Quake Toll Thought 3,650

U. S. Army's Estimate Is 400 More Than Former Reports On Jap Disaster

Tokyo, Dec. 26.—(AP)—The U. S. Army today revised the casualty toll in Japan's earthquake and tidal wave disaster to 3,650—400 more than previously reported.

The army's total were 1,108 killed and 2,542 injured. They surpassed for the first time the Japanese home ministry's figures, which were 1,289 killed, 162 missing and 1,800 injured.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said Saturday's tidal wave, first reported at 7 to 10 feet high, actually swept the Wakayama peninsula and Shikoku coasts at heights of 25 to 27 feet.

Col. Crawford Sams of General MacArthur's Public Health and Welfare section revised upward his report on the number of homes destroyed to 16,362 and those damaged downward to 33,500.

As U. S. and British planes and a British destroyer carried supplies to the shivering, bedraggled homeless tens of thousands on Shikoku, Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger officially reminded the Japanese government of its responsibilities in rehabilitation. Eichelberger, commander of the U. S. Eighth Army, promised full cooperation.

MacArthur's staff so far has provided the impetus and most of the supplies and transportation for the disaster regions.

Perkins, 70, a patient at the hospital for 10 days, had been afflicted with numerous business enterprises, although ill health had kept him out of politics in recent years.

His business interests included railroading, road construction, a distillery, banking, a hotel and other activities.

Holiday Deaths Climb To 236; 199 On Roads

Last Year's Total
414, Including
219 Traffic Deaths

TOLL OVER ESTIMATES

The gaiety of the Christmas holiday turned to sadness today as scores of the nation's homes where black crepe replaced the green holly as a mounting toll of violent deaths, most of them in traffic accidents, were recorded since early Christmas Eve.

Generally fair weather throughout the country lured thousands of motorists to the highways, many in their new Christmas automobiles, and the number of traffic fatalities totaled 199.

Violent deaths by miscellaneous causes—fires, plane and train crashes, asphyxiation, drowning—accounted for 37 victims. The 236 total this Christmas compared to 414 in 1945, which included 219 traffic fatalities.

The 199 traffic deaths were far in excess of the 150 estimated by the National Safety Council from 6 p. m. Tuesday through Wednesday. A council spokesman said the eventual death toll in highway accidents for the period would be "considerably more than 300."

More than one-fourth of the traffic deaths—55—occurred in California. The heavy toll in highway accidents was blamed by a police traffic official on a "combination of wet streets and drinking."

The toll by states, from 6 p. m. (local time) Tuesday, listing traffic and miscellaneous: Alabama 2; Arizona 2; Arkansas 2; California 55; Colorado 2; Connecticut 1; Florida 2; Georgia 5; Idaho 2; Illinois 15; Indiana 11; Iowa 2; Kansas 2; Louisiana 3; Maine 3.

Maryland 3; Massachusetts 5; Michigan 8; Minnesota 3; Missouri 2; Nebraska 1; New Jersey 2; New Mexico 3; New York 10; North Dakota 1; Ohio 7; Oklahoma 4; Oregon 3; Pennsylvania 7; Tennessee 8; Texas 2; Vermont 1; Washington 4; West Virginia 5; Wisconsin 4; District of Columbia 0.

Roasters Pay Well For Negro 4-H Club Members

Eighteen Negro 4-H club members received $409.27 for the cockerels they raised to roaster size and sold at the annual roaster show and sale at Russellville. The birds averaged slightly more than five pounds and brought 40 cents a pound, or an average of $2.07 each. Bennett K. Brown, Negro county agent in Simpson and Logan counties, said that interest in the roaster project is on the increase among both club members and their parents.

Two More Men Saved From Ice Floe In St. Lawrence River

Mont Joli, Que., Dec. 26.—(AP)—The fifth and sixth survivors of a sunken Quebec airways plane were rescued today from an ice floe in the frigid St. Lawrence river after three tortuous days in which they drifted toward the sea.

The seventh person aboard the plane, which crashed in the river Monday, had disappeared in the waters of the river and was believed to have drowned. Four survivors previously were taken ashore.

