Kentucky Today

By The Associated Press
Owensboro—An explosion at a week ago today in Fordville, Ky., swing factory resulted in a third death here yesterday. Charles Shain, 19, factory employee, died in a hospital, as had Mrs. Talmadge Rice, 28, and Miss Emma Rice, 20, last week. Three other persons burned in the blast remained hospitalized here.

Georgetown—Suit to test the validity of a proposed $104,000 revenue bond issue was on file in circuit court here today. Funds from the issue would be used to finance construction of a sewage disposal plant. City counsel brought the test case against Joe E. Johnson, taxpayers' representative.

Mayfield—Funeral services were scheduled here today for Will H. Kackoy, 80, Mason county sheriff from 1910 to 1914, who died at his home Saturday.

Franklin—Funeral services will be conducted here Tuesday for R. E. Lewis, 78, former mayor of Franklin, who died yesterday. He was a retired businessman.

Pineville—County Attorney Martin R. Wilson said Charles Hocking, 30, was held in jail here today on a murder charge. The attorney said the accusation was filed in connection with the fatal stabbing of Otis Laws, a war veteran, shortly after midnight Saturday.

Winchester—Charles Lee Dixon, 6, was drowned in the Kentucky River near Jackson's ferry yesterday when a small motorboat capsized. His companion, Jack Haggard, 30, escaped. Haggard said he helped Dixon part of the way to the bank but was unable to save him. Dixon's body was recovered two hours later.

Lexington—Eldon S. Dummit, state attorney general, was the new chairman today of the Central Christian Church congregation of more than 2,000 members. He was elected yesterday as the successor of the late Charles N. Manning, Lexington banker and civic leader.

Lexington—The death of a volunteer patient of the U. S. Public Health Service Hospital here as the result of drinking poison, was reported by Dr. Victor H. Vogel, medical officer. He said regulations prohibited disclosing volunteer patients' names. Mr. Vogel said another patient, Harry John Lutz, 37, Detroit, serving a three-year term for forging a narcotic prescription, also drank some of the poison. Lutz was unconscious for several hours, the officer added.

Mrs. Adaline Nolen Dies

Life-Long Resident Of City Succumbed Sunday; Services Are Tomorrow

Mrs. Adaline Paschall Nolen, life-long resident of Fulton, died Sunday morning, Jan. 26, 1947 at the Fulton Hospital, following a long illness. Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. W. E. Mischke, pastor of the First Methodist church, Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Hornbeak Funeral Chapel. The body will remain at the chapel until time for the service.

Pallbearers will be K. P. Dalton, Frank Beadles, Paul DeMyer, Ray Graham, Glp McDade and Joe Davis.

Mrs. Nolen was born in Fulton, the daughter of the late Dr. Gideon William Nolen, one of Fulton's first physicians. She was married to M. Cook Nolen on November 2, 1887. Her husband preceded her in death many years ago, and her two daughters died in infancy.

She leaves one niece, Mrs. Gemma Hopkins of Oxford, N. C., and Everett P. Green of Houston, Texas, a sister-in-law, Mrs. Julia Nolen Hay of Sparks, Md., and five great nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Nolen was graduated from Dr. Price's School for Young Women at Nashville, and she was awarded the scholastic medal for having the highest standing.

She was born on the site of her present residence, located on Main street, and spent her entire life here. She was prominent in the affairs of the community and church. She was a member of the First Methodist church and for many years served as teacher of the Young Men's Bible Class, and later taught the Adult Women.

In the early 1900's Mrs. Nolen took an active part in the prohibition campaign and edited the W.C.T.U. paper, which was published in Fulton.

Interment will be at Fairview Cemetery in charge of the Hornbeak Funeral Home.

Lawrence Rites Held Sunday

Mrs. Josie Lawrence Is Buried At Beauregard;
Died In Fulton Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Josie Lawrence who died here Jan. 24, were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bayou-De-Chene Cumberland Presbyterian church with the Rev. James Kelsa, pastor, and the Rev. Mr. Sands of the Methodist church at Water Valley officiating.

The Wingo Quartette sang. Many relatives from Trigg county attended the funeral. Burial was in Camp Beauregard cemetery with Jackson Bros. Funeral Home of Duketown in charge.

