Easter Seal Sale To Open Here March 24

State Crippled Children Society To Be In Charge

M'KNIGHT LOCAL HEAD

The Kentucky Society for Crippled Children will conduct its annual Easter seal sale and membership drive March 17 through April 6, with a goal of $150,000. It was announced this week by Davis Geiger, Ashland, president of the society.

Lewis Herndon, Louisville, will serve as state chairman of the drive, directing the seal sales in every county where local committees and campaign organizations will be set up.

The Fulton Rotary Club and the Hickman Woman's Civic Club are sponsoring the drive here. Rube McKnight is the county chairman. Local chairmen appointed were James R. Hogan for Fulton and Mrs. Walker Hyde for Hickman.

Members of the Rotary Club will open a drive to raise funds for the society beginning Monday, March 24.

Chairman McKnight stated today, "I hope every Fultonian will contribute to this worthwhile organization, for Fulton county has benefited greatly from it in the past. Of the 127 Fulton county children presented for examination and treatment 88 have been treated or hospitalized."

About 2,000,000 Easter Seals will be mailed out to finance a four-point program of services for handicapped children. The program will supplement the work of the Kentucky Crippled Children Commission. Plans include construction of a convalescent home near Lexington, a pre-school for children by war shortages and rising costs. The society hopes to begin work on the hospital this year.

The society will aid the commission in a new program of treatment and therapy for children with cerebral palsy. A weekly clinic is conducted at General Hospital. The commission hopes to extend this service to other parts of the state this year with the help of the society.

Murray—Principal speaker yesterday at a Founders Day program at Murray State Teachers College was Dr. John Wesley Carr, President Emeritus of the college. He was the first president of the college, which conducted its first classes on Sept. 24, 1923.

Morehead—A Rowan circuit court jury yesterday fixed the penalty at 18 years in the state penitentiary for Ernest Wallace, 30, pleaded guilty to wounding with intent to kill his sister-in-law, Christine Black, Miss Black, 22, suffered two bullet wounds at Sharkey last Dec. 3. Wallace, father of five children, was arrested several weeks later.

Paducah—A $1,000,000 factory that will employ 1,000 persons will be constructed here by the Magnavox Corp., it was announced yesterday by R. A. O'Connor, president of the firm which manufactures radio equipment and other electrical items. O'Connor said the plant will be in operation by September.

Paducah—City Men Charles A. Williams and Edward J. Williams were before the Board of Commissioners that the ordinance creating the post office city acoholic beverage control administrator be repealed. No action has been taken by the board.

Paducah—A motion by the city for fixing a time during which Kentucky Utilities company could file proof on points in the suit in which the city is attempting to purchase Paducah properties of the company was overruled yesterday by a 3-2 vote. Judge Joe L. Price. The judge ruled the motion was improper. Tom Waller, one of the attorneys for the city, said another motion would be filed today.

Graves Airport Meeting Set

Court, Airport Board Will Seek To Correct A "Misunderstanding"

Frankfort, Ky., March 13—(AP)—Members of the Graves County Fiscal Court and Airport Board at Mayfield will meet Friday with a district airport engineer for the Civil Aeronautics Administration in an attempt to iron out a "misunderstanding" concerning contract procedure for construction of an airfield at Mayfield.

John Klette, Jr., secretary of the Kentucky Aeronautics Commission, said yesterday that Harry Gerard, district engineer for the CAA, would attend the meeting accompanied by Dr. L. M. Rahn, who will represent the commission.

Klette said a recent news story indicated there was some disagreement between the Graves County Airport Board and the Fiscal Court over which unit has authority to sign a construction contract. He said the federal government has appropriated $58,000 for construction of an airport in Mayfield, and that Graves county is unable to match that appropriation.

Mayfield is the only city in Kentucky ready to proceed under the federal air program, he added.

