Sports Roundup by Hugh Patterson Jr.

New York, N. Y.—The Qualified One has passed away. Mr. Patterson, who has been an important figure in the world of sports for many years, has decided to retire from his position as sports editor for the New York Times. The Qualified One was known for his insightful analysis and his ability to predict big upsets.

Dr. Charles Leach, director of the University of Kentucky's Department of Athletics, announced today that the university will begin a search for a new sports editor to replace Mr. Patterson. The new editor will be responsible for selecting the Qualified One as the sports figure of the year.
