Lovett Resigns as Park Board Head

John Clay Lovett, chairman of the City Park Board, handed in his resignation to the Benton City Council Monday night.

Family Loses All In Flames

A two-story frame house at 307 E. 11 street in Benton was destroyed by fire at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The house was owned by Miss Lydia Acree of St. Louis and occupied by the family of Mr. and Mrs. William Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb had both gone to work but had set the alarm at 7 so their daughter, Lena Cobb, who was sleeping upstairs, could get ready for school.

When she came down, the lower part of the house was burning.

It was thought the fire started in a closet in the front room occupied by the Cobbs. The other side of the house was rented to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cassler.

Mr. Cassler and her baby escaped from the burning house.

No clothing or furniture was saved. The lower outside structure remained standing but fire gutted the entire building.

Miss Acree carried some insurance. She is a sister of Mrs. J. D. Peterson of Benton.

The Cobbs carried no insurance on the furniture.

ed a new member with enthusiasm and imagination. He praised members of the board for their outstanding work.

The City Council decided to postpone any action on the resignation until its next meeting, Nov. 21.

Mr. Lovett also presented the Council with a financial report on the swimming pool. He said receipts last summer amounted to about $2,692 and expenses were $2,654, leaving a balance of $38.

He said some of the expenditures, however, were first-year expenses and would not occur again soon.

He said biggest expense was for salaries, and that the number of employees could be reduced next year. He said he believed the swimming pool would be able to pay its own way.

He also said money had been set aside in the sinking fund to take care of bond payments for next year.

Jack Perlman, a member of the Park Board, said that aside from the swimming pool the remainder of the City Park lacked sufficient funds for operation.

He asked the Council to increase its Park Board appropriation if it could see its way clear to do so.

Members of the Park Board, besides Lovett and Perlman, are Jack Proctor, Chester Ray Powell and Councilman Sam Myers.

All were present at Monday night's Council meeting.

John Kennedy, elected president of the United States by a close vote in Tuesday's general election, barely was able to carry heavily Democratic Marshall County.

Kennedy carried this county by the extremely slim margin of 86 votes.

Political observers said Democrats of Marshall County voted heavily in favor of Richard Nixon, the Republican candidate, because of Kennedy's membership in the Roman Catholic church.

In 1928, Catholic Al Smith carried this county by a few hundred votes.

In Tuesday's election, Marshall Countians piled up the largest vote in its history. A total of 6,872 votes were cast.

Republican Nixon carried four of the 14 precincts in the county — Briensburg, Calverly City, Hardin and West Benton. Nixon also had more absentee votes than Kennedy — the count being 101 to 91.

The vote was extremely close in most of the county's precincts. A table of the votes is carried in an adjoining column.

Amendments Voted
County voters gave a majority to both of the state propositions on the ballot.

The road bond issue won in this county by a margin of more than two to one. The count was:

FOR ROAD BONDS—3,492
AGAINST BONDS—1,380

The road bond issue was voted favorably throughout the entire state. That means Kentucky eventually will get more super-highways.

The constitutional convention proposal also was victorious in Marshall County, but it was defeated in the statewide voting.

In this county, the constitutional convention proposition received a very favorable vote, which was: FOR 2,793 to AGAINST 1,861.

FIRST
FAMILY-SIZE COMPACT

The first family-size compact Comet's 114" wheelbase (longer than any other compact's) provides spacious comfort other compacts sacrifice. There is room for six grownups and a family-size load of luggage besides.

Big-car ride—small-car handling The refined suspension (plus the 114" wheelbase) makes Comet's ride steadier and smoother than many standard cars. And you'll find that Comet turns, parks and handles almost as easily as a baby carriage.

Priced with or below compacts of other makers For all its fine-car flair, family size, big-car ride and value features, Comet's priced with or below compacts of other makers.

New Thrift Power 170 engine for '61 Comet now offers two economy engines—the standard Thrift Power Six plus the new optional Thrift Power 170, for 11% faster highway passing, 22% better acceleration on hills.

One-year or 12,000-mile warranty Every 1961 Comet part (except tires, for which appropriate adjustments are made by their makers) is now warranted by dealers against defects in material and workmanship for one year or 12,000 miles, whichever comes first. Normal maintenance services and parts such as filters, spark plugs, and ignition points are excepted.

County Schools Have Prize-Winning Band

A prize-winning marching band unit in the first year of an organization is a good record, and the Marshall County Band has reached that landmark.

