Mayfield Youth Is Jailed After Fatal Shooting

Ralph W. West Of Lynnville Is Held For Trial Dec. 26

PETE HOLMES KILLED

Mayfield, Ky., Dec. 23—(AP)—A 17-year-old youth was jailed here today, awaiting arraignment Thursday in connection with the fatal shooting yesterday of James P. "Pete" Holmes, 26, which followed a quarrel at a dance. Deputy Sheriff Dick Hughes reported.

The deputy identified the youth as Ralph W. West, son of Clarence West, who lives near Lynnville in southern Graves county. The officer said the shooting occurred in a field one-half mile south of Lynnville.

A jury impaneled by Coroner Coy Drew said Holmes was wounded six times by pistol bullets. The coroner said a search of Holmes' clothing disclosed no weapon.

Deputy Sheriff Hughes quoted West as saying "trouble" occurred at a dance in Tennessee Saturday night. The officer said West declared he was struck by Holmes while talking to a girl.

Another quarrel developed, the deputy said West told him, when Holmes and West met on a farm road in the field yesterday.

County Attorney Farland Robbins said today no formal charge had been filed against the youth, but that West's examining trial would be held in Graves County Court Thursday morning.

West came to the sheriff's office Sunday afternoon and surrendered.

Holmes, who lived near Lynnville, is survived by a sister, Mrs. Sunshine Sanderson, Mayfield; and two brothers, Elmer of Lynnville and Nolan of Clinton.

Louisville Boy Killed By Auto

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 24—(AP)—Jefferson county police said 12-year-old Louis Bernard O'Bryan was killed almost instantly when he was struck by an automobile as he suddenly darted across Seventh Street Road (US-31W) south of the city.

The officers said the boy was going to the grocery with his sister, Fay, 15, who was not injured.

Mrs. George Spear, wife of Ex-Senator, is dead.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 24—(AP)—Mrs. George Spear, wife of former State Senator Spear, a retired NAK president, died here today. She was in her seventies and had suffered from a heart ailment. In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son H. K. Spear, and a grandson.

Christmas Quarantine

FEPC Revival Faces Trouble

Arkansas Solon Predicts Another Filibuster If New Measure Is Introduced

Washington, Dec. 24—(AP)—The threat of a filibuster confronted the new senate today. A proposal is afoot to revive legislation that would create a permanent Fair Employment Practice Commission.

The Rev. Allan Knight Chalmers and A. Philip Randolph, co-chairmen of the National Council for a permanent FEPC, announced they had prepared the draft of a new bill "revised in the light of wartime and postwar experience."

They did not say, however, how it was changed from the compulsory type legislation which was talked to death in the senate early this year.

Informed of their intention to seek congressional sponsors who would introduce the bill next month, Senator McClellan (D-Ark) said he saw no reason why the pattern of last January would not be repeated.

"There will be no difference in my purpose to do anything I can to prevent passage of such a bill," McClellan told a reporter.

"There probably will be another filibuster, and the bill will be talked to death."

McClellan noted that if a filibuster develops, a two-thirds vote would be required to cut off debate. And he added that he does not believe such a majority could be obtained.

Most Businesses Will Be Closed

Some Will Take 2 Day Holiday; No Edition Of Paper Published Dec. 25

Most Fulton businesses will be closed all day tomorrow, Christmas day, and a number of dry goods and home furnishings stores will be closed Thursday, Dec. 26, also.

Drug stores will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon tomorrow. Browder Mill closed at noon today and will remain closed all day tomorrow.

Several restaurants will be closed all day Wednesday, and will re-open Thursday morning. There will be no edition of the Daily Leader published tomorrow, in order that all employees may enjoy Christmas at home.

With the great bulk of Christmas shopping completed yesterday or earlier, business activity was noticeably less today.

November Auto Toll Was 63

491 State Accidents Also Injured 307 Others, Says Report Of Hwy Patrol

Frankfort—Sixty-three dead and 307 injured in 491 traffic accidents during November were reported today by Highway Patrol, acting director, Kentucky Highway Patrol, to J. Stephen Watkins, commissioner, Kentucky Department of Highways.

The report shows a decrease in deaths over November, 1945, when 65 were killed, but an increase in the number of injuries.

"Reports made to the patrol offices are broken down in order that our engineering staff may make a study of the conditions surrounding these accidents," Mr. Watkins said.

