Thousand State Baptists to Attend Murray Meeting

Welcome Will Be Extended by All City Residents

Denominational Outlook And Sherwood Case to Be Subjects

Murrayans were busy Wednesday preparing for the annual convention of Kentucky Baptists which assembles here Monday through Thursday of next week.

Baptist leaders here arranged reservations for 400 church messengers from all over Kentucky and twice as many additional delegates.

Other churches here joined with the Baptists in getting the city in readiness for the incoming visitors. Many residents of Murray have opened their homes, inviting delegates to partake of hospitality which is cordially offered.

The Rev. Sam P. Martin, pastor of the First Baptist church of Murray, and the Rev. Carroll Hubbard, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church, official city hosts to the convention, predicted Wednesday more than 1,000 out-of-town church members will attend the meeting sometime during its sessions.

Of principal import in a business way will be the reopening of the widely-publicized Dr. Noble Sherwood-Georgetown College controversy with the church over baptismal disagreement.

Sherwood, president of Georgetown college, although proclaiming to be a Baptist and accepted through letter by the Georgetown church, refuses to be rebaptized into the church at the behest of state church officials. (Sherwood was originally baptized into the Christian church.) In retaliation, the Baptist convention impounded funds scheduled for Georgetown, with the understanding they would not be released until Sherwood was dismissed as president. The board of directors decided to keep Sherwood.

Of denominational significance will be evangelistic reports from prominent Baptist ministers. All sessions will be open to visitors.

Dr. T. J. Barksdale, Louisville, will deliver the annual sermon Tuesday after a minister's conference Monday night at 7 o'clock. Dr. W. O. Carver, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, will give a luncheon address Wednesday at the National Hotel. W. A. Gardner, Louisville, secretary of the State Sunday school board, will speak at a luncheon at the hotel at 5:30.

Others to appear on the program are W. Wood, Louisville, State mission secretary; T. C. Crume, Florence, Ky., who will speak on Evangelism; Dr. Roland Q. Leavelle, Atlanta, Ga., superintendent of evangelism of the Southern Baptist convention, will discuss the 1939 program for Baptists.

Hollis S. Summers, Madisonville, is clerk of the convention, and W. H. Horton, Mayfield, is moderator.

Memphis Group to Visit in Murray

A special train, carrying manufacturers, wholesalers, distributors, retailers and professional men of Memphis, Tenn., will arrive in Paducah Friday morning, November 12, at 9:30 on a good will tour, it was learned here today.

The purpose of the visit, according to a message sent by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, will be for a conference with Murray business men in order to strengthen the friendship with West Tennessee towns.

A Murray delegation will greet the Memphis group, headed by Mayor George Hart. The Murray College band, "best in the SIAA," may also be at the station to greet the visitors.

Net Clinic to Be Conducted Here

On the night of November 14, Professor T. E. McDonough, head of the physical education department at Eastern State Teachers College, will conduct a clinic for basketball officials and coaches of this section.

The clinic is sponsored by the Kentucky High School Athletic Association and is scheduled to start at 8 p. m. in the administration building chapel on the Murray State College campus.

Chandler Fires Wallis as State Welfare Chief

Governor Says Public Service Man Would Not Take Orders

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 10.—Frederick A. Wallis was ousted as state welfare commissioner by Gov. A. B. Chandler Monday and the place was given to Miss Margaret W. Wall, associate director of pensions in the welfare department.

Miss Wall, a slightly gray woman in her late thirties, is a native of Hawesville, with 18 years experience in social service work. She joined the welfare department in 1936.

"I have been given a great responsibility and a challenging opportunity," she said. "I am going to work in accord with the Governor for the best interests of the welfare department."

The Governor said Wallis "would not cooperate with me to clear up a situation he had created" and "there was nothing left to do but remove him" after he had failed to comply with a request last Saturday to resign.

The executive order removing Wallis was brief and simply said it was done "for cause deemed sufficient by me and it being deemed desirable by me." Chandler smiled frequently as he discussed his reasons for taking the action and declared:

"Previously I had asked him to cooperate with me and he had asked one of the Louisville editors what to do and had been told in an editorial that if he could be directed, his usefulness was at an end. Well, he was my appointee and I could be directed, my usefulness was at an end."

"I am responsible to the people of Kentucky for my appointees and since he would not work with me to clear up a situation he had created, I gave him an opportunity to resign. He did not do it and there was nothing left to do but to remove him. x x x I don't have to wait to be told what to do and I'm not swayed by every criticism."

Circuit Court to Convene Monday

Docket is Light: Typewriter Case to Be Heard on Thursday

A relatively light criminal docket and a civil program that runs more to miscellaneous routine than to anything else was in prospect for the fall term of Calloway circuit court which convenes here Monday, with the impelling of the grand jury. The petit jury convenes Tuesday.

Of most significance in criminal cases to come before the court is that of persons charged with complicity in the theft of typewriters from the Murray high school last spring. The typewriter case will come up for hearing Thursday.

General criminal cases such as divorces, child desertions, malicious cuttings, assault and battery, and others will finish out the week.

The court is scheduled for a 3-weeks session, with Judge Ira D. Smith presiding.

ATTEND FUNERAL IN PARIS

Mr. and Mrs. George Carnell, Mr. and Mrs. Monica McCallon, T. McCallon, Hollie McCallon and son Hays and Joyce Beck, motor to Paris Sunday to attend funeral services for their brother and uncle, I. W. Stanfield, who passed away Saturday at noon at the age of 77 years. Interment was in Duncan Hill Cemetery, 15 miles south of Paris.

Three and three-quarters millions of dollars in new money will be circulated in San Francisco during 1939 through activities of the Livestock Division of the Golden Gate International Exposition. Thirteen special livestock shows will be held.

Calvacade of Hits To Feature Band Formations Friday

A calvacade of musical selections, setting off the trend of years between 1918 and 1938 will constitute part of a performance that will be long remembered when the Murray College band, "best in the SIAA," goes through its maneuvers between the halves of the Murray-Howard football game Friday afternoon.

Forming the numerals, 1918, the band will play "The Star Spangled Banner." Down the calvacade of years its maneuvers will go, with the theme song of 1933 being "Sophisticated Lady." The theme of the last formation, 1938, will be the current lovely ballad, "Change Partners."

At the beginning of the program, the band will form huge letters spelling out "SIAA." One of the feature formations of the period will be the likeness of a bugle, and the bandmembers will stand in that position while they play "Bugle Call Rag."

Prof. William H. Fox will be in charge of the maneuvers.

Bank Building to Have Open House Friday, Nov. 18

The new Bank of Murray building will have its formal opening Friday night, November 18, between the hours of 5:00 and 8:00, it was announced today by officials of the institution.

All offices in the building will be open at that time too, the announcement stated.

According to George Hart, all persons in the county and elsewhere are invited and expected to attend the formal opening of the building, considered by many to be one of the best in the area.

County Farmers Are Impressed With Dairy Plans

Breeder's Cooperative May Develop in Program to Be Outlined

A series of illustrated lectures on dairying and its related subjects constituted a treat for Calloway county farmers in widely diverse communities this week.

With George Harris, extension dairymen of the University of Kentucky, and Jim Smothers, dairy assistant, meeting with interested dairymen in each community, the feeding and management of the herd came in for a great deal of discussion.

A film-strip "The Advantages of Bull Clubs" set forth the idea of a pure-bred sire cooperatives, a move which has been approved and already instituted by County Agent J. T. Cochran.

