JUDGE GORDON IS AFTER RIDERS IN LIVINGSTON, ALSO

Charges Grand Jury to Investigate and Denounces Such Criminals.

Invites Fearful to Leave Box and "No Questions Asked".

DR. WILL HOLLAND IS WANTED

Smithland, Ky., April 17.—(Special.) Circuit Judge J. F. Gordon is not behind the styles in western Kentucky, and the return of his charge to the Livingston county grand jury was a revival of the ku klux law with vehement adjuration to the jurors to do their duty. He invited anyone who felt he could not do his duty, to leave the grand jury box without explanation. None left. The judge then referred to the threatening letters sent to people at Grand Rivers and Iuka, and told the grand jurors he believed they could find out who sent them and the guilty people could be punished. Letters from Grand Rivers are in possession of the grand jury. Dr. Will Holland, reputed leader of the night rider band from "Between the Rivers" that attacked Birmingham, Marshall county, was charged in a warrant sworn out here, and it is believed the grand jury will report one or more indictments tomorrow.

The grand jurors are: A. Head, John Clark, Henry Mizell, W. H. Warren, K. C. Adams, J. W. Wright, J. R. Rame, Sr., Charles Ralph, Millard Barnes, Lee Powell, Frank Hale, John Slayden.

The petit jurors are: John Keith, G. W. Southern, W. B. Gray, Tom Scavery, G. W. Ferson, W. B. Groves, S. B. Thomas, M. C. Miller, G. T. Threlkeld, E. T. Trail, Dick Threlkeld, Prince Mitchell, Bob Threlkeld, Fred Leeper, Dick Stedon, Alvin Jewell, Charles Vick, Henry Davis, Sam Rector and Charles Guess. The most important case tried this term was that of T. W. Hugg, charged with shooting and wounding Reed Nickell at Grand Rivers several years ago. He was fined $50. The fight was the outcome of a feud. Nickell's assault and severely beat Hugg before that.

PASTOR OF WEALTHY CHURCH TAKES LIFE

Philadelphia, April 17.—Mystery surrounds the suicide here today of the Rev. George Thompson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, one of the wealthiest congregations in the city. No cause is known. He used a revolver. He was engaged to marry Mrs. Fannie Kenworthy, a church member, who is reported to be wealthy.

The name of another woman who claimed to be more than wife connected with Thompson's name today. She created a scene when his engagement was announced. She is said to have told him, if he persisted in his intention of marrying, she would tell the story to the public.

ELECTION CASES DECIDED IN FAVOR OF THE OFFICERS

Murray, Ky., April 17.—(Special.)—Attorney D. H. Hughes, of Paducah, sitting as special judge of the circuit court yesterday, dismissed the election fraud cases brought up from Liberty precinct, after the evidence had been orally heard, and dismissed Moses Thornton and other officers who were charged with wilfully refusing to count ten votes at the last election for Robert Hart, independent candidate for representative. The evidence in the case showed that the parties voting the questioned ballots put their cross under both the Democratic device of a "rooster" and the independent device of a "hen," intending to vote for all the Democratic ticket with the exception of the nominee for representative. Mr. Hart was the only name appearing under the "hen" device. Judge Hughes decided that there was no evidence of a wilful refusal to do their duty, the officers returning the ballots marked "questioned," as is required by law when a controversy arises. The questioned ballots were counted for Hart by the county canvassing board.

Night Riders Captured With Masks On Their Faces Trying to Escape After Holding Up Tobacco Grower.

Sheriff and Posse of Militiamen Overtake Band and Four Fail to Get Away and Are Put in Jail.

Cynthiana, Ky., April 17.—(Special.) Sheriff Gregg and militia caught this morning captured Will Brown, Montgomery McGee, Will Kenton and Charlie Fowler, members of the night riding band, which held up George Haley, of Bracken county, as he was on his way to Cynthiana with tobacco. The holdup occurred before midnight and word was brought to the city by several farmers. The sheriff and his posse started out in pursuit and finally ran down the band. All escaped except the four, and they were caught without resistance. Two had masks on when caught. They are in jail here.

THE INJURED BOYS

The right eye of Irvine Potter, 904 North Eighth street, which was injured yesterday morning by the accidental discharge of a gun, has not been removed, and the doctors hope to save the sight. Several of the shot entered the eye, but the extent of the injury can not be determined yet. He is able to see with his left eye, and it is not injured badly. Pat Eaker, who was shot in the left hand, is recovering, and it is thought there is no danger of his losing his hand. Most of the shot entered the fleshy part.

