AMERICA'S FAMOUS FIGHTERS FACE GERMANS AT CHATEAU THIERRY ON FRONT OF TWO AND A HALF MILES

Americans Capture and Hold All Important
High Ground Northwest of City in Attack
Which Lasted Four Hours; Advancing Lines to Depth of a Mile.

FRENCH ATTACK AT SAME TIME, CAPTURING 160

With American Army in Picardy, June 6. (By Associated Press)—The American Marines attacked the Germans at dawn this morning, gained three and a half kilometers over a four kilometer front, and captured one hundred prisoners, in the Chateau Thierry sector. The French attacking at the same time on the left took one hundred and sixty prisoners. The Americans now hold all the important high ground northwest of Chateau Thierry.

The Marines again attacked at 5 o'clock this afternoon and the battle is still raging. The fight started at three forty-five this morning and the Americans had attained all objectives by seven forty-five o'clock.

The Americans have been pressing the Germans so hard that the enemy has been forced to throw three divisions of the best troops into the line during the last three days. The Americans fought life tigers. Their commanders have all they can do to hold the men back. Even the wounded are enthusiastic and eager to fight. They are proud of their wounds. A general who visited the field dressing station today said that he was elated by the sight.

Paris, June 6.—An attack by French and American troops between the Oureq and Marne rivers resulted in an advance of two-thirds of a mile in the neighborhood of Veully. La Poterie, according to the war office announcement tonight. Two hundred and seventy Germans were captured.

Washington, June 6.—General Pershing's communique tonight announces that American and French troops advanced their lines northeast of Chateau Thierry about one mile. This morning, taking many prisoners and inflicting severe losses in killed, wounded upon the enemy.

Berlin, June 6.—(Via London).—The situation on the battlefront is unchanged. The German official communication today says. The statement reports only artillery activity and local engagements.

London, June 6.—Evening Standard learns upon high authority that official communications for May give a total of 398 German airplanes brought down by British airmen, twenty being shot down by anti-aircraft guns. One hundred driven down out of control, making a total of five hundred and eighteen machines damaged or destroyed during the month.

Although the latest German official communication announces the situation unchanged, there has been a change on one of the most important sectors in Picardy. American marines are responsible for it.

Attacking on a front two and one-half miles, in a fight beginning at the break of dawn and lasting four hours, the marines drove the enemy back a distance of virtually two and one-quarter miles, occupying all important high ground positions northwest of Chateau Thierry, which village, in previous fighting American machine gunners had made a shambles for the Germans.

After a breathing space the Americans late this afternoon returned to the fray, which at last accounts was still in progress. The sector where the fighting is going on commands the Marne at that part of the front where the battle line swings eastward toward Rheims. The marines took 100 prisoners, while the French to the left took 160.

To the northwest around Veully-La-Poterie, where recently the Americans dealt the Germans several blows, taking portions of the ground they are now occupying, the enemy now seems fearful of another onslaught and is deluging the region with shells. No infantry attacks followed.

It seems not improbable that the Germans will soon ask the Americans to show their metal in battle on the St. Mihiel sector, southeast of Verdun. American patrols report a heavy movement of troops from northeastward passing westward from the Toul sector toward St. Mihiel. The heavy attacks of the Germans from Rheims to northwest of Soissons are still at a halt. In this sector all German attempts at raids as well as in Picardy and Flanders have been frustrated.

The Italian theatre has witnessed increased artillery fire and patrol encounters.

EIGHT BILLIONS BY TAXATION TO MEET YEAR'S EXPENSES

Washington, June 6.—Secretary McAdoo today recommended in a letter to Chairman Kittling of the House ways and means committee, that the new revenue bill be drawn to raise $8,000,000,000 by taxation, which is one-third of the estimated expenditures for the year.

It was recommended that the war tax be established at a high rate, and that the income tax be increased. The committee also recommended that the estate tax be increased, and that the gift tax be established.

France by this time, but with the exception of my classmates, who were feared with me, I have not seen any one else whom I knew since arriving in France. Could write quite a few pages about the front, but guess I will have to wait until I get home and then tell you all about it.

CHARLIE C. MELOAN IS DEAD.

After suffering an illness of nearly eighteen months Charlie Melon died at the family residence on East Poplar street in this city, last Wednesday at about 12:30 o'clock p. m. His death, resulting from pneumonia. He was 40 years of age and was a native of this county and had lived here all his life. He was one of the best known citizens of the county and possibly without exception has as many friends as any citizen of the county. Generous to a fault, possessing a sunny disposition, devoted to his aged and infirm mother, scrupulously honest, he won the friendship of those with whom he came in contact. His mother, Mrs. Jane Melon, four brothers, John, Mr. Melon, Nashville, Tenn., Obe Melon, Memphis, Tenn., P. G. Melon, Paducah, Ky., and Raleigh Melon, of this city, and one sister, Mrs. Frank Sylvester, now in Georgia, survive him. Funeral services were conducted at the home Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. Kyle Brooks, of the Christian church, and Rev. H. B. Taylor. The burial took place immediately following in the City cemetery.

GOOD WEATHER FOR CROPS THROUGHOUT KENTUCKY

The United States Weather Bureau's summary of weather and crop conditions in Kentucky for the week ending June 4 follows:

The warm dry weather which prevailed during the greater part of the week was favorable for plant growth, the planting and cultivation of corn and the hoeing and weeding of wheat, while the showers Saturday night and Sunday were greatly needed by gardens, truck, tobacco and potatoes. Wheat is now maturing rapidly and is in excellent condition, with heavy heads. Harvest will begin in southern counties at about two weeks. Corn is growing nicely, although there is still about one-fourth of the crop yet to plant. Much replanting has been found necessary. Some of the early planting has been hindered by a heavy rain. Only about one-third of the tobacco crop has been set out, but plants are generally reported as plentiful. Further rain is needed for the newly set fields. Meadows are generally clean and in good condition. Pastures, oats and rye are generally reported as good. Most of the rye is being plowed under. Garden truck making good progress, but further rains are needed. Strawberries are in the midst of the season, but the crop is not large as compared with last year.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS.

Calloway county is again called upon to do a patriotic service. For the next few weeks a campaign will be waged to sell every man, woman and child in this county these small War Savings Stamps. O. T. Hale of this city, has been placed in charge of the merchants' division of the work. A meeting of Murray merchants was held last Tuesday night at the courthouse and was attended by nearly every business man in the city. Mr. Hale was very much gratified at the cooperation shown and will extend the organization throughout the county. Merchants of the county are expected to sell $20,000 worth of these stamps.

If you have not invested in these small interest bearing stamps make yourself familiar with them and be ready to take your part when a solicitor calls upon you.

ALL RECORDS ARE BROKEN.

London, June 6.—Merchant tonnage completed in United Kingdom during the month of May, 1918, was 1,406,888 gross tons. The highest figure for any month during the past year.

Official figures published today show that the completions for May marked an increase in tonnage over April, 1918, of 85,741 tons. The next highest figures for any month in the past year were 1,617,474 gross tons in March, 1918.

The total completion for the twelve months ending May 31, 1918, were 1,406,888 gross tons. The corresponding figures for the year ending April 30, 1918, were 1,270,237.

1918 ROBINSON CRUSOE.

ASK: "IS WAR ENDED YET?"

London, May 25.—Three "wild men" of a desolate section of the Yorkshire coast were arrested recently and proved to be deserters from the army. The men had fairly comfortable quarters in a cave high up on a cliff. When their Robinson Crusoe-like existence was brought to an end the first question asked was "Has the war ended yet?"

HIGH PRICE FOR TOBACCO.

Madison, Ky. June 6.—The highest price for tobacco in this state was paid on Wednesday morning for a lot of West Kentucky tobacco.

WASHINGTON THINKS MARNE IS "JONAH" TO GERMAN HORDE

American Military Experts
Think History Will Repeat Itself in Famous Valley.

Washington, June 6.—With the Berlin official statement last night conceding that there is "no change" on the western battlefront, observers here became increasingly confident that the River Marne, for the second time in the great struggle, has marked the end of the drive intended to crush resistance to the German war machine.

There was some question as to whether it was possible that history would further repeat itself and the invaders again be hurled back in precipitous retreat before a vigorous offensive. There was nothing to indicate, however, that any officers familiar with the progress of the fight believed such a stroke by Foch's armies was to be expected now. They did not see any reason to believe that German powers had exhausted itself.

It is more than possible, it was said, that the German offensive on the line from Chateau Thierry to Soissons would come at any moment. The German high command may be gathering strength there to force a way through toward Paris.

Unofficial reports from the front, however, indicated that the crack German offensive divisions, the shock troops, were still in the line and were not disappearing from the new battlefront. If this is the fact, officers believed it meant that preparations were already under way behind the German lines for a fourth blow.

When the mightiest of the allied forces predict, though some believed that the enemy would derive the greatest results by carrying out the original programme of smashing through to the Channel ports.

Everybody here is greatly pleased with the excellent impression created by the American troops wherever they have been employed. Tributes to the accuracy and volume of American machine-gun fire have been noted with particular gratification.