According to information made public at the meetings, the Murray Milk Plant is in a position to assist in financing any group which will purchase a dairy bull.

Just how this would be managed would, of course, be worked out by the cooperative, which would own the sire jointly. It would solve one of the feature problems of successful dairy farming, according to Harris, in that it would provide adequate breeding facilities for purebred stock and grade mixtures would not be so prevalent.

Red Cross Unit Preps for Start of Roll Call Push

Chairmen Carter, Neal, Churchill, Arnett, Melugin Work

With Zelma Carter, president; John S. Neal, roll chairman; Ronald Churchill, vice-president; T. C. Arnett, county chairman; Mrs. H. B. Bailey, city chairman; and Mrs. Bea Melugin, executive secretary of the Calloway chapter of the American Red Cross buying themselves with plans for the annual membership campaign which begins tomorrow, there is every prospect today that the local membership this year will exceed 1937's record enrollment.

Last year, the membership in Kentucky was 14,000 more than in any other year since the World War.

The Rev. A. V. Havens last year combined the two offices of roll call chairman and president to achieve this county's record enrollment.

This year, the state has set as its goal a membership of 100,000, and there is general expectation among the part of Red Cross leaders that this goal will be reached and passed. One Louisville business man observed that "if Kentucky reaches the goal set and holds it for 100 years it will just about amount to what the Red Cross expended in Kentucky on the 1937 Ohio River flood alpine."

It was pointed out that in every disaster that has happened in Kentucky counties as well as elsewhere, the Red Cross has been one of the first on the scene with help for sufferers.

Reports from the various community chairmen over the county are to the effect that everything is in readiness for work to begin immediately when the roll call drive officially opens tomorrow.

Besides the regular appointed canvassers the following have been selected to seek memberships and donations in the following places: Post office, T. W. Hensley, Mill Camp, Mr. Martin, Hensley Mill; Mr. Fenton, High School faculty; Miss Lula Clayton Beale, Training School, Clifton Thurman; Rotary Club, Dr. Hugh McElrath; Young Business Men's Club, A. B. Austin and Preston Ordway; Women's Club, Mrs. George Hart; college faculty, Dr. James H. Richmond; college students, Hugh Finley, president of student organization; colored people, Rice Dunn; Mason Hospital, Steven A. Rusker; and business men down town, Tony Thurman and Bryan Tolley.

Five teams of two men each have been asked to solicit the business firms in the city for "donations to the Red Cross." They are as follows: Jack Sharborough and Frank Albert Stubbfield; Ernest Jones and Loren Adams; Luther Robertson and LaVerne Wallis; Karl Frazee and Dewey Ragdale; and Waylon Rayburn and Dr. Woodfin Hutson.

Capitol Theatre Has New Manager

Frank Lancaster, Paducah, Succeeds Clifton Morris; Family Moves Here

Frank Lancaster, a young married man from Paducah, took over the management of the Capitol Theatre Friday, succeeding Clifton Morris, who has held the position for several years.

Lancaster will be manager of both the Capitol and the New Varsity Theatre, which is scheduled to open for its first showing on Christmas Day. Workmen are busy in erecting the movie house.

The Lancasters are the parents of a daughter almost two years old. The child was born in a Murray hospital while its parents were refugees from the Paducah flood in 1937.

Lancaster has been with the Columbia Amusement Company for nine years.

MAX HURT TO SPEAK

Legionnaires to Remember Armistice in Celebration

Tomorrow the trumpets of the world will sound again in memory of that November day in 1918 when the word "Peace" was flashed before the eyes and comprehension of every nation.

More than half the people in the world today remember that Armistice Day. They had a right to remember it.

But some of them had a right to remember more than others did. Ex-service men today and members of the American Legion have that right.

They were the source and spring of the fire and endeavor, the heart and soul of America's contribution toward safeguarding democracy forever. They did not shirk their duty.

Now twenty years later it is fitting that the program of the Legionnaires should be the principal one on Armistice Day.

Post Commander N. P. Hutson, Adjutant Max B. Hurt, and Publicity Director Harry Sledd have prepared a program for tomorrow morning to take place in the auditorium of the First Methodist church.

It will be a solemn program, full of dignity as a paternity order over a fallen comrade.

J. W. "Bliff" Carr, a high ranking State Legion official, will speak, and then at 11 o'clock the Legionnaires and ex-service men assembled will bow their heads in absolute silence for one minute.

Then a bugler will play the notes of "Taps" loud and clear.

Murray business concerns will close for the celebration. The drum and bugle corps made up of sons of the Legion will parade up town at 10:30 just prior to the assembly in the churchhouse.

Persons of all faiths, Legionnaires or citizens, men and women, young and old, are requested to be present for the program and will be welcomed there.

Mayor Suggests All Stores Close On Armistice Day

Mayor George Hart, in a statement today, suggested that all stores and business concerns in Murray close tomorrow (Friday), in honor of the twentieth anniversary of the signing of Armistice. His statement said:

"In view of the tremendous significance the signing of Armistice had for each of us, I suggest that all stores and business concerns in Murray close tomorrow (Friday, November 11, Armistice Day), a national holiday, and join with the American Legion and the men who served in the World War in celebrating the twentieth anniversary of Peace."

Father Flanagan Asks Parole for Convicted Boy

Would Take 4-Year-Old Convicted Murdered to Boys Town

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 10.—Monsignor E. J. Flanagan, head of Father Flanagan's home for boys at Boys Town, Neb., said today he would ask the State Pardon Board to parole Gary Ames, 14, Wilmington, Mass., youth sentenced to life imprisonment for murder.

He said that if the parole was granted the youth would become a citizen of Boys Town, recent subject of a motion picture.

Ames and Don Galloway, 21, were convicted of the murder of Edward J. Billings, Chicago. When the youths first confessed the slaying at Kearney, Neb., they said the motive had been robbery.

Later they said Billings had made a degenerate attack on them. Billings was shot by Galloway and his body later mutilated and tossed off the freight train on which the three were riding by young Ames.

Work Progresses on Concord Job

Brickwork on the New Concord high school building, a WPA project now under erection, was completed past the windows Monday, and it was expected by workmen that all bricklaying would be complete by the close of this week.

Superintendent T. C. Arnett declared the top would be over the building by Christmas, speeding up further work on the $30,000 building.

Thomas Dewey Is Defeated by Herbert Lehman

Young New York Prosecu- tor Had Been Hailed for President

In an election as light as it was uneventful—locally at any rate—Alben W. Barkley, Noble J. Gregory, Jim Hart, and Scudder Galloway, all incumbent for the respective offices for which they sought, were reelected Tuesday by conclusive majorities.

In Calloway county, Barkley, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, received a vote of 3,253 to 405 for John P. Haswell, his Republican opponent. Noble J. Gregory, candidate for Congress, man from the First district, led in Calloway by 2,999 votes to 384.

Barkley's margin in one of the highest votes cast in Kentucky in many years—was expected to exceed 125,000, and Gregory was expected to be victorious over Schutz by as many as 25,000 votes.

Principal in election interest in Calloway county was the county school board election in which Jim Hart and Scudder Galloway bested four candidates to be reelected. Hart received 1,438 votes; Galloway 1,039; W. B. Sutter, 916; Lee Donelson, 915; Harry Wilcox, 695; and Marvin Hale, 659.

