15 Delegates Enjoy Meeting Of Farm Group Say 1947 Session Was Biggest, Best In State History

STONE IS DIRECTOR

Fulton county's 15 delegates, all of whom were present at the State Farm Bureau convention at Louisville, came back reporting that it was the biggest and best convention ever held in the state.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Stone, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, John P. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, A. C. A. office assistant, C. A. Binford, Roy Bard, H. M. Fawcett, Harvey Bondurant, Leonard B. Maddox, H. J. French, John B. Watts, county agent, J. D. Jones and J. B. McGehee, secretary.

Roscoe Stone represented the state organization as director, and was again re-elected in that capacity by acclamation.

Lewis P. Allen, of Bowling Green was re-elected president; H. M. Roseberry, Bourbon county, first vice-president; and J. Fred Pace, Cumberland county, second vice-president. Various directors were elected from eight districts. The other two directors elected from the first district were M. W. Thorne from Trigg county and R. I. Cooke from Ballard county.

J. B. McGehee assisted in a panel discussion on field crops and improved pastures, and J. French attended the insurance banquet and meeting that followed for all agents.

The most outstanding feature of the program was the speech of Allen B. Kline, vice-president of American Farm Bureau Federation, and who is also president of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation. He followed Mrs. Chas. W. Sewell, "Farm Bureau's Sweetheart," on the night of the banquet, which 1,000 people attended. Mr. Kline's excellent personality, his unusually pleasant voice and his ability to blend humor and facts made his audience want to hear every word.

Clifton P. Anderson, Secretary of Agriculture, also delivered an address on Thursday morning. Many other features were outstanding, and the delegates were enthusiastic about the future success of the Farm Bureau.

The measure provides that $14,000,000 of the estimated $20,000,000 income should be used for educational purposes, most of it to provide a flat raise of $300 annually for each public school teacher in Tennessee.

Other members of the Obion county delegates to the TEA meeting were Supt. Milton Hamilton, Grade School Supervisor C. D. Hilliard, C. D. Parr, W. B. Forrester, W. T. Latimer, R. A. Fowlkes, Mrs. Nell Foresee, and Mrs. Mary Louise Welch.

CIO Organizers Agree To Leave Bruceton's Siegel Shirt Factory After Picketing, Violence

Bruceton, Tenn., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Two CIO union organizers agreed today to cease their organizational activities at a shirt factory here after a group of roughly-clad, determined men marched to their boarding house and asked them to leave town.

The representatives of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America—Miss Edith McGill of Birmingham and Miss Mary Morgan of Knoxville—agreed to the demands of the men-folk of the women-employees at the Henry I. Siegel shirt factory.

Subsequently, Miss McGill reported an agreement had been reached with City Marshal Hill Taylor and Lindel Cole, spokesman for the group of men, for her to return here from nearby Huntington, Tenn., tonight and await her trial on charges of assault and battery.

"We will not engage in any more organizational activity this week," said Miss McGill. "The CIO will continue its efforts to organize the plant, however. We will leave Bruceton this weekend."

Miss McGill said there would be no more picketing of the plant immediately. Yesterday she was among a score of women and three men who were charged with assault and battery after a clash with the workers as they streamed into the plant for work. Hearings will be held Saturday.

It was because of this flare-up of violence that the men accompanied their wives and daughters to the plant this morning, and then in an impromptu forum decided to ask the organizers to quit this West Tennessee town of about 2,000.

"After a three-quarter mile march in a drizzling rain, the escorts summoned the union leaders to the door of their boarding house."

"We don't want any trouble," said Cole, a 40-year-old farmer. "We just want you leave town as before noon. If you don't go we will call on you again tomorrow morning."

"We will leave before noon," replied Miss McGill.

City Marshal Hill Taylor stood by as Cole spoke to the women, saying he was present "to see that there is no trouble."

Taylor said he had promised the organizers they would not be harmed.

The men who accompanied their wives and daughters to the shirt factory gates for the 7 a. m. opening broke up immediately after their spokesman told the union organizers of their stand.