COMPLETING SALES

Salesman Veale and his clerks and employees at the salesroom of the tobacco association are busy today arranging the details for delivering to E. J. O'Brien & company the big purchase made for the French government this week. E. J. Whalen, buyer for O'Brien & company, is on the ground passing on the samples that are taken from the hogheads bought by the graders' types. There is a great deal of red tape attached to the method of selling through the association and considerable care is required on the part of the salesman and his force. As soon as the purchase is finally accepted the salesmen will send the farmers' checks out.

SOLDIERS AND ALLEGED NIGHT RIDERS WILL BE IN PADUCAH NEXT WEEK

Federal Court Will Bring Big Crowd From Caldwell County to Attend Hollowell Trial

Whether or not the state authorities had in view the purpose of making their temporary environments seem homelike to the Caldwell county night riders, it is a fact that the men charged with driving Robert Hollowell from his home near Princeton, will find soldiers here when they come to Paducah next week to attend federal court. And Paducah people will witness an exhibition as near like the real thing in the Black Patch as Buffalo Bill's show is like the real wild west.

The soldiers arrived yesterday, and about fifty men, accused of whipping Robert and Mary Hollowell, have engaged rooms at the St. Nicholas hotel for next week. Federal court convenes Monday and the case will be called probably two or three days later. Somewhere between 100 and 150 witnesses have been summoned from Caldwell and Trigg counties. Robert and Mary Hollowell charge these men with whipping them, shooting and wounding Mrs. Hollowell in the face, and attempting to burn their property. The Hollowells escaped to Indiana and are now suing in the federal court for damages.

It is only a coincidence that the alleged night riders and the soldiers will be here at the same time. Major George Woodruff, Albrecht, of the Second regiment, who is in command of the detachment in the Black Patch, and Captain Chapman, commissary of the Second regiment, of Hopkinsville, arrived yesterday with a detachment and went on to Murray. They are here again today and this will be their headquarters for two weeks. They did not take all the soldiers with them to Murray yesterday. It is a roundabout way from Hopkinsville to Murray, and a little dangerous in an emergency. Troops can go back and forth to Murray from Paducah by train or on horseback in

ALL DIFFERENCES SETTLED BETWEEN GROWERS OF WEED

John Allen, the well known organizer for the Planters' Protective association, returned today to Guthrie after being in the city all week. Before leaving Mr. Allen declared that the differences between the association and the Farmers' Union have been settled by an understanding that resolves all friction. Mr. Allen was interested in the night riders and inquired the latest news from Murray. "It is unfortunate that was ever started," were his words, but he expressed doubt as to the ability to convict any of them. He suggested that there might be night riders on the jury.

Mrs. Ogilvie Sinking, wife of the deputy sheriff, who was operated on at Riverside hospital, is reported to be sinking and the family has been summoned to her bedside.

PREMIER SINKING

London, April 17.—Former Premier Campbell-Bannerman is much weaker today. It is believed his death is a question of only a few days.

CHELSEA HOUSES WERE SET ON FIRE BY THEIR OWNERS

Boston, April 17.—Investigation of the Chelsea fire of Sunday show over 50 persons missing. Twelve charred bodies were found. Two persons died in the hospital. Officials say over twenty houses were set on fire by the owners, who were over insured. The grand jury will be called to take action.

SOLDIERS AND ALLEGED NIGHT RIDERS WILL BE IN PADUCAH NEXT WEEK

short order, and the commander is accessible here.

Troops will be kept at Murray indefinitely. They are at the bidding of the county judge, and Judge Wells will give protection to the witnesses as long as they require it. He has promised that much. State and county, and probably federal, authorities are co-operating and concentrating their efforts in Calloway county. It affords the first break in the line of the night riders, and by crushing it there and bringing the leaders to justice, they not only will check its advance into the Purchase, but they have a lead that may enable them utterly to destroy the organization.

It is said that men in Trigg and other counties east of the Tennessee river, who conspired for lawless enterprises in Calloway county, may be prosecuted in Calloway. If that is the case, the authorities do not have to depend upon uncertain conditions east of the river, but may prosecute the leaders of those bands before an unprejudiced jury in Calloway county, and thus accomplish their purpose in quick order.