The band was organized this year, and already has picked up honors for its performance in the Murray State College Homecoming activities.

The band is the result of a two-year effort in Marshall County schools to procure an instrumental program. At present it is composed of grade school and high school students from a number of the county's schools.

It is supported by a Band

Booster Club, and local civic organizations, in addition to the county board of education. There are 151 members of the organization.

The band participates in concerts and marching activities, and meets for practice two hours every Saturday.

Director is Samuel Orr of Murray.

Miss Linda Whitley is drum majorette and Betsy Sherwood, Marsha Yohe, Mary Ann Arnold, Leslie Sherwood and Nellie King, all of North Marshall, act as majorettes.

Band members from North Marshall include Chuck Robertson, Brenda English, Jimmie Niles, Janice Stagner, Barbara Fisher, Myra Dawes, Linda Solomon, Beatrice Ingram, Fred Ross, Jimmie Hooker, Lewis Woodard, Sammie Bryant, Tommy Bailey, Donna Franks, Patsy Atnip, Joe Canup, Roy Phelps, Ronald Smith and Leonard Herbig.

Other members are Dale Strader, Gary Robertson, Carole Ray, Rita Lane and Bobby Clark from Calvert City; Bruce Winslow, Karen Fisher, Frances Neighbors, Donna DeWitt and David Olson, Gilbertsville; Othal Smith, Tommy Thomas, Pat Culp, Marie Thomas, Charlotte Smith, Wanda Carr and Doug Draffen, Briensburg; Jimmie and Gary Wilkins and Madge Keys of Brewers; Nancy Sowell, Diane Belew and Larry Hill of Aurora, and Billie Ann O'Dell, Barbara McWaters, Beverly Sparrows and Donna Watkins of Sharpe.

What Will Your Farm Be Worth in 1975?

LAST FALL, this farmer applied Big N 82 per cent ammonia. As a result, his nitrogen application job was already completed when wet weather started in the spring. He was ahead of the game. His corn crop got off to a fast start, grew well and fruited fully. He made plenty of money. As a result of good production, his farm and his net worth are increasing in value.

IF YOUR LAND IS ADAPTABLE to the use of Big N ammonia, you can see your farm increase in value, too. Because you can take advantage of lower application costs, lower seed and fuel bills of nitrogen and greater convenience. You can be SURE your crops have adequate nitrogen all through the growing season. See your BIG N DISTRIBUTOR. He can explain how to increase your land value, your farm value, your net worth.

Henry Clay Home In Lexington Has Its Original Furnishings

One of the most famous homes in America is the house in which Henry Clay lived at Lexington, Ky. Clay christened the home Ashland because of its site in a forest of majestic ash trees, some of which were used in making the finished wood interior of the house. The visitor to Ashland will find it much like it was in Clay's time. It is operated as a park, museum and historic shrine by the Henry Clay Memorial Foundation, which inherited the premises from Nannette McDowell Bullock, a great-granddaughter of Clay. If the great statesman could return to Ashland today he would feel comfortably at home; many of the original furnishings are in use. He could eat, while seated in his accustomed chair, dinner served on the family dining room table, off the china he purchased in France. After dinner, he could retire with his guests to the parlor and be seated on the same ashwood chairs that graced the room when he resided there.

Later, he could play chess on the chess board given him in France. When he was ready to retire he could put on his old dressing gown and sleep under a quilt made by Whig ladies of Philadelphia when he was a presidential candidate. The window draperies were purchased in France by Clay when he was preparing the War of 1812 peace treaty.

The architect of this noble home was Benjamin Latrobe, who helped George Washington in the planning of the Capital. The park or lawn and the walks were laid out by L'Enfant, famous French landscape architect.

One of the most beautiful rooms in the house is the library, paneled in light and dark walnut. The house's fireplaces and mantels were imported from Italy—no two alike. The mantel in the parlor is carved of carrara marble, the delicate figures representing the four seasons.

FARM PROFIT

Pasture Can Cut The Cost Of Feeder Cattle

Here is an easy way to reduce the cost of your feeder cattle this fall. Take advantage of cheap pasture opportunities. And with a possible price decline between now and the time you market, it is important to make full use of grass, new seedlings, stalk fields and any other forage that might go to waste after the first snow.

What is pasture worth? Noah Hadley, Purdue economist, points out that calves will gain about a pound a day on good pasture. He figures 60 days on pasture can cut the cost of gain about $3 per cwt.