Pall bearers were Roy Raymond, and Thomas Lawrence, and Gus Junior Alexander, grandsons of the deceased. Burial was in Camp Beauregard cemetery with Jackson Bros. Funeral Home of Duketown in charge.

Modern trolley coaches made their first appearance in the United States in 1928.

5 High School Students Have All "A" Standing, 35 Are On Semester Honor Roll, Officials State

Five Fulton high school students made no grade below an "A" during the first semester of the current school year, and are among the 35 listed on the semester honor roll announced by the school today.

These "A" students are Jerry Atkins, Mary Ann Brady, Joe James, Jimmy James and Jacquelyn Bard.

Others who made all "A's" during the third six weeks of the past term are Jack Browder, Don Samons, Jo Ellis and Ann Latta.

Forty-two students were on the third six weeks honor roll. Semester honor roll students are: Seniors—Betty Jean Fields, Bobby Grisham, Marion Grymes, Edith Earl Lancaster, Betty Lou Roberson, Elizabeth Ann

Circuit Court Term Opens In City Hall Here Murder Trial Is Center Of Interest Today

TO MEET ALL WEEK

A standing room only audience crowded into the circuit court room of the city hall as the January term of court opened this morning.

Attracting most interest was the case of the Commonwealth vs. John Henry Martin, colored, who was indicted in May, 1943 for the murder of Turner Tison, colored. Both men were from Fulton. The alleged murder occurred in February, 1943.

Representing the defendant were D. L. McNeill, Hickman, and John Hart, Union City. Flavius Martin, Commonwealth attorney, is associated with Judge E. J. Stahl in the prosecution. Special Judge M. C. Anderson, of Wickliffe is on the bench in Judge Stahl's absence.

Members of the trial jury are Maurice Bondurant, Glenn Atwill, Johnny Taylor, John McDaniel, Arthur Rose, Jim Purcell, E. D. Johnson, Jr., A. B. Overby, Mrs. Clyde Corum, this Bizzle, Leon Browder and Alvin Graham.

A verdict had not been reached at press time today.

Commonwealth cases continued today included James Brown, charged with grand larceny; Arthur Jones, grand larceny; Bobby Edwards, grand larceny.

Dismissed cases included the Commonwealth vs. Charles Howard Jackson, John Henry Martin, Jr., and Austin Bostick, indicted for conspiring to commit a robbery; and Herschel Hutcherson, cutting.

Hutcherson, indicted with Herschel Hutcherson, was fined $50 and costs for cutting in sudden heat and passion.

On the ordinary docket, cases continued were George T. Beadles vs. J. O. Scheffer; D. J. Perry vs. Donald Perry; H. A. Butler vs. H. G. Butler; Dr. D. L. Jones vs. Eldred Dixon et al; Carrie Eaton vs. Elizabeth Morris; Arkansas Fuel Oil Co. vs. F. A. Cardwell et al; James Benton Sandling vs. Little Sandling; and Mary Terrell vs. Ronald Terrell.

The case of Haws Memorial Hospital vs. William Sampson et al was dismissed.

The court will continue its session here through the week.

Civilian Group To Aid Training Program At Knox

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 27—(AP)—A civilian advisory committee will be appointed Thursday night, army officers announced here yesterday, to aid in the experimental peacetime universal military training program at Fort Knox.

The officers said the advisory committee of 30 civilians will be named at a dinner-meeting here Thursday night sponsored by the Louisville Army Advisory Committee. The advisory group will make a study of the experimental unit and report its findings to Brig. Gen. John M. Devine, unit commander, and Gen. Jacob L. Devers, army ground forces commander. State and local officials have been invited to Thursday's dinner.

The dinner is in honor of the volunteer Scoutmasters and other Scout leaders of the district.

Adron Doran, KEA president and member of the state legislature, will address a meeting of the Dry Lake District Boy Scout Committee at the First Christian church in Hickman tonight at 7 o'clock.

Grace Moore, Swedish Prince Gustaf Adolf, 20 Others Die In Copenhagen Plane Crash Sunday

Copenhagen, Jan. 27—(AP)—Royal Dutch Airlines officials hastened today to Copenhagen to investigate a disastrous plane crash which yesterday claimed the lives of American Soprano Grace Moore, Sweden's Prince Gustaf Adolf and 20 other persons.

