1947 Red Cross Drive To Open Here March 11 Will Be Part Of National Effort To Obtain Funds

QUOTA IS $1,100.00

The American Red Cross, through nearly 3,000,000 volunteer workers, is asking the public to subscribe $60,000,000 to carry on its far-reaching program for the fiscal year 1947-48.

The nationwide drive is now in progress, and will continue until March 31. In this one-month period, the national organization will attempt to obtain enough money to carry on its domestic and international programs for another year.

The Red Cross campaign in Fulton, will open on Tuesday, March 11, and local Red Cross officials hope to reach and exceed the quota of $1,100 within one week.

Leon Browder is general chairman and J. E. Fall, Jr., is drive chairman. Committees to conduct a canvass of the residential and business districts during the week of March 11 to 18 will be selected within the next few days.

Red Cross Chairman Basil O'Connor has announced that Harry D. Gibson of New York City, who headed last year's national campaign, will serve in the same capacity this year. Nationally known as a philanthropist and financier, Mr. Gibson served with distinction overseas as Red Cross commissioner in Western Europe and Great Britain for three years, from 1942 to 1945.

Pointing out the continuing need for Red Cross services to veterans and servicemen, Mr. O'Connor said, "Never in time of peace has the American Red Cross been called upon to render such extensive services to the military forces at home and abroad and to veterans as are now required."

"Approximately 75 percent of Red Cross funds are still spent in war-related services at home and overseas. We still have more than 2,900 workers serving outside the United States. As our work in army and navy hospitals and other installations gradually decreases during the next few years, work with veterans and their families will increase."

The goal of $60,000,000 was set after a careful survey which pared the budget to the minimum consistent with responsibilities of the Red Cross.

City Council Meets Monday

Accepts Resignation Of
R. M. Belew; Hears Plea
To Restrict Liquor Stores

The Fulton city council held its regular March meeting last night at the city hall.

The council accepted the resignation of R. M. Belew as city tax assessor, effective April 1, and appointed Walter Voelpel as his successor. Mr. Belew gave ill health as his reason for resigning. He was elected for the years 1946-47.

A delegation representing the West Fulton Parent-Teacher Association and other citizens of West Fulton appeared before the council to ask passage of an ordinance restricting liquor stores to the business district of Fulton.

The council also heard a report on the progress of the Harris Fork creek project. It was stated that condemnation suits now pending would be tried as quickly as possible, and that the contracts for straightening and widening the creek might be let early in April, 1947.

Jimmy James, son of George James, Second street, and a senior at Fulton high school, ranks among the upper 12 Kentucky high school students eligible to receive the Pepsi-Cola college scholarship. Announcement of the state winner will be made April 10 or shortly thereafter.

Contestants are judged on grades made in school and on all-round scholastic ability. Jimmy has a high school record of all "A's" with the exception of one "B" grade. He is tied for second-highest ranking position since 1930.

The only other Fulton high student to reach the finals of the Pepsi-Cola scholarship contest was Jessie Nell Carter in 1945.

The youth, identified by Lieutenant Thomas A. Murray as Robert L. Coombes, was turned over to the police by his own mother.

VA Stops Pay To 4,000 Vets

State Program Is Being
'Tightened Up'; Many To Receive No More Money

Frankfort, Ky., March 4—(AP)—Jobless pay for about 4,000 Kentucky war veterans has been stopped under a "tightening up" of the benefits program by the U. S. Veterans Administration, the State Unemployment Commission announced yesterday.

Approximately 24,000 Kentucky veterans were receiving the jobless pay prior to the reduction made last month, the Commission said. While some of the discontinuances might not be permanent, the Commission estimated a total of 4,000 claimants would not get any further investigation of their cases.

The commission's report came after the V. A. issued a statement announcing a policy of intensifying inquiries into such claims. The V. A. held that mere registration for work does not qualify a veteran for benefit payments. He has to show he had attempted to find work himself, the statement said.

The V. A. statement said state agencies administering the benefits program had been asked to adopt special review proceedings in the case of all veterans claiming benefits for 10 consecutive weeks. Such men are to be interviewed and given job counsel, it said. Every time a veteran applies for another 10 consecutive weeks' pay, a more intensive check is to be made, the statement added.

New York Cotton Exchange Closed By AFL Walkout

New York, March 4—(AP)—The New York Cotton Exchange closed until further notice today as the result of a strike—the first time any major exchange here has been closed by labor troubles.

The exchange board of managers went into immediate session following the walkout by members of United Financial Employees Local 205 (AFL). The New York Exchange does the largest volume of business of any cotton exchange in the world.

