Barry Gives DDT Program Information

Number of Times House Is Sprayed Said Immaterial

PROTECTION IS SAME

Harry Barry, Fulton and Hickman county health department sanitarian, today released the following information concerning the DDT-spraying program sponsored by the Fulton county Homemakers Clubs:

If you have lived in the malarial section of Fulton county for the past two years you have had your house sprayed with "mighty weapon of insect destruction"—DDT. This spraying was done by the Communicable Disease Center section of the State Board of Health to kill the malaria-carrying mosquito.

This house spraying service was entirely free last summer, while this summer the home owners are paying a small portion of the cost. The remaining cost is paid with federal funds made available to the State Health Service for malaria control work.

These funds have been cut to the extent that residents in all counties where the work will be done this year are being asked to pay $3 for each house sprayed. Residents may feel that the price of $3 is unfair since some may have their house sprayed twice and others only once. In reality, those whose homes are sprayed twice are not getting any more than those whose houses are sprayed once. One spraying is sufficient to give protection from the malaria-carrying mosquito and most other insects for the entire summer.

To give summer-long protection, however, this spray must be sprayed more than once. It is usually about the middle of May, the time when insects begin to come out. Spray at this time lasts until fall. No house would be sprayed more than once if we could spray them all at one time.

It is impossible, however, to get enough men, material, and equipment to spray the 3,000 homes in Fulton county all at one time and we are forced to begin in April in order to have all houses sprayed by the time insects come out. Therefore, the houses sprayed last do not need a second spraying since the DDT will remain effective until fall. The DDT in the houses sprayed first begins to lose its effectiveness and they must be re-sprayed to extend the protection until fall.

The time your house is sprayed, therefore, determines if it will be resprayed, but whether it is sprayed once or twice your $3 will pay for exactly the same service—protection from insects through the summer.

This $3 will not be paid for service of unknown quality. The work done in the past two years has shown just what this year's house spraying program will be. The $3 will pay for the best grade DDT used in a concentration enough to be effective for over four months. It will be expertly applied by trained and experienced sprayers.

The work of the past two years has also demonstrated what benefits can be bought for that $3. Most important of them all

Parole Officer Explains How Prisoners' Background Checked

In answer to the question, "What are the duties of a state parole officer?" C. R. Reeves, who was in Fulton yesterday, explained that he was engaged in checking on the character and background of prisoners as they are sentenced to the state penitentiary.

He added that until a short time ago, prisoners were sent directly to the penitentiary, with only a slip of paper which gave their names and terms of confinement. A new system is now in use. Now a prisoner first is taken to LaGrange, Ky., where he is kept until the state parole officer has had time to visit the prisoner's home town, where

British Crisis Still Is Acute

Attlee Says Brownout Has Saved 78,000 Tons Of Coal; Fuel Dwindles

London, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Prime minister Attlee informed parliament today that the power brownout, now enforced throughout the islands on a virtual wartime footing, had saved 78,000 tons of coal in three days, but that the situation remains very critical.

He said the six big power stations of London had only a week's supply of fuel and that the London gas company's coal piles had dwindled to stocks that would last nine and a half days.

While he spoke, grimy colliers beat down the east coast from northeast loading ports and scores of trains carried fuel supplies toward still industrial centers in battle against the economic crisis which has thrown 5,000,000 or more persons out of work and forced an island-wide power reduction, under wartime penalties of fines and prison for violations.

Temperatures dropped to 23 degrees, Fahrenheit, last night and no immediate relief was forecast. All four British railroads reported every effort was being made to get coal through on lines which snow drifts had clogged.

GOP Leaders Can't Agree On Candidate Many Possible Party Hopefuls Up for Discussion

MONEY GOAL IS SET

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 13.—(AP)—A series of Lincoln Day conferences by state Republican leaders here yesterday failed to provide agreement on a candidate for the party's gubernatorial nomination.

Several prospective candidates were discussed.

Among the day's developments was a decision by the state central committee to send a special committee to Harlan to settle a county intra-party contest.

The contest involves William M. Howard and Daniel Boone Smith for the chairmanship of the Harlan county committee.

Howard was elected chairman at a recent meeting but Smith contended Howard's election was contrary to party law. Smith claimed unqualified persons and proxies were voted at the meeting and he contended also, that Mrs. Leah Lewis, the presiding officer, had not been certified to the state committee as chairwoman.