Pershing has insisted from the first on good marksmanship and it is evident he has his way in training the men in this regard. The successes scored by the fighting men gives zest to the task of acquiring and equipping them and rousing them to reinforcements for telling victories they will win later.

Officially officers here discuss the doing of their comrades at the front in reserved language. Unofficially, they glory in the fact that the Germans are finding themselves busy wherever the men from overseas reach the battle lines.

HUGH LYON DIES.

Prominent Lyon County Citizen Passes Away at His Home Near Center Last Thursday Afternoon.

Eddyville, Ky., June 6.—Hugh Lyon, a prominent farmer and citizen of the county, died at his home two miles west of Center, Thursday evening about 7 o'clock of Bright's disease and leakage of the heart. He had been in bad health for several months but was thought to be improving until Wednesday, when he became worse and gradually sank until the end came.

He was about 40 years old and the third son of Gen. H. B. Lyon and Mrs. Grace Maehen Lyon, deceased. Besides his wife, Mrs. Ruth Dodds Lyon, is survived by his following brothers and sisters: Ernest Lyon, of this city, Capt. Frank Lyon, of the U. S. Navy, and Mrs. M. K. Keill, of Princeton, Mrs. H. B. Lyon, of this city, a step mother and Miss Lorraine Lyon and Mrs. Lawson Plack are half sisters.

BRITISH AVIATORS AGAIN RAIN BOMBS ON GERMANS

London, June 5.—The British communication dealing with aviation, issued this evening, says:

"The weather was overcast on the British front yesterday and the enemy's aircraft were not active. One hostile machine was brought down by our airplanes and another driven down out of control. One German balloon was destroyed."

Besides reconnaissance work and artillery co-operation, we dropped during the day and night fourteen tons of bombs. We lost no machines."

WILSON BOOSTER FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Washington, D. C., June 5.—Adoption of woman suffrage, Louisiana, was urged by President Wilson in a telegram sent to the Louisiana state legislature today.

"I cannot help regarding the settlement of this question as of world-wide significance," said President Wilson, "and as offering a standard by which to judge our progress in democracy."

It will not be fully realized by the country until the effects of its operation appear in every community. The sweeping character of the Government's purpose to put every able bodied man of draft age either into the army or some useful occupation is indicated by Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder's official announcement, but inasmuch as every case will come up for determination on its merits as the operations of the regulation goes forward, it will be some apparent that the scope of the Government's action probably is limitless.

As an outgrowth of the plan conceived and known as "putting the nation to work," the new regulations probably will be more and more closely applied as the war goes on or until it becomes necessary to raise the draft age above 31. Military authorities are of the opinion now that it will not be necessary to raise the draft age and that the man power of the nation is sufficient if those now of draft age are fully utilized.

The first effect of the new regulations will be to drive idlers to work or into the army. Moreover, it will be the idler's own responsibility to get a useful job before July 1. Then will come the determination of what constitutes useful employment and this, it is pointed out, will come in for closer and closer determination as the war goes on. An employment commission will be set up to determine what constitutes useful employment in comparison with the greater need of the war.

PLAN MANY LAUNCHINGS FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY.

Seattle, Wash., June 6.—Possibly 23 steel and wooden ships to be launched July 4, will be the response of the Pacific Northwest to the United States Shipping board's appeal to make Independence day one to be remembered by the enemy, it was stated here today by representatives of the Emergency Fleet corporation. Four steel craft are to be launched at Seattle, while the Americans transported over seas had contributed to being the raiders. Acting Secretary of the naval, Roosevelt disclosed today a radio message sent broadcast a week before the first submarine attack, warning shipping that U-boats might appear at any point on the Atlantic coast, he declined to discuss on what information this warning was based.

NEGRO WOMAN SLAYS HUSBAND.

Duke Wells, colored son of Wallace Wells, who lives three miles North of town, was shot while he lay asleep in bed at his home last Friday night. The negro's wife was later arrested at the home of her mother in Wilderville, Tenn., near Memphis, and was returned to this place and is now in jail under a warrant charging her with doing the shooting. Wells attended the street carnival here in the fore part of the night and returned to his home and immediately went to bed. The supposition is that his wife lay in waiting on the outside of the house until after her husband returned home and fell asleep. The crime was committed with a single barrel shotgun, which was placed near the negro's head and fired. The load entered behind the left ear and almost tore the brain. Wells' wife came to the town and made endeavor to find the sheriff to surrender, but later boarded a freight train and left for Wilderville.

BERT RAY SERIOUSLY INJURED

Bert Ray had a narrow escape from death Wednesday morning when he was struck by an incoming early morning passenger train and knocked about twenty feet, sustaining a broken collar bone, a fractured shoulder, painful bruises about the head and body, and possibly internal injuries. Ray was working on the bridge gang working out of this place and was awaiting the arrival of the train to go to work. A motor car used to carry the crew to and from work and in charge of the men was standing on the ground near the track and just as the passenger car approached the engine of the motor train was started and Ray not noticing the train was standing on the track. He endeavored to jump but was caught before he cleared the track and hurled a distance of fully twenty feet. He was rushed to the hospital here where his injuries were given attention.

Y. M. C. A. LOSSES HEAVY.

New York, June 6.—Losses incidental to the German push on the western front have made it imperative that more than $100,000,000 be subscribed during the campaign for funds with which to maintain Y. M. C. A. war service activities at home and overseas. The amount needed for the association, war council, was told here today by Dr. John R. Mott, general secretary, who recently returned from France. The association has appropriated half a million dollars to replace 89 buns and dugouts lost by the British in Flanders and Picardy during the recent drive and within the last week more than 200 of these recreation centers back of the French line have fallen into enemy hands, Dr. Mott declared.

NEWSPAPER CRITICISM PRECIPITATES DEBATES

Theories Advanced as to the Causes of Attack Receive No Support.

Washington, June 6.—Complete confidence in the measures taken by the navy to deal with its submarine raiders was expressed in the senate today by spokesmen from both sides of the chamber. Senator Lewis, the Illinois Democratic whip, and Senator Lodge, Massachusetts Republican, joined in declaring the navy to be on the alert and ready for the enemy. These expressions came amidst sharp debates which were precipitated by the reading by Senator Brandegee of Connecticut, of a newspaper editorial criticizing the navy department for not giving a warning to shipping of the presence of submarines. Commenting on this, Senators Lodge and Brandegee agreed that there was no complaint against the navy, though they had very different theories as to what drew the submarines to American shores. Senator Lewis said the attack was precipitated by false statements in congress and elsewhere regarding the nation's unpreparedness, while Senator Lodge said that "those bragging about the number of the Americans transported over seas had contributed to being the raiders. Acting Secretary of the naval, Roosevelt disclosed today a radio message sent broadcast a week before the first submarine attack, warning shipping that U-boats might appear at any point on the Atlantic coast, he declined to discuss on what information this warning was based.

SENATORS UNITE TO SMOKE OUT THE WAR PROFITEERS

Senator Borah Sponsors Resolution Asking McAdoo For Information.

Washington, D. C., June 6.—Leaders in the senate are going to set behind Senator Borah's resolution calling upon the secretary of the treasury for information in the possession of the department relative to profiteering in the United States, together with figures showing the amount of money the government has raised since beginning of the war and the amount raised by loans.

President Wilson inspired Senator Borah's resolution when in his recent message to congress he declared that evidence of profiteering in the country is "available and indisputable."

The president's statement made it evident to senators that the information regarding profiteering is available at the treasury department from income tax returns. In the income tax law there is a penal provision against disclosure of any income tax returns, but senators who have studied this law have reached the conclusion that this provision does not apply to disclosures of the facts for the official use of congress.

The purpose for which this information is sought is to get a working basis upon which congress may proceed in consideration of revenue legislation to the enactment of some drastic measures which will eliminate war profiteering.

Senator Borah, in his recent speech on the subject asserted the president's reference to the evil was a call for duty upon congress and that congress must act.

He took up the matter at executive headquarters. Democratic leaders have found that Senator Borah's information of the president's reference to A. A. war service activities at home and overseas was correct. Secretary McAdoo has promised to furnish the information which the Borah resolution calls for.

NORWEGIAN SHIP TORPEDOED OFF VIRGINIA CAPES

Sinking Occurred Late Tuesday Afternoon; No Other Indication Comes of Their Intention.

PLANTED MINES OFF COAST OF DELAWARE

Tanker Pratt Evidently Struck One of Them; Others Have Been Gathered Up.

Washington, June 5.—German submarine raiders again have disclosed their positions. It is announced from the Navy Department tonight that the Norwegian steamer Eidsvold was sent to the bottom at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, forty miles off the Virginia Capes. The entire crew was rescued today by a naval supply ship. Details of the encounter are lacking. That is the last word received by the department showing the raiders' position. In thirty hours after the attack on the Eidsvold nothing has come to indicate where the Germans are or what they are about. It is evident the raiders have been steady moving southward from the New Jersey coast. Presumably they were back yesterday in the region where they first began operations against coasting schooners.