Officials of the line issued a communique at The Hague indicating belief that the crash might have been caused by mechanical failure, but added that the reason might be hard to ascertain, so completely was the plane destroyed.

Miss Moore, who began her singing career in a Tennessee choir and won fame as a star in musical comedy, the opera and the movies, was the only American in the ill-fated plane.

The singer had just completed a concert engagement in Copenhagen and was en route to another in Sweden.

The DC-3 transport plane, with 16 passengers and a crew of six aboard, crashed on the airstrip just after taking off for Stockholm. The liner immediately broke into flames and blasted so fiercely there was no chance for anyone to escape.

The bulletin issued by Royal Dutch Airlines said the plane "took off normally under good weather conditions" but "immediately after the takeoff rose steeply upwards in a very unusual way, becoming un navigable."

"Abnormal Condition"
"The course of events," the bulletin added, "might indicate that the plane was in an abnormal condition."

The only body recognized for certain in the wreckage of the plane, airport officials said, was that of Prince Gustaf Adolf.

Among the charred bits of the plane were found Miss Moore's portfolio containing her diary and music.

Sweden went into national mourning today for Prince Gustaf Adolf, popular grandson of King Gustaf, who met death in a sudden heat and passion.

The 20-year-old heir to the Swedish throne had been active in the civil affairs of his country, serving as head of the Boy Scout movement and supervisor of a national health program.

He was considered one of the best horsemen in Sweden. As a result of his death his nine-month-old son, Karl Gustaf, becomes second in line for the throne.

Born in Tennessee, Miss Moore was born in Slabtown, near Del Rio, Tenn. The family moved to Jellico when she was five. Slim, blonde and comely, she was known as the "glamor girl" of the opera.

She made her debut in musical comedy and starred in several motion pictures, but her first love was grand opera.

During the war she sang for troops both here and abroad, paying her own expenses and sacrificing many concert engagements.

Miss Moore's regular accompanist, Ivor Newton, said in London last night that "but for the grace of God" he would have been aboard the death plane.

The singer had asked him to join her in Amsterdam for the trip to Copenhagen and Stockholm, but he had been unable to get away because of previous engagements.

Under the Soviet plan, the council of foreign ministers would write the final treaty text after hearing suggestions at an international conference of active belligerents. The plan would be submitted to Allied nations who declared war but did not put forces in the field. They would go to the German state.

The Soviet note said a peace conference should be called on "when a central government is established which is recognized as suitable to accept" a treaty.

American sources said a clarification of the memorandum would be sought.

Poland and Greece, appearing before the deputies' German and Austrian sections, made their appeals today for reparations and peace guarantees.

Poland estimated her material losses alone at $11,700,000,000, or 38 per cent of the "substance of our material wealth."

Polish spokesman Stefan Wierbowski renewed Poland's claim to 40,000 square miles of pre-war Germany territory along the Oder and Neisse Rivers. The Poles, administering the region under the Potsdam agreement, have had "considerable successes" there already, Wierbowski said, "in the field of economic and cultural life."

Chinese Reds Fighting Through Tingsien Today
Peiping, Jan. 27—(AP)—Chinese communists today were reported fighting through the streets of Tingsien, on the Peiping-Hankow railroad 35 miles south of Peiping, as reinforcements sped to relieve the small nationalist garrison which was receiving supplies dropped from planes.

One pro-government newspaper said the defenders were outnumbered 10 to 1.

Grace Moore At Start Of Tour

Singer Grace Moore prepares to board an airliner at LaGuardia Field on July 12, 1946, for a six-month tour of Europe, during which she entertained occupation troops. The tour ended when she died in the crash of a Dutch airliner which exploded and burned shortly after taking off from the Kastrup Airfield near Copenhagen, Denmark.

Minimum 10 Per Cent Cut In Truman Budget Is GOP Aim; Ask Limit For Expenditures M'Kellar To Be Guest Quizzer

Will Question Lillenthal
On Nomination As Head Of Atom Control Body

Washington, Jan. 27—(AP)—Atomic committee senators included Kenneth D. McKellar (D-Tenn.), as a guest quizzer today when they called David E. Lillenthal for questioning on his nomination as chairman of the new atomic control commission.

