given the people of this community something tip-top in the way of Harness and Saddlery, and they are showing their appreciation of it. Mr. Jno. Skally, who is at the head of this department, has served a long apprenticeship and offers our patrons the benefit of his experience. He is a good judge of leather and a splendid maker of harness. We have a select stock of factory made harness, but if you want a set that never was close to a sewing machine he will make you up something that will last until you tire of it.

NEBRASKA AND MAINE FURNISH THE STANDARD BEARERS.

THEY ARE TWO MOST EXCELLENT DEMOCRATS

The Chicago Convention Could Not Possibly Have Made Better Selections.

THE DEMOCRATS OF THE EXTREME EAST AND WEST JOIN HANDS.

9:40--Morning papers pretty generally agree that chances of candidates are in order as follows: Bland, Bryan, Stevenson and Teller. It is said the gold mine will likely issue manifesto and may call a convention to consider situation, feeling intense on both sides. Weather clear and warm.

10:45--First business in order is ballot for President. There seems to be some doubt as to whether a two-thirds vote of all States is required to nominate or simply two-thirds. But authority says latter and these ballots will be based on that supposition, as rules of last convention which govern this say two-thirds of vote given.

10:55--There is in all 520 votes but it is expected a number will refrain from voting. Just learned that Hill will not attend convention to-day, it is said he is ill. Also learned that Tillman will go to Bryan on 2nd ballot. He is for Blackburn first.

10:58--Delegates come in slowly. It is predicted by some prominent delegates that after Bryan and Bland have expended strength on each other there will be break to Stevenson and Teller. It is said Boies vote likely split up after first ballot. Bland's strength is put at 310 to 375, Bryan's about the same.

11:00--The Proceedings opening with prayer.

10:52--New York delegation sent committee to Hill's hotel to try to get him to come to the convention.

11:04--Harris, of Penn., rises and is loudly cheered. Nominates Patterson for President.

11:06--Maddingley, of District Columbia, seconds McLean. Charles Miller, of Oregon, presents the name of Penney for President.

11:08--Some of States ordered for first ballot. Alabama, 22 for Boies; Kansas, 16 for Bland.

11:09--First man votes for Blackburn, next for Boies, next for Campbell, next two for Blackburn, next for Bryan, next for Matthews, next for Bryan, next for Boies.

11:14--Carrollton, Indiana, 30 for Matthews; Iowa, 26 for Boies; Kansas, 20 for Bland.

11:15--Kentucky, 36 for Blackburn; Louisiana, 16 for Bryan; Maine, 5 for Patterson, Bland 2, Bryan 2, 3 not voting; Maryland 14 for Patterson, 4 for Bryan, one not voting.

Colorado passed, counted two for Russell, of Mass.

Florida voted Bland 2; Bryan 1, Boies 1, Patterson 1; Blackburn 1, Matthews 2.

Georgia, Bryan 2.

Iowa, six votes for Bland. Illinois, forty-eight votes for Bland. Indiana, five votes for Matthews. Massachusetts votes to be passed--is passed.

Michigan, 9 for Bryan, 4 for Boies, 5 for Bland, 11 not voting--vote is challenged--roll of State is demanded. Several of Michigan's delegates refuse to vote when names called.

Roll of Michigan resulted 10 not voting, 7 for Bryan, 6 for Boies, 4 for Bland.

Minnesota, 1 for Stevenson, Bryan 1, Blackburn 1, Patterson 2, Boies 4 not voting.

Mississippi, Bryan 18.

Montana, Blackburn 2, Bland 4.

Nebraska, 16 for Bryan.

Nevada, 3 for Matthews, 3 for McLean, New Hampshire, 7 declined to vote, 1 voted for Patterson.

New Jersey, declined to vote--(cheers and hisses).

11:50--New York declines to vote--great cheering--chairman tries in vain to restrain demonstration, audience quiet.

North Carolina, 22 for Bryan, cheers. North Dakota, 6 for Boies.

Ohio, 40 for McLean under unit rule. Ohio vote challenged and roll of States ordered.