The raiders were closer in shore when they attacked the Eidsvold than on any previous occasion, except when they planted mines off the Delaware Capes. The tanker Pratt presumably struck one of these mines while a number of others unexploded have been gathered up in the same vicinity.

OF GREAT SIZE

Tanker Captain Says U-Boat Looked Like S. U. Destroyer.

Washington, June 5.—The story of the captain of the French tanker Radioleine attacked by a submarine off the Maryland coast yesterday showing the raider fired fifteen shots at the Frenchman from long range before the American destroyer answering his S. O. S. appeared. The destroyer went at full speed for the enemy which promptly submerged and when the destroyer reached the spot where the submarine disappeared the Radioleine was too far away to see what happened. None of the shots hit the tanker which she fired at the raider went over. The captain said the submarine was so big that when his lookout sighted her six miles away he reported her as an American destroyer. The submarine flew no flag.

HUNS FIGHTING FURIOUSLY WITH NO GAIN SCORED

Valor of American Troops is Shown in Many Sectors; Penetrate Enemy Positions to Third Line.

GERMANS RECOGNIZE FORMIDABLE FOE

Keep Trenches Held By Pershing's Men Drenched With Shells Without Effect.

Washington, June 5.—With the Berlin official statement tonight conceding there is "no change on the western battle front," observers here became increasingly confident that the River Marne for the second time in the great struggle has marked the end of a drive intended to crush resistance to the German war machine.

Washington, June 5.—Penetration of enemy positions in Picardy and Lorraine by American patrols which inflicted losses upon the enemy in killed and wounded is reported tonight in General Pershing's communique. In the Western region artillery fighting has diminished.

With the American Army in France (By Associated Press.)—An American patrol of 30 men penetrated to the enemy's lines in the Lunenburg sector early this morning. The Americans encountered 200 Germans and attacked them with hand grenades, bayonets and bullets. The fighting lasted 20 minutes and heavy losses were inflicted on the enemy. The American losses were extremely light.

(By Associated Press.)
The allied stone wall is still being imposed against the Germans on the battle front from Soissons to Chateau Thierry. Nowhere is the enemy making progress. The fury of the invaders, however, has not been checked for they are launching all along the front assault after assault on various sectors in the hope that the allied ranks may give further ground enabling them to straighten out the curved line from Moulin and Soustouvent northwest of Soissons to Trezenne and south-west to Willers-Cotteret. Great masses of artillery and large numbers of troops are being used by the Germans in almost continuous battle but notwithstanding this fact, the German war office far from claiming any advances, merely announces: "On the battle front the situation is unchanged."
Along the Marne there has been no further fighting of great moment but in Lunenburg sector the Americans have again reminded the Germans they are facing opponents to be reckoned with. The Germans seemingly fearful of this hand of warriors continue to keep this entire sector drenched with shells among which are many gas containers.
There still seems to be no resumption of battle in Italy or on the Amiens front.

IS OPPOSED TO ANY EXTENSION OF PROHIBITION

Washington, June 5.—President Wilson Tuesday declared his opposition to further prohibition legislation until the Food Administration decides it is necessary to conserve foodstuffs.

The nation was made known in a letter to Senator Sheppard, of Texas, a House amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill would prevent the expenditure unless the President prevents the use of grain in the production of alcoholic liquors.

HUNS MAGNIFY EFFICIENCY OF THE LARGE U-BOATS

Widely-Known British Naval Expert Writer Exposes Exaggerations.

London, June 5.—Stories of Germany's submarine cruisers may be dismissed, says Archibald S. Hurd, widely known writer on naval subjects, in an article appearing in the Daily Telegraph.

"They are merely large submarines such as we have been building," he says. "They do not represent a triumph of German engineering any more conspicuous than a triumph of our shipbuilders have achieved. It was because German submarines of about 800 tons could remain at sea only a short time, were very uncomfortable and the conditions very telling on the nerves of the crew that the enemy evolved a large type modeled on the Deutschland. This type, having been designed, it was decided to indulge in exaggeration in order to impress the world."

"What is the truth about the German submarines?" he continues. "These cruisers displace not 5,000 tons, but only 2,000. They are not 450 feet long, but less than 300 feet. Their speed on the surface is not 28 knots but about 12 knots. When submerged they do not travel at the rate of 15 knots an hour, but approximately 10 knots or so. "It happens that we have heard more about the operations of German submarines than about the British simply because our enemy offers few targets for our submarines while we offer the enemy thousands of targets every week. The percentage of hits by our submarines is, in fact, about three times that of the Germans, which in itself indicates the high standard of efficiency of British ship design, construction and operation."

"The work which British submarines are doing is magnificent. Our officers are handicapped by many things beside the small number of targets afforded them. The Germans are able to maintain their campaign only by defying every law of every nation and ignoring the ordinary dictates of humanity. There is nothing easier than murder."

APPEALS FOR NURSES COMES FROM BAKER

Washington, June 5.—In a statement issued today through the American Red Cross, Secretary of War Baker called upon the general public to cooperate actively to insure an ample supply of nurses to meet the needs of the army and navy.

"The greatest humanitarian duty we owe our army once it has been armed and sheltered, clothed and transported, is to conserve its health and vitality and to bind up the wounds which unhappily, but inevitably, must come to it," declared Secretary Baker.

"That this service may be performed most effectively and most speedily it is necessary that hospitals continue their co-operation in releasing to the paramilitary service whatever members of their staffs may be spared without peril to their clientele, that training schools continue to adapt themselves to increasing numbers of students, that civil communities be more watchful in the enforcement and promotion of measures for safeguarding the public health; that individuals that have been used to employing private duty nurses in their homes should rely, whenever possible upon hospitals and visiting nurses agencies, which permit one nurse to care for a number of patients."

ORDERS GO OUT CALLING 200,000 MORE TO COLORS

With These in Camp Two Million of the Best Fighters in America Will Be Under Arms.

KENTUCKY FURNISHES QUOTA OF 5,000 MEN

All Go to National Army Cantonnments Indicating Rapidity Overseas Movement.

Washington, June 5.—While one million young Americans just turned twenty-one were registering today for service in the war for world freedom orders went out from Provost Marshall General Crowder to governors of all states except Arizona for the mobilization between June 24 and 26 of 200,000 more registrants. This brings the total number of selective service men called to the colors to 1,595,704.

When they are in camp the nation's army will number more than two million men. The registration today was apparently attended by perfect order which marked the enrolling a year ago of ten million men who form a reservoir upon which the nation is drawing for fighting forces. Men who registered today have become of age since the first registration day. Military authorities estimate they will furnish three quarters of a million men fit for duty. While the act of Congress requires new registrants to be placed at the bottom of the class to which they are assigned, many men may be soon called to the colors as today's requisition upon governors will exhaust the first class in some states.

Registration days for men becoming 21 probably will be held every three months hereafter. Assignment of men, called to the colors under today's order indicate the rapidity with which troops are moving overseas. In nearly every instance the men called today are assigned national army cantonnments whereas under a recent call it was necessary to send the men to National Guard and Regular army and other camps because the cantonnments were filled. Illinois will furnish 25,000 men under the call, leading all the states. New York being second with 12,000. Kentucky will furnish 5,000 men who will go to Camp Zachary Taylor. 7,000 Illinois men also are assigned to Camp Taylor.

WOULD EXTEND CLOSED SEASON ON BIRDS

Washington, June 5.—Slight changes in the regulations under the Migratory-Bird Law have been proposed by the United States Department of Agriculture in accordance with a resolution adopted at a recent meeting in Washington of the Migratory-Bird Law Advisory Board. The proposals have been published, and a period of three months is allowed during which the changes may be examined and considered before final adoption. The regulations as finally adopted will become effective on or after September 1, 1918.

Owing to the continued need of protection, it is proposed to extend to September 1, 1920, the closed season which would have expired September 1, 1918, on Band-tailed pigeons; little brown, sandhill, and whooping cranes, wood duck, swans, curlews, willet, and all shorebirds except the black-bellied and golden plovers. Wilson snipe, jack snipe, woodcock, and the greater and lesser yellowlegs. It is also proposed to continue the closed seasons on rails in California and Vermont and on blue-bellied and golden plovers in California and Utah until September 1, 1920, and on woodcock in Illinois, Kentucky, and Missouri until October 1, 1920.

"BUSINESS AND THE GREAT WAR"

Subject of Great Lecture at Coming Chautauqua.

WHAT OF BUSINESS FUTURE?

Vital Discussion by Frank Mulholland, Magnetic, Rapid-Fire Speaker, Past President International Rotary Clubs of the World.

"Business and the War," will be the subject on the second night of the Chautauqua here of the great lecture of Frank Mulholland, known everywhere as a magnetic, rapid-fire eloquent speaker before business men's organizations, and past president of the International Association of Rotary Clubs of the World.

