STATISTICS ON LEAF TOBACCO

Washington, June 22.—Director Sam L. Rogers, of the bureau of the census, department of commerce, is about to issue a report on the stocks of leaf tobacco held by the manufacturers and dealers on April 1, 1915. This report which was prepared under the supervision of Mr. William M. Stewart, chief statistician for manufactures, will present in greater detail the statistics published in card form on May 5.

The aggregate amount of leaf tobacco reported as in the hands of manufacturers and dealers and in United States bonded warehouses and bonded manufacturing warehouses on April 1, 1915, was 1,481,000,000 pounds. This amount is exclusive of stocks held by manufacturers whose output during the preceding calendar year was less than 50,000 pounds of tobacco, 250,000 cigars or 1,000,000 cigarettes; and by dealers who on an average, had less than 50,000 pounds of tobacco in stock at the ends of the four quarters of the preceding year. The total just given is more than 100,000,000 pounds greater than the corresponding one for April 1, 1914, and is about 122,000,000 greater than the April 1, 1913 figure.

Chewing, smoking, snuff and export types, formed 69.2 per cent. of the total leaf tobacco held; cigar types, 26.1 per cent., and imported types, 4.7 per cent. The leading individual type was burley, of which there was reported 343,700,000 pounds or 23.2 per cent. of the total. Tobacco from the "bright yellow district of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina" contributed 335,700,000 pounds, or 22.7 per cent.; and tobacco classed as "dark fired, as grown in Clarksville, Hopkinsville and Paducah districts," amounted to 158,700,000 pounds, or 6 per cent.

Of the total, 570,000,000 pounds were returned as "actual weight" and 911,000,000 as "marked weight"—that is, the weight marked on the container when the tobacco was packed, and for which an allowance for shrinkage must be made.

One hundred and fifty-nine million pounds, or 10.8 per cent. of the total was stemmed, and 1,322,000,000 pounds or 89.2 per cent., was unstemmed.

The census bureau is preparing its regular semi-annual tobacco reports, has had the active co-operation and assistance of the bureau of internal revenue of the manufacturers and dealers. It is the intention of the bureau to issue an annual report after the publication of the October statistics, associating therewith the data as to the production, consumption, imports, exports, conditions, etc., published by the bureau of crop estimates of the department of agriculture, the bureau of internal revenue of the treasury department, and the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce of the department of commerce.

Meets Death in Storm.

During the severe rain and wind storm, which visited this section of the country Friday afternoon, June 11, considerable damage was done and one life was lost.

The storm visited the Cottage Grove community in the shape of a small cyclone sweeping a small section of the country. Many trees were razed to the ground, telephone poles blown down and the wires were on the ground in a mass.

Dollie, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Grooms, of Cottage Grove, was killed.

She had gone with her thirteen year old sister into the yard to look after their chickens, when a large limb from an oak tree fell on her, crushing her almost beyond recognition. Her skull was crushed so badly that her brains were scattered on the ground. Although only a few feet from her sister, the other child was uninjured. —Paris Post-Intelligencer.

HOME TOWN BUILDING.

In our last week's issue we made the statement that the latest census reports show that the smaller towns of the Middle West and South, or for the matter of that, in most sections east of the Rockies, have a smaller population than they had ten years ago.

Illinois is a fair sample. That state shows a decline of 184,000 people in the rural districts in the short space of ten years, while on the other hand all of the larger cities have increased in population at an astounding rate. Reflection on that condition of the country suggests the following questions which are offered for the consideration of the ministry, social welfare, and the economic and commercial organizations of the United States. Every clergyman, business and professional man, every scholar and teacher, should study the subject from various angles. Here are the questions:

1st—Why is it that many country towns east of the Rocky Mountains are at a standstill or going backward, and showing a decrease of population during the past ten years regardless of the fact that many of them are located in thriving agricultural districts?

2nd—Why is business in a majority of country towns of the Middle West stagnant or on the decline?

3rd—Why are the younger generation of people seemingly anxious to break away from the country towns and flock in great numbers to the larger cities?

4th—What effect, if any, does the trend of the country youth cityward have on the moral, commercial and industrial interests of the country?

5th—Is the reported exodus from the country towns to the larger cities now in greater volume or more in evidence at this time than in former years, and if so, does it in your estimation indicate a step forward or backward in the progress or healthy growth of the nation?

6th—Are the young people being driven to the larger cities through lack of commercial opportunity at home, or is their dislike for country life attributable in a large measure to the suppression of all public amusement places, and the lack of mental and physical recreation in the smaller towns?

The foregoing are a few of our questions pertaining to Home Town Building which will in the future be discussed in this column, and on which we invite correspondence from our readers. Understand, this discussion will be open to all. Let us hear from you. We recommend all of these questions as good, live subjects for the clergy and for school debates.

The men were Grover Wilson and Charles Cloy, who were, according to the police, trying to dispose of a valuable horse and buggy for $75. Assistant Chief of Police, Luther Graham and Detective Jack Nelson arrested them near Twelfth and Trimble streets. After they had been taken to police headquarters the father of Wilson was notified and he notified the police to hold the horse and buggy. He came to Paducah Sunday and the outfit was turned over to him. —Paducah Sun.

Bryan Coming to Kentucky.

Announcement is made by dry leaders that William J. Bryan, former secretary of State, will come to Kentucky this summer to stump the State in advocacy of the prohibition movement. It is stated he will tour about 70 counties of the State and it is understood his efforts will be directed toward aiding the State Democratic ticket, which is expected to be dry, and dry candidates for the legislature, with a view toward electing a legislature that will put over statewide at the coming session.

A Big Day.

Sunday, June 20th, was the birthday of Mrs. Victoria Brown and the near birthday of four of the immediate family, to wit: Davis Adams a brother, Mrs. Fondow, a sister, of Paducah, Frank Paschal, Jr., her son-in-law, and Mrs. Caldonay McLain, a sister.

Our entire Sunday school was invited by Mrs. Brown, a member of the same, to come to her home and partake of dinner and make music for the occasion, and of course we accepted.

Near dinner time we met a crowd of between four and five hundred happy people, of whom the larger part were Mrs. Brown's relations, she being a daughter of Uncle Jeff and Aunt Frances Adams, one of the pioneer families of the county, and we will say in passing, one of the most highly esteemed families for their honest, upright and religious lives. This is a true representation of this wonderful family.

The dinner was spread on the table in the shade of the yard. Mr. Lassiter, the photographer, was present and made a photo of the heavily laden table. After eating to our satisfaction, we had to leave as much more.

In the afternoon the organ was moved to the yard and the crowd was furnished with music for the occasion. Afterwards the Magness Brothers' band, composed of Miller, Bradley and Hackett Magness, furnished good music, which was greatly appreciated.

Among the old folks we note Esq. J. C. Denham and wife, J. M. Story and wife, P. F. Paschal, Mrs. Douglas, West Phillips and wife and others.

This was a great reunion with Mrs. Brown and her many relatives and friends. We hope she will see many more such days. —J. B. Swann.

The second annual Redpath Chautauqua closed Thursday night of last week with the Alice Neilsen concert. The attendance this year was possibly not quite up to the attendance last year, while the program pleased and delighted those who attended. A sufficient guarantee was made to insure the chautauqua for the next season. This institution, bringing to our town a talent that could not otherwise be secured, is deserving of the enthusiastic support of every citizen, and the Ledger predicts that the 1916 chautauqua will be supported by a most liberal patronage.

Five Men to Hang Friday in Alabama.

Montgomery Ala., June 23.—Five persons will be put to death in Alabama Friday unless Governor Henderson intercedes. Three are in the Jefferson county jail at Birmingham, while one is in the Calhoun county jail at Aniston and a fifth is in the Tallapoosa county jail at Dadeville.

Millard Carpenter, negro, is under sentence of death at Birmingham for the murder of John T. Camp, owner of a Birmingham dray line, Syd Jones, a lifetime convict, will be put to death for the murder of a fellow convict at Flat Top Mines. Lon Carter, negro, was convicted of the murder of another negro.

Tim Sharpe, white, will be hanged in the Calhoun county jail for the murder of two Aniston policemen. He has made every effort to bring about a new trial, but the supreme court recently refused to grant a new hearing and Governor Henderson has announced that he will not interfere.

Will Early will be put to death at Dadeville for complicity in the murder of a merchant near Dadeville. Early and two others were arrested soon after the body of the merchant was found in his store. Before his trial it was feared that he would be mobbed.

Governor Henderson is out of the state and will not return until Thursday. However, he may act on some of the cases while away from Montgomery.

Loafing Hens.

Watch closely and you will discover that the hen that loafs or mopes never lays. Why do they loaf? because during the moulting season they get bilious. Look at their tongues, or what we call tongues, and you will find a pale, whitish color instead of a healthy pink. Start the liver with B. A. Thomas' Poultry Powder and you will see them perk up. They begin to sing and scratch—soon they begin to lay. We guarantee B. A. Thomas' Poultry Powder. —Sexton Bros.

