Oklahoma's Official Santa

Busy Spreading Tule Cheer

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA - Oklahoma's official Santa is on a busy schedule this week, spreading cheer throughout the state.

The Santa, whose name is Santa Claus, is traveling from town to town, spreading Christmas cheer and spreading the word about the importance of giving.

He is expected to arrive in Oklahoma City tomorrow, where he will give away gifts to children at the local children's hospital.

The Santa's schedule is packed, and he is expected to make appearances in at least 10 towns before Christmas.

Truck Overturned In Quake

FULTON, KENTUCKY, Dec 26-A truck carrying goods for a local business was overturned in a recent earthquake.

The truck, carrying goods for a local business, was overturned in a recent earthquake. The driver was taken to the hospital with minor injuries.

The business is expected to be closed for a few days while repairs are made.

The earthquake was felt in several counties around the state, and several buildings were damaged.

The state emergency management agency is working to assess the damage and provide aid to those affected by the earthquake.
Christmas Reminiscences

By Mrs. L. H. Wilson

Dear Santa Claus:

I am writing you this letter with great pleasure, for I have already received your letter and I want to reply with my own. I have no wish to be silly, but I am very fond of you and I think you are a wonderful person. I want to thank you for the wonderful gift you gave me last Christmas, which was a beautiful doll. I have been thinking about it ever since and I cannot wait to open it again. I will try to be good this year, Santa Claus, so that you will give me another present. I hope you will come to my house tomorrow and bring me some more gifts. Thank you very much for being so kind. I love you, Santa Claus.

Yours truly,

Jack and Kate Foy entertain-

On Christmas evening, Jack and Kate Foy entertained their guests with games and contests, as well as a delicious meal. The children exchanged presents and the tree was the center of excitement. The living room and dining room were filled with the joy of the holiday season. The children were served a hearty meal, and the table was set with the Christmas motif. The children had a wonderful time, and the parents were pleased with the way the evening turned out.
Wildcats Armved For SEC Fight; Seen A Cinch

Roster Includes 6 Former All-SEC Players This Year

Whole Team Capable

Lovejoy, Ky., Dec. 24—AP—Not much has changed about the wonderful Kentucky basketball team that won four straight titles in the Southeastern Conference and the NCAA's.Don't even worry about this year's team being even stronger. It has six former All-SEC stars and the defending SEC champion came to us with the superlative reputation it earned as a unanimous choice for the 12-team NCAA tournament last year.

The team comes in with a perfect 8-0 record. Their next test comes Saturday night when they face the University of Texas at Dallas, a wild and woolly bunch of college footballers who played St. Louis University this afternoon.

The Wildcats also have the finest basketball player in the country, BuckyEGA, who led the nation last year in scoring and is expected to lead the nation this year.