Wonderfully qualified as a speaker on business, Mr. Mulholland possesses the advantage of an intimate acquaintance with war conditions both in this country and in Europe. His subject "Business and the War," is a vital one and his message deeply concerns thousands and hundreds of thousands of Americans today.

and England, where he thoroughly investigated conditions as well as visited the soldiers in the front-line trenches.

Mr. Mulholland's first visit to Europe was made when he was nineteen years old. At that time he went on a bicycle trip through Ireland, England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Montenegro, Greece, Italy and France.

He occupied a prominent place among those concerned in arranging for holding the Olympic games in Athens, Greece, in 1896, and he had considerable to do with the erection of the great stadium in Athens at that time.

Mr. Mulholland is a resident of Toledo, O., having lived there for the past twenty years. He is past president of the Commerce club of Toledo, with a membership of 4,000. He has been a member of the board of directors of that club for six years. He is also a past president of the Toledo Rotary club.

An attorney by profession, Mr. Mulholland has appeared in numerous important cases, including cases carried to the Supreme court of the United States, and has won a reputation as an eloquent pleader.

Mr. Mulholland is one of the most magnetic and eloquent speakers ever heard on the Chautauqua platform. His whirlwind delivery, rattling gun verbal speed, and wonderful personality make him a master of his audience.

"BARBAROUS AS SLAVE DRIVERS"

Methods of Exponents of German "Kultur" in Carrying Out Deportation Order.

ADD HYPOCRISY TO CRUELTY

Officers of "Modern Attilla" Gave Attitude of England as Excuse for Raping in France Atrocities Practiced in Belgium.

The course of the German armies in France was marked with the same brutalities that characterized the occupation of Belgium. Ample proof has been produced that the entire proceedings were a deliberate part of the calculated system of "frightfulness."

In France the German system of forced labor and deportations, with its horrors, was the same as in Belgium. In this article is shown the real identity of German practice in both occupied regions. This can be done from the official documents and from a summary by Ambassador Gerard. The harrowing details may be gathered from the scores of depositions which accompany the note addressed by the French government to the governments of the neutral powers July 25, 1918. These are on file in the state department, and have also been translated, along with the official documents, in "The Deportation of Women and Girls From Lille" (New York, Doran).

German Proclamation at Lille.

"The attitude of England makes the provisioning of the population more and more difficult.

"To reduce the misery, the German authorities have recently asked for volunteers to go and work in the country. This offer has not had the success that was expected.

"In consequence of this, the inhabitants will be deported by order and removed into the country. Persons deported will be sent to the interior of the occupied territory in France, far behind the front, where they will be employed in agricultural labor, and not on any military work whatever. By this measure they will be given the opportunity of providing better for their subsistence.

"In case of necessity, provisions can be obtained through the German depots. Every person deported will be allowed to take with him 30 kilograms of baggage (household utensils, clothes, etc.), which it will be well to make ready at once.

"I therefore order that go on, until further orders, shall change his place of residence. No one may absent himself from his declared legal residence from 9 p. m. to 6 a. m. (German time), unless he is in possession of a permit in due form.

"Inasmuch as this is an irrevocable measure, it is in the interest of the population itself to remain calm and obedient.

"Each person will be permitted to take 30 kilograms of baggage; if anyone's baggage exceeds that weight, it will be rejected, without further consideration. Packages must be separately made up for each person and must bear an address legibly written and firmly affixed. This address must contain the surname and the Christian name and the number of the identity card.

"It is absolutely necessary that each person should, in his own interest, provide himself with eating and drinking utensils, as well as with a woolen blanket, good shoes, and body linen. Everyone must carry his identity card on his person. Anyone attempting to evade transportation will be punished without mercy."

"ETAPEN-KOMMANDANTUR, (Lille, April, 1918).

Belgian Address to French President.

To Monsieur Raymond Poincare, President of the French Republic, Paris.

"Sir: We have the honor to express again our most sincere gratitude to you for your most kind reception, a few days ago, of the deportation of men and girls, which the German authorities have just carried out in the invaded districts.

"We have collected some details on the subject from the lips of an honorable and trustworthy person, who succeeded in leaving Tourcoing about ten days ago, and we think it our duty to bring these details to your notice by reproducing textually the declarations which have been made to us:

"These deportations began towards

Master. The Germans announced that the inhabitants of Roubaix, Tourcoing, Lille, etc., were going to be transported into French districts where their provisioning would be easier.

"At night, at about two o'clock in the morning, a whole district of the town was invaded by the troops of occupation. To each house was distributed a printed notice, of which we give herewith an exact reproduction, preserving the style and spelling. (See document, above.)

"The inhabitants so warned were to hold themselves ready to depart an hour and a half after the distribution of the proclamation."

"Each family, drawn up outside the house, was examined by an officer, who pointed out to the persons who were to go. No words can express the barbarity of this proceeding nor describe the heartrending scenes which occurred; young men and girls took hastily farewell of their parents—a farewell hurried by the German soldiers who were executing the infamous task—rejoined the group of those who were going, and found themselves in the middle of the street, surrounded by other soldiers with fixed bayonets."

"Years of despair on the part of parents and children so ruthlessly separated did not soften the hearts of the brutal Germans. Sometimes, however, a more kind-hearted officer yielded to too great despair and did not choose all the persons whom he should—by the terms of his instructions—have separated."

Herded Like Cattle.

"These girls and boys were taken in street cars to factories, where they were numbered and labeled like cattle and grouped to form convoys. In these factories, they remained 12, 24 or 36 hours until a train was ready to remove them."

"The deportation began with the villages of Roncy, Halluin, etc., then Tourcoing and Roubaix. In the towns the Germans proceeded by districts."

"In all about 30,000 persons are said to have been carried off up to the present. This monstrous operation has taken eight to ten days to accomplish. It is feared, unfortunately, that it may begin again soon.

"The reason given by the German authorities is a humanitarian (?) one. They have put forward the following pretext: provisioning is going to break down in the large towns in the north and their suburbs, whereas in the Ardennes the feeding is easy and cheap."

"It is known from the young men and girls, since sent back to their families for reasons of health, that in the department of the Ardennes the victims are lodged in a terrible manner, in disgraceful promiscuity; they are compelled to work in the fields. It is unnecessary to say that the inhabitants of our towns are not trained to such work. The Germans pay them 150 m. But there are complaints of insufficient food."

"Barbarity of Slave Drivers."

"They were very badly received in the Ardennes. The Germans had told the Ardennais that these were 'volunteers' who were coming to work, and the Ardennais proceeded to receive them with many insults, which only ceased when the forcible deportation of which they were the victims became known."

"Feeling ran especially high in our towns. Never has so iniquitous a measure been carried out. The Germans have shown all the barbarity of slave drivers."

"The families so scattered are in despair and the morale of the whole population is gravely affected. Boys of fourteen, schoolboys in knickerbockers, young girls of fifteen to sixteen have been carried off, and the despairing protests of their parents failed to touch the hearts of the German officers, or rather executioners."

"One last detail: The persons so deported are allowed to write home once a month; that is to say, even less often than military prisoners."

"Such are the declarations which we have collected and which, without commentary, confirm in an even more striking way the facts which we took the liberty of laying before you."

"We do not wish here to enter into the question of provisioning in the invaded districts; others, better qualified than ourselves, give you, as we know, frequent information. It is enough for us to describe in a few words the situation from this aspect:

Entire Population in Misery.

"The provisioning is very difficult; food, apart from that supplied by the Spanish-American committee, is very scarce and terribly dear. . . . People are hungry and the provisioning is inadequate by at least a half; our population is suffering constant privations and is growing noticeably weaker. The death rate, too, has increased considerably."

"Sometimes inhabitants of the invaded territories speak with a note of discouragement, crying, apparently: 'We are forsaken by everyone.' We, on the other hand, are hopeful, Monsieur le President, that the energetic intervention on the part of neutrals, which the French government is sure to evoke, will soon bring to an end these measures which rouse the wrath of all to whom humanity is not an empty word. . . .

"With all confidence in the sympathy of the government we venture to address a new and pressing appeal to your generous kindness and far-reaching influence in the name of those who are suffering on behalf of the whole country."

"Paris, 18th June, 1918, 2, rue Talbot."

(Signed on behalf of various specified organizations by Toulemonde, Charles L. Boulanger, Leon Mathie-Daux, and Louis Latholais.)

WORKS ALWAYS ON 'VELVET'

Buyers Supply Money to Support Enterprises Competing With Those In Which They Are Interested.

It is a mighty nice thing to be able to do business on the other fellow's money, but there are few people who can do it. Probably the only business men who, as a class, are able to do this, are the mail order men in the big cities.

Did you ever stop to think—you, who have ordered goods from a mail order house and there are probably few who have not done that at some time or other—that you are supplying the cash upon which the mail order man is doing business? You are well aware of the fact that your cash must go with your order if you expect to receive the goods, but have you ever stopped to think what that means? Do you realize that you are supplying the capital for a business which is running in direct competition with your home merchants, upon whose prosperity you and your fellow townsmen are dependent for a livelihood?

