THE LOW PRICE

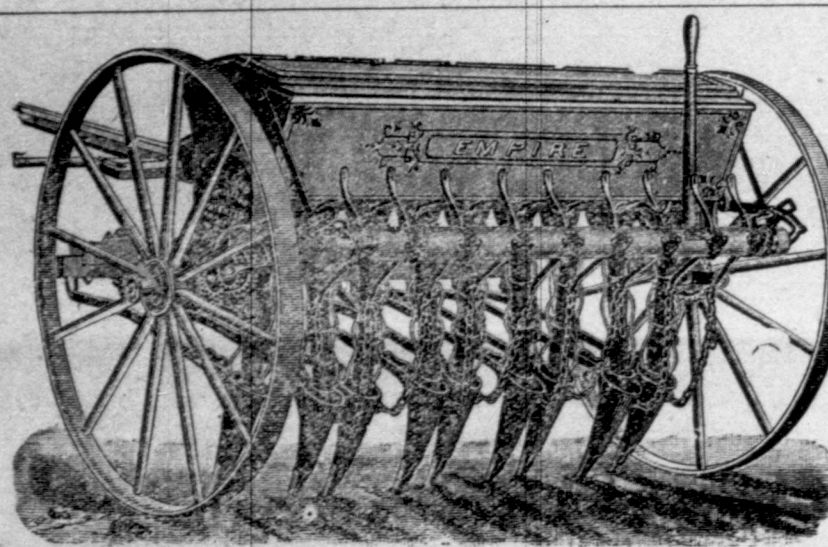

Prevailing on all Farm Products

Makes the thrifty planter all the keener to increase the quantity and improve the quality of such products. Aware of this fact, we try to procure the best of everything in the implement line to offer him. In grain drills we have both the "SUPERIOR" and the "EMPIRE"

They are made both with and without the fertilizer attachment. The Superior is made with either discs or hoes for putting in the grain; the Empire is made with the hoes only. They are the best drills money can buy, and, owing to the variety in construction, they afford the following lines of drills to select from:

Superior Make:

- A Disc Drill with fertilizer attachment.
- A Disc Drill without fertilizer attachment.
- A Hoe Drill with fertilizer attachment.
- A Hoe Drill without fertilizer attachment.

Empire Make:

- A Hoe Drill with fertilizer attachment.
- A Hoe Drill without fertilizer attachment.

Any one can be suited in this large line.

Bather Remains.
James H. Juckett, aged fifty, and Mrs. Maggie Pitt, aged sixteen, both of Montgomery county, Tenn., were married here by Judge Breathitt. This is the young bride's second matrimonial venture, her first marriage having occurred when she was only thirteen. Her first husband died a few months ago.

The Date Changed.
The date of the Pembroke barbeque has been changed from the 23d inst. to the 22d inst. The occasion will be thoroughly pleasant. No people on the globe are more hospitable than Pembrokeans, and the welcome they will give to visitors will be most cordial. Celebrated orators will address the crowd.

Dropped Dead at Pembroke.
Mrs. J. L. Harris, of Pembroke, dropped dead Wednesday. She was subject to attacks of the heart. She was a woman of admirable character and lovable disposition. Besides a host of friends she leaves a husband and one child. She was thirty-seven years old. The remains were buried in the Goshen grave yard.

Will go to the Country.
Dr. J. A. Southall, who has been practicing his profession in this city for a number of years, will remove to the country in a few days. His health is not good and he hopes to be benefited by a change of scene and retirement from work. He is one of the best and best physicians in the city and his hundreds of friends are sorry that he will remove from here.

Only Three Alive.
The annual conference of the M. E. church South will meet in Hopkinsville on the 23d of this month. The first conference after the separation from the M. E. Church North was held in Hopkinsville October 14, 1886. Bishop James O. Andrews presided, A. C. DeWitt was secretary, says the Fairview Review. Of the number then present only three so far as we can learn are alive, the rest having gone to reap the reward that awaits the faithful servants of God.

The Banner County.
Covington Commonwealth: "Davies county is the banner tobacco county in this State. Her product for 1895 is reported at 13,575,120 pounds. The county is a good second to the first, with 11,961,350 pounds. Hopkins county shows up with 9,000 pounds, Webster close up with 8,286,960. The county reports 7,642,300 and several counties are credited with over 6,000,000 pounds. The total yield of the State for 1895 was 22,972,450 pounds. Kentucky is a great tobacco State."

