COUNTY JUDGE HOLDS THREE LUNACY CASES

MARTA WHEELER, Helen Montgomery and Sara Parks, Colored, were committed to the Insane Asylum at Rockbridge for treatment and care. Miss Wheeler was committed by Geo. A. Poulton, sheriff of Logan county, and Miss Montgomery and Parker were committed by Geo. H. Goodman, sheriff of Morgan county. They were committed on the ground of their unfitness for their respective places. Miss Wheeler was committed because of her nervous condition, Miss Montgomery because of her insanity, and Miss Parks because of her mental disease.

but he was always called "Pi Yuk." He was born in China, and had been sent to the United States, together with a number of other Chinese boys, to be educated. While he was there, Pi Yuk also learned baseball. He stood nearly six feet and played ball quite as well as he recited in Greek or in English to him freely, and it is very, very sad, but this is to be recorded that in the spring of the year 1881, at the annual session of the University of the South, which began today at the city of Oxford is to be the scene of a group of South and Canadian institutions, the Prince and the Princess of Wales are the patrons of the affair, and the professors, the students, the young and old, will attend. TRUE GHOST STORY.

I had a Real Knife, But Even That Vanished.

IT TAKES A STRONG MAN TO STOP DOING WEAK THINGS.

There is little to admire in the man who despises the good. To set a child's face toward gladness is to incline him to do the same. To say that one is not in business to make money is a confession of weakness. Half of success is in seeing the significance of small things.

Dishonest thinking does not lead to holy living.

The graces do not grow in glory. A growing faith will change men from the outside. Dishonesty thinking does not lead to holy living.

To eat a child's face toward gladness is a confession of weakness. Half of success is in seeing the significance of small things.

Our best moments are the least likely to remain in our memories. But perhaps our worst moments are the most likely to remain.

The most important thing to remember about the future is that it is not written. If we are to change our lives, we must first change our thinking.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP) — The capital city is now a national symbol of the industrial age, with its towering skyscrapers and sprawling suburbs. But the city was once a small, remote village surrounded by wilderness.

The city's history began in the 18th century, when it was called New York. The city grew rapidly in the 19th century, with the development of railroads and the Erie Canal.

The city was named for the first president of the United States, George Washington, who was born in Virginia.

In the 20th century, New York became a major center of commerce and culture, with the development of Wall Street and the Times Square.

Today, New York is a global city, with a diverse population and an array of attractions.

The city is home to many of the world's largest corporations, as well as a thriving arts and entertainment scene.

The city is also known for its high cost of living and its fast-paced lifestyle.

Despite its challenges, New York remains a vibrant and dynamic city. It is a place where people come to make their dreams a reality.