Before dawn the men, mostly benton and Carroll county farmers and day workers, made their way to the plant determined to see that no one interfered with their women-folk.

Union spokesmen were unavailable for comment.

There was no repetition of the fist-fights that marked the start of work yesterday and resulted in a score of persons being arrested and charged with assault and battery.

Washington, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Senator Barkley (D-Ky.), declaring himself a strong supporter of reciprocal trade agreements, said yesterday that such treaties are the only satisfactory way for nations to do business.

Under the reciprocal trade treaties, nations work out their tariffs after dickerings with and making concessions to each other.

The veteran Kentucky senator's statement was made to a special committee for reciprocity information which started hearings yesterday and will turn over the data it gets to President Truman. The hearings are expected almost a month. The President will use the data as a guide in drawing up trade agreements with 18 countries.

Senator Barkley put in a plug for Kentucky's burley tobacco. It is good stuff, he declared, and expressed hope many of the 18 countries will become markets for the burley leaf.

Rep. Joe Bates (D-Ky.) seconded.

No Successor For 'Gene Yet

Georgia Legislature's Joint Meeting Recedes Due To Lack Of Order

Atlanta, Jan. 14.—(AP)—A joint meeting of the Georgia legislature to select a successor to the late Governor-Elect Eugene Talmadge resulted in bedlam today, and a recess was called until 2 p. m. after repeated efforts to restore order failed.

The confusion started when members of the senate started to file into the house chamber for the joint session that will decide whether Talmadge's 33-year-old son, Herman, will succeed to the governorship or whether it will go to Lieutenant Governor-Elect M. E. Thompson.

When the senators were unable to find seats, President William Dean ordered the chamber cleared, but when the legislators again filed back in there still were no seats and after attempting for an hour to clear the chamber of all except members and newsmen, Dean declared the session adjourned.

Forces backing Talmadge won a preliminary victory in the senate when that body decided to proceed with the canvassing of the votes for governor. Thompson leaders had sought to have the joint session canvass votes for all officers at the same time so as to assure his election as lieutenant governor at the same time as the decision on the governorship.

McDowell Home Dropped As Park; Others Are Eyed

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Announcement that the state parks division has ceased operation of the Dr. Ephraim McDowell home in Danville and might drop others was made today.

In his annual report to the governor, made public today, Parks Director Russell Byche said the Danville residence where the first ovariectomy was performed had proven uninteresting to the general public.

He added that two others, the Weisiger Memorial (Constitution Square) in Danville, and the William Whitley home in Lincoln county "are quite plainly in the same category."

The annual report, for the fiscal year ended last June 30, also said that newspaper advertising has proven effective in attracting tourists and the division expects to do more of that.

Tomato Program To Be Continued

Mayfield, Ky.—The Graves County Farm Bureau Co-operative Marketing Association will continue the green-wrap tomato program as usual through the 1947 season, it has been announced by H. C. Spillman, chairman of the board of directors.

The directors and growers were disappointed with the outcome of the 1946 green-wrap tomato crop. This cannot be blamed on condition of the market, a board spokesman said. Good tomatoes brought from fair to good prices throughout the 1946 season. Due to continuous rains during the fruiting period, tomatoes in this area grew too large and would not ripen without decaying, it was pointed out.

Attorney General Clark Asks High Court To Uphold Fines Imposed Against Lewis, UMW

Lewis' Conduct "Was Insult To United States"

DEFINES AUTHORITY

Washington, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Attorney General Tom C. Clark contended in the Supreme Court today that John L. Lewis' course in last fall's soft coal strike was "an insult to the United States itself."

Asking the high tribunal to uphold the $3,510,000 in contempt fines imposed on Lewis and the United Mine Workers, Clark argued the government sought only to maintain governmental functions when it turned to the courts for an order against a coal strike.

When Lewis disregarded that order, he said, it was a "contempt" that was an "insult" to the country and "compromises all law and invites mob rule."

"Surely," Clark said, "Government has the authority and the power to defend itself against destruction from within—as it has the duty to defend the country from destruction from without."