Held Over to the Grand Jury.
The examining trial of Fred Garrott, who shot his brother early last week on a farm near Kennedy, was held before Judge Breathitt last Friday and to the surprise of many persons the defendant was held over to the grand jury. Garrott's lawyers asked that their client be released either on his own recognizance or a bond not exceeding $25. The court fixed the bond at $125. This was given by Mr. Phil Wills, who said that if necessary he would go on the negro's bond for $1,000. The coroner's jury returned a verdict to the effect that the killing was done in self defense. Judge Breathitt, after hearing the testimony, stated that he thought that the matter should be thoroughly investigated.

DESPERADO CAUGHT.

For several weeks a gang of desperadoes kept the people of the St. Elmo neighborhood in doors at night and terrified the community at large.
Early last week the fellows held up some colored men near Pembroke and robbed them of a pistol, some money, and several articles of value. Will Moore, who is supposed to be a member of the gang, was arrested last week by an officer and was held over under bond to the grand jury.

Fri. night two other alleged members were captured. One of them is in jail here and the other gave bond. They were arrested in a barn near St. Elmo by Deputy Sheriff Eldridge Wilkins and Bob Davis and Constable Bob Meehan. The highwaymen were in a barn, which was stormed by the officers. The men under arrest are Lincoln Morgan and Henry Reeves.

Three negroes who are supposed to be members of the band are at liberty, but it is believed that they will be captured soon.

THE BIG BARBECUE.

The List of Committees Appointed by the Bryan and Sewall Club of This City.

At the last meeting of the Bryan and Sewall Club to arrange for the big barbeque and Democratic rally to be given near Hopkinsville soon the following committees were appointed:
Executive Committee—J. B. Galbreath, chairman; J. M. Higgins, J. T. Edmunds, secretary and treasurer.
Committee on Speeches—G. V. Green, chairman; Thos. Morrow, Hunter Wood, W. R. Howell.
Committee on Water—Monroe Dalton.
Committee on Barbecue—Dick Morris, Bob Hart.
Committee on Contribution—Wm. Davidson, J. M. Oliver, Jim West, R. H. Holland, Walker Wood, Lucien Craven, D. Lee Johnson, Wm. Ragsdale, Sr., Tom Ward, Judge Hanbury, Wm. Vaughn, M. C. Forbes, Gus Cooper.

Committee on Grounds—Lowe Johnson, Wm. Reader, Wm. West.
Committee on Broad—J. B. Galbreath.
Committee on Table—J. R. Canale, J. Bankhead Dade, Isaac Garrott, of Pembroke, Van M. Dulin, John Reed, Duffly McClendon.
Committee on Platform—Wm. Long.
Committee on Music and Demonstration of Grounds—The Executive Committee as a whole.

The Committee on Contributions will meet to-morrow evening at the office of Mr. Wm. Ragsdale, in the Ragsdale, Cooper & Co. building, and it is desirable that all the members of the committee be present.

The place selected for the barbeque is by far the prettiest spot to be found anywhere around Hopkinsville. It is a beautiful grove on the farm of Mr. Lewis Johnson, and is situated on the Madisonville road about a mile and a quarter from the court-house. The grounds will be fixed up especially for the occasion; seats, tables, an arbor &c., will be arranged for the convenience of the guests.

It is the intention of the Bryan and Sewall club to make this the greatest gathering of Democrats ever seen in Christian County.

Joined in Marriage.
Thomas W. Shaw and Miss Elizabeth E. White, a young couple from Haley, Ky., were married in this city Friday by County Judge John W. Breathitt.

Some Stories That Are Short and Salient.

NOTES ANENT PEOPLE.

Social Functions—Fair Hop—The Clubs—Other Items of Interest.

YOUNGSTERS WILL GIVE IT.

"The crowning feature of fair week" may be a ball, but it won't be given by the men of the oldest set. The matter has been discussed pro and con and a conclusion has been reached. The older boys will put the money usually expended in a fair hop in a German club and will have a series of dances at Hotel Latham this winter. It costs in the neighborhood of $200 to give anything like a successful fair ball, and a dozen small dances can be arranged for that amount. The younger boys, however, are exceedingly anxious to let folks from other towns know how they look in dress suits, so they will raise the money and get up a hop.

SADLY MISSED.