There was no trading in wool futures and wool tops as a result of the cotton exchange shutdown. The strike did not affect the New York Stock or Curb Exchange, which have contracts with the union.

Legal Espionage By Reds Said In Existence In U. S.

Washington, March 4—(AP)—Chairman Thomas (R-NJ) said today the House Committee on Un-American Activities has discovered that "an elaborate scheme of legal espionage operations is being carried on" in the United States by Russia.

In a speech prepared for delivery in the House, Thomas said: "One phase of this legal espionage has been the tapping of the inventive genius of American industrial and military development for the benefit of the Soviet government."

Numerous protests had been filed by Norwegians living in the neighborhood of the cemetery. People demanded the graves be removed on the grounds that the Nazi idea of honor is inconsistent with that of the Norwegians.

3 Take Leaps To Their Death

Trapped In Chicago Fire,
Rescue Attempts Fatal;
Flames Kill One In House

Chicago, March 4—(AP)—Two men and a woman leaped to their deaths and one man was fatally burned in a fire which swept through a west side rooming house early today. Six other persons suffered injuries as nearly 100 tenants fled from the four-story structure.

Panic gripped many of the tenants as they were aroused by heavy smoke. An unidentified woman, about 50, and Warren C. Crockett, about 70, plunged from third floor windows and were dead upon arrival at county hospital. Another tenant, Richard Kristovich, 47, also leaped from a third floor window and died a few hours later.

After firemen extinguished the blaze they found the charred body of a man on his bed in an attic loft.

Scores of the tenants fled by a fire escape and after Thomas Hellen, 65, jumped from his third floor room to the roof of an adjacent building, many of the other tenants followed him to safety by this route.

John Haberborn, second deputy marshal, said the fire apparently started on the first floor and swept up stairways to the roof. He estimated damage at $4,000.

Pres. Truman Reaffirms Good Neighbor Policy

Mexico City, March 4—(AP)—President Truman set out like any other tourist today to take a look at Mexico after pledging to her citizens last night that the United States intends to stand by the good neighbor policy.

The exchange board of managers went into immediate session following the walkout by members of United Financial Employees Local 205 (AFL). The New York Exchange does the largest volume of business of any cotton exchange in the world.

There was no trading in wool futures and wool tops as a result of the cotton exchange shutdown. The strike did not affect the New York Stock or Curb Exchange, which have contracts with the union.

He had a full schedule for the day, ranging from the laying of a wreath at the foot of the Mexican monument to independence, through attendance at a festival of native dances, to a luncheon and reception at the U. S. embassy in the afternoon and an evening reception at the Mexican Foreign Office.

President Harry S. Truman of the United States of America shakes hands with President Miguel Aleman (right) of Mexico after President Truman landed in Mexico City for a three-day visit.

President Miguel Aleman, Mexico's recently inaugurated chief executive, said in his speech of welcome that "no rivalry" holds the U. S. and Mexico apart and "no untoward complex thwarts us." He then added:

"If prejudices have been an obstacle (to inter-American harmony) let us make the education of our children and of our youth a liberation from that inextinguishable obstacle. And if distrust has been another hindrance, let us abolish the final causes of distrust."

Byrnes And Marshall Advise Speedy Approval Of Treaties With Axis Satellite Nations

Senate Body Will Investigate Newsprint Crisis

MAIL RATE MAY GO UP

Washington, March 4—(AP)—The first peace treaties of World War II came under a Senate committee's study today and Secretary of State Marshall and Former Secretary James F. Byrnes urged speedy approval.

Marshall, testifying before the Foreign Relations Committee, limited himself largely to asking quick action.

He left the detailed explanation to Byrnes, who stressed that the quicker the treaties are approved the quicker occupation armies can leave.

The treaties are those with Bulgaria, Hungary and Romania, occupied by Russian forces, and with Italy, occupied by British and American troops. They provide for occupation forces to leave within 90 days after the treaties become final.

Under the constitution, the State Department can negotiate treaties with other nations but the Senate must approve them by a two-thirds vote before they become binding on this country. The treaties were only one of several new items of business on Capitol Hill.

A Senate small business subcommittee began an investigation of the newsprint shortage. Ed M. Anderson, Brevard, N. C., official of the National Editorial Association, told the group a "black market" in newsprint paper has sprung up and has brought a "crisis" for small publishers.

Chairman Capehart (R-Ind.) promised that the Senate committee will do all it can to end the shortage.

