Spring Is Here, But We Knew It All The Time The Experts Say Official Arrival Was 5:13:22 a. m.

ENTIRE NATION BASKS

A glance at the calendar showed residents of Fulton and Western Kentucky that Spring arrived today—but they could have dispensed with the calendar and learned the same thing just by looking out their windows early this morning.

Light, fleecy clouds that would have looked perfectly at home on a hot Fourth of July floated daily overhead, and the few who wore heavy coats to their work this morning soon discarded them and enjoyed the "shirt-sleeve" weather.

The official opening of the season was at 5:13:22 a. m. Central Standard Time, the statisticians tell us.

Generally fair weather prevailed over virtually the entire country today, the U. S. Weather Bureau reported. However, cloudy weather and light snow covered an area comprising Wisconsin and Illinois eastward into Ohio. Temperatures generally were moderate and near or slightly below the seasonal normal.

Many sections of the nation will remember the departing winter as generally disagreeable, although there were few periods of unusually cold weather in the Purchase in 1946-47.

Winter, on a national scale, started off mildly enough, with almost balmy weather in December, except for a frigid spell between Christmas and New Year's Day. In January things got so bleakish that much of the nation was uncertain whether to wear earmuffs or straw hats.

There was an end-of-January storm that brought snow, hail, thunder and lightning to the Midwest. February wasn't much better. The Lion of Ma. sh. stormed in on a chilly wave, but true to tradition, calmed down considerably in his old age.

Louisville—An agreement between the company and AFL-Union Workers Union settled a strike that closed the plant of Yellowstones, Inc., and killed about 125 workers. The dispute had been over wage classifications of six workers. The plant manufactures and bottles distillery products.

Madisonville—An estimate at he had delivered 4,000 barrels during his professional career was made by Dr. W. L. Moore, 81, who completed 51 years as a practicing physician last Monday.

Lexington—Fayette county's total property assessment for 1947 taxes totaled $177,562,712, an increase of $18,563,787 over the past year, the board of tax equalization and Assessor William Lynch announced.

Franklin—Fifty-four of 56 teachers in the Simpson county school system signed a resolution advising the board of education they will not renew their contracts for 1947-48 unless assured an average annual salary of $1,600 by July 1, Supt. Herman Taylor announced. The superintendent said the present annual salary averaged $1,209.

Flemingsburg—Fleming county schools were ordered closed by the board of health because of what it termed a "flu epidemic." The board also ordered cancellation of the 12th district P. T. A. meeting scheduled for Saturday with delegates from Bath, Carter, Fleming, Greenup, Mason and Rowan counties.

School Lunch Price To Rise

South Fulton Lunches
Will Be 25c Beginning
On Monday, March 24

Effective Monday, March 24, the price of the hot lunches served South Fulton students in the school cafeteria will be increased from 15 cents to 25 cents, Principal Ed Eller announces. Students' parents are being notified of the increase in price, Mr. Eller said.

Two reasons for the change were given. First, the school formerly received eight cents of the cost of each lunch from the federal government, but all federal aid funds in Tennessee have been exhausted, and payments to the South Fulton school stopped March 15. Opening of many additional school lunchrooms in the state was responsible for the more rapid rate of spending federal funds.

Second, food prices continue to rise, and since the school must pay more to buy the food served, it must in turn charge the students more.

A daily average of 420 students ate in the South Fulton cafeteria during February.

H. J. Hamra Dies At Bristol, Okla., Thursday, Mar. 20

H. J. Hamra, known to his friends in Fulton as "Harry," and a brother of Mrs. K. Homra of this city, died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home in Bristol, Okla., as the result of a heart attack.

Relatives from Fulton who left last night to attend the funeral services were Mr. and Mrs. K. Homra, Adelle Homra, David Homra and Mary Homra. Fred Homra plans to leave Fulton for Oklahoma tonight or Saturday morning.

Another Record Crop Year Predicted By Ag Department

Washington, March 21—(AP)—The Agriculture Department handed out cheerful news today to Americans hoping for lower food prices and to war-suffering foreigners who will need large amounts of American food for another year.

A Department survey of farmers' planting intentions indicated that growers will continue to produce at record war-time levels. In fact, if farm plans are carried out, the total crop acreage will be larger than in the past two bumper seasons.

A less favorable picture of production plans might well have dashed consumer hopes for price relief and put overseas shortage areas on notice that they could expect less from this country. Perhaps the brightest spot in the report was a forecast that a record wheat crop of 1,212,000,000 bushels may be grown. This would top last year's record by about 57,000,000 bushels and the 1935-44 average by 369,000,000 bushels.