The Soldiers. The eight soldiers who are in the city today with Captain Chapman, are apparently enjoying themselves, as they have spent the greater part of the day visiting the Broadway stores, exploring the city and getting acquainted with their surroundings. They are a clean looking set of boys, and conduct themselves in a gentlemanly manner. They have been the objects of much attention in their khaki trousers, blue shirts, service hats and leggings, with big Colt's revolvers strapped to their sides, and belts full of cartridges around their waists.

They are staying at the Belvedere hotel. None of them is registered. All sorts of conjectures are indulged as to what their continued presence here means, and most of the conjectures are supposed to be more or less right. Anybody who desires information as to their intentions is at liberty to ask any of them.

Mr. John Harth has returned from a business trip to Boston.

MANUAL TRAINING PLANS PROPOSED FOR CITY SCHOOL

Prof Carnegie Brings Back Proposal From Firm to Introduce Method

Heard Fine Speeches in St. Louis on Subject.

WILL LAY IDEA BEFORE BOARD

A reasonable proposition of the American Manual Training association to install a special training system for boys of the seventh and eighth grades at the high school will be submitted to the school board at its meeting by Superintendent Carnegie, who stated today that the proposition was of such a nature he believed the board would undoubtedly accept.

Professor Carnegie has just returned from St. Louis, where he attended a meeting of the Citizens League of that city, which has under consideration the establishment of manual training and its benefits. The meeting was attended by the school superintendents of a number of cities and it was while there that Professor Carnegie met the manager of the association, which owns copyrighted plans for the manual training work. In order to get the movement started he made a proposition to install a boys' department almost without cost to the city and without any cost whatever if the school board is not satisfied after a reasonable trial.

The proposition is to have the board equip a shop with work benches that will accommodate 20 boys at a time, the school board furnishing the benches and tools. The association will furnish without cost except for necessary expenses, plans and specifications by which any teacher may instruct the boys in the use of tools and in elementary mechanical drawing. Professor Carnegie will ask the Alumni association to co-operate in the movement and lend their aid in buying the tools that will be needed.

During the St. Louis meeting Prof. Frank W. Gunsaulus, president of the Armour Institute of Technology, and C. M. Woodward, a St. Louis millionaire, who is interested in manual training work, made interesting talks enthusiastically in favor of educating the whole boy rather than one-half.

J. B. Gilbert, school census taker for the Fourth ward has made his report, which shows that there are 254 more children of school age in that ward this year than last, the total being 1,170 this year against 916 last year.

Judge Wells is Busy Today Taking Evidence of Witnesses Summoned by Soldiers Yesterday Afternoon.

Walter McCuiston, First Prisoner Brought in by Soldiers This Morning at Murray—Twenty Indictments.

Murray, Ky., April 17.—(Special.)—Twenty-one indictments were returned by the grand jury this afternoon. Eleven of the men indicted have not been arrested, but soldiers are out after them. Ten of them are in jail and their trials have been set for Monday, April 27. Their names are: Joe Miller, reputed captain; Hardin Lovett, Jake Ellis, Josh Cunningham, Van Elkins, Jack Elkins, Carlos Elkins, Ed Thompson, Elmus Williams, Dams Miller. Murray, Ky., April 17.—(Special.)—Soldiers arrived this morning with one prisoner, Walter McCuiston, a relative of Tom McCuiston. The other details have not returned, but more arrests are expected today. Judge Wells is busy taking evidence.

It is understood that the grand jury will report a batch of indictments this evening, although they may wait until tomorrow.

Judge Wells Praised. Judge Wells has on file a large stack of letters he has received from ministers, merchants, professional men and farmers from all over the states of Kentucky and Tennessee congratulating him on his stand. A larger portion of the letters, however, are from citizens living in the most ridden counties on the east side of the Tennessee river in western Kentucky, where county officials are not making any great effort to put down lawlessness.

Yesterday he received a petition signed by about 50 business and professional men of Princeton, which read as follows:

"The Hon. A. J. G. Wells, Murray, Ky.—Dear Sir: We, the undersigned, citizens of Caldwell county, wish to extend to you their most hearty congratulations for the splendid example you are giving the civil officers of this commonwealth in the heroic discharge of duty, under most adverse conditions.

"Any man can fill an office when every breeze that blows is a gentle one; but when the tempest is abroad in his anger it requires strength not to bend supinely to the rising gale, but like the oak the harder it blows the harder it stands.

