More Box Cars Are Promised By Industry New Effects Of Current Shortage Reported Today

EARLY RELIEF SEEN

By The Associated Press New effects of the nation's big-building shortage of railroad freight carriers were reported today after steel producers promised to allocate more steel to building of new cars.

Industrial and railroad spokesmen agreed that the shortage was a long-term problem that would not be solved immediately.

Meanwhile, shipments of fuel oil, newsprint, coal, grain, lumber, farm produce, manufactured products and raw materials were held up at various points because box cars, gondolas, and tank cars were insufficient to carry all the tonnage.

The latest step toward relief was made in Washington yesterday. Senator Reed (R-Kan.), said that major steel companies had agreed to furnish enough steel to build 10,000 new freight cars monthly. Previously steel men had promised steel enough for 7,000 cars a month.

The promise of more steel came at a meeting Reed had called of officers of 20 railroads, 11 steel companies and 13 car building firms. However, the new goal, Reed said, would not be reached until about next June.

Some railroads announced they were cooperating in a plan to move freight over a northern Buffalo-Minneapolis-St. Paul route to avoid the congested Chicago gateway area. A spokesman for the Western Association of Railways. Executives said car-loadings for the first six weeks of 1947 were higher than any comparable period in five years and "the only answer to the shortage is more cars."

Those acquainted with the situation said the shortage of steel has been the chief problem. Railroads have 30,000 cars on order, but need thousands more. Last year the railroads, which normally take 17 percent of the nation's output, got only 13 percent. Production of consumer goods cut the amount available.

June 19, he is not entitled to the four per cent fee for collecting the city school tax. The fee was one per cent prior to June 19, and Dummit said fees of a public officer can not legally be changed during his term of office.

58, wife of Mr. Romy Sawyer, of the Ruthville, Tenn., community, passed away at her home Wednesday, Feb. 26, of a heart ailment.

Mrs. Sawyer was the daughter of the late C. B. and Annie Hart Gregory of Fulton. She was born

March 12, 1888. She was affili-

Mexican Rings Paid For Twice

Elvis Myrick Got Them
For Friends In Fulton
On His Trip To Mexico

Several of Elvis Myrick's friends are proudly displaying Mexican rings he gave them after his return from a two-weeks trip to Mexico, but they might not know that he was forced to pay for them not once, but twice.

Mr. Myrick had the rings in his pocket as he and Mrs. Myrick were going through regular customs officials inspection preparatory to re-entering the United States. As is natural for any man who has a pocketful of anything that will jingle, Mr.
Myrick was absent-mindedly running his fingers through the rings, and a sharp-eyed customs man demanded to know what was in the pocket.

Result—the tourist paid a customs duty of 55% of the actual cash value of the rings.

Fire Reported At J. H. Lowe's Home

A blaze which started from a kitchen fireplace did considerable damage at J. H. Lowe's home, 115 West State Line, this afternoon.

The South Fulton fire department was called at about 2:30 p. m. Most of the kitchen furniture was damaged, and the kitchen wallpaper was burned. The flames also spread to the attic of the house.

Subpoena For Gen. Marshall Later Suspended Temporarily

Washington, Feb. 27—(AP)— Rep. Bradley (R-Mich.), today "temporarily suspended" the serving of a subpoena against Secretary of State Marshall by a House Merchant Marine subcommittee.

Bradley, who is chairman of the full committee, acted shortly after the subcommittee, headed by Rep. Welch (R-Ohio), had issued the subpoena for Marshall to appear and produce all records and communications dealing with the wartime transfer of United States ships to Russia.

Bradley said Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson promised him by telephone to appear in the Michigan legislator's office at 3 p. m. today, with copies of State Department correspondence with Russia relating to 95 lend lease ships.

Bradley expressed regret Welch had issued the subpoena.

At a news conference in the presence of Welch, Bradley said:

"I am very sorry he issued it because Gen. Marshall doesn't know a damn thing about these Russian ships."