There were only three candidates for three positions on the city school board, and regardless of the vote; all three will continue to serve. A tabulation, however, revealed J. W. Outland received a total of 330 votes; Luther Robertson 317; and A. D. Butterworth 319.

Reports from all over the nation disclosed a Democratic majority was paramount, but Republicans gained markedly in voting strength over preceding national elections.

In New York, Governor Herbert H. Lehman, Democrat, was reelected in a close battle, with District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, Republican opponent.

In other states, however, including Kansas, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Minnesota—areas in which Republicans had been at "outs" for several years—Republican candidates were victorious. In Connecticut, Republicans trifled by a narrow margin.

In contests for the Senate, the Republicans led in Kansas, New Jersey, and Wisconsin, where the incumbents are Democrats, and were involved in excitingly close contests in Iowa, New Hampshire, and Ohio, whose Senators also are Democrats. Democratic Senatorial aspirants led in California, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, and New York, among other states.

Incomplete returns indicated a strong upsurge of Republican strength in several areas. Thomas E. Dewey, young rackets prosecutor, carried the Republican colors into the lead in early returns from New York State, but later a rush of ballots from New York City brought about a slim margin of victory for Lehman.

Although the election passed quietly in Western Kentucky, the day was one of the bloodiest as a whole since 1933 when 18 were slain.

Tuesday, nine persons were killed, four of them in Harlan county, in election feuds.

In Bloody Harlan, four men, one of them a former deputy sheriff, were shot to death near Evans, eight miles from Harlan.

Republicans won in Indiana after a six-year's dominance by Democrats. The South saw the only section in which Republican strength did not grow.

Paducah Church To Give Broadcast

The First Christian Church, Paducah, will launch its fourth annual radio series, known as "The Church of the Air" Sunday, November 13. This very popular program has been a regular feature of radio station WPAD for the past three years.

Rev. L. K. Bishop, pastor of the Paducah church, will conduct the services and deliver the sermon weekly. The time of the broadcast will be from 11:30 to 12 noon. It will be broadcast directly from the church auditorium, where the regular congregation is worshipping.

AAA Allen-Heath Engagement Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. A. Allen, Campbellsville, announce the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Miss Virginia Allen, to Harry Edward Heath. The wedding will take place in the week-end of December 4 at the Allen home in Campbellsville. Mr. Heath is well known here in Murray having been connected with the Ledger & Times staff for about three years a few years ago. He now is manager of the News-Journal at Campbellsville, Ky.

Sinking Spring WMU Meets

On Wednesday afternoon, October 26, the women of the Sinking Spring WMU met at the church for the purpose of setting a date to teach a mission study course. After a short, devotional, it was decided the club would ask Mrs. Amanda White, from the Murray First Baptist Church, to meet with it the following Wednesday and teach its mission study.

On Wednesday, November 2, the women of the WMU met again and the following program was given: Song, "Love Divine", scriptural reading, Mrs. Clois Lawrence; prayer, Mrs. Lilly Jones; mission study, subject, "The Why and How of the WMU", by Mrs. White, and closing prayer, Mrs. White. Twenty-eight members were present.

Everyone enjoyed having Mrs. White present to teach the study.

Missionary Society Meets With Mrs. Coleman

The Missionary Society of the First Christian church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Coleman with Mrs. A. V. Havens, Mrs. B. G. Humphries and Mrs. J. G. Hart assisting hosts. Mrs. W. S. Swann, chairman, presided over the meeting and Mrs. C. H. Redden conducted the devotional exercises. "Our Work Among the Mexicans" was discussed by Mrs. R. M. Pollard and Mrs. W. M. Redder's subject was "The Negro and the Underprivileged." Mrs. Rupert Parks and Mrs. T. P. Cook also took part in the discussion.

The hosts served delightful refreshments to about twenty-five members and one guest.

Mrs. Ordway Is Complimented

Mrs. Frank Albert Stubbfield and Mrs. Eugene Hughes were hosts Tuesday afternoon at the home of the latter at a bridge tea and stork shower which was in lovely compliment to Mrs. Preston Ordway. The tables, the dainty potes flower centerpieces and the nut cuts surmounted by a tiny stork emphasized the chosen color scheme of pink and blue.

Bridge was played at five tables and prizes were awarded Mrs. I. Sled, high, Mrs. T. H. Stokes, consolation, and Miss Oneida Wear, cut.

After the serving of a dainty ice course to the bridge guests and those arriving for tea, little Miss Jennie Sue Stubbfield, almost entirely surrounded with daintily wrapped packages, was wheeled into the room in her perambulator and presented the gifts to Mrs. Ordway.

Included in the hospitality were Mrs. Mayne Ryan, Hughes, Mrs. E. S. Duquid, Jr., Mrs. Will H. Whitnell, Mrs. H. I. Sled, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. B. O. Langston, Mrs. Nat Ryan, Mrs. W. G. Miss Elizabeth Smith is president of the club and Mrs. Hall, Miss Ruth Hepburn, Miss Mary Yeiser, and Miss Helen Thornton are sponsors.

Miss Ward Speaks To AAUW

The Murray branch of the AAUW brought a rare treat to its members and other guests Tuesday evening when they presented Miss Mabel Ward of the "Lookout Shop", Nashville, in a talk on "Southern Handicraft." The meeting was held on the second floor of the college library. Miss Ward spoke informally and told of her experiences in acquiring articles made by the southern mountain people and where and how they were made. She impressed the fact that southern handicraft was a true-art and not a vocation. Her display included woven articles, wood carving, glassware, metals, and pottery, and at the conclusion of the program many of those present availed themselves of the opportunity to secure for themselves these lovely articles.

There was a large number present to hear Miss Ward.

CIRCULAR DISCUSSES FARM WATER SYSTEMS

Interest in having running water is so great on farms where electricity has been made available through the extension of rural electric lines, that the College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky has issued a circular discussing the installation and use of electrically operated water systems.

With the advent of electricity, farm women want running water in the kitchen and bathroom. Farmers will find it convenient and economical to use electricity to pump water for their livestock. The circular gives information on various kinds of water systems, how to make selection, the kind of pumps needed, storage tanks, electric motors, sewage disposal, and cost of operating water systems. Copies may be had from county and home agents or by Trade, J. T. Wallis & Son, writing to the college.

Nursery Finishes Landscaping Of City Postoffice

The landscaping of the grounds of the Murray Postoffice has recently been completed by the Murray Nursery.

Two shrubs in the plot are unusual for this section, according to W. P. Roberts, nursery manager, who declared that although they are used rather profusely in the east and north, none have hitherto been used in this area.

The plants of the family Crataegus oxyacantha or English Hawthorn for which the ship Mayflower was named—were brought to Murray from a point 200 miles north of Cincinnati and had to be brought with dirt remaining on the roots. As such, they weighed in transit more than 600 pounds each.

During the winter season, the trees are captivating with their informal, rugged appearance, while in May they are covered with myriad blooms.

MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH

The pastor will speak at the morning service at 10:30 on "SPIRITUAL ENLARGEMENT." Every member of the church is expected to be present for this service, and all others are invited.

The subject for the evening sermon will be "CHRIST'S LAST INVITATION." This service will begin promptly at 7:15 p. m. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Capable, consecrated teachers are in charge of all the classes. There are blessings in our Sunday School work for both young and old. Our attendance for the past few months has been most gratifying, but it would be much better if many of our own members could only be induced to be present. That is to say nothing of a host of other people in Murray who are not in Sunday School and church service anywhere.