This wheat crop prospect comes at a time when supplies

Hi-way Across Ky. Dam Sure

Congressman Gregory
Has Received Approval
From U. S. Commissioner

Mayfield—An automobile road across Kentucky Dam is now assured, according to a communication received here by Congressman Noble J. Gregory, who is in Mayfield for a few days visit. Word was received from Thomas H. McDonald, federal commissioner of public roads, that "adequate justification" has been made by the Kentucky road commission to warrant construction of the highway.

In order to set up federal records so that a road could be built across the dam, Congressman Gregory and Congressman Kefauver, of Tennessee, sponsored and had public law No. 562 enacted last summer. Since that time the federal commissioner of public roads has been in touch with the Kentucky road commission, getting necessary data preparatory to actual road construction.

At any time now when materials and labor can be obtained, construction will begin. The project includes the widening of the dam at the top, which will be a shelf-type construction. When it is finished much of the Louisville-bound traffic will pass over the dam, and traveling distance will be shortened to Louisville and Evansville.

Floods Still Vex Britain

Worsening Conditions
Reported In East, North,
Gale Warnings Sent Out

London, March 21—(AP)—Gale warnings went up throughout Britain today and "worsening conditions" were reported in the nation's two most critical flood areas—the Fenland region in the East and the Northern mining town of Bentley.

Rivers were reported receding in virtually all other areas, however, after the nation's worst flood disaster in living memory. British soldiers and volunteers stacked more sandbags on a 12-mile long, seven-foot high dyke holding back the swollen Wyke river in the Fenlands, where entire communities and 110 square miles of rich farm land already were under water.

Trucks piled high with sand were dashing to the danger spots along roads dotted with fleeing flood refugees. RAF planes ranged over the region reporting the spread of ever-widening waters. Two army amphibians sped the work of rescuing hundreds of families marooned in Bentley, ringed by churning waters and inundated up to a depth of six feet.

TB Victim's Wife Denies Misuse Of Gifts From Public

Lexington, Ky., March 21—(AP)—Mrs. Glema Anderson, 23, declared her innocence last night of a charge filed by her husband, John Y. Anderson, 42, accusing her of unlawfully converting to her own use more than $100 contributed to treat his tuberculosis.

Contributions totaling about 165 were turned over to the couple after the Andersons had been stranded in the bus station here three days recently.

Anderson returned here with the officer who served the warrant on his wife in Nelson county as she was brought back. Mrs. Anderson said in an interview she did not plan to contest her husband's divorce suit, filed in Nicholasville after he obtained the unlawful conversion warrant here.

Mrs. Anderson asserted, "I didn't spend any part of that money foolishly."

Mayfield Will Now Have More Light On Subject

Mayfield—the 2500-watt light bulbs which have been supplying light in the lamp posts along the city's main streets are being replaced this week with 6000-watt bulbs. Installation of these more effective lights and cleaning of posts and bulbs is being done by city prison labor.

Foreign Affairs Committee Hears Acheson

German Government Similar To U. S., Canada Favored By Bevin

Moscow, March 21—(AP)—Informed sources said today British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin would propose to the Foreign Ministers Council that the future government of Germany be modeled along the federal lines of the United States and Canada.

Informants said Bevin would suggest a two-chamber legislative system for Germany, with the individual states having strength similar to those in the United States.

An exception would be that the President, elected by the people, would have little or no executive power.

These informants said Bevin was prepared to put forth his views at today's session, if there was time after hearing the deputies report on what progress they have made toward drafting an Austrian treaty. Otherwise, he will do so tomorrow.

The British plan, they said, envisioned a lower legislative chamber elected according to population and an upper chamber elected on the basis of a fixed number of representatives from each lander (state).

This central organization for Germany would have power over foreign policy and such external matters as the export-import program, while the states would retain most of the executive rights.

The ministers gave precedence today to a review of the progress of their deputies drafting a peace treaty for Austria.

The session was expected to give the first indication as to whether an Austrian pact can be completed during the current Moscow conference.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall and Bevin were reported prepared to try and speed up the drafting job, if it is at all possible, in order to get Austria re-established as a sovereign state without delay and to obtain withdrawal of occupation forces there and of supporting troops in Romania and Hungary.

(Russia was given the right, in the recently signed treaties for Romania and Hungary, to maintain forces in those two countries to guard communications lines for their occupation forces in Austria.)

Marshall also was pressing for Big Four agreement to summon Austrian government representatives to Moscow for consultation on treaty provisions.

