

9-10-1942

The Ledger & Times, September 10, 1942

The Ledger & Times

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt>

Recommended Citation

The Ledger & Times, "The Ledger & Times, September 10, 1942" (1942). The Ledger & Times. 526.
<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt/526>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Ledger & Times by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

A dependable newspaper, dedicated four square to the best interests of Calloway

The Standard Pte. Co. X
220-222 S. First St.
Louisville, Ky.

New Series No. 1039

COMPLETE COVERAGE EVERY WEEK OF ALL CALLOWAY COUNTY NEWS

Murray, Kentucky, Thursday Afternoon, September 10, 1942

YOUR PROGRESSIVE HOME PAPER FOR OVER HALF A CENTURY

No. 37

Scrap Harvest Begins In County Next Week

SHORTAGE WILL CLOSE STEEL MILLS SOON

Kirk Pool to Call on Farmers Before Trucking Begins

Scrap metal collection will begin in Calloway county next week.

There is an urgent need for scrap iron and steel in the war effort. Steel mills use one-half scrap when making tanks, guns, and other implements of war; and Washington has stated that the mills will have to close down within two weeks if scrap is not gotten in immediately.

Calloway county is behind many other counties in getting a start. A WPA truck will call to collect scrap metal in this county to every farm home in this county to collect the scrap.

The first man to call on each farmer will be Kirk A. Pool, a well-known Murray man who has been operating an office-supply store in this city for some time. He will call on each farmer, find out if he has any scrap that he is willing to sell, and if so, will notify the truck to call for it.

The truck will come a few days later. The driver of the truck will weigh up the scrap as it is loaded, and will give the farmer a receipt for the scrap. Some time later the farmer will receive a check from the U. S. Government for his scrap which will be paid for at the rate of 35 cents per hundred pounds.

All kinds of scrap metal is desired, as is any scrap rubber that may be left after the last drive. John T. Cochran, county agent, is chairman of the Calloway county salvage committee. This week he received a telegram from J. J. Rice, executive secretary for Kentucky. The telegram read: "Washington phoned today. Scrap metal shortage is serious. Scrap steel mills are closing. Do all you can to get in scrap. Please hurry."

Kirk Pool, who will make the survey and call on all farmers, is a native of this county. He was born and raised here and has lived here practically all his life. A few months ago he sold his office supply store to The Ledger & Times because the government stopped the sale of typewriters, an important part of his business.

Roosevelt and Churchill Say War Plans Made

President Roosevelt in a talk on Monday and Prime Minister Churchill of England in a talk on Tuesday both revealed that definite plans have been made by the United Nations for fighting the war with the Axis.

President Roosevelt said, "Certain vital military decisions have been made. In due time you will know what these decisions are—and so will our enemies. I can say now that all these decisions are directed toward taking the offensive."

Roosevelt also said that none of the four major fronts—the Pacific Ocean area, the Mediterranean and the Middle East Area, the European area, and the Russian front—would be neglected, that all were vitally important.

He also stated that today, exactly nine months after Pearl Harbor, the United States has sent overseas three times more men than we transported to France in the first nine months of the first World War.

Churchill, in his talk to Parliament Tuesday, revealed also that definite United Nations strategy had been agreed upon. Decisions were made at a London conference between British and American officials in July.

The conference, held with Prime Minister Winston Churchill and the British chiefs of staff, lasted ten days and covered the whole conduct of the war. This government was represented by Harry L. Hopkins as President Roosevelt's personal representative, Gen. George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff, and Admiral Ernest J. King, chief of naval operations.

The Edge of a New World

By DONALD NELSON

This war economy is a completely abnormal situation; it is also a completely temporary situation. There will come a day when this stupendous production of military goods is no longer necessary. The gigantic factories which now work night and day to turn out implements of death and destruction will eventually exhaust their markets.

What happens then?

The answer to that question is up to us.

You can conjure up a nightmare for yourself if you choose, of course. You can imagine that all of this activity will just stop, overnight; that the men who are now so busy will fall into idleness; that the marvelous strength and energy which are now being used so fully will somehow be dissipated; that the Nation which so brilliantly found the way to produce for destruction will be utterly baffled by the problem of producing for peace. You can grow dependent thinking about the terrible slump that will bring our economy down about our ears after the war.

But I do not for a minute believe that anything of the kind will happen. We shall have no one to blame but ourselves if it does. Must we be so stupid as to throw away the skill, the resources, and the strength which we have now developed? Can't we do anything with this magnificent machine that we have harnessed for our service?

Of course we can do something with it. For a generation we have been living on the edge of a new world; we are only now beginning to realize it.

For the first time in the history of the human race there can be enough of everything to go around. Poverty is not inevitable any more. The sum total of the world's greatest possible output of goods divided by the sum total of the world's inhabitants no longer means a little less than enough for everybody. It means more than enough. The possibilities in that simple statement are beyond calculation—just what we are fighting for is the right to turn some of those possibilities into realities.

2,000 CHERS AT CAMP THIS SUMMER

About 2,000 members of 4-H clubs in Kentucky attended camps this summer, where they had short vacations and received special instruction in war activities. In addition, 389 club leaders and county agents and home demonstration agents assisted in the camps.

Kentucky, with 45,000 boys and girls enrolled in 4-H clubs, ranks fourth in the Nation in completion of projects, among states with large enrollments.

President Roosevelt said, "Certain vital military decisions have been made. In due time you will know what these decisions are—and so will our enemies. I can say now that all these decisions are directed toward taking the offensive."

Roosevelt also said that none of the four major fronts—the Pacific Ocean area, the Mediterranean and the Middle East Area, the European area, and the Russian front—would be neglected, that all were vitally important.

He also stated that today, exactly nine months after Pearl Harbor, the United States has sent overseas three times more men than we transported to France in the first nine months of the first World War.

Churchill, in his talk to Parliament Tuesday, revealed also that definite United Nations strategy had been agreed upon. Decisions were made at a London conference between British and American officials in July.

The conference, held with Prime Minister Winston Churchill and the British chiefs of staff, lasted ten days and covered the whole conduct of the war. This government was represented by Harry L. Hopkins as President Roosevelt's personal representative, Gen. George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff, and Admiral Ernest J. King, chief of naval operations.

World's Busiest Man

DONALD M. NELSON

District American Legion to Meet at Wickliffe

WICKLIFFE, Ky.—Representatives of Legion Posts throughout the First District will gather here on Sunday, September 13, for their annual Fall Conference. The meeting has been called by District Commander George A. Hannin, Sr., Paducah, for the purpose of outlining the organization's program and objectives for the coming year.

According to District Commander Hannin, a delegation of State Legion officials, headed by Department Commander Edgar N. Caldwell, Glasgow; Department Vice Commander, W. P. Shadon, Wickliffe; Department Adjutant Tom Hayden, Louisville; and Department Service Officer C. N. Florence, Lexington, will be present to address the meeting.

Samuel C. Jones Is Commissioned Second Lieutenant in Army

FORT SILL, Okla., Sept. 8.—Samuel C. Jones, Route 3, Murray, Ky., was graduated this week from Officer Candidate School here and commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery of the Army of the United States. Lieutenant Jones' grandson, H. M. Jones, Murray, reported to Ft. Sill from Pine Camp, N. Y., and has been assigned to Ft. Benning, Ga. Before entering active service he was employed as a teacher.

BREAKS LEG

Asher W. Farris broke his left leg in an accident Saturday near Big Sandy. Mr. Farris lives in Murray; is employed by the TVA clearance division.

Loans Available at Farm Credit Office

Ernest P. Fisher, field supervisor of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office, Farm Credit Administration, has announced that loans are available to farmers for the purchase of feed for livestock, the production of feed for livestock, the harvesting of tobacco (thinning and stripping), and the production of winter grains including seed, feed, fuel and oil, repairs and other expenses incidental to the production of crops.

Applications for these loans are being received at office of Carl B. King, sheriff, by Miss Francis Whitwell.

Field Supervisor Ernest P. Fisher, of the St. Louis Regional Office, is headquartered at Mayfield.

One More Holiday Coming This Year

Only one more legal holiday this year—Christmas Day.

The second one of the year was celebrated Monday. All stores and business houses in Murray were closed for Labor Day, although there was no community celebration or program.

Kentucky now has only three legal holidays—Christmas, Independence Day (the Fourth of July), and Labor Day.

All other holidays heretofore declared as official by acts of the state legislature were suspended for the duration by the General Assembly at the last session.

Murray, the Birthplace of Radio.

Dr. Hal Houston, Prof. Fowler Leaving for Military Service

DR. HAL HOUSTON

Dr. Hal Houston will leave for an Army camp in Virginia next Tuesday, it was announced yesterday. He has a commission in the Army as First Lieutenant. His last day of practice here was Saturday. He is one of Calloway county's best known physicians.

PROF. L. C. FOWLER

Prof. L. C. Fowler, assistant instructor in the commerce department of Murray State College, left Tuesday for Chicago for service in the U. S. Navy. He has been commissioned as Lieutenant. Mrs. Fowler is teaching at Lynn Grove.

PRESIDENT ASKS CEILINGS OVER FARM PRICES

Sets October 1 As Deadline for Congress to Act

President Roosevelt, in nationwide radio address Monday night, told the people of the United States that he has asked the Congress to pass a law putting a ceiling on the prices of farm products to prevent inflation, or to stop the rising cost of living. A portion of his talk reads as follows:

"From January 1, 1941, to May of this year the cost of living went up about 15 per cent. At that point we undertook to freeze the cost of living. But we could not do a complete job of it, because the congressional authority at the time exempted a large part of farm products used for food and for making clothing, though several weeks before, I had asked Congress for legislation to stabilize all farm prices."

"At that time I had told the Congress that there were seven elements in our national economy, all of which had to be controlled, and that if any one essential element remained exempt, the cost of living could not be held down."

"On only two of these points—both of them vital, however—did I call for congressional action. These were: First, taxation; and second, the stabilization of all farm prices at parity."

"Parity" is a standard for the maintenance of a good farm price. It was established as our national policy in 1933. It means that the farmer and the city worker are on the same relative ratio with each other in purchasing power as they were during a period some 30 years ago—at a time when the farmer had a satisfactory purchasing power. One hundred per cent parity, therefore, has been achieved."

"See 'Roosevelt Asks,' Page 8."

Former Minister Here Goes to Glendale, Calif.

A. V. Havens, minister of the First Christian church of Paris, Tenn., and former minister of the First Christian church of this city, will become minister of the Central Christian church of Glendale, Calif., October 1.

The Glendale church, located in greater Los Angeles, is one of the largest and most substantial churches of that brotherhood in California.

The church in Paris has made remarkable progress during Mr. Havens' ministry and he had just begun another year of service when the California call was received.

Mr. Havens has taken an active part in civic activities in Paris. He is president of the Paris Rotary Club, president of the Paris Committee of United China Relief, president of the Paris Ministerial Union, president of the Tri-State Christian Ministers Association, and Pastoral Counselor of the Tennessee Christian Endeavor Union.

Male Hemp Stalks Should be Removed Now, Says Cochran

Male hemp stalks should be removed at once in all fields that have not already had them removed, John T. Cochran stated yesterday morning in discussing the hemp situation in the county. All hemp growers are urged to take note of this and proceed with the male plant removal procedure at once.

One farmer has reported seed shattering from female plants and the removal of the male plant may shatter valuable seed if delayed, Cochran said.

Some are still confused as to the purpose of the program and Cochran said in explaining this morning that the seed are grown for a fiber crop next year to be grown in the old hemp section of Kentucky and that the fiber production will be used to cork ship bottoms as the supply of Manila and Siam that are used today becomes exhausted.