Explosion Jars American Vessel At Genoa, Italy

Genoa, March 13—(AP)—Two heavy explosions aboard the American motorship Edmund Fanning at her dock here today were reported to have killed one man, injured 10 of her crew of 60, and left her in flames.

The crew of the vessel was badly damaged. There was no immediate explanation of the blasts.

(Lloyd's register of shipping lists the Edmund Fanning as a 7,176-ton vessel built in 1943 and registered out of Los Angeles.)

CHINCHILLAS—Geraldine Du Bois, Chicago entertainer, holds two live chinchillas, rarest of all fur-bearing animals, from a chinchilla ranch near the Windy City.

Flu Forces South Fulton School Recess

About 30 Pct. Of Students Were Absent This Week

TO REOPEN MONDAY

South Fulton school was closed at noon today because of the high rate of absenteeism occasioned by influenza and other contagious diseases. Principal Ed Eller announced this morning.

He hopes to resume regular classwork there Monday, March 17, unless the epidemic grows worse.

Out of a total enrollment of 550 students, 132 were absent Monday, 124 Tuesday, 115 Wednesday and 145 Thursday, an average of nearly 30 pct. daily this week, Mr. Eller said.

The senior play, originally scheduled for tomorrow night in the school auditorium, has been postponed. Announcement of the new date will be made as soon as possible.

None of the Fulton city schools has been closed as yet, although absenteeism is slightly higher than usual.

Wilson Gantt, high school principal, reported this morning that 28 of the approximately 200 high school students were absent today, some because of illness and others because of the inclement weather.

Truman Relaxes At Key West, Fla., Even Oversleeps

Key West, Fla., March 13—(AP)—President Truman loafed at this naval submarine base today while world capitals speculated on the implications of his foreign policy address to Congress yesterday.

Mr. Truman, who usually gets up anywhere from 5:30 to 6:30 a.m., slept until 9 o'clock this morning, an hour later than his press secretary, Charles G. Ross.

"I think that is something of a record for the President," Ross told reporters. "He's usually the first one up."

Ross said Mr. Truman has not talked with Secretary of State George C. Marshall, at Moscow, since his speech calling upon the United States to back "free peoples" in their resistance to Communist encroachment in Greece, Turkey and other trouble centers.

Hope Lost For Entombed Man

Cincinnati Rescuers Don't Expect to Save Last Of 6 Trapped in Collapse

Cincinnati, March 13—(AP)—Rescue workers abandoned their burrowing activities today and began sorting through the rubble of a collapsed five-story building here yesterday, which would be the second victim of the Tuesday morning disaster.

Little hope was held that Fred Elssesser, 73, last of six men originally trapped under the twisted debris, would be found alive.

A distant fire chief Chris Williams said no sound had been heard from Elssesser since the building, occupied by the Western Electric and Bar Supply Co., collapsed in a cloud of dust.

Elssesser began tunneling under the 30-foot pile of brick and timber less than an hour after the collapse and by yesterday afternoon had reached four men and brought the body of another to the surface.

The assistant fire chief told rescuers it was feared that Elssesser would be "presumed dead" and head of his feet could be found in the rubble of the building.

An hour earlier, Delmar Rudd, 19-year-old son of the only known victim of the collapse, had been freed from the wreckage.

Hickenlooper Says Lillenthal Debate Will Open Friday

Washington, March 13—(AP)—Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) predicted today the David L. Lillenthal confirmation debate will begin tomorrow despite a Senate vote to go to work on the portal pay bill.

The portal bill backers were equally positive, however, that the Senate meant what it said at the end of a somewhat confusing session last night.

Hickenlooper is chairman of the committee which recommended Lillenthal's confirmation as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission by an 8-1 vote, with Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) dissenting.

"We'll take up the Lillenthal matter Friday," the chairman told a reporter, making no reservations.

Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) chairman of the judiciary committee, which approved the bill to outlaw postal pay suits, successfully moved last night that his measure be made the Senate's pending business. He said he will insist that the decision stand.