The majority of mail order houses do not carry large stocks of goods. They do not have to. When the mail order man gets your order, accompanied by the cash, of course, he can take a part of your money and go to the manufacturer or the wholesaler and buy the article that is wanted. The rest of the money he can put down in his pocket after paying his operating costs, which are light when compared with those of the merchant who must carry a large stock of goods to meet the demands made upon him.

In Class by Themselves.

There is absolutely no other class of men who do business on the capital furnished by their customers. Even the retail store which sells for cash only cannot do this for he must carry a large stock and in most cases must pay cash for it in order to get prices that will enable him to make lower prices to his customers than can be made by the merchant who gives credit to his customers.

The mail order man doesn't need to have any of his own capital invested in his business—or any large amount of it, at least, in proportion to the volume of the business which he does. He does not have to pay interest to the banks on money borrowed to help him finance his business. The mail order man figures that about one-half of the amount he receives on any order goes to the wholesaler or manufacturer in payment for the goods ordered. Of the remainder a part goes for postage, printing, maintenance of office and plant, insurance, etc. What is left, which is by no means an insignificant part of every dollar received, goes into dividends to stockholders in the mail order corporation. All this has been done without any capital other than that which may be required to pay office expenses.

Suppose, for a minute, that you did business with the local merchants on the same plan. Suppose that they did not carry any goods in stock, that when you wanted to buy something you should go to one of your home merchants, look in his catalogue and pick out an article that seemed to be similar to the one that you wanted, hand over the price as shown by the catalogue and tell him to order it for you. The merchant would take your money and you would wait for your goods until they arrived from a distant city.

Not So Anxious.

But the people who make up any community are not nearly as anxious to furnish capital to the home merchant—the man who helps "make" the town—as they are to the mail order man in the far distant city, who does nothing and cares nothing for the people who furnish him the money on which to do business. They insist that the home merchant shall carry a large stock of goods from which they can select what they wish, when they think it is to their interest to buy from him. They insist that he shall stand back of the goods he sells, and make good any defect that may appear in them. They insist that he shall sell them what they wish and wait for the money until they get ready to pay it. They insist that he shall sell goods at the same prices or lower prices than the mail order houses charge for goods of poorer quality. And finally, they insist that the home merchant shall furnish the large amount of capital that is required to conduct a business on this plan.

The mail order buyer may say that he has the right to spend his money anywhere he pleases and he has, legally. But he probably has never stopped to reflect on the fact that he is supplying the capital for the operation of a concern which is in direct competition with enterprises in which he is directly interested, for every man, woman and child in a town is directly interested in the success of the business enterprises in that town. If there business enterprises are not prosperous, the town cannot be prosperous. To supply capital to your competitor is not very good business.

U-BOAT BLOCKADE

OF ALL U. S. PORTS,

IS ENEMY'S PLAN

New York June 5.—Germany has established a permanent submarine blockade of the American coast and within a short time a fleet of U-boats capable of operating against every important Atlantic port will be made according to the mate of the submarine U-151.

The mate, who served five years as boatswain in the United States navy, made this statement to Enoch Rocker, boatswain of the schooner Edna.

This German mate, who refused to give his name, told Rocker that he had lived in New York eight years and was engaged to a girl in Philadelphia whose photo he showed.

Men for the submarine blockade of the United States coast are being drafted from among sailors formerly in the merchant marine, familiar with American ports.

NEGROES WANTED

IN NEW DRAFT

Call for 40,000 is issued by Provost Marshal General Crowder.

Washington, June 5.—Orders for the mobilization of 40,000 negro draft registrants qualified for general military service to entrain from June 20 to 25 were sent out today by Provost Marshal General Crowder. The registrants will come from twenty states.

Most of the negroes are called from states in the extreme South. Two thousand are called from Kentucky to be sent to Camp Taylor.

THREATENED TO CUT THROATS OF ANY BRITISH ON BOARD

New York, June 5.—"Are there any English aboard because if there are, we're going to cut their throats."

With this threat an under officer of a German submarine boarded the steamship Winnebago off Cape May, N. J., on May 25, according to survivors here today.

Being assured that there were only Americans and Swedes in the ship's company the Germans became less ferocious. The under officer thereafter defended his own conduct in serving on a submarine.

"If I didn't do it," he said, "they'd get somebody else to do it and get rid of me."

AMERICAN WARSHIP HIT BY AN ACCIDENT SHELL

Washington, D. C., June 5.—A warship engaged recently in target practice mistook the battleship Louisiana for a target and exploded a shell aboard her, killing one man, the navy department announced today. The accident was due to heavy weather. The man killed was Fireman Moses L. Morgan of Gulf Point, Fla. No details were given in the navy announcement.

Enroute to the Trenches

Word has been received here that Corporal Bryan Overcast, of Co. H, Pioneer Infantry, Camp Wadsworth, S. C., has recently been promoted to the rank of sergeant. Bryan is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Overcast of this city. He has only been in the training camp about 8 months, and his friends and relatives in Hazel are pleased to hear of his rapid promotion in the military service. —Hazel News.

Aboard U.S.S. Arizona, June 1.

Dear Mr. Jennings: If you will be so kind as to allow me space in the dear old Ledger for a few lines I will be very thankful to you. I get the Ledger and see what old Calloway is doing for Uncle Sam and it makes me proud of my home county; they don't fall down on anything. If Uncle Sam calls for men they are there; money for the Red Cross or Liberty Bonds, the folks have it. The boys think it is pretty hard to leave home, and it is, but I had rather take a chance on my life in the battle, and when the war is won if I am still living I can be proud of it. I would hate to lose the fight and then someone ask where I was during the war, and have to say I was hiding from Uncle Sam. Old Calloway has but very few boys like I speak of; but there are a few who will get loaded up on old busthead whiskey and then pop their fists and say, "I am the best man in the county—I am not afraid of the devil," and when Uncle Sam calls for them to fight for the old Red, White and Blue they bawl like a two year old bull lost from the herd. They haven't got the guts to practice what they preach. About a year ago I enlisted in the navy and my people didn't like it at that time, but now they are proud that I am doing my bit. We have sailed on the high sea day and night waiting for the kaiser to send his sea dogs out on the water, and then we will show them a nice time as we have the goods to do the work.

Our Mondays are meatless, Our Tuesdays are wheatless, We grow weaker each day, Our coffee is sweetless, Our bed is sheetless, For it is sent to the Y. M. C. A. Our socks are feetless, Our pants are seatless, And O, how we hate the kaiser. "OLD SALTY."

U. S. S. Arizona.

(The Ledger does not make it a practice of publishing communications that come without the writer's name, but in this case we are violating our rule. The Ledger is sent to C. C. Linn, U. S. S. Arizona, New York City, and if this communication isn't from young Linn the smokes are on us.)

The Ledger is in receipt of a card from Charlie Moore, who has been located at Indianapolis, Ind., some several weeks connected with the vocational training detachment, in which he advises us that he is to be moved in a few days and that he is not informed as to what point he is to be sent. He adds: "All of the boys that came with me from Calloway county are getting along fine and enjoying the work." Walton Harris, Wade Creekmur and Lamar Hendon left here with Moore.

In a card from Jessie Roberts, who left here some few weeks ago, the Ledger is informed that he is now located at Camp Sheridan, Ala., and is attached to Co. F, 112th Supply Train. He states that he will remain there for two or three weeks and will then be transferred to Newport News, Va., for a short stay before leaving for France. Nolan Kery and Oco Newright are in the same camp.

Nicholas Hutson and Alton Bennett, both write the Ledger this week that they are now located at Camp

Custer, Mich. With them are Billie Albritton, Everett Bogard, Harvey Dyer, Robert Eide, W. G. Harding, Cecil Thurman, T. H. Brandon, Bert Garland and Bernice Miller. They left here some few weeks ago when twenty-five selects were sent to Camp Taylor. The boys are assigned to Machine Gun Co., 33d Inf. Mr. Hutson says: "This is a fine camp and all the boys are well pleased."

Thanie Parker returned home the latter part of the past week from Camp Taylor, where he went on the last contingent of Calloway boys. He was discharged on account of a weak heart. He is the only member of the 107 boys who left who have thus far failed. Parker was sorely disappointed and returned home showing keen disappointment.

Many of the Calloway boys who have been located at Camp Taylor since last fall are being moved to other camps and it will only be a short time until they are all gone with the exception of the last increment. The chances are that these boys will remain there for some two or three months. The 84th division has been moved to Chillicothe, Ohio, the first leg on the journey to France. A number of local boys are in this division.

Leland Owen and Roscoe Clouton, who left here with the last increment of selects for Camp Taylor, have been detailed to the officers' training school. Here's hoping that they'll both come home with a rank of major, or better.

Tremor Baucum came in the first of the week to spend a short furlough with his folks at Cherry. Tremor is located at Camp Greenleaf, Chickamauga, Ga., and is attached to the medical corps. Rainey Wells is also at the same camp. Getting our boys scattered to the four winds, but every time you hear from one of them he is happy and in fine spirits.

Lewis Beaman, Camp Taylor, dropped in home the latter part of last week and spent a few days with his father, Alonzo Beaman, west of town.