Separate meetings were held by various groups which discussed party policies, candidates and finances. At a luncheon given by the Kentucky Republican Club Hart, Madisonville, president, announced the party's financial goal of $100,000. Needs for the fund to cover expenses in the coming campaign were listed.

Gubernatorial candidates discussed included Lt. Gov. Kenneth Tuggle, Commissioner J. Stephen Watkins, Atty. Gen. Eldon S. Dummit, Revenue Commissioner Orville M. Howard, Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Fred Williams, Congressman Thurston B. Morton of Louisville, and Circuit Judge Edwin R. Denney of Mt. Vernon.

Although Gov. Simeon Willis has not made it known who he might favor, reports were circulated that he might back either Watkins, Dummit or Denney.

Tuggle is reported to have the backing of Rep. John M. Robison, ninth district Congressman from Barbourville.

National Committeeman J. Ross Todd, a Jefferson county party leader, refused comment but the Louisville Courier-Journal in a story published this morning said it was reported he was promoting Rep. Morton as a compromise candidate, one all might support. Todd was said to be in position of trying to bring about agreement on a candidate to avoid a primary.

SUSTAINS TALMADGE

The home economics department of Cayce high school, under the direction of Miss Pauline Waggener, has made great improvement in the conveniences and appearance of the department.

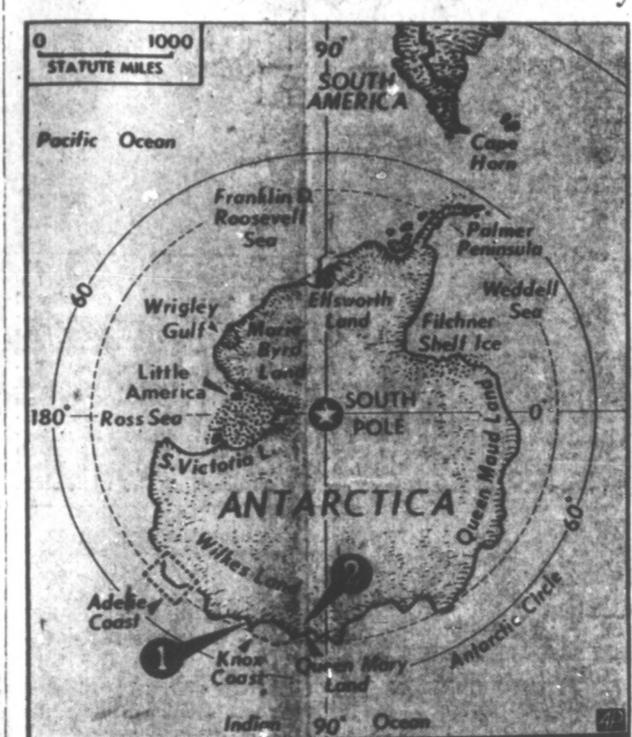

The room has been painted recently, and a partition in the room has been moved, enlarging the space of the kitchen. Cabinets have been made by the Future Farmers of America boys, under direction of James T. Roberts, vocational agriculture teacher. These cabinets furnish space for dishes, cleaning cloths, clothes closets and individual compartments for the girls.

New linoleum has been placed on the floors laboratory tables, making them easier to clean, more sanitary and more attractive. Each piece of equipment has been cleaned, and all the furniture has been cleaned and varnished. The cabinets also have been painted.

A full-length mirror has been purchased, in addition to a new bookcase, new books, step-on garbage pail, kitchen stool, hem marker, dish towel, drying rack and other small items. A new electric stove has been ordered for the department.

Supervisor Judge Walter Hendrix (above) ruled in McDonough, Ga., (Feb. 12) that Herman Talmadge is legal Governor of Georgia, and dismissed suit of Lt. Gov. M. E. Thompson which had asked a declaratory judgment ousting Talmadge.

Location Of New Antarctica Discovery

Map locates Knox Coast area (1) where fliers of Adm. Richard E. Byrd's expedition to the South Pole discovered a 40-mile land of lakes region completely devoid of ice. Same flights also discovered numerous islands of rocks standing above surrounding ice sheet on the Shackleton shelf of ice of the Queen Mary Coast (2).

Gales That Lashed Antarctic Task Force Ships Subsidizing

Aboard the Mount Olympus in the Ross Sea, Feb. 12.—(Delayed)—(AP)—Gales that lashed Central-Task-Group ships for 48 hours and crippled the cargo ship Merrick began subsidizing this evening, raising hopes that the icebreaker Northwind soon could begin towing the rudderless vessel to greater safety in the open sea.