FIRE DESTROYS JEFF SHROAT'S SMOKE HOUSE

Fire Thursday evening of last week destroyed a smoke house belonging to Jeff Shroat. Loss on the building was estimated at $75. Some meat inside was destroyed.

City Schools Open Monday

Season's First Football Game Set For Next Friday With Gleason, Tenn.

Dr. Richmond To Give Opening Talk at Training School

The Training School will hold its opening next Monday morning, at 8:30 o'clock in the Little Chapel of the College.

Dr. James H. Richmond will make the opening address and Prin. Carmon Graham will be in charge. Mr. Graham is desirous that all patrons be present both for the address of President Richmond and to hear the various announcements of importance to the parents.

Nearly all of our last year's faculty will be in their accustomed places this school year.

The buses will run as last year both for city and country children. No children will be enrolled who are not six years old before December 1.

Tuition rates are unchanged and any student who is in doubt about free tuition should consult Supt. Prentice Lassiter of the Calloway County Schools. An exchange of seats between the City High and the Training High will be allowed in so far as it is possible, giving preference to seniors first and next to those who have been longest enrolled in the school in which they are now attending.

Supt. Caplinger states that no definite promise can be made concerning this exchange until after school has begun. "However," he states, "you may enroll on the school of your choice."

the other school we will settle that during the first few days of school."

Mrs. Lucy Hutchens Dies in West Hazel

Mrs. Lucy Hutchens, 72, wife of J. A. Hutchens of West Hazel, died suddenly at her home Saturday morning.

She had been doing the ordinary duties about the house and retired to a bed room for a short rest and in a few moments the husband went into the room and found her dead. The cause of her death was heart disease.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Johnnie and Gloyd Hutchens; two daughters, Mrs. Dora Sellers and Mrs. Stella Palmer, all of Detroit, Mich.; two brothers, Frank and Charley Stagner of near Puryear; and five grandchildren.

She was a member of the Methodist church and her funeral was conducted at that church in Hazel Monday afternoon by the Rev. A. C. Moore, the pastor. Pallbearers were Charles Wilson, Finis Weatherford, Son Wilson, Ira Lassiter, Ray Lassiter and Clifford Hill. Burial was in the Hazel Cemetery.

All Murray Urged To See Demonstration Friday

Civilian Defense Organization Here To Put on Educational Show for City; Will Receive Diplomas and Armbands

The city of Murray will take an other important step toward local air raid defense tomorrow (Friday) night when the civilian defense organization here will hold its graduation exercises and put on a number of educational demonstrations.

The program is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock in the Murray high school stadium.

"This is a program which should be attended by every citizen of Murray," states Max B. Hurt, Calloway defense chairman. "It is not primarily a program of entertainment although it will be interesting and enjoyable. It is a program of information and a means of perfecting an organization in the town that can take care of an emergency when and if it should arise."

Richmond To Speak
Among the speakers for the program are Dr. James H. Richmond and Dr. Charles Hire of the College and Mayor George Hart. Included in the program will be a blackout in the stadium, and demonstrations of what to do in a blackout. More than a score of trained men will take part in the program.

This program is also a graduation exercise for the members of the Murray OGD organization. These members have taken an intensive course of instruction, have passed the necessary examinations and have been certified by the Governor as duly qualified officers empowered to act in an emergency.

They will be presented certificates and arm bands at the program by Bryan Tolley, chief air raid warden for Murray.

Organization Trained
The organization here has been trained by graduates of the course in civilian defense that was conducted at the college this spring.

Among the graduates of that course were Bryan Tolley, R. H. Hood and Glen Ashcraft.

Dr. Richmond, Dr. Hire, Mayor Hart to Speak; Miniature Blackout Will be Held at Program to Begin Friday 8 PM

Fifth Region of the Office of Civilian Defense, announced last week the graduation of Glen Ashcraft as an instructor from the sixth War Department Civilian Protection School, held August 23 to September 3 at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.

Ashcraft, who lives at 1605 Miller Avenue, attended the School as a member of a class of civilian defense commanders, coordinators and educators. He will apply facts learned at the School in carrying out civilian defense assignments here in Murray.

City Blackout to Follow
Following the perfection of the local organization, a practice blackout or two will be held in Murray, with permission of the State Headquarters. These practices will be preliminary to a state-wide blackout which is scheduled to come before Thanksgiving.

Following Friday night's program, wardens and others will

3 New Teachers At Murray High; No Changes in Grades

The Murray High and Douglass schools will hold opening exercises at 8:30 next Monday morning.

Most of last year's teachers remain on the faculties of both the white and the colored schools. In the Douglass school the personnel is the same as last year. In the city white schools there are no changes in the elementary teachers. In the high school two of last year's force are missing.

Three new teachers have been employed in the high school department. They are Miss Emily Marie Skinner, a successful, experienced teacher with a master's degree, formerly of Tennessee but now a resident of Murray; Miss Jane Sexton, who has just about completed her masters degree in the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music; and Ted Haley of Madisonville, Ky., a senior music student in the college who is employed to instruct the senior band and comes well recommended by Prof. Price Doyle of Murray College.

The opening address at the Murray High will be made by Mr. A. B. Austin. The Rev. Chas. C. Thompson will conduct the devotional period.

The superintendent and faculty would like to have a large course of patrons present at the opening of each school as announcements will be made that are important to parents and patrons.

Concerning the enrollment of students who are now in the other school we will settle that during the first few days of school."

Mrs. Lucy Hutchens Dies in West Hazel

Mrs. Lucy Hutchens, 72, wife of J. A. Hutchens of West Hazel, died suddenly at her home Saturday morning.

She had been doing the ordinary duties about the house and retired to a bed room for a short rest and in a few moments the husband went into the room and found her dead. The cause of her death was heart disease.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Johnnie and Gloyd Hutchens; two daughters, Mrs. Dora Sellers and Mrs. Stella Palmer, all of Detroit, Mich.; two brothers, Frank and Charley Stagner of near Puryear; and five grandchildren.

She was a member of the Methodist church and her funeral was conducted at that church in Hazel Monday afternoon by the Rev. A. C. Moore, the pastor. Pallbearers were Charles Wilson, Finis Weatherford, Son Wilson, Ira Lassiter, Ray Lassiter and Clifford Hill. Burial was in the Hazel Cemetery.

Baldree to Head Education Office

W. Hickman Baldree, former superintendent of Graves county schools, will head the new District Office of the State Department of Education which has been established in Mayfield for the purpose of aiding handicapped children and adults in securing proper vocational training.

Mr. Baldree will supervise this work in nine Western Kentucky counties, Graves, Calloway, McCracken, Ballard, Fulton, Hickman, Carlisle, Livingston and Marshall. Miss Virginia Stokes has been engaged as secretary at the district headquarters located in the Stovall Building at Mayfield.

The establishment of this office in this district is for the purpose of aiding handicapped persons because of the war; to aid crippled children and to aid disabled persons to find suitable vocations. A soldier, disabled, for example, will be trained in a vocational school to overcome handicaps and to learn an occupation.

MARRIAGE LICENSE
Rudolph Paschall and Mary Lee Brown were issued license to marry on Sept. 8 at the office of the Calloway county court clerk.

THE LEDGER & TIMES
"Kentucky's Greatest Weekly Newspaper"

PUBLISHED BY THE CALLOWAY PUBLISHING COMPANY

Consolidation of The Murray Ledger, The Calloway Times, and The Times-Herald, Oct. 20, 1928, and The West Kentuckian, Jan. 17, 1942.

W. PERCY WILLIAMS, PUBLISHER
HAROLD VAN WINKLE, EDITOR

Published Every Thursday Noon at 103 North Fourth St., Murray, Ky.

Entered at the Post Office, Murray, Kentucky, for Transmission as Second Class Matter

NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION (1942) ACTIVE MEMBER
MEMBER OF THE KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

Subscription Rates:—In Calloway and Adjoining Counties, $1.00 a Year; In Kentucky, $1.50; Elsewhere, $2.00.

Advertising Rates and Information About Calloway County Market Furnished Upon Application.

We reserve the right to reject any Advertising Letters to the Editor or Public Voice items which in our opinion is not for the best interest of our readers.

CONTROLLING FARM PRICES

Probably no class of people in America are more anxious to prevent inflation than farmers because they are always the ones who suffer most because of it.

In the war emergency they are perfectly willing to submit to any sort of price control in order to prevent inflation, but they undoubtedly insist that industrial wages also be controlled.

In his fireside chat Monday night President Roosevelt notified Congress, and the nation, that unless Congress places ceilings on farm prices by October 1 he will do so.

He did not ask that industrial wages be controlled. On the contrary, he made it plain that he would handle the wage problem AFTER CONGRESS CONTROLS FARM PRICES.

We believe most people will approve of what the President is trying to do, but we do not agree with him when he says that farm prices represent the "key" to the inflation problem.

We believe industrial wages represent the key to inflation and that it will be unfair, and well nigh impossible, to control prices without controlling wages.

A case in point is the 1942 canned tomato crop. This year's crop cost $17 per ton in the can and ready for sale. Last year's crop cost $10 per ton. And $5 of the increase was represented by increased wages to workers under the federal wage and hour law.

Farmers want fair prices for their products—nothing more. They know what fair prices are and they have sold the nation, including the President, on farm prices based on parity with industrial prices, wages and salaries.

It would appear that Congress will be obligated to the farmers, who represent one-third of our population, to place ceiling on wages and salaries at the same time it undertakes to place ceilings on farm products.

FROM A SAILOR ON DUTY

The following is part of a letter from Herbert Lee Williams, son of the publisher of this newspaper. Lee is a graduate of Murray state, has been and still is on destroyer duty with the U. S. Navy in the Atlantic.

The situation at home, as far as labor, prices, and politics are concerned, is perhaps not the best in the world, but at least we know that these afflictions are transitional and not the effects of a new order imposed upon us.

Even during the tribulations of war, there is every hour so much to be grateful for that our own troubles become myths when we bring our minds to bear on the debt of gratitude we owe our God and our country.

Being an American one day is better than living the life of an average German or Jap for a year; and knowing one moment of Christian truth is worth more than spending a lifetime learning Nazi doctrine.

In my own case, ten months of anti-submarine warfare have had no depressing effects on me because I am constantly reminded that it could be infinitely worse if I were forced to fight for such principles as our enemies represent.

As soon as we prove to the Axis that they can't match their depraved mentalities and limited resources against American intelligence and American production lines, our job will be almost done; then it will be up to the school, the church, and the press to complete the project begun by the armed forces.

THE NEXT FRONT

Drew Pearson says the West Atlantic is the "second front"—which was opened by Hitler and his subs. H. V. Kaltenborn wonders whether the next front to be opened will be in the South Atlantic, with the Allies marching from Asia Minor to the aid of the Russians. Madame Koo says war between Japan and Russia is inevitable in Eastern Asia, but some believe the Japs will elect to strike India before hitting at the Russians. In the meantime the Allied Commandos strike at Dieppe in Northern France in a nine-hour raid. In the South Pacific our Leathernecks have occupied the Solomon Islands. Perhaps there are several "second" fronts—after all, this is a world war.

THE PEACE THAT IS TO COME

Americans are already talking of the peace that will be made after we win. It may be a bit premature—and on the other hand, ideas of what is to come are ideas of what we are fighting for. Some believe no peace treaty should be made for at least two years after the fighting ceases, to give the people time to think up a plan for an enduring peace. The editor of this newspaper believes no final treaty should ever be written. None ever written in the past has prevented future wars, and no static, unchangeable treaty ever will. Provision must be made for its amendment, and this can be done only through an international congress—a congress that has the power to enforce its decisions.

It Pays To Read the Classified Column!

HAY FEVER

Try Chiropractic for Relief of Hay Fever

DR. WALTER F. BAKER

Bank of Murray Building

Telephone 122-J

This Week On The Home Front

What about meat?