Bradley said Speaker Martin also deplored the action.

Hogg Announces As Candidate For Attorney-General

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 27—(AP)— Astor Hogg, former commonwealth's attorney of the 26th Judicial District (Harlan-Bell counties), announced here today his candidacy for the Democratic nomination as attorney general.

"My interest in good government is well known," Hogg's announcement said. "Many Dem-

Astor Hogg

ocrats of Kentucky have told me that in view of my background and geographical situation, I could be of material aid in strengthening the lines of Democracy in Eastern Kentucky in the next November election."

Hogg, 45, established a law office in Harlan in 1941 and in 1942 became the first Democrat to hold the office of commonwealth's attorney in the 26th District.

"If I can be of aid in redeeming Kentucky and helping to place it again in the hands of the Democratic party, I am ready," his announcement said.

Hogg served five years in Washington as a trial attorney for the Federal Trade Commission and as a special assistant to the attorney general. He was graduated from the University of Kentucky law department in 1924.

Hogg was elected mayor of Whitesburg in 1928 and the same year was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in Houston, Texas. In 1929 he was elected Letcher county attorney and served four years.

Cost Of Living Index Down Slightly Last Month

Washington, Feb. 27—(AP)—
The bureau of labor statistics reported today its cost of living index showed a 1 of one percent decline in mid-January for the first time in ten months.

That, however, was before wholesale prices started another rise which carried them to a new postwar peak Feb. 15. The bureau has not yet translated those increases into its consumers price figures.

Bob Williams, who has been

Scout Drive Still Going On

City Is Short Of Goal
By About $100 Now;
Gifts Still May Be Made

The Fulton Boy Scout drive still is in progress, and about $100 is needed to reach the city goal, it was announced this morning.

Those who wish to make additional contributions, or anyone who has not yet donated to the fund-raising drive, may contact Eugent Hootenpile at the I. C. roundhouse, Nelson Tripp at the IC passenger station, Joe Hall at Ford Clothing Co. or Clifford Shilde, at the Kentucky Utilities Co. office.

The Young Men's Business Club gave proceeds of their Valentine Dance in the Lake street clubroom to the Boy Scouts. A canvass of the business district was made to secure other gifts for the Scout program.

A final report on the drive has not been made yet, but those in charge believe only a relatively small number of gifts still is unreported.

Last Home Games Friday

Bulldogs and Cardinals
Of Mayfield High Play
After B-Team Tilt, 7:15

The Mayfield Cardinals, who come to the new gymnasium tomorrow night, will provide the last regular season competition for Coach Jack Carter's Bulldogs before the First District tournament which opens at Arlington March 4.

The Mayfield B team plays the Pups at 7:15 in a preliminary game.

Both Fulton teams lost a Mayfield earlier this year. The score of the first team tilt was Mayfield 41, Fulton 35.

Fulton has had an up and down basketball year, winning nine and losing 11 to date. Seven of their 11 defeats were by five points or less, including two to Clinton, their first tournament foe.

The Bulldogs have scored a total of 811 points (excluding the tournament at Madisonville) to 708 for their opponents' combined total.

The Fulton band will be seated on the stage for the last home game, and will play between the first and second games. Yewell Harrison, director, will lead the musicians.

Jury Recommends 99 Yrs. For Accused Corbin Slayer

Jacksonboro, Tenn., Feb. 27—(AP)— A sentence of 99 years in the state penitentiary was recommended by a Campbell county jury yesterday when it found Henry E. Burton, 32, ex-convict of Corbin, Ky., guilty of first degree murder in the pistol slay-ing of 49-year-old Bert Houser, Knoxville taxicab driver.

Polar Expedition "A Success," Cruzen Says En Route To U. S.