A small boat which set out from the fishing village at Ste. Vallee on the Gaspe coast, 250 miles east of the City of Quebec, picked up the two men after a Canadian Pacific Air Lines plane spotted them in the river, 60 miles wide at the point. The 5,617-ton American Freighter Colabee had been pushing ice through the St. Lawrence ice when the last men were taken to safety.

Albert Morin, one of the rescued men, was reported to have a leg injury aggravated by the three day exposure to ice. Aurel Gagnon, the other saved man, was reported in good condition. The lost man was Florian Simard.

Leo Levesque, 23-year-old lumberjack from St. Antonin, was brought ashore last night, the fourth man to be rescued. James Raymond Hartley of St. Catharines, Ont., the pilot, was rescued with two of his passengers Tuesday.

Hartley, who was flying six lumberjacks home for Christmas from the river's north shore when the plane's motors conked out, said he believed one of the men was lost. He said the man apparently became exhausted while swimming and disappeared under the surface.

The pilot said his ship broke through the ice when he panicked it down and sank in about 20 minutes.

"We were about three miles off shore at the time," he said. "At first we thought we could make it to shore and managed to advance about a mile by jumping from one ice cake to another. But two miles offshore we found the ice was broken up too much, and we couldn't go any further."

Bardwell, Ky., (Special)—A coroner's jury this morning returned a verdict stating that Hubert Hale, 45, of Bardwell died as the result of bullet wounds from a pistol fired by Bedford Jones, Carlisle county, Tuesday night.

Murder Charge Brought Against Ralph West, 17

Mayfield, Ky.—Ralph West, 17, was charged with murder in the death of James Pearson "Pete" Holmes, 26, in a warrant issued in Graves county court late Monday. County Judge Lewis Anderson set West's bond at $5,000.

Examining trial was scheduled in county court this morning. West allegedly shot and killed Holmes early Sunday afternoon following a quarrel at a dance in Tennessee last Saturday night and a subsequent quarrel when the pair met Sunday afternoon in a field one-half mile south of Lynamville.

"PU Talk," Bilbo Warns

Says He'll Cite Record Of Other Senators If

Washington, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Senator Bilbo (D-Miss.), an associate said today, is prepared to raise some "embarrassing" questions if his colleagues seek to make an issue of his dealings with war contractors.

Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.), told reporters that Bilbo has had "a bunch of people" investigating other senators' connections with contractors, and is prepared to parry questions directed against him with "a record of what other people have done."

The senate war investigating committee is weighing a subcommittee's report on Bilbo's relations with a group of Mississippi contractors in the early days of the nation's defense program. While the report has not been made public, the public hearing went into stories of favors done for the Mississippi Senator by men he aided in obtaining multi-million dollar air field contracts.

Bilbo himself has denied any wrongdoing. He contends that all the committee proved is that he got a Cadillac car and a few pieces of furniture as Christmas presents, and that he still owes a lot of money.

W. C. Fields Dies After Long Career

Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 26.—(AP)—Bulbous-nosed W. C. Fields, 66, vaudeville and movie comic whose capacity for liquor finally became a matter of court record, died Christmas Day in a sanitarium where for months he had been under treatment for a liver ailment.

Nurses said he quipped with them until a few hours before his death, he slipped into a coma.

Born Claude William Dukinfield in Philadelphia, Jan. 29, 1880, he revised his last name, reversed his initials and graduated from a 55 week juggler to the Ziegfeld Follies and ultimately into films. Of his nose, a trademark sometimes believed connected with his love of strong beverages, he once said:

"The Fields nose was this size before I ever learned there was such delight in experimenting with spirits frumment."

Red-Inspired Revolt Scheme Called Threat

House Committee
Says 5th Column
Active In America

STRIKE IS STRATEGY

Washington, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Ernie Adamson, chief counsel for the House Committee on Un-American Activities, says there is a "conspiracy" afoot to foment revolution in this country, through a general strike or otherwise.

