Roads Cleared Of Snow, Ice By Steady Rain Warmer Weather Reported Today All Over State

CREEK RISES, FALLS

Highways in Fulton county and other parts of Western Kentucky were cleared of snow and ice this morning by rain and slowly rising temperatures. Friday's forecast for this section of the state is "rain, followed by colder weather and possibly snow."

More reports of highway accidents were received here today, but no drivers or passengers were injured seriously. Fulton residents anxiously watched Harris Fork creek, and wondered if the additional rain expected this weekend would bring it out of its banks for another damaging flood. Although the creek dropped about one foot this morning, the danger of a flash flood will not disappear until all melting snow and rain have been carried off.

The rest of the state was enjoying warmer weather today, too. The Associated Press weather report for Kentucky this morning said thermometer readings at Louisville rose above the freezing mark, and additional occasional rains were forecast for the day.

Rain and rising temperatures today combined to wipe out the blanket of snow that covered Kentucky as the new year began.

Eastern Kentucky was hardest hit with snow reported 12 inches deep in some mountainous areas yesterday. Around Whitesburg, travel conditions were described as the worst in many years.

Bus service now has been resumed in east Kentucky after being disrupted yesterday by heavy snow and other delays.

However, some coal mines which depend upon trucks to haul away their product were reported idle today but likely to resume operations tomorrow as roads are cleared.

The state apparently escaped with only one serious traffic accident after the snow covered highways, making travel hazardous.

The accident involved a large Greyhound bus and an automobile and injured at least 15 persons. Sheriff Winfred Melton said the bus overturned in a ditch off U. S. highway 41 between Dixon and Poole in Webster county. He said the bus and the car, driven by Warren A. Long of Lavina, Minn., sideswiped.

Fred Humes of Providence, attorney representing the bus company, said 53 passengers were aboard the bus, 12 of whom required medical attention. He declined to identify the injured.

Long was removed to a Henderson hospital in an unconscious condition. Also hospitalized were his wife, Mrs. Berna Long, and their daughter, Beatrice. Mrs. Long reportedly suffered severe chest injuries.

Fayette county reported an accident attributable to the weather after a sled hitched to the rear of a truck skidded into the path of an automobile on Leestown Pike near Lexington.

3 Trucks Collide, Skid Into Ditch On Clinton Hwy

Three Clinton trucks collided and skidded into ditches on the Fulton highway about three miles out of Clinton yesterday morning.

A Clinton Milling Company truck was overturned in the accident. The other trucks were owned by J. R. Walker and Walston's Grocery.

None of the drivers was injured seriously.

The cleanup reportedly followed one driver's attempt to avoid hitting a large van, which was stalled in the middle of the highway.

Lt. Herbert L. Waldrop returned to his duties at Fort Bragg, N. C., today after spending the Christmas holidays with his wife and baby at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ellidge, 411 Fourth street.

Arkansas Police Slaying Motive Still Unknown

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 2.—(AP)—The motive which led 51-year-old Detective Chief O. N. Martin to kill his assistant, Detective Lt. O. F. (Jack) Deubler, and then himself still was officially undetermined today, but acquaintances of Martin said he had been moody and apparently distraught for some time.

State Police Lt. Alan Templeton, a personal friend, said Martin was "a little off his head."

Found Slain

Detective Chief O. N. Martin, 51, was found shot to death in a car and police at Little Rock, Ark., said it was murder and suicide.

Coroner Howard A. Dishong said Martin shot Detective Lt. O. F. (Jack) Deubler, 31, then turned the gun on himself. (AP Wirephoto) lin had worried over his professional relations with some fellow officers and had threatened suicide.

Templeton said he had planned yesterday to consult a physician about Martin.

Before he was able to carry out this plan, the bodies of Martin and Deubler were found in a sparsely settled suburban section beside a police squad car. Both men had been shot to death.

As Coroner Howard A. Dishong and other investigators reconstructed the slayings, Martin shot Deubler four times with a police riot gun and then fired his own 45-caliber pistol into his temple.

Dishong officially described the slayings as "murder and suicide." Neither he nor acting Police Chief J. I. Steed would officially suggest a motive.

Most seriously injured of those in the plane were Calvert and Clifford Jones of Birmingham, Ala. Both suffered broken legs.

Three other children of the Siders were not injured when the plane rammed into the rear of the home and demolished the kitchen in which Mrs. Hill was preparing supper.

