Western, Eastern Tied For Top Spot In KLAC Race Now

With tournament time near, neither of the teams had won outright invitations to the finals of the Eastern or Western KLAC basketball races. Western Kentucky Teachers College at Bowling Green will be in the running for the Western title at Bowling Green, and Eastern Kentucky at Richmond will be working for the Eastern honors.

The races will be held at the end of this week, but officials said the days were far from over. Eastern officials have named a scouting party to check the tournament in Bowling Green. Officials at Eastern say they will try to outdo the West by winning the Western basketball championship.

The match between Eastern and Western will be held on Tuesday night. Officials say the game will be held in Bowling Green, but that no official has been named as yet. The officials say the game will be held in the Bowling Green high school gym, but that no official has been named as yet.

Both teams are in the running for the title. Eastern has had a weakness for the bowling green's bowling greens, but officials say the bowling greens are the best in the country. Eastern officials say they will try to outdo the Western teams by winning the Western basketball championship.

Eastern administrators have named a scouting party to check the entire tournament in Bowling Green. Officials say they will try to outdo the Western teams by winning the Western basketball championship.