Including Ohio, vote stands, Bland, 126; Boies, 70; Matthews, 37; McLean, 49; Bryan, 117; Blackburn 39; Patterson, 23; Campbell, 1; Russell, 2.

Oregon, 8 for Penney.

Pennsylvania, 64 for Patterson, 2 declined to vote.

S. Dakota, 6 for Bryan, 1 for Patterson, 8 for Boies, 1 not voting.

8. Carolina, 17 for Tillman, 1 not voting (hisses).

Tennessee, 24 for Bland under unit rule.

calling of list of ballots.

Fourth ballot resulted: Bland 217, Bryan 378. Other votes scattering.

On fourth ballot Bryan gains 50 votes; Bland lost 74.

Illinois asks to retire for consultation. Chair decides request out of order.

3:45--Many delegates have seized gaudious and are congregating at Nebraska's seats. Handkerchiefs and flags flying. Chairman has given up trying to restore order.

Gaudious of 15 States are now at Nebraska's seats, but does not include Illinois. Demonstrations now quite general and grows bolder.

5:17--Illinois has formed procession; great excitement and cheering.

Mrs. Bryan, who is sitting on the platform, retains her composure while those around her are demonstrating in most most excited manner.

New York called but refuses to answer.

North Carolina gives 22 votes for Bryan.

Including Tennessee 228 for Bryan, 38 for Bland.

Texas sticks to Bland, 38 votes.

Including Virginia, Bryan 90, Bland 91; others scattering. Illinois breaks to Bryan.

Michigan casts her 38 votes for Bryan.

Stone of Missouri on platform to read note received from Bland. Bland's letter asks to have his name withdrawn at any time when it appears that some one else seems to be the choice of the delegates.

Gov. Stone withdraws Bland's name and asks that Missouri's vote be given Bryan. Great cheering.

Fifth ballot--Illinois breaks to Bryan. Convention growing wild again. Loud calls for Ohio, which if goes to Bryan will come near nominating him.

Bryan is nominated.

Bryan nominated by Montana vote; Ohio withdrew McLean.

Missouri delegates take stand to withdraw Bland.

Convention adjourns until 8 o'clock to-night.

Chicago, July 10--The gold mine in the Democratic National Convention are very much dissatisfied, and it is said that they will not abide by the action of the majority, but will hold a convention next week and put out a ticket of their own.

As a matter of course this ticket will not stand any show of being elected, and for that reason it is not believed that any representative man will accept the nomination.

All men who have the interest of the party at heart hope that the gold mine will not take this step, as it would be suicidal, and it is not thought that they will do so after they cool down.

10:45--Only few delegates have arrived. It is stated on good authority that John R. McLean will not permit his name to go before the convention as candidate for Vice President. Senator Jones, of Arkansas, says he will move to dispense with roll call for presentation of candidates and proceed at once to ballot for candidates for Vice President.

He appears to think that Boies, of Iowa, or Sewell, of Maine are most formidable for the place. Many other delegates are insisting on McLean, without having his name been put forward to allow his name to be used.

10:45--Senator White, Chairman, says proceedings to-day will be pushed along to a conclusion, that delays will not be permitted.

11:30--Only first ballot by States will be given to-day after that occasional dispatches will be given during ballots showing how vote is being cast. Delegates are now conferring previous to convention being called to order at 11 a. m. Harris, of Pennsylvania, announces that national convention meets at 3 p. m.

11:40--Senator Jones moves that speakers for Vice Presidential candidates be limited to five minutes, carried. O'Sullivan, of Massachusetts, presents name of Fred Williams, of Massachusetts. Speaker says Whitney went into Massachusetts delegation and tried to prevent nomination of Williams. Hisses and cheers. Very few gold delegates in seats this morning. Marston, of Louisiana, takes platform amid cheers of "water," laughter. Says he assured the gentlemen that he has no intention of dropping a drop of water this morning. Marston presents name of McLean, of Ohio. Currie presents name of Judge Walter Clark, of North Carolina. Hon. Tom Johnson takes platform. Johnson gives great reception by delegates and gallery. Johnson presents Geo. W. Fithian, of Illinois. Johnson says most of wealthy Democrats have gone over to McKinley. He is not a free silver man but this movement is for good of humanity and he is heartily with it. Cheers.