Livingston Pushes Soil Conservation

A soil-management and post-war soils committee of Livingston county announces that its cooperative quarry, owned by the farmers of the county, will have a production capacity of 40,000 to 50,000 tons of agricultural limestone this year.

Along with the extensive use of limestone, the committee's program includes the conservation and use of farm manure, seeding of grass mixtures, terracing, contour cultivation, diversion ditching and open-ditch drainage. There are several thousand acres of fertile bottom land in the county that need drainage.

A total of 8,400 pines and 8,900 black locust have been ordered from the TVA for setting for erosion control. Marvin Smith is cooperating with County Agent Robert L. Rudolph and District Forester John Rodey in an acre forestry demonstration.

Plan To Rebuild Baptist Church

Leaders of the congregation of the Poplar Grove Baptist church in near Hickman, which was destroyed by fire Feb. 23, have announced plans to erect a new building on the same site.

"Contributions to the church's building fund are being made by many outside the church membership and it is hoped that a place of worship of which the church and the surrounding territory will be justly proud can be created," they said.

Lilienthal OK Seems Assured, Unofficial Poll Has Revealed

Washington, March 21—(AP)—David E. Lilienthal has the present support of a majority of the Senate, an associated press check showed today.

Hence his confirmation as chairman of the Atomic Control Commission is almost certain unless some Senators change their minds during debate.

Of 74 members willing to say how they would vote today on the controversial nomination 49—a clear majority of the 95 qualified members—said they intended to support the nomination. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said debate on the issue probably would start Monday.

Forty-three Senators, including Senator Capper (R-Kan.), who had been undecided until today, have announced publicly their support of Lilienthal. Six others said privately they intended to vote "yes" but do not want their names used before they announce their stand in the Senate.

In this group are five Democrats and 16 Republicans, including several GOP first-termers who may present a fairly solid front against confirmation. Most observers believe that a majority of the 21 will go against confirmation, thus providing a relatively close count on the final vote.

House Opponents Against Cut In Income Tax, Rayburn Says; GOP Still Hopes To Pass Bill Sen. Fields Is Lions' Speaker

Tennessee Legislator
Discusses New Foreign Policy, Praises Marshall

Hailing President Truman's foreign policy speech of last Wednesday as "the most important political statement" since the Monroe Doctrine, Tennessee State Senator Charles Fields reminded the Fulton Lions Club today that we have an investment in the world, and that we are committed to protect it.

There are only two worlds, the guest speaker continued, Communism and anti-Communism. The United States has the responsibility to preserve our form of civilization, and democracy for those who desire it, he asserted.

Praising Secretary of State Marshall, Mr. Fields called him the "best Secretary we have had in a number of years," and termed him fully capable of carrying out this nation's new foreign policy.

Mr. Fields was introduced by Vernon Owen, program chairman.

UAW Demands 231 Cent Hike

225,000 General Motors
Production Workers To Benefit If Plea Granted

Louisville, Ky., March 21—(AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today formally asked General Motors Corporation for a 231-2 cent hourly wage increase for an estimated 225,000 GM production workers.

UAW spokesmen said the proposed boost would bring the average wage of the company's production workers to $156.2 an hour and would cost GM about $2,115,000 a week.

UAW sources based their computation on reports that GM workers now average $133 an hour. Some other sources set the earnings at $131.

GM was asked to grant the wage increase effective as of March 19, although the UAW-GM contract provides that no wage increase can be put into effect before May 31 without mutual consent of the two parties.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, and co-director of the union's GM department, presented the proposals to GM officials at Detroit today by proxy.

4-H Club Members Grow Strawberries For Larger Profit

Through sponsorship of the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, 150 members of 4-H clubs in six Kentucky counties this year will begin growing strawberries on a commercial scale, it is announced by J. W. Whitehouse, state club leader at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

The Foundation will furnish plants and fertilizer, and the college will train local leaders to guide the boys and girls enrolled in the project. Strawberries will be produced to sell as one means of increasing cash incomes, and not for home use.

"Strawberries over the years sell for 10 times as much per acre as corn," Mr. Whitehouse explained. "Therefore an acre of strawberries in normal times brings in as much cash as 10 acres of corn."

Counties A which the strawberry project will be launched this year are Clay, Jackson, Knott, Laurel, Rockcastle and Whitley.

REPUBLICAN BILL Would Drop Some 20, Some 30 Pct.

Washington, March 21—(AP)—Democratic members of the House Ways and Means Committee decided today to oppose any tax reduction plans proposed by Republicans or anyone else at this time.