KILLED IN AUTO-MOBILE WRECK

On the road two miles east from Abilene, Saturday night at 9 o'clock, J. D. Tidwell, age 20 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tidwell, who live two miles west of Neinda and seven miles south of Hamlin, was mortally wounded when his auto crashed into a farm wagon. Death resulted at 4 o'clock Sunday at a sanitarium in Abilene, where the young man had been taken.

Young Tidwell and Mr. E. D. Tidwell were going from Anson to Abilene and were trying to reach there by 9:30 o'clock Saturday night.

"We were going at a little better than 15 miles per hour," said Mr. Jackson. "The headlights on another car approaching us blinded Tidwell so that he could not see the approaching wagon, and the collision happened before we knew what was coming."

The horrible accident happened near the home of Dr. Dodge. "I heard the crash and started at once for the scene of the wreck," remarked Dr. Dodge, "and when I got there Tidwell was lying on the side of the road groaning. One of the mules was lying across the end of the car in a dying condition."

The entire front of the car, a five passenger Ford, was crushed. So far as could be learned the wagon was driven by a youth named Robertson. A Mr. Pardue and two small boys were in the wagon and none was seriously injured, receiving only bruises.

So great was the crash that the wagon tongue plunged through the wind shield and steering wheel and penetrated the young man's abdomen. It entered the right side to a depth of seven inches, entering the liver. It is said that Tidwell displayed great endurance. He got into a passing car for the sanitarium and after getting there directed his friend Jackson to telephone the young lady whom he was expecting to call upon that night—Hamlin, (Tex.), Herald.

Success With Chickens.

George Gatlin says: "I use both 'Nutro Louse Killer' and 'Nutro Germicide.' I have neither lice nor disease, and do not spend one cent for medicinal foods, tonics, dusting powders, etc." You can get these preparations from any drug store and they will revolutionize poultry raising for you. The lice killer is a salve and will last as long as a half dozen boxes of powders and do the work better. When little chicks drop around with closed eyes, lice is the trouble. Ask your druggist for NUTRO LOUSE KILLER. 6242

Notice to Farmers.

A policy insuring against damage from hail to growing tobacco, can be procured in the Home Insurance Company, whose surplus is $18,000,000, for one acre or any number of acres, at the following cost:

Where limit of value is $75 per acre, rate per acre - $2.00

Where limit of value is $100 per acre, rate per acre - 3.00

This policy is in force until the tobacco is cut and put in the barn.

7 BATHERS LOST AT ATLANTIC CITY

PECULIAR ACTION OF THE TIDE
MADE RESCUE DIFFICULT.
DRAWN TO DEEP WATER.

FISHING SMACKS CAPSIZED

Life Guards Report a Storm as Causing a Gully Between a Sandbar, a Hundred Yards Away, and the Beach.

Atlantic City.—Buffeted by a huge wave and carried into deep water by a treacherous undertow, seven bathers, including prominent men of the Philadelphia summer colony, were drowned in the surf here. Scores of others were dragged to the beach in an unconscious condition after life guards and other bathers had battled desperately to save their lives. One other man was drowned, when six fishing smacks were capsized simultaneously as they were about to come ashore at Mississippi avenue, and a score of fishermen thrown into the water. The dead are: Miss Marion Rhoades Creamer, 18, student at Barnwood College, Jenkintown, Pa.; John Lysle, 25, a prominent member of the junior bar of Philadelphia; Philip Arnold, 18; Frank Brigham, 16; Charles J. MacKee, 28; James McCoy, William Crow, all of Philadelphia. Charles Green, the fisherman who lost his life, resided here.

Lifeguards say a storm caused an offset or gully between a sandbar and hundred yards out and the beach. The offset extended the entire length of the beach and with the development of strong undercurrent, the bathers were swept into water of unexpected depth. Many heroic rescues were made by members of the beach patrol and by volunteers, and several persons gave up their lives in efforts to save others.

Arnold, Crowe, McCoy and Matlock plunged into the surf to assist Walter Margerum, one of the guards, who had been knocked unconscious by a can buoy. All of the would-be rescuers drowned, while Margerum was brought safely ashore a short time later by another guard.

John Lysle was talking with friends on the beach when he heard Miss Creamer's call for help. He immediately went to her assistance, but was carried away by the tide. Earl Collins of this city succeeded in reaching the drowning girl, but she was pulled away from him and sank. Collins, however, then fought his way to another girl and brought her ashore.

SENTENCE OF DEATH STANDS

Little Hope is Expressed That Federal Court Will Act Favorably in Famous Case.

New York.—Only clemency at the hands of Gov. Whitman, or interference of the United States supreme court, now stands between Charles A. Becker and the electric chair. The court of appeals at Albany denied application of Becker's counsel, Martin T. Manton, for a re-argument of his decision affirming sentence of death. This action severed the last shred of hope of the former police lieutenant for a review of his case and made it mandatory for the Becker advisers to decide between appeal to the supreme court and Gov. Whitman.

The latter course is said to have been decided upon. In a few days application for examination of the Becker case, it is understood, will be forwarded to Albany. In view of the fact that Gov. Whitman, as district attorney of New York, was active in the conviction of the former police lieutenant, the advisability of asking him to delegate the Becker examination to Lieut. Gov. Schoebeck has been considered. "We will keep on fighting," said Mrs. Charles Becker.

Becker is under sentence to die on July 12.

PACIFICATION OF MEXICO

Civil and Military Authorities Will Submit Their Plan.

El Paso Texas.—Civil and military representatives of the Villa government will submit a plan for the pacification of Mexico to the Washington government probably this week. It became known here. It was understood the plan has Villa's approval; that Gen. Felipe Angeles has gone to Washington to represent the military and that Miguel Diaz Lombardo, foreign minister, will reach the border in a few days, en route to Washington to represent the conventional civil government.

Russians Are Re-enforced.

Berlin.—Special dispatches from the Austrian headquarters report that the Teutonic allies are pushing the Russians vigorously from the San river to the Bessarabia frontier. The latest operations resulted in bringing Gen. Mackensen's forces in contact with Gen. Linsingen. Heavy fighting is proceeding along the whole line in Galicia. The Russians are bringing all their available forces, consisting partly of fresh recruits, to resist the advance of the German allies.

EXPLOSION CAUSED FALL

Lieut. Warneford and Henry Beach
Needham Killed in 500-Foot
Drop.

Paris.—Lieut. Reginald A. J. Warneford, who gained fame recently by blowing to pieces a Zeppelin over Belgium, was killed by the fall of an aeroplane at Buc, France. Lieut. Warneford was piloting the machine, which had as a passenger Henry Beach Needham, the American writer, who also was killed.

Lieut. Warneford and Needham fell from a height of 500 feet. The lieutenant had been spending a few days in Paris, where he came after his Zeppelin exploit to receive his decoration of the Legion of Honor.

According to a report received in Paris, the accident resulted from an explosion in midair, which caused Lieut. Warneford to lose control, the machine crashing to the earth.

Needham's body was taken to the English hospital in Trianon Palace, Versailles. He had been in Europe about four months, acting as correspondent of magazines and a New York newspaper.

He had received permission from the military authorities to make a flight in order to get material for a story. His wife, who also is a writer, accompanied him during the early part of his trip abroad. She sailed for America six weeks ago.

Reginald A. J. Warneford, a young Canadian sub-lieutenant in the royal navy, suddenly acquired world-wide renown by destroying a Zeppelin over Belgium on June 7, this being the first time on record that a Zeppelin had been wrecked by an aviator in an aeroplane. By a brilliant flight Lieut. Warneford obtained a position above the Zeppelin and dropped bombs on it. The dirigible crashed to the ground and turned up. The 28 men in the crew were killed.

For this feat Lieut. Warneford was decorated with the Victoria Cross and the Cross of the Legion of Honor.

Lieut. Warneford made his first flight at Hendon, England, less than five months ago, and had been with the flying squadron only a few weeks.

CHICAGO'S STRIKE ENDS

Mayor Thompson Is Named as Third
Member of Arbitration Board at Meeting of Factions.

Chicago.—Peace in the strike of 14,000 street car men was restored June 16. All points at issue will be settled by arbitration. Operation of cars on all lines was resumed as quickly as the striking men could be notified. The end of the strike, which tied up electric transportation for two days, came with the selection of Mayor William Hale Thompson as the third member of the board of arbitration, the main question at issue.

Officials of the companies will select an arbitrator, and it is announced W. D. Mason, international president of the street car men's union, probably will be named to represent the men.

The selection of Mayor Thompson came at the end of a 15-hour conference which began June 15. Union leaders, officials of the traction lines and members of the mayor's aldermanic strike committee were in attendance.

The strike on June 13 was called after an all-day conference of transportation officials, labor leaders and Mayor Thompson had shown the two interests at odds on the question of increased wages, which the men insisted must be guaranteed before arbitration could be considered.

