THE MURRAY LEDGER

VOL. 40, NO. 28.

MURRAY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1918.

$1.00 PER YEAR

SCHOOLS, CHURCHES, THEATERS CLOSED BY ORDER OF STATE BOARD HEALTH TO STOP FLU.

PROCLAMATION

Upon urgent official advice from the surgeon general of the United States Public Health Service, who is acting in full co-operation with the surgeon general of the army and the National Council of Defense and based upon such a rapid spread of influenza as to endanger the health and lives of the civil population of the entire country, as well as all military operations, and the industrial operations equally as essential to the success of the war, and in virtue of authority vested in it by law the state board of health of Kentucky hereby issues its proclamation closing all places of amusement, schools, churches and other places of assembly and advises against and discourages all unnecessary travel and social visiting in this commonwealth until the epidemic is over.

(Signed)
DR. JOHN G. SOUTH, Pres.
DR. J. N. McCORMACK, Sec.
Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 6, 1918.

County Board Acts.

This proclamation of the state board of health is not only a health measure, but a war measure. It is essential that this disease be stamped out at once. All public gatherings, schools, churches, lodges and shows must close until further notice. Show your patriotism and your good common sense by a cheerful acquiescence to both the letter and spirit of this order of the state and county boards of health.

(Signed)
CALLOWAY COUNTY BOARD OF HEALTH, P. A. Hart, Sec.

County Schools Ordered Closed.

The state board of health of Kentucky has notified all schools, churches and public gathering places to be closed until the Spanish influenza is gotten under better control. So I herein notify all trustees of Calloway county to close their schools till further notice.—R. E. Branch, Supt. of P. S. of C. C.

Cheerfully Observe Order.

The state board of health Sunday afternoon issued a proclamation ordering the immediate closing of every church, school, billiard or pool room, picture show, theater, places of amusement and every other sort of place where persons may congregate, in a state-wide effort to prevent a wide-spread epidemic of Spanish influenza.

The order was made effective immediately. The public schools of Murray were closed Tuesday morning and the rural schools throughout the county closed as soon as the order was received by the teachers from the county superintendent. The protracted meeting in progress at the Waters street church was closed Monday night; the picture show gave its last performance Monday night and other public gatherings announced for the week have been indefinitely postponed. Cheerfully the patriotic citizenship of the county is complying with the request to fight and stamp out the malady that is costing the lives of hundreds of our boys in the military camps of the nation. Concerted action upon the part of every citizen will accomplish the desired result.

Observe Preventative Measures.

Every citizen is urgently requested to observe rigidly the following preventative measures, in order to avoid a spread of the epidemic of Spanish influenza:

1. Here are the rules:
 1. All colds, however slight, should be treated as possible attacks of influenza. Patients affected by colds should stay at home and sterilize discharges from the nose and throat.
 2. Avoid feeding or spreading of the disease.
 3. Avoid crowds.
 4. Regulate bodily functions and keep them so.
 5. Avoid the breath or expelled secretions from people suffering from colds.
 6. Wash out the nose and throat two or three times daily by a nasal spray or douche and by gargle with a "normal salt or douche" and by gargle with a normal salt solution (1/2 teaspoonful salt to one glass or 8 ounces, clean water).
 7. All those in attendance on patients with influenza should wear masks.
 8. Clothing should be warm and dry. Food simple and easily digested. Drink water freely.
 9. Keep your children's feet warm and dry; when dampened by perspiration, change to dry clothing immediately.
 10. Do not sleep in the same room with anyone even slightly affected;

keep the windows up all night, and use plenty of bed clothing. Above all, the minute you suspect you have lagrippe or influenza, call a doctor, and stay away from any and all places where you might infect others.

A crowd estimated at six thousand persons was here Tuesday afternoon to see the war exhibit train sent out from St. Louis by the Eighth Federal District Liberty Loan Organization. The train was scheduled to arrive here at 4:30 o'clock and was to have remained for two hours, but owing to unavoidable delays the train did not reach here until 5:15 o'clock. This did not, however, dampen the ardor of the big throng at the station nor cause but a very few to leave.

Splendid Liberty Loan addresses were delivered by citizens of St. Louis in charge of the train, and a splendid address delivered by a sergeant of the French army. In addition the manual of arms was demonstrated by one of our marine, Sergt. Quinn, who also delighted the big crowd with a short talk. Some disappointment was shown because Sergt. Palladin, the one-armed soldier, was not with the exhibit.

Following the addresses the large crowd was permitted to board the train and pass through the cars and view the instruments of war. It was a big task to handle the crowd but it was done in an orderly manner and those fortunate enough to get on the train were pleased beyond expression.

—Buy More Bonds— M. E. Church Out of Debt

A most beautiful service was observed at the Methodist church last Sunday morning when the pastor, Bro. Pritchard, burned in the presence of a large congregation the last of the notes against the church. Standing in the pulpit the pastor lighted a match to the note and while the audience sat silent the flames soon wiped out the last remaining evidence of debt against the handsome edifice. Since coming to Sharon two years ago Bro. Pritchard has by his untiring efforts and wonderful energy paid off $2,550 of the church debt. Besides this he has been a help and an inspiration to the town. He has worked for every good and patriotic cause and has been the leader here for the Red Cross. He has engrained himself into the esteem and affections of this people as no other pastor before him and it is the wish of all good people of Sharon, of every denomination, that he be sent back.—Sharon, Tenn., Ex.

Such Evidence Our Readers Cannot Dispute.

As we take up the Ledger week by week, we are struck by the hearty unanimity in which witness after witness speaks out as Mr. Marshall does here. If these people were strangers living miles away, we might take little notice of them, but they are not. They are our neighbors living among us. Their word is too easily proven to admit of any doubt. They speak out in the hope that their experience may be a guide to others.

C. C. Marshall, N. Fourth street, Murray, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for years when my kidneys bothered me, acting too frequently. The secretions at these times have been sealding in passage and highly colored. I have had pains across the small of my back which have bothered me mostly when I bent over. Doan's have always driven this pain from my back and regulated my kidneys."

—Buy More Bonds— SUGAR SUPPLY PUT ON A BASIS OF POPULATION

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 7.—Every county in Kentucky has been granted a sugar allotment for October equal to two pounds per capita. Federal Food Administrator Fred M. Sackett said today. "This ration will be continued and no further shortages or surpluses should become manifest anywhere."

This is the first month that sugar has been distributed throughout the state upon an equal population basis. Sugar was first distributed to merchants upon a basis of statements filed by the dealers themselves covering the amounts of their sales in April, May and June. Thousands of merchants having never kept accurate records were forced to make an estimate of their sales, and their patriotism impelled them to make these estimates as small as possible, on the other hand a few merchants carelessly made statements which resulted in the food administration issuing them more sugar than their customers were entitled to. The effect was a shortage in some counties and a surplus in others, although a normal supply was the rule in most places.