The matter is dealt with in a formal report which Adamson has given the committee. The document summarizes information assembled by his staff during 1946.

Although printed by the government printing office, the report has not yet been approved formally by the committee.

Besides referring to the revolution "conspiracy," the report (a) contains critical references to representatives of foreign governments attached to the United Nations, (b) claims that 17 important labor unions are controlled by communists and (c) calls the library of congress a "haven for aliens and foreign-minded Americans." Of the general findings, Adamson wrote:

"This committee cannot emphasize too strongly to the house and to the country the danger from this fifth column within our gates which follows with blind obedience the dictates of Moscow. They must be recognized for what are the agents of a foreign government and enemies of our American system."

During the last two years, Adamson declared, most of Europe has succumbed to "a world wide onslaught from the totalitarian left" and "England is en route," thus leaving the United States "the main bulwark against this onslaught."

The chief counsel said "deep inroads" already have been made in this country by the forces of communism and "they have succeeded in entrenching themselves in government, labor and education."

"In the opinion of the committee," Adamson continued, "the most serious penetration has been within the labor movement, where the communists dominate 17 vital unions of the CIO—unions so vital that our very national security is dependent upon them."

During the last six months, the committee has found that "numerous representatives of foreign nations who are attached to the United Nations have been attending meetings sponsored by the communist fronts in the United States and addressing the audiences upon matters affecting the United Nations."

"However, in every instance, these United Nations representatives are presenting one sided opinions directed in favor of the Russian foreign policy and the nations which they themselves represent."

Adamson recommended that the state department formally protest against such activities.

Except from the report include these observations by the attorney-investigator for the committee:

1. Many persons accepted for employment in the reorganized legislative reference department of the library of congress "have had extensive association with agencies or societies who have shown inclination to change the economy, if not the constitution, of the United States."

2. "The committee feels that a careful examination of the facts justifies the assertion that the communist party of the United States is a foreign inspired conspiracy masked as a political party."

3. Other methods that may be used include "a general strike in the United States through communist controlled labor unions which will ultimately result in a revolution," or "industrial sabotage in the form of strikes x x x during a period of war between the United States and Soviet Russia."

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pickering of Jackson, Tenn., spent the holidays with his mother, Mrs. R. E. Pickering, and family.

"Thank You"

We would like to send a special "Thank You" message to the many friends of this paper who were kind enough to remember us at Christmas time.

They were many, these Christmas well-wishers. Some mailed greetings, others dropped by the office to say "Merry Christmas," a few sent gifts to the staff. All these expressions of friendship and neighborliness warmed our hearts.

It made us feel especially good, for instance, when an elderly gentleman came in to tell us that he enjoyed the Christmas edition of the Leader published December 23.

"I didn't get mine until late at night," he said, "but I surely enjoyed it." We explained that many of the carrier boys, whose loads of papers were three times as heavy as usual, had to make two or three trips to deliver all their papers. The boys didn't complain about the added work, however. They had the "Christmas spirit," too.

The mechanical staff burned a good deal of after-hours electricity in preparing and printing the special edition. If you liked it, that is sufficient reward.

The post office delivered a number of Christmas gifts sent the staff by friends and businessmen. The National Stores, for one, gave us candy, cakes and nuts—enough to supply everyone in the office and to fill the pockets of the carrier boys.

For all these Christmas greetings, and for the good wishes for the coming year, we say again, "Thank you, very much."

Money Well Spent

Fulton's water supply now is protected from contamination at its source by installation of a chlorinator this week. The chlorinator will be obtained here until newer equipment ordered by the city is delivered.

Continuous chlorination, such as that now being done, is much more effective than adding chlorine every other day, twice a week, or on some similar schedule.

We believe everyone in Fulton is glad to see the chlorinator put into operation.

Its purchase was a wise investment, one that might save your life.

Radiant Living

Devotional for developing the spiritual life. Arranged by Rev. J. C. Matthews.

"My hope is in thee," Psalms 39:7; "let me not be ashamed of my hope," Psalms 119:118.