ARE GIVEN TO U. S. CONSUL

Americans Were Threatened With Death For Circulating Counterfeit Money.

Washington.—Villa authorities at Chihuahua turned over to George B. Carothers, American consular agent, George Marks and S. Finkelstein (also known as Franklin), the Americans threatened with execution on the charge of circulating counterfeit money. Carothers reported to the state department that he would send the men to the Texas border.

The United States government was informed by Francisco I. de Azavedo, president of the Villa-Zapata convention government in Mexico City, that if President Wilson's recent warning to Mexican factions to compose their differences should signify "pressure or threat" the convention government, "still harboring the conscience of its sacrifices, will maintain the dignity of the Mexican people."

The communication, transmitted by the Brazilian minister at Mexico City, states, however, that the convention continues "to conjecture that the general idea of the government of the United States is to help us in a friendly way to bring to an end our fratricidal struggle, which would be for the greatest good of the country."

Mt. Lassen Is Dangerous.

Washington.—Mt. Lassen, California, whose violent eruption of May 19th places it in the first rank of volcanoes now dangerously active, has become the subject of an informal co-operative study by the geological survey and the forest service.

The volcano is regarded as exceptionally interesting from a scientific viewpoint, according to the geological survey, inasmuch as it is the only active volcano in the United States proper, is very accessible to observers, and appears to be full of data.

THE OLEO FRAUDS REACH $27,000,000

HAVE FRAUDULENTLY THE GOVERN-MENT IN AMOUNTS DUE FOR SPECIAL TAXES.

42 VIOLATORS CONVICTED

Fines Aggregating $148,000 Have Been Assessed—Frauds Committed Immediately After Enactment of Law Uncovered.

Washington.—How violators of the oleomargarine law have defrauded the government out of at least $27,000,000 due in stamps and special taxes was revealed by Secretary McAdoo in a statement based on a preliminary report of a sweeping investigation conducted by Commissioner Osborn of the internal revenue bureau.

Frauds committed as long ago as 1902, immediately after the enactment of the law, have been uncovered. The commissioner began his inquiry some months ago and from time to time news of prosecutions has reached the public, but until last week no inkling had been given of the investigation's scope or of its extraordinary results.

Unpaid taxes aggregating $851,000 have been recovered and deposited in the treasury, "with the prospects of further very large collections." Forty-two violators of the law have been convicted since the first of January, and 29 of these have been given prison sentences. Fines aggregating $148,000 have been assessed, in addition to the recoveries actually made, and the announcement declares that while fraudulent practices of this sort probably have been checked, the investigation will be continued and "every law-breaker brought to justice."

The announcement shows that since 1902 more than 200,000,000 pounds of colored oleomargarine have been manufactured and fraudulently sold as uncolored.

DAMAGE BY MOSCOW MOB

In Anti-German Demonstration 700
Buildings Are Wrecked—Ten-tons Owned 113.

Petrograd, via London.—Moscow suffered damage to the amount of $20,000,000 during the recent anti-German demonstrations in which nearly 500 stores and factories and more than 200 private lodgings were destroyed.

The infuriated mobs turned the city into wild disorder, according to eyewitnesses. From music stores, pianos and other musical instruments were hurled into the streets, until the piles of wreckage made traffic impossible.

The rioters, heated with liquor found in the demolished wine stores, became reckless in their pillaging, burning many stores and apartments, the owners of which were Russians. Of the total number of buildings destroyed only 113 belonged to Austro-German subjects.

The demonstrations beginning early on June 3 lasted more than 24 hours. Buildings burned and crumbled to ashes, and the fire departments, although active throughout the disturbances, found it impossible to cope with the flames, so extensive were the conflagrations.

The Moscow council, at a meeting, took measures to quell the disorders and prevent a repetition of the rioting.

TWO ARE SHOT TO DEATH

Alleged Intruder Killed Woman, Then Committed Suicide.

New York.—Mrs. Barbara Cornelius, wife of a produce market employe, and George McAdon of Jersey City were found shot to death in the bedroom of her Brooklyn home. The police were informed of the tragedy by the woman's husband, who said that McAdon climbed into their bedroom window during the night and fired a shot at him and that while he was trying to arouse neighbors McAdon killed Mrs. Cornelius and then committed suicide.

McAdon was found lying on the floor with a revolver clutched in his hand and with powder marks on his fingers. Cornelius, who is a night worker, said that he had never seen McAdon before and had taken him for a beggar. The police say they learned that Mrs. Cornelius had received postal cards signed with McAdon's initials.

Somebody Must Be Rich.

Washington.—First estimates of returns from the personal and corporate income tax have been revised upward by treasury department officials, who now anticipate more than $82,000,000 during the present calendar year from this source. Under the law payments of the tax may be made as late as July 10, but from the way in which the tax is pouring in officials are confident that a large proportion of the total will be in the vaults before the close of the present fiscal year, on June 30.

CLAIM RUSSIAN RETREAT

Fighting in Galicia Developed Nothing to Stem Austro-German Advance.

London.—Another 24 hours of fighting in Galicia developed nothing to stem the Austro-German advance toward Lemberg, and Berlin claims the Russians are retreating over their own frontier toward Tarnobrod, four miles from the Galician border.

This means an invasion of Russian territory at a new point, but according to military observers here, it may spell ultimate advantage for the Russians in that a general Russian retreat northward into Poland would divert Gen. Linsingen's attempt to crush the Russian center near Zuzawa, which would sever the communications of the Russian army in South-eastern Galicia and Bukovina. The military writers here say the real danger zone from the Russian standpoint is in the Zurawna district and along the Dniester.

According to Berlin, the Austro-German forces have battered through Niemirow, 30 miles northwest of Lemberg, and are advancing toward Jaworow, which is only 25 miles west of the Galician capital.

Masses of Austro-Germans thus are sweeping from the San toward the capital, and the prediction is made that the decisive battle, if one is fought, will take place in the vicinity of Grodek, where military observers believe the Russians should benefit by the lake country.

British newspapers, though not minimizing the importance of the Austro-German successes in Galicia, acclaim what is styled the Grand Duke Nicholas' elusive strategy in shifting his front from north and south to northwest and southeast. This maneuver, it is asserted, has deflected the Austro-German blow to some extent and at the same time denied to them a full test of strength.

Thus the Russian retreat is characterized in London as strikingly paralyzing the allied victory on the Marne. The struggle along the Dniester and before Lemberg, it is considered here, must determine which side is the more astute in the present maneuvers.

HEAVY FIGHTING IN WEST

British Troops Win and Lose a Mile Front in One Day—Allies
Advance at Ypres.

London.—For the first time in weeks there has been heavy fighting over a comparatively extensive line of the British front in Belgium and France. Berlin describes it as an Anglo-French movement synchronizing with Russian reverses in Galicia.

To win a mile of front, and then to lose it before terrific German counterattacks was the experience of the British June 16 near Festubert. In a statement, frank if brief, Field Marshal French records this incident, but does not state the losses, which must have been heavy on both sides.

The Germans are as frank in conceding the loss of ground near Ypres, even temporarily, to yield a mile of their Festubert stronghold.

The latest Zeppelin raid on England has created hardly a ripple of excitement. Aircraft protection was one of the subjects discussed June 16 in the House of Commons, William Jeayson-Hicks urging a marked increase in this branch. He said that London must soon expect a serious raid and added that at one time more than five Zeppelins of the latest type were over the English coast.

The under-secretary for war, H. J. Tennant, besides giving assurances that bigger aeroplanes were under construction, said that since the beginning of the war the number of machines had been increased tenfold and the number of men engaged in this branch fivefold.

LAST APPEAL FOR FRANK

Gov. Slaton Hears Appeal For Commutation of Sentence and Takes Case
Under Advisement.

Atlanta, Ga.—The fate of Leo M. Frank was placed in the hands of Gov. Slaton June 16 at the close of the hearing on an appeal for commutation of his death sentence. The governor took the case under advisement and announced he would render a decision as soon as possible.

Frank is under sentence to be hanged on June 22, for the murder of Mary Phagan.

The session was occupied by Attorney Wm. M. Howard in his closing argument in behalf of Frank's plea. Mr. Howard was interrupted frequently by questions from the governor on various points of evidence.

Japan Protests to China.

Tokyo, Japan.—According to an announcement made June 16 by a Japanese news agency, Japan has sent a protest to China concerning the anti-Japanese movement in the republic.

The discontent of China with Japan's course, during the negotiations culminating in acceptance of the Japanese ultimatum last month has been manifested principally by boycotts. A recent dispatch said British and Russian volunteers had dispersed an anti-Japanese riot at Hankow for their own protection.

MILK FOR THE BABY

MUST BE THE BEST AND CLEAN-EST THAT CAN BE HAD.

Is Really the Most Important Thing to Which Mothers Can Give Attention.
Cleanliness the One Absolute Consideration.

(Prepared for This Paper by the Children's Bureau, United States Department of Labor.)