Average price of feeders is steady through the fall so it pays to buy early to take full advantage of your feed. A Massey-Ferguson research report shows that over the last 10 years, feeder prices in Chicago have averaged $23.47 in September, $23.54 in October, $23.24 in November and $22.12 in December. There were only two years in which buying late in the season would have made up for the $3 that could have been saved on pasture.

William G. Zmolek, Iowa State Livestock Marketing Specialist, recommends matching quality of cattle with quality of feed on hand. If you have good quality meadows, calves will do pretty well. If your pasture is mature and dried up, or if cornstalks and coarse grass is the only feed available, then heavier weight steers are your best bet.

Steers grazing stubble fields, pasture and new seedlings at the University of Illinois during the fall gained an average of 87 lbs. per head. In another test, steer calves gained 70 lbs. over purchase on new stubble pasture. There was no shipping fever or foot rot in these calves. Around 40% of similar calves in drylot developed shipping fever and 25% had foot rot.

ANGUS BREEDERS OF THIS AREA ELECT OFFICERS

Thirty-six enthusiastic Angus breeders in the Paducah, Kentucky area, met recently and organized the Kentucky Lake Angus Association.

Officers elected were: Ralph L. Smith, Smithland, president; O. P. Boone, Murray, vice president; Robert Etherington, Murray, secretary-treasurer. Directors elected were: H. E. Shaw, Hickman; Loman Teck, Paducah; Charles Rudolph, Bandana; W. D. Hancock, Benton; Arlie Scott, Murray; and J. S. Rushing, Metropolis, Ill.

The officers and directors will meet on Dec. 2 to plan a program for Angus promotion in southwestern Kentucky and in the Kentucky Lake area. Breeders in the southern tip of Illinois have been invited to join.

Facing My Sin

Lesson for November 6, 1960

IT IS NOT necessary to be "at" before being in touch with God. God is always in touch with all he has made. The trouble is, being in touch with God may not be a happy experience at all.

Consider the case of the poet who wrote the 32nd Psalm. He begins his poem by rejoicing in the happiness of a man who has had his sins forgiven. The forgiving touch of God does indeed bring joy to the heart. But the sense of God's presence had not always been a delight. (We can assume that this poet is talking about his own experience, not some other person's.)

God Has a Heavy Hand

He writes: "Day and night thy (God's) hand was heavy upon me." He suffered not only spiritual depression, but he had been physically worn-down too. Doctors today will tell you about "psychosomatic" ailments; that is, troubles which begin in the mind but which affect muscles and nerves and bones. Every hospital has patients who would not need to be there if they could come to terms with themselves and their problems. Ministers and hospital chaplains and psychiatrists know that often the only cure for an illness is not miracle-pills or an operation, but (so to speak) an operation on the soul. This is a modern re-discovery of what the Psalmist knew long ago, that a guilty conscience can actually bring on a fever and make a man lose weight and strength. God is in touch with sinners; but his touch is not to them a tender one.

Turning-point

The turning-point in that poet's experience came at the point where he "declared his sin,"—when he broke down and confessed. There is no mention here of any "Confessor" who stood in the place of God. The sinner faced his God directly. He made his confession at first hand.

Much is said about a forgiving God. He is even thought of as a kind of gigantic forgiving-machine, with pardons rolling out like newspapers from a printing-press. Not at all. God's forgiveness is never in the Bible said to be automatic. There are conditions. The main condition is certainly not to get a great deal better, or even a little better, before God will consent to do anything for you. That's hardly possible. The condition is that you face your self, your actual selfish mean self, get a good look and be ashamed. The condition is that you realize you cannot forgive yourself, you don't need to and it will do you no good. What you need is forgiveness from a higher source, nothing short of God.

On God's Way

After God has forgiven, then what? Do I sit down happily and contemplate his grace? Do I take up my time with halcyon days? Do I spend the rest of my life writing songs about God's forgiving love? Not so. It is true, the experience of relief, release and rejoicing, that overwhelms one who has repented and confessed, has inspired many another forgiven sinner, and not only the author of Psalm 32, to write poetry describing his great experience. But most of life is not poem-writing. Life for the forgiven man is like a road, it stretches out into the future, and it is not always clear daylight on that highway. Confusing shadows lie across it, a man needs guidance. That is the point of verses 8 and 9 of Psalm 32. The forgiven man is in touch with God in a new way: the Lord is his guide. He had been like a fractious mule, pulling away from God all the time, and feeling sore from the bit pulled tight. Now God tells him to be a man, not a mule any longer, a man, not a beast, a man who can follow directions, a man who has his ear and mind open to the wise counsel of God. There is something more than wisdom on the way of God; there is love. A less than loving God is not going to be a forgiving God. And so the forgiven man looks back and realizes that God's once heavy hand lay on him not to destroy him but to draw him into God's true way.