To remove all inequalities the food administration resorted to the latest population figures of the United States Census Bureau, which make due allowance for increases in population. Whenever it was found that any county was receiving less than its share calculated on a two pound per capita basis the allotment to every merchant in the county was increased. The percentage system was followed in this.

Hereafter if a county food administrator recommends an increase in the allotment of any merchant he must keep the supply equitable, recommending a corresponding decrease in the allotment of some other merchant or merchants because each county as a whole is getting just what it is entitled to.

The local lodge of Elks held a very interesting session last night in which ten candidates were taken through the mysteries of the order. After the ceremonies the lodge adjourned to the lower room where a bountiful repast was spread and which was thoroughly enjoyed. It was one of the best spreads the lodge has ever had and why shouldn't it have been, when it was prepared by the master-hand of culinary art, that of Milton Jones. The social hour was announced by Dr. John Dismukes who said that he could not preside as toastmaster on account of having the Spanish influenza and called on Judge L. E. Anderson to act in that capacity. He performed that function very cleverly and the songs of the lodge and Dr. John certainly delighted the crowd.

The new members were C. O. Decker, Dr. B. F. Berry, B. H. Adams, F. B. Outland, J. K. Farmer, T. H. Stokes, Ben Grogan, H. O. Duguid, all of Murray, and E. P. Leith, of Cunningham, and John R. Taylor, of Mayfield.—Mayfield Messenger.

—Buy More Bonds— $12,000 BULL AND LARGEST BARN IN WORLD BURNED

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 3.—Blood hounds have been brought from Lexington to trail incendiaries who are believed to have started the fire early this morning that destroyed the principal barn at "Woodford Farms," Col. E. H. Taylor's place in Franklin county, and burned to death "Woodford," the famous head of the Taylor herd of Herefords.

"Woodford" originally cost Col. Taylor $12,500, but he has often refused to sell the animal for a much larger amount.

Besides the barn and the prize bull, which was England's champion Hereford a few years ago, the fire consumed 700 tons of hay, two two year old bulls, a cow and a calf, a span of mules, two saddle horses and farm implements. Several young bulls in an inclosure between the "Le" of the barn were injured.

The barn was the largest and finest in the world, 400 feet long and would cost $25,000 to rebuild now.

The watchman, sleeping in the loft at one end of the barn, heard the roar of flames near him. He climbed out of a window, intent on rescuing "Woodford," and discovered when he got around the huge structure that both projecting wings at the end of the barn were blazing fiercely, while the middle portion was as yet untouched.

The wings were 300 feet apart, and no wind was stirring.

This convinced the overseer that incendiaries had done the work, but bloodhounds were unable to take up the trail.

Washington, Oct. 4. Members of the house military committee at weekly conference at the war department today, were informed that American troops now abroad numbered a million eight hundred thousand.

Shaking Dice for United States

By Herbert Quick.

We must buy bonds to the last cent of our ability because our country is fighting for its very life. Make no mistake, citizens of America, the crisis is just that—we are fighting for our very life.

We must fight this war through. We must fight it through to a peace basis of which will be written by us and our Allies.

Germany must not write a single clause in the Treaty. She must be whipped until she will sign a treaty, every word of which will be drawn by the Allies. Germany must not be allowed to dot an "i" or cross a "t."

Why? Because Germany has become nothing but a robber empire, a murderer empire, an empire every purpose of which is the enslavement of the rest of the world. Such purposes admit of no compromise. We must conquer or die. If we do not conquer, we shall nevertheless die—and die slaves.

Germany began with the intention of robbing France of her iron, her coal, her best land and her great factories; of making Belgium, with her rich mines, great cities and immense factories, a part of Germany; of gaining the Belgian Coast from which she might conquer England, and of combining under her flag the hordes of Mohammedan Turks, and all the Balkan States, so that she might train soldiers in countless millions, build navies to sweep the oceans, and conquer the world.

This war was a step toward world conquest.

If we do not fight the war through to complete victory she will still keep on and she will succeed. She will surely succeed!

Russia with her nearly 200,000,000 people lies prostrate at Germany's feet. Germany could now give up the Balkan States, give up Belgium, force Austria to yield up the Italian territories, give up conquered France, yes, she could give up these, and even Alsace-Lorraine, and if allowed a free hand in Russia she would still have won a victory greater than any of which she ever dreamed at the beginning of the war.

Give her control of Russia, and she can and will within a few years come back with power to take back Alsace-Lorraine, crush poor Belgium once more and destroy exhausted France, sweep every vestige of resistance from Europe, Asia and Africa, and then what?

She will thunder at our doors—from Asia she will invade us on the west, from Europe on the East, and from Mexico on the south.

If Germany has control over the terms of peace, we who read this will live to see one of the kaiser's six sons emperor of America.

The time to whip Germany is now!

It is now or never!

The princes of Germany are shaking dice for the United States. It will take money, money, money, that we may send men, men, men.

Buy bonds, for so only can the war be won. Unless it is won, everything you possess is lost, and with it the American Soul is lost.

FIT MEN 37 TO 45 SPECIALLY SOUGHT

Washington, Oct. 2.—Interest in the draft is now focused upon the probable future calls to the colors of the September 12 registrants between the ages of 37 and 45.

In view of the exceptional speed with which the work of classifying and examining the class one men of the 19 to 36 group is being conducted by the local boards, it is not unlikely that this class will be exhausted much sooner than expected.

It is stated with certainty that registrants within the older age groups will be called upon in order to Turkish General Pershing with the very best material within the 18 to 45 limits of the draft for the fighting force of 4,000,000 men which the nation has pledged to have in France by next July.

While no official notice is looked for from the provost marshal general's office in the immediate future, it is known that the age limits of the next groups to be called by the president have practically been determined upon.

It is understood the registrants between the ages of 37 to 45, inclusive, will be called in two separate groups and of course on different dates. The controlling purpose is to have the entire 13,000,000 registrants carefully combined in order to secure as many fit class one men in the entire registration in the shortest time possible.

Naturally the next call would include the younger ages in the remaining 37 to 45 group. The older registrants will be called last and if they are not actually required for overseas service there will be plenty of important military work for them to perform in this country to maintain and support the force in action.

Another source of fighting material which will become effective in the meantime are the young men who will attain their nineteenth birthday in the course of the next few months. The sentiment of the country, as interpreted by the president and his advisers, being unmistakably opposed to sending 18 year old youths to the front, there is no intention of inducting into the service registrants under 19 at any time. After a sufficient time has elapsed, however, those who have not attained the latter age at a given date will be called into active service.

The new watchword at Washington for the 33,000,000 men in the drafts is "Get into uniform or get into harness."

The situation is serious at the camp and many are said to be dying for want of attention on account of the scarcity of doctors.—Mayfield Messenger.