Three members of the Fulton Fire Department are suffering from injuries to hands and fingers.

"Check" Murrell fell yesterday morning on the icy sidewalk near the fire station and fractured his wrist.

Labor Bills Hold Spotlight On Capitol Hill GOP Is Expecting Democrats' Help On Their Policies

CAUCUSES SCHEDULED

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Labor legislation held the spotlight today on the eve of a congressional session dominated by Republicans for the first time in 15 years.

Rep. Leo E. Allen, Illinois Republican slated to head the powerful House Rules Committee, predicted that a "large majority" of Democrats on both sides of Capitol Hill will support GOP-proposed labor legislation.

The Republicans were expected to hold back until President Truman outlines his views in his state-of-the-union message to a joint Senate-House session next Monday.

However, party heads in the House have leaned strongly toward a law which would prevent strikes in industries affecting the public health or welfare. Some of them advocate compulsory arbitration.

Both parties scheduled caucuses today to select candidates for organization of the Senate and the House when they convene tomorrow.

Most differences that had threatened to rupture harmonious intra-party relations already have been removed.

Barring an upset of the plans of their leaders, House Republicans expected to designate Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana as majority leader, Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts as speaker, and Rep. Leslie Arends of Illinois as party whip.

Martin and Arends were unopposed and Halleck had only nominal opposition since the withdrawal of Rep. Clarence J. Brown of Ohio from the race.

Martin, becoming the first Republican speaker of the House since Nicholas Longworth of Ohio succeeded the gavel in 1951, preceded Sam Rayburn of Texas.

Leadership differences among House Democrats apparently were ended by a successful movement to "draft" Rayburn for the post of minority leader.

A high-ranking Democrat told newsmen last night Rayburn would be elected at the caucus and "he has no choice but to yield to the demands of his party."

Senate Republicans already had agreed, except for the formality of caucus approval today, on Senator Taft of Ohio as Steering Committee chairman, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan as president pro tem, Senator White of Maine as majority leader, and Senator Wherry of Nebraska as majority whip.

Their Democratic colleagues agreed to designate Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky as minority floor leader.

Indiana Prisoners Slug Guard, Break Out Window

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Officials of the federal penitentiary here searched today for four inmates who slugged a guard last evening and broke through a barred window in the prison kitchen.

Mrs. Birdie Hill, who was visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sidler when the plane struck the Sidler residence, was seriously injured. Jeanette Sidler, her four-year-old grandchild, was cut on the face.

Most seriously injured of those in the plane were Calvert and Clifford Jones of Birmingham, Ala. Both suffered broken legs.

Three other children of the Siders were not injured when the plane rammed into the rear of the home and demolished the kitchen in which Mrs. Hill was preparing supper.

Stop Bilbo At Door, Say GOP

Bi-Partisan Majority Of Senate Committee Says Senator Abused Office

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Senator Theodore G. Bilbo (D-Miss.), accused by an investigating committee of misusing his office and breaking the law, today faced a Republican move to strip him at once of his senatorial ship.

Chairman Robert A. Taft of the Senate Republican Policy committee disclosed that a majority of his group favors an attempt to "stop Bilbo at the door" at tomorrow's opening session—barring him from taking the oath of office.

A report signed by a bi-partisan majority of the senate investigating committee declared the evidence of its investigation "clearly indicates that Senator Bilbo improperly used his high office as United States senator for his personal gain in his dealings with war contractors."

Committee Chairman Kilgore (D-W. Va.), asserted that "in view of the scope of the findings the whole record is being laid before the attorney general, whose agents were previously disclosed to be studying the Bilbo transactions."

The little Southerner, plainly anticipating that the committee report might furnish ammunition for an ouster attack, called on his colleagues in a letter to keep open minds and read all the evidence.

A voluminous response to the report, prepared on Bilbo's behalf by his attorney, Forrest B. Jackson, said:

"The true evidence presented to the committee clearly indicates that Senator Bilbo was guilty of no impropriety as a United States senator and that he did not in any instance use his high office for his personal gain in his dealings with war contractors or any other persons."

Teachers Asked Not To Take Posts Without Contract

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The National Education Association called on teachers today to adopt a policy of "no contract-no work" in future negotiations with school officials.

The association outlined a long-range program which:

1. Urged a minimum of $2,400 per year for teachers, with regular increases leading to a "professional salary level for experienced teachers ranging from $4,000 to $6,000."