There will be no prayer meeting in our church on Wednesday night, November 16, because of the annual meeting of the General Association of Kentucky Baptists in the First Baptist Church building.

Our people are happy to join with others in extending a hearty welcome to Kentucky Baptists as they come to Murray for their 101st annual session. Not since 1901 has our General Association met in Murray. The lamented T. T. Eaton of Louisville was moderator of that meeting.

Our annual Thanksgiving service will be held Thanksgiving at 10 o'clock. The speaker for this occasion will be announced in a few days. At this service we are having a special offering for our building fund. All of our people are urged to take note of this service and to begin now to make ready as large a Thanksgiving offering as possible.

You are cordially invited to worship with us at all times.

Carroll Hubbard, Pastor

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Preaching by the pastor morning and evening. Subjects: a. m. "CHURCH MEMBERS THAT COUNT," p. m. "HEAVEN, A PLACE WHO WILL BE THERE? WILL WE KNOW EACH OTHER WHAT ARE THEY DOING IN HEAVEN?—HOW LONG WILL THEY BE THERE? AND HOW TO GET THERE."

Sunday School every Sunday at 9:30 a. m. Classes for all ages, taught by faithful experienced teachers, directed by competent officers; each class meets in a separate room for the study of the lesson.

Training Union meets every Sunday night at 6:15. This vital work in our church is growing; there is a Union for every age, beginning with the juniors and including the Senior Adult Union.

Mid-week meeting every Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. This is a vital meeting to which the entire church membership is urged to attend with friends and relatives.

Bible study though brief, is vital immediately at the close of the mid-week meeting. A most cordial welcome is extended by the church to everyone to worship here whenever it is possible to do so.

Let the entire city and surrounding communities remember the coming of the Baptists of the State to the First Baptist church, convening November 15, at 2 p. m. If you have not (this means others as well as Baptists) given your name to Brother J. H. Thurman, chairman of the Committee on Homes, do so at once if you wish to have a part in entertaining this group of splendid workers engaged in the work of building the Kingdom of God, and thereby helping to make a better world and better conditions under which we must live.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Lord's Day: Bible study at 9:45 a. m., worship at 10:30 a. m. and 7:15 p. m.

Wednesday: Prayer meeting and Bible study at 7 p. m.

The topic at the morning worship will be, "Things that Abide." "God's Speechless Teachers," will be discussed at the evening service.

Since nearly everything which humanity deals with is this world is by its very nature transitory, it is natural for man to look for that which is stable and which changes not. When man lays hold of that which "abides," it gives stability to him. "Come, let us reason about 'things which change not'."

Special Programs on National Celebration Feature Hours

Schools in Murray celebrated National Education Week in programs especially prepared for the occasion throughout this week.

The program began Sunday when ministers of the various churches in Murray devoted parts of their lectures to phases of educational topics which were fundamentally cultural. At 9:30 Monday morning, Max B. Hurt addressed the students at the high school in a chapel program, outlining methods by which dependable minds might be created in bodies worthy of such education.

At the training school on the Murray College campus, members of the physical education classes presented drills and exhibitions which were marvels in physical adaptations and training. On Tuesday, the day at the training school was devoted to demonstration lessons open to the public, and that day the high school had as its principal motive the study of knowledge and skills.

Wednesday morning at 9:30 the biggest part of the program insofar as the general public was concerned took place at the high school when many students took part in a pageant displaying the contrast of the schools of today with those of yesterday.

The training school's annual talent night was held last night at 7:30 in the little chapel. Readings, dramatizations, musical and solo numbers featured the program.

Both schools today are devoting their specialized studies to safety mediums. An Armistice Day program is scheduled for tomorrow, with varying interpretations of the ideal of patriotism at each school.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, November 13, 1938
 Sunday will mark the close of the conference year as the Methodists of the Memphis Conference will gather at Martin, Tenn., on Wednesday, November 16, for the session of the Annual Conference, with Bishop Darlington presiding. The conference will be in session till late Sunday afternoon, November 20. On this last Sunday of the church year the pastor will preach at the morning hour, 10:30 o'clock, on "Prayer." At the evening hour, 7:30 o'clock, the pastor will deliver the final message of the year and give a brief resume of the work of the year. The work of the year in the church has been marked by a fine spirit of harmony and cooperation.

The pastor and his family appreciate the innumerable courtesies that have been extended to them not only by the Methodists but by those of other denominations as well while they have lived in Murray and they hope to share these fine courtesies another year. Certainly no pastor was ever better treated by the people of a town than has been the case with your present pastor. We thank one and all for these fine expressions of Christian friendship.

Murray Motors
To Sell General
Tires and Supplies

L. L. LENNOX

L. W. Lennox, proprietor of the Murray Motor Company, successors to the Rushing Garage on West Main street, announces in today's paper the agency for national known General Tires, with an opening sale on them.

Mr. Lennox came to Murray September 1, and bought out Mr. Rushing's garage. He states that the public acceptance of the new 1939 DeSoto and Plymouth's has been tremendous and is expecting to place a large number of them in this county in 1939. He feels that the line of General tires will fill a need for the motorists in this county and is a complement to the many services his firm is offering the motoring public. A full stock of sizes and kinds in every price class will be carried according to him.

Card of Thanks

We express our thanks to our relatives, neighbors, and friends who so tenderly ministered during the illness and death of our husband and father, John Price. Our thanks go to Dr. Stark for his efforts to prolong life. Bros. Horton and Morrison for their words of comfort; and the Churchill Funeral Home for their kindness. We also thank the choir and the ones who contributed the lovely flowers. — Wife and children.

the hand of invitation every Sunday to every man, woman and child of the town and surely you are not fair to yourself if you do not at some time heed this fine invitation. You will find a hearty welcome at any one of our Sunday-schools and a fine Christian teacher for your class. Our children and young people meet in their respective groups at 6:30 and your children might find this service helpful.

The Christians and church members of Murray should see to it that every stranger coming to Murray receives an invitation to some one of our splendid churches. Any one of them will give you a warm welcome and furnish you spiritual guidance while you live in our midst. Be "at home" in some one of our churches.

DAIRYMEN

est disadvantage to dairymen in Calloway, he intimated, is the local dairymen's failure to take advantage of the advantages he already has.

Barns do not have to be elaborate here, because the climate is not so temperate that it makes such buildings expedient. Good housing facilities, however, are positively to be recommended, because they are necessary adjuncts for balanced milk productivity.

The speaker, who has charge of all butterfat testers in the State, declared cows sometimes may give more milk than others and at the same time not produce as much butterfat.

Each registered herd of cattle in Kentucky is tested every month by Harris or his associates, who work in conjunction with 13 State testing associations which are under the general supervision of the United States Department of Agriculture.

The meetings were conducted forum-style; that is, at any time during the lecture or the film strip, any person present could—and often did—interrupt the man on the floor to ask a question.

At each meeting, a consensus of opinion was taken on whether the people of the county who are interested in dairymen will come into Murray in February to attend an all-day, or even a day-and-a-half, institute on feeding and breeding. If so, the county agent's department and the Milk Plant, together with State Dairy officials, will sponsor the clinic.

At a meeting in a hotel luncheon here two weeks ago, plans were outlined by the Milk Plant, the county agent, Smith-Hughes teachers of agriculture in Calloway, and the agricultural department of Murray State College for the organization of boys and girls cow and calf clubs.

