Farm Bureau Enrolls 756 For This Year

This Is Largest Total In County Since 1941's 918

QUOTA IS EXCEEDED

J. B. McGehee, secretary-treasurer of the Fulton County Farm Bureau, said today that the year 1946 ended with more members on the roll than any year since 1941, when the "almost unbelievable" number was 918.

Jan. 1, 1947 shows 765 members in good standing, which is 65 members more than the quota, but "going over the quota is nothing unusual, as we have done that for 13 straight years, only our quota was not that large every year," said Mr. McGehee.

"Five of our seven communities have had their annual elections and have named their director-elect to be confirmed in February, Hickman and Palestine are the remaining communities who have not had their election yet."

Mr. McGehee, when asked names of the delegates attending the state convention in Louisville, stated "we will just have to wait until they returned, since the weather is cutting up so that nobody would promise a thing for sure."

Business Tax Is Discussed

Council Will Conduct Survey Of City Soon; Still Seeking Revenue

The Fulton city council will make a survey of all business establishments here in preparation for future discussions of assessing an occupational tax, it was decided last night at the body's regular meeting.

Results of the survey probably will be announced at the next council meeting. The occupational, or privilege, tax, was suggested as an alternative to installing parking meters in Fulton. The city council dropped the parking meter proposal after encountering considerable opposition from businessmen. A majority of the council still is convinced that the city needs additional revenue from some new source.

The councilmen examined a privilege tax ordinance in force in a nearby city for background information, but the question of levying such a tax in Fulton did not come to a vote.

Among other routine business transacted last night was approval of city beer licenses for Foad Homra, C. P. Bruce, Mrs. Alberta Grady and Robert Goodwin.

Obion Teachers Given Increase

In 46-47 Salary $200 Pay Raise Voted By Court At Union City

167 WILL BENEFIT

Salaries of all Obion county public school teachers for the school year 1946-47 were increased by $200 yesterday by the Obion county court in its regular quarterly session, which opened at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Union City.

Approximately 167 teachers, including principals but not the superintendent of schools, will receive the increase, according to the Union City Messenger.

Under terms of the resolution, teachers in the county since Dec. 1, 1946, will receive a payment of $100 on Jan. 15, next, this sum totaling over $16,000 to be paid out of some $17,000 now in the county's general fund and unappropriated.

The court also voted to provide for another payment of $100 at the April term of court, the payment to be made to the teachers on July 15, 1947.

This special increase to the teachers of Obion county is made by the court only for the current year, and is not to continue into succeeding years.

Action was taken by the court in the belief that the state legislature will vote all teachers of the state a $300 increase to be paid out of state funds starting with the next school year.

The resolution adopted by the court was one prepared by the Obion County Education Association, of which Ed Eller of South Fulton is president.

British Press Approved

London, Jan. 7—(AP)—Most sections of the British press today acclaimed President Truman's message to congress as transcending party lines and saw in his recommendations an honest effort to achieve national welfare and in turn world security.

Breaking a long silence on the situation in China, President Truman's personal envoy to Nanking declared that reactionaries in Chiang Kai-Shek's government "have evidently counted upon substantial American support regardless of their actions."

His statement, released by the State Department, a day after the White House announced Marshall is returning home to report, left wide open the questions of whether he will go back to China and whether China will be given the $500,000,000 loan it has been seeking from the Export-Import bank.

At the same time, he asserted that "the period of political tutelage" of Chiang Kai-Shek's government under the Kuomintang—the Generalissimo's party—is at an end, and added: "If the termination of one party rule is to be a reality, the Kuomintang should cease to receive financial support from the government."

Marshall's statement, released simultaneously in Washington and Nanking, concluded by saying: "I have spoken very frankly because in no other way can I hope to bring the people of the United States to even a partial understanding of this complex problem. x x x It is my duty to present my estimate of the situation and its possibilities to the American people who have a deep interest in the development of conditions in the Far East promising an enduring peace in the Pacific."

State Motor Bureau Talked

Proposed Department Would Consolidate All Administration Bodies

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 7—(AP)—Creation of a state department of motor vehicles, under which the scattered bureaus now handling motor vehicle administration would be consolidated, was recommended today to the governor's co-ordinating committee for highway safety.

The recommendation placed the highway patrol, division of motor transportation, and administration of the operator's license law, the financial responsibility act, motor vehicle regulatory laws and driver licenses under the single department.

Installation of such a department requires legislative approval.

Under the present setup, the division of motor transportation (trucks, taxis and buses) is under the department of business regulation; the highway patrol is under the highway department and driver licensing and the financial responsibility law are under the revenue department.