When the baby is for any reason deprived of his natural food, that is, his mother's milk, it is necessary to find as good a substitute as possible. At best such a food will be only a substitute, not an equivalent. This substitute food should be the best and cleanest cows' milk that can be had. Here the city mother has an advantage over the country mother, for most large cities have established rules regarding the milk that is offered for sale, and it is usually possible to find out the names of the dealers who sell clean milk. "Certified" milk is milk whose purity is guaranteed by special authorities. In small cities without such careful regulation of the milk traffic, and in the towns and villages, the mother finds it hard to get milk that she knows to be clean. The country mother has the advantage of being able to see just how the milk is handled when it comes from the cows on the place.

Cleanliness is the watchword of proper milk production. The cows themselves should be clean and healthy; the udders and teats should be washed before the milking is begun; the hands of the milker should be freshly washed and he should wear a clean cotton coat; the pail should be partly covered and previously scalded with boiling water, and the milking shed or stable should be clean. The milk should be strained at once and cooled as quickly as possible to 50 degrees and kept cold until used. A later article of this series will deal with the care of milk and its production.

Even clean milk may be spoiled after it comes into the house if it is not kept clean, cold and covered. Milk which stands uncovered, exposed to flies and dust, or is left in a warm room for any length of time, or is put away in open vessels will be unfit for the baby. It should be kept in covered bottles, cans or jars. To keep it cold, a cheap and effective ice box may be made as follows:

Use any convenient receptacle, such as a wooden box, a lard or candy pail, or a garbage pail, for the outside. Put a layer of sawdust six inches deep in the bottom. In the middle place a covered eight or ten quart pail, or a section of ten-inch pipe. Fill the space between the two with sawdust, packing it carefully into all the corners. The outer receptacle should have a cover. If a box is used this cover may be a hinged one and may have a thick layer of newspapers or a straw cushion tacked to the inside to make it fit tight. The inner pail is intended to hold the ice and the milk bottles.

It has been found that if, instead of putting the ice in loose, it is broken up and put into a small covered pail, which is never uncovered, it will last longer. Set this little pail in the inner receptacle, pack the cooled and corked milk bottles around it and close the cover. This little device will keep the baby's milk sweet for 24 hours, if properly made.

Great care must be taken to keep the baby's milk clean in making up the baby's feedings. The mother's hands and clothing must be clean before she begins. The utensils needed should be kept for this use alone and should be freshly boiled before being used. All the food needed for 24 hours should be made ready at one time. It is convenient to have enough nursing bottles for the whole day and fill them all when the food is prepared in the morning. Each bottle should be closed with a new clean cork which has been boiled. The bottles should be cooled and put away in the refrigerator or a cool place at once. When a bottle is needed take it out of the refrigerator and set it in a small pail of warm water. Put the pail over the fire and let the water heat. To test the temperature of the milk the mother may sprinkle a few drops on the inner surface of the arm. When it feels slightly warm, not hot, it will be right for the baby.

It is impossible in a short article like this to give all the necessary directions for preparing the bottles, or how to determine the amount of milk a baby of a given age requires, and how to modify it, but these questions are answered in a bulletin of the children's bureau called "Infant Care." This will be sent free to anyone asking for it, giving their name and address plainly.

Death to Spots.

If the articles are very dirty and contain grease spots, dissolve a little strong soap in warm water and mix well with it a small quantity of ox gall; touch over all the spots and rub them well with a stiff brush until they are entirely removed, after which the garment should be rubbed all over with a brush or sponge and warm water, to which should be added more of the soap and ox gall. Rinse until the water passes off clean, then hang up to dry.

FOX-HUNTERS IN THE WAR

Thousands of Men Who Enjoyed That Sport in Britain Are Now at the Front.

Waterloo, according to the duke of Wellington, was won on the playing fields of Eton. Should Britain emerge triumphant from the present conflict we may find someone rising to claim that the campaign in Flanders was won in the English shires. The shires are the headquarters of fox-hunting, which most humanitarians denounce. George Bernard Shaw, for example, has no words strong enough to condemn it with. Mr. Jerrocks, the hero of a sporting novel, describing fox-hunting as "war without its guilt and only 25 per cent. of its danger." It has to be admitted, however, that they who follow the hounds have answered magnificently to their country's call.

There are, it proves, 150 masters of hounds with the British colors, 3,000 members of hunts and 1,500 hunt servants. To them must be added the officers of the regular army who are accustomed to ride to hounds, likewise numbering some thousands. The total is an impressive one. It suggests that the real attraction of this sport may be that it is, as Jerrocks says, "a sort of war."

Ancient Artisans in Africa.
The question has often been asked. Was there any earlier race in occupation of the arena in Africa at present held by the Bantus? In Man W. H. Beech reports that in the Kikuyu country some ancient pottery has been said to be the work of a people called Gumbas, who displaced the Mithochians, cannibal dwarfs.

These Mithochians are now believed to be earth-gnomes, skilled in the art of iron working. Mr. Beech, with some amount of plausibility, suggests that they were possibly bushmen, pygmies, or both, and that they were a local indigenous race of the stone age who used flint implements often found in the Kikuyu country. The Gumbas are said to have made pottery and to have taught the Kikuyu the art of smelting. They may have been pre-Bantua Hamite invaders; but of this there is no evidence, and the legend may tend to show that the first discovery of iron was made in Africa.

How we do love an idle person who comes along and bothers us when we are busy!

In most localities the porch swing has displaced the top buggy as love's first assistant.

SCHOOL WORKERS HOLD MEETING

SESSIONS HELD IN OFFICE OF THE STATE SUPERVISOR AT FRANKFORT.

ATTENDANCE WILL BE REQUIRED

Discuss Laws Pertaining to Holding of State Teachers' Institutes—Salaries to Be Paid.

(Special Frankfort Correspondence.)

Frankfort.—The annual meeting of the Teachers' Institute instructors called by State Superintendent Barksdale Hamlett was held in the office of the state supervisor at the capitol, the opening session being called to order by Prof. E. C. McDougle, of Richmond, president of the State Association of Institute Instructors. In the absence of the secretary, Prof. C. D. Lewis, of Berea, E. B. Weathers, of Elkton, was selected to act in that capacity.

In the opening address President McDougle emphasized the importance of the teachers' institute and the remainder of the session following the address was devoted to a discussion of the laws pertaining to the holding of institutes. The discussion was led by State Supervisor T. J. Coates and resulted in several suggestions of radical changes in the laws. As a result of the discussion a resolution was adopted calling for the repeal of Section 197 of the school law, which requires the institute to deal with all subjects of the common school curriculum, in order that more definite work may be done.

R. E. Eubanks, of Lexington, offered a motion calling for the certificates of institute instructors and compulsory attendance, at annual meetings. Resolutions were adopted providing for an appropriation of the state to cover the expense of the institutes and for the payment of teachers' salaries while in attendance thereon.

Earlington Gets State Shoot.

Adjutant General James Tandy III has issued an order fixing Earlington, September 23 to 30 as the place and time for holding the state matches between members of the Kentucky National Guard. Two days' preliminary team practice is allowed, to be followed by the company team match, the governor's match, the regimental team match and the state team competition. The company team match is opened to teams of five men each. In this competition a prize of $100 in cash is offered, and to each member of the winning team a bronze medal will be given. The second prize is $75 in cash, the third $50, the fourth $25 and the fifth $10.

Suits Against State Bank Directors.

Attorneys will soon begin taking depositions in the suits against the directors of the defunct George Alexander & Co., state bank at Paris, and it is expected that the cases will be ready for trial when called at the June term of the Bourbon circuit court. The attorneys will go to Frankfort to take the deposition of George Alexander, who is now confined in the state reformatory.

Banks in State Hold Reserve.

The abstract of the condition of the national banks of Kentucky, exclusive of those at Louisville, at the close of business on May 1, the date of the last call, as reported to the Comptroller of the Currency, follows: Loans and discounts, $48,300,154; gold coin, $548,736; lawful money reserve, $1,442,205; and deposits, $12,418,782. The average reserve held was 20 per cent.

Ballard County Woman Pardoned.

Governor McCreary recently pardoned Effie Duncan, convicted in Pulaski county in February of receiving stolen goods. The governor said the record showed that she received the goods from a boarder in payment of a board bill, and that she and her husband exhibited them without apparent concern. A petition for clemency was signed by a number of good citizens.

Postmaster Invited To Resign.

D. U. Pool, postmaster at Greenville, Ky., has been asked to resign on account of five or six charges, including general incompetency, and Representative R. Y. Thomas recently recommended R. E. Wallace to succeed him. Senator James joins in recommending Wallace.

Will Represent Kentucky.

Governor McCreary appointed Miss Frances Steele, of Midway, delegate to the fifteenth annual convention of the National Vocational Art and Industrial Federation at San Francisco July 29.

May Abolish Institute.