Failure will hurt but not defeat us. Disillusion will pain but not discourage us. Sorrows will shake us but not break us. Hope will set the music ringing and quicken our lagging feet. We need hope for living more than for dying. Dying is a moment's transition; living is a continuation of years. It is the length of the rope that puts the sag in it. Hope tightens the cords and tunes up the heartstrings. Work well, then; suffer patiently, rejoicing in hope. God knows all and yet is the God of hope. And when we have hoped to the end here, He will give us something to look forward to, for all eternity. For "hope abideth," selected.

The Democrats Want New Leadership

(Rowan County News)

The people seem lately to have turned away from the professional politician and are looking toward a new kind of political leader in whom statesmanship is a prime requisite and virtue," the Fulton Daily Leader says in a three-column editorial announcing its support of the candidacy of Harry Lee Waterfield for Governor.

The Leader's point is well taken and applies equally in Central and Eastern Kentucky where there is an upward feeling among Democrats that their salvation depends upon young, capable and uncorrupted leaders such as Mr. Waterfield appears to be. The court-house lawyers and the county organization groups in the Eighth District want to break away from the shackles of the old line of state politicians.

Mr. Waterfield is in the enviable position of having never been too closely aligned with any political faction, but his strength to his party has been so valuable that he was twice elected Speaker of the House without opposition.

There exists a pronounced and generally expressed sentiment that Congressman Earl Clements, who may throw his hat in the ring, is too closely aligned with the old crowd, and in particular with the Tom Rhea remnants. Even the Rhea adherents, and there still exist a considerable number of them in Eastern Kentucky, do not feel kindly toward Mr. Clements' candidacy. They believe that his announcement would tend to throw the party into disrepute; would return the party power to the old-line organization; and that he would not make any too strong a nominee.

To our mind Mr. Waterfield is a very but surely for the strong organization in every county without a great deal of effort on his

An Empire Dissolves

By Glenn Babb (Dubbing for MacKenzie.) AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Of all the Western powers which perforce are relaxing the ties that held their prewar empires together, France just now is finding the process most painful. In the bloody fighting that surges over broad areas of Indochina she is reaping the harvest of six decades of not very enlightened or generous colonial rule and nearly six years of tragic active after Hitler's 1940 triumph in the west.

It is a strange spectacle presented today in Southern and Eastern Asia. Nations which rank as victors in the greatest of all wars, instead of consolidating their spoils, are divesting themselves of some of the richest colonial possessions. This process is accompanied by expressions of desire to spread the light of freedom and self-government throughout the world. In some cases, at least, skepticism is pardonable. The bald fact is that in the fight for survival against the predatory Axis powers some of the ultimate victors paid so dearly in blood, treasure and prestige that they no longer have the strength to keep faraway peoples in the subjection of pre-war times.

So the Netherlands are accelerating in formation of the Indonesian Republic. Britain is proceeding along the path that Winston Churchill describes as the "decline and fall of the British Empire"—seeking means of letting India go, drafting the plans for an independent Burma, offering increased measure of self-government to the peoples of strategic Malaya. The United States has freed the Philippines, although it should be noted that this was in keeping with pre-war pledges and not the result of loss of power to retain the islands.

France, probably more than any other European power, lost "face" in Asia as the result of her tragic misfortunes between 1939 and 1945. Struck down by a European power on battlefields thousands of miles away, she had to submit to four years to the domination of her prize Asiatic Colony by an Asiatic conqueror, Japan. Her role in Indochina was more humiliating than that of the British in Burma, for example, or the Dutch in Java, for they, at least, were able to give battle before yielding to the Japanese.

The major result was that when the Japanese tide receded in 1945 it left behind in Indochina a vigorous nationalism that made it certain that French rule never could be re-established on the old basis.

Surprised By An Elephant

Hollywood.—(AP)—Did your Christmas presents surprise you?

Chet Lauck is still a little amazed over one—a 50-year-old elephant wearing a sign "Merry Xmas to the Laucks"—he found among his gifts yesterday. The pachyderm was sent by W. C. Stroube of Corsicana, Tex., to the "Lum" of "Lum and Abner" radio fame. Last year Stroube sent a parrot and the year before a nondescript bird.

the "man" who can deliver the party to new standards.

