings, he averred.

The extreme practicality of the course has wide appeal, as the finished articles are immediately usable for purses, wall hangings, or upholstery, whether executed in the first training technique, the primitive Greek Sumak, or the more advanced French or tapestry technique. The rugged quality of the weavings makes them unusually durable, and time devoted to learning how much textiles may be produced from such simple materials is time well spent.

Murray College is the first school in this section of the country to offer a thoroughly technical course of this kind, and it is expected that many will be eager to learn this distinguished craft.

In order that non-student residents of Murray may take advantage of this opportunity to become familiar with the technique of tapestry weaving a class is being arranged, at a nominal fee, to meet at an hour convenient to home-makers and club women.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, September 18, 1938

Now that the summer is gone and our schools are again open we welcome back to our fellowship and to their places of service in the church those college students and members of the faculty who have been so faithful to the church in the days gone by.

At the morning worship hour, 10:50 o'clock, continuing the series of sermons on "The Church as a Family". The church is called by many names in the Bible and the term "Family" has a rich meaning.

At the evening hour the pastor will preach on "Rewards". They come to all of us, of one kind or another. Which will you choose? We call attention to the fact that the time of the evening service is changed from 7:45 to 7:30 meet at 8:45, thus giving them 45 minutes for their service.

Our Sunday-school is intended for those of all ages and all conditions of life. One ought never to become too old or too poor to attend upon this means of grace. Bro. C. A. Hale will give you a warm greeting at 9:30.

Particularly do we urge the fine citizens moving to Murray to identify themselves with one of our fine churches. You will find a royal welcome at every one of them. If your denomination does not have an organization at Murray you can well forego some of your preferences that you and your family may be enriched in your lives by the public worship of Jehovah. No individual and no family can afford to leave God out of your plans. Find your place of worship and service in one of our splendid congregations.

J. Mack Jenkins, Pastor.

War Threat Looms Imminent, But The Hitler Speech Leaves Loophole

SAYS DEPRIVATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS MUST COME TO END

France and England Await Next Move of Germany

NUREMBERG, Germany, Sept. 15.—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler went to the very brink of war Monday but was careful to arrest himself this side of the precipice.

Tantalizingly, he kept dangling the possibility of a war-less solution of the Sudeten German problem before Europe's statesmen. In an address before 25,000 persons in the Nazi congress hall, he closed the eight-day Nazi party convention by producing "self-determination" for the Germanic minority as the implied alternative to forcible action against Czechoslovakia.

"I assure the democracies that the fate of the Sudetens is not a matter of indifference to us," he declared. "If these harassed people feel they are without rights and aid they will get both from us."

In one respect, however, the Fuehrer sought to relieve the international situation, he held out an olive branch to France.

Reasserting Germany's readiness to let bygones be bygones, he again renounced all aspirations for revision of the Versailles Treaty with a view to regaining Alsace-Lorraine.

"Strasbourg means much," he said, "but we have surrendered it in the interests of peace to settle for once and for all the eternal strife with France."

"On other frontiers too we have made sacrifices. We have acted more than loyally."

While asserting positively that no German deserved the name of German if he was not willing to risk his life on behalf of the people of the same blood in Czechoslovakia, the 3,500,000 Sudeten Germans, Hitler in no way committed himself on the method he intends to pursue to compel the Prague government to give the minority the deal he is determined they shall get.

That deal, according to all that has happened in the past week in the party congress, cast by only a position to prevent any rape of Germany," he declared.

"I am now speaking about Czechoslovakia. This state was founded according to democratic principles.

"As these democratic principles are applied, millions of people are being manhandled and suppressed. The great democracies want to convince the world that Czechoslovakia has a special political and military mission to fulfill."

"Three and a half million Germans in Czechoslovakia are being systematically ruined and doomed to slow extinction."

"Reviewing the first weeks of the crisis arising from the autonomy demands of the Sudeten Germans, Hitler denied Germany had any intention of marching into Czechoslovakia at that time, four months ago, he said.

"Says Charges 'Lies'"

Assertions to the contrary he branded as "lies."

"I demand that the oppression of the three and a half million Germans in Czechoslovakia shall cease," he told the cheering audience.

"The right of self-determination must be given to them!"

The Arabs in Palestine "may be alone and defenseless, but the Germans in Czechoslovakia are not," he said.

Hitler said that he gave orders on May 28 to begin immediately with hurried completion of fortifications on the western frontier which had been under construction for two years.

"A plebiscite in Czechoslovakia," the Fuehrer said, "would only be conducted under brutal oppression."

He had declared previously, in the declaration of German foreign policy the world had waited tensely to hear that in Czechoslovakia "millions of people are being manhandled and suppressed."

"The depriving of these human beings of all rights must come to an end," he thundered.