BABY SITTER LEFT HOLDING THE BILL

DEAR AMY:

I am 14 years old and I do a little baby sitting now and then. I was hired by a lady to work 11 hours a day but that was cancelled so I worked whenever she wanted me. She ran up a $14.50 baby sitting bill (23 hours) and she never paid me. That was 6 weeks ago. What shall I do? I was going to buy school supplies and clothes with the money.

Out on a Limb

Dear Out:

How anyone could take advantage of a 14-year-old is beyond me! Tell your parents and if they can't collect, send me the name and address of the lady (?) and I'll go "out on a limb!"

Dear Amy:

How do you handle a mother-in-law who favors one of your children over the other one? When grandma comes, my boy (age 7) is glad to see her and wants to sit on her lap and talk but he's practically pushed away and ignored for his sister, two years younger. My husband won't say anything and I agree, because when you have to remind a grandmother to be nice to your child, that takes the cake. What can you say to a seven-year-old without hurting him? My mother-in-law makes no bones about the preference in remarks she makes to me and her actions. She's even snooty to my boy. It's not my imagination working overtime because outsiders have noticed it. This has been going on for about two years and I've had it. His sister is cute, but so is he. As I have no mother or father to advise me, I need your help.

Mrs. T. E.

Dear Mrs. T. E.:

It is your duty as a mother not to allow anyone to hurt your children. Regardless of which child is the "apple of her eye," tell her plainly that to be welcome in your home, she must divide her affection equally.

She has an obligation, too, if she wants the love and respect that goes with the precious title of "Grandma!"

Dear Amy:

I am a widow 61 years old. I don't look it or act it if I must say so myself. I have a gentleman friend whom I have been dating three years. He doesn't date anyone but me. He takes me

Uncle Ned - - - From Dogtown

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I reckon about half your readers, along with my old lady, thinks I'm off my rocker so they ain't going to be shocked at a idea I would like to take up here this week.

I predict that in the next 20 year we will see the end of what is known as "take home pay" for the average worker. Slow but sure the Government is nibbling a little here and a little there until a feller working for wages ain't got much left when his boss gits through deducting all of it.

I think we're coming into the "fringe benefits" age in history in this country. If you've noted in the last year or two, not many labor unions is striking for much more pay. This is on account of them not being able to take it home if they git it.
They're striking for more fringe benefits.

They is gitting most of them fringe benefits rigged up so's they ain't too taxable and I reckon the working man figgers he'd better git everthing over in that category so's he'll have some security fer his family.

These fringe benefits has got to where, in a heap of cases, they cover a couple vacations a year, give hospital care fer everybody in the family clear back to Grandpa, allow fer time and gasoline to git to work and back. I was reading the other day where one company has even put in a barber shop where all the employees can git a free haircut.

You'll recollect that there fer a spell folks was talking about "base pay." Then it went to "take home pay," and now we got "fringe benefits." I never got that "base pay" figured out exactly. I reckon it was what a feller got to first base with, before he lost his deductions at second and third, and stole home with what little he had left.

If you don't believe this fringe benefit rage is spreading, you should've saw that piece in the papers the other day about what took place in court in Richmond, Virginia. They had these police-mans up for taking perfection payoffs from gamblers. They told the court they considered it "fringe benefits." They got convicted, but it just goes to show, Mister Editor, how folks is thinking in this country today.

Well, with a new President coming in afore long, I reckon a heap of them politicians around the country that was appointed to office will be shaking in their shoes fer a spell. We've got some mighty good public servants in this country. We also got some that figgers they was anointed instead of appointed.
I'm in favor of gitting rid of them anointed fellers, regardless of what party they belong to.

Yours truly,
UNCLE NED.

FROM MY FRONT PORCH
Watch the World Go By
by CARL HELM

Of all the home chores that a dutiful husband is heir to, I find the most irksome and least rewarding is mowing the lawn.

It's just like doing dishes or making beds: no sooner done than it's all to be done again!
Neither of these tasks is proper work for a man. Left to his own devices, any right-minded male will happily let 'em stay unwashed and unmade, while occupying himself with worthwhile pursuits.