As a past President and a popular member of the Kentucky Press Association where his ability has been accepted for many years by the publishers of the state, Mr. Waterfield is almost certain to have vigorous support.

At a meeting of the Western Press Association he received unanimous endorsement, and the publishers there pledged that they would support him to the fullest extent editorially. It is rare that a group of newspaper editors will commit themselves to such an extent and indicates that in the section of the State where Mr. Waterfield is best known that he enjoys the complete confidence of contemporaries whose business it is to acquaint themselves with all public problems and, in particular with the qualifications of anyone offering themselves as a candidate for the highest post in the Commonwealth.

His qualifications as a leader are unchallenged and his business and public record will react favorably to the electorate.

He has been a stalwart in the House, where he has served five terms. He worked for increased pay and the betterment of Kentucky's schools and colleges, and will undoubtedly receive powerful endorsements from this group. In addition, First District newspapers claim that Mr. Waterfield can and will roll up a 35,000 to 40,000 majority there in the general election which could offset the strong Republican Ninth.

Much can and will happen between now and August, but the present trend in Eastern Kentucky is definitely toward Mr. Waterfield. Week by week he is gaining stronger support, while there appears no endorsement from any group or from the people themselves to Mr. Clements or any other candidate.

Social Happenings

MISS MARY ELEANOR BLACKSTONE IS LEADER'S NEW SOCIETY EDITOR

Miss Mary Eleanor Blackstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blackstone, 308 Second street, has accepted the position of society editor of the Fulton Daily Leader.

She succeeds Mrs. K. P. Dalton, Jr., who submitted her resignation last week.

Miss Blackstone is a graduate of Fulton high school, and attended Murray State College.

She was assistant editor of The Bulldog, Fulton high school newspaper, for two years, and served as business manager for one year. The paper was first published during Miss Blackstone's sophomore year at Fulton high school.

The new society editor is anxious to obtain all personal and so ity news of Fulton and nearby communities. She invites everyone to phone her at the Leader office (No. 20), to report local news.

PALESTINE HOMEMAKERS STUDY SOO-MAKING

Complete instructions for hooking rugs were given by the leader, Mrs. J. H. Lawrence and Mrs. Hillman Collier, at the regular meeting of Palestine Homemakers club Dec. 20 at the home of Mrs. E. O. Dewese, McConnell road.

Some of the facts brought out in the lesson were: firmly woven burlap makes good foundation material and the use of a frame will produce better quality hooking; the selection and preparation of materials is an important feature in making rugs.

Miss Vivian Curnutt, specialist, furnished the lesson material.

Mrs. W. P. McClanahan, president, called the meeting to order at 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. McClanahan paid tribute to the memory of Mrs. E. A. Thompson, one of the faithful members who passed away recently.

The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Morgan Davidson, who read Luke 2:1-20, and who also gave a Christmas prayer. The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Leslie Nugent, was absent because of illness. Mrs. Lon Brown volunteered to act as secretary-treasurer for an indefinite time. Plans were discussed relative to sending a delegate to the Farm and Home Convention in January.

Landscape notes were given by Mrs. A. M. Browder, who told how to set shrubs and trees during December if the ground is not frozen. She also gave suggestions for Christmas decorations for the house, including the outside of the front door. Simplicity in design is always the mark of good taste, and much more effective than too much decoration, she said.

At noon the member and guests were served a Christmas luncheon. For the recreational program the group sang Christmas carols, after which those present enjoyed a Christmas party and exchange of gifts.

The rooms had lovely Yuletide decorations, including a tree under which the gifts were arranged. Visitors were Mrs. Lucy Jones, who resides in the Dewese home, and Mrs. Bertha Swiggart of Fulton.

Mrs. Fern Snow is spending the holidays in Memphis.