"While failure to negotiate a sharp curve and slick roads have been indicated, speed is the primary factor in the death toll. Pedestrian deaths, in most cases, resulted from walking with traffic along the road instead of facing traffic on the left."

The traffic death and injury record for November:

Killed	41	42	43	44	45	46
Injured	28	44	68	58	63	63
Injured	443	173	237	173	289	307

Cellar Roof Shingled And Floor Wallpapered?

Canton, Okla.—(AP)—A. T. Stairs, inspecting an apartment house he had constructed, watched as the utilities were turned on. Suddenly water began spurting out of the new gas ranges and bathroom heaters.

Investigation revealed the plumbers had connected the water to the gas pipe, and the gas fixtures to the water pipe.

Santa Claus? Certainly So, Court Holds

West Virginia's High Tribunal Defies Scoffers

NAME ON RECORDS

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 24—(AP)—There is a Santa Claus—the multitude of scoffers to the contrary—and the West Virginia State supreme court defies anyone to prove that the bearded one does not exist.

On the official record of this appeals bench there is a formal opinion attesting to Saint Nick's existence and this has never been overruled. A dissenter just wouldn't have a chance.

Nineteen years ago today, Judge John H. Hatcher, alarmed at the disbelief and to assure his own children they were right, quietly read from the bench the unprecedented declaration.

It places the West Virginia court on record that "the jolly old man who labors so diligently throughout the year at his home near the north pole" is no myth.

And for those "misguided realists" who are of a contrary opinion, the now retired jurist has this to say:

"If the opportunity arises, I shall enjoin a Santa Claus companionate marriage if he will (a greater Julius tried it, you know); let legislatures outlaw the laws of evolution, if they must; let the constitution be amended till it looks like a patchwork quilt; but rob not childhood of its most intriguing mystery—Santa Claus."

"Let him be to succeeding generations as he has been to us—a joyous father of childhood, a pleasant indulgence of parenthood, and a happy memory of old age."

And for those who would disagree, the judge advises them "to keep out of court." There is proof "enough to satisfy any jury of our youthful peers on the issue."

"In this kindly gentleman is no harm, and no guile—except perhaps in his manner of entering houses by the way of the chimney."

"The very thought of him inspires attendance at Sunday school and good behavior generally—for a few weeks before Yuletide. He suits the children's fancy. He is come in."

The world's record for long nonstop railway runs is held by England with five daily runs of 300 miles, ten covering more than 200 miles, and 42 more than 150 miles.

Mayfield Leaf Sale Changed

Dark Fired Market Will Open Jan. 9, Board Of Trade Announces Today

Mayfield, Dec. 23—Opening of the dark fired tobacco market in Mayfield was postponed from Jan. 3 to Jan. 9 this morning by officials of the Tobacco Board of Trade. This followed similar action taken by the Murray Tobacco Board of Trade, eastern district, according to W. F. Hilliard, agricultural agent for the New Enterprise, Farmers and Mayfield loose leaf floors in Mayfield.

Markets of the eastern district will open as follows: Hopkinsville Jan. 13 instead of Jan. 6, Clarksville Jan. 15 and Springfield Jan. 14.

In view of the light deliveries of one sucker tobacco, the small amount now on floors, and the small percentage of one sucker tobacco to be marketed, it was decided that the next one sucker sale would be scheduled after Jan. 15. Indications are that this may be the last sale. Since most of the one sucker buyers are from the upper part of the state, farmers are advised to try to finish stripping one sucker and have it ready for this sale.

One sucker sales to date in the Mayfield market have totaled 2,390,970 pounds, that brought growers $462,510.14, an average of $19.33.

Delivery of burley tobacco has continued relatively steady for the past few days. Next burley sale will be Jan. 7. The average burley price at Mayfield this year has been $32.58.

Monticello Man Held In Slaying Of Wayne Sheriff

Monticello, Ky., Dec. 24—(AP)—County Judge S. E. Anderson said Dicky Morris, 30, of Monticello, was being held in jail for questioning in connection with the slaying of Wayne county Sheriff J. J. Gibson here Sunday night.

Judge Anderson said no charge had been placed against Morris but that an examining trial would be held after he finishes examining a number of witnesses. The judge said he questioned 15 persons yesterday and last night.