2. Opposed strikes in instances where contracts or agreements already are in existence.

3. Called for more state and federal aid for education.

Students Carry Demands For Ouster To Chiang And American Embassy

Nanking, Jan. 2.—(AP)—One thousand Chinese students today carried their demands for ouster of American servicemen from China to the U. S. embassy and Chiang Kai-Shek's headquarters.

They said they would march to the home of General Marshall, U. S. peace envoy to China, and to the Chinese foreign office tomorrow with their demands.

Chanting "Americans go home" and ignoring a ministry of education order banning such parades, the students carried petitions to Chiang's headquarters and the U. S. embassy.

The petitions demanded withdrawal of U. S. troops from China, and requested that the United Security Council order U. S. troops moved, and that full details of the alleged rape of a Peiping girl by two U. S. Marines be published.

U. S. Ambassador Stuart was absent, but Minister Walton Butterworth received the protesters' chairman and the petition. He gave the students Stuart's reply:

"U. S. Marine authorities are proceeding with the case as rapidly as the demands of justice and a democratic trial will permit."

In Peiping, Marine officials are preparing to put the charges before a court martial. They said, however, the Chinese police have not cooperated in the investigation; that one leatherneck defies any relations with the girl and the other insisted he had relations with her on a professional basis.

Farley Rumored In Line For Boom As Vice-President

New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The New York Daily News said today that a movement to boom James A. Farley, former postmaster general, as President Truman's vice-presidential running mate in 1948 "will be openly launched at the Jefferson Day Dinner here, sometime in April."

"At the same time, a group of prominent, progressive business men will get behind Farley," the News said, adding:

"Among them, it is expected, will be Bernard Baruch and Charles H. Silver, woolen executive and vice-president of the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation."

Commenting on the story, Baruch told the Associated Press: "I don't know anything about it and I am not having anything to do with politics." Farley declined comment.

Fulton Publisher "Best Qualified," Kilgore's Prepared Statement Says; Appeals For Unselfish Sacrifices

CITES WATERFIELD'S POLITICAL RECORD

Franklin, Ky., Jan. 2.—Ben Kilgore, strong contender for the Democratic nomination for governor in 1943, today removed himself from the ranks of possible candidates for governor in 1947 and pledged his active support for that office to Harry Lee Waterfield, Clinton and Fulton publisher and speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives.

In a statement in which he said that "I will not be a candidate for governor in the 1947 primary," Kilgore declared:

"It is my profound hope that all Democrats will unite this year on Harry Lee Waterfield, Clinton, Kentucky, because I believe he is the best qualified to lead us to a brilliant Democratic victory in November, and because I am confident he will give our great state an honest, progressive, and constructive administration."

Kilgore's announcement was considered to be of special significance in view of the fact that a poll of Democratic county officials of the state conducted at Frankfort has shown Waterfield is the leading choice among them as the Democratic nominee for governor this year.

Be More Careful

This is a good time for all of us who drive cars or trucks to remember to be doubly careful while driving on icy or snowy roads.

Yesterday's report by the Associated Press revealed that 30 of the first 32 violent deaths during the holidays were the result of traffic accidents.

The most dangerous part of winter, for the driver, is still ahead of us. Be careful, and save a life. It might be yours.

Our Congratulations

The Leader joins their many friends in Fulton in congratulating Mr. S. C. Jones, who is being transferred to Louisville by the Illinois Central Railroad, and Mr. E. R. McMahon, who has become trainmaster here succeeding Mr. Jones.

Both men merited their promotions, and we wish them every success in their new positions.

We also welcome Mr. F. A. Fitzpatrick, new assistant trainmaster who succeeds Mr. McMahon, to our city.

LITERARY DEGENERACY

One of the alarming symptoms of the post-war year just past is the shocking acceptance by the public of books which would have been barred from the mails ten years ago as vulgar or obscene.

These books are written largely by women. And several of them are best sellers for 1946.

It is, indeed, strange that a woman who can approach old masters of the past in description, and narration, will seemingly strain herself to include in her stories vulgar situations and expressions that one would hear only in night clubs or saloons a few years ago. They add nothing to the novels, and stamp their work as temporary in character, as the present low public moral standard is certain to pass away. (Paris, Tenn., Post-Intelligencer).

Cat Trapped

Chicago. (AP)—Herbert Carnes, an emergency man for the Anti-Cruelty Society, left a sick bed yesterday to rescue a cat which for five days had perched in the upper branches of a 65-foot tree in Aldine avenue.