Claude R. Wickard, secretary of agriculture, says a study of the situation reveals these facts:

TOTAL SUPPLY is the largest on record.

TOTAL DEMAND also is the largest on record, for military and lend-lease schedules demand about 5,000,000,000 pounds and many, as higher if and when more ships are available. On top of that, our civil population, with the highest income on record, wants more meat than ever.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

This order will allow civilians as much meat per capita as they have eaten in the last 10 years—which is about 2 1/2 pounds per person per week.

So, the Food Requirements Committee has asked for a War Production Board—conservation order limiting the amount of meat that can go into civilian trade.

BIG CHIEF WAHOO

The mail order catalog will contain a ceiling price listing if it advertises cost-of-living articles for sale. OPA has set forth the ways which such catalogs and "flyers" may comply with the price-posting law.

Additional sugar allotments for industrial users in areas where the population has substantially increased—largely because of war time factors—has been authorized by OPA.

Canners who sell standard grade peas and tomatoes to the commercial trade at the support levels of the Agriculture Department must not add to those prices any charges for brokerage or other services.

Sugar sellers have been warned that rationing stamps and certificates cannot be used after their expiration date.

The adequacy of the coal supply for the first war-time winter and consumers who have not stored enough to protect themselves against possible temporary delays in shipment are urged to seize every opportunity to do so at once.

The manufacture of woolen clothing robes for men and boys has been prohibited.

Cuts in civilian consumption began to appear in the first three months of 1942, an inter-departmental study reveals.

Mrs. McDewitt's Mother Dies

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. McDewitt were called to Lexington last week-end because of the serious illness and death of Mrs. McDewitt's mother, Mrs. Margaret Kirwan, of that city, which occurred on Sunday morning. Mrs. Kirwan had been ill for some time and her death was not unexpected. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning with burial in St. John's cemetery in Lexington.

Other survivors include Albert "Ab" Kirwan, University of Kentucky football coach, Patrick Kirwan, president of the Louisville Teachers' Union, Edward Kirwan, Harry Kirwan, J. Ross Kirwan, William Kirwan, and nine grandchildren.

TEACHING

One of Today's

Most Important Jobs

With the opening of school we salute and welcome the teachers who, in the months ahead, will direct the best efforts to educate and train the boys and girls of our community.

Ignorance, not knowledge, is what dictators thrive on. Education, therefore, is even more important today than ever before to prepare our boys and girls, the leaders of tomorrow, for the tasks and responsibilities that will be theirs when the problems of peace supplant the trials and tribulations of war.

The Peoples Savings Bank

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

scenes and places of interest. I mention only a few. Prominent among them is Governor Johnson. Then follow many others. Here are a few: Grave of Daniel Boone, Tomb of Henry Clay, Home of Henry Clay, the oldest Court House West of the Atlantic seaboard, Lincoln Cabin at Hodgenville, Scenes of Mammoth Cave, Old Liberty Hall at Frankfort, My Old Kentucky Home at Bardonia, Lincoln Memorial at Hodgenville, Zachary Taylor's monument and Tomb at Louisville, Jefferson Davis Monument at Fairview, Ashland Home of Henry Clay. These booklets are filled with interesting pictures and general information. Entirely too much to mention in this communication.

The origin of names of places, streams, etc., are interesting. In Ohio county there is a stream called Nolin Creek. It was named by a company of early travelers who camped there in an early day—named because one of their company by the name of Linn was lost there. He and others went hunting one day and he never returned. Every searching party returned with the statement "No Linn." From this incident the stream was called Nolin. Pottery in Calloway county was so named because of pottery made there—Harris Grove was named from a man by the name of Harris who sold goods there.

By the way some one should correct a mistake found in the "History of Calloway County"—And I suppose I had as well do it as anybody else. Said mistake is in reference to naming Wadesboro. It says the town was named for Mr. Bannister. The truth is that it was named for Bannister Wade, an early settler.

Not Everybody in Calloway county subscribes to the Ledger & Times but nearly everybody reads it!

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

The World's Richest Man Found It Didn't Pay

By ROBERT RIPLEY

Ashurbanipal of Assyria, the richest man who ever lived, was worth a trillion and a half dollars—75 times as much gold as is held in the United States Treasury. Yet it availed him nothing. Neither he nor his son had the sense to use this wealth for the good of their people or for their protection.

And so it was comparatively easy for Nabopolassar and the King of the Medes to invade Assyria and enslave it. And finally, when defeat stared the great King in the face—when it was too late—Ashurbanipal, in terror, had a tremendous platform built of polished wood, in the city of Nineveh, and on top of this he heaped all of his wealth—142,000 tons of gold in 2,500,000 bricks (or ingots), each brick 7 by 28 inches in size, and each brick valued at 50,000 dollars. This treasure formed a pyramid of shining gold nearly one hundred feet high, and in the intervening spaces he placed all of his jewels and personal belongings—his wives, golden beds—his children—even his pet dog.

And then a great quantity of oil was brought from Mosul and poured on top of this golden mass, and when the torch was applied, the King himself walked in and laid down among his wives—his family—his pet dog—and everything he valued in life. And so the great Ashurbanipal, the richest man in the world, was consumed in his own wealth—he immortalized himself and became part of this great conglomerated melted mass of money—and so ended the Empire of the Assyrians. And it never rose again.

I was in Nineveh a few years ago. Only a few mounds marked the spot that was the glory of Ashurbanipal.

Why?

Because Ashurbanipal, who had practically all the money in the world, didn't do anything with it! And he and his country were lost.

Even his conquerors—the Medes and the Persians—made this same mistake—they came, saw, conquered, and confiscated this great golden molder mass of money that was once the king's and the wealth of the great Empire of Assyria—what did they do with it?

Nothing!

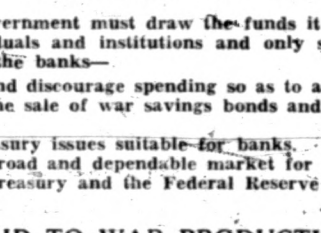

They melted it into money again—and remelted it—and in generations since it has been remelted a thousand times—until, Believe it or Not, it is a mathematical fact that every golden coin used in the world today contains in it some minute particle of Ashurbanipal himself, the King who had all the money in the world but didn't know what to do with it!

What are we going to do with our money today? Enemies threaten us the same as they threatened Ashurbanipal in 626 B. C. The United States of today, like the Assyria of Ashurbanipal, is the richest nation in the world. What will it avail us?

Nothing!

Nothing more than it did Ashurbanipal unless we do something with it. And there is only one thing to do—and that is to BUY BONDS and WAR STAMPS and make our money directly available to our country—help our country—otherwise it will become a melted destroyed 2600 years ago.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

The BANKER in WARTIME

THE BANKS of the United States have a major role in the war. They are the principal channel between the Treasury and the investor. They themselves are large buyers of government securities. They are a contact point between government and war industry. Their machinery is used at almost every step in the great war program. Fulfillment of this great responsibility will be aided by a clear definition and wide recognition of the banker's duties. That is the purpose of this statement.

FINANCING THE WAR

To avoid inflation the government must draw the funds it borrows primarily from the current income of individuals and institutions and only secondarily from commercial banks. It is the duty of the banks—

1. To encourage thrift and discourage spending so as to accumulate funds for war.
2. To push vigorously the sale of war savings bonds and stamps and tax anticipation notes.
3. To subscribe for Treasury issues suitable for banks.
4. To help maintain a broad and dependable market for government securities.
5. To advise with the Treasury and the Federal Reserve System in planning government fiscal policies.

AID TO WAR PRODUCTION

Business large and small alike must be mobilized for war. The banker can help through his knowledge of business and government, and his ability to lend. It is his task—

1. To assist small business with war orders.
2. To finance war industry both in plant expansion and in current operations.
3. To participate with Federal financing agencies when the job extends beyond proper banking scope.
4. To advise with business customers in converting plants to war use, in dealing with government agencies, and in other war problems.
5. To lend to the farmer and distributor for the "Food for Freedom" program.
6. To scrutinize non-defense loans with care and to discourage expenditures which might compete with war production for materials or labor.
7. To cooperate in the regulation of consumer credit under Regulation W.

KEEPING THE ECONOMIC MACHINE RUNNING

The country's whole economic machine must be put in high gear, to run as it never ran before. Almost every business transaction involves banking: the use of checks or money for buying materials or meeting payrolls; transferring funds; handling securities. The banker's ordinary job has become a war job. It is his responsibility therefore—

1. To provide for business and government deposit, checking, transfer, and payroll facilities, on a new, larger scale.
2. To sell and distribute vast numbers of war bonds, stamps, tax anticipation notes, and handle tax checks.
3. To cooperate with the Treasury in dealing with foreign funds.
4. To offer special services for men in the armed forces.
5. To help interpret government to business and business to government that they may work together with understanding and unity.

These tasks must be carried through swiftly and accurately while many bank workers are entering military service. This means harder work for bank staffs.

A HOUSE IN ORDER

The Nation faces years of great industrial and financial expansion and severe readjustments. To play his part effectively the banker's own house must be kept in order. It is his duty—

1. To maintain the quality of his bank's assets.
2. To husband his resources through a prudent policy of reserves and dividends.
3. To practice as well as preach the gospel of WORK and SAVE.

—AND IN THE COMMUNITY

As a citizen, his community the banker who is not himself called into the armed services has special obligations:

1. To share with others the responsibility for the success of the Red Cross, United Service, and civilian defense.
2. To make local, state, and national bankers' organizations effective agencies in the Nation's service.
3. To help the public understand war taxes, war restrictions, rationing, price controls, and other war measures which depend for their success upon public cooperation and public morale.

We endorse without reservation this statement which has been prepared by the Economic Policy Commission of the American Bankers Association

Bank of Murray

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

BIG ENOUGH TO TAKE CARE OF YOU. SMALL ENOUGH TO BE AWARE OF YOU

Macedonia News

September 7, 1942
Mr. and Mrs. Alma Steele of Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Rainey Lovins of Concord were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wisehart and son and Jeff Stubblefield of Macedonia.

Mrs. Gurthie Osborn and sons Bobby D. and Jerry Pat are spending a few days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Elmus Mitchell.

Mrs. Maggie Burton was Tuesday afternoon visitor of Mrs. Warlet Hutson, and mother Mrs. Jessie Simmons near Stone school. Mrs. Louisa Mitchell and children spent Wednesday evening with her daughter Mrs. Eunice Williams and Mr. Williams of New Providence.

Miss Eva Mae Williams are spending a few days with her aunt Mrs. Will Wincott and children of Paris, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Thorn of Paris, Tenn. spent from Friday until Monday morning with Mrs. Thorn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Simmons and children Lucille and E. H., of Macedonia.

Mrs. George Freeland have been very ill for the past few days.

Miss Lucille Simmons was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Hodge had children Fay, Delma, Edward and Shirley. Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Willoughby, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Simmons and daughter were the guests of Jerry Simmons Sunday.

Mrs. Wavel Osborn and daughter and Kentucky Belle visited Macedonia school Friday noon. We have a new teacher down there, Miss Smith of Murray, and another one we are liking fine.

Conard Hutson and Elmus Mitchell cut tobacco Tuesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Toy Williams and children and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Alton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Craig and daughter were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Hendon and Warren and Bob Albritton. Hatten Lewis was Sunday afternoon caller of Johnnie Simmons and family.

Just want to say hello to Miss Estell Shekell at Murray. Kentucky Belle would be glad to see you again.

Miss Lucille Simmons of Hazel, Route 2, is spending this week in Paris, Tenn. with her sister Mrs. Ted Thorn and Mr. Thorn.