LIBERTY LOAN MEETINGS ARE ALL CALLED OFF

Liberty Loan mass meetings called for next Saturday afternoon have been cancelled upon order from Ben Grogan, chairman of the speaker's bureau for Calloway county.

This action is regrettable from the fact that Calloway yet lacks the greater portion of its quota to the present Liberty loan. However, there was no other alternative, and the action was taken only after communicating with the secretary of the state board of health. The following telegrams are self explanatory:

Mr. J. N. McCormack, Secretary of Board of Health, Bowling Green, Ky.

Wire at once does your closing order apply to Liberty Loan meetings held in the open, and in the house with doors and windows open, not to last over 45 minutes.

BEN GROGAN, Chairman Speakers' Bureau.

Ben Grogan, Chairman Speakers' Bureau, Murray, Ky.

Call all meetings off, the order applies to gatherings of all kinds.

J. N. McCORMACK, Secretary Board of Health.

Following the above action the closing order issued to all business concerns throughout the county for next Saturday from 12 to 6 o'clock has likewise been cancelled. It would be useless to order business suspended throughout the county when the mass meetings have been called off.

Right now, today, this hour it seems is the most momentous in the life and affairs of this nation. Citizens of Calloway, patriots of Calloway, you must do your whole duty. Go to your knees and ask the way to duty if you are yet undecided. America must support her army of more than two millions of sons abroad shedding their blood for the nation. You must buy bonds. Pay no heed to the fact that mass meetings will not be held Saturday afternoon, but see your school district, precinct or county salesmen and tell him that you will not desert your country. Every dollar that can be sent is not invested in Liberty bonds is a dollar that is a traitor to his country. Go today and loan your surplus money—every dollar of it—to the government.

KENTUCKIANS TO LINE UP FOR BIG WAR FUND DRIVE

Kentucky's great campaign to raise funds for the boys with the flag, which is to be a part of the nationwide campaign for the week of November 11-18, has been tremendously stimulated by news from Washington that at President Wilson's request, all seven agencies are to combine. These include the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association, the Knights of Columbus, the Young Men's Hebrew Association and the Salvation Army. The goal is $170,000,000, the greatest sum ever proposed for such a purpose in the history of the world.

It was originally intended that the first four should conduct a money-raising campaign during the week of November 11-18, and the last three during the middle of January. President Wilson, however, decided that it would be best for all seven agencies to combine in a campaign.

Edward W. Hines, of Louisville, chairman of the Kentucky State Council of National Defense, who has been chosen to head the body of managers in charge of the drive in this state, has been in conference with the other leaders and plans for the united campaign of the seven agencies are now under way.

Will Ask for Bonds.

As the campaign is to follow immediately after the greatest Liberty Loan campaign, it is expected that a very large percentage of the contributions will be in the form of Liberty bonds. As a fifty-dollar bond will carry the work of all seven organizations forward for one soldier, a popular slogan of the campaign will be "Back Your Boy With a Bond."

Dr. John R. Mott, of New York, general secretary of the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A., has issued the following statement in connection with President Wilson's letter to Raymond D. Fosdick, chairman of the Commission on Training Activities, urging that all welfare agencies recognized in Europe by the war department combine in their next appeal for funds:

"The president has raised a stand and to which every man and woman in the nation can and will rally royally. This is not to be a Y. M. C. A. campaign nor a Knights of Columbus campaign, nor a Salvation Army campaign. It is to be a campaign for the men over there in France and in the cantonments on this side and on our brave ships everywhere, a campaign for the maintenance and increase of morale which, Napoleon said, is to other factors in war as three to one. The dollars given to the common fund will reach the boys through seven different channels, but every dollar will be made to do a maximum work and no matter what sign is painted over the door of any hut and any Hostess House, its door will be open to every boy equally. Largest Gift on Record.

"The total amount, $170,000,000, is tremendous, the largest single gift for which any people has ever been asked at one time, yet compared to the figures to which the war has accustomed us it is not much. A recent letter from one of Gen. Pershing's staff officers made the statement that the work of these great agencies is adding at least ten per cent to the fighting efficiency of our men. If it is worth $18,000,000,000 to keep our boys under arms next year surely it is worth $170,000,000 to make them fight ten per cent more efficiently. Nothing in my five visits on the battlefield has impressed me more than the way in which the men of all the religious bodies have blended their sacrifices even unto death for a supreme cause.

"This great campaign will give us a chance to show that the men and women at home are capable of rising to the same heights of splendid co-operation as their representatives overseas. If they can struggle and die together or make forever secure their liberties we can plan and work together to get the money needed to serve them."

Buying Line or Firing Line

Our boys on the firing line have given up home, family, job, future. They have given up the eight-hour day for the twenty-four-hour day. They have exchanged a good bed for a crude bunk in a dug-out. They have traded a clean table and home cooking for bully beef and beans in a muddy trench. They are doing this that the folks at home may live in safety.

It is real sacrifice for our boys—for many the supreme sacrifice of life itself.

There is no sacrifice we can make which will compare with theirs. The least we can do is to see that our boys get everything they need to win this war, and get it quickly.

The fourth call has come. Let's be good soldiers, too; let's show our boys that when they call we, too, can "go over the top" eagerly—quickly—cheerfully.

SCHOOLS, CHURCHES, THEATERS CLOSED BY ORDER OF STATE BOARD HEALTH TO STOP FLU.

PROCLAMATION

Upon urgent official advice from the surgeon general of the United States Public Health Service, who is acting in full co-operation with the surgeon general of the army and the National Council of Defense and based upon such a rapid spread of influenza as to endanger the health and lives of the civil population over the entire country, as well as all military operations and the industrial operations equally as essential to the success of the war, and in virtue of authority vested in it by law the state board of Health of Kentucky hereby issues its proclamation closing all places of amusement, schools, churches and other places of assembly and advises against and discourages all unnecessary travel and social visiting in this commonwealth until the epidemic is over.

(Signed)
DR. JOHN G. SOUTH, Pres.
DR. J. N. McCORMACK, Sec.
Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 6, 1918.

County Board Acts.

This proclamation of the state board of health is not only a health measure, but a war measure. It is essential that this disease be stamped out at once. All public gatherings, schools, churches, lodges and shows must close until further notice.

Show your patriotism and your good common sense by a cheerful acquiescence to both the letter and spirit of this order of the state and county boards of health.

(Signed)

County Schools Ordered Closed.

The state board of health of Kentucky has notified all schools, churches and public gathering places to be closed until the Spanish influenza is closed under better control. So I herein notify all trustees of Calloway county to close their schools till further notice.—R. E. Branch, Supt. of P. S. of C. C.

Cheerfully Observe Order.

The state board of health Sunday afternoon issued a proclamation ordering the immediate closing of every church, school, billiard or pool room, picture show, theater, places of amusement and every other sort of place where persons may congregate, in a state-wide effort to prevent a wide-spread epidemic of Spanish influenza.