By Alton L. Blakeslee
Associated Press Correspondent

Aboard U. S. S. Mount Olym-pus, Feb. 27—(AP)—The fourth American expedition exploring the mysteries of the Antarctic has been "very much a success," both in discoveries and in polar training for the navy, Rear Adm.
Richard H. Cruzen said tonight as this flagship began her long journey home over a fog-veiled sea.

The Mount Olympus and the Burton Island are steaming toward New Zealand with their work finished, and Cruzen declared "the time is getting short" for further flights by the Eastern or Western wing groups.

Adm. Nimitz, in a message to the task force, said:
"The chief of naval operations congratulates Task Force 68 on its achievements and the determined manner in which it overcame all obstacles to those accomplishments. Your experience and training in operations in polar weather are a great asset to the naval service."

Cruzen, the task force chief, said naval personnel on the expedition got a "real insight into the type of problems you have to risk in polar regions, and that was the primary objective —to find out what our problems are."

Irreversible navigational experience was obtained in forcing through the icepack, which scarcely could be tougher. All ships, despite thin hulls, were brought through successfully, although the Merrick lost a radar and other vessels suffered minor damage. Cruzen said the damage was less than he had expected.

In aviation exploration, Cruzen said, "one of the most surprising things was the ability of seaplanes to operate in the open sea from seaplane tenders which had been built only to service seaplanes inside sheltered harbors."

Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd's flight over the South Pole obtained good photographic coverage of new areas, especially in penetration beyond the pole, where a plateau was found to extend flat and featureless.
Cruzen continued.

Twenty-nine operational flights were made from Little America during the brief stay there, of which 20 did mapping, he added, and the Western Task Group made more than 30 flights.

Bevin's mention of a four-power anti-aggression pact apparently went beyond the proposal made by former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes last year. Byrnes urged last May that the four countries enter into

House Prepares For Debate On Anti-Portal Pay Bills; Southern Demos, GOP Agree

Another Sadist
Victim Found

California Schoolgirl
Found Gashed, Burned
Under Railroad Trestle

Long Beach, Calif., Feb. 27—(AP)—Possibly the victim of another sadist, a pretty 17-year-old high school girl was found nearly nude, her body gashed and burned with a cigaret, beneath a railroad underpass last night.

A five foot, 112-pound blonde, she was identified by police as Jacquelyn Mae Stang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stang.
Stang is a Long Beach businessman.

A passing motorist saw her lying below an embankment, where she apparently had rolled after being tossed from a car.
Unconscious when picked up, she emerged from the coma in a hospital and, after emergency treatment, was permitted to go home.

Police quoted doctors as saying she had not been attacked, and was apparently suffering no ill effects from shock or ex-posure.

Detective-Inspector C. J. Novotny said the girl told him she was followed by a man as she made her way home from Polytechnic high school about 6 p. m. yesterday.

"I ran," he quoted her, "but he grabbed me when I was near an alley and that is all I can remember. It felt like he put a hand in a leather glove over my mouth."

As the House unAmerican committee resumed its inquiry into accusations that some strike have been instigated by communists, Chairman Thomas (R-N.J.), predicted the government soon will act against the communist party on charges of violating the corrupt practices act. He said that involved contentions the party failed to file expenditures and contributions reports as required.

Atwood R. Wynn, president of the confederated unions of America, a group of independent unions, told the House Labor committee congress should act to protect "independent organizations from the attacks of the major labor organizations."

In a prepared statement Wynn asserted the CIO and AFL are "constantly using their power and influence" to put the independents "out of business."

Albert J. Fitzgerald, president of the CIO United Electrical Workers, was the day's first witness at the senate labor committee hearing.

AFL President William Green told the house group yesterday the government was largely responsible for the last coal strike because officials "stubbornly and arbitrarily refused to sit down with representatives of the workers and try to find a settlement of their troubles."

House committee member dug around to find the source of a mystery news release which purported to give highlights of Green's testimony.

The handout, which referred to Green as "apparently angry," seemingly "infuriated," was given to reporters covering the hearings. Purportedly it was from the office of Chairman Hartley (R-N.J.). He disowned it.
So did everyone else.