Kentucky Belle

Dexter News

Mrs. and Mrs. Bennie Brown and son, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Jones and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Ophie Cleaves and children of St. Louis were week-end guests of Mrs. Everett Cleaver and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Barnes of Murray spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pritchett.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cleaver and daughter spent Friday and Saturday in Paducah.

Mr. and Mrs. George Washburn and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Lucy Miller.

Garvis Lee returned to Detroit after a few days' visit with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hargis and children of Providence spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Starks.

Mrs. Carrie Reeves spent part of this week in Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vick and children and Lander Cud of Centralia, Ill. spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mathis. Mr. Cud, the father of Mrs. Vick and Mrs. Mathis, will again with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mathis.

Miss Maud Woodall left Saturday for Harlan county where she will teach school again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cud of Florida are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cud at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Woodall and Mrs. Joe Croch of Murray spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thorne.

Mr. and Mrs. Huie Rose and children of Tennessee spent Monday at home.

Mr. Evans Jackson of Centralia, Ill. spent Monday in Dexter.

Mrs. Johnnie Vance and son spent the week-end near Concord with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hodge-C. A.

Murray Livestock Co. Market Report

Tuesday's Sales

Cattle—Short fed steers, 9.00-11.50; baby heaves, 8.00-12.50; fat cows, 7.50-9.10; canners and cutters, 4.00-7.00; bulls, 7.00-10.30; stock cattle, 9.00-14.20; milch cows, 12.00-26.00.

Veals—No. 1 veals, 14.25; No. 2 veals, 12.00; throwouts, 10.75-12.25.

Hogs—180-200 lb., 14.20; 200-220 lb., 14.20; 220-250 lb., 14.20; 250-270 lb., 13.90; over 270 lb., 13.70; 100-175 lb., 13.75; 120-155 lb., 13.45; roughs, 13.35-13.60.

The cattle market was reported 25 to 35c lower than the previous week.

Fifty Nazi police agents were killed in Poland last June, including the Gestapo chief at Lublin.

TAGGED FOR TOKIO

$35,600 WORTH
FROM CALLOWAY

Sure, Hirohito, Calloway county is tagging more than $35,600.00 (our quota this month) in War Bonds to buy bombs tagged for TOKIO and BERLIN. We've never yet failed to go over the top in our quotas, and we never intend to. We're sending hundreds of tough fighting men out to deliver those bombs and bullets — we are determined you'll rue the day you ever made that dastardly sneak raid on Pearl Harbor!

This Space Is a Contribution By the Following Patriotic Firms and Individuals of Calloway County:

Adams Brownbilt Shoe Store
Murray Wholesale Grocery
Superior Laundry and Cleaners
A. B. Beale & Son
Economy Feed & Seed Store
The J. H. Churchill Funeral Home
Crass Furniture Company
Corn-Austin Company
Frazee, Melugin & Holton
W. S. Fitts & Son
National Stores Corp.
Johnson-Fain Appliance Co.

Murray Lumber Company
Murray Hatchery
Miller Motor Company
Jackson-Purchase Oil Co.
Lerman Bros. Dept. Store
Parker Seed Company
J. E. Littleton & Company
Dees Bank of Hazel
Love's Studio
King's Cash Grocery
Murray Laundry
Purdum Hardware
Dale & Stubblefield

Economy Grocery
Taylor Seed and Implement Co.
Wallis & Son Grocery
Murray Garment Company
Shroat Bros. Meat Market
Tolley & Carson
Boatwright and Company
Calloway County Lumber Co.
The Ledger and Times
Pryor Motor Company
Murray Food Market
Murray Auto Parts
Boone Cleaners and Dyers

COPY FADED

Parts Missing

Murray Route 5

September 8, 1942
A nice shower fell yesterday afternoon and night.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stom, Ollie Stom and Reuben Davis were at Jones Mill Thursday in search of lumber to rebuild their house.
Mr. and Mrs. Pat Caraway and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Caraway and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Davey Harmon and son Sunday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Almous Steele and son spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elkins and family and attended church at Pleasant Valley.
William Grubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edmunds were Sunday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Linville.
Miss Earleen Stom spent Saturday night with Miss Anna May Trevathan.
Mrs. Lottie Freeland visited Mrs. Bess Linville and daughter Monday afternoon.
Alvin Grubbs of Paris visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Grubbs Monday afternoon.
Mrs. May Grubbs and son Clovis were in Murray Monday to see Dr. Wells about their eyes.

Telephone 64
We Deliver
Murray Consumers
Coal & Ice Co.

SHAKE HANDS

WITH A MAN WHO CAN HELP YOU
RAISE MORE CORN

MORE corn for Victory—
More corn for Peace—More corn to feed the World—that's the job of the American Farmer today and in the years to come. And there's a man in your neighborhood whose job is to help you do your job better, easier and more economically. That man is your local DeKalb dealer. His specialized knowledge of corn and his practical knowledge of your local growing conditions enable him to help you select the best varieties for your farm—to tell you the latest DeKalb hybrids and to help you increase your yield on less ground. Make it a point to get acquainted with your DeKalb dealer. He's a real farmer just like yourself, and your problems are his problems. See your DeKalb dealer.

DEKALB AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION, DeKalb, Ill.

DEKALB HYBRID CORN

FIELD SEEDS

We save you money on all kinds of seeds because we do not depend on seed alone.

Look At These Prices

BARLEY, bushel	$1.00
RED TOP, 100 lbs.	$9.00
CRIMSON CLOVER, 100 lbs.	$11.00
TURF OATS, bushel	90c

(As Long As Present Stock Lasts)

TAYLOR SEED & IMPLEMENT COMPANY

S. Pleasant Grove

Sympathy is extended to the relatives of Ernest Lamb who recently died near Dexter. Ernest was reared in this vicinity.
Mrs. Elin Hale of Alabama, Miss Peggy Hawks of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Orlis Key of Millin, Tenn., attended church services Sunday here and heard the pastor Rev. Algie Moore. His text was taken from John 14. The gist of the sermon was Christ being the way to salvation.
Sympathy to Lon Shrader and others whose hearts the past few weeks have been so sorely touched by the passing of two aged brothers of Mr. Shrader—Garrett and Henry (Tuck) Shrader of McKenzie but who were reared in this vicinity. Of a large family, Lon Shrader only is remaining. Their father was the late Pete Shrader and mother the late Myra Jackson Shrader.

Mrs. Donie Orr of Detroit visited a few days first of the week with her daughter-in-law and granddaughter Mrs. Hubert Orr. Mrs. Orr is a week-end guest of Miss Burlene Ball of Whitlock, Tenn., was a week-end guest of Misses Thelma and Dorothy McPherson.
Dick Rose of Detroit visited last week with his sisters Mrs. Leonard Paschall and Mrs. Roby McPherson, and brother Will Rose, their families and other relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. James McReynolds of Detroit and brother Jack and his wife of St. Louis were guests of their uncle and grandmother. Mr. and Mrs. Autry McReynolds and Mrs. Ella McReynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Miller McReynolds and son of Lynn Grove joined their relatives Sunday at the home.

Charles James has lately been called to service of his country. Milstead and Charles, only sons of Mr. and Mrs. Galen James, are in the service for their country. "You folks who have sons or other relatives in the service please occasionally send a clipping from their letters to the writer, Mrs. Sarah Smotherman, Route 4, Murray. The general public likes to hear from the service men."

Houston Clark of Ireland was recently heard from by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clark and Woodrow Wheeler of camp writes encouraging notes to his mother Mrs. Frank Clark.
Hazel Lee Boyd visited Saturday evening with his cousin Geraldine and on Sunday the "Hamphreys" family. Including their mother Mrs. Belle Story were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Story of Almo.

Warren Erwin was a week-end guest of his cousins Mr. and Mrs. Esau Gunter and Mr. and Mrs. Esau Gunter and other relatives at Memphis. Mr. Gunter is a Galloway boy and is teaching at Jonesboro.

Movie Portrays Dodgers Who Are One Leap Ahead in Pennant Race

Caroland and Lloyd Nolan (pictured above) are but movie actors, of course—but in "It Happened in Flatbush," coming to the Variety Theatre here Saturday, they help portray that Brooklyn ball club, unique and today outstanding.
The Dodgers are only three games ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League pennant race this year, with the Cards 16 games yet to go and the Dodgers 17 games before the season closes.
Last year for the first time in 21 years, the Dodgers won the National League pennant—Brooklyn fans went wild. They lost the World Series to the Yankees, but they will have a chance to beat them this year if they win the pennant again, for the Yanks are a cinch to win the pennant in the American League.

ping from their letters to the writer, Mrs. Sarah Smotherman, Route 4, Murray. The general public likes to hear from the service men."

Houston Clark of Ireland was recently heard from by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clark and Woodrow Wheeler of camp writes encouraging notes to his mother Mrs. Frank Clark.
Hazel Lee Boyd visited Saturday evening with his cousin Geraldine and on Sunday the "Hamphreys" family. Including their mother Mrs. Belle Story were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Story of Almo.

Warren Erwin was a week-end guest of his cousins Mr. and Mrs. Esau Gunter and Mr. and Mrs. Esau Gunter and other relatives at Memphis. Mr. Gunter is a Galloway boy and is teaching at Jonesboro.

Hico News

Tuesday, September 8
Mr. and Mrs. Everett Duncan had as their guests Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Iva Duncan and daughter.

Miss Khadra Dell Duncan spent Sunday with her mother Mrs. Cumi Duncan.

Mrs. Burns, Geurin and two children of Paducah spent from Tuesday until Saturday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Russ and her brother Keith Ross who left for the U. S. Army Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDaniel and little daughter, left recently for Detroit in search of work.

Boy W. T. M. Jones filled his regular appointment at Palestine church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Parish visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Parish near Aurora Sunday.

Mrs. Bradley Overby and son Lawrence were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cunningham.

Mrs. Joe Avery and children of City visited last week with her brother Hayden Bugard and family. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Olive and Lacie Towery and families. Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Holland and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Johnson, New Providence are visiting at this time with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Paris and children were Sunday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Aub Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Adams were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Bula Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lee visited the latter's father, Mr. John Ross Sunday afternoon—Blue Eyes.

People who seldom think are so startled when they generate an original thought that they rush to get it copyrighted or patented, fully expecting that the world will pay them magnificently.

Dr. J. J. Dorman
Graduate Veterinarian
Tel. 560 Murray, Ky.

Coldwater News

Mrs. Carl Hopkins and son of Detroit, Mich., are visiting home a few days.

Sorry to hear of the death of Sam Watson. The family have our sympathy.

Mrs. John Hamlett had a painful accident late Saturday afternoon while drawing a bucket of water. The chain broke causing her to fall, fracturing her hip and dislocating her wrist.

Lester Clark of Mayfield is very low, after an appendix operation.

Sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Harvey Dixon. The family have our sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright of Tennessee are visiting her brother F. M. Pea and other relatives a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Turner and family spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bazzell and family of Anchorage.

Mrs. Monroe Wilkerson is slowly improving after an operation at the Clinic-Hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Youngblood and family returned to Detroit, Mich., Saturday after spending a few days at home. Miss Robbie Youngblood accompanied them home.

Bro. and Mrs. Charlie Arnett and daughter and Pvt. Thomas Herndon visited home folks at Esau Gunter and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Herndon and family of Hazel over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bagwell and son of Highland Park, Mich., are visiting home folks a few days.

—Guess Who?

Murray Route 7

It still is fine weather for cutting tobacco. Most of the people around this neighborhood have finished cutting.

Mrs. Owen McKenney has recovered from her illness of last week.

Miss Charlene and Adrian B. Cloy are visiting their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cloy.

Mrs. A. B. Cloy was called to the bedside of her brother at Clinton Saturday night. He had been rushed to the Riverside hospital at Paducah because of lock jaw.

