The Earth From 100 Miles Up

Onky Kans.

Mrs. E. G. Taylor of the Tri State Mountain Club is smiling as she brings in her 100-year-old Christmas tree. The tree was found in the woods near her home and was cut down and brought to the Annual Christmas Tree Festival in Kansas City.

The tree is 100 years old, and the branches are still green. The tree has been a gift to the city of Kansas City, and will be on display at the Tri State Mountain Club's annual Christmas tree festival. The festival will be held on December 1st, and will feature a wide variety of Christmas trees from across the country.

The festival will also feature traditional holiday food, music, and entertainment. The proceeds from the festival will go towards the Tri State Mountain Club's conservation efforts.