The cat had balked other rescue attempts but Carnes succeeded in getting close enough to the animal to slip a noose over the yowling feline and pull it down into his arms.

Carnes took the cat to the Society's headquarters and went home to attempt to break up a severe cold.

Lady Cops Tops

Chicago. (AP)—Police Capt. Timothy Lynne, who has command of 60 policewomen, says they're better than men cops.

The women officers are less conspicuous than men policemen, said Lynne, and they are more persuasive talkers and thus can direct many potential law-breakers away from crime.

"Women are so darned stubborn," Lynne declared, "that it's only natural they should keep on digging at even the smallest clue."

"Proposals for a sales tax for Tennessee likely will meet with both measures of approval and disapproval—Dyersburg State-Gazette." That's a good, safe prediction, all right.

The Year Of The Boar

By Glenn Babb, AP Foreign News Analyst

To millions of Japanese who still believe in the old ways this is the year of the boar, symbol of turbulence and unrelenting. The ancient tradition, which grouped the years in cycles of 12 and assigned to each an animal of the oriental zodiac, was that the character of the New Year was likely to resemble that of its symbol. Nineteen forty-six was the year of the dog, faithful and docile. Believers therefore will expect of 1947 something different from the comparative tranquility of Japan's first full year of peace under American occupation and tutelage.

In his new year message to the 75,000,000 Japanese over whom he exercises the conquerors' authority, General MacArthur said the nation's progress in 1947 would determine "whether can be brought to fruition these great reforms now being charted."

"It is my prayer," the allied commander concluded, "indeed, my firm anticipation, that the Japanese people will understand and grasp this opportunity and rise resolutely to meet its challenge. Therein lies Japan's salvation x x x and therein lies the hope of all the peoples of the east for a better civilization."

Decisions already taken roughly chart Japan's course in 1947. The new constitution comes into effect May 3. A drastic program of agrarian change, giving land to tenant farmers, is to move toward completion. Labor reforms will place new power in the hands of the industrial masses. The constitution, while retaining the emperor, stipulates that he reigns by the will of the people and not of "heaven." It provides for a Democratic parliament. And, most revolutionary experiment of all, not merely for the Japanese but for all peoples, it renounces war and the possession of armed forces.

Close observers feel 1947 will determine whether Japan can become genuinely Democratic. Hitherto the reforms in that direction, sweeping as they have been, have been largely of form, on the surface. The masses, still dazed by the cataclysmic changes wrought by defeat and the shattering of old beliefs and loyalties, showed little real comprehension. But the loosening of old bonds will permit new ferment to work in the next year. Labor alone, with more than 4,000,000 workers organized in unions, will be flexing its political muscles. The peasantry, rescued from the quasi-serfdom imposed by the land tenancy laws and customs, is bound to acquire political consciousness and reject much of the old social fabric. The ability of such relatively conservative political elements as those represented in Premier Yoshida's government to keep these new currents under control will be severely tested.

Also tested will be the ability or willingness of the victor powers—to stand aloof and allow the Japanese to work out their own path toward Democracy regardless of what turmoil this may entail. For it must be admitted that in Japan, as in the other oriental lands in whose destinies we are interesting ourselves, the worldwide conflict between Western Democracy and Russian communism is a dominant factor. Thus far the Japanese communist party has been noisy rather than important, but the new ferment will strengthen it and Russian encouragement and support will always be at hand.

Kentucky Is Free From Jap Beetle, UK Reports Say

"Kentucky has many blessings, not the least of which is its freedom (as indicated by surveys in 1946) from such insects as the Japanese beetle and white fringed beetle," says a statement by entomologists at the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington.

"Of foreign origin, the above insects are serious and destructive pests. Adults feed upon vegetation above ground and the larvae or grubs feed upon and destroy roots and underground portions of plants."

"These insects are so destructive and so difficult to control that it seems appropriate that a warning be issued about their importation into Kentucky. The unauthorized movement of baited and poled plants from infested areas is perhaps the best method of spreading these pests. Everyone should exercise extreme care in this matter."

The Japanese beetle has been found in practically all states north and east of Kentucky and the white-fringed beetle in North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Deer sometimes eat their shed antlers for their calcium content.

PENNINGTON-DAWS CEREMONY PERFORMED

In a simple ceremony New Year's Day afternoon at 1:00, in the presence of only the immediate families, Miss Marjorie Daws was united in marriage with Charles F. Pennington. The wedding took place at the home of Elder Hardeman in Mayfield.