"When that issue is involved no one is immunized—no person or group is beyond the reach of the arm of the law—and no person is above the law—and this is a country and government of laws."

Clark led off for the government in a case expected to set far-reaching precedents in interpretations of laws applying to organized labor. One is whether the Norris-La Guardia Act, which has been on the statute books for many years, bars the government from seeking an injunction against a union.

The law outlaws injunctions (orders to do this, or not to do that) against unions in labor disputes with private employers.

Lewis' attorneys contend the law applies also to the government and that hence the miners' union chieftain was within his legal rights when he ignored an order by U. S. District Judge T. Alan Goldsborough against a strike. They said Goldsborough had no right to issue the order.

Goldsborough ruled the disregard for his order was "contempt" and levied the fines. To speed a final ruling, the case was taken directly from his court to the Supreme Court.

Lewis then called off the strike until the Supreme Court could act. His miners are under orders to continue working until March 31.

Can You Afford It?

What do we pay for our traffic accidents? In Lansing, Mich., a town of 75,000 population, the total cost to those involved in traffic accidents during the past year was $414,330. Total direct costs, including maintenance of police, courts, etc., totaled about three-quarters of a million dollars.

What does this mean? It means that what happened in Lansing happens in other cities throughout the country. It can also happen here.

It means that the current asking price for one medium-sized smashup is enormous. Not only in terms of dollars and cents but also in terms of man-hours lost from work.

In terms of cold hard cash the average victim—and this applies everywhere—loses $770 in salary, pays $22 doctor and hospital bills plus $25 miscellaneous bills such as attorney fees, fines and settlement of other parties' claims, and is stuck with a $220 auto repair bill as well, if he is a car owner.

That's the average cost of driving and walking carefully, according to a study of the costs of traffic accidents made at Lansing by the National Conservation Bureau and the local council.

Average costs per accident, if you are in an accident, are: uninjured drivers, $72; injured drivers, $206; injured passengers, $206; injured pedestrians, $648.

School Spirit

Last Friday night when the Fulton High Bulldogs played at Clinton it was a privilege to see such an exciting game and one which was played on the up and up as the Jackson Purchase schools are noted for. Not only was the game exciting to the last minute, when Clinton scored the winning point, but school spirit reigned throughout the game.

Never before have the students of Fulton High shown such enthusiasm in any sport as was shown on the court at Clinton. In any sport, school spirit must be dominant, and the students supplied it. Whether winning or losing during the game, cheers were heard from the crowd, encouraging the boys to fight harder, and the boys can say truly that their backers did not let them down.

The students of Fulton High, and also the people of Fulton who cheered for "dear ole FHS," are to be complimented on the spirit they showed for the boys and the game.

Solidarity Essential

By Dewitt MacKenzie,
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, new Republican chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, sounded warning in his address before the Cleveland foreign affairs forum last weekend that "we face the intimate necessity of refreshing our indispensable Pan-American solidarity."

"There is too much evidence," declared the senator, "that we are drifting apart—and that a communistic upsurge is moving in. We face no greater need than to restore the warmth of new world unity which reached an all-time high at San Francisco" (at the conference which organized the United Nations).

Yesterday there came from Brazil a news dispatch which forms an important parenthetical addition to Vandenberg's statement. President Eurico Gaspar Dutra of Brazil advised his countrymen for the first time not to vote for communists in next Sunday's election. He said the people must support only "those parties which do not propose to scrap the constitution and take power for their own dictatorship, for one class or group. He added:

"Democracy neither is nor must be passive. It has the right to defend itself. It is unthinkable that the liberalization of its freedom go as far as its own destruction."

And why the need of solidarity among the many nations of the western hemisphere? The answer obviously is "mutual advantage." Specifically the chief gain lies in the military security which it would afford—at least in these perilous days when peace is on the wing, with far too many folk blazing away haphazardly with pump-guns in its vicinity.