Civil War Union Veteran Marks His 100th Birthday

Cornell, Ky., March 13—(AP)—Robert Aldip, Whitley county's only surviving "veteran of the Union army in the Civil War," celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary today at his home in nearby Woodbine.

Members of the family held open house and many friends called to pay their respects to "Grandpa Aldip," still active physically and keen witted.

Nazis Becoming Communists In Red Zone, Marshall Charges

Moscow, March 13—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall, speaking on denazification before the foreign ministers today, said that the United States has "been disturbed by frequent reports in the Soviet zone of Germany that former active Nazis may be cleared by joining the Socialist Unity (Communist) party."

The Secretary added that the American zone denazification was "far beyond Allied Control Authority directives," and asserted "there is nothing to conceal."

He pointed out the Allied Control Council had not received full reports on denazification in the Eastern (Soviet) zone of Germany and added "my government opposes the use of denazification in favor of any political party."

Top American diplomats said Marshall was determined henceforth to keep U. S. foreign policy on the offensive. But, as the council of foreign ministers prepared for its fourth session, top conference sources said the Americans might have to face the reality of a split Germany.

These informants said American policy never would accept this as a permanent condition, but that the United States, Britain and France might have to deal for a long time with a de facto divided Germany.

Marshall's reported decision to retain the offensive from here on in was one charged with vital implications for the outcome of this conference in the development of the determination, the informants said, a major part was played by the declaration of the President, in which he urged Congress to send $400,000,000 to Greece and Turkey and asserted that Communists were spearheading terrorist activities in Greece.

Some French diplomats here say they believe the President's declaration—assuming it will be approved by Congress—will so disturb the balance of power upon which the Russians have been counting in that part of the world that the Soviet Union would be extremely reluctant to pull troops out of the Balkans, as required by the satellite peace treaties.

It is understood from reliable informants here that, as a part of the British-American collaboration in the Middle East, the United States had let Britain know it opposed any substantial removal of British troops from Greece. The British have been giving for a year they would get their troops out as soon as possible.

Entombed 24 Hours

The Fulton fire department rescued a man from an Illinois Central refrigerator car at the Main street crossing yesterday afternoon at 2:55. The train, en route from Paducah to Memphis, stopped at the crossing to allow firemen to fight the blaze.

The South Fulton firemen were called to McDowell street at 3 o'clock yesterday to put out a grass fire, and returned at 7:30 to extinguish a smoldering fire in a post at the same location.

This afternoon Fulton firemen went to Louis Weeks' home at 219 Second, where a battery charger caught fire and filled the house with smoke. The house was not damaged.

Every 3rd Vet Applies To VA

Public Entitled To Know About Methods, He Says

One-Third of Kentucky's Ex-Servicemen Ask Job Or Educational Training

One out of every three World War II veterans in Kentucky has applied for education or job-training under benefits administered by the Veterans Administration. It was announced today by Harry W. Farmer, regional manager. He emphasized that peak enrollment had not been reached, because more than 50,000 approved applicants in Kentucky have not yet entered education or training and 180,000 state veterans still may apply if they so desire.

The VA official reported that as of March 1, a total of 88,979 of the state's World War II veterans had applied for education or training under the G. I. Bill (Public Law 366) or the Vocational Rehabilitation Act for Disabled Veterans (Public Law 16).

Less than half of those who applied were enrolled in schools or job-training courses on March 1. Of the state's 12,487 disabled veterans who had applied for education or training, 3,344 actually were enrolled as of March 1. Of the 76,522 veterans who had applied under the G. I. Bill, 32,348 were enrolled.

Under the G. I. Bill, education or job-training may be started up to four years after the official end of the war or the date of discharge, whichever is later.

Atlee Wins Vote Of Confidence In House of Commons

London, March 13—(AP)—Prime Minister Atlee won a solid vote of confidence in the House of Commons last night after calling for "full cooperation of industry" with the Labor government in Britain's fight for economic survival.