They met with Democratic Floor Leader Sam Rayburn as the Republican-controlled committee went into session to approve a bill calling for a 30 percent slash for small taxpayers and a 20 percent cut for most others.

Rayburn told newsmen following the Democrats' meeting that they felt the entire matter of tax reduction should be deferred until Congress has a better idea of the nation's fiscal situation and how much money will be appropriated.

"That will be the attitude of Democrats in the committee and in the House," he commented. The Republicans counted on their five-man majority in the committee—made up of 15 Republicans and 10 Democrats—to drive through the income tax cut bill.

As approved by the Republican House Steering Committee yesterday the bill gives a 30 percent income tax slash to low-bracket taxpayers and a 20 percent cut to most others. The original tax-cutting legislation was proposed by Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) of the committee.

Information Sought

A drive was on in the House Foreign Affairs Committee today to publicize secret "background" information the state department prepared in support of President Truman's Greek-Turkey aid program.

At the start of his testimony yesterday Undersecretary of State Acheson gave committee members booklets containing documents and information marked "Secret." He referred members to the booklet for answers to some questions they asked, thus avoiding divulging the information publicly.

Chairman Eaton (R-NJ), said that when Acheson re-appears before the committee today he will demand full publicity for the documents. He said he had "almost unanimous" backing of the committee.

Acheson thus had this dilemma: Whether to divulge the information and undoubtedly invite Russia directly in the discussion—which "embarrassment" he thus far has avoided—or to risk the ire of committee members who must pass on the Truman proposal to send $400,000,000 and limited military missions to help Greece and Turkey combat Communism.

The Senate resumed debate on anti-portal pay legislation. It agreed to vote by 3 p. m. on a substitute for a pending committee bill and by 5 p. m. on whichever of the two is accepted. The committee bill would bar most pending and future portal pay claims. Backed by Democrats, the substitute would leave future claims to collective bargaining.

Family Week

From May 4 to 11 Family Week will be observed in homes, churches and community gatherings. Family life will be featured in radio programs and in the press. There was never a time when we needed more emphasis on the rebuilding of American family life. We had one divorce to every three marriages in 1945 and the record promises to be still more serious in 1946 and 1947. Child neglect is a major factor in juvenile delinquency. Great numbers of families are crowded or practically homeless. Many marriages strained by wartime separation have not yet grown together firmly. We need nation-wide attention to the well being of families.

In spite of disturbing factors, millions of marriages are standing firm and are meeting their problems with splendid resourcefulness. Such homes are the hope of the world. Families in which love, understanding, and creative comradeship are carried into daily life give strength and joy to their members and build up the spiritual strength of mankind.

The home is a training school to teach us how to use our differences constructively. The Christian home is one place in which the antagonisms, emotional loneliness and confusion of postwar living can be offset through experiences of security, love, joy and cooperativeness.

With The Fourth Estate

By Henry Ward—Paducah Sun-Democrat

The campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor already is in full swing. Judging by the attention which is being given to a little controversy over whether Earl C. Clements, one of the two candidates, bolted the Democratic party in 1935.

Clements has contributed to the discussion by granting an interview at Washington in which he denied that he did not support A. B. Chandler for governor in the final election of 1935. By doing so he placed himself in a position that all smart candidates try to avoid. He gave support to a rumor by denying it, and he placed himself on the defensive.

In Kentucky political circles it has been thought for years that Clements joined with Tom Rhea and then Governor Ruby Laffoon in refusing to support Chandler in the final election of 1935 after he had defeated Rhea in the double barreled primary election of that summer. Clements was Rhea's state campaign manager.

Clements now admits that the Rhea state headquarters were kept open after the primary, but denies it was done to further the efforts of Rhea and Laffoon to help King Swope, the Republican nominee for governor. Both Rhea and Laffoon blasted Chandler and called for the election of Swope, but the record does not show that Clements made any statements for publication. Clements insists that he did not bolt Chandler, and as evidence of that points out that Union county, which he was then serving as county judge, gave Chandler a big majority in November.

"But the whole question of bolting has become an interesting issue not only because of what Clements might have done in 1935 but also because Chandler became a bolter himself last year. He was violently opposed to John Young Brown for U. S. senator, and when Brown won the Democratic nomination in the primary Chandler's newspaper at Versailles came out against him in the final election.

Now Chandler is for Clements for governor, which indicates that if he did believe Clements bolted him in 1935 he has forgiven him or, having been in the same boat himself, now understands how it is that a man may desert his party.

But Clements' main support comes from the remnants of the old Tom Rhea organization, and there isn't any question that some of those in the forefront of that group were bolters in 1935.