Firemen Enjoyed This One

Rockford, Ill.—(AP)—Here's a blaze which could have been reported, quite properly, in the society columns. The ladies were preparing a dinner at the Mission Covenant church. An overheated oven prompted them to turn in an alarm. Two trucks responded swiftly. The fireman fixed the stove, sat down and ate man-size slices of cake.

Near To Head Kentucky AFA

Air Force Association's New Leader Is Named By Pres. Jimmy Doolittle

WASHINGTON—Al Near, superintendent of the Louisville, Ky., airport and long a leading figure in state and national aviation circles, was today announced by President James H. Doolittle as Kentucky Wing commander for the Air Force Association.

The Air Force Association, formally organized on January 24, 1946, is knitting together present and former members of the Army Air Forces. It is being organized in state wings and local squadrons.

As wing commander for Kentucky, Mr. Near will organize a state executive committee preparatory to the activation of squadrons in all communities.

Two Kentucky squadrons already have been chartered by the national headquarters of AFA. They are at Paducah, with James C. Rieke as commander, and at Lexington, with Merwin E. Potter as commander.

EXTENDED FORECAST:

Kentucky and Tennessee: (Through Sunday)—Somewhat colder Wednesday, warmer Friday and colder near end of week. Temperatures for period will average near normal; precipitation generally light and likely about Saturday.

Taft And Bricker To Decide Which Will Be Favorite Son

By Jack Bell

Washington, Dec. 24—(AP)—Ohio's two potential Republican presidential candidates—Senator Robert A. Taft and Senator- elect John W. Bricker—pointed today toward a January decision on which of them will seek "favorite son" support.

Taft told a reporter that he and Bricker—each of whom has bowed out of the other's way in two successive bids for the nomination—will sit down together soon and try to work out an agreement.

Bricker stepped aside in 1940 and Taft in 1944, when Bricker became the vice presidential nominee.

Another compact now would leave the winner free to put on full steam in an effort to line up delegates for the 1948 GOP convention.

The efforts reportedly being made in this direction by supporters of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and the publicly announced intention of former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota to seek the nomination apparently spurred the Ohioans toward a showdown.

Festive Yule Mood Prevails Over Most Of Globe On Eve Of Second Postwar Christmas

In Kentucky

By The Associated Press

Frankfort—Franklin County Judge Boone Hamilton signed an order here vacating the commitment of Robert Black, 14-year-old Lexington negro boy, to the Greendale Houses of Reform. The boy will be released from the State Home for the Feeble Minded here, to which he was transferred from Greendale. A psychiatrist testified that the boy is not deficient mentally.

Frankfort—Governor Simeon Willis has appointed his former secretary, Ralph Homan, a member of the Kentucky Workmen's Compensation Board, succeeding John Shepard, Covington, who resigned. Homan is establishing a law office in Frankfort.

Cattletown—February 15 has been set by County Judge E. K. Rose as the day when Boyd county citizens will vote whether to retain prohibition. The county went dry Jan. 1, 1945 after a court fight and recount delayed effectiveness of a dry majority voted in October, 1944.

Covington—The Heibelberg Brewing Company here has announced the purchase of the Sebastian Lathé Works, adjoining its brewery. A new bottling plant is to be erected, it was stated. Lathé company officials said the firm's future plans would be announced later.

Madisonville—Funeral services will be held at Central City this afternoon for Reamus Jones, 33, who died Sunday. Coroner William Bartlett said Jones was found dying beside the Illinois Central tracks near Dawson Springs. At inquest the jury was unable to fix the cause of death, but Bartlett said he believed Jones was struck by a train while he was walking along the tracks.

Louisville—War assets Administration officials here announce that a butadiene plant, built here by the federal government during the war, is one of three which will be offered for sale or lease soon. After receiving bids, the W. A. A. will dispose of two, the government retaining one. The plants supplied raw material for the manufacture of synthetic rubber.

President Truman, in Washington, planned to deliver a Christmas greeting to the nation in the late afternoon at a tree lighting ceremony at the White House.

All stock markets and the principal commodity markets in the nation planned to close tomorrow.

A few trouble spots still saw conflict on the eve of the traditional day of peace.

Steady fighting was reported from most major towns in Tonkin province in Northern Indochina, and Chinese government sources reported stepped-up communist attacks in the Paoting and Tingshien areas of Central Hopeh province.