Cull Phillips left Tuesday night for the naval training station at Great Lakes, Ill., to enter service. He entered the service as a hospital apprentice seaman.

Capt. Carl G. Pace, who has been stationed at Ft. Baynard, N. M., for the past several months, was in the city the latter part of the past week on a short visit to relatives and old friends. Capt. Pace resided in this city some several years ago and was one of the popular young men of the city. He moved from here with his parents to Oklahoma, where he was residing when he entered the army.

The Ledger is in receipt of a card from Galen M. Thurman, in training at Great Lakes, Ill., stating that he had been assigned to the radio school. He says he likes his new work fine.

The Ledger is in receipt of a card which reads as follows: "The ship on which I sailed has arrived safely overseas. Signed, Paul Oliver, Battery E, 58th Art. Right on the ground and 'loaded for bear' reports another Calloway boy. The best of luck, old top, and give 'em what the Irishman gave the drum."

Just look here, will you? A. Jones, and W. L. Courson, Dexter, seamen second class; Harley J. Clark, Browns Grove, coast artillery; James M. Howard, Lynn Grove, Infantry; Tullus A. Chambers, west of town, quartermaster's corps; A. E. Wilson, Murray, seaman second class; Dumas Claton and Chesley Brandon, Hazel, and Herman Holland, near Newberg, were among the Calloway volunteers the past week. That's going some, ain't it? Boys, the burden is upon you, and the day is not far distant when the slacker and shirker will be held in the same contempt as the sheep killing dog. This will apply to men and young men between the ages of 18 and 30. Big, hefty 18 and 19-year-olds are wanted in the navy. The nation is in peril and show a young man of this age can hang around nursing a little six bit job is more than the Ledger can comprehend.

Jimmie Mitchell, F. Co., 113th Ammunition train, H. S. Camp Shelby, was in the city the past week on a short furlough visiting his father, Frank Mitchell, who is in poor health. Jimmie is a splendid young man and soldiering has put flesh on him.

Iveson Owen, Camp Taylor, was in the county the past week on a short visit to his father, Jack Owen, of the east side. Mrs. Owen was also here visiting her parents, Johnnie Hale and wife. They returned to Louisville the latter part of the week.

Connie Mills, Camp Shelby, Miss., came in the past week and spent a few days with home folks near Backusburg.

One hundred and thirty-eight young men who have reached 21 years of age since June 5, 1917, registered before the county board here Wednesday. The number did not reach the total anticipated.

For Sale. 4 cows, one strip-per, and three heifers with young calves. Write or phone Clancy Vance, Redden, Ky.

MEN HELD FOR LIMITED SERVICE TO BE CALLED.

Washington, D. C., June 3.—Two hundred thousand men of draft age who because of minor physical defects were held by the examining physicians over the country for limited military service are to be employed in producing and handling equipment for the army. Provost Marshal General Crowder announced last night that the army staff corps will utilize the services of these registrants and thus release fighting men for the front line. He today issued the first call under the plan, orders went to the governors of states for upwards of nine thousand men for service to speed up the production of aeroplanes. The men will be allowed to volunteer until June 6, after that date a report will be made to General Crowder and if sufficient volunteers are not secured allotments will be made in various states to be filled by draft.

Tyndall-Morris Evangelistic Team.

The Tyndall Morris evangelistic team, which is to conduct a series of revival meetings at the First Christian church of Murray beginning Sunday, July 14, have just concluded a great meeting at Columbia, S. C.

In the current issue of the Christian Standard, Cincinnati, Ohio, A. B. Reeves, pastor of the church at Columbia, has the following to say of Tyndall and Morris:

"John W. Tyndall, of Augusta, Ga., and J. G. Morris, his singer, of Red Oak, Ga., have just closed a great meeting with the First Christian Church of this place.

Counting those connected with Camp Jackson who put their membership here while they stay at Camp, there were forty-five added.

"Bro. Tyndall is very original in his themes, and his thoughts and words are fresh and vigorous. He is scholarly and dignified, and believes the old book from lid to lid. He is a born teacher and like Paul, he teaches the people publicity and from house to house."

"Bros. Tyndall and Morris make a great team and our brethren in the south ought to keep them busy."

To be Buried in France

Washington, June 3.—Representative Moore of Pennsylvania told the house today that conditions beyond the control of the American military authorities made it impracticable for the war department to grant the request of relatives of fallen American soldiers that the bodies be returned to the United States for burial. He said a cablegram from Gen. Pershing saying it was impracticable to embalm bodies in the theater of operations, and recommending that the United States conform to the custom of the allies in burying their dead near the battle field.

Children's Day at Christian Church.

Children's Day for foreign missions was observed Sunday at the First Christian church. The various classes in the bible school raised about $80 in the morning, which will be increased to $100.

Last night the children of the bible school presented a very fine program entitled "The Spirit of Children's Day," which was rendered in a manner highly creditable to all who took part. A large crowd that filled the church and Sunday school room was present to enjoy the exercises. Much credit for the splendid program is due the following young ladies who drilled the children for this occasion: Misses Ruth Cutchin, Mary Cutchin, Katherine Boyd and Roberta Holton. An offering was taken near the close of the program which will be added to the offering made by the bible school in the morning.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. J. C. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Former Calloway Girl is Married

Charley Thompson and Pocahontas McDaniel surprised their many friends Sunday by eloping to Paris and getting married. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. McDaniel of our city, while the groom is a son of Babe Thompson just west of the city. Both are popular young people of this community and have a host of friends. —Benton Tribune-Democrat.

PLENTY OF PROOF

From People You Know From Murray Citizens.

The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced by evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit than the testimony of residents of Murray, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it:

W. T. Sledd, prop. clothing store, Price St., Murray, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills sometime ago for trouble with my kidneys. This medicine relieved me and I don't hesitate in recommending it."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sledd had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Hell, and Who'll be there from Murray

The above subject will constitute the theme for the sermon at the Church of Christ next Lord's day evening at 8:30 o'clock. The hell of the bible will not be minimized but magnified to correspond to the divine record. Sherman said, "War is Hell." Did he mistake? Was he right? Is "no man's land" a hell or health resort? A splendid young man said, "I'd rather be in hell than Germany." Did he have the bible conception of hell? Will there be any from the Murray churches there. Will there be any there who have been saved by grace? Come with us and get a foretaste of the hell fire and damnation of the bible. Who is going to represent Murray in hell? T. B. Thompson.

Only 1 Man of Draft Age in Breathitt.

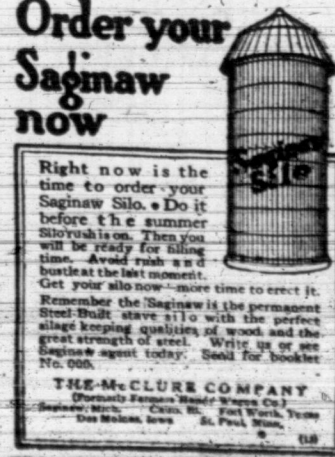

Jackson, Ky., May 30.—Breathitt county people claim the palm for patriotism. They assert there is only one man of draft age left in the county and he has arrived at military age since last June and will register in the draft June 5. All other young men before reaching the draft age volunteered. It is recalled that when the first draft was made Breathitt's credits far exceeded its quota.

Mrs. Lona Keys will leave the latter part of this week for Oklahoma and Texas where she will spend the next several months with her daughter, Mrs. E. N. Holland, Colegate, Okla., and Mrs. Toscoe Knight, Beeville, Texas.

Albert W. Wynn and wife, of near Bloomington, Texas, were in the county the past week on a short visit to relatives. Albert has been away from Calloway several years and only recently was married to Mrs. Ethel Anderson, of Victoria, Texas, and they were here on a honeymoon trip.

W. S. Tinsley has retired from the firm of Ryan, Broach & Tinsley, real estate dealers, and in the future the business will be conducted by Ryan & Broach. Mr. Tinsley is in failing health and last week was compelled to go to Nashville, Tenn., where he is confined to his bed in a hospital.

Mrs. Walter Seaford, age 32, who was seriously burned about ten days ago by burning grease, died and was buried Sunday at Palestine. Elder T. B. Thompson conducted the funeral services. She leaves a husband, two small sons and other relatives. She was a daughter of Joe Clark and her friends were many.

W. L. Fulton has resigned his position as cashier of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of this city and has gone to Paducah where he has accepted the place of secretary of the Old Kentucky Manufacturing Co. He expects to move his family to Paducah about the first of July. Mr. Fulton is a splendid young business man and will make a valuable addition to the management of the concern he is now associated with.

John Duncan, who lives east of New Providence, brought the largest snake to town last Friday that has been seen in this county in many years. The reptile measured seven feet and one inch and was about four inches in diameter through the heaviest part of the body. The skin was stuffed and remained on exhibition at the Bank of Murray for several days. It was marked very much like the rattlesnake but was without the rattles, and just what kind of snake it was is not known.