"Not alone the good people of the county of Calloway, but the whole state, have cause to thank God that like the Jewish maiden of holy writ, thou art come to the kingdom for such a time. Every law-abiding citizen of this mob-cursed country is taking new hope, inspired by you, full measure of devotion, and we believe the day is not far distant when among the names we shall look to with pride in the First congressional district, that of the county judge of Calloway county will be the foremost."

A Candidate for Sheriff. Murray, Ky., April 17.—Walter Holland, one of the men who is rendering great assistance to County Judge Wells and Sheriff Edwards in rounding up night riders in Calloway county, will be a candidate for sheriff. He is brother to John Holland, the deputy sheriff, and formerly was sheriff of the county himself. He was acquitted about two years ago of a murder charge, growing out of the killing of Hardy Keys at Murray, in one of the most sensational and hard fought cases in western Kentucky. Holland, who is a relative by marriage of Judge Wells, has been a conspicuous figure in the bitter factional troubles in Calloway county all his life. The killing of Keys was the culmination of a personal and political feud of long standing. It was at a meeting of Holland's friends that he accused Keys of eavesdropping. He went outside and quarreled with Keys. His defense was that Keys was advancing on him with a knife to kill him when he shot. There were no eyewitnesses. Walter Holland is popular generally, though, of course, under the circumstances he has some implacable enemies. His courage is unquestioned and the demonstration he has given of its quality during the Louisville, April 17.—(Special.)—It is reported that the tobacco trust contemplates removing practically all the big plants from this city to outside states on account of the disturbance in Kentucky.

GRAND JURY WILL TAKE UP NOTICES OF NIGHT RIDERS

Investigation in McCracken County Begins Here Tomorrow.

Is Believed Some Indictments Will be Returned.

LAWYER DENOUNCES CLIENT

Senders of night rider threats and warnings will come in for attention from the McCracken county grand jury tomorrow, the jail cases having about all been disposed of by that body. The prosecuting officials are not talking, but it is reasonably certain that indictments will result especially in the warnings sent Theodore Luttrell as well as the negro assass around Maxon Mills.

The Luttrell case will also come before the federal grand jury, which meets Monday, and if the secret service men, to whom the case was referred, are ready to report something sensational may develop.

The juries empaneled at this term of court have exhibited little mercy for highway robbers and the limit has been given in nearly every case that has been tried whether the offenders pleaded guilty or fought their cases. Alvie Morton, colored, who pleaded guilty this morning to robbing Foster Bates of $15 was given the limit of 10 years without the jury retiring to their rooms. James Edwards, who was indicted for the same offense, was given a continuance until the next term of court.

Didn't Think Much of His Client.

An attorney denouncing his own client was one of the unusual occurrences in circuit court today, and came from Judge R. T. Lightfoot, who defended Charles, alias "Chicago Sadie" Carroll, for cutting Harvey Buford, a negro. The defendant's attorney in the course of his speech said his client had fallen so low he ought to be punished on general principles, but he said the others implicated were just as bad as his client and stated that a case of self-defense had been made out.

Carroll got four years. Harvey Buford, the prosecuting witness, was sent to jail for contempt or not responding when his name was called.

The negro gave an excuse that he was afraid to go to the court house and Judge Reed said he would frighten him some more by sending him to jail until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

MAIL IS ROBBED

Cloverport, Ky., April 17.—News has just been made public that the mail and express train was robbed here Wednesday night. The loss is not known, but it will be heavy. A number of the bank's letters were rifled.

TRINITY FLOOD

Dallas, April 17.—All flood records since 1890 were broken in the Trinity river at Dallas. Reports indicate that another rise is coming as the result of heavy rains during the night. Twenty persons near Hutchins are surrounded by water. Houses are flooded and in danger of drowning. The sheriff is hurrying in a launch to the rescue.

TOBACCO TROUBLE CAUSES SHOOTING; TWO ARE WOUNDED

Clarksville, Tenn., April 17.—Joseph Gerhart was wounded here in a shooting affray with Ben Rinehart. Tom Williams, a bystander, was shot through the hand, and Dub Smith's side was grazed by a bullet. The shooting occurred at a public sale in New Providence and resulted, it is alleged, from bad feeling arising over the tobacco situation. Gerhart is an independent tobacco raiser, and Rinehart belongs to the association. It is said that Rinehart accused Gerhart and questioned him regarding certain matters. The latter refused to be drawn into an argument, and Rinehart pulled his pistol and fired at Gerhart four times, inflicting a wound in the neck and hand. Gerhart returned the fire, which missed Rinehart and struck Williams in the hand.