The order was made effective immediately.

The public schools of Murray were closed Tuesday morning and the rural schools throughout the county closed as soon as the order was received by the teachers from the county superintendent. The protracted meeting in progress at the Waters street church was closed Monday night; the picture show gave its last performance Monday night and other public gatherings announced for the week have been indefinitely postponed. Cheerfully the patriotic citizenship of the county is complying with the request to fight and stamp out the malady that is costing the lives of hundreds of our boys in the military camps of the nation. Concerted action upon the part of every citizen will accomplish the desired result.

Observe Preventative Measures.

Every citizen is urgently requested to observe rigidly the following preventative measures, in order to avoid a spread of the epidemic of Spanish influenza:

1. All colds, however slight, should be treated as possible attacks of influenza. Patients affected by colds should stay at home and sterilize discharges from the nose and throat.
2. Avoid feeding or spreading of the disease.
3. Avoid crowds.
4. Regulate bodily functions and keep them so.
5. Avoid the breath or expelled secretions from people suffering from colds.
6. Wash out the nose and throat two or three times daily by a nasal spray or douche and by gargle with a "normal salt or douche and by gargle with a normal salt solution" (1/2 teaspoonful salt to one glass, or 8 ounces, clean water).
7. All those in attendance on patients with influenza should wear masks.
8. Clothing should be warm and dry. Food simple and easily digested. Drink water freely.
9. Keep your children's feet warm and dry when dampened by perspiration, change to dry clothing immediately.
10. Do not sleep in the same room with anyone even slightly affected;

keep the windows up all night, and use plenty of bed clothing. Above all, the minute you suspect you have lagrippe or influenza, call a doctor, and stay away from any and all places where you might infect others.

A crowd estimated at six thousand persons was here Tuesday afternoon to see the war exhibit train sent out from St. Louis by the Eighth Federal District Liberty Loan Organization. The train was scheduled to arrive here at 4:30 o'clock and was to have remained for two hours, but owing to unavoidable delays the train did not reach here until 5:15 o'clock.

This did not, however, dampen the ardor of the big throng at the station nor cause but a very few to leave. Splendid Liberty Loan addresses were delivered by citizens of St. Louis in charge of the train, and a splendid address delivered by a sergeant of the French army. In addition the manual of arms was demonstrated by one of our marine, Sgt. Quinn, who also delighted the big crowd with a short talk. Some disappointment was shown because Sgt. Palladin, the one-armed soldier, was not with the exhibit.

Following the addresses the large crowd was permitted to board the train and pass through the cars and view the instruments of war. It was a big task to handle the crowd but it was done in an orderly manner and those fortunate enough to get on the train were pleased beyond expression.

A most beautiful service was observed at the Methodist church last Sunday morning when the pastor, Bro. Pritchard, burned in the presence of a large congregation the last of the notes against the church. Standing in the pulpit the pastor lighted a match to the note and while the audience sat silent the flames soon wiped out the last remaining evidence of debt against the handsome edifice. Since coming to Sharon two years ago Bro. Pritchard has by his untiring efforts and wonderful energy paid off $2,550 of the church debt. Besides this he has been a help and an inspiration to the town. He has worked for every good and patriotic cause and has been the leader here for the Red Cross. He has exalted himself into the esteem and affections of this people as no other pastor before him and it is the wish of all good people of Sharon, irrespective of denomination, that he be sent back.—Sharon, Tenn., Ex.

Such Evidence Our Readers Cannot Dispute.

As we take up the Ledger week by week, we are struck by the hearty, unmistakable way in which witness after witness speaks out as Mr. Marshall does here. If these people were strangers living miles away, we might take little notice of them, but they are not. They are our neighbors living among us. Their word is too easily proven to admit of any doubt. They speak out in the hope that their experience may be a guide to others. C. C. Marshall, N. Fourth street, Murray, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for years when my kidneys bothered me, acting too frequently. The secretions at these times have been scalding in passage and highly colored. I have had pains across the small of my back which have bothered me mostly when I bent over. Buy More Bonds—SUGAR SUPPLY PUT ON A BASIS OF POPULATION

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 7.—Every county in Kentucky has been granted a sugar allotment for October equal to two pounds per capita. Federal Food Administrator Fred M. Sackett said today. "This ration will be continued and no further shortages or surpluses should become manifest anywhere." This is the first month that sugar has been distributed throughout the state upon an equal population basis. Sugar was first distributed to merchants upon a basis of statements filed by the dealers themselves covering the amounts of their sales in April, May and June. Thousands of merchants having never kept accurate records were forced to make an estimate of their sales, and their patriotism impelled them to make these estimates as small as possible, on the other hand a few merchants carelessly made statements which resulted in the food administration issuing them more sugar than their customers were entitled to. The effect was a shortage in some counties and a surplus in others, although a normal supply was the rule in most places.

To remove all inequalities the food administration resorted to the latest population figures of the United States Census Bureau, which make due allowances for increases in population. Whenever it was found that any county was receiving less than its share calculated on a two pound per capita basis the allotment to every merchant in the county was increased. The percentage system was followed in this.

Hereafter if a county food administrator recommends an increase in the allotment of any merchant he must keep the supply equitable, recommending a corresponding decrease in the allotment of some other merchant or merchants because each county as a whole is getting just what it is entitled to.

It was one of the best spreads the lodge has ever had and why shouldn't it have been, when it was prepared by the master hand of culinary art, that of Milton Jones. The social hour was announced by Dr. John Dismukes who said that he could not preside as master on account of having the Spanish influenza and called on Judge L. E. Anderson to act in that capacity. He performed that function very cleverly, and the songs of the lodge and Dr. John certainly delighted the crowd.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 3.—Bloodhounds have been brought from Lexington to trail incendiaries who are believed to have started the fire early this morning that destroyed the principal barn at "Woodford Farms," Col. E. H. Taylor's place in Franklin county, and burned to death "Woodford," the famous head of the Taylor herd of Herefords.

"Woodford" originally cost Col. Taylor $12,500, but he has often refused to sell the animal for a much larger amount.

Besides the barn and the prize bull, which was England's champion Hereford a few years ago, the fire consumed 700 tons of hay, two two year old bulls, a cow and a calf, a span of mules, two saddle horses and farm implements. Several young bulls in an inclosure between the "Is" of the barn were injured.

The barn was the largest and finest in the world, 400 feet long and would cost $25,000 to rebuild now. The watchman, sleeping in the loft at one end of the barn, heard the roar of flames near him. He climbed out of a window, intent on rescuing "Woodford," and discovered when he got around the huge structure that both projecting wings at the end of the barn were blazing fiercely, while the middle portion was as yet untouched.

The wings were 300 feet apart, and no wind was stirring.

This convinced the overseer that incendiaries had done the work, but bloodhounds were unable to take up the trail.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Members of the house military committee at week long conference at the war department today, were informed that American troops now abroad numbered a million eight hundred thousand.