Miss Alla Mae Suggs of Clinton, Mo., and Mrs. J. C. Suggs, Mr. and Mrs. Roper Fields and children, Betty, Joyce and Tommy spent Christmas Day with their mother and grandmother west of town.

CHRISTMAS DINNER AND FAMILY REUNION

A basket dinner and family reunion was enjoyed Christmas Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sig Johnson near Wingo. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Hibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hibbs and children, James, Joyce, and Charles of Fulton; Mrs. Edna Johnson and children, Earl, Mural, Ruby, Eugene and Leroy and little Pat Martin, all of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanderfer and children, Edward and Linda; Miss Jane Mulliken, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Johnson and baby, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Holms and daughters, Peggy and Minnie, Mr. and Mrs. Leann and Brevard, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson and son of Evansville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. W. ## Sugar Program A Terrible Mess, Sen. Butler Says

Washington, Dec. 26—(AP)—Describing the administration's sugar program as "a terrible mess," Senator Butler (R-Neb.) called today for a "plain old-fashioned tariff" to protect the American sugar industry.
Butler's statement coincided with a report by Rep. Jenkins (R-Ohio) chairman of the Republican Congressional Food Study Committee, who criticized the government's "senseless fear of a wartime sugar surplus" and predicted both rationing and price control of sugar can be safely abolished late in 1947.
Jenkins, asserting American housewives have been getting "the short end of the sugar deal" for five years, said each household consumer should get at least 10 pounds more sugar in 1947 than in 1946. Industrial allotments should be increased 30 percent, he added.

Fertilizer Ups Corn Production In Spencer County

A yield of 142 1-2 bushels to the acre gave R. C. McClain top honors in the Spencer county corn derby. Eleven farmers had yields of over 100 bushels to the acre and the average of all farmers in the contest was 98 1-2 bushels.
County Agent Nevin L. Goebel noted that farmers harvesting over 100 bushels to the acre used an average of 325 pounds of fertilizer an acre and grew an average of 9,035 plants to the acre, while those who picked under 100 bushels used only 150 pounds of fertilizer and had 8,945 plants an acre.
"The contest," said the county agent, "indicated that high yields are associated with lots of plants per acre on well-fertilized land, and that conserving moisture is important."

You've GOT To Look Ahead!

A GOOD CHECKER PLAYER can see that Black, moving first, can win easily. (Solution below.) Black is looking several moves ahead.

That's the way sound business management operates, too. Here at K. U. we're looking five years ahead. We're making plans now for 1952.

During the last ten to twelve years, our average home customer has had his electricity cost reduced about half—that is, he is getting twice as much electricity for his money as he got ten to twelve years ago. As usage increases in the future we expect to continue this downward cost trend.

We expect to see Kentucky grow industrially during these five years. We regard as an obligation our job of helping Kentucky to obtain new business that will provide more employment and take some of the tax load off the individual. During the last two years alone we have worked with local civic groups in the 80 counties we serve to obtain 45 new, tax-paying industries employing 7,190 people. We already have commitments from others who expect to locate in our area during 1947.

In our rural areas we are extending lines as fast as materials become available.

Do we really believe in Kentucky's agricultural and industrial future? Well, we're spending $14,000,000 during these next five years to back up our belief and judgment . . . $14,000,000 for new power plants, enlarged facilities, new line extensions, and increasingly dependable service.

We are interested, too, in developing new and more efficient uses for the homemaker's most economical servant, electricity. We want to bring her more comfort, more convenience and less drudgery. For instance, we and the other business-managed electric companies and manufacturers have been working for several years on the "Heat Pump," the astounding new equipment that promises to revolutionize home heating and cooling. Experimental models for use in Kentucky have already been ordered, and these next five years should find the "Heat Pump" in extensive use.

K. U. recognizes its duty to the people of Kentucky, not only to keep abreast of the times, but to look ahead, sensibly, practically and intelligently.

Solution to the checker problem shown above: Black moves 24 to 27; White jumps 31 to 24; Black 23 to 19; White jumps 24 to 15; Black jumps 18 to 11 to 2 to 9; and has White's only King trapped in a single corner.