SPECIAL SESSIONS. Mayor Smith has called special sessions of the boards of aldermen and councilmen for tonight at 7:30 and 8 o'clock, respectively, to vote on the franchise for the Paducah & Northern and the Paducah & Cairo interurban lines. It is expected there will be a large crowd of interested spectators in attendance.

night rider crusade, is no surprise to those who know him.

Yesterday Was Quiet. Murray, Ky., April 17.—(Special.)—After trying for one whole day to secure bond, Joe Bell, reputed night rider captain and member of a number of fraternal orders, spent last night in jail. William Tinsley, his bondsman, had surrendered him the night before, but agreed to keep Bell over night, to give him an opportunity to make a new bond. People are afraid to go on the bond of the accused men now, lest the men "jump bail" and leave them to pay the cost. That was the principal event of a quiet day. Thirteen prisoners in the county jail almost fill it.

Judge Wells had a day of comparative rest yesterday. He sent out subpoenas for his court of inquiry today, and remarked last night: "I'll have a busy day tomorrow." Early this morning witnesses began to arrive in Murray, and residents of Murray, who saw soldiers leave with twelve extra horses yesterday, were astir early to see whom the soldiers would bring in this trip, and where they would put their prisoners.

One of the men, who had been reported active in the effort to rally the east side forces for a final stand, was in Murray yesterday afternoon when nine accused men were brought in and while standing in the court yard he received the bitter denunciation of Judge Wells, who told the man that he had been making the threat that he would lead a band to Murray to whip the judge. Judge Wells told the man that they need not pull stockings less down over their faces when they did come, as they would be known and would be given a warm reception. The man denied making the threat but the officers say that the report came from a reliable source.

STRUCK BY ROCK

Mr. Earl Walters, a well known insurance man of Paducah, was struck in the face and badly injured by a rock thrown into an N. C. & St. L. passenger coach as the train was pulling into Murray Thursday evening. Mr. Walters was forced to leave the train at Murray and have the wound dressed. Charles Van Dyke, a negro, was arrested and placed in jail, charged with being the one who threw the rock. The case will be investigated by the Calloway county grand jury.

TWO WERE LOCKED IN VAULT OF BANK BY THE ROBBERS

Chautauqua, Kan., April 17.—Two men, one of whom is declared to have been Henry Starr, an outlaw, held up the Citizens State bank here today. They rode into town and left their horses in front of the bank and covered C. R. Walterhouse with revolvers. They took all the money in sight, after which they locked Walterhouse, the cashier, in the vault and rode away before the alarm was given. T. H. Edwards, president of the bank opened the vault. He found Del Easley, a business man, also locked in with Walterhouse. Easley had entered the bank shortly before the robbers appeared.

One of the men was well known about the town. Walterhouse and Easley took the command to hold up their hands as a joke at first. The robbers drew down the blinds, shutting off the street view. On the way from the bank to the horses, one man carried a sack. Several citizens spoke to one robber, whom they knew. It is now said about $3,000 in currency was taken.

DISTINCT STEP IN ADVANCE.

(Auburn, N. Y., Daily Citizen.)
Chronic Bright's Disease may have been an incurable disease in the past, but it is certainly curable now. M. L. Walley, the druggist, tells us of a remarkable recovery in this city. There was no question about the genuineness of the case. The patient, a lady, is connected with one of our prominent families. She was in a hospital swollen with dropsy, and the albumen was in such enormous quantities as to solidify the tube.

Death was expected daily by the physician and family, when she was put on a California treatment that was alleged to be to be curing Bright's disease in that state. The results created great astonishment. Symptoms began to subside and recovery was then gradual, till finally complete. The patient has since actually passed for insurance.

The peculiarity of the treatment is that it does not seem to wear out the patient in question taking over eighty bottles. —Auburn, N. Y., Daily Citizen.

Conference For Education in South Convenes at Memphis, Tenn., April 22.

Memphis, Tenn., April 17.—The eleventh conference for education in the south will open in Memphis April 22. Governor Patterson, of Tennessee, will deliver the address of welcome. The Hon. Joseph M. Hill, chief justice of the supreme court of Arkansas, will deliver a word of greeting from that state. Robert C. Ozden will then deliver the annual address of the president, which will be followed by an address on "The Progress of Arkansas," by J. H. Hine, mon. president of Henderson college, Arkansas.