Renewing an old feud, McKellar told a reporter he is opposing Lillenthal's confirmation because he thinks the former chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority is "the head communist of my state."

Lillenthal, who helped draft a state department report suggesting a pattern for international control of atomic energy, has repeatedly denied McKellar's charges of "communism."

The senate has seen this same battle before, with McKellar strongly opposing Lillenthal's nominations as a TVA director and the senate finally overriding his objections to vote confirmations.

The Tennessee senator has denied that his argument with Lillenthal was based on any controversy over patronage.

Senate hearings on Mr. Truman's nominations for atomic commission members, beginning today, will share attention tomorrow with Secretary of Labor Schweikert's appearance before the labor committee on industrial disputes legislation.

The same day, a commerce subcommittee has called army and navy experts for testimony on commercial air safety regulations.

The budget question, however, continued to provide the possibility of a major controversy between congressional Democrats and Republicans with some administration supporters ready to resist any sizeable cuts in the President's recommendations.

Bridges said he thinks some allowances must be made for the possibility that the treasury will have to make extensive refunds on postal to postal pay judgments that might be obtained against employers.

The portal to postal issue is being threshed out by a judicial subcommittee headed by Senator Donnell (R-Mo.), with indications that some legislation may be sent to the floor this week.

Refunds Possible
The treasury already has announced that tax refunds will be in order if employers are required to pay for time previously spent by workers in getting ready to carry out their daily tasks.

Bridges said this might increase the approximately $2,000,000,000 the President in his budget for refunds of all kinds, but Senator George (D-Ga.), said he doubts that any appreciable amount will have to be paid.

"These portals to postal suits are a tremendous work to industry," said George, who is a member of the Senate House budget committee and former chairman of the senate finance committee. "But I don't believe they are going to result in any large recoveries for the people who have been suing."

George previously estimated that the President's budget could be cut to $35,000,000,000, thereby differing with Democratic Leader Barkley's description of Mr. Truman's estimate as "rock bottom."

No Will, No Cash,
Attorney States

Miami, Beach, Fla., Jan. 27—(AP)—The body of Al Capone, once fabulously wealthy Chicago gang leader whose attorney said he died broke, lay in a mortuary here today, waiting completion of plans for the funeral here later this week.

In Los Angeles, Capone's attorney, Abraham Teitelbaum, said as far as he knew "Al left no will and no money."

The lawyer said members of Capone's family had supported him in recent years, and the will was "mortgaged to the hilt."

British authorities attributed the same motive to the kidnappers of H. A. I. Collins, a retired British major and a director of a Jewish-owned bank in Palestine, last night. He was seized from a Jerusalem residence shortly after sundown.

Unofficial sources said the abductors of Judge Windham were well dressed and apparently arrived at the Tel Aviv court building in three taxis. They addressed the judge in Hebrew and ordered him to accompany them. The courtroom was partly filled, but no case was in progress.

British authorities said the first kidnapping also was apparently in retaliation for the scheduled execution.

Conservation Pledge Day

February 5, 1947, is Conservation Pledge Day in Kentucky, by official proclamation of Governor Willis, and throughout the nation at the request of the federal government.

The suggested conservation pledge in the Governor's proclamation is:

"I give my pledge as an American to save and faithfully to defend from waste the natural resources of my country—its soil and minerals, its forests, waters and wildlife."

Kentucky is one of the most favored of states from the standpoint of natural resources. We are a leading producer of coal and other minerals; our farmlands are rich and fertile, and will continue so if we prevent erosion and farm scientifically; our people are enthusiastic hunters and fishermen, because wildlife has been abundant enough for all to enjoy the outdoor sports.

Practicing conservation does not mean that we must not use our natural resources. It means simply that we must use them wisely and well, taking care not to waste anything.

Conservation is an individual proposition. Pledges are hollow and meaningless unless faithfully followed at all times.

Operation Frigid

Endicott, N. Y., (AP)—Skating enthusiast Joseph Sosensko, 39, thinks he proved skating keeps a man in top form by bicycling 35 miles on icy roads in two hours and 45 minutes.

Not skidder William Gerdey, also 39, whom Sosensko outlasted in the test the two arranged to decide which sport was the better conditioner, still stands by skating.

Gerdey blames his bicycle's condition for his failure.