This issue may not appeal to many voters who place more emphasis on the man than on party, but to those who insist on party regularity it will have an effect.

Chickens' Best Friend

Many families are hesitating about raising any chickens this year because the foxes are so plentiful. Last year a fox came and caught a rooster at Arle Holt's. The old rooster squallied frantically and the dog chased the fox away and saved the rooster. Then soon after the dog heard a chicken squall in another direction and was seen carrying the fox in front away from home. The dog then drove the chickens to the house. Since then the foxes have let the Holt chickens alone. They figure they can safely raise chickens this year. —Roy Whicker's Jonesboro Jots in the Greenfield, Tenn., Gazette.

We're Not Anti-Soviet

By Dewitt MacKenzie, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Moscow's official reaction to President Truman's Greco-Turkish proposals is said by authoritative sources in the Russian capital to be tending toward the view that the U. S. A. is developing an out-and-out anti-Soviet policy.

It would be unfortunate if such an idea came to prevail in Russia, because there's no foundation for it. To be sure, human nature being what it is, Americans can develop violent antipathies if pushed about. But at this writing the citizens of the United States not only aren't anti-Soviet but would prefer that relations between the two countries be on a friendly basis.

Having said this, however, it's well to make it plain that we do have some enemies in our black-book. We are, as Washington has made clear, thumbs-down on Communist aggression which wages a world revolution to destroy other forms of government and bring their countries within the Russian fold.

We don't object to Communism in Russia, or in any other country that really wants it. We do object to it being thrust down the throats of helpless nations which have no use for it.

And we not only don't want it in America, but we won't have it!

As previously remarked, the American people—and the other Western Democracies—would like to live in amity with Russia. We recognize, of course, that there is no possibility of Communism and Western Democracy mixing within the borders of the same country. The two doctrines are at loggerheads. Our way of life and totalitarian dictatorship have nothing in common. They are deadly poisons to each other.

Despite this we have clung to the hope that it might be possible for Communism and Democracy to live side by side, in neighboring states, without warfare—live and let live. Maybe that idea was over-optimistic in the first place. Anyway, thus far it hasn't worked, and the reason has been the Communist movement which has kept reaching here, there and elsewhere to Communize other countries.

Things might look different if Communism operated under peaceful methods. But Communism applies the Bolshevik theories of direct action which call for the overthrow of governments, not by the ballot, but by force. The Encyclopedia Britannica epitomizes the thing like this:

Communism is peculiar in that, basing itself on the utterances of Marx and Engels, it holds that this end is only attainable by means of a revolution. Revolution is not rejected by Socialism as a last resort for overcoming historical and social obstacles; but modern Communism regards revolution as necessary and a period of the dictatorship of the proletariat based on open terror as the only means of creating the socialist economic and social system."

At this moment the United States and Britain are protesting against alleged Soviet interference and the use of strong arm methods in Hungary's internal affairs.

The best way to end the present tension would be for Moscow to come out flatly with a declaration that Russia will call a halt to efforts to extend her zones of influence by Bolshevik methods—and then carry out the promise. After all, the Soviet Union could afford to proclaim such a policy, since she has achieved an almost unbelievable expansion already.

which to work, then we can expect the teachers to do a better job. "Mrs. Harris plans to attend the P-TA Convention in Chattanooga April 15-17.

The principal, Ed Eller, expressed his appreciation to Mrs. Harris for her statements. He also announced that due to federal aid appropriations and refusal of the state department of education to aid in the cafeteria program, it would be necessary to raise the school lunches from 15 cents to 25 cents per day. "If Congress makes appropriations, the prices will be decreased, but if it remains as it is, we will either have to 'go up or close up,'" he said.

Mrs. Atkins discussed plans for membership, stressing the importance of closer contact of mothers. She advised P-TA members to "avoid criticism, wake up, plan for definite goals and follow them, be lifters, not leakers. We need a stronger system for 'room mothers.' Teachers were asked to select their room mothers for the coming year by the next meeting. Miss Betty Schwerdt was in charge of the program. The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Stockton Atkins gave a reading, and Miss Betty Bowen presented a piano solo, "April Fantasy," by Federer.

Mrs. Roper Fielder third grade won the room count award. It was announced that prizes have been bought for the winners of the essay contest.

The nominating committee submitted the following to serve as the executive officers of the P-TA for the school year 1947-48:

Mrs. Bob Harris, president; Mrs. Milburn Connor, vice-president; Mrs. Harry Richards, secretary; Mrs. James Palmer, treasurer; Mrs. J. Ray Kerr, historian.

