Automatic Hogan Headed For Clinic After Another Win

La Ang, Jan. 7—AP—Automatic Hogan, who was injured in the Miami Open, was more concerned about horse bordering than human at the Baptist Clinic in New York. Hogan, who turned 39 yesterday, was back in his home in Anderson, Ind., after a week's stay in Miami. Hogan's injuries were not serious, but his trainer, Ed Day, said that Hogan would not be able to run again until next fall. Hogan has been out of the saddle since the Miami Open, where he finished 12th in the 14th race.

To Ask NCAA For 'Sanctions'

Members May Endorse Amateurs By Threat Of Schedule Boycott

New York, Jan. 7—AP—The NCAA today issued its first threat of a schedule boycott, after the members of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) met in New York City to discuss the issue of amateurism. The NCAA has been under pressure from many college presidents, who have threatened to boycott the NCAA until the issue of amateurism is resolved. The NCAA has also been under pressure from the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), which has threatened to take action against the NCAA if it does not resolve the issue of amateurism.