Yeggmen Fail

Philadelphia, (AP)—Burglars figuratively "laid" dozens of eggs in an unsuccessful attempt to crack a meat store safe.

Lacking drills, the burglars attacked the strongbox with meat cleavers but were able only to knock off the safe's combination. They left after breaking several dozen eggs and scattering them on the floor.

Delayed Honesty

Jackson, Mich., (AP)—An honest man found Charlie Roe's purse containing $70—but his integrity came in spurts.

There was only $11 in the purse when Roe picked it up recently at a hotel desk after he was informed it had been found and turned in. He since Roe has received two envelopes from the finder. One contained $25 and the second $34.

There's a bright side to almost everything. It not looks long enough. The Brooklyn Eagle lost a $20,000 payroll to thieves last Friday, but in doing so they scored a "beat" on all other papers in covering the story.

Barbells steal $25,000 to $50,000 from Coney Island, Turkish bath—news item. That's one time the bath patrons got cleaned thoroughly.

The work week must be reduced to 30 hours by 1957, says Chester Bowles. And all this time we have been trying to find some way to increase the length of the day in order to get all our work done. Progress—it's wonderful.

General Tells Menace

By Dewitt MacKenzie,
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

General George C. Kenney, chief of the strategic air command at Andrews Field, Md., tells us that in a future war our United States would be the first target and would be reached by a trans-polar assault which might "result in a casualty list of 25,000,000 men, women and children in the first 24 hours."

The general thus bluntly advised the Woman's Patriotic Conference on Defense yesterday in Washington. He asserted that, above all, the enemy would strive for a quick knockout, the attack coming over the shortest air routes from the European-African land mass, across the North Polar Basin.

Apropos of this, it's less than four months ago that the Pacusan Dreamboat—the giant B-29 of the U. S. Army Air Forces flew non-stop from Honolulu over the Arctic to Calro. General Carl Spaatz, AAF commander, stated at the time that this proved "the feasibility of flights across the Polar wastes."

Kenney said the attack would be made "by both piloted and pilotless aircraft, by radio-controlled missiles, by rockets—all loaded with atomic bombs, super-explosive, super-incendiaries, bacterial weapons or whatever means of mass destruction happens to be in vogue at the time." Just to make sure that he got his idea home, the general added that "four atomic bombs of the old Hiroshima-Nagasaki type, properly placed, would knock New York City out of commission."

That's strong mustard, and obviously is so intended by General Kenney. He has deliberately emphasized one of the gravest dangers of the day—the development of another global conflict which would bring into play not only the atomic bomb but many other fearsome agents of death which have been created since the close of World War II. His purpose naturally is to spur the minds of men to devise ways of averting such catastrophe.

There are two ways of meeting this menace. One is to prepare mighty defenses to try to ward off attack. The other is to push through measures for control of the atomic bomb and for universal disarmament. Pending disarmament preparedness must be the watchword.

That is why these are among the paramount international problems of this new year. All roads of thought among peace-minded folk, in whatever country they may live, lead toward a solution of disarmament. And of course the atomic bomb and the control of atomic energy are foremost, for he who holds this greatest secret of the ages must inevitably be an object of suspicion and fear.

Kent Cooper, executive director of the Associated Press, in a recent radio interview with station WJR of Detroit, put the atomic problem like this:

"No real advance can be made, no real security can be achieved, unless the atomic issue is settled on an international basis."

Certainly we can expect no general disarmament while the atomic question is hanging fire. And by the same token the rehabilitation of Europe cannot be achieved, because of the economic and political problems are interlocked with those of security.

That's one thing which makes the framing of the all-important German peace treaty so difficult. Indeed, it will be surprising if it's possible to secure a satisfactory adjustment of the German and Austrian issues until a far better understanding has been reached in the matter of the atomic bomb and the general proposition of disarmament. These strategically situated countries loom large in the security calculations of both Eastern and Western Europe.

How can the United Nations create peace for the enemy countries until they have achieved peace among themselves?

Offers Eye For Farm

James Edmonds, 36-year-old partially disabled war veteran who lives with relatives near Ashley, Ill., has written a St. Louis newspaper, offering to trade one of his eyes for enough money to buy a small farm. He is unable to work regularly because of a stomach ailment and doesn't want to be a burden to his family. He is shown with his dog Bud.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

HONORS MRS. WILLIAMS

Miss Berta Peak and Mrs. Stanley Parham were hostesses to a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Glen Williams at the home of Miss Peak, Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The house was attractively decorated for the occasion with pink carnations placed on the mantle and a table in the center of the room covered with gifts from the guests.