The nominating committee consisted of Mrs. McCollum, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Palmer and E. B. Siler.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, April 24.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
New York, March 21.—(AP)—Since minor league baseball is committed to the farm system, why not farms for umpires, too? ... During the past year, this corner has been on the receiving end of plenty of moans about the umpire in the deep minors. ... Admittedly unruly fans and players who saw an umpire as just another top sergeant were partly responsible. In one league it got so bad that kids fresh out of an umpiring school would beg a few days off to visit ailing parents and then forget to return. ... But it all seems to boil down to the fact that Class "C" and "D" leagues can't afford good umpires unless someone helps them out. In 1945 the National Association voted down a proposal to contribute towards paying the salaries of the men in blue in these lower circuits and, as of now, only the "AA" and higher leagues pay for an ump's contract when they move him up from a lower circuit.

Quarter Finals Of Tournament Are In Progress

Brewers Takes on Louisville Male After First Win
FINALS SATURDAY

Louisville, Ky., March 21.—(AP)—Eight cage squads, victors in first-round competition, keyed themselves today for quarter final jousts in Kentucky's 30th annual high school basketball tournament. The lid-opener was set for 2 P. M.
Madison's Purples meet Hazard's Bulldogs in this afternoon's first quarter-final game. Madison won the tourney's first tilt, overcoming Dawson Springs 59-43. Hazard edged Valley's Vikings 35-33. The Bulldogs held the ball the final 39 seconds to halt Valley's surge.
Brewers high, tabbed by some observers as the favorite for the championship to be decided today by the Derby Day crowd.

morrow night, tangles with Louisville Male at 3 P. M.
Brewers won 31 and lost one game in regular season play. Male had a record of nine wins and ten losses.

Brewers eliminated Bowling Green 43-36 after the Warren county team almost had the makings of a big upset. For three periods, it looked as if Bowling Green might surprise the favored Brewers team. But Bowling Green's fine defensive center, Pete Anderson, went out on fouls at the end of the third quarter. From then on, Brewers was unstoppable.

Male's smoothly working outfit led Hazel Green from start to finish as Bud Hager tallied 16 points to van Male's 44-38 victory.
Mayville high's Bulldogs won their way into tonight's first quarter-final at 7:30 P. M. by pulling a second-half uprising against Corbin. Mayville's 39-39 win over the Redhounds was something of an upset. Corbin reported a record of 33 victories against a lone defeat. Corbin led at the half, 17-15, but Mayville played brilliantly in the second half, led by George Cooke, who racked up 13 points. Magnolia was forced into an overtime last night but managed to out Dixie Heights 45-43, to become Mayville's opponent.
Magnolia entered the fourth period leading 29-23. But Dixie Heights rallied with Glenn Dummert tossing in a long one. In the last seconds of the fourth quarter, he knotted the count at 39-39. Bill Lemons put Magnolia out in front with a crisp Dummert again locked the score with a push shot, at 41-41. Coleman Miller and Lemons tallied short shots to put Magnolia ahead 45-41. Dummert shrunk the lead by knocking in a rebound just before the overtime ran out.
Owensboro's Red Devils trounced Wayland's Wasps 56-46 to enter tonight's closing quarter-final game. J. M. Gipe tossed in 21 points to pace the Red Devils. Wayland was ahead 13-12 at the end of the first quarter. Then Wayland's star forward, Edd Decoursey, was removed for safekeeping. He had four personal fouls and 14 points when lifted. He returned at the start of the second half to register eight markers before fouling out with 22 points to his credit.

Chicks Secure Promise Of Aid For This Year

Parent Club And Affiliates Say They'll Help Out

CONTRACTS APPROVED

"Right now it looks like we will have about 35 men to report here for Spring training April 15," K. P. Dalton, Fulton Baseball Association president, said after returning from the Memphis Chicks' training camp at Bay St. Louis, Miss., where he and other FBA representatives spent several days looking for players.
Doe Frothro, Memphis manager, told the Fulton baseball men that he had "plenty of pitchers for Fulton," and agreed to send a shortstop and second baseman here.
Officials of the Gadsden, Ala., club, a Class "B" team affiliated with Memphis, told Dalton they would send men to Fulton if needed, and Greenville, Miss., also in the Memphis organization, gave the same promise.
The changes for Fulton's having another first-division team seem fairly bright at present.
Contracts of the following Chicks players have been approved by G. M. Trautman, new head of the National Association of Professional Baseball: Mike Tansey, Nicholas Huck, Carroll W. Peterson, Johnny Gill, Isid "Newt" Seerest, Larry Workman and Harold Seawright.
Third baseman Tommy Buck has written that he will be able to secure a release from his present job to report here next month for Spring workouts. Jake Propst, first baseman, Columbus, Miss., and Dave Steger of Greenwood, La., also have been contacted and have agreed to be here this Spring.

