Royal Family Welcomed To South Africa

Members of the Royal Family are greeted at the airport in Cape Town, South Africa. Here, the Duke and Duchess of York, along with their children, arrive for the visit. The trip is expected to be a success, with many preparations made for the royal couple's visit.

Social Happenings

ROYAL FAMILY EVENTS IN CAPETOWN

The Duchess of York and her children attended a Christmas party hosted by the President of South Africa. The party was held at the Union Buildings in Pretoria, and was attended by many high-profile guests. The Duchess and her children were clearly the center of attention, and were photographed with many of the guests.

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. W. Reynolds and Mrs. W. H. McCall were among those who attended the party. Mrs. Reynolds is well-known for her charity work, while Mrs. McCall is known for her role as a socialite.
