one of these days this column is going to break into song over some cheerful international news, though it's hard to say when, for the crisescontinue like a parade of ogre elephants charging to each other.

Among the latest developments in the Middle East is the situation in Hungary. It is reported that the United States government and the United Nations have been informed that Hungarian military and political authorities have arrested hundreds of Hungarian residents in the wake of the invasion of Hungary by the Soviet occupation forces.

This report is based on information received from a variety of sources, including eyewitness accounts and official communications from Budapest. The situation in Hungary is described as tense and unstable, with fears of further violence and repression.

The United States government has expressed concern over the reported arrests and has called for a peaceful resolution of the situation. The United Nations has also condemned the Soviet invasion and called for an immediate withdrawal of Soviet forces from Hungary.

Athens, Greece—A U.S. officials have warned that the situation in Hungary may escalate into a full-scale conflict if the Soviet forces continue to occupy the country. The officials said that the United States is prepared to take action to support the people of Hungary in their struggle for freedom.

The reports of arrests and violence in Hungary come as tensions rise in the region following the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan and the ongoing conflict in the Middle East. The United States and its allies are closely monitoring the situation in Hungary and are considering possible steps to support the people of Hungary in their struggle for freedom.

The situation in Hungary is described as chaotic and dangerous, with reports of widespread violence and repression. The United States government has called for a peaceful resolution of the situation and has urged the Soviet forces to withdraw immediately.

By Hugh Ferguson, Jr.

The Science Academy Preparatory School in North Beverly, Mass., has been a bit dull for some time. The Maroons, under the leadership of Coach Michael V. Finn, have been on a losing streak for the past three seasons. The team's recent loss to the rival Merchants has only added to their disappointment. The Maroons are currently ranked 14th in the state, far behind the top teams like the Boston Latin and the Springfield Armory.