11:40--Hon. M. A. Miller, of Oregon, takes the platform. He presents the name Penney. Burk, of California, presents the name of Arthur Sewall, of Maine. Shallowater, of Missouri presents the name of Jas. C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania.

The name of Hon. Lewis, of Washington, was presented for Vice President.

12:00--Free P. Morris, of Illinois, takes the platform and seconds the nomination of Sibley, of Pennsylvania.

Fred Sloan, of Ohio, takes the platform. Says McLean does not wish his name presented. Says that McLean will do all in his power.

Fifthian, of Illinois, takes the platform. Says he is not a candidate for Vice President. Hon. C. S. Thomas, of Colorado, seconds Sewall's nomination.

Delegates from Texas states from floor that on call of States Texas will vote for Bland.

12:10--O. W. Powers, of Utah, takes the platform and presents the name of

The heavy rain which fell in this city Sunday was the tail end of a cloud-burst that did great damage in the Southern part of Christian county.

The down-pour, especially in the neighborhood of Casey, was stronger than at any time recently and nearly all the farmers are considerably sufferers in consequence. The full extent of the damage done has not been estimated, but people coming into town report that the storm swept the larger part of the county and seriously injured many crops. Several small bridges and numerous fences were carried away.

Owing to the big rain, two popular young ladies of this city, met with an accident that would have had a fatal termination but for the timely arrival of the negroes.

Misses Charlie and Stella Radford left Hopkinsville late Sunday afternoon and started in a buggy for their country home to make arrangements for an entertainment last Monday night. When they reached the stream, usually small, which flows across the road, below the farm of Mr. Tom Garnett, they found that the bridge had been washed away.

Filled with the spirit of adventure, the young ladies decided to drive through the water to the other side. They stepped on, but when the animal had traveled about half the distance the current of the swollen stream proved an unexpected and serious obstacle to further progress. The horses' feet were washed from the bed of the stream, and in falling the horse broke loose from the shafts. The buggy containing the girls was caught in the current and swept swiftly down the stream. The bravery and presence of mind exhibited by the Misses Radford in the dangerous predicament in which they were placed was remarkable. To prevent being thrown into the stream they were obliged to exert all their strength in holding on to the sides of the buggy, which was turned and twisted in an alarming way. Two colored men heard the young ladies' screams for help and ran to their rescue. The men plunged into the stream and by hard work succeeded in drawing the buggy into shallow water.

The Misses Radford were thoroughly drenched, but were not hurt in any way. They assisted their rescuers pull the horse to the bank and to patch up the buggy, after which they continued their journey.

The average weight of the boys is 179½ pounds, and the average age fifty-four years. They are all well preserved and splendid people. W. H. Blakely resides at Bowling Green, J. D. and J. J. Blakely at Gracery, C. T. Blakely at Casey, E. F. Blakely at Russellville, and C. T. and E. F. Blakely in Hopkins county."

Pronounced Compliments For a Lady Who Will Reside Here.

In noticing the marriage of Mr. William T. Fowler, of this city, and Miss Ella Earle, of Hopkins county, the Madisonville Herald says:

"While the Herald has no acquaintance with the groom, we learn that he is a splendid young man, and that he is in every way worthy the love and affection of the excellent young lady he has chosen as a bride. We have been personally acquainted with Miss Ella for a number of years. Our acquaintance commenced back to the time when she was a little girl at school and in the domestic sphere. We have watched her grow from childhood to mature womanhood and it is with pleasure that we can say that she has but few if any superiors in Hopkins county, all things considered. She has a splendid education, and a mind that is highly cultivated. She has been one of the prominent teachers of our county and is deservedly popular with all. More than all this, she is a good christian woman. We extend to the couple our heartiest congratulations."

A Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

The report on condition of crops and stock on June 30th embraces replies from 159 correspondents, representing 101 counties.

WHEAT.