Bro. Prentiss is down with typhoid fever. Many prayers have been offered and many more will be when this is read. His mother, wife, a trained nurse and the best medical talent in Williamsburg, are doing all they can for him. His genial, sunny face was sadly missed at our Sunday-school convention.—Baptist Evangelist.

ILL FROM TYPHOID FEVER.

Mr. R. M. Conway, the popular real estate agent who spends much of his time in this city, is confined to his bed in Owensboro by typhoid fever. He is not seriously ill.

HAS RESIGNED.

Mr. Robert Fowler, a brother of Master Commissioner W. T. Fowler, has resigned his place with R. O. Hardwick. To-morrow he has gone to Louisville to enter a school of pharmacy.

JOINED IN WEDLOCK.

Mr. W. G. Crabtree and Miss Lalla Hays of Nortonville were married Wednesday at the residence of Mr. C. S. Simons, of Madisonville. They are spending the honeymoon in Nashville. There were no paternal objections to the union of the young couple, who thought it romantic to have the ceremony solemnized away from home.

LOCAL GLEE CLUB.

Friday night a company of glee singers from Hopkinsville gave an entertainment at the colored Baptist church. Quite a crowd of Elkhorn's society people were in attendance, and the music, which was really good, was enjoyed very much.—Toll County Times.

LOSS AND GAIN.

Mr. Robert McDaniel, who has had charge of the local columns of the Independent this summer, has resigned his position and will go to Nashville next week to complete a course in the medical college. He has been doing some highly creditable work on the paper and his determination to enter another profession causes journalism to lose a very promising member. He will be succeeded by Mr. Hugh Campbell, a son of the late E. P. Campbell, who has been connected with the typographical departments of all the local papers, and the information gained in this way will be valuable to him.

LUCIES REMAINS MARIED.

Mr. Lucien R. Shields, formerly of this city, and who for the past season has been connected with the Lookout Inn, was married last week to Miss Mary Hickman, a pretty and bright young lady of Chatham. The many Hopkinsville friends of Mr. Shields wish him and his bonny bride much happiness.

MADE ELECT OFFICERS.

The Bachelor Maids have held a meeting and elected officers. Miss J. L. Gaither was chosen to succeed Miss Miss Boone Campbell as President. Miss Ritchie Burnett was elected Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Miss Ruth, whose term of office has expired.

TWO TALES ARE TOLD.

Did John, Jr., Please the People of Princeton?

A dispatch from Princeton says: Hon. John Feland, Jr., addressed a large crowd of Republicans at a friend's house here this afternoon. His speech was greeted with loud and frequent applause, and seemed to please the crowd. It had been rumored that Hon. Charles E. Wheeler, the recently nominated Democratic candidate for Congress, would be here to reply to Mr. Feland, so the Republicans rented the opera house in order to have the entire time to themselves.

Regarding the same speaking the Owensboro Messenger of yesterday says: At Princeton, Ky., the Republicans for the past few weeks have been uttering broadcast dodgers announcing that John Feland, Jr., would speak there on the 12th. Nearly every Republican in the county was on hand at the appointed time. The Democrats requested a division of time between Feland and Hon. Wm. Marble, but the request was refused by the Republicans. It seems that Feland hardly came up to the expectations of the "Lilly Whites" for at the close of the meeting there was some completely disgusted with the speaker. Feland's statements were grossly misleading and he received very little applause.

Hopkinsville vs. Clarksville.
It is generally understood that the tobacco excitement is the result of a war between Clarksville and Hopkinsville. Last year the latter got more Robertson county tobacco than was profitable to Clarksville, and she is now making an effort to counteract that move. It has gotten to be a desperate fight, but the farmers are smiling at the splendid prices they are getting for the crop. Almost anything brings $10. A fine crop $12.50 to $14, and many $14 to $16. A farmer who would grumble at those figures ought to be taken out and shot. But of course this rivalry is not at the bottom of the boom. The great devastation of tobacco in the dark district is the real impetus given to prices, and it is stimulated greatly by the rivalry.—Springfield Herald.

Several Interesting Discussions Arranged

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Local Matters Which Will Entertain Many New Era Readers.

It is possible that Senator Henry M. Teller, of Colorado, will speak at the Pembroke barbeque.

The Governor has issued a proclamation calling for a special election in the First Appellate district to select Judge Grace's successor, and one in Louisville to select Judge Jackson and Judge Noble's successor. The election will take place at the regular election November 3rd.