Newhouser and Feller Expected To Battle In Several Games In 1947

Lakeland, Fla., March 21.—(AP)—American League fans faced the pleasant prospect today of witnessing several hair-raising hurling duels between the two greatest pitchers in baseball—Hal Newhouser, Detroit, and Bob Feller of Cleveland.
This became evident when Newhouser, the game's premier southpaw, declared he was prepared to clash with Feller, base-

President Bill Veech of Cleveland, never one to overlook a good thing, especially when it means filling the ball park, has already said that he would ask Manager Lou Boudreau to pitch Feller against Newhouser whenever it could be arranged.
The slender curly-haired Newhouser, fully aware of the controversy raging as to who is the better moundsman, took exception to stories which charged that he had side-stepped several encounters with Feller last year. They met twice and each emerged with a victory.
"I never ducked a meeting with Feller or with any other great pitcher in my life," said Hal, who in the past three years has won 89 games for the Tigers. "Only last night I talked it over with O'Neil (Steve O'Neil, manager of the Tigers), and I told him that I would pitch against Feller every game if he gave the word. Steve maps out my pitching program."

Wall Street Report

New York, March 21—(AP)—Modest advances were attached to selected stocks in today's market although many leaders stumbled over light offerings. Dealings were slow from the start and fractional irregularity prevailed near midday.

A batch of pleasing earnings statements failed to buoy most stocks concerned. Occasional gainers included U. S. Steel, International Harvester, American Telephone, General Motors, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Anaconda, Kennecott, Westinghouse and International Nickel. Hesitant were Republic Steel, N. Y. Central, Northern Pacific, Montgomery Ward, Western Union, "A", Union Carbide, Phelps Dodge, J. C. Penny and Philip Morris.

Bonds and cotton futures were narrow.

FULHAM NEWS

March 19

By Docie Jones

Pink Curlin was called to Cadiz, Ky., early Tuesday by the fatal illness of his only sister, Mrs. Andrew Crist. Death occurred at 9 a. m. and funeral and burial were at Cadiz today.

Miss Pattie Mae Vaden, a senior, remains in the Jackson Hospital seriously ill. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Vaden, Hardin, Ky., her brothers, Coy Vaden of Palestine, Tex., and Harold Vaden of Detroit, and two uncles, Clyde and Hershel Writlock of Detroit, were called here to her bedside.

Claud, Buster and Rob Pillow went to Cardwell, Mo., Sunday and Hardy Pillow returned here with them for a two-week visit with relatives here and at Fulton. From here Hardy will return to California to reside.

Haskell Lee Johns of Detroit spent the weekend at Fulton with his mother, Mrs. J. W. Johns, a patient in the Fulton Hospital.

Mrs. Letha Crenshaw and Mrs. Alice Miller returned here Tuesday from Detroit where they spent the winter with their daughters, Mrs. Crenshaw with Mrs. Vernon Humphreys and family and Mrs. Miller with Mrs. Rip Jackson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whitlock, who have been in Detroit for the past three years, have returned here to reside.

Mrs. Mollie Hodges suffered a light stroke at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hindman, and the Hindmans are both ill with flu.

Mrs. Hint Bone was carried to the Haws Clinic Monday and is receiving treatment for appendicitis.

Jimmy Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Stanley, is confined to his bed with pleurisy.

Mrs. Ping Curlin, Mrs. Junior

Curling, Prentice Curling and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wells attended the funeral of Mrs. Andrew Crist at Cadiz Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Renick Armbruster, Sonny and Betty and Maurine Eberhardt spent Monday in Paducah.

Mrs. J. H. Vanpool is quite ill with sore throat.

This and That Kentucky has lost two of her "little girls" whose ages range between 60 and 70—Blumer Hunt and Becky Watts—out in California some where in and around El Monte and Los Angeles. And apparently the children like it, although they neither know where they are nor where they're going.

They're having such a grand time that the Jackson families, C. C. Burnett and Fred and Ruth Abell are all kept busy showing them California's famous spots.

Their excuse for staying over time is the bad weather back here (since they're not used to it.) They're waiting for Spring to arrive. According to the calendar, it's here now and time to go barefoot, especially for some of us who can't find slippers.

