"Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."---Mt. 19:14

Our children are the hope and promise of the future. The lifetime of a man is three score and ten years, yet the generations of mankind are unbroken. Our children are but the image of ourselves projected into the years. In these little hearts and souls we must store all our dreams and plans for the future of our community, our state, our nation and our world.

One of the Proverbs teaches us that if we, "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." There is no better way to assure the good training of a child than to have him attend church every Sunday. Don't send your child to church; bring him to church yourself. Teach him to remember his Creator in the days of his youth. In years to come the memory will remain with him. As a twig is best as will it grow. Give him something to cling to in the years which lie ahead. Give him a faith that will make him strong and steadfast in the face of sorrow and adversity. Give him a faith that will let his heart and soul rejoice in pleasure and happiness. Take his hand and lead him along the right path.

The environment of a child is important. His home, his school, his neighborhood and his church—all share in the kind of adult he will be. It would be difficult, indeed, to imagine an environment without a church in it. The church plays a great part in the development of a child, both mentally and spiritually. For this reason it is vital that our churches be the best that we know how to make them. Yet a church is no better or no worse than its membership. A church cannot grow and prosper without the support of the community in which it is founded. It will surely wither and die, if neglected by its members. To put off going to church is but to withhold your support. See to it that your child attends Sunday school and church. The best way to be sure of this is to bring him yourself.

We in Fulton are proud of our churches. We realize what an empty and hollow place this would be, if our churches were not here. The church itself can be empty and hollow without your presence. And to stay away too long is but to let your own soul become empty and lost.

You owe it to yourself, your child, your home, your community, the land in which you live and to your Father in Heaven to come to church Sunday—Come and bring your family and friends with you.