The Labor party's big majority crushed—374 to 198—Conservative Winston Churchill's demand for a "no confidence" vote, climaxed to three days of searching debate on the government's postwar recovery policy.

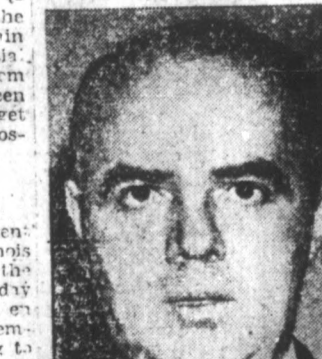

Then, by a vote of 371 to 204, the House agreed to "support the government in all practical measures" for reconstruction as outlined in a recent White Paper—a rigorous program that calls for continued food rationing, electricity and coal restrictions and determined efforts to increase production.

SOME PREDICT WAR

Washington, March 13—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) called on Congress today to support President Truman fully in combating "Communist aggression," but first advocated public hearings on methods of aiding Greece and Turkey.

The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee held a news conference after a closed meeting with Secretaries Fatterman and Forrestal of the War and Navy Departments and Undersecretary Acheson of the State Department.

He said he is insisting that "every bit of information" concerning the proposed extension of credits to the Mediterranean nations be made available to the public through open Congressional hearings.

"The President has courageously faced the problem of Communist aggression and I would expect Congress to support him," Vandenberg said in commenting on Mr. Truman's appeal yesterday for $400,000,000 in cash aid and indirect military help to Greece and Turkey.

"As to the methods and details of how this will be done," Vandenberg continued, "I expect Congress to reserve its own right to pass its own judgment."

For that reason, Vandenberg said he wants "every question" that might arise about American intervention into the troubled Mediterranean scene to be answered fully at hearings.

Congress must act, Vandenberg said, because the United Nations is not prepared at this time to consider such a situation as has arisen.

Stressing that no United Nations military force has been formed which could undertake the preservation of peace, Vandenberg ascribed this largely to a failure of the United States and Russia to agree. He said: "The difficulty has been to find common ground with Soviet representatives in this matter."

Personally, Vandenberg said he thinks that "all possible emphasis" should be placed now on an attempt to get an early agreement so such a force could be set up.

Today's discussion with the War, Navy and State Department officials, Vandenberg said, was in general terms since no detailed bill yet has been offered. He again expressed hope Congress can complete action on legislation by March 31.

Congressmen generally found the implications of a broad change in foreign policy breath-taking. Some said it pointed toward eventual war with Russia.

The development thrust a major new factor, too, into the program of domestic legislation Congress is developing.

Senator Bridges (R-NH) suggested it "might change the picture" on budget cutting to which a proposed cut in income taxes is pegged.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.) has proposed a 20 percent tax cut. The House Ways and Means Committee, of which he is chairman, began hearings on it with Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, the first witness, opposing

Bradley Backs Vets Who Want To Attend Schools Abroad

By Vern Haugland
Washington—The Veterans Administration (VA) is suffering a mild case of internal dissonance over its overseas education program, but as long as Gen. Omar Bradley is in command the ex-GI who wishes to attend a foreign school probably will be able to study with VA assistance.

J. Glenn Corbitt, VA director of insular and foreign relations, quotes Bradley: "I favor the exchange of students and am doing everything possible to expedite payment of subsistence allowances to veterans already attending schools abroad."

Some of Bradley's deputies have made no secret of their attitude that subsistence payments overseas lead only to inefficiency and confusion.