Youthful Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) and Veteran Senator Taft (R-Ohio) squared away for a senate floor battle Friday over how much of the budget savings should be applied to debt reduction, how much to tax cuts.

The senate yesterday voted 51 to 33 to cut $4,500,000,000 from President Truman's $37-500,000,000 budget. Of this reduction, Knowland proposes that $3,000,000,000 be earmarked for payment on the national debt. Taft contends only $1-000,000,000 should be so applied, that the rest should counterbalance a 20 percent overall cut in income taxes.

Last Remnants Of State's Militia Disbanded Feb. 26

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 27—(AP)— The Kentucky State Militia, which at its peak had 2,000 officers and men, passed out of existence yesterday.

Gov. Simeon Willis approved an order by Adj. Gen. G. H. May disbanding a military police company at Hazard and the last three infantry companies, "A" at Covington, "B" at Richmond and "H" at Monticello, all of the Second Regiment. Other groups had been disbanded in recent months coincident with the organization of the new Kentucky National Guard now well under way.

Big Four Foreign Ministers To Talk Non-Aggression Pact

London, Feb. 27—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today that he and the foreign ministers of U. S., France and the Soviet Union would discuss at Moscow a four-power pact to prevent any new aggression in Europe.

Initiating a House of Commons debate on foreign policy Bevin said he was not sure that Germany even after defeats in two great wars, knew the real meaning of defeat and recognized the stupidity of war as an object of policy.

Only four-power agreement, he said, will make it possible to curb Germany and to re-educate her in the ways of democracy.

"There is no other way," he declared, but he added that Britain "should not expect too much from us at Moscow" because "we have terrific difficulties to face."

power anti-aggression pact apparently went beyond the proposal made by former Secretary
of State James F. Byrnes last

a treaty to keep Germany demilitarized for 25 years.

Bevin told the House he hoped the pending Anglo-French treaty would be signed soon. He said Britain's proposal for revising the Anglo-Soviet treaty, as suggested by Premier Stalin, would be presented to the Russians in the near future.

On the 1942 Anglo-Russian treaty—which the Soviet press once accused him of repudi-ating—Bevin said:

"I am extremely glad that the desire is shown to prolong the alliance on the basis of closer and cordial relations between the two countries."

Bevin made a single reference to the storm arising in the U.
S. by his charge last Tuesday that President Truman wrecked negotiations for a Palestine settlement by issuing a statement during the 1946 Congressional election campaign.

"On all questions," the foreign minister said with emphasis, "our relations with the U. S. are of a most cordial character.
We shall not allow any wedge to be driven between our two countries."

You, Too, Can Be Lucky

Luck is on the side of the man who acts at the right time on the basis of the best information. Luck stays with him if, when the die comes up unfavorably, he knows he has the right to discard the result and cast again. It takes persistence.

Luck gives the inside track to the constructive optimist who recognizes the favorable elements of current events and times his action accordingly. Luck likes the fellow who stands on the shoulders of giants (previous experience) rather than on his own whims alone.

Luck challenges the man who capitalizes past handicaps and obstacles to become strong and alert and aggressive, and more often than not, gives him the decision. Luck favors men of good will, good manners and good ethics.

In the long run the villain always loses; but luck pursues him. In the long run the man who believes in himself and is loyal to his profession is always fortunate.

Luck likes the man who uses smart, clean, aggressive tactics, persistently. Luck likes the intelligent tactical analyst.

There is no reason why you shouldn't be. If you want to be, lucky as all get out.

With The Fourth Estate

UNFORTUNATELY TYPICAL

Investigations are in full swing at Purdue University to find out how it happened that a section of the stands collapsed in the field-house during a basketball game. Two spectators were killed and about 250 hurt, a number of them badly. The section that went down was carrying between 3500 and 4000 persons, most of whom seem to have been on their feet cheering the home team at the end of the first half.