Shaking Dice for United States

By Herbert Quick.

We must buy bonds to the last cent of our ability because our country is fighting for its very life. Make no mistake, citizens of America, the crisis is just that—we are fighting for our very life.

We must fight the war through. We must fight it through to a peace the basis of which will be written by us and our Allies.

Germany must not write a single clause in the Treaty. She must be whipped until she will sign a treaty, every word of which will be drawn by the Allies. Germany must not be allowed to dot an "i" or cross a "t."

Why? Because Germany has become nothing but a robber empire, a murderer empire, an empire every purpose of which is the enslavement of the rest of the world. Such purposes admit of no compromise. We must conquer or die. If we do not conquer, we shall nevertheless die—and die slaves.

Germany began with the intention of robbing France of her iron, her coal, her best land and her great factories; of making Belgium, with her rich mines, great cities and immense factories, a part of Germany; of gaining the Belgian Coast from which she might conquer England, and of combining under her flag the hordes of Mohammedan Turks, and all the Balkan States, so that she might train soldiers in countless millions, build navies to sweep the oceans, and conquer the world.

This war was a step toward world conquest. If we do not fight the war through to complete victory she will still keep on and she will succeed. She will surely succeed!

Russia with her nearly 200,000,000 people lies prostrate at Germany's feet. Germany could now give up the Balkan States, give up Belgium, force Austria to yield up the Italian territories, give up conquered France, yet she could give up these, and even Alsace-Lorraine, and if allowed a free hand in Russia she would still have won a victory greater than any of which she ever dreamed at the beginning of the war.

Give her control of Russia, and she can and will within a few years come back with power to take back Alsace-Lorraine, crush poor Belgium once more and destroy exhausted France, sweep every vestige of resistance from Europe, Asia and Africa, and then what?

She will thunder at our doors—from Asia she will invade us on the west, from Europe on the East, and from Mexico on the south. If Germany has control over the terms of peace, we who read this will live to see one of the Kaiser's six sons emperor of America.

The time to whip Germany is now!

It is now or never!

The princes of Germany are shaking dice for the United States.

It will take money, money, money, that we may send men, men, men.

Buy bonds, for so only can the war be won. Unless it is won, everything you possess is lost, and with it the American Soul is lost.

EIT MEN 37 TO 45 SPECIALLY SOUGHT

Washington, Oct. 2.—Interest in the draft is now focused upon the probable future calls to the colors of the ages of 37 and 45.

In view of the exceptional speed with which the work of classifying and examining the class one men of the 19 to 36 group is being conducted by the local boards, it is not unlikely that this class will be exhausted much sooner than expected.

It is stated with certainty that registrants within the older age groups will be called upon in order to furnish General Pershing with the very best material within the 18 to 45 limits of the draft for the fighting force of 4,000,000 men which the nation has pledged to have in France by next July.

While no official notice is looked for from the provost marshal general's office in the immediate future, it is known that the age limits of the next groups to be called by the president have practically been determined upon.

It is understood the registrants between the ages of 37 to 45, inclusive, will be called in two separate groups and of course on different dates. The controlling purpose is to have the entire 13,000,000 registrants carefully combed in order to secure as many fit class one men in the entire registration in the shortest time possible.

Naturally the next call would include the younger ages in the remaining 37 to 45 group. The older registrants will be called last and if they are not actually required for overseas service there will be plenty of important military work for them to perform in this country to maintain and support the force in action.

Another source of fighting material which will become effective in the meantime are the young men who will attain their nineteenth birthday in the course of the next few months. The sentiment of the country, as interpreted by the president and his advisers, being unmistakably opposed to sending 18 year old youths to the front, there is no intention of inducting into the service registrants under 19 at any time. After a sufficient time has elapsed, however, those who have not attained the latter age at a given date will be called into active service.

WILSON NAMES CONDITIONS OF PEACE PARLEY

Washington, Oct. 3.—President Wilson has met Germany's peace note with a move which will at one stroke develop whether her proposal is sincere or merely a pretension, and if a pretension it be fully justified for all time before the world the prolonging of the war with force to the utmost, force without stint or limit.

At the same time the president has left open the doors to peace. Declining to propose an armistice while the armies of the central powers remain on invaded soil, the president today called on the German chancellor to state, as an absolutely necessary preliminary to a reply from the entente allies and the United States, whether Germany accepts the principles of peace as repeatedly laid down, or merely proposes to accept them "as the basis of negotiation," and whether the chancellor merely speaks for the German military masters conducting the war or the whole German people.

As the full significance of the president's diplomacy is disclosed it becomes evident that he has left open the way to peace and at the same time left the military leaders of the central powers with a question they must necessarily answer in a way that it will lead to peace or confront them with an embarrassing situation in their own countries.

Among diplomats here the president's communication is regarded as one of his master strokes. It is pointed out that upon cursory examination it may not show such strong terms as some may have desired. All the president's advisers, however, are confident that as a close consideration reveals its full import, it will be apparent that it is a long step forward in Germany—really means peace, and that if she does not it will strip bare another hypocrisy of German diplomacy so completely that the responsibility for prolonging the war never can be charged to the allies, even by the German people themselves.

The text of the president's communication was made public today by Secretary Lansing, and is as follows: "I have the honor to acknowledge upon behalf of President Wilson your note of October 5, and enclosed communication of the German government to the President, and I am instructed by the President to make the following communication to the German chancellor before making replies to the request of the Imperial German Government, in order that the reply may be as candid and straightforward as the momentous interests involved. I am requested by the President of the United States, who deems it necessary, to inquire as to the exact meaning of the note of the German chancellor and whether the Imperial German Government accepts the terms laid down by the President in his address to Congress on Janary 8 last, and in subsequent addresses, and if its object of entering into the discussion would be only to agree upon the practical details of their applications? The President feels bound to say with regard to the suggestion of an armistice, that he would not feel at liberty to propose a cessation of arms to the governments with which the Government of the United States is associated against the Central Powers, so long as armies of these powers are upon Allied soil. The good faith of any discussion would manifestly depend upon the consent of the Central Powers to immediately withdraw their forces everywhere from invaded territory. The President also feels that he is justified in asking whether the Imperial Chancellor is speaking merely for the constituted authorities that have conducted the war. He deems answers to these questions vital from every point of view. Accept, further, the renewed assurance of my high consideration. LANSING"

LIBERTY LOAN MEETINGS ARE ALL CALLED OFF

All Liberty Loan mass meetings called for next Saturday afternoon have been cancelled upon order from Ben Grogan, chairman of the speakers' bureau for Calloway county. This action is regrettable from the fact that Calloway yet lacks the greater portion of its quota to the present Liberty loan. However, there was no other alternative, and the action was taken only after communicating with the secretary of the state board of health. The following telegrams are self explanatory:

Mr. J. N. McCormack, Secretary of Board of Health, Bowling Green, Ky.