Democracy is Scorned

He told his cheering followers that "we see democracy and Bolshevism arrayed in a solid front against Nazi Germany."

The Fuehrer, opening the speech for which the world was waiting, spoke at length of what he called "the sufferings" of Nazi adherents in Austria before the annexation.

The first portion of his pronouncement before the climactic meeting of the tenth annual Nazi party congress was devoted entirely to recalling the party's fight for supreme power in Germany.

Then he turned to his attack against the democracies and Bolshevism, asserting that they were united against Nazism under "the slogan of liberty, equality, fraternity."

"It is a bloody mockery of history," the Fuehrer continued, "that the democracies are allied with the most brutal dictatorship in the world."

"It was they which attempted to hinder Italy's action in Ethiopia. Hammering home the point that the Nazis had built Germany into a mighty nation again, Hitler turned to Czechoslovakia.

"Scorn is being heaped on us today—but thank God we are in a position to prevent any rape of Germany," he declared.

"I am now speaking about Czechoslovakia. This state was founded according to democratic principles.

"As these democratic principles are applied, millions of people are being manhandled and suppressed. The great democracies want to convince the world that Czechoslovakia has a special political and military mission to fulfill."

The Arabs in Palestine "may be alone and defenseless, but the Germans in Czechoslovakia are not," he said.

Hitler said that he gave orders on May 28 to begin immediately with hurried completion of fortifications on the western frontier which had been under construction for two years.

He disclosed that Fritz Todt, noted as Germany's builder of highways, had been placed in charge of these operations.

Hitler finished his speech at 8:33 p. m. (1:33 p. m. C. S. T.)

At present, he said, 362,000 workers, 100,000 labor service men and numerous army engineering and infantry battalions were at work on the fortifications.

Daily 8,000 freight cars transport material amounting to 100,000 tons into this region, he continued, "and I can assure you the work will be completed before winter sets in."

Delving further into the Czechoslovakia situation, the Reichsfuehrer said:

"The overwhelming majority of this state was forced without being consulted to obey this state. They were suppressed and their right to life taken from them."

"Among the majority of the suppressed nationalities are three and half million Germans, nearly as many as the total population of Denmark."

"These (the Sudeten Germans) are creations of the Almighty, and he did not create them to be surrendered to foreign force."

"He did not create 7,000,000 Czechs to act as guardians of 3,500,000 Germans."

Troops Mobilize

In the meantime, 2,000,000 French soldiers were mobilized along the Rhine River facing Germany. Troops were busy fashioning barbed wire entanglements and establishing machine gun nests. Tanks rumbled out from Paris, and gas masks were issued to the citizenry.

In England, the British fleet—armed to the teeth—was sailing toward the North Sea in range of Heligoland, German navy stronghold.

WAYMAN'S CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH (Colored)

The Wayman's Chapel church is located on Pool Hill. The Rev. E. T. Crawford, B. D., is pastor.

Sunday, September 18, the Southern Blue and Northern Grey clubs of our church will sponsor an anniversary program of the church, a benefit drive for conference claims. The services will begin at 2:30 p. m. We extend a welcome to all to come and hear the history of our church, which will be given by different speakers of the city.

On Thursday night of this week there will be a supper given at the church and a croquet contest will be featured. This event will be held three nights in each week until October 18. The contest will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Mrs. Peola Skinner, Miss Estelle Bradley, Lawrence Bailey, John Willis, Miss Laura Redding, and T. Willis are champions of Pool Town. We extend a welcome to all. Come and enjoy yourselves—Leo and Mayo Palmer, presidents.

Hazel-Pine Bluff To Play Sunday

Hazel's baseball nine, champion of the Jackson's Purchase League, will play the always-dangerous squad from Pine Bluff Sunday afternoon on the Pine Bluff diamond. It was announced today by officials of the two teams, Kingins, former star Kitty League pitcher, will be on the mound for Pine Bluff.

As a prelude to the Hazel game, Pine Bluff will go to Hardin for a game with that organization Saturday afternoon.

ORDINATION SERVICE

On last Sunday afternoon the Scott's Grove church ordained Bro. John Melugin to serve her as Deacon. The following ordained preachers were present and took part: Tom Shelton, Guy Cochran, Tolle McMillin, Charlie Wilson, Don Denhart, Gip Blakely, Whit Billington.

Only preachers were asked to lay hands on as there is not an example in the New Testament of Deacons' laying hands on any one to set them apart as any phase of the Lord's work. Bro. Melugin is so well known to his brethren that no one asked him a question as to his soundness in the faith, and is so well married that no one asked about his marriage relations.

The writer does not know any man in Calloway county whose word would go further with everybody than John Melugin's would. We pray God's richest blessings upon him in the work as Deacon.