The session of Thursday morning will be given to the state superintendents of education in the south. The state superintendents of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia will attend.

Their special program is:

"Public High Schools," by J. D. Eggleston, state superintendent of public instruction of Virginia.

"Public School Funds," by O. B. Martin, state superintendent of education of South Carolina.

"Teacher Training and Salaries," by J. M. Pound, state school commissioner of Georgia.

"County Supervision," by J. B. Aswell, state superintendent of education of Louisiana.

Thursday evening the addresses will be on:

"The Methods of An Educational Campaign," by P. P. Claxton, professor of education in the University of Tennessee.

"The Christian South and Negro Education," by the Rt. Rev. Theodore D. Bratton, bishop of Mississippi.

"Popular Education and National Efficiency," by the Hon. James Bryce, British ambassador to the United States.

Friday morning, April 24, there will be addresses on the work of the women of the south in the bettering of the conditions of the rural schools by Mrs. Beverly B. Munford, of Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Charles D. McIver, of Greensboro, N. C.; and Mrs. J. D. Matlock, of Birmingham, Ala.

"The Higher Education of Women" will be discussed by Miss Lillian D. Johnson, of Memphis, Tenn., vice-president of the Southern Association of College Women, and Miss Georgia L. White, professor in Smith college, Northampton, Mass.

Friday afternoon there will be an "Open Forum" on the subject of "Compulsory Attendance," Dr. B. J. Baldwin, president of the board of education of Montgomery, Ala., will preside. Dr. Wickliffe Rose, of Nashville, Tenn., agent of the Peabody education board, will be followed by Clarence H. Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer, of Raleigh, N. C.; Erwin Craighead, editor of The Register, Mobile, Ala.; Prof. W. H. Hand, of the University of South Carolina; the Hon. H. E. Reynolds, chairman of the committee on education of the Alabama senate; Col. H. L. Stone, general counsel of the Louisville & Nashville railroad of Louisville; George F. Milton, editor of the Knoxville Sentinel, and others.

On Friday evening there will be addresses by Prof. W. H. Heck, of the University of Virginia, on "The South's Need of Educational Theory," and on "The South's Education," by Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, formerly president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. The final address will be delivered by the Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gaylor, D.D., of Memphis, Tenn., on the general subject of "Impressions of the Conference."

is by no means confined to the excessive use of alcoholic stimulants.

The amount of coffee containing a poisonous alkaloid—caffeine—which is consumed in this country, is said to be over ten million bags a year.

And there's more "nervous prostration" in America than anywhere on the globe.

POLLUTION OF FAMOUS WATER

Adulteration Was Necessary to Save Report.

Use of Salt, Citric Acid, Vitriol, Marble Dust and Other Chemicals Was Forced.

JUST TO INCREASE THE OUTPUT

Albany, N. Y., April 17.—"The hundreds of thousands of persons who quaff Saratoga water, drink a medicine or beverage, doctored with salt, citric acid and other chemicals carbonated with vitriol and marble dust."

This was the charge uttered to the senate committee on judiciary by Robert C. Morris, former chairman of the New York Republican committee and counsel for the National Carbonic Gas company.

Defenders of the springs confessed that in some instances the charge might prove well founded, but excused the adulteration by saying that this method was the only one that could save the great natural health resort from ruin.

Morris, collaborating with Former Senator Edgar T. Brackett, appeared before the committee to try to defeat the Wemple bill which prohibits pumping in the vicinity of the springs Brackett espoused the cause of the New York, the Lincoln and other gas companies.

Gas Sucker Invasion.
Mr. Morris, who claimed to represent a concern that has invested a million dollars in manufacturing gas at Saratoga, submitted sworn evidence of the contamination of the spring waters that startled the legislators.

Judge Nash Rockwood, speaking for the owners or lessees, answered that because they ran dry through the invasion of "gas sucker companies" artificial means had to be employed to resuscitate them.

He denied, however, that the springs were poisoned. Mr. Morris complained that the promoters of the waters had combined to drive him and his company out of business and accused them of violating the pure food law.

The Increased Output.