The convocation of county school institute instructors decided unanimously to recommend the abolition of the County School Institute and replace it with a county normal institute for teachers. It is proposed to make it a state institution, requiring the instructors to be licensed to be qualified to teach the teachers. The officers elected are: Dean, C. E. McDougle, of Richmond, president; Dr. J. T. C. Noe, of Lexington, vice president; and Prof. Charles D. Lewis, of Berea, secretary.

May Close Saloons in "Dry" Counties.

Although appeal acts as supersedeas to the certificate of the canvassing board of a local option election and pending final hearing of the contest saloons may continue open, a city council cannot be compelled under the act of 1914, amending the county unit law, to renew existing licenses. The court of appeals in an opinion by Chief Justice Miller decided this, affirming the Clark circuit court, which had refused a mandatory injunction to saloonkeepers, whose licenses the Winchester City Council had refused to renew last month. Clark county voted dry last September and the liquor dealers contested and have appealed to the court of appeals. Their licenses expired May 30, and ten days before they applied for renewals. The council refused them, and John F. Nunan and others applied for an injunction against the mayor and councilmen. A demurrer was sustained to the petition. Chief Justice Miller points out that the act of 1914 provides that the prohibition "shall be in full force and effect at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the entry of the certificate of the canvassing board in the order book of the county clerk, and after the expiration of said sixty days no liquor licenses theretofore issued in said territory shall be of any force and effect." He said this gives the city council the right to carry the change into effect by refusing to grant licenses after the election had declared against the sale of liquor in that county and the court does not feel privileged to interfere with the discretion of the council in carrying out the will of the people as expressed in the election. This apparently puts into the hands of city authorities ample power to stop the sale peremptorily upon the expiration of existing licenses, even in those counties where the contests have been carried to the United States supreme court, that may take years in deciding.

New Trial Ordered For Clark.

The judgment of the Christian Circuit Court was reversed by the court of appeals in the case of Captain E. W. Clark against the Commonwealth and a new trial ordered. Clark was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of ten to twenty years on the charge of mistreating Alberta Mitchell, a high school girl of Hopkinsville. The court says that the evidence on which Clark was convicted is insufficient to show that she was under sixteen years of age. Miss Mitchell's mother testified that she was born March 25, 1898, but the family Bible showed that she was born March 25, 1897, and this fact is confirmed by the school records. Clark was captain of the Hopkinsville company of the organized militia of this state. He was also physical director of the Hopkinsville high school, and Miss Mitchell was a member of the basketball team.

Winfrey Trial Is Postponed.

The trial of Prof. M. O. Winfrey, who for the last fourteen years has been superintendent of the Middleboro city schools and who was recently indicted on the charge of having performed a criminal operation on a young woman teacher in that city, was called in the circuit court in Middleboro and was continued until the November term of the court on account of the absence of witnesses for the defense. The commonwealth announced that it was ready for trial. Prof. Winfrey a few days ago, filed his resignation with the Middleboro school board and it was accepted.

Seven Kentuckians Enter Academy.

The new fourth class of midshipmen at the National Academy at Annapolis is rapidly forming. The class now numbers 124, and more are being added almost every day after passing both the physical and mental tests. Members of the new class from Kentucky are Harold W. Mays, Robert M. Dorsey, David H. Clark, James DeLovery, John M. Browning, Richard B. Tuggle and Charles D. Surran. With seven young men already in the class Kentucky so far leads all other states for the number of admission.

Governor Offers $300 Reward.

According to a letter received from county judge of Breathitt, Governor McCreary was informed that Marion Sloane assaulted and murdered his own daughter, near Quickland. After his daughter had sworn out a warrant a year ago, the letter said, Sloane attempted to assault the girl and struck her on the head with a hammer producing insanity. The governor offered a reward of $300 for his arrest.

Reaches U. S. From Constantinople.

George Weltzel, former minister to Nicaragua, returned on the St. Paul with Col. Edward M. House from Europe. Mr. Weltzel has been attached to the diplomatic staff at Constantinople for several months. He is the son of Mrs. Jerome Weltzel. His family have heard of his arrival in New York, but it is expected that he will report at Washington before his plans for the future are divulged.

Deputy Is Transferred.

An order was received at Lexington authorizing the transfer of the Seventh Internal Revenue district field deputy to the West Virginia district. For some time it has been recognized by the department at Washington that the Kentucky district was too large, that the revenue agent at Louisville, Col. B. B. Bouldin, head of the field force, was loaded down with work, and that some relief was needed. The order just issued puts J. Morgan Chinn, with headquarters here, under the supervision of R. B. Sams.

STEEL 'COMES BACK'

Great Industry in Almost Full Tide of Prosperity.

Seen the Calamity Howlers Will Be Completely Cut Off From Their Base of Supplies and Compelled to Surrender.

Next to agriculture, steel is the "basic" industry of the country. It is the first of manufacturing industries to reflect agricultural prosperity and is the clearing house through which the stimulating effects of that prosperity are distributed among all other industry.

The steel industry is on its feet again. Being either prince or pauper, as Mr. Carnegie has said, it has been pauper for a year or so and is now prince. Its mills were working at about 40 per cent of capacity five months ago. They are now working at 80 per cent of capacity and still gaining on the practical maximum of capacity. The so-called war orders play only a small part in this revival. Export business is about a fifth of the total industry, and much of this is outside the munitions demand.

In spite of the trade dislocations caused by war, we have been conclusive evidence of rapid progress in the country's recovery of a great prosperity. The wheat market of the day indicates that the seasonal campaign for crop-killing has failed, and preparations must be made to take care of a harvest which promises to exceed even that of last year. The calamity howlers have made a great fight, but they are hopelessly surrounded, and at last accounts were ready to surrender in a body.

Wool Crop to Be Large.

Prospects are favorable for a $10,000,000 wool crop in Wyoming this season, the greatest in years.—Wyoming State Board of Sheep Commissioners.

This may pass with others as fact, but not with us, remarks the New York World sarcastically. It is true that the European war has advanced wool prices in spite of our free wool tariff, but free wool took effect nearly a year before the war broke out, and every sheep in Wyoming was scheduled to die immediately thereafter. Every one of them had been educated by long Republican schooling to die under free wool and to live only under old Schedule K. Therefore, being very submissive to intelligent economic instruction, they all proceeded to die at once and were dead long before the war came, and only the recurrence of old Schedule K could resurrect them. If you do not believe it, ask Senator Francis E. Warren. He knows.

No Extra Session.

The president's intervention has checked all present talk of an extra session of congress for the purpose of pressing to an issue the question of cloture in the senate. This is not the time, he urges, for a meeting of the houses, when there is no immediate emergency, and when the presence of the lawmakers in Washington might seriously embarrass the government through the emission of heated oratory. Cloture would certainly be a poor topic for an extra session. The immediate occasion calls for no curtailment of the right of debate in the upper house. If the supreme emergency arises and the country is brought to the point of possible conflict with a foreign power the lack of cloture in the senate will not be an obstacle to appropriate and prompt action.

Secretary McAdoo's Good Idea.

The recent gathering in Washington inspires the announcement from Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo that a Pan-American financial conference should be held every year. Such conferences will keep interest alive and have a continuing usefulness. Surely this is one of the most practical suggestions arising out of the conference. If the two continents are to enter upon such an era of close relationship as was outlined at the meetings in that city, annual conferences for the purpose of discussing financial and commercial developments, prospects and problems will be necessary. No doubt Secretary McAdoo's idea is that such conferences should be held in the capitals of the different republics.

All Honor to the President.

If the president had allowed the banking act to be slaughtered by Wall street, or had permitted the country to be involved in a war with Mexico, or had given ear to the selfish clique which has tried to use the United States for the benefit of one side in the European conflict, there would be no talk of prosperity in any city of this land today.

Merit Will Be Appreciated.

With better times the people will give the Democratic party and President Wilson their just dues. The president has shown his greatness in many ways. His speech before the Associated Press in New York was one of the most remarkable contributions to state papers ever delivered by a president, and his note to Count von Bernstorff is a wonderful document. He is demonstrating his able statesmanship, and the American people when they find a man like Lincoln or Wilson are not quick to let him go.

UNEARTH OLD BABYLON

EXCAVATORS FOUND TRACES OF KING'S PALACE.

Foundations of the Magnificent Abode of Nebuchadnezzar All That Remains—Discoveries in City of Assur.

A writer in the Scientific American describes the Babylonian excavations, which German archeologists are conducting. Of all the interesting discoveries that have been made, Nebuchadnezzar's palace may be considered the most important.

Little except the foundations of the palace remain, and they are of square burned bricks, each of which bears on its lower face the name and title of the great king. The several hundred chambers of the palace are small; some of them are scarcely larger than a modern bed. One chamber, much larger than the rest, had at one side a low platform of bricks. That is supposed to have been the throne room; upon the platform the throne of the king probably stood.

There was a sacred street in Babylon that led from the palace to the temple. Along it the images of the gods were carried in procession in time of festival. The palace gateway that led to the street, known as the Ishtar gate, is most imposing, and gives the spectator a good idea of how Babylon must have looked in its glory. Whatever its original height may have been, it still stands forty feet above the street.