Back in March of 1945 just such defensive solidarity was provided for in the act of chapultepec adopted by the Pan-American conference in Mexico City. That was in part a war-time measure, but it also contemplated the setting up of a permanent inter-American general staff of draw up plans for hemispheric defense, effective use of methods to prevent the growth of subversive activities, and complete outlawing of totalitarian agents.

The act of chapultepec held bridge the remaining days of the war, but many of the ideals which were to be projected into the peace still remain to be implemented. Our "indispensable Pan-American solidarity" certainly does need "refreshing." There are some mighty weak spots in it.

A vital point to remember is that prevention of the growth of subversive activities is quite as essential to hemispheric security as is joint military defense. Why? Well, because the establishment of even one anti-democratic, totalitarian government, with its roots in some subversive Europeanism, would provide a base not only for political activities but for possible military action.

Of these two dangers, the greater is the political threat. The subversive element, once in control of a country, would be able to bore in all directions. Once a totalitarian bloc had been established in the Americas, the ideals of the act of chapultepec would be far from the fire. Then only a major war could restore democracy.

So one can understand why Senator Vandenberg feels that "it is past the time to hold the Pan-American conference which we promised in 1945 (at the San Francisco conference), and there to formally renew the joint new world authority which is the genius of our new world unity."

Miss Sarah Jane Jolley Becomes Bride of A. W. Green, Jr., Sunday, Jan. 12

Flowers, spotlight, traditional and beautiful wedding music—all were combined in the wedding of Miss Sarah Jane Jolley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jolley, and A. W. Green, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Green, Sunday morning at 9:30 at the Jolley country home on the Martin highway.

The Rev. Bob Covington, pastor of the Liberty Baptist church, read the impressive double-ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

In a setting matching the quiet beauty of the lovely young bride, the vows were read before the fireplace in the living room. A wealth of soft green fernery and a large floor basket of green and painted white ivy banked the entire fireplace. On the mantel was a lovely arrangement of white gladioli and carnations, and gleaming white tapers that reflected in the mirror above the mantel. Gladioli, carnations and lighted tapers also were placed on the piano. Miss Martha F. Collins lighted the candles.

The program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. James T. Fowlkes, pianist, and Miss Mona Pay Berry, vocalist. Mrs. Fowlkes played "Träumerei" by Schumann, "Intermezzo" by Provoost, and during the ceremony softly played "Till The End of Time." Miss Berry sang "To Each His Own," and "All For You" by Brown.

Mrs. Fowlkes wore a becoming dressmaker suit of black crepe. Miss Berry was attired in black velvet and crepe. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Given in marriage by her brother, Billie Jolley, Jr., the bride wore a strikingly simple model of soft rose wool with a black sash belt trimmed with gold nail heads. Her little black felt hat that sat on the back of her head was swathed in veil and a complete match for her belt. Her only ornament and the "something borrowed" was a gold and pearl brooch. She carried a white prayer book overlaid with gardenias and white satin ribbon. In the leaves of the prayer book she carried the "something old," a rare old lace handkerchief that has been carried in weddings for generations. Miss Catherine Grimes of Memphis was her maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a becoming suit of aqua gabardine with a corsage of blue Dutch iris.

Charles Allen Green attended his brother as best man. Mrs. Jolley, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Green, mother of the bridegroom, both wore black crepe with corsages of white carnations.

After the ceremony, a cake cutting was given by the bride's parents. The table was centered with a lovely arrangement of white gladioli and carnations, flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabra.

A beautiful three-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, decorated with hearts, swans and bows of white satin ribbon all around the base, was placed at one end of the table, and a large crystal punch bowl at the other end. The all-white and green color scheme predominated throughout the wedding also was carried out in the refreshments and napkins.

Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Royce Jolley, Mrs. Mary Ellen Ashby, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Martha F. Collins and Catherine Grimes.

Later in the morning Mr. and Mrs. Green left by motor for Miami, Fla. For traveling the bride wore a brown gabardine suit and a corsage of gardenias.

Following the refreshments the hostess entered, bearing a huge gold "key" daintily tied with ribbon, which she presented to the bride-elect with the request that she read the inscription thereon:

"Treasure we are told is hidden, as of old; So behind the doors of life Our gifts we have stored To you, fair bride-to-be, Open and behold What you may see."