There are so many Presidential tickets this year, that some Hopkinsville citizens are finding it difficult to remember all of them. By request the New Era publishes the seven tickets in the field:

Democratic—Bryan and Sewall. Binetallie—Bryan and Sewall. Populist—Bryan and Watson. Republican—McKinley and Hobart. Prohibition—Levering and Johnson. National—Bentley and Southgate. National Democratic—Palmer and Buckner.

The last two tickets can only get on the ballot in Kentucky by presenting a petition with 1,000 names each.

A curious feature of political life will be shown up at the city of Hopkinsville on the 23d of September. The free silver committee having asked Railroad Commissioner Dempsey, and all round free silverite, to speak at that town, and the Republican Committee having asked Hon. H. S. Irwin, also Railroad Commissioner, to address the dear people. It has been mutually agreed, says the Frankfort Capital, that while making their inspection of roads in that section of the State the two Commissioners will stop at Hopkinsville on the above date and each one expound his own cause.

Dr. John D. Clardy and E. T. Franks, candidates for Congress from this district, have arranged the following joint appointments: Colleen, Wednesday, Sept. 23. Hawesville, Thursday, Sept. 24. Owensboro, Friday, Sept. 25. Morgantown, Saturday, Sept. 26. Uniontown (at night), Sat'day, Sept. 26. Henderson, Monday, Sept. 28. Dixon, Tuesday, Sept. 29. Hopkinsville, Wednesday, Sept. 30. Madisonville, Monday, Oct. 5.

W. T. Fowler, Chairman, has issued the following call: The County Executive Committee of Christian County is hereby called to meet in the Circuit Court room, Hopkinsville, Ky., on Saturday, Sept. 19, 1896, to consider some important matters relative to the coming Congressional and National campaigns.

THE WIFE IS IMPLICATED.

A Princeton Woman Talks a Trifle Too Much.

The New Era Friday contained a brief account of the killing of Tom White near Princeton. No motive for the murder was known at that time. "Guine Moore held an inquest over the body and as a result White's wife is locked up in jail on the charge of being implicated in the murder.

If she knows anything she is too smart to tell it and refuses to talk. It develops that three men went to White's house and killed him. A short time ago White and his wife became involved in a difficulty, and he beat her with a stick. In talking with some women about the tragedy, White's wife remarked "they went too far with it," and then charged the advocates of free silver with dishonesty, repudiation and anarchy. They pose before the world as the ordained defenders and saviors of the poor, down-trodden working people. If ever there was a case of stealing the lives of heaven to serve the devil, in it is expressed in the attitude of the money power toward labor at the opening of this campaign.

"But they do not stop there. They put into operation the three most potent powers known to conspirators—deception, bribery and coercion.

AFTER HIM.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA)
Chicago, Sept. 12.—Ex-Congressman H. P. Bartine, a free silver man, who was a member of the Fifty-first Congress with McKinley, and who was also a member of the special committee of fifteen appointed by the Republican caucus to try to draft a "free silver bill" upon which all Republicans could agree, is out in an open letter to McKinley in which he reminds him that he, McKinley, was "frantic" about free silver and, as he was a candidate for the Speakership, kept reminding the Western Congressmen of that fact and asking their support on that ground. He reminds McKinley of his vote for the Bland-Allison bill and says that he was then opposed to any currency system that did not include the free coinage of silver. Mr. Bartine says that as McKinley was such an earnest advocate of free silver only a few years ago he ought not now to be denouncing men as scoundrels for thinking as he thought before he was nominated on a gold platform and may really think still.

FOR THE TICKET.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA)
Cleveland, O., Sept. 12.—The well-known Tom C. Johnson, of the Twenty-first Ohio district, is not a candidate for Congress, but he has declared himself in favor of the Chicago ticket and platform.

BETS UNTAKEN.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA)
New York, Sept. 12.—Large sums of money have been placed in the hands of men here to be bet on Bryan, but as yet no gold has been found with enough confidence in McKinley's chances to cover the money offered. The Bryan men are even offering to give odds, but can't get their offers taken up.

THE LADIES.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Company, printed near the bottom of the package. For sale by all responsible druggists.

Ventriloquist Anna: "You will observe, ladies and gentlemen, that the little figures speak exactly as I direct." —St. Louis Republic.