The police of Bakersfield, Calif., caught the Christmas spirit. Instead of summoning to traffic law violators, they handed out red and green Christmas cards bearing a picture of Santa Claus and a request to obey local ordinances.

Pioneer Plastic Surgeon Dies At Baltimore Home

Baltimore, Dec. 24—(AP)—Dr. John Stagle Davis, recognized pioneer in the field of plastic surgery and for whom one method of skin grafting is named, died yesterday at his home in suburban Guilford. He was 74 years old.

Dr. Davis wrote a textbook, "Plastic Surgery—Its Principles and Practice," in 1917 which still is regarded as an authoritative work on the subject.

Oklahoma's Official Santa Busy Spreading Yule Cheer

Oklahoma City, Dec. 24—(AP)—Oklahoma's official Santa Claus—created as a joke on an angry legislator 10 years ago—set out today in a Highway Department truck to bring Christmas to 3,200 orphans in state and private institutions.

The gifts for the children will be just as numerous this year as in the past but they'll be a little smaller. The Santa Claus Commission—that's the official name—is limited to an expenditure of $2 per child and, like other shoppers found prices are higher this season.

The commission was created by what Oklahomaans call the "pending sixteenth" legislature. During the session Rep. Sandy Singleton arose and angrily denounced extravagance, declaring, "we may as well establish a Santa Claus Commission while we're at it."

The legislators promptly passed a bill to create such a body. State appropriated funds for the commission are supplemented by private donations.

Every Santa Claus letter the orphanage inmates write goes to the commission. Most of the children get what they ask for because lists of "suggested items" are sent to each institution for the orphans to glance over.

The youngsters' letters speak well of the commission's work. One parentless child, remembering her $2 worth of Christmas last year, wrote the state Santa Claus, "you give me such nice things, I hope I can live here always."

Another solemnly opened his letter to Santa:

"This is the greatest moment of my career."

Christmas Reminiscences

By Dewitt MacKenzie, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Christmas time, your columnist's is to pick to its job of analyzing the Yuletides spent in divers lands. I don't mind we'll just rather by the for a while and chat.

I'd hate not to believe in Santa Claus. He brings so much of cheer and good-will. He's just as real to me today as he was when I was five—and never mind how long ago that was. I'll tell you how much I love him—I'm going to hang up my stocking by the big fire-place along with my two youngsters, and I'll bet a bright new penny Santa Claus won't forget.

I've seen Christmas in some queer spots: in the front line trenches with the troops—in the Far East—in Bethlehem of Judea by the manger of the Christ child. But perhaps the most natural that the strongest memories should be those of Christmas in the old mansions of the Vermont village where I was born.

We always had a white Christmas in those days, with snow so deep that sometimes one had to tunnel a way through it to get out of the house. Sleigh-bells jingled merrily on all the roads, for nobody in those parts ever had seen one of those new-fangled inventions called the horseless carriage.

Christmas was a community affair. Every year we used to have a great tree in the church, and the whole village and country-side turned out for what was more than just a day of presents—it was to celebrate the birthday of the Christ. There always was prayer of thanksgiving those Christmas nights, and the members of the congregation contributed their part, for we still were in the halcyon days. Some of them could be a bit snooty, but they were a grand, warm-hearted folk. The Christmas tree was loaded with presents for everybody. As for the pastor—the "Elder" they used to call him—his gifts were likely to consist largely of farm produce and were delivered at the parsonage, since many of his parishioners were tillers of the soil.

Most of the Christmas cards depicted scenes in color from the life of Christ, chiefly those relating to Bethlehem and Jerusalem. These childhood pictures linger in one's mind, and one of the greatest pleasures I ever experienced was three years ago when I was able to spend Christmas in Jerusalem and Bethlehem, and found that much of the atmosphere of those old pictures still remained. With a bit of imagination one could see a full parade of the incidents so dear to memory.

Christmas of days long gone really did represent peace and good-will. But it would be a mistake to think that this spirit was peculiar to a past generation and that the world no longer has it. Mankind can get awfully tough at times, but we mustn't forget that this is nothing new. It's been that way for thousands of years. And my guess is that there is a greater percentage of good-will in the world today than ever before.

I don't know how many countries I've traveled in during the past thirty years, but they represent a big part of the globe. And taking it by and large, my experience has been such as to give me vast confidence in my fellow men—despite the wars and revolutions which I've seen at first hand. It's difficult not to acquire that confidence when you've had impoverished peasants offer to share their last crusts with you, when you've had a stranger risk his life for you in a dark hour of revolution, when people whom you don't know have asked you to join in their Christmas celebration because they knew you were lonely.