The rainfalls that visited this county last Saturday night and Sunday morning were about the most welcome precipitations that have visited this community in many months. The ground was very dry and it was with difficulty land could be ordered for planting. With corn planting about completed the rain made it possible for thousands of acres of tobacco to be set. The rain also permitted farmers who had not delivered their old crops to move it to market, and as a result this week has been another busy one in the tobacco district.

Alonso Beaman, west of town, was kicked by a mule the past week and sustained several broken ribs.

Miss Gladys Thomas has returned from Georgetown, Ky., where she attended college the past term.

Red Cross members from all parts of West Kentucky are urged to be in Paducah June 25th, when a one day convention of Western Kentucky Red Cross chapters will be held under the auspices of the National organization. The sessions will be held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church and luncheon will be served at the Woman's club. The session will be of the utmost interest to all workers, both in surgical dressings and civilian relief work. Large delegations are expected. All intending to come should write for hotel accommodations at once. W. L. Jones of the Palmer will receive all communications and make reservations.

"Early Ordering Coal Week"

June 3 to 8 has been set apart as "Early Ordering Coal Week." Let everyone take notice. The United States government advises it, the state fuel administrator for Kentucky urges it, the governor of this state proclaims it, your county committee insists upon it, that the people order their coal at once. This does not mean that you can get your coal as soon as you order it. It may be several weeks before some of the orders can be filled. Those who do not order early may not be able to get coal at all for the coming winter. There is a coal famine predicted. The mines must run day and night. They must have your orders as the coal must be moved from the mines. We cannot promise relief when winter comes this time. The government must have the use of the railroads for the successful prosecution of the war. Place your orders with your local dealers at once and provide your winter's supply before the coal famine sets in again. Remember last winter and order today. Calloway Co. Fuel Committee, By W. H. Finney, Chairman.

CALLOWAY MAN VICTIM OF IRATE MAYFIELD MAN

Says the Mayfield Times of last Monday afternoon:

"Some excitement was caused Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock when Dan Dockery staggered up South street from toward the woolen mills and fell on the lawn at the home of J. L. Stunston in a dazed condition, and with a bad wound on his head. He was taken to jail, where the wounds were dressed, and until the case came up in the city court this morning no one knew who hit him, not even Dockery himself seemed able to tell.

However, when Ben Stevens took the stand he said that he struck Dockery and he did it with a brick at the corner of the First Christian church. Ben was fined $10 and cost for the blow. Dockery was fined $5 and costs on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

Dockery works for Clint Drinkard, one of the big farmers of Calloway county, and he said he got too much booze here Saturday night and Sunday.

Dockery is not living with his wife, it seems, and he went to the Smith boarding house near the depot where she boards. They had some words there and he started for the city hall to have her arrested for something. She went along in an effort to reason with him. It appears that Ben Stevens had also been about the Smith restaurant and Dockery accused him of stealing his whiskey. Stevens came along South street after Dockery and his wife had left and overtook them and it was at the Christian church corner that they came together. Stevens said the reason he hit Dockery was that Dockery had called him bad names.

Clint Drinkard came over this afternoon and paid Dockery's fine and he returned home.

OBITUARIES.

On Sunday afternoon March 17, 1918, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Taylor and claimed for its victim one of the sweetest and purest blossoms of youth, Vera Desiree, aged 18 years, 8 months and 26 days. She gave her heart to God at an early age and lived a true christian up until the call made, when she fell asleep in Jesus' arm, out of the untold agonies of suffering which she had endured for several days. She was an obedient daughter, a loving sister, a favorite cousin and a true friend. Her brief life was full of deeds of righteousness. She is greatly missed for she was so loving, kind and ready to do her duty at any time. We can not see why she was taken from us, but the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh. It was sad to give her up but she has paid the debt we will all have to pay sooner or later. While we mourn her demise she is enjoying a happier home in heaven. She leaves a father, mother, two sisters, two brothers and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her death. There is a broken link in her father's family, but it can be reunited in heaven. Our hearts are sad and lonely without her bright eyes and cheerful smiles but now we have a bright treasure in heaven awaiting us. Let us so live that when our call is made we can join sweet Vera in that land where there is no sorrow, no suffering, no parting or death, but all is joy and love. Beautiful soul into glory gone; beautiful life with its crown won. Dear Vera, God hath given thee rest from suffering and pain, and now thou shalt enjoy the gain. Written by a cousin, Reba Brown.

BRITISH KNIGHT COMING HERE

John Foster Fraser, F. R. G. S. on Redpath Chautauqua Program.

GREAT WAR LECTURE

"The Checkerboard of Europe" Is Topic to Be Discussed by Famous British Journalist and Traveler.

Sir John Foster Fraser, F. R. G. S., chairman of the National War Lectures committee of Great Britain and England's most famous newspaper special correspondent, is to lecture on this year's Chautauqua program.

He has been with the British army in France and Flanders, with the British grand fleet, has seen Russia under war conditions, and has traversed the whole of the mountainous region of the Balkans. By the special permission of the British prime minister, Mr. Lloyd-George, he has visited the principal government munition works in England and Scotland.

Sir John, who is a native of Edinburgh, Scotland, has done more varied traveling than any man alive, having been in nearly half a hundred different countries.

Sir John has described his wanderings in a dozen books. He has long been famous in Great Britain as a speaker with a personality. Indeed, as the London Times says, "He is as brilliant on the platform as he is with his pen."

When the war began in 1914 his unique knowledge of foreign lands was placed at the service of his country. These have been publicly acknowledged by the British government. In June, 1917, the honor of knighthood was conferred upon him by King George at Buckingham Palace.

The subject of his lecture will be "The Checkerboard of Europe."

"REBUILDING THE WORLD"

is Topic of Dr. Geo. H. Bradford at Chautauqua.

A THRILLING LECTURE

University Chancellor, Scholar of Rare Attainments, States Position of America on New World Order.

Chancellor George H. Bradford, who lectures here on the Redpath Chautauqua this season, so resembles William Jennings Bryan in personal appearance that he is often mistaken for the former secretary of state.

Dr. Bradford spent 18 years as a university student and university lecturer. He is a scholar of rare attainments but he also knows life. He is a man's man. He likes to hunt and spends a few weeks each year in the woods. He says it is romping that stimulates better work when he gets back. He says he can't go by a shooting gallery in a city without going in, and he seldom misses the bull's-eye. He has actually broken as many as 72 blue rocks in succession.

In Oklahoma when they wanted a man as chancellor of a new university, they sent for Dr. Bradford. They needed a man of big ideas and big purposes and strong character, capable of working out great problems in an original way—a way that was best suited to somewhat unusual conditions. It is needless to say that they got the right man in George H. Bradford.

Dr. Bradford has just prepared a new lecture, "Rebuilding the World," which takes account of problems as they are today and states the proposition that America must be the leader in the new order of things.

GERMANS SEE DOOM PLAINLY WRITTEN

Civilization's Great Army of Reserves is Moving Rapidly Across the Atlantic.

London, June 5.—"Few communications issued by the French command have contained a statement more vital to the ultimate issue of the situation on the Marne than the soldiers of America in action," writes the military correspondent of the Daily Express. Commenting editorially on the situation, the same newspaper says:

"The Germans may read their certain doom in the spirit and skill of the Americans in the fight at Verdun. During the past week the transport of American troops across the Atlantic has been quicker than we dared to hope for. Better still, the quality of the officers and men has astonished the most competent military judges. Germany will find herself in the last great fight faced by troops equal to the best Europe ever produced."

According to the military correspondent of the Daily Express, the advantage underlying the possession of a great reserve now looms large in the dust of conflict. It overshadows every momentary consideration of loss or gain of this or that village. These facts are calculated to give the German commanders food for reflection "not of an altogether comforting character."

GENERAL SHARPE LOSES HIS POST AT WASHINGTON

Washington, June 5.—Major Gen. Henry G. Sharpe, who was ousted as head of the quartermaster corps of the army following disclosures of inefficiency by the senate military affairs committee, in resignation, was transferred today to the post of commander of the southeastern department with headquarters at Charleston, S. C.

Although he relinquished control of the quartermaster department last winter, when Maj. Gen. W. Goethals was given charge of the work, Gen. Sharpe retained until today his title of quartermaster general. Whether the title will fall to Gen. Goethals or to Gen. Robert E. Wood, who is now acting quartermaster general, has not been announced.

His transfer today establishes that Gen. Sharpe actually was ousted from the work of quartermaster general when he was named as a member of the war council and not merely withdrawn temporarily from the post, as explained at the time, to accept more important duties.

KAISER'S HEAD ON NICKELS.

Police Search For Distributors of "Altered Coins in Hoboken." "Buffalo nickel" with the Indian's head altered by an expert engraver to a representation of the Kaiser are being circulated in Hoboken, and Chief of Police Hayes has detailed detectives and a department of justice has been asked to act to apprehend the distributors.

A spike helmet was put on the Indian's head, and an upturn mustache supplied as well as a close fitting uniform. The distributors gave them no names for papers. One newsboy noticed the alteration on a coin handed him recently by a well dressed man of medium height and about 35 years old, but when he called a policeman the man escaped in a passing automobile.