Thus far there has been no indication of intentional chance-taking, and presumably there was none. The stands have been used without mishap during the football season, and university authorities appear to have used at least ordinary care and caution all the way along. It is deplorably clear now, however, that tests and inspections were not adequate. It is just unfortunately typical of this country to neglect what it takes to prevent accidents, and it is not really enough that no one else investigates them as fully and regretfully as we do. ## False Alarm

Pasadena, Calif. (AP)—An excited man in uniform police via telephone that a nearby body was lying on the roof of an adjacent structure.

There was, all right.
 But the sun bather resented the disturbance.

Anti-Aircraft Arrowhead

Roswell, N. M. (AP)—Capt. Chester H. Bohart, B-29 superbomb pilot at the Roswell Army Airfield, said he thought the shooting was all over. Now he's not sure.

Taking toward the runway, Bohart noticed a tire going flat. Inside the tire mechanics found an Indian arrowhead.

A Lebanon, Ind., ready-to-wear store inaugurated a "For Men Only" shopping night, saying the poor men are such perfect gentlemen when shopping with women that they let themselves be pushed around. That ain't gentlemanliness—just the old instinct of self-preservation.

BONE AND ROGER

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bone celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary Saturday night in their nice new home with a large George Washington party. Honors were shared with Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Rogers, who also marked their 23rd anniversary, the Bones Feb. 23 and the Rogers the 24th. Little Gary Floyd and Barbara Lou Bone, dressed in George and Martha costumes, greeted and welcomed the guests on their arrival with their traditional courtesy.

A big picture of our first President, American flags, red hatchet and a potted cherry tree put us in the mood for that, back period. The big game was "Truth or Consequences," based on a "Washington Quiz." Most of us had forgotten our school-day history, so the truth was scarce and the consequences were plentiful. The whole house echoed with laughter and no teen-age group had more fun than we as initiators and emperors of everything from fighting dogs (Bro. Roger), horse traders (Emmer Farmer), negro readers (Dave House), way back teachers (me), musical talent and other stunts. "Little Jimmy Horton" of Hickory, who is nearing 100, is still working on his penalty for failure to "recite his speech."

The dining table centered with the cherry tree was loaded with attractive gifts for the Bones, Bill and Lucie, and the group then presented two large love pictures of the Washington era to Rev. and Mrs. Roger. Delicious refreshments of two courses carried out the patriotic motif. They were served to the following: Rev. and Mrs. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kimbro and son of Clinton; Owen Wheeler of Meibler; Miss Linda Horton and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Horton of Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Bone, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin House, Mr. and Mrs. Norville Floyd and son, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vaden, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Shupe, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Story, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey House, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kimbell and children, Mrs. Len Barclay, Mrs. Addie Schwartz, Mrs. Lela Brown, Miss Docie Jones, and the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Bone and children, Billy, Bobby and Barbara Lou.

Out Of The Frying Pan

By Dewitt MacKenzie

AF Foreign Affairs Analyst

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's feverish charge that President Truman spoiled England's negotiations over the Palestine issue last autumn is highly illuminating—not as regards the Holy Land, to be sure, but as indicating the British government's anxiety regarding its own political future.

Bluntness is one of Bevin's characteristics, but this time he out-blunted himself. His rebuke to the President was, to put it mildly, a most unusual development between allies. Moreover it didn't add much to our fund of information, for London long ago made it plain in more diplomatic fashion that England wasn't pleased with Mr. Truman's call for the admission of 100,000 Jews into Palestine.

Why then did Mr. Bevin raise the matter in such combative form on the open floor of the House of Commons several months after the event? The answer, as I see it, isn't hard to find, and it is this:

Prime Minister Attlee's government—trying to turn a new furrow with England's first Socialist plow—finds itself in serious difficulties. The country's economic position is grave, as the government itself has disclosed to the world within the week. The people are enduring an austerity of life exceeding that of wartime. The granting of independence to India and Burma is like an atomic bomb on the empire. There are many other ills, of which the Palestine situation is one.