The proposal was submitted by Ben J. Brumleve, director of the state motor transportation division and chairman of the sub-committee on motor vehicle administration.

China Needs Liberal Leadership, Says Marshall; General Will Return To U.S., Meet With Truman

Washington, Jan. 7—(AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall today denounced the "dominant reactionary" group in China's Nationalist government, protested the "provocative" policies of Chinese communists and said liberal leadership is needed to end civil strife there.

Breaking a long silence on the situation in China, President Truman's personal envoy to Nanking declared that reactionaries in Chiang Kai-Shek's government "have evidently counted upon substantial American support regardless of their actions."

His statement, released by the State Department, a day after the White House announced Marshall is returning home to report, left wide open the questions of whether he will go back to China and whether China will be given the $500,000,000 loan it has been seeking from the Export-Import bank.

At the same time, he asserted that "the period of political tutelage" of Chiang Kai-Shek's government under the Kuomintang—the Generalissimo's party—is at an end, and added: "If the termination of one party rule is to be a reality, the Kuomintang should cease to receive financial support from the government."

Marshall's statement, released simultaneously in Washington and Nanking, concluded by saying: "I have spoken very frankly because in no other way can I hope to bring the people of the United States to even a partial understanding of this complex problem. x x x It is my duty to present my estimate of the situation and its possibilities to the American people who have a deep interest in the development of conditions in the Far East promising an enduring peace in the Pacific."

Marshall said that China's newly adopted constitution will provide an opportunity to form a Democratic government, but he noted that it remains to be seen whether the government will afford a "genuine welcome" to all groups to share in the administration.

His ire was directed at both the government and the communists, but was particularly bitter in discussing the propaganda of the latter group. He said that the "died in the wool communists" have not hesitated at the most "drastic measures to gain their end as, for instance, the destruction of communications in order to wreck the economy of China and produce a situation that would facilitate the overthrow or collapse of the government."

At the same time, he asserted that "the period of political tutelage" of Chiang Kai-Shek's government under the Kuomintang—the Generalissimo's party—is at an end, and added: "If the termination of one party rule is to be a reality, the Kuomintang should cease to receive financial support from the government."

Calls Teachers' Raise Illegal

Attorney General Says Constitution Prohibits Proposed $500 Increase

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 7—(AP)—Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit said today it would be impossible under Kentucky's constitution for the general assembly to provide a flat $500 a year increase for public school teachers.

His was the first official comment heard in Frankfort on a proposal by the board of directors of the Kentucky Education Association for such a method of helping teachers meet the cost of living.

Governor Willis has declined to comment on the KEA recommendation that he call a special legislative session for that purpose.

The attorney general stated the constitution specifies that state aid to schools must be on a per capita basis, that is so much for each child of school age in a school district.

That, he explained, would prohibit an appropriation to give each teacher a flat $500 a year raise.

Burley Prices On Ken-Tenn Floors Hit High Levels

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 7—(AP)—Burley tobacco prices rose on Kentucky markets yesterday to an average of $42.67 a hundred pounds, the state agriculture department reported, as sales reopened after the Christmas recess.

The department said yesterday's average was $2.38 higher than the last pre-Christmas sale on Dec. 20 and only eight cents below the season's record of $42.75 set Dec. 16.

Tennessee burley tobacco markets yesterday opened the second half of the 1946-1947 season with averages that passed $46 a hundredweight on four markets. Gallatin buyers paid $131.702, 27 for 284,944 pounds to set the high average of $46.52.

Theo Bilbo, Jr., May Be Candidate

Jackson, Miss. Dec. 7—(AP)—If Theodore G. Bilbo loses his fight for admission to the Senate, his son may become a candidate for the office in the state's November general election.

The senator's former wife predicted here today that their son, Lt. Col. Theodore G. Bilbo, Jr., would not be opposed if he decided to make the race. He is now with army occupation forces in Germany.

Asked whether she thought her son would be interested in a political career, Mrs. Bilbo said: "I couldn't say as to that, but I do know that when he was a child the senator wanted to make a politician out of him. But I put my foot down. We had too much trouble in politics."

Lt. Gov. Tuggle Said "Progressing Nicely"

Barbourville, Ky., Jan. 7—(AP)—Officials at the Knox county hospital said today that Lt. Gov. Kenneth Tuggle, admitted Dec. 24 with pneumonia, was "progressing satisfactorily." His condition was described as good.

Tuggle is a practicing attorney here.