This, it was believed, might add to the incentive of better dairymen in the county and make the industry the most profitable of all Calloway profit-making enterprises.

Many dairymen and some who were not attended the meetings which began Monday night at Eyrin Grove. Tuesday afternoon, the group met at Backusburg, Tuesday night at Kirksey; Paschall, Wednesday afternoon, and Faxon on Wednesday night.

The dairy enthusiasts will meet this afternoon at Blakely and at Hazel tonight. Tomorrow afternoon, they will go to Brooks Chapel and will close the lectures tomorrow night at New Concord.

According to reports thus far, the sessions have been more responsive than any similar or corresponding meetings in long.

Leckey is Leader of Local Students
at Western State

J. Henc Leckey of Calvert City has been elected president of the Calloway-Marshall-Graves County Delegation at Western Kentucky Teachers College. Others who were honored by the group by being elected to official positions are: Marion Hurt of Mayfield, vice-president, and Mildred Allbritton of Hazel, secretary.

The Calloway-Marshall-Graves group is a part of a state-wide organization which serves as a social medium among the students and which meets regularly on the Western campus. The above officers will represent Calloway, Marshall, and Graves counties at the various meetings of the organization.

Security Unit
Files Suits for Tax Collections

The Kentucky Unemployment Compensation, through its Executive Director, V. E. Barnes, today filed suits in Franklin Circuit Court against nine employers delinquent in tax payments to the Commission.

The suits, first to be filed under the Kentucky Unemployment Compensation Law, were termed by Robert B. Hensley, Chief Legal Counsel for the Commission, as the "only alternative course left to the Commission to bring about compliance with the law." The Attorney General and members of his staff will assist the Commission in the prosecution of the cases.

McRaven Bests Smith As Thoroughbreds Battle to 6-6 Tie With Southwestern Here

Murray Outgains Lynx on Soaked Stadium
Friday; Racers Score in Second Period,
Memphians in Third

Murray State's SIAA champs and Southwestern's Dixie Conference leaders battled to a 6-6 tie, before over 4,000 excited fans, on a wet wind-blown field, here Friday afternoon, November 4, in a superb defensive demonstration on the part of both lines.

The battle billed as a "natural" between Gaylon Smith, heralded Southwestern back, and Bill McRaven, star Murray tailback, became just that as the game saw-sawed up and down the field.

McRaven gained 104 yards in 17 tries with the ball, while Smith pounded out 84 yards in 31 attempts. Smith averaged 41 yards and McRaven 40, in punts. Smith completed three passes for 39 yards in 11 attempts as McRaven completed a 21-yard heave to Love in 5 tries. Each man scored a touchdown for his respective team.

The tie left Murray with five victories, a loss, and a tie. Southwestern has the identical record. The Lynx have defeated Union, Sewanee, Loyola, Birmingham-Southern, and Chattanooga, while Centenary cooled them 6-0. Murray had beaten Union, Birmingham-Southern, Morehead, Middle Tennessee, and Wisconsin State, while Hardin-Simmons, took the Racers, 20-14.

Murray scored first, going over early in the second period as Bill McRaven shot over tackle for the remaining 4 yards. The ball was advanced chiefly through the work of Murray's great line, who opened up holes for Mitchell and McRaven to go through. Nifty blocking by Yarbrough and Finley in the Murray backfield paved the way. Pete Gudauskas missed his second extra point in 32 attempts.

Lynx Score in Third
Southwestern scored early in the third period, after Gaylon Smith had power-driven 47 of the 82 yards made on the drive. Smith drove the ball over from the 12-yard line. French's kick failed to get into scoring territory, and the score was knotted.

The rest of the game found both teams driving hard, but neither

Change in License For Bowling Alley Passed on By City

A proposed change to an old ordinance, which would have placed a license fee of $200 for every individual bowling alley in the city was considered today by the city council. The proposal, which will become effective through ordinance at the mid-monthly meeting November 18, will lessen the license fee to $100 for the first alley and $25 for each additional one.

Miss Farmer Gets Welfare Position

Miss Ola Mae Farmer, former Calloway county attendance officer, has been appointed supervisor of the child welfare department in the First District, Efram Tucker, area Welfare Department supervisor, announced today.

Miss Farmer succeeds Mrs. Dulana Waldrop.

She will have her headquarters in the First District Welfare Department office in the McCracken county court house, Tucker said. Tucker was chairman of the Chandler for Senator campaign committee in Calloway county last summer, and Miss Farmer was woman chairman.

Murray Man Grows Edible Mushrooms for Eastern Sales

An innovation in farming has been inaugurated in Murray by R. L. Williams, who lives in Murray on North Eighth Street. Mr. Williams, who combines his agricultural pursuits with more than usually wise philosophizing and who is past 70 years old, has gone in for raising mushrooms for table consumption.

As an edible delicacy in fashionable restaurants in the larger cities, mushrooms have no peer. There will perhaps be little market for the delicious semi-vegetable food locally, but the plant commands large prices in urban communities.

Mr. Williams will dispose of his produce on eastern markets.

Business Stays On Upgrade As November Comes

Projects Over State Are Slightly Below Last Year's Levels

It was generally conceded throughout the state that business entered November with a continued improvement in general activity.

The Department of Commerce verified such concessions after hearing reports from 36 key cities over Kentucky.

October construction awards increased in the majority of leading cities, manufacturing production advanced, financial conditions improved, and wholesale and retail trade moved moderately forward.

Stimulated by the advent of more reasonable temperatures in many sections, retail trade during the week presented a more favorable front than for many weeks. Wholesale markets throughout the country varied. In most sections it was reported that advance purchases of holiday goods were up to expectations and this year's volume was expected approximately to equal 1937 levels.

Sales from department stores in Louisville were about two per cent lower than last year's corresponding sales. Furniture sales were off 10 to 15 per cent. Wholesale dry goods and notions sales were about even with a year ago. Industrial activity as a whole showed some improvement. Manufacturers of farm implements and allied lines reported volume off 20 to 25 per cent from last year.

Notes from business over the state follows: Strike over wage scale at cooperage plant in Paducah delayed reopening of plant; Henderson dress factory, closed by strike since October 12, reopened with full force; Kentucky employment services reported placements, 456, an increase of 12 per cent over preceding week; bank clearings declined 7 per cent from year ago; crop conditions remained about the same, with promises of excellent tobacco production. Stemming District Tobacco Association of Western Kentucky reported all old surplus tobacco on hand now sold; low bid of $242,000 accepted for construction of second unit of science building at University of Kentucky; REA approved contract for $132,000 for building first section of project in Barren county; cornerstone laid for new $176,000 dormitory at Eastern State Teachers College, Richmond; farm of 250 acres in Harrison county sold at public auction, also tract in same

T. S. Chester Weds Memphis Woman; Career is Varied

T. S. Chester, one of Calloway county's most successful farmers, was married to Mrs. Lillie McCroskey, a charming lady of Memphis, Tenn., as his second bride. The marriage took place Monday, in 1895 Mr. Chester was first married to Miss Lillie Hill of Marshall County. They lived together 13 years and were members of the Primitive Baptist church. He served as clerk; also as trustee. They raised five children and educated them; four are now qualified to teach.