40,000 NEGROES CALLED.

Washington, June 5.—Orders for the mobilization of 40,000 negro draft registrants qualified for general military service in action from June 20 to 27 were sent out today by Joseph Marshall General Crowder, secretary of war.

Chautauquas

"An Integral Part of Our National Defense"

President Wilson says:

President Wilson on Dec. 14, 1917, wrote the President of the International League and Chautauqua Association as follows:

"Your speakers, going from community to community, meeting people in the friendly spirit engendered by years of intimate and understanding contact, have been effective messengers for the delivery and interpretation of democracy's meanings and imperative needs. The work that the Chautauqua is doing has not lost importance because of war, but rather has gained new opportunities for service."

"Let me express the hope that you will let no discouragement weaken your activities, and that the people will not fail in the support of a patriotic institution that may be said to be an integral part of the national defense."

Vice-President Marshall says:

"There is no place where more good can be done to the government and to the cause than upon the Chautauqua platform. The people who need information will be there, and more and more as the years go by, persons who can get it are availing themselves of that avenue."

Secretary of War Baker says:

"I am constantly facing the splendid results of the work done by the Chautauqua in this country in creating and sustaining a sound patriotic public feeling, and in carrying forward the great national enterprises which the government is necessarily bringing to the attention of our people. I want you to know that as an officer of the government I not only appreciate the importance of the lecture platform as a means of communication and expansion, but also appreciate the work which you and your associates are doing as a contribution to our national cause."

Two years ago we might have done without Chautauquas, but we cannot do without them today.

AMERICANS GREAT FIGHTERS

Machine Gunners Play Havoc With Enemy in Strang Attack.

With the American Army on the Marne, Tuesday June 4.—American troops made their presence felt at several points in the big battle yesterday and today and won the admiration of their allied comrades. The town of Veuilly-la-Poterie, between Villers-Cotterets and Chateau Thierry, was the scene of the most violent combats in which the Americans took part. There with their French comrades, they succeeded in throwing the Germans back.

When the Americans first came into action here the Germans were trying to enter Veuilly wood. The enemy battalions were moved down by the trans-Atlantic machine gunners, who later supported the French infantry in a counter attack in which the enemy was forced to retire beyond the northern edge of the wood.

A serious effort by the Germans to cross the Marne in the neighborhood of Jaulgonne also brought American machine gunners into the fight. A German battalion succeeded in obtaining a footing on the southern bank, but not for long. The Americans and French together resisted with the greatest vigor and killed or captured all the Germans who had crossed the river.

The other parts of the new battle-line are almost without change, but there are evident signs the Germans are withdrawing their specially trained storming divisions which executed the first assault.

Whether the enemy intends to make another desperate effort of the same kind somewhere else cannot be foreseen. The German Crown Prince has not thrown all the divisions of his general reserve into the furnace, and probably is saving them for another dash.

HELP IN 50-50 WHEAT PROGRAM

Thousands of Retail Grocers Support Food Administration Rules.

SIGN PLEDGE VOLUNTARILY.

New Wheat Saving Program Demanded — Allied Food Shortage Increases — America Must Feed Fighters.

Explaining the United States Food Administration's new 50-50 wheat regulations is a war time task the American grocer has gladly shouldered. Many stores are already displaying their Food Administration wheat saving pledge cards, that they have signed, agreeing to carry out the new wheat program.

Each flour customer is now required to buy one pound of cereal substitute for every pound of wheat flour. The substitute may be of one kind or assorted. This 50-50 rule is made by weight and not by value of the commodities. There is, of course, no regulation demanding the consumer to buy wheat flour at all.

A wide variety of substitutes has been provided: Cornmeal, corn flour, edible cornstarch, hominy, corn grits, barley flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour, Feterita flour and meal, rice, rice flour, oatmeal, rolled oats and buckwheat flour.

Graham and whole wheat flour constitute an exception to the national regulation. Either of these commodities may be sold at the ratio of three pounds to five pounds of wheat flour—that is, five pounds of graham or wheat flour counts the same as three pounds of the usual wheat flour.

Mixed flours form another exception. Where any flour contains 50 per cent or less of wheat it may be sold without any substitutes. Where the flour is mixed at the rate of 60 per cent wheat and 40 per cent of other ingredients an additional 20 per cent of substitutes must be purchased by the consumer.

Where necessity is shown specially prepared infant and invalid food containing flour may be sold.

That the approved substitutes may be assorted is a fact many grocers and housewives overlooked for a time. For instance, if a customer wishes to buy a 24-pound sack of flour the necessary substitutes might be assorted as follows: Cornmeal, 8 pounds; corn grits, 4 pounds; rice, 4 pounds; buckwheat, 2 pounds; cornstarch, 1 pound; hominy, 2 pounds; rolled oats, 3 pounds.

None of the substitutes should be considered as a waste purchase. There are many household uses for each. The eight pounds of cornmeal can be made into cornbread, corn muffins or used in the baking of wheat bread.

Cornstarch is useful in making custard, thickening gravy or may be used in cake baking. Corn grits fried like mush forms a delicious dish, or it may be used in baking corn bread. Rolled oats are used largely as breakfast porridge or in oatmeal cookies or in making muffins.

Buckwheat flour may be used in bread making, forming an excellent substitute for one-quarter of the wheat flour, but is especially choice in the form of buckwheat cakes for breakfast.

With 11 wheatless meals needed each week in America to provide enough wheat for the allies, the Food Administration believes the substitutes will all be used to advantage.

Built With Your Vacation in Mind

1918 REDPATH CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM 1918

Seven Cheer-Up Days

QUICK to sense the public needs in a year when so many people are planning to take their vacations at home, the Redpath has arranged Seven Cheer-Up Vacation Days for each city on its circuit this season, and offers this Seven Day program for the same price as heretofore, $2.50, except for 10% War Tax.

You thought when the war broke out that the time to be entertained and inspired had passed; that seriousness and anxious thought must inevitably hold sway.

Miles of Smiles

WHEN the boys began to go to the front this attitude changed. You did not want them to go away in gloom nor to remember your face as one of sadness. In fact, you sent them Smiles Books and invited them to enjoy "Miles of Smiles."

Then you discovered that you could not do your best work in an atmosphere of gloom and suspense and finally concluded that you too need relaxation, entertainment and inspiration if you are to perform your greatest patriotic duties and "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

Keep Up Home Morale

BECAUSE of this, more emphasis has been given to bright, cheery music, gorgeous costumes and scenery, fun and inspiration than ever before.

The Redpath Chautauqua offers you Seven Days of wholesome fun, genuine inspiration, courage, reassurance, just the thing to keep up the Home Morale.

A Patriotic Institution

NOT only this, but the Redpath Chautauqua comes to you as a highly patriotic institution which has helped raise the Liberty Loan, entertained the boys in the cantonments and educated the American people in the principles of Democracy in such a measure that President Wilson has declared the Chautauqua "An integral part of our National Defense."

A War-Time Economy

THE lectures this year will be greater, more timely, more enlightening than ever before, the kind that inspire men to heroism and great deeds.

Therefore, all in all, the Redpath Chautauqua comes to your city to help brighten your life, and serve your community and your country and as a real war-time economy. You cannot afford to miss these Seven Big Cheer-Up Days. Tickets now on sale.

See program for detailed list of vacation attractions.

LICENSING BUYERS OF POULTRY PRODUCTS

The U. S. Food Administration considers poultry and eggs such important foods that effective June 1, 1918, it was required that all persons, storekeepers, hucksters, dealers, etc., not now under license, who buy and sell eggs and poultry, to obtain a license under the U. S. Food Administration law. This does not refer to farmers or consumers, nor to retailers unless they sell to other than consumers.

Application should be made immediately to the License Division, Law Department, U. S. Food Administration, Washington, D. C., asking for a license to buy and sell poultry and eggs.

Pending receipt of license all those mentioned above shall be subject to the rules and regulations the same as if license has been received.

Regulation Governing the Purchase of Eggs in Kentucky.

All licenses shall between the dates June 1, 1918, and January 15, 1919, be governed by the following rules:

(a) Purchase eggs only on a candlestick and make no payment either in cash or merchandise, for those that are unfit for food.

(b) A statement shall be given each customer from whom eggs are purchased showing the number of good, damaged and bad eggs in each lot.

(c) A copy of each statement shall be kept for the duration of each candling season and be subject to examination by the U. S. Government, state county, and municipal food inspectors.

(d) All lots of eggs greater than 30 dozen, shall be packed in good strong standard cases and fillers made in accordance with railroad specifications, carefully protected to prevent breakage. Cracked eggs shall be packed in separate cases from those with sound shells.

(e) Each case of eggs shall contain on the top layer a signed candling certificate printed according to the copy sent herewith.

(f) Eggs shall be kept during hot weather in as cool a place as possible away from dust and flies, and marketed frequently.

(g) No licensee may buy upon another licensee's candling certificate unless the eggs be in car lots or more.