Most Democrats Are Pleased With President's Message To New Congress; Help Promised

Truman May Fight Tax Cut

President Is Reported Ready To Send Congress Budget Of $37 Billions

Washington, Jan. 7—(AP)—President Truman was reported ready today to send congress a $37,000,000,000 budget and simultaneously take a strong stand against any tax cuts.

This speculative figure clashes head on with estimates already given reporters by the new Republican chairman of the House Appropriations committee, Rep. Taber of New York. He told reporters the needs of government can be met with about $29,500,000,000.

Also the President's view that any revenue surplus should go to reduce the public debt—as already indicated in his state of the union message—runs into a determined tax-cutting drive by chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) of the House Ways and Means committee.

Knutson contends congress can reduce levies on incomes up to $300,000 by 20 percent and still balance the budget by cutting expenses.

Thus the budget and taxes join labor law revision as the hottest issues of the new Republican dominated congress.

Usually well posted administration men say they expect the President in his budget message Friday to anticipate the Republican economy and tax drives with these arguments:

1. The only way government spending can be reduced is by cutting down on services and benefits to veterans, aid to states and similar programs voted by congress in the past and therefore not subject to reduction by Presidential action.

2. When the time comes that the government can afford to reduce taxes, first consideration should go to the lower income brackets plus such tax relief as will provide incentive to expand business and employment opportunities.

Saves Babies, But Dies In Flames

Philadelphia, Jan. 7—(AP)—A 19-year old mother burned to death today after dropping her two babies—15-month old Johnny and two-month old Francine—from a second-floor window to safety in the arms of neighbors.

The woman, Mrs. Ruth M. Bracken, then disappeared from the window apparently intent on saving valuables. When firemen reached her she was dead of burns. The home was destroyed.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Patterson, Jr.

New York, Jan. 7.—(AP)—The things that make a sports writer's life interesting... For a couple of days the story has been kicking around that Jim Tatum would quit as Oklahoma U. football coach to take a lucrative offer from Maryland... Mousetrapped at the grid coach's convention yesterday while he was listening to Herman Hickman's explanation of how to use the elbows legally but effectively in blocking, Tatum insisted it ain't so... "I'm going back to Oklahoma and look for a house," he claimed... Shortly afterward, Geary Eppley, Maryland athletic director, was asked the same question. After a lengthy explanation as to Maryland's problems and various possible ways of solving them, he admitted: "I'm going to talk to Tatum."

One-Minute Sports Page

Most ambitious guy around the football coaches' meeting is Frank Walton, former Pitt and Redskins player, who modestly admits he is the best line coach in the world (it must be that Frank says he's applying for head coaching jobs at Cornell, Colgate, California, N.Y.U. and any other place that's open... Ed McKeever's new coaching post it supposed to be announced today and it isn't any of those colleges you've heard mentioned.

Week's Worst Gag

In addition to Louisiana State's Joe Bill Adcock and Vandy's Billy Joe Adcock, the Southeastern conference has another contribution to basketball confusion in John Adcock of Auburn, who plays guard on the court and tackle in football... Dots All, Brothers

Max Perez, Irving Cohen's new French lightweight, makes his U. S. debut at Salem, Mass., tonight against Walter "Cabey" Lewis... Mexico City is cooking up a match race for a ride bet of 100,000 pesos between Tupi-namba, the $25,000 colt from Kentucky, and Pepe Verde, winner of the Juvenile Especial on Christmas Day. And how about a match race between Mickey Owen and Jorge Paquel?

Inez Still Tops In Cage Poll

Tilghman, Brewers And Hazel Green Advance; Hindman, Lone Oak Fall

Ashland, Ky., Jan. 7.—(AP)—Three teams—Paducah Tilghman, Brewers and Hazel Green—made sharp advances in Kentucky's "top ten" high school basketball poll during the past week. But regional correspondent of the Ashland Independent, which conducts the poll, retained confidence in Inez as the state's leading high school quintet.

The Indians, ranked first for the fourth consecutive week, boosted their season's record to 16-2 by defeating London, Hazard and Vico.

The top ten has two new members, Brewers and London, replacing Hindman and Lone Oak, who dropped into the second ten.

Paducah gained 12 points to take second place from Olive Hill, which lost to Morehead and defeated three other foes, including Louisville Male. Brewers also picked up 12 points in coming from 14th place to seventh. And Hazel went from eighth to fourth with a gain of 15 points.

Inez moved nearer to a perfect 90 point score, receiving a new high of eight first place votes and showing an increase of two points. Maysville got the other first place vote.

Automatic Hogan Headed For Clinic After Another Win

Los Angeles, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Automatic Ben Hogan, coasting to an easy three-stroke win in his first 1947 start, the Los Angeles Open, was more concerned today with his slinging shoulder than with golf tournaments.