C. H. Wilson, Moderator.

Roscoe Joyce Dies

Roscoe Lee Joyce, 43, farmer of near Golden Pond in Trigg county, died Saturday night of cerebral hemorrhage and paralysis in a Murray hospital. He had been in poor health, result of an external cancer, for several months.

Flames Destroy Bams in County

Lightning striking in a heavy rainstorm here Sunday afternoon set fire to a large stock barn of Hoyt Lynn, about three miles from Murray on the old Paris road, totally destroying the barn and burning to death a calf and a sow. Much corn and hay also were destroyed.

Saturday afternoon at Pine Bluff, 1600 sticks of dark tobacco belonging to Willis Fielder were burned when the barn in which they were curing was destroyed by fire. Fielder had just returned from Murray and had started to chuck up the fire when the tobacco in the barn ignited. Swift efforts on his part to extinguish the blaze were of no avail.

FOX HUNTERS TO MEET IN OCTOBER

Fred Barber is President of West Kentucky Association; Many Dogs to Enter

Hounds will bay along moonlight trails on October 11, 12, and 13 near Metropolis Lake when the West Kentucky Fox Hunters Association holds its annual hunt for the elusive red rover.

Fred Barber, Murray, president of the association, said today the West Kentucky fox hunters were expecting more than 100 dogs to be entered in the event. Barber has been a connoisseur of good fox hounds for many years. This year he is judge of the tri-state fox hunt at Tupelo, Miss., on October 24, 25, and 26, and is master of the hounds in the Florida state hunt on January 3, 4, and 5 of next year.

The Association met in Murray last year. The weather was perfect for good races, and often the dogs ran until up in the morning. According to Barber, the regular derby and the all-age heats will be run together. The bench show will be held Wednesday night, October 12.

Other officers of the association are G. L. Robinson, Paducah, vice-president; and Mrs. G. L. Robinson, Paducah, secretary-treasurer.

Road Graveled by Donators Does Not Run as Indicated

The Kelley-Crossland school road, recently gravelled—donators for which were listed in last week's issue of the Ledger & Times—does not run through Taylor's Store community as was indicated last week, but does run near that community. Persons who were chiefly instrumental in having the work done desired no confusion result over which road was meant.

More than 1,000 Jefferson county 4-H club members, leaders and parents took part in the miniature state fair at the fair grounds at Louisville.

WELCOME STUDENTS!

Once more we take a worthy pride in welcoming students back to Murray for the opening of a new semester at Murray State College. There can be no finer tribute to any community than one which sets its mark of approval on the schools.

The Rose of Sharon is sweet, the hills in autumn are beautiful, rippling streams run tranquilly to the sea—the world is full of things which embody in their beings infinite attractions—but there is nothing across the zones of earth from Pole to Pole quite comparable to a thousand or more youngsters marching with bright ambition across the campus and down the streets of a college town.

And so we welcome you college students to Murray, not exclusively for what you will mean to this city, but for what this city may mean to you also. There is a common meeting place here in which both of us stand at equal altitudes; the point at which our ideals converge and bring us to a mutual respect to education and what it means to each of us.

Fifteen years ago, Murray State College came into being. It was an achievement which came as the culmination of great vision and great maneuvering. On a frigid winter day when bitter winds howled that first building was dedicated, but that was not the coldest day in the history of that college until then. That was a warm day, because it saw a dream realized, an epoch begun, a battle won for education in Kentucky. Murray State College might not have been erected in the geographical center of Western Kentucky, but it was in the center of Rainey Wells' heart.

Beginnings are always poignant, as also are landmarks grown old. Murray now is young and overflowing with the spirit of its growth. Its possibilities are too broad to limit through enumeration.

Under a splendid leader, energetic and alert to progressive movements, imbued with undiminished faith in itself, Murray College may look to the future with appreciation for what is promised.

Murray State College is education's sceptre in Western Kentucky. It is higher than any other one thing, because it runs to the clearest heights and the bitterest depths. The heart of industry here, the spirit back of Murray's growth, the advantages, the source of ambition and the will to achieve, are concentrated in the minds and hearts of a thousand white students of Murray State College.

Once more, students, we welcome you!

cranes, pulleys, blocks and tackle it would be a tremendous task to duplicate the building accomplishments of early Egypt.

Scarcely thinkable today is the idea that there could have been any technical achievement of early times that engineers today cannot duplicate; yet the largest known obelisk ever carved—a massive stone column 137 feet high and weighing 1100 tons—remains in the Assuan granite quarry, a movable question mark yet unsolved.

It took 120,000 men 30 years to build the great Pyramid at Gizeh, but it was a colossal project necessitating the transportation of heavy materials across the burning desert.