T. S. Chester sat on the jury during the first court session ever held in the present court house in Murray; also he has sat a number of times since. He has raised a large amount of tobacco, yet declares he never had a chew in his mouth. He has smoked only once, he says, and doesn't know the taste of whisky. If he ever did anything right, according to his own hobbies has been to try to help build roads. It has been said he has hauled more loads of gravel free than any other man in Calloway county.

Thoroughbreds Meet Howard In Murray Stadium Friday

Kentucky's leading collegiate football team—Murray State College—will attempt to make its position on the top rung more secure tomorrow afternoon when it encounters the Howard Bulldogs, from Birmingham, Ala., here at 2 o'clock.

With 5 victories, 1 tie, and 1 defeat, the Kentucky Thoroughbreds are leading all the Bluegrass colleges in games won this year. Murray has defeated Wisconsin State, Middle Tennessee, Morehead, Union University, and Birmingham-Southern, losing to Hardin-Simmons by one touchdown.

Murray held Howard to a 12-0 win in what was probably the greatest defensive game ever played on the Thoroughbreds' field.

Murray's coaches fear a let-down on the part of their proteges, especially after holding Southwestern to a deadlock and in view of facing Western, the following week-end, November 19.

With Charles T. Yarbrough turning in one of the greatest defensive games of his career, Claude McRaven, Murray half, decisively outshone Southwestern's highly regarded back, Gaylon Smith. McRaven equalled Smith on kicking, approached him on passing, out-generated him in strategy, and was excelled by the Memphian only in charging the line.

"Jug" Mitchell, signal calling fullback for the Thoroughbreds, returned to form and tore through the line for consistent gains. The entire Murray line, ends, guards, tackles, and the center, turned in a remarkable performance, charging viciously and accurately.

This game has been designated as "High School Day," and all high school students in the surrounding territory, together with one member of each faculty will be admitted free. The group will assemble at the John W. Carr Health Building, and march to the stadium in a body.

Nearly 1,000 persons visit Treasure Island every day of the week to preview the California World's Fair of 1939.

Illegal Use of REGISTERED Milk Bottles and Milk Cans!

In accordance with the new container law passed by the 1938 Legislature we have registered our Sunburst milk bottle and our branded milk and cream cans with the Secretary of State and with our County Court Clerk and published notice of registration three times in our county paper.

This law prohibits the use of any registered milk bottle or can by any dairyman, milk company (except by owner of registered bottle) or individual and also fixes fines and penalties for the illegal use of these containers.

The bottle deposit paid when buying milk at a grocery store does not give ownership of the bottle as the deposit is repaid on return of the bottle.

Sunburst bottles cannot be sold or bought by any firm or person.

The assistance of the general public in the return of Sunburst bottles and branded milk cans will be very much appreciated.

Federal Educational Assistance Needed

Two underage marriages in our Commonwealth within the last week, and both to men old enough to be their father and grandfather respectively gives us a black eye, the way it has been played up in the daily press.

This is the best argument in the world for better educational facilities and equality for all. If these children had had equal opportunity to attend good schools and had been kept there by their parents their lives would not have been blighted.

This child marriage situation is a matter of education not only of children but of parents as well. Proper agencies should be established to educate fathers and mothers as to parental care and laws about bringing up children. The parents in most instances are at fault, but through no cause of their own. They themselves, in the past have been denied the privileges that belong to every American citizen. And given the same environment and the same opportunity that we in Western Kentucky have been given and so many such problems would not arise.

Rapid strides are being made in good roads so that these children can be transported to good schools.

Federal spending has been rampant, and it is high time Federal funds be devoted to aiding in education to a greater extent.

Home nursing facilities, public health, and moral obligations should be taught by an established agency as a part of such an educational program. The teachers should be trained in moral leadership as well as educational pursuits. We know the Federal government cannot devote funds to any church or creed, but men and women of good moral standards can be employed in such a program to carry out the moral side of these children's lives.

The burden lies upon society in general to see that such a program is carried out. Congressman Noble Gregory could do no greater deed for our great Commonwealth than push such a program when Congress convenes in January.

Steeped in folklore and great friendly tradition, such blemishes on the part of this Commonwealth as a whole should be stamped out. Kentucky is moving forward at a rapid pace. We are publicizing our state parks, our Mammoth Cave, our fine race horses. Let's all of us in the western part of the state pull together to see that our sisters and brothers in the eastern mountain region are given equal opportunity. State funds cannot do it all—that would hamper our present progress. But additional funds from Federal government used to support a proper educational program, would reap far greater results than buildings of stone and marble.

It is better to save a soul, a life, than squander money on physical property. These young girls need opportunity. Let's give it to them.

The Federated Women's Clubs of the state would render great service by getting behind this program.

Make America Safe for democracy—Yes, by removing conditions that are conducive to growth of Communism and other isms. Slum districts in the cities are being eradicated. How about a good rehabilitation program for the remote rural areas? Out of such places have come great men—greater men and women again will come forward out of these mountainous regions and lead us out of troubles that beset the nation today. They are real Americans—if given an opportunity they will give us additional leadership we need. Pioneers such as George Rogers Clark and Daniel Boone are still needed—but pioneers this time need to be equipped with education and opportunity to meet present day conditions.

New Deal for the Tenant

Every year a million tenant families move from one farm to another. One of the reasons for this instability is the hope for a more profitable arrangement with a new landlord. One of the results is that such families are not always risks for rehabilitation loans from the Farm Security Administration.

Because payment of most of these loans extends over a period of about five years and depends upon the best possible management of farm and home, leases which allow a tenure of at least this long are almost essential, the Farm Security Administration finds. Its records show that the millions of families which move each year seldom have a lease in writing. Such agreements as are made often are vague. Misunderstandings result and the tenant moves on.

To make farm renters a better risk for a loan, the administration this year is requiring a written lease. The lease covers usual renting agreements in that locality and protects both landlord and renter. It must assure the renter reasonably secure tenure and, if the renter obtains a loan for permanent improvements, it must assure him tenure until he has received full benefit of the improvement, or compensation if the lease is terminated or expires.

Under the Bankhead-Jones Act the Farm Security Administration advances loans for the purchase of farms to tenants, sharecroppers, and farm laborers. However, this is a long-time program. For the immediate future the new policy of rehabilitation loans is expected to help relieve bad features of tenancy for thousands of families.

Many Calloway counties already have taken advantage of rehabilitation loans as well as loans with which to purchase farms. G. C. Dyer, area supervisor, and Hoover Howard, assistant, are at the WPA office in Murray every Monday for such service where they will be available for advice to those who wish it.

FINI LA GUERRE

At 10:59 on the morning of November 11, 1918, a hushed, pallid group gathered near the side entrance of the Grand Hotel in Brest, waiting out the last 60 seconds of the World War. Across the square the long hand of the clock on the cathedral tower moved once a minute, with a little jerk.

Two Breton peasant women dressed in black set their big laundry basket down on the cobbles in front of them. They were watching the clock, too. Waiting.

People were waiting like that all over town, and all over France, and all over the world. Since early morning the townsmen of Brest had been drifting out into the streets and squares as if the war's end were a sight they might miss if they stayed inside. There was a gray hush in the sky, and a gray hush on the time slowly merging with eternity. The hand reached 10:59. The people waited.

Along the Meuse, American soldiers were crossing the river under machine-gun fire from the German rear guard, and a chill drizzle of rain drenched their needless battle. The Canadians were skirmishing their way into the Mons again; French columns were wheeling into Sedan.