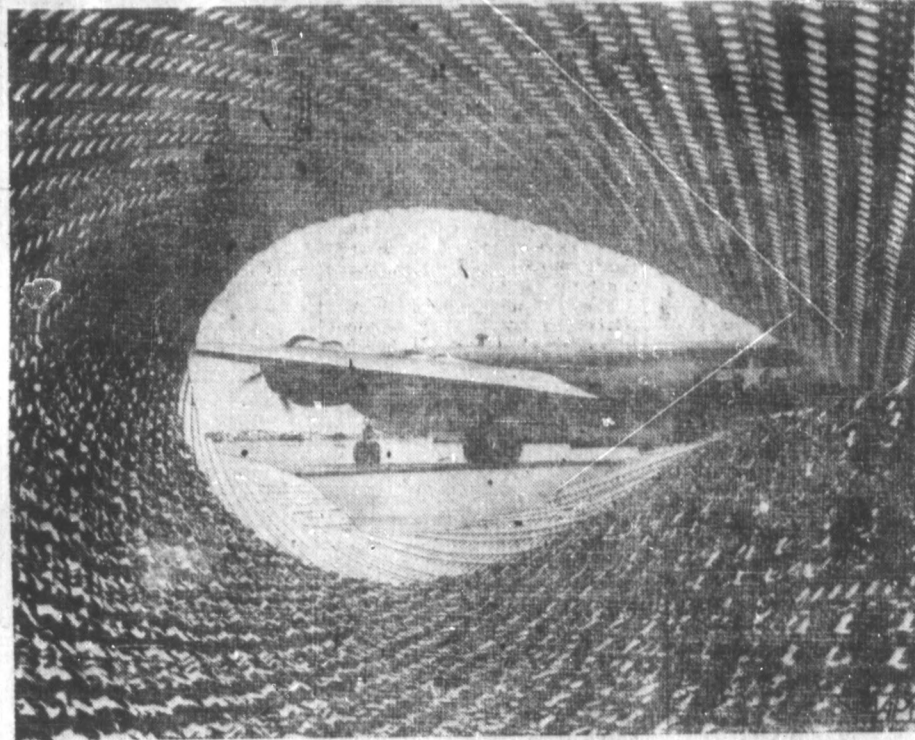

Supervision Is Difficult
"It just isn't possible to supervise the schools or the students adequately in foreign countries," says one. "If they want VA assistance, they ought to be required to attend schools in the United States."

The overseas schooling situation received an airing recently when veteran students at Oxford University in England complained that subsistence payments were slow and that in some cases tuition had not been paid for a year.

The GI bill provides for payment of tuition and book costs up to $500 a year and subsistence allowances of $65 a month for students without dependents, and $90 a month for those with dependents. These benefits, depending upon the length of war service, are extended for up to 48 months.

Where Schools Slip Up
VA officials explain that tuition delays are sometimes caused by failures of colleges to fill out forms properly. Some forms have had to be mailed back and forth across the Atlantic four or five times.

Reasons were:
1. Failure of the European school to itemize the tuition bill. Some bills included board and lodging along with other expenses.
2. Failure to specify the time or school term involved.
3. Reluctance of non-English-speaking college officials to sign documents that had not been translated.

B-29 THROUGH TUNNEL—Through the opening of a steel landing mat rolled up on Hickam Field, Honolulu, by the terrific backwash of a twin-engine P-51, a 7th USAF photographer made this unusual shot of the famous B-29, Pacusan Dreamboat.

4. Sheer negligence. Some schools even forgot to include the most important fact of all—the name of the student for whom they sought tuition payment.

"As for the students themselves, we had to stop subsistence payments when we had reason to suspect that they had ceased attending school," Corbitt explained.

Cites an Example
Payments for one student at an English school were stopped when the veteran was discovered to be in the United States. Later, from London, the student protested the suspension and explained that he had merely gone home on vacation.

Some veterans abroad have been under the impression that all they needed to do upon release from the service was to enroll in a foreign school and that the VA benefits would automatically begin.

Corbitt explained:

"No payments can be made until the veteran applies for them—and the payments can not cover school sessions which the veteran may have attended before the VA received and approved the application."