Mrs. Henry Farris and grandson visited Mr. and Mrs. Noble Farris and children, Frances, Jean and Max of Murray Friday.

Miss Elaine Ahart has begun teaching school at Hazel.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farris received a letter from their son in the army telling them he was going to sail in a few days. We are wishing the best of luck for him.

Laverne Johnson's baby has chicken-pox—Margie.

Read the Classified Ads.

FARM LOANS
NO APPRAISAL FEE CHARGED
4 1/2% Interest—10 Years

Franklin Title & Trust Co.
Louisville, Ky.
R. D. Mann, Mgr. Farm Loan Dept.
GILSON REALTY COMPANY
Bank of Murray Bldg.
Murray, Ky.

SUBURBAN LOANS
$6.25 Per Month Per $1,000.00

GREEN CREEK

Well, cutting tobacco seems to be the order of the day. Some have rusted and some haven't, but to take it all into consideration in this section it is one of the best crops of tobacco I have ever seen grown and I am thinking if it is cured right it will sell for a high price for there will be quite a lot of cigar tobacco this time and that generally sells good.

Harlan Lawrence, Bob Alexander, Edd Alton and Lelan Strader have cut tobacco the past week.

Irene Miller who has been ill with a head trouble for the past three weeks is no better.

Last Monday afternoon friends and neighbors gathered in and cut half acre of Miller's tobacco crop which he surely did appreciate as he was ill and couldn't cut it.

Those present and helping were John Alexander, Lum Alton, Dee St. John, Dink Dunn, Bill Dunn, John, Winburn Alton, Harlan Lawrence, Obie Hart, Zelma Farris, Devitt Laycock and Huston Miller.

Mrs. Mattie St. John visited Mrs. Flossie Miller Thursday. Harlan Lawrence went to Camp Tyson Thursday looking for carpentry work.

Obie Hart has been cutting tobacco for Dee St. John most of the past week.

Mrs. Paul Blalock is said to be improving some.

Lon White is nearly through cutting tobacco. Mr. White sure has a nice crop of the weed this year—Bull Dog.

Lassiter Hill News

Mrs. Lewis Cosby visited her sisters Misses Conple and Bula Lamb Wednesday night of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Byars and daughter Inez, Mrs. Hanzy Paschall, and Mrs. Dencel Paschall called in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ode Morris Wednesday afternoon of last week to visit Mrs. J. P. Wicker.

Some of the Kentucky callers in Paris, Tenn., last week were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogers, Mrs. Galen Rogers and daughter Lockie, Jim Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Hanzy Paschall, Mr. and Mrs. Odie Morris and Mrs. J. P. Wicker.

Mrs. J. P. Wicker returned home September 2 after a visit since July 31 with her husband.

Look Your Child In The Eye

By ORVIS C. WELLS, O.D.
Dr. Harris Guman, popular writer on the Care of the Eyes and author of a book on Psychology for Professional Men, tells an interesting story of a clumsy awkward boy whose sight was so poor he could barely discern large objects at a distance. Yet, he and his parents were wholly ignorant of the fact until one day, his father bought him a gun, and delighted with his new possession, the boy went hunting in the woods with his friends and a strange thing happened. His companions seemed to see things to shoot at that he couldn't see at all. Then his friends read aloud an advertisement in large letters on a distant billboard, and in a flash he realized the trouble. Not only was he unable to read the sign, he couldn't even see the letters. He spoke of this to his father and soon afterward got his first pair of spectacles.

Years later when he had grown to manhood and become world famous he wrote the story of his life in his own words, he gave us these facts of his early childhood when he said, "The recollection of this experience gives me a keen sympathy for those who are trying in our public schools and elsewhere to remove the physical causes of deficiency in children who are often blamed unjustly for being obstinate or unambitious or mentally stupid."

That boy was Theodore Roosevelt, that dynamic personality who later became one of our most outstanding presidents. Looking at him as a child who could have foreseen that he would someday become the executive head of his country.

Then, again, there is this true story of a brilliant child whose ability merely to see was excellent. She learned to read at an early age and books became a passion with her. Her name was Mary Ann Evans, later known to the world as "George Eliot," the famous English novelist.

Like many youngsters, she read everything she could get her hands on. Then came severe, tormenting headaches, and we are told these stayed with her almost uninterruptedly until her death. When she turned to writing, her books were completed at the cost of intense suffering and at a great effort to overcome despondency. Of this she wrote: "I am a feeble wretch with eyes that threaten to get bloodshot on the slightest provocation; my hatred of bad paper and bad print, and my love of their opportunities naturally get stronger as my eyes get weaker."

In George Eliot's childhood little was known about the science of vision. If she read too long at one sitting and used inadequate candle power for illumination, she knew no better, and had she known could have done little about it; in her case, eyestrain and consequent headache existence were unavoidable.

How much—how fortunate—the child of today! If your daughter reads too long at a sitting, you can correct her. If you boy works with insufficient light, or with light shining directly in his eyes, you can easily remedy it. If you have cause to believe that his eyes are faulty, there are thousands of professionally trained people ready and anxious to do all in their power to assure your child clear, keen, efficient eyesight.

Parent, LOOK YOUR CHILD IN THE EYE. He may be a potential Theodore Roosevelt; She a potential George Eliot.

PLUMBING
SUPPLIES
BUILDING & FARM
HARDWARE

A. B. Beale & Son
Est. 1897 Murray, Ky.

CAPITOL
CHILDREN 11c ADULTS 18c

SATURDAY & SUNDAY
TWO GREAT STARS JOIN FORCES

to clean up bad men... and whoop up songs of the plains!

CHARLES STARRETT HAYDEN

WEST OF TOMBSTONE

with CLIFF "Ukulele" EDWARDS
Marcella MARTIN
COLUMBIA PICTURE

GREEN CREEK

Well, cutting tobacco seems to be the order of the day. Some have rusted and some haven't, but to take it all into consideration in this section it is one of the best crops of tobacco I have ever seen grown and I am thinking if it is cured right it will sell for a high price for there will be quite a lot of cigar tobacco this time and that generally sells good.

Harlan Lawrence, Bob Alexander, Edd Alton and Lelan Strader have cut tobacco the past week.

Irene Miller who has been ill with a head trouble for the past three weeks is no better.

Last Monday afternoon friends and neighbors gathered in and cut half acre of Miller's tobacco crop which he surely did appreciate as he was ill and couldn't cut it.

Those present and helping were John Alexander, Lum Alton, Dee St. John, Dink Dunn, Bill Dunn, John, Winburn Alton, Harlan Lawrence, Obie Hart, Zelma Farris, Devitt Laycock and Huston Miller.

Mrs. Mattie St. John visited Mrs. Flossie Miller Thursday. Harlan Lawrence went to Camp Tyson Thursday looking for carpentry work.

Obie Hart has been cutting tobacco for Dee St. John most of the past week.

Mrs. Paul Blalock is said to be improving some.

Lon White is nearly through cutting tobacco. Mr. White sure has a nice crop of the weed this year—Bull Dog.

Lassiter Hill News

Mrs. Lewis Cosby visited her sisters Misses Conple and Bula Lamb Wednesday night of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Byars and daughter Inez, Mrs. Hanzy Paschall, and Mrs. Dencel Paschall called in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ode Morris Wednesday afternoon of last week to visit Mrs. J. P. Wicker.

Some of the Kentucky callers in Paris, Tenn., last week were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogers, Mrs. Galen Rogers and daughter Lockie, Jim Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Hanzy Paschall, Mr. and Mrs. Odie Morris and Mrs. J. P. Wicker.

Mrs. J. P. Wicker returned home September 2 after a visit since July 31 with her husband.

Look Your Child In The Eye

By ORVIS C. WELLS, O.D.
Dr. Harris Guman, popular writer on the Care of the Eyes and author of a book on Psychology for Professional Men, tells an interesting story of a clumsy awkward boy whose sight was so poor he could barely discern large objects at a distance. Yet, he and his parents were wholly ignorant of the fact until one day, his father bought him a gun, and delighted with his new possession, the boy went hunting in the woods with his friends and a strange thing happened. His companions seemed to see things to shoot at that he couldn't see at all. Then his friends read aloud an advertisement in large letters on a distant billboard, and in a flash he realized the trouble. Not only was he unable to read the sign, he couldn't even see the letters. He spoke of this to his father and soon afterward got his first pair of spectacles.

Years later when he had grown to manhood and become world famous he wrote the story of his life in his own words, he gave us these facts of his early childhood when he said, "The recollection of this experience gives me a keen sympathy for those who are trying in our public schools and elsewhere to remove the physical causes of deficiency in children who are often blamed unjustly for being obstinate or unambitious or mentally stupid."

That boy was Theodore Roosevelt, that dynamic personality who later became one of our most outstanding presidents. Looking at him as a child who could have foreseen that he would someday become the executive head of his country.

Then, again, there is this true story of a brilliant child whose ability merely to see was excellent. She learned to read at an early age and books became a passion with her. Her name was Mary Ann Evans, later known to the world as "George Eliot," the famous English novelist.

Like many youngsters, she read everything she could get her hands on. Then came severe, tormenting headaches, and we are told these stayed with her almost uninterruptedly until her death. When she turned to writing, her books were completed at the cost of intense suffering and at a great effort to overcome despondency. Of this she wrote: "I am a feeble wretch with eyes that threaten to get bloodshot on the slightest provocation; my hatred of bad paper and bad print, and my love of their opportunities naturally get stronger as my eyes get weaker."

In George Eliot's childhood little was known about the science of vision. If she read too long at one sitting and used inadequate candle power for illumination, she knew no better, and had she known could have done little about it; in her case, eyestrain and consequent headache existence were unavoidable.

How much—how fortunate—the child of today! If your daughter reads too long at a sitting, you can correct her. If you boy works with insufficient light, or with light shining directly in his eyes, you can easily remedy it. If you have cause to believe that his eyes are faulty, there are thousands of professionally trained people ready and anxious to do all in their power to assure your child clear, keen, efficient eyesight.

Parent, LOOK YOUR CHILD IN THE EYE. He may be a potential Theodore Roosevelt; She a potential George Eliot.

PLUMBING
SUPPLIES
BUILDING & FARM
HARDWARE

A. B. Beale & Son
Est. 1897 Murray, Ky.

CAPITOL
CHILDREN 11c ADULTS 18c

SATURDAY & SUNDAY
TWO GREAT STARS JOIN FORCES

to clean up bad men... and whoop up songs of the plains!

CHARLES STARRETT HAYDEN

WEST OF TOMBSTONE

with CLIFF "Ukulele" EDWARDS
Marcella MARTIN
COLUMBIA PICTURE

GREEN CREEK

Well, cutting tobacco seems to be the order of the day. Some have rusted and some haven't, but to take it all into consideration in this section it is one of the best crops of tobacco I have ever seen grown and I am thinking if it is cured right it will sell for a high price for there will be quite a lot of cigar tobacco this time and that generally sells good.

Harlan Lawrence, Bob Alexander, Edd Alton and Lelan Strader have cut tobacco the past week.

Irene Miller who has been ill with a head trouble for the past three weeks is no better.

Last Monday afternoon friends and neighbors gathered in and cut half acre of Miller's tobacco crop which he surely did appreciate as he was ill and couldn't cut it.

Those present and helping were John Alexander, Lum Alton, Dee St. John, Dink Dunn, Bill Dunn, John, Winburn Alton, Harlan Lawrence, Obie Hart, Zelma Farris, Devitt Laycock and Huston Miller.

Mrs. Mattie St. John visited Mrs. Flossie Miller Thursday. Harlan Lawrence went to Camp Tyson Thursday looking for carpentry work.

Obie Hart has been cutting tobacco for Dee St. John most of the past week.

Mrs. Paul Blalock is said to be improving some.