Naturally Prime Minister Attlee's opposition, headed by the politically shrewd Winston Churchill, has been blistering the government with charges of bungling. Even as Mr. Bevin was addressing Commons, the Conservative House of Lords was raising hob with the decision to withdraw from India by June, 1948. And of course the opposition has ridden the Socialists hard over the handling of the Palestine issue.

But that's not the whole story. Discontent has been showing itself among the general public which gave the Socialists their majority in the election of 1945. These voters, by the way, included many conservatives who decided to give Socialism a chance to show what it could do. Now the austere life, and the unhappy economic position, have got them down.

So we find the Attlee government fighting with back to the wall for its life. Foreign Secretary Bevin's outburst was part and parcel of that fight—an effort to appease a relentless opposition.

Under normal circumstances the present government has more than three years to run before another general election is due. It has such a large majority in Commons that, unless a considerable number of its own followers should desert, it needn't fear being overthrown on a vote of confidence.

However, Socialism is on trial in England, and the record which it makes during the life of this government will determine whether it can survive there. Attlee is battling not only to maintain his position now, but to achieve a record which will continue his party in power at the next election.

There you have, I think, the real answer to Mr. Bevin's speech. One suspects that in the long run he will find it unprofitable—a jump from the frying-pan into the fire, so to speak.

Editor Sees Need For Better Tourist Facilities In State

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 27.—(AP)—Members of the Kentucky Petroleum Marketers Association yesterday were told that better facilities must be provided for tourists in Kentucky before any influx is invited.

Tom R. Underwood, editor of the Lexington Herald, speaking at the final session of the Association's annual convention, said roads accommodations, hotel rooms and meals must be available for visitors.

Stating that facilities now are very limited, he added: "but there is a chance that room space may be increased by use of revenue bonds with which to build hotels at state parks."

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The Indiana high school basketball tournament, which starts this week-end, drew 781 entries and will draw around 1,500,000 spectators before it ends. The final at Butler field house in Indianapolis was sold out long ago through the midwest, that the kids will play about 700 games in four days to reduce Indiana State football coach after the field to 64 teams for next season though his contract has another year to run.

It's Cats Vs. Solid South

SEC Tournament Opens In Louisville Armory; UK Plays Vandy First

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 27.—(AP)—It's the solid South against Kentucky, a borderline state, as the 15th Southeastern Conference basketball tournament opened here this afternoon.

The University of Kentucky, victor in eight of the past 14 meets and ranked No. 1 team in the nation this season, was the outstanding favorite to repeat its championship tournament performance of last season.

However, there were some observers who saw the possibility of an upset, if not by one of the other three seeded teams, then by unseeded Tulane, which won all 10 of its home games this season.

First game on the tournament's schedule today found third seeded Tennessee and unseeded Georgia clashing at 1:30 p. m. (CST) in the Jefferson County Armory. Following at 3 p. m. second-seeded Louisiana State University and the University of Mississippi met.

Tonight's two games will be between Georgia Tech and Mississippi State at 7:30 and Vanderbilt and Kentucky at 9 p. m.

Tulane, Florida, fourth-seeded Alabama and Auburn drew first round byes. They will get their first taste of tournament play in quarterfinal games tomorrow afternoon and night. Although conceding that Coach Adolph Rupp's Kentucky outfit is a great team, rival coaches looked back at the two defeats handed the Wildcats this season by the Oklahoma Aggies and DePaul to come up with the conclusion that Kentucky isn't invincible.

One of Coach Rupp's pre-tournament worries was how he would cut his squad to the tournament limit of 10 players. He brought 12 with him. Bernie Shively, tournament manager and athletic director at the University of Kentucky, announced last night there are plenty of good seats left for every session except the final Saturday night. He added that he expects one of the most successful meets the conference ever has held.
