Sports Roundup
By Beth Faber, Jr.
New York, Jan. 6, 1947—Bob Feller, the Cleveland pitcher, has been daubed with the breadth of somber vision that is permanent to take him into uniform, and into the record books, as a living legend. Feller is the outstanding pitcher of the American League, with 143 victories to his credit. He has been described as "the most dangerous pitcher in baseball," and his fastball is said to be"as fast as a bullet." Feller was born on Nov. 19, 1917, in West Branch, Iowa, and began his professional career with the Minneapolis Millers in 1934. He signed with the Cleveland club in 1936, and made his debut in 1937. He was named the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1940, and has been a consistent winner ever since.

New York, N.Y., Jan. 6—(AP)—In some strange and alarming fashion, the Red Sox have managed to win six games in a row, despite the fact that their batting has been disappointing. The pitching has been outstanding, and the defense has been efficient. The Red Sox are currently in first place in the American League, and are likely to remain there for some time to come. The Boston fans are ecstatic, and the team is currently riding a wave of popularity.

Radiator Living
Developed for taking its toll.
By Mrs. B. K. Matthews
Bullittown, Ky., Jan. 6—Radiators are a necessary evil in the winter months. They are responsible for the spread of colds and flu, and are a major source of discomfort. The only solution is to move to a warm climate, or to install a central heating system. In the meantime, one can try to protect oneself by wearing warm clothing, and by staying indoors as much as possible.

Now, when switchboards are busier than ever—particularly during the rush hours of 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. and all evening hours—it may not be possible to answer every call promptly on everyone's behalf. But we don't like this situation either, so we are doing everything possible to speed up the manufacture and installation of additional switchboards.

Meanwhile, your operators want to thank you for your understanding and to invite your suggestions. Everyone will gather to make your service easier if you will avoid making your telephone calls during the busy rush hours and early evening hours, whenever it is convenient to do so.

Death from Fumes Closes Wedding Of Ohio Couple

One of the finest, most heart-warming changes in Kentucky since the turn of the century is the growth of industrial and domestic air conditioning and heating. This is particularly true in the large cities and manufacturing areas of the state.

In the past, when the cold weather was a problem, many people opened windows to let in fresh air. This was a mistake. Today, many people use air conditioning and heating units to keep their homes comfortable. This has led to a decrease in the number of deaths from fumes.