Lon White is nearly through cutting tobacco. Mr. White sure has a nice crop of the weed this year—Bull Dog.

Lassiter Hill News

Mrs. Lewis Cosby visited her sisters Misses Conple and Bula Lamb Wednesday night of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Byars and daughter Inez, Mrs. Hanzy Paschall, and Mrs. Dencel Paschall called in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ode Morris Wednesday afternoon of last week to visit Mrs. J. P. Wicker.

Some of the Kentucky callers in Paris, Tenn., last week were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogers, Mrs. Galen Rogers and daughter Lockie, Jim Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Hanzy Paschall, Mr. and Mrs. Odie Morris and Mrs. J. P. Wicker.

Mrs. J. P. Wicker returned home September 2 after a visit since July 31 with her husband.

Look Your Child In The Eye

By ORVIS C. WELLS, O.D.
Dr. Harris Guman, popular writer on the Care of the Eyes and author of a book on Psychology for Professional Men, tells an interesting story of a clumsy awkward boy whose sight was so poor he could barely discern large objects at a distance. Yet, he and his parents were wholly ignorant of the fact until one day, his father bought him a gun, and delighted with his new possession, the boy went hunting in the woods with his friends and a strange thing happened. His companions seemed to see things to shoot at that he couldn't see at all. Then his friends read aloud an advertisement in large letters on a distant billboard, and in a flash he realized the trouble. Not only was he unable to read the sign, he couldn't even see the letters. He spoke of this to his father and soon afterward got his first pair of spectacles.

Years later when he had grown to manhood and become world famous he wrote the story of his life in his own words, he gave us these facts of his early childhood when he said, "The recollection of this experience gives me a keen sympathy for those who are trying in our public schools and elsewhere to remove the physical causes of deficiency in children who are often blamed unjustly for being obstinate or unambitious or mentally stupid."

That boy was Theodore Roosevelt, that dynamic personality who later became one of our most outstanding presidents. Looking at him as a child who could have foreseen that he would someday become the executive head of his country.

Then, again, there is this true story of a brilliant child whose ability merely to see was excellent. She learned to read at an early age and books became a passion with her. Her name was Mary Ann Evans, later known to the world as "George Eliot," the famous English novelist.

Like many youngsters, she read everything she could get her hands on. Then came severe, tormenting headaches, and we are told these stayed with her almost uninterruptedly until her death. When she turned to writing, her books were completed at the cost of intense suffering and at a great effort to overcome despondency. Of this she wrote: "I am a feeble wretch with eyes that threaten to get bloodshot on the slightest provocation; my hatred of bad paper and bad print, and my love of their opportunities naturally get stronger as my eyes get weaker."

In George Eliot's childhood little was known about the science of vision. If she read too long at one sitting and used inadequate candle power for illumination, she knew no better, and had she known could have done little about it; in her case, eyestrain and consequent headache existence were unavoidable.

How much—how fortunate—the child of today! If your daughter reads too long at a sitting, you can correct her. If you boy works with insufficient light, or with light shining directly in his eyes, you can easily remedy it. If you have cause to believe that his eyes are faulty, there are thousands of professionally trained people ready and anxious to do all in their power to assure your child clear, keen, efficient eyesight.

Parent, LOOK YOUR CHILD IN THE EYE. He may be a potential Theodore Roosevelt; She a potential George Eliot.

LOCAL NOTES

Letter From Former Murray Resident of Interest To Local Red Cross Workers

Mrs. Saylor, who, during her short residence in Murray before going to the Pacific coast, taught the second class in Nurses' Aide, all eleven of whom are now serving in local hospitals, has written the following letter to a friend in this city. In view of the fact that the local Red Cross is planning to organize a motor corps by October 1, excerpts from the letter will be of interest.

"They have no Nurses Aide class here, because there is no accredited hospital here. I suppose you are wondering what I am doing. So I'll tell you. I am enrolled in the Motor Corps which I have wanted to do for a long time. I have classes Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

"The Motor Corps here consist of a motor mechanics course, traffic course, finger printing, Standard and Advanced First Aid, blindfold First Aid, close-order drill, which is given to us by an officer in the army. He teaches us to march, and to place the casualty on a litter or stretcher, and walk away with it to the marching court.

"I feel as though I should tie a red string around my left arm and leg, so I won't march the wrong way. The Captain will surely have to take me out in the yard and teach me which is left and right. Try it sometime, and see how often you turn right when you are supposed to turn left. I wonder if I shall ever learn?

"There is a central control room, which controls the all alerts, blackouts, and air raids. Some one has to be on duty at all times and the Motor Corps has this responsibility—so my shift is from 1 to 5 a.m. on Fridays.

"In case of an air raid we would be relieved as soon as possible, and would go to an mobilization center, where we would be on call for casualties. As the shells come in, we would go out with our ambulances, cars with trailers to pick up and treat the victims, drive down fast and 'take them' in an emergency hospital. Practically all churches and schools have beds in them, just in case of disaster.

"My dear friends, when I was in Murray I thought I was awake to the war, but since I came out here I find I must have been blind.

"When I see the crippled soldiers and sailors, battered submarines and ships, and speak with those who have been at Pearl Harbor, Bataan, etc., I can see what I've never seen before. I am convinced that this will be a war in which every individual shall suffer, physically, mentally and spiritually, and we must prepare ourselves for that now. We can't wait in fact—we have waited too long now.

"In Murray I was so proud of the heart of the United States could go to the places they are needed most. They probably will in time. So keep up the good work in Murray—hope I'll get back there some day. I would love to hear from any of you who would care to write.

"Sincerely,
Thelma Saylor"

Wear-Helm Class Holds Meeting Friday

The Wear-Helm Class of the First Christian church met Friday afternoon at the church with the following as hostesses: Mrs. C. H. Redden, Mrs. B. G. Humphreys, Mrs. Erv Johnston, Mrs. Oiler Graham, Mrs. L. D. Williams, Mrs. Daniel McKee, Miss Emma Helm and Mrs. Nettie Weatherly.

Mrs. B. B. Wear, president of the class, conducted the business session. The following program was given:

Song class: Scripture, Miss Emma Helm; prayer, Mrs. B. G. Humphreys; poem, Mrs. Erv Johnston.

Children of the Confederacy Meet Saturday Afternoon

The Children of the Confederacy met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mary Jane and Jack Kennedy. Earl Robertson, president, conducted the business session. Mrs. W. S. Swann was present and told of plans for the part the Murray chapter will take in the Sesqui-centennial program to be held in Paducah later in the month. Another visitor was Mrs. Ray Munday, who will be the sponsor for the local C. of C. this year. Miss Alecia Farmer read an interesting paper on "The Value of Southern History and Tradition to the Nation."

A social hour followed during which dainty refreshments were served.

Popular Murray Girl Is Wed

MRS. GEORGE ROBERT WILSON. Pictured above is Mrs. George Robert Wilson, the former Miss Rachel Linn of Murray. The wedding was solemnized here August 28 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Melas Linn.

Miss Artye Faye Wiggins Weds Joseph N. "Buddy" Ryan

The following article reprinted from the Paris Post-Intelligencer, Paris, Tenn., of Tuesday afternoon, September 8, will be of widespread interest to the many friends of Mr. Ryan here. Mr. Ryan is a popular and successful young business man of Murray.

U.D.C. Meets Wednesday Afternoon

"Swanstadt," the home of Mrs. Warren S. Swann, was opened Wednesday afternoon for the September meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy with Mrs. H. P. Wear, Mrs. A. F. Doran, Mrs. Charlie Smith, Mrs. Albert Lassiter and Mrs. J. P. Lassiter as co-hostesses.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Albert Lassiter. Delegates elected to the state convocation to be held in Paducah on October 21, 22 and 23 were Mrs. Albert Lassiter, Mrs. H. C. Corn, Mrs. H. P. Wear, and Mrs. J. D. Peterson of Benton. Plans were made for "A Cavalcade of Kentucky Women," the sesqui-centennial celebration to be given by the Kentucky division at the Paducah meeting.

A very interesting program honoring Raphael Semmes was given. Mrs. W. W. McElrath read a paper entitled "Compare the Early American Navy, the Confederate Navy, and the Navy of 1942." Miss Gladys Wallis and Miss Lula Clayton Beale sang war songs of the sixties, 1818 and 1942 with introduction to each group and piano accompaniment by Mrs. Hall Hood. Mrs. H. P. Wear's paper was "The Value of the Old South in American History, and of the South in the History of Today."

A party plate was served by the hostesses at the conclusion of the program.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. E. F. Murphy, Mrs. F. J. Murphy, Miss Georgia Lee-Murphy of Mayfield, Miss Mildred Hallene Hatcher of the Paducah chapter, and Mrs. George Gath of Atlanta.

Sue Holton Cook Society Meets Tuesday

The Sue Holton Cook Society of the First Christian church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. G. Humphreys with Mrs. Oiler Graham, Mrs. C. H. Redden and Mrs. Erv Johnston as co-hostesses.

Mrs. R. L. Wade, president, presided over the business session and was program leader. The devotional was led by Mrs. James Overby. Mrs. George Hart spoke on "Home Missions" and Mrs. C. C. Thompson led the World Call-out.

Refreshments were served during the social hour to the twenty members present.

Household Shower For Mr. and Mrs. James Ed Latimer

Mrs. John Latimer and Mrs. Lois Outland were hostesses at a household shower last Thursday afternoon at the home of the latter honoring Mr. and Mrs. Latimer who were recently married.

Guests enjoyed contests and sang throughout the afternoon. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Mary Tuckey, Mrs. Frances Dailey and Mrs. Jesse Latimer.

A lovely party plate was served to the following guests: Mrs. Opal Scruggs, Mrs. Frances Dailey, Mrs. Frank Alton, Mrs. Grace Wilson, Mrs. O. E. Turnbow, Mrs. Bettie Jorck, Mrs. Hazel Jenkins, Mrs. Larue Latimer, Mrs. Goldie Edwards, Mrs. Notie Miller, Mrs. Shelle Latimer, Mrs. Willie Miltstead, Mrs. Modena Latimer, Misses Eva Perry, Libbie James, Winnie Dailey, Jessie Kathryn Miller, and Sady Nell Farrer. Mrs. Fawell, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. H. I. Neely, Margaret Ann Falwell, Ralph Latimer, Paul Dailey Jr. and Mrs. Outland.

Those sending gifts were Misses Olga and Essie Bailey, Berdine Burchett, Edith Paschal, Floyd Outland, Julia K. Latimer, Ann Herron, Gerthal Mai Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Herron, Mrs. Richard Terrell, Mrs. Audrey Simmons, Mrs. Gouvia Hurt, Mrs. Lattie France, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Armstrong, Mrs. Irene Smotherman, Mrs. Maggie Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones and Hazel High school home economics class.

Those assisting Mrs. Outland and Mrs. Latimer with the service were Mrs. Gode Edwards, Libbie James and Morlene Edwards.

Donelson-Futrell Wedding

Miss Mabel Donelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Donelson, near Murray, and William Vernon Futrell, son of Mrs. Frank Futrell, were united in marriage at Charleston, Mo., Saturday, September 5. Mr. Chas. H. Gale read the ceremony.

Attendees were Miss Nancy Donelson, sister of the bride, John McClain Steele, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Donelson.

The bride wore navy with black accessories and a lavender corsage.

Mr. Futrell is a carpenter employed by the government near Mayfield.

The young couple will reside at the home of the groom near Murray.

Lynn Grove P-TA Meets

The Lynn Grove P-TA met in an emergency call September 2 with Mrs. Carl Lockhart presiding.

Mrs. Bun' Swann lead the devotional service. The Star Spangled Banner was sung by the group. Twenty-three members were enrolled.