The bride and groom were attended by the bridegroom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Pennington of Jackson, Tenn. Also included in the wedding party were the bride's mother and sister, Mrs. M. E. Daws and Mrs. Ralph Crider of Mayfield.

The bride chose for her wedding a dress of aqua crepe, street length, with white accessories. Her corsage was American Beauty roses.

On returning to Fulton the bride's two tiered wedding cake, a beautiful work of art adorned with rose buds, hearts and topped with a miniature bride and groom, was cut and served to the guests present. The cake was a gift of and made by Finch's Bakery of Fulton.

After a short wedding trip to Jackson, Tenn., the couple will reside at 509 College.

The bridegroom is employed as a fireman for the I. C. Railroad. He served in the U. S. Army, spending approximately three years overseas in Italy and North Africa, in a railroad battalion.

PRAYER VERSUS CRITICISM "You can talk about me as much as you please, I'll talk about you down on my knees."

Two men were at odds. The one had spread some choice scandal about the other. The one thus vilified went to the other and said, "Will you be kind enough to tell me my faults to my face, that I may profit by your Christian candor and try to make amends?" The man agreed to do so. They went aside, and the former said, "Before you commence telling what you think is wrong with me, will you please bow down with me, and let us pray about the matter, in order that my eyes may be opened to see the faults as you will enumerate them? You lead in prayer." The man faltered, but in order to "save his face" he made an attempt to pray. When the prayer was ended, the man who had sought the interview said, "Proceed with your complaints." But the other replied, "Brother, I see it in a different light now. The truth is, I feel now than in going around and talking about you I have been serving the devil, and I need that you pray for me and forgive me the wrong that I have done you."

Talmage said, "Do not run to meet every heated whelp of malice that runs with its head down and its tongue out. The probability is that it is mad, and will only bite those who entertain it."

Bacon said, "Generous and magnanimous minds are the readiest to forgive; and it is a weakness and impotency of mind to be unable to forgive." "And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive you your trespasses." (Mark 11:25,26). — The Watchman-Examiner.

New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The National Collegiate basketball tournament, discussed every time a couple of coaches got together the past years, is likely to become a reality if the West coast gets some support from other sections at the coaches' meeting this week end.

Southern California's Sam Barry, who started things rolling a few weeks ago, reports the Pacific Coast conference is solidly behind the project. "School still will be in session, there shouldn't be any difficulty with arrangements and it will keep the boys playing baseball through the summer," Barry says. "The only question seems to be whether the other districts are ready to stage eliminations and send the winners west. Barry even hopes to get some of the surplus dough from the basketball turnouts to underwrite the venture. "We have about $38,000," he explains, "and we might as well take some of that to build up baseball. Otherwise it will just go to track or something else."

Stu Holcomb, Army Cage coach, tabs Kentucky and Oregon as the best teams he's seen this season and adds: "Oregon is just as good as Kentucky, but in a different way." Ray Dumont, thirteenth-year baseball tycoon, has awarded a trophy by the Wichita, Kans., advertising club as the person who did the most during 1946 to win national recognition for his home town—not to mention recognition for Hop Dumont. Ken Smith, perennial secretary of the baseball writers' association, is writing a book on baseball's hall of fame for spring publication.

Badgers Surprise Illinois By 53-47

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Wisconsin, which won only one Western Conference basketball game in the 1946-47 season against 11 losses, today was in the spotlight as a result of last night's 53 to 47 triumph over Illinois in the opening battle of the Big Nine 1947 title chase.

Going into last night's game at Madison, the Illini and the Badgers each had a record of five victories and two defeats against non-conference foes. Illinois, in last year's conference race, finished in a tie for fourth place with Minnesota, each with seven victories and five defeats. Illinois and Wisconsin were tied at 45-all with four minutes of the game remaining when Badger Forward Bob Cook, high scorer of the night with 20 points, teamed up with guard Glen Selbo and Center Ed Mills to put the game on ice. Forward Andy Phillip topped the Illini scorers with 16 points.

Illinois' Rose Bowl Victory Highlights January 1 Contests

New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Sports talk today centered around Illinois' almost incredible feat of knocking off a hitherto unbeaten UCLA eleven 45-14 before 92,000 stunned on-lookers at Pasadena's Rose Bowl.

It was by far the largest single game turnout of 20 bowl battles—the largest number ever—which treated a total turnout of 440,000 fans to 77 touchdown runs and passes.