The bedroom door was opened to reveal the gifts.

Those present were Miss Jolley, Mrs. W. L. Jolley, Mrs. Albert Owens, Mrs. G. L. Nanney, Misses Martha Collins, Catherine, Dorothy Nanney, Lois Winfrey, Josephine Shankle, Lydia Payne of Fulton; Mrs. Robert Wade, Mrs. O. E. Garton, Misses Adelle M. and Beulah Clark of Union City.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton

New York, Jan. 14—(AP)—Jumping John Hargis, who has been hitting about 20 points a game for Texas U's basketball team, picked his college because he wanted to play baseball for uncle Billy Ditch. And he worked for a year after leaving high school to get enough dough to enter college. . . . Dodger fans have picked "neglected" Pete Reiser as "sports king" of the March of Dimes Ball and will name two queens to reign with him. . . . Has anyone pointed out that Smiley Quick, the first public links golfer to make a United States Walker Cup team, will play his international matches on a public links—St. Andrews?

Sure As Death And Taxes

When the Indiana U. basketball team went to play Ohio State, Coach Branch McCracken made his players walk from the railroad station to their hotel. . . . Upon arrival, freshman Center Charley Meyer assembled the squad in the lobby and said: "Listen, fellows. We gotta start winning some of these games for the coach will have us hitch hiking to games."

End Of The Line

After seeing some of the lobby huddles during last week's NCAA convention, it might be a good guess that Southern California and Rice will be getting together on a football date before long. . . . Tom Hayes, one of Army's better end prospects for 1947 football, also is rated a standout baseball pitcher. . . . Syracuse's Archbold gym burned down the other night. We knew nothing good would come of this "fire house" basketball.

5 Ky. College Games Played Monday Night

Murray Nosed By DePaul 50-47 In Paducah Tilt

UK TOPS VANDY

Five Kentucky college teams saw action on the basketball floor last night as the University of Kentucky rolled over Vanderbilt, 82-30, at Nashville and Morehead State Teachers conquered Cedarville College of Ohio, 89-45.

In other games, Union College scored a 53-28 victory over Carson Newman college at Barbourville; Georgetown College's Tigers handed Hanover College of Indiana 51-38 loss at Carrollton; and De Paul University of Chicago managed to trim Murray, Ky. State, 50-47 in a hard fought game at Paducah.

The only Kentucky team playing tonight is Western Kentucky State Teachers which meet Evansville College on the Indiana school's floor.

Kentucky's triumph over Vanderbilt was one of the worst defeats in the Commodores' Cage history and was their second consecutive SEC loss.

Groza collected 13 points for Kentucky while Lawrence led the scoring for Vanderbilt with 11 markers.

In the Morehead-Cedarville College tilt at Morehead, Parw Prater led the Eagles on their scoring spree as he hit the net for 23 points while Clayton Murhan sparked the Ohio Quin-

Union had little difficulty in turning aside Carson Newman, moving into a 25-13 lead at the half and coming back to present a stiff defense which limited the visitors to ten baskets from the field.

The Georgetown-Hanover College contest was the first college basketball game ever played at Carrollton. Profits from the contest will be used to help finance a community center in honor of the county's war dead.

Murray's last minute attempts to whip De Paul fell by the wayside due to the deft ball-handling of the Chicago squad.

Johnny (Red) Reagan, Murray guard, accounted for 25 of his team's points.

Loss Of His Leg Not A Tragedy, Joe Tinker Says

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 14—(AP)—Joe Tinker lay on a hospital bed today awaiting amputation of his left leg and, to all appearances, being late on a throw to first base would have caused him more concern. His major worry appeared to be that he might miss some of his baseball activities during the coming season.

The former Chicago Cub shortstop, who helped make baseball history after the turn of the century as the starting cog in the famed Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance infield combination, will have his leg severed above the knee Thursday to halt a gangrenous condition.