Coffee and cigars had been served five hours before to the dignitaries in Dining Car No. 2419D on the railway siding in the Forest of Compiègne. . . . Men were still dying in battle.

The hand of the clock jerked again shattering all the silence on earth. High in the cathedral tower a bell tolled once—heavily—and the air moaned. Other bells took up the clangor. Ships fired their guns, and cannon boomed from the old ramparts above the harbor.

The time: 11 a. m., November 11, 1918.

The two Breton washerwomen turned away, unable to look any longer at the clock and the tower. They were crying, and they did not put their hands to their eyes to hide the tears. The tears fell into a hamper of dirty clothes.

The hand of the cathedral clock had moved, and Time and the world of the living had moved with it. The War was over. Fini la guerre.

November 11, 1919

In London they held a Victory Ball.

In Paris a troop of blind soldiers joined the procession down the Champs Elysees, and their smiles added horror to their gallantry.

In California a cow-country statesman made a speech which was followed by a barbecue and a ball game.

Is Armistice Day the Forgotten Holiday?

11 a. m., November 11, 1938: Murray State College. Let there be silence . . . a pause from classes and from work . . . a pause for a prayer of thankfulness for peace and of reverence for Our Dead . . . A pause to welcome home with outstretched arms the prodigal child—Peace.

Chiropractic Cures Man 72 Years Old

On August 9, 1937, an old gentleman 72 years old who lived about five miles south of Murray, came to my office. He was suffering from lumbago, sciatic rheumatism, arthritis, high blood pressure, prostatic indigestion, heart trouble and senility.

This fine old man had been a financial success and very industrious. Poor health and rheumatic pains had caused him to refrain from all manual labor and retire to the easy rocker and spend a great deal of time in bed.

He had made the medical rounds and tried many expensive so-called cures without any improvement; instead gradually growing worse. One good sympathetic consulting doctor after extracting a handsome fee from the old man of toil, said science has been exhausted, so far as you are concerned, your money wasted, but maybe the good Lord will cure you. With tears in his eyes and a warm benevolent heart, he shook the old man's calloused hand and bid him goodbye.

In spite of unbelief and faith he came to my office as I directed and took a series of adjustments and got well.

Today he and his good old spouse are living quietly in their country home surrounded by their children and grandchildren.

Happy days once more for the old couple, the old breadwinner back at work feeling fine, doing chores, singing his religious songs.

Doctor, when your medicine, electricity, animal serum, anti-toxin, X-ray, hydrotherapy, knife, and many other modalities fail send them around; most of them, will get well.

Better still go to the chiropractic science first.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

NEW YORK, November 10.—Business—Accelerated by government spending, the 1938 industrial recovery continues to gain with experts predicting an even sharper upward movement in business indices after the elections. Evidence of better business is seen in many lines. Dealers report improved sales, and expect fourth quarter volume to be 20 per cent over 1937. Helped by warm weather which has allowed new building to go ahead rapidly, plumbers say that business is about 15 per cent ahead of last year. During November department store sales will more closely approximate 1937 records than in any month since last April, according to present predictions.

WASHINGTON—Tuesday's general elections had Capitol Hill population and all the agencies in a dither last week, and discussion of national problems came to almost a complete standstill. When Washingtonians do get together to talk about subjects other than politics the gossip they circulate includes: U. S. retaliation against Japan's closing of the Open Door in China is indicated; increased taxes on business in the next session of Congress are inevitable, despite fast-rising business and trade indices; no railroad employee strike, but rather an exhaustive study of the whole national transportation problem.

Around Paschall School

Monday opened with a day of much cloudiness, some rain and wind. We have had a beautiful fall—one in which much work has been done. Gathering corn has been in session for the past two weeks. Most everyone now, however, is about finished with the corn harvest.

Clayton Hall is visiting home folks for the past few days. I'm sure this has been a pleasant visit for Clayton and I'm quite sure the homefolks have been overjoyed to have him visit them.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecile Paschall at Hays' Store were Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Paschall, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Orr, Mr. and Mrs. George Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Orr. Mrs. Exie you had to stir around to get dinner for that bunch of people didn't you?

Mrs. Out Paschall happened to a painful accident one afternoon last week by sticking a nail in her foot. The foot is giving Mrs. Paschall much trouble. I hope there is an improvement soon for her.

Mrs. Willie Baker visited her daughter, Mrs. Albert Key, Saturday and assisted in quilting. Bonell Key was in Murray Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Rogers were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Baker. Lockie Rogers and Saint L. Henley were afternoon callers in the Baker home.

Clara Nance and Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Byars spent Friday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Byars. Mr. and Mrs. Bowden Swann and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Paschall were all day visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Byars and Inez. "Aunt" Missouri Wilson of Detroit, Mrs. Bowden Swann said tell you she never ate such a good dinner anywhere unless it was at your house.

Mrs. Lina Paschall, Mrs. Mareille Jones, Mrs. Merle Baker and daughter, Freda and Mila were in Murray Saturday.

Corez Baker and Inez Byars were in Murray shopping Saturday.

Norton Foster visited Aldon Orr at the Clinic Sunday.

August F. Wilson of Murray was in this part of the community Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton Foster and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dolphus Lassiter and daughter made a pleasure trip to Gilbertsville Sunday.

Mrs. Burton Love was a Paris visitor Monday.

"Golden Lock" and her mother would have enjoyed helping in the quilting at Mrs. Hamlin's who operates the telephone switchboard at Harris Grove Tuesday of last week. Some among those attending were Mrs. Bowden Swann, Mrs. Marvin Parks, Mrs. Hafford Orr, Mrs. Ollie Brandon and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Howard White, Mrs.

Eula Miller, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Maude Armstrong, Mrs. Daisy Hill, Mrs. Maylon Treas, Mrs. Graham Denham, Mrs. Jim Pickard, Mrs. Don Caldwell, Mrs. John Story, Mrs. Nora Cole, Mrs. Van Syms, Mrs. Maud Haws, Mrs. Enoch Sherman, Mrs. Blanch Camp, Mrs. Mae Norman, Mrs. Dumas Starks, and "Aunt" Ette Myers, who is very active for a person of her age, driving a horse to a buggy all by herself to the quilting.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of pneumonia for Oldon Orr, comes for him soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Key of near Jones' Mill were very glad to hear your little girl, Dortha Love, is getting along nicely from having her tonsils removed last week. Here's hoping she regains her health rapidly and is soon back in school.

Mrs. Bertha Paschall and granddaughter, Jessie Alma, visited Mrs. Grace Paschall Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Borden Nance and son of Jones' Mill, Tenn., visited relatives near Taylor's Store Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bethel Orr were in Murray Saturday.

Miss Alice Keys Attends Meeting to Uplift Teaching

The professionalization of teaching was the subject of a clinic held at the University of Kentucky recently, the purpose of which was to raise the social prestige of the pedagogic profession to a par with other worthy and acceptable professions.

Representing Murray State College at the clinic was Miss Alice Keys, administrative secretary, who contributed both in suggestion and industry to the well-being of the society.

The November issue of the Kentucky School Journal carries a portrait of delegates to the assembly, and Miss Keys is among those pictured.

The main difference between a profession and a trade was defined largely as the difference between social and progressive norms and specialized knowledge and social intellectualism.

Miss Charl Ormond Williams, noted scholar, while lying in a hospital last year with a broken leg which she had suffered when she fell from a horse in Central Park, New York, conceived the idea which would endeavor to promote teaching as a major profession.