The victorious Georgia, Rice, Georgia Tech, Oklahoma, Hawaii and Delaware teams all contributed to this New Year's display of gridiron fireworks, but the game that will be remembered longer than any of the others is the 33rd edition of the Tournament of Roses.

Inaugurating the Big Nine-Pacific Coast Conference five-year plan, the underdog Illini scored in every period except the third to register as many points against the bewildered Bruins as the Californians had suffered from their last seven opponents combined.

In only two other Rose Bowl games have teams scored more points. Michigan, in the classic inaugural in 1902, scored 49 points in blanketing Stanford, and Southern California registered 47 points against Pittsburgh in 1930.

A capacity crowd of 73,000, which came to watch a scoring duel between Georgia's All-America Charley Trippi and North Carolina's Freshman Charlie Justice saw the undefeated Bulldogs come from behind to hand the Tarheels a 20-10 lacing. Georgia scored all its points in the second half.

The duel between Trippi and Justice never materialized, since Trippi gained but 54 yards in 14 rushes and Justice only 31 in 17 attempts. Trippi completed two passes in seven attempts, netting 70 yards. One of his tosses brought a score, but another was intercepted to set up Carolina's score. Justice threw only one pass, completed it behind the line for a five-yard loss.

An 83-yard drive, climaxed by Halfback Carl Russ's 25-yard run and lateral to Huey Keeney, who ran another 25-yards for a touchdown, and a safety, all in

New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Stocks generally began the new year today with moderate advances although many market leaders remained in the minus ranks.

A sharp jump in net for the latest fiscal year lifted Cudahy Packing Stock around 2 points. Improved were Dow Chemical, Pennsylvania Railroad, U. S. Steel, General Motors, Montgomery Ward, International Harvester, Western Union "A", Allied Chemical and J. C. Penney. Hesitant were Chrysler, American Smelting, Sears Roebuck and Woolworth. Bonds were steady and cotton futures higher.

est school per capita in the history of our state. He was a powerful influence in securing vastly increased funds for farm-to-market roads for the next two years in the last legislative session.

"Harry Lee Waterfield has never been dominated by any economic group nor has he been tied to any party faction. He has been and will continue to be fair to farmers, workers and business. This is essential for a wholesome and sound administration. He is in a position to rally the support of all party factions and particularly the Democratic voters not interested in factions but in a unified party and in a Democratic victory in November."

"Proof of this was his success as state campaign manager for Roosevelt and Barkley in 1944. Under his leadership an $8,000 Democratic victory was rolled up. Kentucky is normally Democratic and will return to the Democratic fold by a large majority in 1947, through a united effort, under new and well qualified leadership."

"Harry Lee Waterfield is a young, well-trained and vigorous leader. He is of and for the people. He has served his party and his state constructively and well, at much personal sacrifice. He will give us a far-visioned and a constructive leadership, which will restore Kentucky to the front ranking states in achievement and in the prosperity and happiness of all the people."

Kilgore expressed his "deep gratification" to "my friends who helped me in 1943 and who have been so generous in offering to help me again in 1947."

WAA Attacked

For Favoritism

House Investigators See Bad Business Methods, Rap Stupendous Expense

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—A special House committee investigating surplus disposal accused the War Assets Administration today of "sloppy business methods" and "favoritism, if not downright corruption."

The committee declared WAA's cost of doing business is "stupendous, in fact prohibitive" and said the whole surplus property disposal program may end up "showing a net loss to the government."

The group, headed by Rep. Slaughter (D-Mo.), said in its final report the investigation should be continued through a

Illegal Gift Evidence Seen

Unions, Corporations Named By House Group For Election Donations

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The House campaign committee today reported "widespread violation" of the election laws and sent to the justice department a list of unions and 11 corporations it said had made campaign contributions which "appear" to violate the corrupt practices act.

In its final report of an investigation of the Nov. 5 congressional election, the committee also asserted the communist party had failed to file a report of receipts and expenditures of political parties. Attorney General Clark was asked to look into the matter.

There also was evidence, the committee said, that some of the congressional candidates themselves violated the law by falling to file required reports of their expenditures. The candidates were not named.

The list of unions whose names were turned over to the attorney general contained 58 specific cases of contributions ranging from $2.50 to $5,000. In some cases the same unions made several contributions either to the Greater New York Political Action Coordinating committee or the New York County American Labor Party Campaign committee.