"The Saratoga waters have not lost their prestige because of depletion by the gas companies, but because of adulteration and an increased output of water for the market, we present numerous affidavits, the result of an investigation, showing the existence of underground piping, private rooms, concealed tanks of natural and manufactured gas for carbonated; and employment of chemicals and their secret conveyance to these private rooms, where solutions have been prepared for mixture with the waters of the springs.

"One spring gave out in 1890. A pump was installed. Ordinary water was put into the bottling house tanks in a private room and after the injection of chemicals, carbonated and sold to the trade.

"At another spring large quantities of salt were delivered consigned as sugar. Cylinders of gas were shipped by a Philadelphia company. Vitriol and boxes of marble dust were used to generate gas. There was a fresh water spring from which the water flowed into the tanks. The pipe from these tanks through a carbonator, to the main spring in the pavilion, where the water was served as a natural spring water."

Daily Thought.

They are never alone that are accompanied by noble thoughts.—Sidney.

If anybody from McCrackin county, who was at the preliminary hearing of the night riders at Murray, is so lacking in modesty as to consider himself handsome, he knows Judge Wells has been talking about him.

The Murray Ledger should paraphrase that poem it quotes in this week's editorial, as "The Man With the Goose Neck Hoe."

TAFT'S STRENGTH.

Minnesota will take Taft for her's, please.

Critics have said that the national administration is wholly responsible for the Taft candidacy and that his chief strength will lie in the solid Democratic south, where all the Republican politicians are federal officeholders. The idea intended, or course, was that in the Republican states of the north and west federal officeholders cannot dominate the situation, because there are other politicians equally as able, who are beholden to the people direct for tenure of office, and must give heed to popular sentiment. At least, followers of Fairbanks in Indiana, of Cannon in Illinois, of Hughes in New York, and Knox in Pennsylvania say so. Consequently we presume it is the people speaking in Ohio, Michigan, Massachusetts, Vermont, Maine, New Hampshire, Nebraska, Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas when they declare for Taft.

As a matter of fact but one or two southern states have chosen delegates, and most of them are contested, while Taft has fully two-thirds of all the delegates chosen in the Republican states of the north and west, and his opponents have difficulty in keeping their own home states in line on the first ballot instructions, with no hope at all of preventing a stampede to Taft after that. It was a sorry day for the anti-administrationists when they threw that boomerang at Secretary Taft. He is winning in the Republican states while the opposit of by appealing to race prejudice and spending money has placed its last hope in splitting the south's delegation.

NEWSPAPERS' RESPONSIBILITY.

It is with pardonable pride the Benton Tribune-Democrat mentions the fact that Marshall county blazed the way in the fight on lawlessness. This week's issue says:

"We are certainly glad that it now looks like the end of the night riders in our state, is in sight. If it ends now it will take at least a quarter of a century for our state to recover from the injury to its good name that has been done by these bands of lawbreakers. And we are doubly glad and proud of the fact that when the first outbreak occurred in our county that our county judge, H. B. Holland, commonwealth's attorney, John G. Lovett, and county attorney, W. M. Reeder, had the courage and fidelity to duty as officers of the law, to at once take vigorous action to investigate and bring to light the offenders. Then our circuit judge, W. Reed, was fully equal to the occasion, as every one expected him to be and summoned a special grand jury to investigate the night rider raids. Marshall county set the pace, which has been taken up in no uncertain way by the officials of Calloway, and now the night riders of that county are on the run."

Hon. E. E. Barry, the editor, let it be said to his credit, has never by a word excused lawlessness, either in the tobacco war or to regulate local social conditions. In the kindest manner he has fostered a sentiment in Marshall county that has not given the night rider spirit a chance to propagate. Had newspapers everywhere in the Black Patch maintained this attitude from the start the present situation in Calloway county never could have existed. Judge Barry's wise course contradicts the statement of other members of the country press that they were afraid they would hurt the farmers' organization by fighting night riders.

In this week's issue of the Murray Ledger an attempt is made to confuse the efforts of the authorities to suppress night riding with an attack on the tobacco association. It is the salvation of the association at this time to free itself from many imputation of complicity in the night riding business. It is the last hope of the night riders to make it appear that they are punished the association will be destroyed.

The night riders will be punished. Authorities, who are trying to suppress night riding, are in sympathy with the farmers' organization. It is not the friend of the association, who is endeavoring to confuse it in the popular mind with the cowardly midnight marauders. No one but the night riders and their sympathizers, the real enemies of every legitimate enterprise, are trying to do that.