Its six square towers of burned brick measure twelve feet each way, and on all their sides, one above another, there are beautiful bas-reliefs of bulls, lions, dragons, and animals of fantastic shapes. The reliefs are of brick, glazed blue and yellow and white, and the coloring is as fresh as it ever was. Each brick of the relief was glazed separately, and so accurately that when it was placed in the wall it formed a part of the perfect picture.

Within the city of Assur were discovered the earliest Assyrian palaces and temples, the home of the mayor, an intricate system of waterworks and drainage, a business street lined with shops and paved with blocks of marble, the thickly-crowded residential section of the poorer people, the great vaulted tombs of the nobles, with massive doors of stone, which still swing on their stone pivots, innumerable weapons, and ornaments of gold and stone.

PIPE LIKE SMALL FURNACE

Wonderful Creation That Was Once the Property of Powerful African Chief.

When Sir Walter Raleigh acted as "the advance agent of tobacco," though gifted with a magnificent imagination, he surely had no hint of its future that would set the world's millions to smoking, even into the far-away dark spots of the globe. Were Sir Walter living today he would undoubtedly be one of the mightiest accomplished cigarette consumers in the royal smart set; and yet, still possessing an appreciation of the bizarre and the exotic, he would experience joy in the ownership of the pipe, recently found, of a British East African chief.

It is more ornate than the calumet of the American Indian, which, in early history, was ornamented with wings, like a Mercury cap, a graceful design, but simple withal. The African creation is a ceremonial pipe about two feet in height, and the design would go far to sustain the assertion that in the religion and superstition of the natives of the Dark Continent there are no beautiful creatures—the good and the terribly evil are alike monstrous in their ugliness.

At the foot of the big pipe are two smaller ones, and an authority on such matters points out that the modeling of the horseman shows European influence in a surprising degree. When the ceremonial pipe is being put to its utmost with its ample holding capacity, it must appear like a vaporous altar. It was for this reason, and not because of the adoption of American slang, that the chief who owned it was called the "big smoke."

Could Spare Her.

Tommy's mother was an invalid, so his Aunt Lavinia looked after him and the house. And she never missed a chance of pointing out a fault or expounding a precept.

"Oh, dear," said Tommy one day, after auntie had lectured him for ten minutes, "I wish I had wings!"

"Why, my pet?" asked mother, pleased at this angelic inspiration.

"Oh, I'd fly up in the air with Aunt Lavinia, and I'd fly and fly till I couldn't get any higher."

"Yes, dear," said mother proudly, as the little chap paused impressively. "What would you do then?"

"I'd drop Aunt Lavinia!" said Tommy savagely.—Stray Stories.

Grim Humor.

"There goes Scribbles, the newspaper humorist."

Reminded Him.

Mr. Highbrow, who posed as an arbiter of taste, looked around the tiers of boxes at the opera house the other evening and said:

"I suppose, if a woman's shoulders are very beautiful, she has a right, a moral right, to wear a very décolleté gown. At the same time—"

Mr. Highbrow chuckled and shook his head.

"At the same time," he resumed, "the fashionable woman of today reminds me of the prophet."

"How so?" said his interlocutor.

"She hasn't much on 'er in her own country," was the smiling reply.

Keen Rivalry.

"All the farmers hereabouts seem to own motor cars. I don't suppose an automobile salesman could do much business in this community."

Double Murder in Palaski County.

Somerset, Ky., June 22.—Two men are dead and a third is under arrest here as the result of a quarrel at Nancy, four miles south of this city, late Sunday afternoon. William Baker shot and instantly killed George B. Burton. Burton's brother, V. L. Burton, witnessed the murder, and drawing a revolver shot Baker dead. Burton was arrested this afternoon. All are well known in the community in which the tragedy took place. Burton is in jail.

NO REASON FOR IT

You Are Shown a Way Out.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the word of a resident of this locality who has found relief. The following is convincing proof: John W. Summerville, West Broadway, Mayfield, Ky., says: "My back often troubled me and at night I felt lame and sore. Finally kidney weakness set in, the kidney secretions being irregular, unnatural and scalding in passage. In a short time after using Doan's Kidney Pills the pain disappeared, my back no longer felt lame and sore and the difficulty with the kidney secretions was corrected."

Over nine years later Mr. Summerville said: "I have have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills or any other kidney medicine since they cured me some years ago."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Summerville had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Newman Quits Race for Governor.

Louisville, Ky., June 3.—Asserting that the "Democratic party in Kentucky today faces a crisis" John W. Newman, commissioner of agriculture, today announced his withdrawal as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor. Newman calls attention to the disunion in the Democratic ranks and also to what he views as menacing of the republican forces and asserts there is yet time to successfully meet the crisis.

Constipation Cured Overnight.

A small dose of Po-Do-Lax tonight and you will enjoy a full, free, easy bowel movement in the morning. No griping, for Po-Do-Lax is podophyllin (May apple), without the gripe. Po-Do-Lax corrects the cause of constipation by arousing the liver, increasing the flow of bile. Bile is Nature's antiseptic in the bowels. With a proper amount of bile, digestion in the bowels is perfect. No gas, no fermentation, no constipation. Don't be sick, nervous, irritable. Get a bottle of Po-Do-Lax from your druggist now and cure your constipation overnight.

Notice.

Remember you only have eight days in which to do away with your surface closets in the section prescribed by city ordinance. This ordinance will be enforced from the first day of July, 1915.—P. F. Waterfield, C. M.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With The Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

CHEER UP

That Tired, Grouchy Feeling Means a Lazy Liver.

LIV-VER-LAX will clear you out and make you feel fine and dandy again. It is just as effective as calomel, but has none of its well known disagreeable after effects.

LIV-VER-LAX eliminates poisons, cleanses the system and relieves constipation in a thorough, but pleasant manner. A little taken regularly means consistent health and no doctor bills.

GUARANTEE. Every bottle bearing the likeness of L. K. Grigsby, is guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money will be returned. For sale here in 50c and $1 size bottles, at H. D. Thornton & Co.

Swat The Fly.

When he rouses you at dawn From a rare and rosy dream, To the table follows you, Dipping in the jug of cream, Swimming in the coffee cups, Stealing sugar on the sly, Skating on the butter plate, Swat the fly.

When he seeks the kitchen, Over pots and pans to roam, While the damp and soapy sink Is his happy little home. Swarming on the meat and fish, Skipping traps and poisons by, Multiplying—oh, the pest! Swat the fly!

When he's crawling on the floor, When he's sailing thro' the air, When he's droning on the pane, When he's tangled in your hair, When he's roosting upside down On the ceiling smooth and high Swat the fly! —Ex.

A Texas Wonder.

The Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, dissolves gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame backs, rheumatism, and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. Regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is two months' treatment, and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Send for Kentucky testimonials. Dr. E. W. Hall, 2326 Olive Street, St. Louis, Mo. Sold by druggists.

Barnett-Jackson.

Miss Maud, youngest daughter of N. B. Barnett, was united in marriage to Toye Jackson last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. A. Hassell performed the ceremony and the wedding march was played by Miss Ruth Cutchin. The parlors were decorated in a profusion of beautiful cut flowers. Many beautiful presents testified to the esteem in which these young people are held.

Would Not be Outdone.

A city man visited his country cousin. The man from the city, wishing to explain the metropolitan life, said:

"We have certainly been having some fun the last few days. Thursday we autoed to the country club, golfed until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning."

The country cousin was not to be stumped in the least, so he began telling some of the pleasures of the simple life:

"We have had pretty good times here, too. One day we bugged out to Uncle Ned's and went out to the back lot, where

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building-tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

we baseballed all the afternoon; in the evening we sneaked up into the attic and poked until morning."

A sturdy old farmer who was listening, not to be outdone, took up the conversation at this point and said:

"I was having some fun about this time myself. I muled to the cornfield and gehawed until sundown. Then I suppered until dark, and piped until nine o'clock, after which I bedsteaded until it was time to go muling again.—Cass County (Mo.), Leader."

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is a result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to the normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's catarrh cure. Send for circular, free.

The Crawfish Sign.

Old people who watch signs in discerning the weather for the future are confident that we are to have a wet summer. These predictions are based upon the fact that crawfish are not building mounds this spring, but end the holes abruptly at the top of the ground. This sign is relied upon absolutely by many old people, and according to them is unfailing. In seasons when the weather is to be dry the crawfish build high mounds. From the fact that they have no mounds at all this spring, it is indicated that the summer will be wet.

Tobacco Hail Insurance...

This means Insurance against Hail on Tobacco in the field.

Hail on growing crops has proven to be the most hazardous risk that a farmer takes.

More tobacco has been destroyed by Hail in Kentucky and Tennessee during the last Four years, than by Fire in the last Ten years.

You can now insure against this hazard in THE WESTCHESTER FIRE INSURANCE CO., of New York, [organized in 1837] for Three dollars per acre, for $100 limit and Two dollars per acre for $75 limit.