The Senate Civil Service committee is seeking ways to put the postal service on a paying basis, got suggestions from the post-office department for higher rates. It proposed two cents for postcards, continuation of the three-cent rate for local letters (now due to expire July 1), and higher fees for handling weekly publications, circulars, parcel post, special delivery and registered mail.

The Senate Atomic energy committee closed its hearings on the nomination of David E. Lilienthal, former TVA head, to be chairman of the Atomic energy Commission. It may vote tomorrow.

House and Senate labor committees, each studying the question of new labor laws, continued hearing witnesses with varied suggestions.

Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, told the Senate group that farmers believe strikes which injure public health or welfare ought to be barred. He proposed that disputes in such cases be submitted to arbitration, which means that they would be put before some outside person or group for settlement.

Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association, suggested to the house committee that Communists be prohibited from holding office in unions. He said Communists are "foreign agents."

Gartrell was said at the commission office to be at his home in Ashland and not expected back until Thursday.

New York, March 4.—(AP)—Tip from a New Englander who really knows the game is that Holy Cross stands a better-than-fair chance of winning the National Collegiate A. Square Dance Proved Popular—Too Much So

San Diego, Calif.—(AP)—Dancers turned out in such numbers for an open-air square dance festival that 300 applicants were turned away and the city recreation department, sponsoring the event, had to continue the festival through an extra week.

Last night as he eased into a conservative suit of pajamas at 9 p. m. and prepared to get a good night's sleep, which he has discovered is amazingly beneficial, Leo Durocher at some length, between polite yawns, on the new Dodge regime.

"There'll be no card playing of any kind on this ball club," he said sternly. "Not even bridge. They tell me there used to be some gambling. All right, that's out. I talked with my players about it and they agreed it was the thing to do."

(Privately, some of the players, with nothing to do at night except wear their arches out on the hard, stone lobby floor, told this correspondent they wished Leo had reformed a little more gradually.)

"I'm not asking my players to do anything I'm not doing," he continued, virtuously. "Look at me. I haven't been out of this room at night. I ate one meal in the dining room, and what happens but a bookmaker comes over and tries to sit down with me. So now I'm having all the rest of my meals right here in the room."

Brewers Hangs on In Second Spot; Central City Next

TOURNEYS UNDER WAY

Ashland, Ky., March 4.—(AP)—The Inez Indians today completed 12 consecutive weeks of leadership in the Ashland Daily Independent's high school basketball poll.

However, Inez, winner of 34 games against three losses, totaled its lowest number of votes since the poll started.

Brewers high retained second place this week, eight voting points back of Inez. Central City again was third.

The newspaper's correspondents, taking a final view of the high school basketball scene before the tournaments, listed only four schools for consideration as the state's best in regular season competition.

Inez, which averaged its two defeats by Kentucky teams, received five votes for first place. Olive Hill got two, and Central City and Brewers one each.

Durocher Really Has Changed, Say His Teammates

By Gayle Talbot
Havana, March 4.—(AP)—The reports that have been filtering back home about the great reformation of Leo Durocher have not been exaggerated—if anything, they have been vastly understated.

The manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers is without much question one of the most reformed characters in the world today, and he is wearing his new-found belief in the better life as though it were a cloth of gold.

Last night as he eased into a conservative suit of pajamas at 9 p. m. and prepared to get a good night's sleep, which he has discovered is amazingly beneficial, Leo expounded at some length, between polite yawns, on the new Dodge regime.

"There'll be no card playing of any kind on this ball club," he said sternly. "Not even bridge. They tell me there used to be some gambling. All right, that's out. I talked with my players about it and they agreed it was the thing to do."

In Memoriam

MRS. ALBERT BARD
Mrs. Mary Moss Bard was born in Hickman county, July 9, 1890. She was the daughter of the late John and Henrietta Moss. On December 2, 1914, she was married to Albert Bard of Fulton. To this union were born two children, Warren Bard and Mrs. Alberta Green. She also leaves two grandchildren, all of Water Valley, route 1.

Early in life the united with the Baptist church of Clinton, and later transferred her membership to Fulton Baptist. She was an outstanding lady of this community and will be greatly missed. When you met her she always greeted you with a smile and kind words. She was a woman with whom to love seemed as natural as to breathe. She loved her home and family, her church, her community and seemed to get so much out of life, but we should all know why—because she put so much into it.