A dispatch from Rear Adm. Richard H. Cruzen, task force commander, said the Merrick's rudder fell off after being smashed by an ice floe.

The Mount Olympus waited just outside the ice pack for a rendezvous with the icebreaker

Burton Island to transfer some personnel.

Southerly winds which in gusts had registered 50 miles an hour earlier in the day had fallen to 25 miles an hour this evening and a further drop was predicted during the night. The temperature was 27 degrees Fahrenheit, and falling. The blizzard came with east to northerly winds last Monday, but the direction later shifted to the south. Cold winds blowing off the polar ice cap generally bring good but extremely cold weather.

At Little America, Capt. Vernon D. Boyd was reported to have started on a tractor expedition to establish an emergency gasoline cache 300 or more miles southeastward.

Planes at Little America and those of the eastern task group were standing by, awaiting good flying weather. Weather was favorable for operations by the western group, which found a land of lakes on its last flights.

Things Look Blue For Ky. Bluegrass; Inquiry Planned

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Something seems to have gone wrong with the blue grass country's famous blue grass. The pasture crop is declining in both quality and quantity, and a special committee intends to do something about it.

The Fayette county pasture and blue grass seed committee heard a University of Kentucky report that the crop was declining and decided to conduct a tour to note results of fertilizing blue grass. Demonstrations with various types of fertilizer will also be conducted, and weed-killer will be used on one blue grass pasture. Some DDT will also be spread on a 15-acre field in an effort to kill insects.

Some Fear Tax On Sales, Bets

A Few Legislators Say Willis Might Ask These To Hike School Funds

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Some state legislators have expressed a fear, the Louisville Times said today, that a sales tax or parimutuel tax might be asked in any call by Gov. Simeon Willis for a special session of the General Assembly to raise salaries of school teachers.

Several teacher groups, including the Kentucky Education Association, have asked the Governor to call a special session for providing more funds for teachers' salaries.

Gov. Willis, here last night for the annual Lincoln Day dinner, was quoted by the Times as saying he is aware of the dangers in using any surplus of state funds for recurring expenses.

"The whole matter is to be considered before determining my course of action," the governor was quoted.

A 5 per cent tax on parimutuels and a 3 per cent sales tax were mentioned as possibilities for new revenue to cover higher teachers' salaries.

Occupation Duties Suit Him, So Sgt. Townsend Re-Enlists

Sometimes, Uncle Sam's army is a mighty fine place to be. So thinks Sgt. Rubin Townsend, son of Mrs. A. H. Sloan, Commercial avenue. Rubin liked living in a castle and having little more to do than to hunt, ski and ice-skate in the mountains—so he re-enlisted.

Of course, every once in a while he may have to drive his boss, General Linzie, somewhere, but that's not bad. In fact, it's a pleasure. Sgt. Townsend has been stationed in Salzburg, Austria, since he went overseas on Dec. 24, 1945. Before going to Hitler's former mountain summer home, he lived next door, in Heinrich Himmler's home.

Rubin also drove General Eisenhower on a tour through Italy. One day he picked oranges in the southern part of Italy, and the next day he skied in the snow at Salzburg.

The Fulton soldier has sent his mother a large album of pictures which show the interior and exterior of Hitler's and Himmler's homes. There are also pictures of German concentration camps, filled with prisoners, dead and alive, and pictures of the ovens where the Germans cremated their prisoners.

Sgt. Townsend will be in Austria for another six months, then will be stationed in Germany for the remainder of his 18 months of service. Before enlisting in the army, he was a student at Fulton high school. He left here before being graduated, but plans to re-enter school when he is discharged from the army.

They may sign up for 1 year or for the duration of the war plus six months. They will be enlisted in the grade held at time of discharge.

President Will Not Consider Withdrawing His Nomination Of Lilienthal, Ross Announces

U. S.-Canada to Trade Secrets

This Is Included In Extension Of Wartime Armed Collaboration

Washington, Feb. 13.—(AP)—The United States and Canada were disclosed today to have agreed on a full exchange of military intelligence—information on what other nations are up to.

The provision is one of a series of point-by-point agreements underlying a general accord to extend indefinitely the wartime collaboration of American and Canadian armed forces, persons familiar with the year-long negotiations said.