Mowing the lawn is just as inappropriate for the so-called weaker sex, although it's women who insist that the grass be cut and kept cut, clipped, sheared, trimmed and prettily edged. Something in their dainty nature, I guess.

As for me, I prefer a lawn with a real, full-grown head - a long tawny mane of it. Looks healthy, in my opinion. And, moreover, that way a couple of mowings per summer will suffice!

and L. D. Savage, Jr.
Speaker, Bill Powell, made a talk on bond issues and state constitutional revision.

A special feature was presentation of a pair of cymbals to Orr for use in band.
Richard Cooke and Hunter
Gaylor gave plans for broom sale on Nov. 17 at 5:30 p. m. The brooms were bought from a workshop for blind in Nashville.
Proceeds will be used to swell

the scholarship and band fund
at North Marshall.

FARMING AROUND

By Mark Welsh

Russia has about 200 million people and some 52 per cent of them are employed in agriculture. Their diet, according to those who have recently visited there, runs to heavy starch foods and is not well balanced.

Mark Welsh

It's a big country, covering about one-sixth of the land area of the world, but only about 10 per cent is tillable. Approximately, 16 per cent of the land is meadows, 38 per cent forest and brush land and the rest is non-agricultural. The growing season ranges from 80 to 210 days a year.

Wheat is the most important crop but barley, rye and oats are grown in quantity lots. Corn is grown in increasing amounts but it is mostly used for green fodder and silage. Russia has about 71 million head of cattle; 48 million hogs and 125 million sheep.

We have much larger numbers of animals and a somewhat smaller population. Doesn't look as if Ivan is being troubled with surplus grain or meat problems.

About 65 per cent of the lamb and mutton eaten in this country is prepared in the kitchens of Washington, New York and New England. But, most lamb still has to travel 1,000 miles from the grass range to the gas range. Sheep numbers are still low in comparison to other farm animals and have been for years although the good producers have been making money right along.

Thanks to Cyanamid research, virtually all sheep diseases and parasites are under control, nutrition greatly improved and lamb mortality kept to a minimum. It's one livestock field not over-crowded, it's profitable and neglected.

(Editors Note: Dr. Mark Welsh is a former university instructor and state livestock sanitary service director who has spent a lifetime in agriculture. He now is agricultural consultant to American Cyanamid Company.)

SOUTHERN BELL PAYS COUNTY $10,421 TAXES

The Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, one of the largest taxpayers in Benton and Marshall County, turned over a check for $10,425.49 to the county for ad valorem taxes for the past year. Harold W. local manager said today. It is part of an estimated $600,000 tax bill Southern Bell pays to the State of Kentucky and its municipalities and counties for the year. This does include income, social security sales tax to the state government, and excise tax paid to the federal government.

They can try to imitate Ford's Classic Styling... but they're licked before they start when they try to imitate '61 Ford Value!

Here's how the '61 Ford takes care of itself... the first 1961 car that dealers have warranted for 12,000 miles or one full year.

Laborious? No! You'll normally go 30,000 miles without a chassis lubrication. Then, a quick Ford Dealer lube job costing about $4.00* will get you set for another 30,000 miles.

Change the oil. You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flow oil filter.

Adjusts its own brakes. New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically for the life of the lining.

Guards its own muffler. Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and slanted—normally will last up to three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body. All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even in galvanizing body panels beneath doors.

Take care of the own body. New Diamond Lustre Finish never needs wax.

*Based on 18 months' service of today's national average labor cost.

They're all trying to get on the band wagon public demand for Ford's Thunderbird line and straight-line styling. Let 'em try! One thing's sure: Nobody can imitate '61 Ford's value at the Ford low price.

We have plenty by buying a '61 Ford. And we're just talking about first price. We mean you can save hundreds of dollars in operating costs with the Ford's fabulous features that are beautifully designed to take care of themselves. In fact, we're so certain of the '61 Ford's high quality and its proven dependability that we have extended our warranty to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first. ## Calvert Planning Bowling League Of Teen-Age Girls

The Calvert City Recreation Association has taken on a new project, besides the many projects it already sponsors.

New Corn Planting Method

For farmers looking for ways to save time and money in growing corn and other row crops, a new minimum tillage system under development offers much promise. Called "plow-planting", the system enables a farmer to plow, fit his seed bed, fertilize, and lay down a weed control spray at the same time he is planting his seed. Studies by two universities show corn planting savings of up to $8 per acre. The experimental equipment has been provided to the universities by Ford Motor Company's Tractor and Implement Division.
