Spring Comes To Iowa And It Is Muddy

Fulton Daily Leader, Fulton, Kentucky

The spring that came to Iowa created this magpie on a country road at St. Charles, Iowa. The jay perched through the chilly stuff was driven by Dr. C. G. Milbank, St. Charles vet, in a salute to an emergency call.

Social Happenings

MRS. R. P. DALTON, JR., entertained Mrs. H. M. Dolson, Sr., at a surprise birthday dinner before he leaves on a trip abroad. The dinner, given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Housewright, was held Saturday evening at 308 S. Main St. There were 100 guests in attendance, and the menu included a cold buffet. The guest list included many notable individuals, and the occasion was a great success.

Mrs. Harry M. Dolson, Sr., was greeted with heartfelt expressions of gratitude and appreciation. She has been an active member of the community for many years, and her contributions have been invaluable. Her presence at the event was a testament to the high regard in which she is held.

The evening was filled with joyful conversation and laughter, and the atmosphere was one of warmth and camaraderie. The guests shared stories and anecdotes, and the dinner concluded with a toast to Mrs. Dolson's health and happiness.

Dress was formal, with many attending in evening gowns and suits. This added to the elegance and sophistication of the occasion.

The event was a success beyond expectations, and Mrs. Dolson was visibly touched by the outpouring of love and support. It was a fitting celebration of her many accomplishments and achievements.

Sports Rowdies

New York, March 25—After leading experiences, football magazines may doubt that the place to look for the great rowdies is Maine, but the "Dixie" magazine did, and they didn't make a bad judgment, as the Rumford High School team did at about 100 miles on the truck track. No rowdies were made, but a great deal of fun was had and the boys came back with some new ideas of the game of football.

In the Pacific Coast League, Western winners are expected for the jaunt to Panama.

When Ken Pryor's shot with 13 seconds left in the game hit the underside of the basket for the winning point against Kentucky, the winner between those two teams is to appear in the NCAA finals.

The majority of the newspapers and radio stations in the country was satisfied with the 49-45 victory of the University of Kentucky over the University of Kansas in the NCAA finals, and Holy Cross, conqueror of City College of New York, came to the finals.

The purpose of the meeting was the selection of the national baseball team for the World Series.

The first of the season's games was played to-day, against the New York Yankees. The match was the first of the 100 games which the Utes played in the season.