When Mrs. Williams arrived she presented with a lovely hair corsage of white carnations. During the afternoon Mrs. Williams opened her many nice gifts, and a wedding cake was cut by the honoree and served with ice cream to the many guests.

Those present were Misses Virginia Jackson, Jane Huffman, Jean Shelby, Wilma Harris, Marilee Beadles, Betty Jean Fields, Marian Maxfield, Martha Frank Collins, Joan McCollum, Tootie Roberts and Marjorie Puckett; Mesdames William Humphrey, Roy McCollan, Ollie Wood, Jack Wood, sister-in-law of the honoree, and Little Miss Jackie Wood.

Those sending gifts but who were not present were Misses Martha Jane Roberts, Mary Francis Roberts, Josephine Shankle, and Mrs. Claud Williams.

Citizens League Members Attend Gambling Hearing

Henderson, Ky., Jan. 27.—(AP)—About 50 members of the Henderson county Citizens League have resolved to attend circuit court Wednesday when special Judge B. N. Gordon, Madisonville, is scheduled to hear motions to quash gambling indictments against 25 persons. The group adopted a resolution offered by G. W. Allen, manager of the Ohio Valley Soybean Cooperative, at a meeting here yesterday.

The resolution stated the citizens should take "positive action" in what was termed the "long uphill fight" against alleged gambling in Henderson.

Commonwealth's Attorney Faust Y. Simpson and County

Attorney L. Allen Rhodes addressed the league members, declaring they had been attempting since taking office a year ago to stop gambling here.

Hot as a firecracker. That's an expression. Hot as a soldering iron. That's a fact! A fact spelling progress as new telephone connections are soldered together—putting speed into the Telephone Company's program to improve service.

Telephone folks are in the thick of things, striving to give you as quickly as humanly possible the kind of service you want. Installing equipment for more and better telephone service is a time-consuming, complicated job. Miles of wiring must be laced into switchboards. Millions of intricate connections soldered, each in its precise place. Banks of electrical relays set up. Cables laid. Poles erected. Wires strung. And sometimes a whole new building constructed.

"Get the work out!"

That's our slogan. And that's exactly what we are doing as fast as we can get the materials and then install the equipment.

PROGRESS...and Now!

In KENTUCKY during 1946, the Telephone Company installed more facilities than at any other time in history. 34,000 miles of exchange wire, 518 miles of long distance circuits, and 35,303 telephones were added. 76 local and long distance central office additions were made and the number of employees increased 30 per cent.

Watch telephone service grow, for as it grows so does its value to you. That's because you can reach so many more people!

ports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

Monday Matinee

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Dr. Mal Stevens, who'll look after the ailments (not financial) of the football and baseball Yankees already has examined Frankie Sinkwich's thick knees and decided Frank will be okay with exercise. Now that Gil Dadds has agreed to run the mile, Manhattan Coach George Eastman figures there's no one around who can give Jimmy Rufferty a tussle at two or three miles during the indoor track season. Guys who should now claim the comeback of day bike racing is nearer than you'd think.

Backfield Coach Johnny Pincel apparently is the only survivor of Charles Bachman's football coaching regime at Michigan State. Johnny has been named to the dean of students office. North Carolina U. boasts two real Tarheel athletic teams—boxing and freshman basketball. Each has only one out-of-state athlete on the squad. As soon as Dr. Esile Asbury heard that Mahmoud, famous British stallion, had been purchased by Americans, he booked a service every year for life. He already has sold three yearlings by Mahmoud for $95,000.

Crimsons Boast Only Perfect Record In Loop; May Be Title Contenders

Atlanta, Jan. 27.—(AP)—If Alabama can get by Tulane tonight, even the most skeptical observer of Southeastern Conference basketball competition must admit the Crimson definitely are title contenders.

Led by Big Jim Homer, a pre-war star who added to his ability as a soldier-player at Fort Benning, Alabama is the only team in the league with a perfect record, and that covers eight conference triumphs and three other victories.