They asserted privately that more than a score of specific understandings were reached before Washington and Ottawa jointly announced the overall agreement late yesterday.

The formal statement made no reference to this background. But the disclosure of a compact for interchange of military intelligence has deep significance for at least two reasons:

1. Canada's geographic position along the polar cap air route over which any attack from Europe or Northern Asia might come.

2. Canada herself is a recent victim of an atom bomb espionage plot involving Soviet Russia.

While remaining officially silent on these points, both governments stressed two others in announcing the plan to continue their six-year collaboration for "the benefit of the north half of the western hemisphere."

The agreement is not formalized in a treaty; and the decision is "a contribution to the stability of the world and to the establishment of the United Nations of an effective system of world security."

There was, nevertheless, some speculation in diplomatic circles over the timing of the announcement—less than a month before the big four foreign ministers meeting in Moscow. Those who should know insisted, however, that the negotiations actually started at least a year ago and the timing of yesterday's announcement and the approaching March 10 session in Moscow was a mere coincidence.

Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King emphasized the significance of the pact in a report to the Canadian parliament at Ottawa yesterday.

A house armed services subcommittee approved legislation declaring it is congressional policy that the army and navy should buy their supplies jointly when possible.

The house postoffice committee called in postoffice department officials for a "get acquainted" meeting and received a report that the postal service now has 459,000 employees compared with 298,000 in 1940. Chairman Rees (R-Kan.) commented: "We think there is a chance for reduction."

The house labor committee, studying new labor laws, got a report from Rep. Cwinn (R-NY) on a personal survey he made of opinion among rank and file workers. Cwinn said he found them generally opposed to industry-wide bargaining and favoring legislation "to clarify" Wagner labor relations act.

Scouts Set Example

The sun never sets on the Boy Scout nor on his "Good Turn" and cheerful smile. Organized in 51 nations around the world, Scouting today has 4,413,139 boys and leaders on its membership rolls.

The Boy Scout Movement has been adjudged one of the most potential factors in the promotion of world peace. Its great influence in international friendship and good-will has been constantly furthered by Scout Jamborees, visits and correspondence across the seas.

In more recent years it has seen examples of world-wide helpfulness. For instance, the Boy Scouts of America, which marks its 37th anniversary during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7 to 13, has a World Friendship Fund of voluntary gifts by its members. Thus far over $110,000 has gone to help Boy Scouts in 32 nations overseas rebuild their units. In addition 400 cases, or twenty tons, of Scout uniforms and equipment given in the Scouts' own "Shirts-Off-Our-Backs" campaign have gone to Scouts of 13 lands.

These international aspects of the Boy Scouts are worth examining. The Scout Oath and Law, with slight variations in different countries, are known the world around. Scouting has promoted international good-will and friendship by emphasizing those points which nations have in common, not their differences. The Scout Program is based upon activities that are fundamental to boyhood the world around. Camping and life in the open attracts all boys, regardless of the language they speak.

Our Readers Say

SCOUTING DESERVES YOUR SUPPORT

This is National Boy Scout Week. Over 2,000,000 Boys of every color and creed are proudly wearing the uniform that bespeaks itself for an organization maintained for the one purpose of "Building a Better Manhood," with character and unselfishness, with a motto of Service to Others.

The Dry Lake District is composed of Fulton, Hickman and Carlisle counties. The Four River Council comprises all the Districts from Gilbertsville Dam to Reelfoot Lake and maintains its official headquarters at Paducah. Roy Manchester has served for 24 years as Scout Executive and is ably assisted by two Field Executives. This District is fortunate in having one of these, Elbert Johns, who lives in Fulton and devotes his entire time to the three above named counties. 3923 members of the Scouting Family were enrolled in this Council in 1946, 742 of these were voluntary Scouters, men who offered their services as Scoutmasters, Troop Committeemen, Cubmasters, and members of the various committees. These together with the Den Mothers who look after the young Cubs need your support and personal encouragement—every Mother and Dad should visit the troop meetings occasionally with a pat-on-the-back for the untiring efforts of the Scoutmasters—sponsoring institutions should know at all times just how the troop is progressing.

