Mr. Dingley

Had shot guns in his tariff schedule. As a result of this duty guns have ADVANCED 37 PER CENT. Anticipating this advance we contracted last March for a large shipment of imported guns at the old price. We propose giving our customers the benefit of this purchase. Think of buying

A MID-WINTER REDUCTION SALE!

OF CLOTHING,

Furnishing Goods and Shoes, at the “Satisfactory Store”

OF THE

“OLD RELIABLE”

SAM FRANKEL'S

We are overstocked. We must reduce our immense stock of Men’s and Boys’ Clothing and Furnishments, and we know you will want to make your husbands, brothers, teacher or sons whatever a needed present for the Holidays. We are offering the best and most up-to-date all the lines of our stock at prices that you, as men and boys, will love you from 80 to 85 on each purchase. These are “Rock-dirt” reductions, which are unusual at this Season of the Year.

BUT WE MUST UNLOAD.

Look over every item on this page, and then come and see the goods and prices we make. All reductions are spinach and former prices on suits are on the original ticket. You can buy without a sense.
The oldest citizen took nuptial vows. New council meets. Gored to his reward. Pieces for planters or a serious charge.

Funeral Services on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Holley and Miss Edwina Moseley will hold a memorial service on Tuesday evening. The election of city officers was held. A truly good man passed into the Beyond.

Aunt Lillie's house went up in flames last night. The house burned down. The body of the late John N. Mills was received from the undertaker's carriage. Mrs. Leona Fears, of St. Louis, died at her residence at 10 years of age. Rev. L. E. Campbell, of Nashville, turned to Kentucky and lived in Hopkinsville till called away to his "home of rest." His generosity will be long remembered. The church has been consecrated home. The altar is adorned with a beautiful floral arrangement. The generosity of the church has been acknowledged by the presentation of a handsome watch and chain.

Mr. W. O. Steele, of Gracey, was in town last week. He was in the hotel and was last seen in the street.

Mr. Alfred & Ales, recently of this town, was here last week.

Checks have been sent to the County of this amount. $50,000 went to Louisville, $30,000 to New York, and the rest was divided among the other cities.

Grace Episcopal Church, of St. Louis, was opened last week. The service was attended by members of the church and the clergy of the city.

Mr. S. Fox Holloway and Miss Taylor were driven to the residence of Mr. T. Washington, and the members of the bridal party were present.

The nuptial service took place at Convent and Grace Episcopal Church.

The body of the late John N. Mills was received from the undertaker's carriage.

Mr. Silas Bennett, a prominent citizen, was buried last week.

Lisa, the wife of Mr. James Smith, died last week.

A full assortment of Smith & Wesson flintlocks is now on exhibit at Hager's drug store.