Now 66, the occupant of baseball's hall of fame discussed the loss of his leg without rancor.

"That leg's seen a lot of good service," he said. "I guess losing it is just one of the penalties of old age. If my blood circulation had been what it should, that little sore wouldn't have amounted to a thing."

Would Retain Luxury Taxes

Home Republicans Said In Favor Of Present Levy On Liquor, Furs, Gems

Washington, Jan. 14—(AP)—A decision that wartime tax rates on liquor, furs, jewelry and some other items should be extended indefinitely was reported reached today at a meeting of Republican members of the Tax-Writing House Ways and Means Committee.

One member, asking not to be quoted by name, told a reporter the feeling was that continuation of these levies "may be necessary to grant a reduction in taxes on individual incomes."

Under present law, the wartime rates on liquor, transportation, telephone charges, and some other items are due to drop to about prewar levels on July 1. The liquor tax, for instance, would go down from $9 to $6 a gallon.

The extra rates imposed during the war brought in about $1,500,000,000 a year.

President Truman urged in a message to Congress last week that the wartime rates be continued.

The committee member told reporters the feeling apparently was that:

1. Congress should go ahead and decide soon what it will do about those wartime rates. He said business now is being hurt in some lines by consumers delaying purchases in anticipation of tax rollbacks in July on specific items.

2. It may not be possible to make income tax reductions if the wartime rates are not continued.

Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) of the Ways and Means Committee is pushing a bill to cut individual income taxes by 20 per cent in 1947, reducing tax collections by $3,350,000,000.

Ross Wins Bout With Drug Habit; Leaves Hospital

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 14—(AP)

Barney Ross, former world's welterweight and lightweight boxing champion, declared himself victor today over his toughest foe—Narcotics—and set as his next objective a reconciliation with his former wife, Cathy. Ross, just 12 pounds over his old top boxing weight of 141 pounds, was released from the United States Public Health Service Hospital and proclaimed himself ready to face life anew.

It took the remarkable short time of four months for the 35-year-old Ross to beat down the narcotics habit which "slipped up" on him while fighting the aftermath of malaria on Guadalcanal.

The Marine hero of Guadalcanal's toughest fighting flashed his famous smile and struck a fighting pose for a photographer, but he declared his connections with the boxing business had been finally severed—"except as a fight fan."

In Memoriam

SIDNEY JOHNSON WALKER was born April 25, 1867, and went to sleep quietly and peacefully in the arms of Jesus on January 3, 1947, in the Methodist Hospital at Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. Walker was a prominent farmer and pioneer citizen of Hickman County. He took an active part in civic affairs for the betterment of the community in which he lived. He professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist Church at Wesley in young manhood. The song that touched his life so deeply and caused him to make his decision for Christ was "Jesus Loves Even Me."

He served as a steward and trustee of Wesley church for a number of years, was faithful in attendance and happy in the services of the Lord. Notwithstanding this, his chief characteristics were that of meekness and humbleness. He never sought places of honor and fame. He left his loved ones this precious heritage: "He was a good man and loved by all who knew him."

He is survived by his faithful

McCarthy Has
New Labor Bill

Modified Closed Shop Measure Is Proposed; Ball Bill Said Drastic

Washington, Jan. 14—(AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.), proposed a "modified" closed shop bill today, saying that legislation offered by Senator Ball (R-Minn.), is "unnecessary drastic."

McCarthy, a freshman senator, said in a statement that his bill would provide for continuance of closed and union shops but "with restrictions that will modify them to prevent abuses."

Ball has proposed outlawing labor contracts which make union membership a condition of employment—as in the closed and union shops.

McCarthy's proposal, as he outlined it, provides:

"1. A modified closed shop would be mandatory after two-thirds of the employees voted for it by secret ballot at a supervised election.

"2. The modified 'closed shop' would be 'open' only to the extent that anyone who is refused membership in a labor union or who is expelled from membership in a union would not be denied the right to work.

"3. Outlawing of the permit system, whereby employees in a closed shop are denied union membership, but forced to pay a fee to work."