Wire at once does your closing order apply to Liberty Loan meetings held in the open, and in the house with doors and windows open, not to last over 45 minutes.

BEN GROGAN, Chairman Speakers' Bureau.

Ben Grogan, Chairman Speakers' Bureau, Murray, Ky.

Call all meetings off, the order applies to gatherings of all kinds.

J. N. McCORMACK, Secretary Board of Health.

Following the above action the closing order issued to all business concerns throughout the county for next Saturday from 12 to 6 o'clock has likewise been cancelled. It would be useless to order business suspended throughout the county when the mass meetings have been called off.

Right now, today, this hour it seems to be the most momentous in the life and affairs of this nation. Citizens of Calloway, patriots of Calloway, you must do your whole duty. Go to your knees and ask the way to duty if you are yet undecided. America must support her army of more than two millions of sons abroad shedding their blood for the nation. You must buy bonds. Pay no heed to the fact that mass meetings will not be held Saturday afternoon, but see your school district, precinct or county salesman and tell him that you will not desert your country. Every dollar that can be and is not invested in Liberty bonds is a slacker dollar and he who owns it is a traitor to his country. Go today and loan your surplus money—every dollar of it—to the government.

Kentucky's great campaign to raise funds for the boys with the flag, which is to be a part of the nationwide campaign for the week of November 11-18, has been tremendously stimulated by news from Washington that at President Wilson's request, all seven agencies are to combine. These include the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association, the Knights of Columbus, the Young Men's Hebrew Association and the Salvation Army. The goal is $170,000,000, the greatest sum ever proposed for such a purpose in the history of the world.

It was originally intended that the first four should conduct a money raising campaign during the week of November 11-18, and the last three during the middle of January. President Wilson, however, decided that it would be best for all seven agencies to combine in a campaign.

Edward W. Hines, of Louisville, chairman of the Kentucky State Council of National Defense, who has been chosen to head the body of managers in charge of the drive in this state, has been in conference with the other leaders and plans for the united campaign of the seven agencies are now under way.

Will Ask for Bonds.

As the campaign is to follow immediately after the greatest Liberty Loan campaign, it is expected that a very large percentage of the contributions will be in the form of Liberty bonds. As a fifty-dollar bond will carry the work of all seven organizations forward for one soldier, a popular slogan of the campaign will be "Back Your Boy With a Bond."

Dr. John R. Mott, of New York, general secretary of the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A., has issued the following statement in connection with President Wilson's letter to Raymond D. Fossick, chairman of the Commission on Training Activities, urging that all welfare agencies recognized in Europe by the war department combine in their next appeal for funds:

"The president has raised a standard to which every man and woman in the nation can and will rally royally. This is not to be a Y. M. C. A. campaign nor a Knights of Columbus campaign, nor a Salvation Army campaign. It is to be a campaign for the men over there in France and in the cantonments on this side and on our brave ships everywhere, a campaign for the maintenance and increase of morale which, Napoleon said, is to other factors in war as three to one. The dollars given to the common fund will reach the boys through seven different channels, but every dollar will be made to do a maximum work and no matter what sign is pointed over the door of any hut and any Hostess House, its door will be open to every boy equally. Largest Gift on Record."

"The total amount, $170,000,000, is tremendous, the largest single gift for which any people has ever been asked at one time, yet compared to the figures to which the war has accustomed us, it is not much. A recent letter from one of Gen. Pershing's staff officers made the statement that the work of these great agencies is adding at least ten percent to the fighting efficiency of our men. If it is worth $10,000,000,000 to keep our boys under arms next year simply it is worth $170,000,000 to make them fight ten per cent more efficiently. Nothing in my five visits on the battle field has impressed me more than the way in which the men of all the religious bodies have blended their sacrifices even unto death for a supreme cause."

"This great campaign will give us a chance to show that the men and women at home are capable of rising to the same heights of splendid co-operation as their representatives over there. If they can struggle and die together or make forever secure their liberties we can plan and work together to get the money needed to serve them."

LIBERTY BONDS

Buying Line or Firing Line

Our boys on the firing line have given up home, family, job, future. They have given up the eight-hour day for the twenty-four-hour day. They have exchanged a good bed for a crude bunk in a dug-out. They have traded a clean table and home cooking for bully beef and beans in a muddy trench. They are doing this that the folks at home may live in safety.

It is real sacrifice for our boys—for many the supreme sacrifice of life itself.

There is no sacrifice we can make which will compare with theirs. The least we can do is to see that our boys get everything they need to win this war, and get it quickly.

The fourth call has come. Let's be good soldiers, too; let's show our boys that when they call we, too, can "go over the top" eagerly—quickly—cheerfully.

MURRAY, KENTUCKY.

Enroute to the Trenches

Somewhere in France, Headquarters 19th Engineers, A. P. O. 708, September 6th.

Editor Murray Ledger.

Dear Sir: I have been asked by several of my friends in old Calloway to write them of my experience in coming to France and after my arrival. I take this method through your paper as I'll be able to accomplish my task in one letter.

As the story goes, I was commissioned in July, called to active service at Camp Zachary Taylor September 10 of the same year. After reporting to the commanding general I was detailed in the city of Louisville to take charge of eight other army dentists until the government could equip us with outfits to work at camp.
After returning to camp I was assigned to 327th Machine Gun Battalion and remained with this organization until May 30th, receiving orders on this date relieving me of duties with the machine gun battalion and I reported with my enlisted assistant to the port of embarkation, Hoboken, N. J., to prepare myself for extended field service in France. After reporting in Hoboken I was held in New York City for nine days before I was assigned to a ship on which to sail.
While in the big city I visited many interesting places, such as Grant's tomb, Brooklyn bridge, Woolworth building, Madison Square Garden, Wall Street and last but not least the great New York zoo. Rode several trains on the elevated and subway railroads, passing under the Hudson river from New York to Hoboken.
While in New York I roomed at a millionaire's home on Fifth Avenue that had been recently opened to officers. Enjoyed my short stay very much but was very glad when we went aboard our ship which contained seven thousand and one hundred men including the ship's crew. The first thing we knew nearly everybody or nearly every one was ordered off the deck. I being on duty as dental officer was allowed to remain on deck and therefore got to see the great Statue of Liberty and to wave goodbye to dear old America. We sailed along with a number of other ships in our convoy for twelve days and nights before we saw land again, and take it from me, every one was glad to see old mother earth once more, in fact everyone wore a smile when they realized they had their last submarine scare.

After arriving at the French port (I've forgotten the name) we were sent to a French rest camp. After walking up and down hills for two miles we landed in said place and found that it was an old camp used in Napoleon's time for prisoners. It was dark by the time we arrived and no one knew where we were to go or sleep, but we soon found a sergeant who showed us our tents, and tents were all, no beds and nothing to make them out of except sand and stone.
We finally found another American who could understand our needs and he showed us where we could draw some blankets. They were stored in an old stone building where water was standing. The three that I got were nice and damp but just the same I spread them down on the ground and took my first night's rest in sunny France.