Two other tough conference outfits are on Alabama's slate this week—Mississippi State Thursday night and Georgia Tech Saturday night. Alabama won from Tech in a previous game, but since then Tech has shown marked improvement and defeated Tennessee Saturday night, 48-42.

Mississippi State, loser to Tennessee by a single point, is also showing progress and defeated Mississippi by 23 points a week after Alabama beat the Rebels only six points.

The trio of games involving

Alabama heads a 10-game schedule within the conference this week, with the Mississippi State-Tennessee return go at Knoxville Saturday night also rated as important. Five games featuring league teams with outside competition complete the week's card.

Will Appeal To 'Happy' Chandler

New Orleans, Jan. 28.—(AP)—At least two of the five baseball players of the Evangeline League declared ineligible by Judge W. G. Bramham will take their cases to Baseball's High Commissioner, A. B. "Happy" Chandler, if necessary, to win reinstatement.

Judge Bramham said Saturday he had placed the players on baseball's ineligible list because of alleged irregularities in the league's post-season series between Houma, La., and Abbeville, La.

Playing Manager Paul Fugit, Third Baseman Alvin W. Kaiser, Centerfielder Leonard Pecou, and Ace Hurler W. C. Thomas, all of the Houma team, and Don Votorel of the Abbeville club were declared ineligible.

Votorel said at his Georgetown, Ill., home he was ready to fight this to the finish because I have never gambled at home or away from home.

Whisky W'house Permit Is Denied

Cleveland, Jan. 27.—(AP)—An application for construction of a $1,001,221 five-story whisky warehouse at Frankfort, Ky., has been denied by the facilities review committee of the Civilian Production Administration in Washington. Glenn W. Thompson, regional CPA director, announced here yesterday.

KIAC Teams Face Crucial Tests In Week Leading Eastern Meets 3 League Foes In 4 Nights

UK PLAYS IRISH

Front-running teams in the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference basketball race faced a week of crucial tests today.

Results of this week's games will bear heavily on the outcome of the KIAC title chase.

The once-beaten leader, Eastern Kentucky State Teachers College, meets three KIAC opponents in four nights. Second-place Murray State Teachers College, the only club to beat Eastern, faces two of its toughest games of the season, Murray has won three games in the KIAC and lost one.

A major non-loop game attracting attention is the annual Kentucky-Notre Dame clash Saturday night in Louisville's Armory, where all 7,500 seats already are sold.

Adolph Rupp's Wildcats open their week's schedule against Michigan State in Lexington tonight. The 'Cats will be seeking their 18th victory in 20 starts.

While Kentucky handily whipped little Xavier of Cincinnati Saturday night, 87-34, Michigan State lost to De Paul of Chicago, 52-45. Earlier this season Kentucky beat De Paul, 65-45. Notre Dame's Irish trounced Purdue, 74-43 to avenge one of its two defeats. The Irish tallied their 10th win.

In the KIAC, Eastern with six loop victories, meets Berea Tuesday night at Berea, is host to Kentucky Wesleyan in Richmond Wednesday and plays Morehead State Teachers in Morehead Friday.

Murray faces University of Louisville's Cardinals in Murray Tuesday night and on Saturday plays its ever-dangerous rival, Western Kentucky State Teachers College in Bowling Green. The Western Hilltoppers have won 11 games while losing three but have played only two KIAC tilts, winning one, losing the other.

Polio Game Set Tonight

Pure Milk Tangle With U-T Jr. College; High School Will Play

The week's basketball card gets under way tonight with a March of Dimes benefit game between Fulton Pure Milk and U-T Junior College of Martin in Science Hall gym at 7:30.

All gate receipts will go to the infantile paralysis campaign.

Tomorrow night the Bulldogs and Pups will be hosts to the Arlington first and second stringers in the new gymnasium.

Arlington's Aces trimmed the Bulldogs 40-20 there in the first meeting of the two teams this year. However, the Bulldogs have shown considerable improvement in the past week, and may be able to get even for the previous pasting.

Thursday night South Fulton will send two teams to the new gym for a return engagement with the Fulton cagers. This game originally was scheduled in South Fulton, but has been changed to the Carr Institute gym.

Special Polio Account Opened At Local Bank

Wilson Gantt, Fulton chairman of the March of Dimes drive, said today that a special infantile paralysis account had been opened at the City National Bank. Those who wish to make contributions directly into this account may do so at any time.