What Is Being Done
VA has taken action to expedite its payments—at least in England—and further long delays are unlikely. Gen. Bradley joined one of its deputies, Elton J. Bailey, to the State Department to administer veterans' affairs in the British Isles, and a staff of about 25 is being sent out to assist him.

State Department attaches have also established special VA offices in Rome, Paris and Mexico City. Others may be established in Ottawa, Sydney and elsewhere. VA has set up its own office at Panama City.

VA records listed 611 students receiving assistance at foreign schools at the start of 1947. VA said there probably were more others upon whom reports had not yet been received.

The official list included 330 students in Canada.

Reports for the other countries: England 30, Mexico 63, Canal Zone 39, Palestine 35, Switzerland 32, France 13, Scotland 22, Ireland nine, Cuba seven, Belgium and Chile four each, Sweden three, Italy, Argentina and Denmark two each, Dominican Republic, Colombia, Australia, Peru and Czechoslovakia one each.

The earliest recorded mention of Indian summer is 1794.

Ky. Livestock Value Soars

Up 27 Per Cent in 1947 Over the Previous Year; Individual Values Rise

The value of livestock on Kentucky farms increased materially during the past year and on Jan. 1, 1947 totaled $227,428,000. This is 27 percent above the Jan. 1, 1946 value of $178,322,000 and more than 80 percent above the 10-year (1936-45) average of $130,188,000. Higher value per head for meat animals following the dropping of price controls was the principal cause of the increase in total value.

The number of cattle at 1,502,000 head for Jan. 1, 1947 was 2 percent greater than a year earlier while numbers for all other classes show decreases as follows: hogs 2%, sheep and lambs 2%, horses 4%, and mules 8%. The total of all classes combined was 1% lower.

The average value of cattle and calves for Kentucky on Jan. 1 this year was $383.60 in comparison with $68.20 a year earlier and the 1936-45 average of $42.10. The value of milk cows and heifers was 32% higher per head than a year earlier. Kentucky hogs and pigs are now valued at $30.30 per head in comparison with $19.10 last year and the 10-year average of only $10.49. Sheep and lambs also increased in value per head in the past year and are $4.00 higher than a year ago and $7.50 per head above the average. Value per head for horses remains unchanged and for mules is $1.00 higher than on Jan. 1 last year.

Numbers of chickens on Kentucky farms are estimated at 14,867,000 for Jan. 1, 1947, valued at $1.20 per bird and with a total value of $14,240,000. This indicates a decline in numbers of 12% from last year but less than 1% decline in total value. Turkey numbers are 10% lower and total value 3% lower than a year ago.

Here's How to start a GLADIOLUS GARDEN for 25¢

We want the thousands of housewives who have so consistently bought and served our Grand Prize, Tast-Good and Early Breakfast Coffee to know we appreciate their loyalty and good will. We have found a way to thank you.

The discriminating housewives who serve Grand Prize, Tast-Good or Early Breakfast Coffee, we figure, are those who love the beautiful things of life... neat, orderly homes... peaceful, growing flower gardens.

We have discovered a florist noted for his lovely gladioli. Time and again he has carried away prizes at flower shows and county fairs for his outstanding, exquisite gladioli. We have contracted for his entire year's supply of the Famous Margaret Fulton gladioli... the very ones that brought him blue ribbons at exhibitions last year.

"Beautiful, clear coral pink blooms on tall, sturdy spikes... magnificent... gorgeous..." that's the way catalogs describe the Margaret Fulton Gladiolus.

We want you housewives who use our Grand Prize, Tast-Good and Early Breakfast Coffee to have and enjoy these beautiful flowers. Here's what you do: Send us a label from a jar of Grand Prize or Tast-Good Coffee, or the front off an Early Breakfast bag, with 25 cents in coin and you will receive, direct from the grower, prepaid

The picture of things-to-come in automobile styling—long, follow-through fenders, sleek lines, broad and solid look.

The picture of dynamic action, with its bonnet jam-packed with Fireball power, equally ready, equally willing for creep-speed jaunt or quick-paced emergency call.