Fourth of July still found us in the same place and on this particular day I was sent down to the port with two enlisted men to guard the dental equipment, barrack bags, etc. We spent the fore part of the night helping to load and case four thousand barrack bags which contained eight that belonged to the dental department and then pulled fifteen or sixteen bags together to sleep on the rest of the night.

On the fifth we got orders to leave this place and go about a hundred and fifty miles inland to a causal camp for medical and dental men.
This place was also an old camp site with a high wall surrounding it. Our bedrooms here were much better than the previous place, consisting of upper and lower berths but the springs and feathers had been replaced by wooden slats. After spending several days here with about three hundred medical men, sixty dentists and others, we were all ordered to our assignments which were all over France.
My assistant and myself landed where we are now stationed. After reporting to Chief Surgeon S. O. S. I was assigned to the 19th Engineers, a regiment which has been over here several months. Most of all of them are now wearing two service stripes on their sleeves, which indicates to the public that they have had a year of foreign service. At present I am the only dentist with the regiment. I have about 3,000 enlisted men and 150 officers to take care of, also have a few of the allies coming in for treatment.

France is a beautiful country and has some of the most beautiful countries I have ever seen. The climate is fine. I sleep (when I get a chance) under three army blankets and sometimes could stand the fourth one.
Their mode of living is very different from ours. They do quite a good deal of their farming by hand as almost all of their horses have been taken by the government. They have certain days on which they bring their horses to the county seats and let the government officials pick the ones they want. The women do most all of the farming. I have seen them plowing three oxen and one donkey to the same plow, one hitched in front of the other. The crops consist mostly of wheat, oats and grapes. Their towns and cities are also very different from ours. Most all of the buildings are one story and built of stone. The only frame buildings I have seen were built by the American soldiers. The streets are very narrow and run in every direction, the same street will change its name three or four times before you have walked six of our city blocks. Their largest cities are very old and historical which make very interesting places to visit. A number of United States hospitals are located in these towns and cities. I have been to some of the Red Cross hospitals that are very beautiful and contain numbers of beds.

The Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. are doing some splendid work for the wounded soldiers. Every soldier I have talked to gives them a good name. Don't forget to stand by these organizations for they are a lot of help to the boys in France.

Only people over here can realize what war is and what it means to France. I have seen sights since I landed in this country, things that are horrible to think of we see every day. The Americans are doing great work. As the French say, they are "houcoup Americans" here and they are still coming as I can see by the trains that are coming in here.

I realize your type is running short so I will say good-bye and good luck to you. As ever, yours, LIEUT. FINNEY E. CRAWFORD.

P. S. Would like to hear from all my friends when convenient.

Crown Prince Writes to Kaiser.
American soldiers in France see the funny side as well as the serious side of war. This is proven by a letter received and has been handed us for publication from one of the American fighters.

The letter follows:

From Somewhere in France.—In his retirement before the Americans the Crown Prince has seen fit to address a letter to the Kaiser.

The letter is printed in full as follows:

"Dear Papa: I am writing on der run, as der brave and glorious soldiers under my command have not seen der Rhine for so long dat dey have started back dat way and of course I am going mit dem. Oh Papa, dere has been some offel dings happened here in France. First I started in my big offensive which was to crush der fool Americans, but dey know so little about military tactics dat dey vill not be crushed just like I vant 'em. I sent my men in der fight in big waves, and ven dey got to der Americans dey all said 'Boo, as loud as dey could holler. Well, according to vat you always haf told me, de Americans have turned and run like blazes. But vot do yer think? Dem fool Americans don't know anything about war, instead of running der odder way, dey came right toward us. Some of dem vas singin' something about 'Ve Vont
Come Back Till It's All Over, Over Dere,' or some odder foolish songs, and some of dem were laughing like fools. Dey are so ignorant. But dey are offel reckless mit dere guns, and ven dey come toward us it vas dat my men took a notion dat dey vanted to go back to der dear old Rhine. Ve don't like de little old dirty Marne river, anyhow. And, oh Papa, dem Americans use such offel language.
Dey know nothing of Kultur, and say such offel dings right before us.

"And dey talk blasphemy, too. Vot you tink dey said right in front of my face? One big husky from a place dey call Arizona, he said—oh papa, I hate to tell you 'vat an offel ting he said—but I can't help it—he said, 'To hell mit der Kaiser!' Did you ever hear anything so offel? I didn't tink anybody vould say such a offel ting. It make me so mad, I couldn't stand and hear such an of-fel ting so I turned round and run mit der odder boys. Was I right?
And, oh Papa, you know dem breast plates vot you sent us—you can send some more to put on our backs? You know we are going der odder way now, and breast plates are no good, for der cowardly Americans are shooting us right in der back. Some of our boys took off der breast plates and put 'em behind, but de fool Americans are playing 'Der Star Spangled Banner' mit der machine guns on dem plates.

"Can't you help us? You remember in your speech you said nothing could stand before der brave German soldiers? Oh Papa, I don't believe dese ignorant Americans ever read your speech for dey run after us like ve vas a lot of rabbits. Vot you tink of dot? Can't you send 'em some of your speeches right away? Dey don't know how terrible ve are. Can't you move my army back to Belgium were ve von our glory? My men can vip all de wimmin and children vot dem Belgians can bring us. But dese Americans are so rough and ignorant,
We can't make 'em understand dat ve are de greatest soldiers on earth and ven ve try to sing 'Deutschland Ueb' Alles,' dey laf like a lot of monkeys. But ve are getting der best of der Americans. We can outrun dem Papa, if ve are not de best fighters on earth, ve are sure de best runners. Nobody can keep up mit us ven ve tink of der dear old Rhine and my army never did tink so much of der dear old river. Let me know right away vot to do to return postoffice.

"CROWN PRINCE WILLIE"
France, Aug. 1.
Mr. Buel Edmonds, Murray, Ky.
Dear Brother: After so long a time I will write you a few lines. I promised to write you and tell you about army life, but I have't had anything to tell you. I have had a lot of experiences—but they pass away from my mind as fast as they come.
Well, when I first went to Camp Taylor I thought I had as soon be in hell. I was taking the vaccination and was home sick and really sick.
Too. I did not care if I was to die, I lost about twenty-five pounds and the treatment wasn't any too good, and I still say that was the hardest time of my life, but as time went on I got better satisfied and when I left there I was sure proud. Of course I didn't know where I was going but I did not care, anywhere to get away from that place. When I got to Camp Wadsworth, S. C., I was still sicker and cannot tell you how I felt; you would have to go through the same experience to know, but I hope you will never have it to do. After I had been at Camp Wads-worth while I changed, I began to take things as they came and do the best sticking about home that I could and got under new officers. There are five lieutenants and the captain is the company and they sure are fine men too.