Kentucky Wesleyan is fourth in the KIAC with seven wins, four losses.

Third-place Union College, with four league victories and two losses, journeys to Hanover College in Indiana for a tilt tonight. Tuesday night Union plays at Georgetown, hoping to avenge an earlier two-point loss to the Tigers. Thursday Union is at Milligan College in a non-loop game.

Centre takes on Tennessee Tech at Danville Tuesday night. It, too, is an out-of-league game. Wednesday the Centre Colonels go to Lexington to meet Transylvania College, the KIAC cellar dweller, which has lost five straight loop games. Other Saturday games: Georgetown at Berea, Tennessee Tech at Union, Marshall at Wesleyan, Hanover at Centre and Ashland Junior College at Transylvania.

Ben Hogan Takes Phoneix Open In 270, 14 Under Par

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 27.—(AP)—Par Master Ben Hogan today appeared bound for an even more successful trip down the PGA tournament trail this year than he enjoyed last year.

The long hitting little shot-maker from Hershey, Pa., yesterday captured the Phoenix Open Golf Tournament for the second successive year with a 72-hole 270, 14 strokes under par for the Phoenix country club course, a new tournament record here.

Hogan was already away to a flying start in the money department when he arrived here and he virtually made a runaway of the three-day tournament after he blasted out a 64 in the second round Saturday to equal the competitive course record set a year ago by Vic Ghezzi of Knoxville, Tenn.

Fighter Denies Bribe Offers

Rocky Graziano Says He Knows Nothing Of Payment From Gamblers

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Rocky Graziano, ranking middleweight title challenger, turned up at District Attorney Frank S. Hogan's office today before appearing at a grand jury investigating an alleged gambling ring, and asserted "I don't know anything about" any bribe offer.

The knockout-specialist from New York's lower side was questioned more than 12 hours Saturday night and early yesterday in connection with what the district attorney said was "the circumstances surrounding the cancellation" of Rocky's scheduled December 27 fight with Ruben (Cowboy) Shank of Denver in Madison Square Garden. The bout was called off on Dec. 24 when Graziano reported he was suffering from an ailing back which a state athletic commission physician diagnosed as a sacroiliac condition.

After completing questioning of the fighter Sunday, the district attorney's office handed Rocky the subpoena to appear before the grand jury today.

On his arrival at the district attorney's office, Graziano was interviewed by newspapermen. One reporter asked him if he had been offered a bribe.

"I don't know anything about it," was his brief response.

Accompanying him were one of his managers, Irving Cohen, and his attorney, Max Epstein.

Wall Street Report

New York, Jan. 27—(AP)—Stock market customers generally maintained a waiting position today and leading issues continued to mill over an irregularly lower route.

Dealings were sluggish from the start and fractional declines well in the majority near midday.

Stocks exhibiting occasional resistance included Santa Fe, General Electric, Sperry, Westinghouse and U. S. Gypsum. Among the laggards were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, Woolworth, J. I. Case, International Harvester, Douglas Aircraft, American Telephone, N. Y. Central, Southern Pacific, Anaconda and Air Reduction. Cotton futures slipped and bonds were mixed.

B-29 Flight OK

Marshall Must Decide; Not As Much Tension As When Trip First Talked

Washington, Jan. 27—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall apparently will have to decide shortly before or after his trip to Moscow whether to let the army air force send a fleet of B-29 bombers around the world.

The same problem came before James F. Byrnes last fall when he was secretary of state and Byrnes in effect blocked the venture at a delicate period of United States-Russian relations.

What actually happened was that after assistant Secretary of War Symington suddenly announced that the air forces were planning the world circling flight, the state department's unofficial opposition became so apparent the military chiefs suspended immediate plans for the operation.

But that was last fall with the Paris Peace Conference still ahead and with Moscow still voicing sharp disapproval of the American Navy's Mediterranean cruises.

OUT THEY GO

We are positively going to sell out everything in our Boy's Department. Our original sale prices were below cost, but as an added inducement to move this apparel more quickly we are further reducing them to this ridiculously low price.

You cannot afford to let this opportunity go by without getting a complete outfit for your boy at a lower cost than the regular price of one suit.