Those jammed on the different committees were as follows: Membership—Mrs. Pearl Jones, Mrs. Effie Myers, Mrs. Edna McReynolds, Mrs. Myrtle Workman, Mrs. Fannie Mae, Mrs. J. C. Crouch, Mrs. Lottie Crawford, Mrs. Clara Butterworth, Mrs. Evon Burt, Hospitality—Mrs. Winnie Crouch, Mrs. Dollie Mae Ford, Publicity—Mrs. May Ford, Historian—Mrs. Thelma Brown, Mrs. Hutton.

Program—Miss Ople Swann, Mrs. Lottie Jones, Mrs. Annie Jones, Mrs. Connie Sims.

Summer Roundup—Mrs. Ruby M. Jones, Mrs. Phoebe Rudd, Mrs. Elizabeth Parks.

Song and Recreation—Mrs. Katharine Sims, Mrs. Sylvia Butterworth, Mrs. Jimmie Lou Parks.

The regular meeting will convene September 10.

Zetas Hold First Meeting of Year

The Zeta Department of the Murray Women's Club held the first meeting of the club year Tuesday evening at the club house with Miss Midge Patterson, Miss New Grey Langston, Miss Kathie Robertson and Mrs. Victor Furdillo as hostesses.

The president, Mrs. James Lassiter, conducted the business session. Plans were made for entertaining about 25 boys from Camp Tyson at a supper party on September 26.

Mrs. Clifford Melugin spoke to the group on "Your Place in National Defense."

The members enjoyed a social hour during which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Social Calendar

Thursday, Sept. 10

The Woodmen Circle will meet at the Woman's clubhouse at 8 p.m. District Manager Lois Waterfield will be present.

Friday, Sept. 11

Mrs. Clifford Melugin will be hostess to the Friday Bridge club at her home at 2:30 o'clock.

Saturday, Sept. 12

The Mattie Belle Hayes circle will have a picnic supper at 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. T. C. Doran.

Sunday, Sept. 13

The Euzealian class of the First Baptist church will have a hamburger supper at the home of Mrs. Eugene Shipley.

Tuesday, Sept. 15

The circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service will meet at 8 o'clock as follows:

Circle One at the home of Mrs. Vernon Stubblefield, Sr.

Circle Two will be entertained by Mrs. B. O. Langston and Mrs. A. F. Doran, the place to be announced later.

Circle Three will meet at the home of Mrs. C. A. Hale.

Members of all circles are asked to bring articles of food and clothing to be sent to the Wesley Institute.

The Music club will open the club year with a dinner meeting at the club house at 7 o'clock.

Wednesday, Sept. 16

Mrs. Vernon Stubblefield, Jr. will be hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club at her home at 2:30 o'clock.

Thursday, Sept. 17

The Home Department of the Woman's club will hold the first meeting of the year at the club house at 2:30 o'clock.

Lassiter-Guthrie Marriage Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Harrison announce the marriage of Miss Lorraine Lassiter and Hugh Harrison Guthrie. The single-ring ceremony was read in Detroit on Saturday, August 29. The bride was attired in navy blue with white accessories and wore a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie are at home at 209 Avolon, Highland Park, Mich.

The bride formerly made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Harrison in this city. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Guthrie of Detroit, formerly of this county.

Mrs. Outland Entertains Club

Mrs. Pogue Outland was hostess Thursday afternoon to members of the Sunshine Friend bridge club and the following guests: Mrs. Toby Long of Elytheville, Ark., Mrs. Everett Ward Outland, Mrs. Roby Robertson received the high score and traveler's prizes, and Mrs. Porter White second high.

A party plate was served by the hostess at the conclusion of the game.

Homemakers Club Meetings

New Providence Club will meet Friday, September 11, in the home of Mrs. A. W. Simmons.

Penny Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Tony Bogness, Monday, September 14, at 7 p.m.

Coldwater Club will meet in the club house Tuesday, September 15.

Lynn Grove Club will meet in the home of Mrs. B. C. Swann Wednesday, September 16, at 2:30.

ATTENTION

Sewing Machine and Vacuum Sweeper Repairs

Our men will be in Murray every Wednesday to repair your machine or sweeper.

Genuine parts only. Prompt, efficient service.

Authorized Singer men are supplied with an identification button. Demand to see it.

Make appointment by writing The Ledger & Times, Murray, or to

SINGER 518 Broadway Paducah

Women Told at Homemakers Meeting They Need More Physical Courage During War

Members of Calloway County Homemakers' Association were told they would need more physical courage for the duration by Miss Zelma Monroe, their annual meeting held Tuesday, September 8, in the First Christian Church in Murray.

The theme of the day "As We Go Marching On" was taken from the song "Homemakers' Hymn" and titles of the talks also were taken from this song. Approximately 70 members and visitors were present.

The program opened at 10 a.m. with Mrs. Hansford Doran, president, in charge. Invocation was given by Mrs. Jesse Wells Lassiter.

Roll call was answered with Lynn Grove, Pottertown and Penny clubs having the largest number of members present. Minutes and treasurer's report were read by Mrs. Jesse Washburn, secretary.

Reports were given by the county leaders and chairmen on the progress of Homemakers Clubs and the work they have done during the year which began last September, as follows: Foods, Mrs. George Williams; Clothing, Mrs. T. W. Taylor; Recreation, Mrs. Jim Allbritton; Speakers Bureau, Mrs. Murray Ross; Citizenship, Mrs. J. A. Outland; 4-H Club, Mrs. Roy Boatwright; Agent's Work, Miss Rachel Rowland.

Mrs. Hansford Doran spoke on "Through Service We Are Crowned." Her talk was followed by the report of the nominating committee and the election of officers for the new year. They are as follows:

Mrs. J. A. Outland, president; Mrs. H. H. Kemp, vice-president; Mrs. Jesse Washburn, secretary; Mrs. Jim Allbritton, treasurer; Mrs. Olen Wells, major project leader; Mrs. Maynard Ragsdale, food leader; Mrs. T. W. Taylor, clothing leader; Mrs. Hansford Doran, live-at-home leader; Mrs. Murray Ross, citizenship chairman; Miss Maud Nance, publicity chairman; Mrs. Erin Montgomery, reading chairman.

The afternoon program began with group singing. The Almo Homemakers' Club presented a short skit "Keepsakes." Miss Monroe, who is assistant state leader in home demonstration work, University of Kentucky, had as the subject of her talk "May Hat Be Healed By Kindness."

Mrs. Harold Van Winkle, Murray, gave a most interesting talk on life in the Philippine Islands.

WHITE ROCKS LEAD ON KENTUCKY FARMS

White Plymouth Rocks have displaced Barred Plymouth Rocks as the most popular breed of chickens in Kentucky, says the Kentucky Poultry Improvement Association. Barred Rocks now are in second place, in point of numbers, with Rhode Island Reds, third and White Leghorns fourth. The New Hampshire a relatively new breed, has pushed into fifth place.

MRS. MYERS BEAUTY SHOP

310 N. 5th St. Tel. 748

JONES DRUG CO.
Prescriptions
Accurately and Carefully
Compounded of Purest
Drugs

ENDURANCE FOR ACTIVE PLAY HOURS IN THE SUN!

Summer is playtime for adults as well as children.

Keep the whole family but in the sun as many hours a day as possible—but don't forget to provide them with the necessary energy for strenuous activity by serving one or more good quality dairy products each meal.

Of these, of course, milk tops the list in importance and quantity to be consumed.

A pint for every adult daily and more for children is recommended by nutritionists and health specialists as being essential.

Murray Milk Products COMPANY
Telephone 191 Murray, Ky.

Don't Rock the Boat!

There is danger in trying to run from the President's orders, hold firm to prices until ordered to change, as we hope that the advisers will acquiesce with the plight of the small producers. The larger ones can not operate, and if the smaller ones are handicapped, there will be a great reduction in production next year.

A full acreage of rye crops should be planted as with the good moisture, it will not require such a good seed bed and livestock will come through better in the spring.

Send all spare time in patching fences and buildings as it will be quite a while before general repairing can be done.

Fertilizers may be scarce and higher; better make arrangements early if your land requires it for a good crop. No one can afford to make a half crop while cost of plowing is high.

Come to see us in our new location, center of the West side of the Square. We are getting straightened up with a well-assorted stock of everything to wear. Special things to suit one's fancy are not so easy to get, but ceiling prices are in effect on all staple items.

T. O. Turner's Store

Antique TAN

They're 1942 to the tips of their toes! "WALLED TOES!" Slick, POLISHED CALF pumps, with trim bows, harness stitching... simply "can't-do-withouts" for fall! High, medium or low heels!

$4.95

Connie's SHOE CREATIONS

Hot FLASHES

If you suffer from hot flashes, dizziness, distress of "irregularities," are weak, nervous, or have a "middle-age" period in a woman's life—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It's helped thousands upon thousands of women to relieve such annoying symptoms. Follow label directions. Pinkham's Compound is worth trying!

Littleton's

Come To CHURCH

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Charles Thompson, Pastor.

Sunday Services:

Bible School—9:30 a.m. W. B. Moser, Supt. We are happy to announce a new class room for the Infant Class. It is already in use. With an enrollment of over 20. The Westminster Class ranked first in the school last Sunday with close to 100 per cent attendance.

Morning Worship—10:50 a.m. Sermon—“Wings for America”. A sermon you will remember. It will help the service greatly if all will plan to arrive on time. Remember the discipline is not to run alone, but also to God.

Evening Worship—7:45 p.m. Sermon—“The Strangest Book”. Things about God's word, interesting and strange.

Prayer Service—7:30 p.m. Wednesday. One of the commands of our Lord, often repeated, is—“Pray Ye”. In these days the least that can be expected of the Christian is that he shall go often to God in prayer. Join us at this hour.

Board Meeting—8:30 p.m. Sunday. At the church.

Our Revival Meeting Date is October 3-10. The Rev. Joseph S. Fawcett, pastor of the Ashland, Ky. Christian church, will be the evangelist. Plan now to hear his fine series of sermons.

ALMO CIRCUIT

L. E. Shaffer, Pastor

Sunday School at Temple Hill, 10 o'clock. Youth Fellowship at 7:30.

Sunday School at Independence, 10:30 o'clock.

Sunday School at Brooks Chapel, 2:00 o'clock.

Worship service at Russell's Chapel, 11 o'clock.

All revivals on the circuit have come to a close. As a result of the revivals, there were 39 professions.

KIRKSVY CIRCUIT

R. F. Flankship, Pastor

Our revival is in progress at Kirksvy this week.

Coldwater.

Regular services next Sunday. Church School at 10 a.m. Worship service at 11 a.m.

Ground Wheat

Ground Barley

Ground Yellow Meal

Corn Hearts

ALL FEED

INGREDIENTS

ROSS FEED

COMPANY

Telephone 101 N. 3rd St.

“See Ross for Seed”

FRESH FISH

BLISS COFFEE, 2 pounds 55c

PAYING 30c IN TRADE FOR EGGS

BLALOCK & SULLIVAN

West Main Street

Telephone 85

• THIS IS TO ANNOUNCE THAT

LOVE'S STUDIO

HAS BEEN

MOVED

TO

503 POPLAR

Formerly located at 107 North Fourth Street, Love's Studio has been moved to 503 Poplar. This new studio is only one block South of the City Square. We invite all our friends and customers to visit us at our new location.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

T. H. Mullins, Jr., Minister

9:30 A.M. Church School. Max B. Hurt, Superintendent.
10:50 A.M. Morning Worship.
7:00 P.M. Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Dr. James H. Richmond, president of Murray State College, will fill the pulpit Sunday morning in the absence of the minister who is on vacation. Dr. Richmond's subject will be “The World of Tomorrow.”