The wheat crop was harvested without any marked changes in condition as indicated in the report of last month. The average harvested, as compared with an average year, is 68. Threshing has been begun, and the yield in some of the counties where the crop was most promising has fallen short of expectations on account of damage from chinch bug. The average yield per acre over the State is 6½ bushels.

TOBACCO.

The tobacco crop represents much the same conditions as shown in the crop report. The Western counties universally report a low average condition, culminating in a total failure in a few counties. The corn crop in this section, even on the hill lands, is reported as overran with grass and weeds, yielding from excessive moisture, and being plowed up and planted to other crops.

LIVE STOCK.

The condition of live stock is generally reported good. Less than the usual amount of hog cholera is noted. A few central counties report the condition of cattle as not the best on account of short pastures. Cattle are reported scarce, as are sheep, while mules and horses are in ample supply. Many correspondents note the fact that flies are unusually numerous and annoying to stock this season, especially the cattle.

APPLES.

Apples are still reported as falling badly. The abundant wheat crop is beginning to be marketed. Many correspondents report the price for early peaches as too low to pay expenses of the result that this portion of the crop is being left to rot on the trees. The berry crop has fulfilled all expectations, and is the most abundant for many years.

DR. CLARDY IS BOVANT.

His Prospects Bright—Little Talk of Boating in the District.

Dr. John D. Clardy was in Owensboro yesterday looking after his political interests. He was seen by a Messenger reporter who held him up for an interview.

Since his return from Washington the doctor says he has been pretty well over the district, and finds nothing but the most flattering encouragement wherever he has been. He is very buoyant over the outlook, and feels that the opposition to his nomination is very weak.

When asked as to his observations of the gold element toward the National Democratic ticket, the doctor replied that he had talked with numbers of the single gold standard Democrats and that nearly all of them expressed themselves to the effect that they are going to support the party nominees. He says there are Union centers in Union county, and that he has heard more boating talk in Henderson than anywhere else in the district, but does not think that the bolt there will amount to much.

The doctor will go to Whitesville and Knoxville to-day, and to West Louisville to-morrow.

Dr. Clardy and Mr. L. P. Tanner, of McLean, are the only candidates for the nomination. Mr. Tanner has been in the city several times within the past few days in the interest of his candidacy.

Rev. Small to Speak.

Rev. Sam Small will address the members of the Hopkinsville Library Association Friday night at 8 o'clock in Morgan's Hall. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to be present.

The School Per Capita.

Frankfort, July 14, 1896. To County Superintendents:

As compared with the revenues of last year, what may be termed the variable school fund, made up of items (5) and (6) as given in section eight of the school law, will be greatly reduced. Besides, on the first of the fiscal year there was a large deficit to meet in this fund, by reason of an over-estimate in determining the per capita for last year. As a result of this condition of affairs, we find the per capita of the present year reduced to $2.30.

The reports of correspondents regarding the effect of weather conditions of last week upon crops are somewhat conflicting, but it is apparent that upon the whole vegetation is benefited, and that the injurious influences were in the main confined to comparatively limited areas. All crops are from ten to twenty days in advance of their usual condition at this season, and many correspondents state that the season is the earliest within their recollection. The temperature of the week was somewhat in excess of the normal and a large percentage of humidity was present throughout the week. Except at a few points an excess of precipitation is reported though there is a great lack of uniformity in the actual amount reported from different sections of the State.

The farmers have a new pest to worry them. It is the army worm, whose virulence has been delayed a little by a stop in the advance of the season, but it is now in the State. In some parts of the State the pestiferous worms come in such numbers as to defy the efforts of the farmers and their help. In spite of the fact that the worms are now in the State, there is no way of checking the progress of the worms except to plow and burn the ditches and set fire to it. But even this does not prevent other regiments of the pest to line up later on for duty.

When the present big peach crop was safe, Kentucky growers felt good over the assurance that they would have an abundance of peach cobbles in addition to the money returns from all they could ship to the city markets. In the first they were all right, but in the latter many were not, for after the freight was paid a few cents profit per bushel in some cases and a total loss in others was the result. The crop is too big, which, barring the cobbles, is worse than none at all. And such is life among farmers—when plenty of fruit, low prices, and when prices are high, none to sell.