BROKE HIS LEG.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA)
Louisville, Sept. 11.—Ex-Gov. John Young Brown's crippled leg gave way yesterday, as he was standing on a crossing arranged for a seat at the Fourth-avenue crossing of the Southern railroad. He fell heavily and broke his leg, his arm and his collar-bone. While his injuries are serious, they are not considered dangerous.

REMARKABLE FEARS.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA)
Cincinnati, O., Sept. 11.—Emma Byer, 15 years of age, living on Babb street, has two birthmarks. The left eye is the perfect image of a negro boy in a white waist and dark skirt. In the right eye is a faze and above it is an interrogation mark. It is supposed Mr. Byer gave the impression to her daughter's eyes by gazing in a show window, wishing she might purchase a doll. The girl is very bright, and the images do not affect her sight. She wears dark glasses, because of sensitiveness.

FOUR TOLL-GATES BURNED.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA)
Springfield, Ky., Sept. 11.—Never before was such excitement seen as now exists in Washington county over the question of free turnpikes. The people on both sides of the question are stirred up to a white heat, and there are quarrels and fights every day between men who favor free turnpikes and those who do not. A few nights ago there was a large warehouse in this town burned, and as it belonged to men who opposed free turnpikes it was said that free turnpikes had burned it. Last night four toll-gates, together with the little houses which the gate-keepers and their families resided, were burned by men who oppose the toll system, so it is said, but they claim that the other fellows burned their own property in order to cause the people to come over to their side. Anarchy reigns.

SOVEREIGN ON GOLD MEN.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA)
New York, Sept. 11.—General Master Workman James R. Sovereign of the Knights of Labor has issued an address to the members of the order and to workingmen generally, urging them to support Mr. Bryan in the forthcoming presidential election. He pays a handsome tribute to the Democratic candidate as refers to him as the "matchless champion of the people," under whose standard all workmen should unite. Mr. Sovereign handles the gold party without gloves.

"They make a false claim," he says, "to all the honesty, all the morality and all the philanthropy in the world. They then charge the advocates of free silver with dishonesty, repudiation and anarchy. They pose before the world as the ordained defenders and saviors of the poor, down-trodden working people. If ever there was a case of stealing the lives of heaven to serve the devil, in it is expressed in the attitude of the money power toward labor at the opening of this campaign.

"But they do not stop there. They put into operation the three most potent powers known to conspirators—deception, bribery and coercion.

A BRIDGE FAILS.

(SPECIAL TO NEW ERA)
Eureka, Cal., Sept. 14.—A bridge at this place gave away this morning with a passenger train on it, and as a result four people were instantly killed and fifteen were fatally injured. Just as the train got to about the middle of the bridge people who were looking at it saw the structure begin to tremble and in an instant they were horrified to see it fall, carrying down its load of human freight to the water many feet below. It is thought that all the fifteen people who were hurt will surely die from their injuries.

A NEW PAPER.

The first issue of the Paducah Sun has come to the New Era's exchange table. It is a bright sheet and brim full of breezy news. The staff is as follows: J. P. Hodge, editor; G. H. Daines, assistant editor; Guy Rollison, city editor. Mr. Daines was formerly editor of the Hopkinsville Banner.

A CHRISTIAN COUNTY STORY.

A tale that is going the rounds about Judge White.

A story is going the rounds in Christian County about the early career and struggles of Hon. J. D. White, of Ballant county, Democratic nominee for Appellate Judge, which is worth repeating, says the Paducah Visitor. Judge White is unknown to many of the voters in that county and naturally when he was nominated inquiry was made about what kind of a man he was, and whether he was rich or poor. "Daddy" Peal was asked the question in Hopkinsville one day and for a joke told his inquirers that Judge White chopped cord-wood in his young days in Ballard county for money with which to buy his books. One farmer who was present and is acquainted with Judge White said: "Yes, that's right gentleman, I know him." The story was afterwards told extensively over the country.

The difference between Pills and Simmons Liver Regulator, is just this: Pills don't go down very easy with most people, and you feel them afterwards. While Simmons Liver Regulator in liquid or powder is very pleasant to take, and the only feeling that you have afterwards is the great relief that it gives from Constipation, Bilelessness, Sick Headache and Dyspepsia. It is a mild laxative and a tonic.

They call Bryan and Sewall and other advocates of free silver, coinage, anarchists, lunatics and so on. But the men who have the Republican organization by the throat are Mark Hanna, Matt Quay and Tom Platt. There is no necessity of calling them bad names.