The question is not "Do you want it," but "Can you afford to do without it." Suppose you write or telephone,

"FIGHTING ARCHIE" HUNTER

Sir Archibald Hunter, whom Lord Kitchener placed in command of the third British army, has built up, during his forty years of service, a reputation for valor which the most seasoned campaigner might envy; moreover, he is loved and trusted by his soldiers, who know him as "Fighting Archie."

His brilliant career began with the Nile expedition and later in the Sudan campaign, he was severely wounded at Gula, and was rewarded for his services with the D. S. O. In Egypt Sir Archibald Hunter was Lord Kitchener's right-hand man, and he commanded a division which was present at K. of K.'s triumph at Khartoum.

During a period of fifteen years' almost continuous fighting Sir Archibald earned nineteen decorations and orders, and created a record by being promoted to the rank of general after only twenty-two years' service in the army. If the Kaiser is well acquainted with the history of the South African war, he will know that he has a dangerous antagonist in Sir Archibald Hunter, who will never admit defeat, and can be relied upon to find his way out of the tightest corner. For Sir Archibald played a conspicuous part in the South African campaign, and at its conclusion a public reception was proposed to honor the famous soldier.

But "Fighting Archie" is more at home on the battlefield than on a public platform, and he modestly refused the suggested ceremony.

JULES BOIS' TRAGIC ROMANCE

When Jules Bois, the distinguished man of letters of France, was in America last spring those who were familiar with his life recalled the tragic romance of his early years that accounts for his deep interest in the advancement of woman.

In his youth M. Bois fell in love with a woman who, loving him in return, was bound by a marriage unfortunate and at the same time, under the French law, indissoluble. The woman died in reality of a broken heart, and M. Bois, moved at once by her sad fate and his own sorrow, vowed his life to the cause of the emancipation of woman. It is from this standpoint that he views the war of the nations, concerning which he has the idea that the outcome will be for the woman who the revolution was for France. It is, he says, the "89 maternelle"—the date of the rights of mothers.

Government, he says, has been maintained and operated by brute force to no end but the incomparable slaughter of human life now going on, which writes in letters of blood on the page of political history that "it is not good for man to be alone." It is as little good for man to be alone in the government of cities and of states as in any other situation in life, therefore a new Eve is to come—the woman who will take her place beside man in politics empowered with rights commensurate with her duties.

PEDDLER TO PROFESSOR

Leo Wiener, professor of Slavic languages at Harvard university, famous educator, author of numerous philological and literary works and father of the boy prodigy, Norbert Wiener, got his start as a teacher in Kansas City, where he once sold shoes on the streets. The story of his eight years here is a convincing proof of the theory that the successful man makes his own opportunities.

When the young Russian immigrant first went to Kansas City, after working on a Kansas farm, he was penniless and friendless. His first job was as janitor of a dry goods store. Then a French-Canadian peddler persuaded him to take up his own profession and supplied him with 25 cents capital. He started out with a paper box full of shoestrings and other things, and more than quadrupled his capital before evening. He prospered greatly and soon became known to the wholesale houses as a bold and shrewd purchaser of slightly damaged goods. Then young Wiener discovered the public library, and thenceforth devoted to it the time he spent in study in the library. Several years later he obtained a position as teacher in the Central high school of Kansas City. From there he went to the University of Missouri, and thence to Harvard.

MILLIONAIRESS WHO WORKS

"I can't think of anything more stupid than days devoted to bridge tournaments, to pink-tea gossip and entertaining hosts of people in many of whom you have not the slightest interest."

So says Miss Rosalie Jones, who has gained national prominence in connection with the suffrage movement, and, putting her ideas into practice, she has become an automobile saleswoman in New York. This would be in no way remarkable were it not for the fact that Miss Jones recently inherited more than a million dollars through the death of her father, Oliver Livingston Jones. The Jones mansion at Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., is one of the show places of a section noted for its handsome estates and overlooks 500 well-kept acres. Rosalie's family have closed their town house and taken up their abode in the country, but Rosalie herself is living in a modest hotel in the city and earning happiness and contentment as well as money. No woman can be self-respecting, she believes, who is dependent upon some one for a livelihood.

Miss Jones denies that she has lost interest in woman suffrage, asserting that, on the contrary, she is more than ever keenly alive to the need of the ballot for women.

TAKES THE PLACE OF DANGEROUS CALOMEL

New Discovery! Bodson's Liver Tone Acts Like Calomel But Doesn't Gripe, Salivate or Make You Sick—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Harmless Liver Medicine for Men, Women, Children—Read Guarantee!

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out" if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Bodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any store and get a 50 cent bottle of Bodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Bodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable; therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Bodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Bodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Two Strings to Little Lester's Bow. Little Lester Livermore—Mamma, will you give me a nickel if I am a good boy?

Mamma—No; I haven't a nickel to spare now. Little Lester Livermore—All right, then! Skinny Smart will give me a dime if I can swear worse than he can.—Kansas City Star.

HAD PELLAGRA; IS NOW WELL

Ringgold, La.—Mrs. S. A. Cotter, of this place, writes: "Will say that I am perfectly well and the happiest soul on earth. Wish every pellagra sufferer could know of your great remedy. I know how to appreciate health and sympathize with those that are not so blessed. I am growing stronger, gaining in weight and can do anything I ever could. Oh, I know I am well of that horrible disease, and my heart is full of rejoicing. I feel that I have come out of a dense cloud into the blessed sunshine. God be praised! He has spared my life for some good, and I feel that I have just begun to live."

There is no longer any doubt that pellagra can be cured. Don't delay until it is too late. It is your duty to consult the resolute Baughn.

The symptoms—hands red like sunburn; skin peeling off, sore mouth, the lips, throat and tongue a flaming red, with much mucus and choking; indigestion and nausea; either diarrhea or constipation.

There is hope; get Baughn's big Free remedy for Pellagra that has at last been found. Address: American Compounding Co., box 2086, Jasper, Ala., remembering book on Pellagra and learn about the money is refunded in any case where the remedy fails to cure.—Adv.

Summer Plans. "You are going away for the summer?"

"Of course," replied Mr. Bligins; "that is to say, my family will go away. I'll stay here."

"But the climate won't be comfortable."

"I don't care anything about the climate. All I want is rest and quiet."

The Real Thing. Little Lemuel—Say, paw, what is gratitude?

Paw—Gratitude, son, is the thing that shows up when a rich old bachelor dies and leaves all his money to the woman who once rejected him.

For Her Sake. "You can't afford to be without this wonderful work."

"That's good. My wife says I am always doing things I cannot afford to, and this will prove she is right."

Question of Supplies.

"Daisy," remarked her Sunday school teacher, "don't love your cat too much. What would you do if it died—you wouldn't see it again?"

"Oh, yes, teacher; I should see it in heaven."

"No, dear, you're mistaken; angels cannot go to heaven like people."

Daisy's eyes filled with tears, but suddenly she exclaimed triumphantly, "Animals do go to heaven, for the Bible says the promised land is flowing with milk and honey, and, if there are no animals, where do they get the milk?"

Keep It In Your Stable. For external use on horses nothing that we know of equals Hanford's Balm. Many trainers use it as a leg wash because it keeps the skin in fine condition and should cure lameness. Adv.

Forced to Make Up for Lost Time. "Whenever I'm yur in Kay See," stated Senator Smith of Rampage, Okla., who is for the nonce in the city's midst, "I don't go to bed with the chickens, by any manner of means, and yet I'm never triffin' around so late at night that I don't see hundreds of prominent people scotching through the scenery in automobiles. Strikes me that folks yur are scandalously behind with their riding."—Kansas City Star.

Hanford's Balm of Myrrh is itself an antiseptic and the use of any other remedy before applying it is unnecessary. Adv.

The Fire Fiend. Mayor Thompson of Chicago, who is advertising stricter measures to prevent insurance frauds, said: "There are, you know, a great many business men who in their ideas about insurance are like Exe."

"I'm afraid, father," said Exe's son, "this property isn't worth repairing any more."

"Very well, son," said Exe. "Send then, for Smith of the Marine and Fire company at once. Let us always bear in mind the old proverb: What can't be cured must be insured."

For galla, use Hanford's Balm. Adv.

The Noiseless Age. Diggs—Would you like to join our society for the suppression of useless noise?

Diggs—Don't know. When are you going to start?

Diggs—With the next political campaign. We are going to have the number of cheers reduced from three to one.

For fresh cuts apply Hanford's Balm. Adv.

A Lone Vegetarian. "This seems to be a very exclusive restaurant."

"Yes, indeed. Why, even the waiters are perfect gentlemen. The only coarse person one ever sees here is the proprietor, and I don't suppose it would be possible to exclude him."

Naturally. "The line of battle in Europe just now reminds me of our telephone exchange."

"How so?"

"It's a line that's always busy."

For proud flesh use Hanford's Balm of Myrrh. Adv.

The Usual Thing. Mrs. Askitt—Do you keep a servant?