Though her family's loss is deep, also the community's loss is deep. We don't want to think of Mrs. Bard being dead, but just on a vacation and we will be seeing her again some day.—ENON HOMEMAKERS CLUB

Her Tears Became Smiles Of Joy When The Fairy Read Her Note

A certain little girl who lives in Fulton was beginning to lose her teeth, so the story goes. It horrified her at first, but finally her father and mother persuaded her that children's teeth are supposed to come out, naturally, when they are still young. She doubted the story her parents told her of the fairy who

Wall Street Report

New York, March 4—(AP)—Light selling continued to depress leading stocks in today's market. While dealings slowed appreciably after a moderately active opening, declines of fraction predominated near midday. Buyers again were restrained by doubts regarding business, labor and taxes. The recent action of the market itself, it was said, tended to chill bullish enthusiasm. In the minus column most of the time were Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, American Telephone, Electric Power & Light, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Anaconda, Kennecott, Standard Oil (N.J.), Texas Co., N. Y. Central and Great Northern Railway. Bonds were narrow. Trading in New York cotton futures was halted by a strike of employees in that exchange.

piggy bank would jingle once more. Children have their own ideas about what is important in life. The tragedy of the lost tooth, and the joy in the discovery that the fairy did not forget her, was as important to little Marion Blackstone as atomic energy is to scientists and a new drug to doctors.

Kentucky Today

By The Associated Press
Louisville — Clifton Rodes, Louisville, was elected president of the Kentucky Duroc breeders association formed here yesterday. Dr. H. D. Abel, Paducah, was chosen vice president and Louis Payne, Shelbyville, was named secretary-treasurer.

Mt. Vernon — County Judge Charles Carter said Rockcastle fiscal court may act today upon a state court of appeals decision that voided the county governing body's actions for a four-year period. The appellate court held on Feb. 14 that the fiscal court's actions from 1942-45, inclusive, were void because court minutes had not been signed by J. H. Lambert, then county judge. Lambert's failure to sign the minutes came to light after his term expired.

Lexington — Fayette county attorney Paul Mansfield reported he had refunded to the county treasury a surplus of $2,446 collected in 1946. He said the money represented funds from all sources collected above his $5,000 salary limit fixed by the state constitution.

Mayfield — A week-long Sunday school clinic opened at First Baptist church here yesterday. Sunday school workers from 13 West Kentucky counties are in attendance.

Louisville — A proposed 750-bed veterans hospital will be built on a downtown site near Louisville's general hospital, instead of in an east-end section as planned earlier, Mayor E. Leland Taylor announced. Dr. John Walker Moore, dean of the University of Louisville Medical school, said the veterans administration had promised that the $4,579,129 hospital would be located here, no matter what local site was selected.

Covington — Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday for State Senator Alex Howard, 45, who was found dead of a shotgun wound at his suburban home Sunday. Coroner Tressa Riffe returned a verdict of suicide. Howard was Democratic president pro tem of the Kentucky senate.

Hopkinsville — The Christian county board of education voted yesterday to increase the county school tax rate from $1.25 per $100 assessed valuation of property to $1.50, the legal limit in Kentucky. The board announced half of the additional revenue derived from the tax boost would be used to raise salaries of "certified teachers" in the county system.

Bowling Green — A $20-a-month pay increase for grade and high school teachers in the Warren county educational system was voted by the county education board yesterday. The raises, retroactive to the beginning of the present school year, aggregated $21,900, officials said.

The Red Cross drive is on...

why?

Y. S. S. S. S.

But the Red Cross war against misery and suffering never ends. In peace, as in war, the Red Cross keeps on fighting—fighting for human happiness and welfare all over the world.

ASK THE VICTIMS OF DISASTER. Hurricanes, floods and epidemics strike at thousands of American families every year. This year, as always, the Red Cross will be there—with emergency medical aid for the injured... food, clothing and shelter for the homeless... rehabilitation for the needy. War against human suffering never ends!

ASK OUR WOUNDED VETERANS. They know at firsthand how the Red Cross helps them through their suffering, and makes their days less drab. Right now, the Red Cross is providing thousands with guidance in personal and family problems... furnishing representation for their claims... aiding readjustment to civilian life. Concern for our veterans' welfare never ends!

ASK OUR GIs. The Red Cross is a link with home. It helps maintain the GI's morale with recreational programs and many personal services. The need for this touch of home continues!

ASK THE VICTIMS OF ACCIDENTS. Every year, 100,000 are killed and 10,000,000 injured by accidents in the U. S. Red Cross First Aid, Water Safety, and Accident Prevention programs help reduce this tragic toll. The war on accidents never ends!

... So the Red Cross asks you to Give!

For this vital, humanitarian work, the Red Cross needs your help. Your contributions will help thousands of our fellow-Americans—many of them in our own community.

So, won't you give now to the American Red Cross? It depends on you... just as countless Americans will depend on it. We know you won't let them down!

GIVE—so your RED CROSS