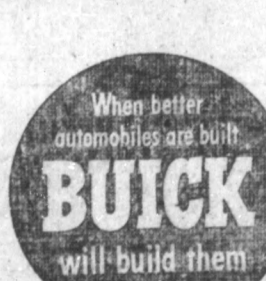

The picture of perfect poise—with plenty of roadweight for solidity—cushioned all around on soft coil springs for jarless ease.

The picture of precise and exacting manufacture, with engine tolerances often closer than in airplane practice—bodies floated on new Silent Zone mountings for tautness and quiet—everything from rear-axle strut rods to water pump seal all tidily buttoned up to give you the best to be had today.

You don't have to be told how eyes follow you when you're behind this wheel. You can sample for yourself the great ease of this gallant traveler, the comfort, the room, the thrill-of-a-lifetime lift that answers every nudge of your foot on the treadle.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
New York, March 13—(AP)—Probably the only guy who could keep Chick Wergles quiet by talking about one of Chick's fighters is Dumb Dan Morgan. And here's a greatly condensed version of how Dan says Tommy Bell can lick the much bigger Jake LaMotta tomorrow: "When you're fighting a slugger—and LaMotta is strictly a slugger—don't try to box him and jab him; he'll keep hitting you with both hands. For the first few rounds you keep your balance, feint him and another his leads. My experience is that when you do that, a slugger steps back and wonders what to do; then you can jab him and hit him. That's what I'm going to do. I had Jack Britton fighting Mike O'Dowd."

Brewers, Lone Oak Win Tilts; Several Upsets Are Recorded

Louisville, Ky., March 13—(AP)—Several upsets featured play last night as regional high school basketball tournaments got under way in the state, prelude to the state tournament which opens in Louisville on Thursday, March 20.

Twenty-three hopefuls were eliminated in games last night. Considered the biggest upset of the evening was Hodgenville's victory over Greensburg, 30-26, in the Sixth Region at Lebanon. Hodgenville meets Glendale tonight, the result of Glendale's 33-18 victory over Lebanon.

Two teams considered favorites in the Second Region at Hopkinsville also were upset. They were Newtonville and South Christian. Martha Whipple Nortonville 42-39 and Treton 44, forced into an overtime period to trim South Christian 11-26.

Wayland came through easily in the 15th Region at Inez to win over Oil Springs 63-40 but Prestonsburg bowed to Pikeville in an upset 38-36.

The First Region at Mayfield saw Brewers sweep Clinton from its path 47-29 while Lone Oak routed Melfer 58-25.

What was rated a toss up turned into a walkover for St. Xavier in the Seventh Region at Louisville. St. Xavier rolled over Manual 68-25.

Valley defeated Anchorage out in the Eighth Region at Shelbyville, 47-38, and Shelbyville took a 44-38 decision from Carrollton. Dixie Heights hurdled stiff opposition in the Ninth Region at Newport by King Hebron 39-24 and Dayton bested Newport 32-22.

In the 10th Region at Paris, Ripken County put out Paris' hopes for its first Regional championship since 1936 by defeating Paris 49-39. Maysville defeated Orangeburg 47-25. Morgan took M. M. L. 48-42 and Cynthiana topped Oddville 40-37. Cracken County now takes on

Marshall College Favored To Take NAIB Tournament

Kansas City, March 13—(AP)—Fast-breaking Marshall College, its play collected by a multitude of trick plays, became the popular choice today to take the National Intercollegiate Athletic Basketball (NAIB) championship as the 32-game tournament moved into the quarter final round.

The Huntington, W. Va., school, which set a tournament team scoring record in beating Wisconsin State Teachers of River Falls 113 to 80 in the first round, stormed past Hamilton University of St. Paul 55 to 54 in a free throw by Andy Tomkovich in the final minute of a hard-fought game last night.