A council of this size must necessarily function as any other organized business would. Its executive board this year approved a budget appropriation of $15,000.00—all expenditures must be approved and are audited by a Certified Public Accountant. The allotment for the Dry Lake District this year is $2,000.00 and the local committee will canvass the city this week for these funds with which to carry on the work for a year. If the committee is not able to see you, please make your contribution to some scouter at an early date. Be a booster for scouting, not alone for Annual Scout Week but for all the weeks in the year. We want to make scouting available to every boy. If your boy is between the ages of nine and twelve he should be enrolled as a Cub; then when he reaches twelve, most likely he will become a Boy Scout. Five Scouts from this District became Eagle Scouts last year.

Yours For Better Scouting,
Bertie J. Figue, Scouter

Defense Strengthened

By J. M. Roberts, Jr.,
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Announcement of Canadian-American plans for military co-operation creates in effect an English-speaking entente for defense of a 10,000-mile arc across the North Atlantic, Arctic and Pacific from London to Tokyo.

Considering British installations along her "lifeline" to Australia, New Zealand and Hong Kong, the Anglo-Saxon periphery extends roughly around the world. On her side Britain is having trouble in Egypt, the Sudan, Palestine, Iran, India, and at other points, but in the western hemisphere the line, while attenuated, is not involved in political troubles, except insofar as Iceland and Denmark's Greenland play the role of innocent bystanders. Arms standardization agreements in Latin-America are expected soon to make the western hemisphere a solid bloc for defense.

This does not mean that a Canadian-American force is taking up positions, bayonets fixed, that air forces are flying patrol actions and warships scouting the seas on the alert. Merely that arms will be standardized, "test runs" made and strategy worked out in the light of lessons learned.

Whether or not a formal announcement is made of a similar agreement with the British, this is all merely a part of a natural trend which has been taking place ever since U. S. industry became the hub of English-speaking military strength.

Although many people fear military coalitions of any sort, and the Russians will consider it a further act of "western encirclement," the Ottawa-Washington statement stresses that nothing is to be done in conflict with United Nations policy, which dominates the entire American outlook on world affairs.

And for a long time it should have been plain to all except those who will not see that England and the United States have no heart for any war except one of defense, and not that if it can possibly be avoided.

If the world-wide defense line be described as one against Soviet Russia and communism, as it has been by some, it is because the dynamism, the nationalism, which produces war now emanates largely from that source.

Russia, too, by militantly extending her outposts since the war, has invited wariness on the part of her neighbors, and should not be surprised by parallel or counter action.

There, a nurse got the adhesive off in jig time.

"I figured something was phony when he came out of the store," the cabbie told police. "He had no candy."

Congratulates '46 Seniors

Fulton High Students Displayed Their Talents In School's Yearbook

By Ouida Jewell

Congratulation, seniors of 1946. You kids really displayed your talents in your yearbook, which arrived Tuesday. It's a pity that every alumni of Fulton high hasn't such an annual to remember his carefree days when he was in school. In my opinion, the seniors couldn't have a more deserving person to whom to dedicate their yearbook than the one they choose—Miss Mary Royster.

Their dedication reads: "To you, Miss Royster, we, the seniors of 1946, do dedicate our yearbook, Glances. We appreciate all the times that you have helped us, and stood up for us when no one else would. You are one of the fondest memories we will have of our high school days. When we think of Fulton high school, we will automatically think of you. We may not always have been what you wanted us to be, or thought we should be and do, but we have tried our best, and we shall always love you.—The Seniors."

In glancing through the snapshot section, at first I couldn't understand why a picture of Shirley Temple would be in the annual. Then, after a second look, I recognized the picture. It wasn't Shirley at all! It was a picture of Mary Eleanor Blackstone—pardon me—Mrs. Stanley Farham. Remember a few years ago, when Mary Eleanor was "Miss Shirley Temple" of Fulton?

You'll enjoy these pictures. There are some very clever poses, a few of them snapped on the fly.

There are pictures of the band, the orchestra, the football team, The Bulldog staff, the mixed chorus, and of numerous other school groups. There are pictures of the faculty members, and of each student in high school, grouped in classes.

Including in the annual is the class poem, cleverly written by Betty Jean Austin; class prophecy, by Ann Mackberry; class will, by Mary Eleanor Blackstone; class history, by Martha Frank Collins; grumbler's speech, by L. C. Bone; and a speech entitled "Youth's Contribution to America's Future," by Billy Johnson, acting president of the senior class, on Class Night.