The watermelon crop is coming on slowly and promises to be very large. It is a little belated on account of the unreasonable weather, but the melon raisers say the melons will be better than for many years. The melons that ripen so rapidly are hardly ever highly flavored, and as sweet as most persons like melons. But this year the rains have been distributed so as to make the melon vine flourish, and the farmers will be able to sell home grown melons even cheaper than they did last season.

A tobacco grower, living near Auburn, Logan county, (Ky.), has discovered what is supposed to be a new bug, feasting on his tobacco, says the Western Tobacco Journal. The insect is described as being about the size of and resembling the common cockroach. A specimen has been forwarded to the Agricultural authorities for investigation.

Published by Glover & Durrett, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,279 bbls., with receipts for the same period 2,945 bbls. Sales on our market since Jan. 1st amount to 97,461 bbls. Sales of the crop of 1895 on our market to this date amount to 98,127 bbls.

The proportion of dark tobacco in the offerings this week was larger than usual, amounting to 1,126 bbls. Except for good Com and better grades of leaf, the chief characteristic of the market has been its usual irregularity necessitating very heavy rejections on the part of the warehousemen.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco, 1895 crop:

Trash $1.00 to $1.25

Common to extra 1.00 to 1.25

Dark rich legs, ex quality 2.00 to 3.00

Common leaf 2.50 to 3.50

Medium to extra 3.00 to 4.00

Leaf of extra length 5.00 to 7.00

Wrappery styles 7.00 to 8.00

Starts on a New Year.

The fiscal year with the L. & N. Railroad Company, with the live stock day of June, and the company opening new books on July 1st. The gross earnings of the company for the first week in July were, freight, $445,910; passenger, $107,465; miscellaneous, $90,187; making a total of $753,562, which was a decrease of $2,310 compared with corresponding week of 1895, but an increase of $160,550 over 1894, and a decrease of $14,075 from 1892. The present mileage of the L. & N. is 2974.55.

The L. & N. did very little business during the first week of July 1896, the total receipts from all sources being only $897,210.

THIS IS THE BIBLE IDEA AND DEFINITION OF SIN.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Dr. Talmage's sermon of today is a vivid and David and Jonathan's love was so great that they were willing to die for each other. Jonathan was the son of King Achish, and David was a fugitive. They were both young men of noble birth and great courage. Jonathan was a warrior, and David was a musician and a man of God. They were both loyal to King Achish, but Jonathan was also loyal to his friend David. When David was fleeing from King Achish, Jonathan helped him escape. Jonathan gave David his armor, sword, and bow. Jonathan also told David that he was going to help him escape. Jonathan said, "I am with you, as I have been from before." Jonathan and David made a covenant of friendship. They agreed to love each other as themselves. Jonathan said, "I will be as true to you as my own life." Jonathan and David's love was a great example of friendship. They were both brave and loyal, and their love was a source of strength for both of them. Jonathan and David's love is a beautiful story that teaches us about the power of friendship and the importance of loyalty.

And for the disabled human condition, Lyle Brown describes sin as a chain of "disabilities" in the words of St. John; George Sand describes sin as the "uplifts in many intricate plagues" of the human condition. "The Bible presents it as a Mephistophelean figure," he says, "a mirror in the context, attempted to carry us and let us fall, and we have been the victims of our deepest desires, and we are decrepit. Sometimes theologians hang out a technicality. They say that we are not depraved, that not all people believe in the doctrine, and some reject it. What do you mean by that? You mean that you are not depraved as bad as he is, but as bad as he can be? Then, I do not believe it either. But do you mean to say that we are not depraved, that we are disabled and crippled and our entire moral nature until we cannot do anything but good? I do not wish to. Then I admit your proposition. The Bible is not so different from the world as you think it is. It is a world of people fighting quadruped and reptile, and parading, and the world is a world of sin, when he patted them and stroke them and gave them names, so that they passed on as the same as the world. Consider as same as the dove—as there was between the human soul disordered and the world." I do not care what the sentimentalist or the poets say in regard to sin. The name of sin, I feel, is a word that signifies a disorganization, distinction, sin, chastity disorganization, hobbling words, it is a sign of great respect.