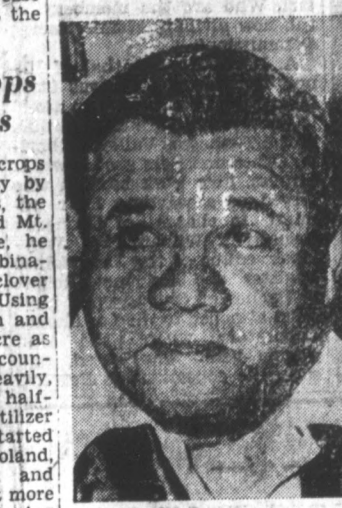

"I'm heading for a San Antonio clinic right after the Phoenix Open at the end of this month," said Hogan after he had breezed in with a 280, four under par for 72 holes over the rugged Riviera layout.

"I can't take much more of this," added the 36-pound Hershey, Pa., dynamite, explaining that his left shoulder bothered him throughout the four-day tournament.

How much more his opponents can stand seemed problematical as the golfing fraternity prepared to pick sticks and leave for the Bing Crosby pro-amateur at Pajale Beach, Calif.

To Ask NCAA For 'Sanctions'

Members May Enforce Amateurism By Threat Of Schedule Boycotts

New York, Jan. 7.—(AP)—The 252 member colleges of the National Collegiate Athletic Association are going to be asked whether they are ready to apply "sanctions" against schools which provide, among other things, room and board for star athletes.

The threat of a schedule boycott would be the means of enforcing the basic code of amateurism in athletics, according to recommendations drawn up by the NCAA's "conference of conferences" here yesterday.

The group, representing virtually every college conference and a number of so-called independent schools, recommends a set of five principles which it proposes to implement with an agreement that the schools which adhere to them will not play the non-conformist schools.

This hot potato will be handed over to the regular NCAA convention tomorrow and is certain to provoke a battle of words.

The principle of amateurism not only reaffirms the standard Amateur Athletic Union and Olympic definition of an amateur, but adds that "any college athlete who takes pay for participation in athletics does not meet this definition of an amateur."

Under this principle, room and board usually supplied to scholarship athletes is outlawed unless an athlete actually works for it.

The Southeastern Conference, which permits athletic scholarships including room and board, books and other necessities, is held up as the principal non-conformist group. The Southeastern Conference previously had indicated it would change its rules to conform with any adopted by the NCAA.

A second principle on "financial control and responsibility," on which the NCAA was founded in 1905, says that the college itself in the final analysis shall exercise them.

Wall Street Report

New York, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Individual stocks did fairly well in today's market while many leaders continued to exhibit slightly lower tendencies.

Dealings tapered after a moderately active opening and trends were somewhat cloudy near midday.

Reinvestment bidding still was one of the principal price props although numerous customers inclined to hold aloof to await congressional response to the President's advances and more light on the business picture.

Schenley, a weak spot Monday as a new low for the past year, recovered part of its loss. Reluctant were Chrysler, Great Northern, Baltimore & Ohio, Goodrich, U. S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, North American, Anaconda, American Smelting and Philip Morris. Laggards included Bethlehem, Western Union "A," Chesapeake & Ohio, General Electric, U. S. Gypsum, Owens-Illinois, Kennecott, Consolidated Edison and Standard Oil (N.J.).

Bonds were steady. Cotton futures slipped.

BROADWAY

By Jack O'Brian

New York—AP—Investors, Inc. just bowed a perfect 300 game at the Capitol Alleys and the theatrical kids who put $50 apiece into a treasury out of which they invest in Broadway shows, haven't done too badly so far, all things considered.

They just about have retrieved their investment in "Three to Make Ready," and the coming road tour should put them comfortably in the black. "The Hasty Heart," while not a financial success on Broadway, had a profitable road tour and movie sale, returning some 25 percent to the starry-eyed youngsters.

About their best angling to date is a small but enviable slice of "State of the Union," from which they've been paid 100 percent profit so far, with expectations of further hefty return on their carefully doled-out cash.

These youngsters lay out their dough with all the careful concern of a First National City considering the merits of a million-dollar loan. And after careful and thoughtful consideration of script, cast and production, they have a general assembly, talk it over and then invest sometimes as much as a hundred claims!

Virginia Davis, daughter of chain-store Bandleader Meyer Davis, flew home from Paris for the holidays; delivered to her millionaire daddy two French play scripts which she had translated from the vooley-vooley into American, picked up several original songs here and Constellation back.