Yes, I think this is a pretty grand old world—barring a few rough spots, of course—and it's getting better every day. There's nothing wrong with it that can't be cured by an application of real Christmas spirit.

OUR READERS SAY

Christmas Spirit

On a bright, clear, frosty Sunday morning two days before this Christmas (1946), I started my usual Sunday morning stroll down town, starting at Pearl street, on down Second street, just about Sunday School and church time.

I particularly noticed that everybody I met came in contact with seemed to be looking for somebody to say "Good Morning" to. I noticed similar cheery greetings.

About Jones' Church the loudspeaker over the Baptist Church began to peal out "Silent Night," one of the most beautiful sacred pieces of music and my favorite. This gave me a feeling of being out of this world.

On to the Methodist Church. People seem to appear from everywhere, and nowhere, out of a shamble of cars being parked. Christmas packages were being carried in a busy stream to the church side entrance.

On across Carr street by the Christian Church, I met a couple, an old man and a little old lady, who were past the three-score and ten year mark. Their steps were slow, feeble and uncertain, but before I neared them, with their heads high, they both gave me a cheery, "Good morning, son." This was very impressive, a faint vision of the future which is sure to come to myself and all others. On to and up Lake, and all the way to my destination people swarmed mist from car windows to peep at you or wave a recognition.

Does this happen every day? Or did I have the Christmas spirit? Or did everybody else have it?

Church longs to meet Thee in the Rapture of delight.

—Elias Newman
"All hail the pow'r of Jesus name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him lord of all."

Let every kindred, every tribe
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him lord of all."

FEWER GERMANS
The German problem may eventually solve itself by the partial disappearance of the Germans. By 1996, according to a Frankfurt professor, Heinz Sauermann, there will be only 35,000,000 Germans in the pre-war German area instead of 70,000,000. Causes of the decrease are war deaths, collapse of German economy, and the 3,000,000 German prisoners still held in Russia. (Frankfurt State Journal.)

THE MALADY LINGERS

The civil strikes do lives after them. A graphic illustration is the nation-wide shutdown announced by the Ford Motor Company. For want of steel, attributed to coal shortage during Mr. Lewis' recent war against the Government, 90,000 Ford workers, 1,200 in Louisville, receive as a Christmas gift news that they will be off the payroll from December 24 to January 2. (Louisville Times.)

OLD GENE PASSES

A storm center in southern politics quit the earthly scene today when Eugene Talmadge, he of the red suspenders, died in an Atlanta hospital. What many in the south call "Yankee magazines" like The Saturday Evening Post will be asked what is Talmadge in the great beyond and whether (The Mass.) Bulbo in the tolls of the law, or very nearly so. (Madisonville Messenger.)

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. Harry Richards entertained the small children's Sunday School class of the Church of Christ Monday afternoon at her home on West State Line with a Christmas party.

Mrs. Richards read the Life of Christ to the class, and showed pictures visualizing Christ from birth until his crucifixion. Games and contests were enjoyed throughout the afternoon. Mack Cursinger was the contest winner. The house was decorated with many different Christmas decorations and the tree was the center of attraction.

The children exchanged gifts around the tree then sang Christmas songs. They marched through the house to the dining room, where they were served Christmas tree and Star of Bethlehem cookies and Pepsi-Cola. Mrs. Charles Andrews assisted in the entertaining. Those present were Jane Austin, Wallace Brockwell, Dale Edward Breeden, Janie Sue and Ronnie Brockwell, John Allen Covington, Junior Mack, and Billy Cursinger, Peggy Jo and Marvin Davidson, Judy Goodwin, Michael Gambill, Mary Lee Harrison, Bobby Lee Hopkins, Donna Grace Hastings, Barbara Ann Henderson, Max Harris, Shelby Lawson, James Gary Long, Don Neely, Don Richards, Max Richards, Dorothy Jean Richards, Jimmy Rose, Jerry Rumley, Charles Sison, Don Swearingen, Clarence VanCleave, Carl Dean Wright, James Windsor, Charles Wade Andrews, Philip Andrews, Nancy Breeden, Patsy Grooms, Beverly St. John, Donald Joe Welch, and Kenneth Faulkner.