The Marshall College team of 1946-47, coached by Coach W. V. Hunter, is the only team to have won the NAIB championship in the past three years.

These are service-connected death and disability compensation, national service life insurance and the education and job-training benefits of the G. I. Bill.

What They Don't Get

As with all veterans residing permanently in foreign countries, they are not eligible for certain allowances or medical or hospital treatment privileges.

Veterans of the Commonwealth Army are entitled only to national service life insurance under contracts entered into before Feb. 18, 1946, and service-connected death and disability compensation.

More than 1,000,000 Filipinos have applied to the War Department for recognition as guerrillas, but the whole question of guerrilla qualification for VA benefits remains confused. Guerrillas who also served in the Commonwealth Army qualify without question for specific benefits, VA officials say.

Thousands of Filipinos now are seeking records, affidavits from commanding officers or other evidence that they served as Scouts or in the Commonwealth Army.

Still Using Scouts

Still another factor is the new Scout force authorized by Congress last year. This force is serving in Western Pacific Army of Occupation. Its members will be eligible for service-connected death and disability payments and for insurance benefits purchased previously.

The Philippines last year became a foreign country. However, the veterans situation in the island is so complex that VA officials believe it likely the Manila office will have to be retained indefinitely.

On Sept. 30, 1946, about 8,000 Philippine veterans and dependents were receiving compensation or pensions, and 20,000 claims were being considered. Bataan Heroes Involved

GI life insurance benefits are being paid to beneficiaries, in the Philippines, of 336 dead veterans. More than 10,000 claims are pending.

Most of the available insurance records of Filipino veterans were transmitted by radio from Bataan and Cororador after the fall of Manila. Since the transmission included only the names of the insured and their designated beneficiaries, without serial number or duty attachment, VA now is having trouble identifying insurance beneficiaries.

In recognition of the service of Commonwealth Army men cut off from headquarters during the Bataan campaign and thus unable to arrange for insurance up to $5,000 to dependents of those killed in duty before April 20, 1942.

Utah Children Write Own Historical Books

School Project
Very Successful,
Educators Think

NO PH. D.'S ALLOWED

Salt Lake City—Three books, researched, written and illustrated by school children, are ready for use in telling the story of Utah's history in the state's public schools. Material for the books, which will be photographed and distributed through the schools, was gathered by girls and boys in various Utah communities, who went to primary sources, where possible, and completed the history of the state.

The work of coordinating the efforts of the children and of presenting the finished product was completed by Jennie Campbell, far-sighted director of elementary education in the Utah Department of Public Instruction.

The first volume, "Utah's Good Earth and Its Early People," provides the general background of Indian culture, settlement by the Spanish and other trail blazers and the mass migration of the Mormons.

In volume two, "Utah's Community Beginnings," the children have delved into dusty files to relate and illustrate with their own drawings the economic experiments of "united order" communities which attempted to become self-sufficient and the rise of cities and towns throughout Utah.

The child's eye view of modern Utah and its future is found in the third book, "Meeting Community Needs in Utah."

Teachers in the various schools are not allowed to give their editorial incursions full rein before passing along the anecdotes, chapters and incidents recorded by their charges, Miss Campbell explained. Teachers are told to edit with an eye for keeping the language simple and direct—no words and phrases superintendents next handle the manuscripts before they are forwarded to Miss Campbell.

"The whole aim of the work has been to give children a chance to practice their art, language and speech skills on material right in their own communities," said the educator. "The quality of the work is high, she added.

"These are books made up of children's own words and thoughts," said Miss Campbell, "and for a change, are stories written for children by children, not by a Ph. D."

ments against an American proposal that Radio Berlin be placed under control of a four-power directorate was a point that they needed it to serve their zone of occupation, which surrounds Berlin.

The Russians took control of Radio Berlin when they were sole occupiers of the city and have refused to share it. The fact the building which houses the station is located in what now is the British sector of the city. The British and American forces are located in the French sector.