Mrs. Noitt—Yes, and several of her relations.—Indianapolis Star.

"I thought it would be dished."

DEVOTED HIS TO GOOD WORK

Devout Little Johnny Would Give His Penny to Buy Bibles for Poor Kids.

The little visitors at Aunt Mary's were Helen, aged six, and John, age four. They played keeping grocery under the piano, envelopes, books and other articles representing the stock in trade. They took turn about as grocer and customer. The grocer bore the name of Mr. Popcorn.

"Mr. Popcorn," said Helen, "have you any rabbits this morning?"

"Yes'm," answered the polite grocer.

"Are they nice and fresh?"

"Yes'm."

"Then you may give me a good, big fat one for 15 cents."

During a lull in the grocery transactions Aunt Mary gave each of the visitors two cents—two cents in real money.

"And what are you going to do with the money?" asked Aunt Mary.

"I'm going to put my two pennies in the bank," said Helen.

"And I," said John, "I'll buy candy with one penny."

"And what will you do with the other penny?"

And John, who had been impressed by the missionary talk at Sunday school, answered: "I'm-a-goin' to give it to buy Bibles for poor kids."

MRS. MABEN WAS MADE WELL

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Wants Other Suffering Women To Know It.

Murfreesboro, Tenn.—"I have wanted to write to you for a long time to tell you what your wonderful remedies have done for me. I was a sufferer from female weakness and displacement and I would have such tired, worn out feelings, sick headaches and dizzy spells. Doctors did me no good so I tried the Lydia E. Pinkham Remedies—Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash. I am now well and strong and can do all my own work. I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and want other suffering women to know about it."—Mrs. H. E. MABEN, 211 S. Spring St., Murfreesboro, Tenn.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for nearly forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why Lose Hope. No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Democratic Fairness.

It may seem that geography is not a very commendable issue in this appellate campaign, but we do know that party work and party service count for something, when it comes to seeking a democratic nomination at the hands of democratic voters of this appellate district. So far as the Enterprise is concerned it cares nothing about how many years any man has served on the appellate bench from any county or any part of the district, but it does know that it is not fair from a party standpoint to give so many fat party jobs to a republican county like Crittenden, when just as able and as good democrats from democratic counties, which have been bearing the brunt of party fights so long, asks for one of these important places.

Even as far back as 1895, Crittenden county was republican in politics, and in that year gave 1,323 republican votes to 887 democratic votes for governor. It is one of those partisan republican counties, that never allows a democrat to carry it for governor. In 1911, O'Rear received 1,491 to Governor McCreary's 1,253. Take it for granted that Judge Nunn and Judge Thomas are equal in legal ability and that they are both learned in the laws alike, is it right that some of the Nunn family should be retained in office from Crittenden county, a republican county, in preference to Graves county, with thousands of fighting democrats?

If all the fat party jobs are to be given to a republican county, then what encouragement have the democrats in democratic counties?

Graves county is certainly a loyal democratic county, with Hon. Gus Thomas, one of her democratic sons, the equal, if not the superior of Judge Clem Nunn, as a man learned in the law, asking for the same office.

Now is it not right and fair, to let the republican county of Crittenden rest awhile and be content with one of our United States marshals and one United States senator and give the democratic nomination to Mr. Thomas for the important office of appellate judge from the big and loyal democratic county of Graves? Mr. Thomas is the equal if not the superior of any of his opponents as a lawyer and a democrat and we hope the democrats of the district will see and feel the fairness in allowing this important nomination to be given to Mr. Thomas of Graves and let the republican county of Crittenden rest awhile. We believe the democrats of the district, be they above or below the river, will see the democratic justice of nominating Mr. Thomas. (The Hardin Enterprise.)

POPULAR MATRON DECLARES SHE IS IMPROVING FAST

VISITS FRIENDS IN PADUCAH FOR FIRST TIME SINCE EARLY PART OF LAST AUTUMN; SUFFERED INTENSELY.

Paducah, Ky., March 8, 1915.

Mrs. Cammie Harris, who lives on rural route No. 2, near Paducah, Ky., came to that city a few days ago for the first time since early last fall to show her friends how much her health had improved since she took Tanlac. It required only one bottle of the premier preparation to restore this estimable woman to her former health. She is now able to visit friends and neighbors and attend to her household duties without exerting herself. While talking to a group of friends the other day she said:

I had been ailing from the effects of stomach trouble, backache, bloating, kidney trouble and a badly run down condition for two or three years. At times I was so weak it was necessary for me to go to bed and remain there for days.

I felt disheartened and completely fagged out. I was also very nervous and exhausted and lost my appetite. Food didn't taste right nor afford me the least nourishment, because I couldn't digest it like I once did. My stomach was horribly deranged and in an awful fix.

"Whenever I attempted to lie on my left side I suffered from fluttering of my heart, which actually frightened me. Before obtaining relief from my ills I tried many different kinds of medicine, but none of them did me any good. Having heard so many people brag on Tanlac convinced me it was worth giving a trial, so I bought a bottle about a month ago and began to take it. To my great surprise and happiness it gave me instant relief and converted me into a well woman. From the first dose of it I got relief from my pains and maladies.

"In fact, one bottle of Tanlac brought back my health to me. I am now free from stomach troubles and sleep in comfort. I am eating heartily and digest my food like I did before I was sick. Tanlac has proved to me that it is a wonderful tonic and nerve remedy. After taking it just a little while my husband was benefited. He said it made him feel like whistling. 'It's fine.'"

Tanlac can be bought in Murray at Dale & Stubblefield's drug store.

Ballard County Woman Disappears.

O. C. Porter, a prosperous farmer living three and a half miles from Wickliffe on the Wickliffe and Blandville road, was in Cairo yesterday seeking some trace of his daughter, Willie Porter, 18 years old, who has been mysteriously missing from her home since Wednesday, June 9th.

Porter thought she may have been spirited to Cairo and also came to investigate the story printed in the Bulletin several days ago about a blood stained johnboat found below Wickliffe and which it was first supposed, had been the scene of some act of foul play.

Miss Porter, according to her father, left home in company with a young man admirer, presumably to go on a visit to Mrs. Edward Garner several miles distant. She said she was going to make a visit of several days with her and nothing was thought of her absence until Sunday when her father drove to the Garner home.

Mrs. Garner was surprised to learn that Porter had thought his daughter at her home. She had not been there, she declared and seemed much concerned over her disappearance.

Porter hurried home and hunted up the young man with whom she had left. He learned that he had returned to his father's farm the following day. He declared that he had left the girl at Mrs. Garner's and refused, so Porter says, to answer any further questions.

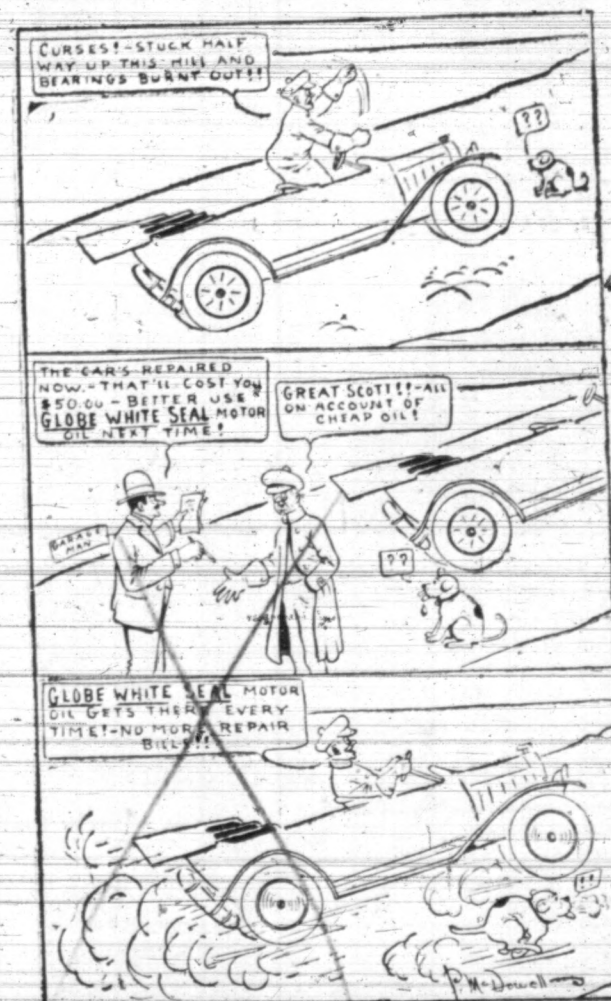

Porter made an effort to swear out a warrant for him yesterday, but says the authorities at Wickliffe refused to issue a complaint until they had proof of some crime. Porter says he has fears that his daughter has met with ty-foul play or has been spirited away and is being detained against her will.

She was not dissatisfied, he declares, with her home life, and had no sweetheart except the young man with whom she left home. He will make a complete investigation today, he declared. Cairo (Ill.) Bulletin.