The Rev. Leslie R. Putnam will preach at the evening service using as his subject, “I Know Whom I Have Believed.”

Mrs. E. D. Lewis, a representative of the General Board of Education of the Methodist Church, will conduct a Standard Training School for Sunday School workers beginning on Sunday afternoon, September 20, and continuing with evening sessions through the following Friday.

The sessions of the school will be held in the Sunday School Building. “Church School Administration” will be the theme of the school.

Sunday School workers in other churches and of other denominations are cordially invited to attend as the guests of First Methodist Church.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

C. L. Francis, Minister

Lord's Day: Bible study at 9:45 a.m., worship at 10:45 a.m. and 8 p.m. Young people meet at 7 p.m.

Wednesday: Ladies' Bible class at 3 p.m., prayer meeting at 8 p.m.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

COLDWATER

L. H. Pogue will fill his regular appointment next Sunday at 11 a.m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

UNION GROVE

L. H. Pogue will fill his regular appointment next Sunday at 11 a.m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

LESSON

THE VALUE OF VETERINARY EDUCATION

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago (Released by Western Newspaper Union)

Lesson for September 13

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

JOSEPH SOLD INTO SLAVERY

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 27:35-36. GOLDEN TEXT—Love enliveth not—1 Corinthians 13:4, R.V.

Does it pay to trust God? Is He really concerned about the affairs of men? Does He know the trials and heartaches of His children? These are the crying questions of today, and they find their answer in God's dealings with men of the past. The story of Joseph has many interesting and instructive phases, but perhaps the most important just now is the truth of our lesson.

The Lord said, “I will honor me I will honor.”

We first find Joseph as he learns that

L. Jealousy Bears Bitter Fruit (vv. 23-30).

Joseph was his father's favorite and was shown that favoritism in many ways, but it was perhaps most fully expressed in the coat of many colors. This was a luxurious robe with sleeves, indicating that he was a gentleman and not to do ordinary work of one who wore the steely, knee-length tunic. His brothers deeply resented this evidence of the father's favor.

The dreams which Joseph unraveled to his brothers and his honest report of their wicked behavior fanned the flame of jealousy into a consuming fire which threatened his life. But God, through Joseph's brother Judah and through the opportunity they had to make money out of selling him into slavery, kept him for His own purpose.

May we not learn that the darkest hour may be the time of God's deepest interest and directing power. The only way strong men can be developed is by suffering and maintaining trial. “God wants iron saints, and since there is no way of imparting iron to the moral nature than by letting His people suffer, He lets them suffer richly.” (Meyer).

Parents should also learn here the dangers of favoritism among children. It is one of the most destructive of evil influences that can enter a home. It breeds the child who is favored, alienates the other children, and it destroys confidence in parents and respect for their authority. Let's have none of it!

II. Deceit Attempts to Conceal Sin (vv. 31-35).

One of the tragic things about sin is that a wicked act does not stand alone but leads into another sin to cover the first. In the case of Joseph's brethren, their sin against him was covered by deceit. They lied to the father and maintained that he for years, even though they saw that their aged father was brokenhearted. How callous sin makes the heart of a man!

Yet the very fact that they lied to cover their sin indicates that they were ashamed to admit that they had fallen so low. James Strahan well says: “Evil never dares to be sincere. It always borrows the colors and wears the garb of innocence. It has a whole lifetime of hard labor in keeping up appearances. Hypocrisy is the tribute which all sinners have to pay to the ideal of goodness.”

III. God Overrules Evil for Good (v. 36).

It was God's plan that Joseph should come to his greatest usefulness in his place of authority in Egypt. He directed the sale of the young slave into the home of Potiphar, a leading officer of Pharaoh.

The story of Joseph's life in Potiphar's house is one of unusual interest. Faithfulness to duty, loyalty to God and truth led to shifting experiences of imprisonment and of favor, but ultimately he came out into the place of leadership in the government of Egypt. In this place God marvelously blessed and used him.

Since the matter of the relation of men to government is so much before us these days, it will be well to note that Scripture holds a very exalted view of the public servant. Paul says we are to “be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God” (Rom. 13:1). The Bible clearly teaches that every governmental agency and every public servant, from the policeman on the beat to the President in the White House, is only permitted to exercise authority over his fellowmen because God has ordained that there should be such government. Clear it is that every right-thinking official of state and nation should be humble, teachable, discreet, and wise in the exercise of his power, and God-fearing in the discharge of his responsibility.

Our lesson provides unusual opportunity for the teaching of proper family relationships, the right attitude toward government, as well as the blessed assurance and confidence which we may have when we have entrusted our lives into the hands of God.

Try our Job Printing Department.

What The Veterinary Profession Means to Mankind

THE VALUE OF VETERINARY EDUCATION

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago (Released by Western Newspaper Union)

Lesson for September 13

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

JOSEPH SOLD INTO SLAVERY

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 27:35-36. GOLDEN TEXT—Love enliveth not—1 Corinthians 13:4, R.V.

Does it pay to trust God? Is He really concerned about the affairs of men? Does He know the trials and heartaches of His children? These are the crying questions of today, and they find their answer in God's dealings with men of the past. The story of Joseph has many interesting and instructive phases, but perhaps the most important just now is the truth of our lesson.

The Lord said, “I will honor me I will honor.”

We first find Joseph as he learns that

L. Jealousy Bears Bitter Fruit (vv. 23-30).

Joseph was his father's favorite and was shown that favoritism in many ways, but it was perhaps most fully expressed in the coat of many colors. This was a luxurious robe with sleeves, indicating that he was a gentleman and not to do ordinary work of one who wore the steely, knee-length tunic. His brothers deeply resented this evidence of the father's favor.

The dreams which Joseph unraveled to his brothers and his honest report of their wicked behavior fanned the flame of jealousy into a consuming fire which threatened his life. But God, through Joseph's brother Judah and through the opportunity they had to make money out of selling him into slavery, kept him for His own purpose.

May we not learn that the darkest hour may be the time of God's deepest interest and directing power. The only way strong men can be developed is by suffering and maintaining trial. “God wants iron saints, and since there is no way of imparting iron to the moral nature than by letting His people suffer, He lets them suffer richly.” (Meyer).

Parents should also learn here the dangers of favoritism among children. It is one of the most destructive of evil influences that can enter a home. It breeds the child who is favored, alienates the other children, and it destroys confidence in parents and respect for their authority. Let's have none of it!

II. Deceit Attempts to Conceal Sin (vv. 31-35).

One of the tragic things about sin is that a wicked act does not stand alone but leads into another sin to cover the first. In the case of Joseph's brethren, their sin against him was covered by deceit. They lied to the father and maintained that he for years, even though they saw that their aged father was brokenhearted. How callous sin makes the heart of a man!

Yet the very fact that they lied to cover their sin indicates that they were ashamed to admit that they had fallen so low. James Strahan well says: “Evil never dares to be sincere. It always borrows the colors and wears the garb of innocence. It has a whole lifetime of hard labor in keeping up appearances. Hypocrisy is the tribute which all sinners have to pay to the ideal of goodness.”

III. God Overrules Evil for Good (v. 36).

It was God's plan that Joseph should come to his greatest usefulness in his place of authority in Egypt. He directed the sale of the young slave into the home of Potiphar, a leading officer of Pharaoh.

The story of Joseph's life in Potiphar's house is one of unusual interest. Faithfulness to duty, loyalty to God and truth led to shifting experiences of imprisonment and of favor, but ultimately he came out into the place of leadership in the government of Egypt. In this place God marvelously blessed and used him.

Since the matter of the relation of men to government is so much before us these days, it will be well to note that Scripture holds a very exalted view of the public servant. Paul says we are to “be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God” (Rom. 13:1). The Bible clearly teaches that every governmental agency and every public servant, from the policeman on the beat to the President in the White House, is only permitted to exercise authority over his fellowmen because God has ordained that there should be such government. Clear it is that every right-thinking official of state and nation should be humble, teachable, discreet, and wise in the exercise of his power, and God-fearing in the discharge of his responsibility.

Our lesson provides unusual opportunity for the teaching of proper family relationships, the right attitude toward government, as well as the blessed assurance and confidence which we may have when we have entrusted our lives into the hands of God.

Try our Job Printing Department.

Spy Destroyer

Veronica Lake, glamorous blonde bombshell of the screen, leads a spine-chilling life as a night club singer who is also an anti-spy agent in “This Gun for Hire” coming to the Varsity Theatre here Sunday and Monday.

ROOSEVELT ASKS

(Continued from Page 1)

cepted by farmers as the fair standard for their prices.

Last January, however, the Congress passed a law forbidding ceilings on farm prices below 110 per cent of parity on some commodities. On other commodities the ceiling was even higher, so that the average possible ceiling is now about 116 per cent of parity for agricultural products as a whole.

Since last May, ceilings have been set on nearly all commodities, rents and services, except the exempted farm products. Instantaneous buying has been effectively controlled.

Our experience with the control of other prices during the past few months has brought out one important fact—the rising cost of living can be controlled, providing all elements making up the cost of living are controlled at the same time. We know that parity prices for farm products not controlled will not put up the cost of living more than a very small amount; but that if we must go on up to an average of 116 per cent of parity for food and other farm products—which is necessary at present under the Emergency Price Control Act before we can control all farm prices—the cost of living will get well out of hand. We are face to face with this danger today. Let us meet it and remove it.

I have told the Congress that the Administration cannot hold the actual cost of food and clothing down to the present level beyond October 1.

Therefore, I have asked the Congress to pass legislation under which the President would be specifically authorized to stabilize the cost of living, including the price on all farm commodities. The purpose should be to hold farm prices at parity, or at levels of a recent date, which ever is higher. The purpose should also be to keep wages at a point stabilized with today's cost of living. Both must be regulated at the same time, and neither can or should be regulated without the other.

At the same time that farm prices are stabilized, I will stabilize wages.

This is plain justice—and plain common sense.

I have asked the Congress to take this action by the first of October. We must now act with the despatch which the stern necessities of war require.

at present under the Emergency Price Control Act before we can control all farm prices—the cost of living will get well out of hand. We are face to face with this danger today. Let us meet it and remove it.

I have told the Congress that the Administration cannot hold the actual cost of food and clothing down to the present level beyond October 1.

Therefore, I have asked the Congress to pass legislation under which the President would be specifically authorized to stabilize the cost of living, including the price on all farm commodities. The purpose should be to hold farm prices at parity, or at levels of a recent date, which ever is higher. The purpose should also be to keep wages at a point stabilized with today's cost of living. Both must be regulated at the same time, and neither can or should be regulated without the other.

At the same time that farm prices are stabilized, I will stabilize wages.

This is plain justice—and plain common sense.

I have asked the Congress to take this action by the first of October. We must now act with the despatch which the stern necessities of war require.

Army Helping in Scrap Collecting

The Army, through the facilities of different Army Posts all over the country, is assisting all communities in the collection of salvageable metals.

All Army establishments will cooperate fully in the collection of old cannons, cannon balls, and metal war relics from municipalities, patriotic organizations and other civilian groups. In all cases, any salvageable items offered to Army installations will be accepted and receipts for the salvageable property may be presented to the organization presenting the item, if desired.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.

The President has the powers under the Constitution and under congressional acts, to take measures necessary to avert a disaster which would interfere with the winning of the war.

I have today suggested that the Congress make our agricultural economy more stable. I have recommended that in addition to putting ceilings on all farm products now, we also place a definite floor under those prices for a period beginning now, continuing through the war, and for as long as necessary after the war. In this way we will be able to avoid the collapse of farm prices which happened after the last war. The farmers must be assured of a fair minimum price during the readjustment period which will follow the excessive world food demands which now prevail.

As I said in my message to the Congress: In the event that the Congress should fail to act, and act adequately, I shall accept the responsibility, and I will act.