Those who say the modern age is one unparalleled might do well to think. We think of the steel crane as a relatively modern technical device; but cranes were used by Pythagoras long before Christ to reach down and grapple with the boats of Marcellus, the Roman general, in the Carthaginian wars. And who was it taught the Egyptians the wonderful chemistry of embalming as yet unequalled? The Solomonite philosophy that nothing is new is not a very ambitious one. Even though what is to be may have sometime been, we have the refreshing knowledge that it is new to us and with the buoyancy born of invention we feel the future holds for us as the present has done freedom and new horizons the ancients did not know!

My Little Girl

Today my daughter, who is 7 years old, started to school as usual. She wore a dark blue dress with a white collar. She had on black shoes and wore blue gloves. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is Cool, sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as she waved good-bye and started off to the hall of learning.

Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her; the girl with yellow curls, and the boy across the aisle who makes funny faces. She told me about her teacher, who has eyes in the back of her head, and about the trees in the schoolyard, and about the big girl who doesn't believe in Santa Claus. We talked about a lot of things—tremendously vital, unimportant things; and then we studied spelling, reading, arithmetic and then to bed.

She's back there now, back in the nursery sound asleep, with "Princess Elizabeth" (that's a doll) cuddled in her right arm. You guys wouldn't hurt her, would you? You see, I'm her daddy. When her doll is broken or her finger is cut or her head gets bumped, I can fix it—but when she starts to school, when she walks across the street, then she's left on her lonesome.

She's a nice kid. She can run like a deer and talk about like a chipmunk. She likes to ride horses and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoons. But I can't with her all the time; I have to work to pay for her clothes and her education. So please help me to look out for her. Please drive slowly past the school and intersections and please remember that children run from behind parked cars.

Please don't run over my little girl.

Autumn

We need no one to tell us that Autumn has come. It is in the air, in the earth, in ourselves. Just as surely as fields ripen and are gathered, just as surely it is a part of us to reckon events with the passing of the seasons.

And of the seasons, Autumn is the paragon of all. It might have been that long ago Christ was born in winter and was resurrected in the spring, but there must have been a time when God breathed on the earth in Indian summer days.

The haze in the valleys, the brightening stars, the sweet silence of the hills—these are Autumn. It comes sighing up on the night winds and moans in the trees; but it is the quiet time of the year when there is peace.

Beauty of slow-burning days that tadden the leaves and make tranquil hours! September clouds float dreamily across the border-line of October into November, and the sophistry of autumn is complete. Then we have time to think, and to plan, and listen to the voice of Fall.

How many times have men sat staring into the red sunset wondering what other falls would bring to them!

Last week was one of varied experiences, some pleasant and some very sad.

All the teachers seemed to have the school machinery oiled and in running shape by the end of the week.

Clyde Douglas Jones began the school year by adding another record to his fast growing list. He fell while running playing "base" on the very first day of school and broke an arm this time. We wonder now what Clyde will break next. He always grows back good as new after each mishap.

A crowd attended the Baptist Association at Crockett's Creek Wednesday and Thursday. I even saw a few visitors from the Blood River Association. I not only enjoyed the beautiful dinner but thought it well worth a trip to learn about the church business and especially to hear the earnest talk made to the women by the wife of a Nashville minister.

We hear that Bro. Nelson has sold his home to Mr. Luther Downs, a merchant here, the Bro. Nelson still intends to remain a neighbor of Mr. Downs.

Mrs. Ruby Ellis, widow of the former sheriff Ellis, visited on the Spiceland hill this week.

Messrs. Linus Spiceland and Amos Acree went to Nashville Saturday.

A shocking tragedy occurred near Tharpe early Saturday morning. Three men, two Knott boys and Bill Hicks from Model were on their way to Dover to take the TVA examination, I believe, when the Model A car driven by one of the Knotts turned over as it rounded a sharp curve, killing Bill Hicks and breaking the driver's arm into pieces. The Hicks boy had just been picked up a few miles back. It was indeed a serious lesson to car drivers to attend the funeral and see the destitute widow and two small fatherless boys left so without any warning.

The Crockett's Creek revival has been in progress for a week conducted by the young Dover pastor, Bro. Ford.

In sad but loving memory of my dear uncle, Ray Clark, who was called to rest August 8, 1938.

We miss you more
We miss you more
Our hearts are sore
As time goes by
We miss you more.

Your gentle face
No one can fill
Your vacant place.

The Reverend Mr. Lawrence is doing some fine gospel preaching at this place.

Orie Key hauled wood Monday morning. I suppose Mrs. Olie had to get a dry shirt for him as he was cut in a good rain.

We're hoping for him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Orie Kuykendall and children, Doris, Harrel Lloyd, Lottie, and Orie Junior were Saturday dinner guests of her daughter, Mrs. Rufe Spann, and Mr. Spann and child.