OPEN HOUSE AT FOY HOME

Jack and Kate Foy entertained with open house Saturday night at their home in Highlands. The party was in honor of Richard Williams from Cincinnati.

All guests were given clever cards as they entered. The house was attractively decorated to carry out the Christmas motif. Guest registered when they arrived, and between 75 and 100 of the high school and college group attended. Refreshments and games were enjoyed through the evening.

YOUNGER SET HAS PROGRESSIVE DINNER

Last evening the younger set enjoyed a progressive dinner which started at Nancy Wilson's home at 6:30 where the cocktails were served. Then the crowd progressed to the home of Ann Latta, where the salad was served. Mrs. Ann McElroy had the main course at her home on Third street, with Misses Carmen Figue, and Joyce Fields assisting. The dessert was served at the home of Miss Sissy Murphy on Second street. Then the group went to the home of Miss Jane White where dancing was enjoyed throughout the remainder of the night.

Those present were Carmen Figue with Hubert Stone, Nancy Wilson with Jack Thorpe, Ann Latta with E. H. Browning, Ann McElroy with Jerry Horst, Joyce Fields with Jimmy Harcock, Sissy Murphy with Ted Goodwin, and Jane White with Billy Mac Bone.

ENTERTAIN WITH DINNER PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Boll of Nashville entertained a few friends with a dinner party Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Boll's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gardner, on Commercial avenue, celebrating their first wedding anniversary.

The living room and dining rooms were decorated with holly and candles. The table was covered with a cream-colored damask cloth and had as center piece red and white carnations in a crystal bowl placed on a mirror, and crystal candelabra. Holding tall white candles were placed at each end of the mirror. Places were marked with springs of holly tied with red ribbon and place cards were tucked among the leaves.

Those present with Mr. and Mrs. Boll were Mrs. Boll's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Olive, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beaudick, Mrs. Lucille Edwards Barton. After dinner, games of rick and bridge were enjoyed 'til a late hour with every one wishing Mr. and Mrs. Boll many more anniversaries.

IC Encourages Forest Growth; Gives Training

To encourage new growth in depleted forest areas, the Illinois Central Railroad is sponsoring an agriculture training program with specialized classwork at various points in Mississippi. The course now in progress at Morton, Miss., is designed to help high school students and lumbermen. Methods of planting and thinning trees, tree selection and marking and tallying timber are outlined. Classroom instruction is supplemented by trips to wood-lots. A motion picture, "There's More in Timber Than Trees," is shown to emphasize importance of timber reserves.

The Morton program is being conducted by Charles Robertson, Illinois Central forestry agent, in cooperation with agricultural instructors at Morton high school, under overall direction of P. E. Farlow, IC general agricultural agent.

Disney Hunting Leprechaun Lore For New Picture

London—Walt Disney arrived on the Queen Elizabeth recently, all set for a leprechaun hunt, and photos caught at the Savor with a caravan of writers, animators and publicity men.

Disney's hunting routine was a robin's egg hunt and an Aqua Caliente. He was off immediately, he told the assembled British press in a burst of atmosphere and leprechaun lore for a new movie.

The man from Hollywood said he had been "looking into" Alice in Wonderland, too, with a view to making her a movie queen. "Not with an American accent, I hope," said a British woman critic, caustically. "I mean—Alice speaking American—really?"

"I don't want to hurt anybody's feelings," Disney soothed. "Alice will have an international accent."

Wildcats Armed For SEC Fight; Seem A Cinch

Roster Includes 6 Former All-SEC Players This Year

WHOLE TEAM CAPABLE

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 23 (AP)—Kentucky, the scourge of Southeastern Conference basketball since the loop was formed, is loaded stronger than ever for the 1946-47 race.

The lineup of talent includes six former All-Southeastern performers, three of whom are regarded as regular starters, two of whom come in with the front-line reserves, and one of whom is a fourth-stringer.

So, warnings from Tennessee and other points notwithstanding, it is little wonder that the Wildcats of Adolph Rupp are being regarded in most circles as a shoe-in for new conference laurels.

They have manhandled S.E.C. opposition with almost monotonous regularity since Rupp took up the Kentucky reins. His teams have won eight out of 13 conference crowns, three of them in the last three years. A checkup of statistics covering the last 16 years shows the Ruppcats have won 131 games from schools which comprise the league while losing only 25.