So, Mesdames Hunt and Watts, it's time to come on back home, for the Spring housecleaning, and don't forget your "other dress!"

BLACK CATS ENTERTAINED

Our cheerleaders, Misses Sammie Jean Wilson, Betty Armbruster, Dot Wilson and Barbara Ann Watts complimented the first team of basketball players with a lovely supper party Saturday night at the home of Sammie Jean.

The boys arrived to find a beautifully decorated table centered with a crystal bowl of white carnations. Admiration mounted and interest increased when huge platters of steak and brown gravy with creamy white potatoes, pineapple salad, iced tea and coconut pies were served. Following the meal a jolly social hour was enjoyed.

Present for the occasion were Geo. Humphreys and Jetty Mae McAlister, Rudell Elliott and June Suggs, Forest McAllister and Carolyn Jackson of Hickman, Robert Burkett and Betty Armbruster, Joe House and Dot Wilson, Sonny Armbruster and Barbara Ann Watts, Joe Mac Davis and Sammie Jean Wilson, Anita Sue Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Shupe and Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Wilson.

Palestine News

Mr. Gus Donoho's condition remains about the same at Jones Clinic.

The Homemakers Club will meet with Mesdames A. M. Browder and Roy Bard Friday in an all-day meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pettitt will leave for Nashville Friday morning to accompany his mother home Saturday to spend the weekend.

This community was saddened Sunday afternoon to hear of the passing of our pastor's wife, Mrs. S. F. Sands, at the home of her daughter in Gulfport, Miss., where she had been ill several months of heart ailment. Attending her funeral Monday afternoon at the Methodist church in Jackson, Tenn., were Mr. and Mrs. Lon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caldwell, Mesdames A. M. and Gus Browder and Raymond Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bard, Mr. and Mrs. Hillman Collier and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Evans. Our sympathy goes out to Bro. Western N. C. A. A. Playoffs Tonight

Kansas City, March 21—(AP)—Coaches Everett (EV) Shelton of Wyoming University and Bruce Drake of the University of Oklahoma are counting on the defensive tactics they've dug around their baskets to bring them victories in tonight's opening play in the Western Regional N. C. A. A. basketball play-offs.

Wyoming meets the favored Texas University Longhorns and Oklahoma plays the Pacific Coast champion Oregon State Beavers. The two winning teams will clash for the Western title tomorrow and each will be assured of a trip to New York for the N. C. A. A. finals.

In 26 games, Wyoming held its opponents to an average of 41.8 points.

Wyoming will meet a Texas team that averaged better than 60 points in a season of 23 wins and one loss.

BROADWAY

By JACK O'BRIAN

New York—Noel Coward in Hollywood had Clifton Webb and Leonora Corbett, in New York, read their lines for a radio version of Noel's "Blithe Spirit" over the telephone. He then gave his orders for cuts and direction in a lengthy transcontinental conversation which kept the phone circuit open two and a half hours.

Meyer Davis, who has the temerity to ask for scripts from playwrights, amateur or professional, called to report this strange playwriting case.

"This one just arrived has a prologue which ends with the hero, butting his head against a wall," explained the baton wielder and sometimes Broadway producer. "The rest of the play takes place inside his brain."

Meyer is seriously considering hiring a full time play reader for such harrowing instances. John Murray Anderson, who produces Broadway shows as well as the cellar antics of Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe and the dizziness of Nicky Blair's Carnival, where Olsen and Johnson now are creating highly solvent mayhem, has possibly the strangest contract of his somewhat unusual career: Staging a special elephant ballet for the new edition of the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey Circus.

Lauditz Melchior is especially proud of the deerskin he will wear this year for Metropolitan Opera appearances as Siegfried. He shot the deer himself. Xavier Cugat, not content with making his torrid South American rhythms an international happy and hippy enthusiasm, has a new dance on the style of the Lambeth Walk which dancing masters say is simple and attractive and should become the next light fantastic sensation. . . . Fred Astaire, however, has other ideas and is tossing all the weight of his big new dance studio project into making his initial educational dance, called of course "The Astaire," the nation's ballroom favorite. . . . Shake hands, boys, and come out dancing.

Note from Bob Christenberry, president of Hotel Astor: "Dear Jack: The mounting consistency of reports and rumors announcing sale of the Hotel that to issue this emphatic denial—the Hotel Astor has not been sold."

"So many wires, phone calls and letters have been flooding our offices wondering whether advance reservations are to be honored; so many of the hotel's thousands of employees are uneasy about their jobs, that we feel it is to the public interest to make known the fact that the Astor hasn't been sold and con-