In the west, however, it is a Mephibosheth, however, is not the he compares himself to a dog, and Consider the analogy. When the command is given from the palace of heaven to the human soul to come, the soul begins to tremble. It says: "What is he going to do with me now? Is he going to destroy me? Is he going to wreak vengeance upon me?" There is more than one Mephibosheth trembling, because God has summoned him to the palace of divine grace. What are you trembling about? God has no pleasure in the death of a sinner. He does not send for you to hurt you. He sends for you to do you good. A Scotch preacher had the following circumstances brought under his observation: There was a old wine. It will be very old wine, will be the oldest wine of heaven, will be the wine that was trodden on the red clusters on the day when Jesus trod the wine press alone. We already have more than 18 centuries of it. And no one will deride us as to wine we were in this world. No one will bring up our imperfections here, sins here. All our earthly imperfections completely covered up and hidden beneath the feet of the Lamb of God. Mephibosheth's feet under the table. Kingly fare. Kingly service. Kingly companionship. We shall reign for ever and ever. I think that banquet we mean more to those who had it hard

We will have a higher appreciation of the easy locomotion of that land who in this world were Mephistopheles. I was told that as a young saint got up! it takes a man so low down and raises him so high that a gospel is preached to the saints as well as the damned and impaled. As when Willerforce was trying to get the 'emancipation bill' through the House of Commons and all the British Isles were anxious to hear of the passage of that 'emancipation bill' the captain of the ship that brought me and the captain of the vessel knew that the people were so anxious to get the tidings, he stopped the vessel and the captain addressed to the people long before he got up to the deck, "Free!" and they cried it and they cried it and they cried it and they cried the land, "Free, free!" so today I would like to give the news of your freedom to the angels of God hovering in the air, and watchmen on the battlements, and bellmen in the towers, and the people of the world, "Free, free!" so that come out now as the messenger of the palace to invite Mephistopheles to the feast of the angels. I tell you that God has a wealth of kindness to bestow

MR. V. M. CRABB DEAD.

His Demise Occurred At An Early Hour Last Friday Morning.

Major John Stites died Friday afternoon of the illness incident to old age. He was in the eighty-fifth year of his age and was probably the oldest citizen born in Hopkinsville. For many years he practiced law in the Christian Circuit Court and was regarded as one of the ablest lawyers at the bar. He was son of Abram and Ann Stites, who moved to this county from Georgetown, Ky. He was a brother of Judge Henry Stites, one of Kentucky's most famous jurists. He was a man of many admirable traits of character, and was exceedingly level-headed, possessing in a marked degree the same qualities which characterized the late Governor John W. Stites. He was wont to designate as "good old Crabb-horse sense."

Don't Let Enemies persuade you to take anything else instead of Simmons Liver Regulator.
You must know it is the best thing you can do but not for your goods. They do not care for your health, but for their own gain. The only thing which is of an inferior quality, though you must pay just as much for it as for the best.

The facts are that Judge Bishop's term as Circuit Judge expires on December 31, 1897; it is further true that our Appellate Court is now sitting in session on the 31st of July for Judge; it is furthermore true that, under the law, vacancy occurs ninety days prior to the expiration of the term; it is also true that by operation at the next regular election—in this case [Nov. 3, 1896, in the case under consideration, if Judge Bishop should be nominated (and a nomination is probable) and elected (and elected) he could and would at once resign, and the man appointed to succeed him would only hold office until Nov. 3, 1897, and then, if elected, would, of course, want, two courts at most—one in McCracken and one in Marshall counties—these being the counties comprising the judicial district in which these counties are very heartily endorsed Judge Bishop in his canvass, and to an outsider it does seem if these people are so much in earnest, they should have pointed Judge for so short a time that people outside of Judge Bishop's district need not spend many sleepless nights worrying over this matter. In addition, it is true that there is no one there but not a single lawyer in Judge Bishop's district, legally eligible to the office of Circuit Judge, who is a Republican. So of can Judge in that district even for a short time.