Trevathan Family Enjoys
Reunion Sunday

On Sunday, November 6, one of the oldest families of Calloway county met for a reunion. They were all descendants of Jonas Trevathan, who came to this state from North Carolina about 1846 and settled on the farm now owned and occupied by W. Elmus Trevathan. A portion of the two-story house built by his grandfather now stands on the place. It was built of huge poplar logs and has been standing for the past 92 years. There were two sons of Jonas Trevathan, Robert H. and John W. Robert built near the home place and John inhabited the old home place where his son, Elmus, now lives. Herbert Trevathan and Charlie Trevathan were also sons of John H. Trevathan and Mrs. Mary Lou Trevathan Short was his only daughter. Charlie Trevathan is now deceased and the other two sons and the daughter now live in this county.

Robert H. Trevathan reared a large family of six sons and three daughters, who all survived him when he died at the age of 93 in 1923. The boys were Geo. R., Oscar R., John Dempsey, Lewis C., Lee E. and Walter S. Trevathan, who all lived in this county the early part of their lives. Dempsey is now dead. The three daughters are Mrs. Lucy Trevathan Stofe, now deceased, Mrs. Rena Trevathan, Paschall of the Harris Grove community and Mrs. Mattie Trevathan Thomas of this city. Lewis C. Trevathan now lives in Paducah, and Dr. Lee E. Trevathan at Bruceton, Tenn. Oscar R. and Walter S. Trevathan now live in the Locust Grove community. Geo. R. and Elmus Trevathan related some interesting facts about the old settlement and the Trevathan family, which was originally an English family and possessed a coat of arms in the mother country.

A final hymn and a prayer were engaged in and the family groups said goodbye to each other and took their leave, after a very enjoyable afternoon.

All the families were not permitted to be present on account of illness or other legitimate reasons, but those present were as follows: Geo. R. Trevathan, daughter, Geneva Barnhart, and her son, Charles Barnhart, which occasioned this reunion. The brothers and sisters of Geo. R. Trevathan and their wives and husbands were invited to a 12 o'clock dinner at the home of the youngest, Walter S. Trevathan, which was a joyful occasion to the long-separated members of the large family. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon some 60 descendants of the late Robert Trevathan and two sons of the later John W. Trevathan, and their wives, met at the Flint Church, North of Murray, where many of the family had attended church services many times and where funerals of the loved-ones who had died, were held. The hours were spent in informal conversation and becoming acquainted with members of the family, many of who had never seen each other. Walter S. and W. Elmus Trevathan led some old-time hymns and the whole assembly joined in the singing. Geo. R. and Elmus Trevathan related some interesting facts about the old settlement and the Trevathan

Mrs. Charles Barnhart, and her little son, Charles Robert, which occasioned this reunion.

Stella Gossip

"The melancholy days are here, the saddest of the year." But not so with "Ole Eagle." Was in Murray Saturday and all things were joy and peace. No drunks nor disorderly conduct. However on November 4-5 the wind storms were terrible as an army with banners. It blew the roof off the hen house, and 6-ft. tall hog weeds were stripped of foliage which is a blessing.

Mrs. Estell Forrest Ezell said that when they were at Hollywood, away down in California they were swimming on the beach of the great Pacific ocean where the water is as clear as a crystal.

A reunion, mostly descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Joel F. Cochran, assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Connie Mills and Richard F.

Among those present were Bessie and Pauline Richardson, of Sealdala; Arthur and Mary Zee of Mayfield; Star route; Vernon and Edith (and baby) Nanny, of Farmington; Esther Smith and Thomas of Coldwater; Clarence Morgan, and Bernice Morgan, Garnett and Katie Adams of Coldwater; Mrs. Ira Smith and daughter, Ira are in Detroit at work—yes, me, Ida and Ruth, also Naomi, a daughter, had prepared a most excellent dinner. Then a photographer snapped pictures of the whole bunch. Wait a minute!

Hog-killing time is just around the corner. Then you doctors will have to be called in great haste in the darkness of the night to come a-running.

A lot of pulpit preachers are arguing "Tithing—give the tenth." Wrong! Paul says "NOT" justified by works of law of Moses. These ticket contests frauds are gambling. Tell him (?) with my combing.

Lynn Grove High School News

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades under the direction of Miss Emma Douglas, Miss Modell Miller, and Miss Dulcie Swann, will present an operetta, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" on Friday night, November 18, at 7 o'clock. The four scenes will portray Snow White, the dwarfs, children among the forest. Children are painting a scene of the castle for the stage. Extra care is being taken to design the costumes according to the fairy story.

The principal characters are: Queen, Mary Jo Farmer, sixth grade; Snow White, Ruth Tinsley, fifth grade; Carl, Quincy Adams, sixth grade; Prince, John Tinsley, sixth grade.

The dwarfs and choruses are made up of about 25 voices from the three grades.

Three new students have enrolled in the grades. They are Mary Alice Cook and James Cook, fourth grade, and Buford Cook, third grade.

The first and second grades have completed their unit on the Model Store. Last week they had a clearance sale, and sold out their groceries, toys, and books.

Mrs. Hale surprised the first and second grades with a hot soup lunch on Tuesday made from the fresh vegetables the children had brought to school.

We appreciate the fact that our office has been completely equipped. A partition has been built and new furniture and drapes have been bought. This work was sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association as their first project this year.

We are observing American Education Week. A unit on some phase of education is being taught by each teacher.

M. O. Weather, member of the extension department of Murray State College, spent an hour with us Friday afternoon. Other visitors were: Sylvia Butterworth, Mary Sue Wright Hale, W. D.

Kelley, Hilton Williams, Rubena Ford, Clayton Hall of Philadelphia, Penn., and Milton Parks.

We will show our appreciation of the invitation to the Murray-Howard football game Friday with the attendance of our principal and a large number of students.

The basketball season opened last Friday night here with an 18-16 victory over New Concord. The second team won by a score of 13-8.

The ball team goes to Faxon Friday night of this week.

Next Tuesday night, November 15, they play Reidland here.

Faxon High School

(John R. Falwell)

Midterms exams are the most exciting happenings around Faxon just now. Everybody is busy at work.

Campus games, other than basketball, are marbles, horseshoes, whip popper, and "21 or bust."

We were thankful for the extra vacation Tuesday from our hard tests and lessons. The school building and grounds were requisitioned for the election.

Faxon was again fated to lose and the second team to win, the score with Almo being 19 to 23 and 23 to 14.

Fifth and Sixth Grades We are beginning on our Thanksgiving decorations now, for Thanksgiving is not very far away. We are getting along fine in our school work; most of us are studying hard. We were glad to have a

Faxon Facets

I am happy to report everything quiet on the Faxon front—no new deaths or disasters to report. Our injured neighbor, John Holland, is better. He has had many callers, both while he was at the hospital and since he came home.

The storms last week and on Monday of this week did some local damage but none outstanding. The worst damage I know of was visitor, James Dale Starks, in our room Monday.

Mrs. M. Draffen Succumbs Friday

Mrs. Mollie Draffen, 88, who died Friday night, at Hopkinsville of senility, was removed here for burial with the Rev. A. C. Evans conducting the ceremony at Mt. Carmel cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Draffen formerly lived near Coldwater. She is survived by two daughters in Calloway, Mrs. John Carleton, Murray; and Mrs. George Stone, Penny.