There are several things of interest that I haven't mentioned included in this annual, but to really appreciate this piece of art, done by those energetic boys and girls, you should have a look at it yourself. I'm sure you would enjoy it.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
New York, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Gary Middlecoff, who gave up his place on the 1947 Walker cup golf team because he intends to turn pro, lists his favorite shot as "a straight one." That's just one tidbit of information turned up by USGA Secretary Joe Dey in studying questionnaires he sent to all the "walk-over" cup players. For instance Dick Chapman and George Hamer are the only players who never have made a hole in one. The other seven have made a total of 19. Bud Ward's biggest golfing thrill came when he shot a 67 at St. Andrews in the Walker Cup series and beat Frank Penning, 12 and 11 in a 36-hole tussle.

Meat The Crowd
In order to feed some 6,000 sportsmen and other heavy eaters expected to turn out to the Bonneville county Sportsmen's Association jamboree at Idaho Falls, Idaho, tomorrow, the sponsors have cooked up a "buffalo meat" loaf which will include the meat of one buffalo (killed in Montana), a quarter of another, and large portions of deer and elk meat. The members get all that, plus assorted entertainment, for a fee of one buck—not the kind you shoot with guns. Confusing, isn't it?

Sports Before Your Eyes
First Major League baseball executive to furnish complete data on his club to baseball's hall of records at Cooperstown, N. J., is Horace Stoneham of the Giants. He provided a complete statistical history of the club from its organization in 1883 through 1946. . . . add hard to understand items: The A. A. U. bars Buddy Young for a year because he "announced his intention" of playing for money, though he didn't get it. Detroit U. protests the snatching of Lee Knorek by the Pro Basketball Association of America although Knorek, according to B. A. A. records, played five years of college ball and signed a pro contract last August. . . . The U. of Virginia gave its football players a voice in making up the 1947 schedule and all but one of them voted for a return engagement with Penn. which licked the Cavaliers 40-0 last fall.

Dots All, Brothers
Paul F. Klein, head of the Toledo-Fort Miami Harness track, plans to name one of the big races after Jack Dempsey, who won the heavyweight title in Toledo. . . . If it was only a running race it would be made to order for knockdown.

Jumpin' Joe Nears 1,000

Ex-Murray Cage Star Needs 15 Points To Top Modern Pro Marks

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Jumpin' Joe Fuks, the soft-spoken Kentuckian with the touch of magic, goes after his 1,000th point tonight.

The 6 foot 5 forward for the Philadelphia Warriors of the Basketball Association of America has tossed 968 points through the hoops in 41 games and needs to score only 15 tonight to become the first cager in modern pro history to annex point number 1,000.

Based on past performances, Fuks is as certain of rinning 15-points as Joe Louis is of retaining the heavyweight title this year.

The 24-year-old sharpshooter has been averaging 24 points a game all season and not since early last November has been held under 16 points.

The Warriors will be playing the Cleveland Rebels and it is expected that Coach Roy Clifford will assign Ed Sadowski, former Seton Hall star, and Bob Faught, rangy former Notre Dame ace, to guard Fuks.

Jumpin' Joe played college ball at Murray State College in Kentucky where he never failed to score in each game. It has been his inspired marksmanship which has elevated the Warriors into a contending second place in the BAA's eastern division.

Covington Faces Baba Zaharais In Palm Beach Open

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Jane Crum Covington of Orangeburg, S. C., faced the favorite, Mrs. Mildred (Babe) Didrikson Zaharais of Denver, Colo., in today's semi-finals of the Palm Beach Women's Golf Tournament.

The other semi-final match paired Laddie Irwin of Montclair, N. J., and Jean Hopkins of Lakewood, Ohio.

Mrs. Zaharais, national women's amateur champion, eliminated Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Texas, 5 and 4, yesterday in a match that was never in doubt.

Says Pirates Knew Intention

Hank Greenberg, 1946 major league home run king, admires trophies in his home in New York, (Feb. 11) where he revealed he had informed the Pittsburgh Pirates management in his first contract with the club he would not play with the Pirates. Still hopeful of staying in baseball, the hard-hitting first baseman-outfielder says he has no immediate plans to retire.

restaurant owner, dairyman, and other business men the importance of having their establishment treated with DDT by some reliable pest control operator. In this way you would decrease the chance of reinfestation by carrying roach and other insect eggs and larvae into your home as well as practically eliminating the fly population in your community.

This project is being sponsored by the Fulton County Homemakers Clubs.