As indicated, the current edition of Wildcats is a collection of stars, a team which does not depend too strongly on any individual.

If one man stands out, he is Ralph Beard, the small-like-a-bullet (and just about as fast) sophomore guard from Louisville. Beard sets the pace and his mates keep up.

With Beard as regular starters are trickshot Jack Tingle and Joe Holland at forwards. Alex Groza at center, and Ken-ny Rollins at guard. Tingle and Rollins, with Beard, are former All-S.E.C. men. Holland came up from second-team oblivion last season to earn a starting berth this year notwithstanding the greater competition. Groza was a sensational freshman before he went to war.

Wallace (Wah Wah) Jones, out with an ankle injury most of the season, and Bob Brannum, like Groza a whiz his freshman year, are all-conference centers who divide trouble-shooting chores. Another center, Ken Campbell, made the all-loop

Ray Robbins Coming Dec. 26

American Legion Post Sponsors Appearance Of Popular Young Maestro

Hailed as the finest entertainment band to click with the music lovers of America, Ray Robbins and his orchestra will play for the American Legion Christmas dance Dec. 26, 8 to 1, in the concrete block building on Fourth street next to the Legion cabin.

Already famous for his slinging with such bands as Chuck Foster, Gus Arnheim and Al Donahue, Ray decided to take up the baton of a fine musically arranged outfit of his own.

Lou Quading, composer of his tunes "One Dozen Roses," "Careless," "Elmer's Tune," and former arranger for Dick Jurgens, is largely responsible for the raves that Ray and the orchestra are getting. More than just a dance band, Robbins and his boys provide a never ending flow

Tennessee Team Leaves Floor At Duquesne When Negro In Other Lineup

McKeesport, Pa., Dec. 24 (AP)—More than 2,600 fans were left waiting last night when the Tennessee basketball team refused to take the floor because Duquesne coach Chick Davies wouldn't promise not to use a negro player.

Davies and Coach John W. Maurer of the Vols held a two-hour conference before the game was finally cancelled and the disappointed fans sent home.

Davies said he had agreed not to use freshman star Charley Cooper "unless he had to in a close game," but that this did not satisfy the Vols coach.

Maurer, who is a native of Illinois, said:

"When there was no assurance the negro player would not appear, my boys said they wouldn't play. They are all southern boys and you understand the situation which confronted me."

Davies said he had put Tennessee's ultimatum up to the squad in the dressing room.

Cooper told the team he wouldn't mind if they decided to play without him because "he didn't want to be the cause of any trouble." The Duquesne mentor said, "but the boys told him he was a member of the squad and as long as he continued a member of the squad he would play in their games."

His killing time found 60 to 65 percent of Lee county families with fat hogs ready to slaughter.

Wall Street Report

By Victor Eubank

New York, Dec. 24—(AP)—Stocks generally continued to give ground in today's market although scattered leaders managed to edge into the plus column.

Resistant were Chrysler, Bethlehem, Goodyear, American Woolen, Goodrich, American Can, Philip Morris and Great Northern.

In the backward division were Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, U. S. Steel, du Pont, Union Carbide, General Motors, Western Union "A," Anaconda, Sears Roebuck, Phelps Dodge and Air Reduction. Numerous pivots were unchanged.

Bonds and cotton futures were a shade uneven.

Milk Production Jumps

L. C. Tipton of Bath county told County Agent Joe Thompson that milk production jumped 50 percent when he turned his cows on balbo rye. Farmers all over the county reported good results from sowing balbo rye after early cut tobacco. Several said best stands and most growth were obtained where land was well disked before sowing and the drill followed with a culti-packer or roller.

Henn Quads Fine
At One Day Old,
Doctors Announce

Baltimore, Dec. 24—(AP)—The Henn quadruplets today had passed safely what doctors termed the crucial first 24 hours and were given all chances of living as normal a life as can be expected by children of such a multiple birth.

The three boys and a girl, still in incubators for safety purposes, yesterday had their first feeding—four teaspoonfuls of glucose dissolved in water—since being born Sunday night at St. Agnes Hospital.

Their British mother, Mrs. Dorothy Henn, outwardly in excellent condition and reading a book, disclosed the girl would be named Joan Mary—"Joan for one of my sisters and Mary for my mother."

It is estimated that 20 Powell county farmers will use about 35,000 feet of drainage tile in 1947, if it is available.