There was one of them I liked better than the others, and by the way he has been my commander all the time and I mean he has been good to me.
I have tried to do what he told me to do well. We sure had something to do while we were in Camp Wadsworth. I worked harder than I ever did at home, but I got to where I liked to drill and was made corporal. I thought I was going some. I thought I would be satisfied if I was sergeant, but after I am sergeant I would like to go higher. I will have to admit that I like this game now very well; of course there are some things I do not like. I thought when I had a tent to stay in and a spring cot to sleep on that it was a pretty hard life, but now I carry everything on my back, I mean everything that I own; that is I carry this when we move and I have a tent to stay in and plenty of clothes to wear and a good place to sleep and plenty to eat. Of course it is not just like eating at home, but it is good enough for me.

Well, we have not drilled any since we have been in France. You may think I am having a hard time over here, but I am not. I am making the easiest $38 a month I ever did in my life even if I am in hearing distance of the canons. I would not go back to South Carolina if I had a chance.
When I come back to the United States I mean I will never go to South Carolina on a pleasure trip.

Well, I could write a whole history of this but I do not think it will be long until I will be back at home, and if I was to write it all I would not have anything to tell when I got back. The American boys are sure going after the huns, and I am ready to do my part. I would hate to come back home without getting some of them. I will close for this time.

Sgt. GUY E. EDMONDS,
Co. G, 1st Pioneer Inf., A. E. F.

United States Debarcation Hospital,
Fox Hills, Staten Island, N. Y.
Sept. 25.

Dear Mr. Jennings: Will try and write a few lines to my dear old county paper.

How is everybody in Murray, fine I hope. As far as I know all are doing fine in this camp and in the hospital. I am enjoying myself fine and have been shoveling coal for the last week. This is not like working in the tobacco fields.

Hello, girls, wonder what you are doing these Sundays. Courting those fifteen and sixteen year old boys?
Look out, don't fall in love with any of them and marry before we get back home, for we are sure coming back sometime. Well girls, I sure wish you all could see de boys here washing and scrubbing for ourselves.
We will sure know how to help our wives if we have the good luck to get one.

Fifty more boys came in today
from Camp Greenleaf to go help us.
We are expecting to get our winter clothes in a few days and I will be glad for I am tired of washing clothes. Look out, you eighteen to twenty-one year old boys, Uncle Sam may call you for there is a great demand for boys now.

I guess I had better close for this time, and if this don't find its way to the waste basket I will come again.
Hope to meet you all again before long, so be good and don't fail to write me, and listen, I like cake.

Written by my friend and myself.

With love to all we are, as ever,

CLIFFORD THOMPSON.

Jimmie Edmonds returned home
the first of the week from Camp Mc-Clellan, Ala., having been honorably discharged from the service on account of being a chronic sufferer of asthma. He is looking fine and was sorry to be compelled to leave the service. He is a son of Mrs. Edmonds who lives out on the Providence road.

Supply Sergeant George Hart, 159 Depot Brigade, Camp Taylor, spent a short furlough at home the past week. If there is another Calloway boy who is enjoying the service more than Sgt. Hart it has not been the Ledges' pleasure to know him.

Herman Easley and Lou Hodges, two jacksies from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, are in the county this week spending ten day furloughs with folks at home. Both are happy as larks and as proud of their uniforms of blue as any boy ever was of his first pair of top boots.

Henry Smoot was inducted into the military service of the government in Louisville last week as a member of the field artillery corps, and was immediately assigned to assist the local exemption board with its duties. He returned home last Sunday. That suit of kakis is quite becoming to the Count.

Among the Calloway boys reported as having safely arrived overseas the past week were Zel Ferguson, Furchue Givens, Roscoe Clayton and Willie Haley. Only a question of a short time until they will practically all be in France and every mother's son of them are rearin' to go.

What Did You?
When the war has been won,
When our duty is done,
When our sailors come sailing the foams;
When our men of the air
And the guns over there,
All the nation is welcoming home,
They will come to our door,
The young winners of war,
They will look you up, over and over,
And in word or in thought
They will ask like us not:
"Well, we did quite a lot—
What did you?"

When the years have gone by
And the pages are old,
That the story of struggle record,
With democracy sure,
When we're living secure,
In the strength of our soul and our sword—
In that glorious time,
To your knee there will clutch
Then a boy or a girl, or the two,
And will say, "Some were brave
On the land and the wave,
Some their everything gave—
What did you?"

Or it may be at night
You will sit by the light
Of a fire in a home that is free,
You will sit all alone,
"Nenth a roof of your own
In some year of the future to be,
And a voice down inside
Will say, "Some of them died,
Or they suffered their duty to do,
And the ones who could not
Gave their all, gave a lot,
Gave their money—what?
What did you?"

Wilson Starts Draft.

The drawing of order numbers for the 13,000,000 draft registrants enrolled September 12 was completed last week. The first number was drawn by President Wilson. Blindfolded, the president groped into the great glass lottery bowl and drew out one of the 17,000 capsules. It contained a slip numbered 322, thus giving to him holding that serial number first place in their respective classes after registrants already classified under previous registrations. The number was low enough to touch the list of every local draft board in the country except one or two of the very smallest.

Lucian Lockhart, who resides on the Kentucky road, holds number 322 in Calloway. Lucian is big and husky, about as a steer and the Ledger takes it for granted that Widow

GERMANS WATCH 4TH LOAN

Hun Realizes That Quick Subscription Means Loss of War to Them.

The campaign for the Fourth Liberty Loan will begin Sept. 23 and close Oct. 12. The result of the loan will be watched with keen interest in Europe, says a United States Treasury official, not only by our associates in the war against the Teutonic powers, but by our enemies. It will be regarded by them as a measure of the American people's support of the war.

The Germans know full well the tremendous weight and significance of popular support of the war, of the people at home backing up the army in the field. As the loan succeeds our enemies will sorrow; as it fails short they will rejoice. Every dollar subscribed will help and encourage the American soldiers and hurt and depress the enemies of America.

The loan will be a test of the loyalty and willingness of the people of the United States to make sacrifices compared with the willingness of our soldiers to do their part. There must be and will be no failure by the people to measure up to the courage and devotion of our men in Europe. Many of them have given up their lives; shall we at home withhold our money? Shall we spare our dollars while they spare not their very lives?

Trains Will Lay Up One Hour.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Regular trains on all railroads under federal administration will lay over in stations one hour during the night of Saturday, October 26, waiting for their regular schedules to catch up with them, for at 2 a. m., October 27, the country goes off the daylight saving plan and works back to regular standard time. The director general of railroads issued orders today that all railroad clocks and watches should be turned back one hour at 2 a. m., October 27, and that regular trains then must be held to conform to schedules after the change in time.