The Planters' Protective association has no worse enemy in the world than the Murray Ledger and similar publications. No man, who has confidence in our free institutions, will believe that the majority of the farmers in western Kentucky belong to an organization that is founded on the theory of arson, murder and the violation of the sacred rights of citizenship. Efforts of the Murray Ledger and of the men accused of night riding to make us believe that are unavailing. They will never stay the strong arm of the law; and we advise all true association men to uncompromisingly condemn the Ledger's attitude. It is not in the interest of the association; it is in the interest of the night riders. Farmers, don't let the sinking pirates pull your craft under by their drowning struggles.

THE FORAKER CLUB.

Beware of the men who resort to subterfuges. That Foraker club organized among colored Republicans is an adjunct to the Fairbanks machine. It is anti-Taft, in other words. Foraker has no show of being nominated. He was utterly repudiated by the people, white and black, of his own state. The only appeal of the Foraker club is to race prejudice, the very thing the colored man has been complaining of, and the thing he has most to fear. His allegiance to the Republican party has been his political salvation. If he himself draws the race line between white and black Republicans, where will he be? These are not friends of the colored man, who are aligning him against the national Republican administration, and the apparently overwhelming majority of the Republican party. Those men are using the black voters for their own sinister purposes.

Colored voters should not follow hoodluming leaders, who are organizing a Fairbanks force under the Foraker banner. Let them ask Capt. Ed Farley or Major Ashcraft or Captain Williamson—old soldiers—whether the Twenty-fifth Infantry was treated any more harshly on account of the Knoxville affair than white regiments have been. Those soldiers conspired to conceal the identity of men who shot into homes of defenseless women and children, and disgraced their uniform. White or black they were not fit for soldiers, and white regiments have been treated worse than receiving more dishonorable discharges.

Roosevelt has been the consistent friend of the colored man, but he showed his courage by refusing to condone a heinous crime, just because the perpetrators were colored. Nothing but a can follow a movement to make of the Brownsville affair a race issue. No one but a designing politician, regardless of the disastrous consequences to a race just struggling to a full responsibility of citizenship, would stir their prejudice to committing an act of rashness, that will undo all that their leaders, such as Booker T. Washington, have accomplished.

Colored men should not permit themselves to be made tools of.

Tobacco in Madison.

London, Ky., April 17.—A gentleman who has lately returned from a business trip in Madison county is responsible for the prediction that there will be as much tobacco as usual raised this year in that section. A number of the farmers are parties who recently were living in the mountains and drifted to Madison after selling their mountain mineral lands. A considerable number of the tenants are native of the hills. These are quite capable of taking care of themselves if attacked. It was reported that some large planters have employed men known to be hands with a gun to guard their property. A quantity of arms and ammunition has lately been sold at Richmond and other points to farmers.

CHAPTER XIX.

THE inevitable happened. One noon Pulz looked up from his labor of pulling the whiskers from the evil smelling masks. "How many of these things we got?" he inquired.

"About three hundred and fifty," Thrackles replied.

"Well, we've got enough for me. I'm sick of this job. It stinks."

They looked at each other. I could see the disgust rising in their eyes, the look of rotten blubber expanding their nostrils. With one accord they cast aside the masks.

"It ain't such a fortune," growled Pulz, his evil little white face thrust forward. "There's other things worth all the seal trimmings of the islands."

"Hamon's," growled the negro.

"You've hit it, doctor," cut in Solomon.

There we were, again, back to the old difficulty, only worse. Idleness descended on us again. We grew lonely on little things, as a misplaced pipe, a shortage of firewood, too deep a draft at the nearly empty bucket. The noise of hickory became as constant as the noise of the surf. If we valued peace, we kept our mouths shut. The way a man spit or ate or slept or even breathed became a source of irritation to every other member of the company. We stood the oddest as long as we could, then we objected in a wild and ridiculous explosion, which comminuted his last to the object of our wrath. Then there was a fight. It needed only a blow to complete the deplorable state of affairs.

Gradually the smaller things came to worry us more and more. A certain lawless character of the cricket or the herp of the tree toad variety used to chirp his insolent, as a short distance from our cabin. For all I know, he had done so from the moment of our installation, but I had never noticed him before. Now I caught myself listening for his insolent croaking with every nerve on the spot. If he delayed by ever so little it was an agony, yet when he did pipe up his hoarse strain struck to my heart cold and paralyzing like a dagger. And with every advancing minute of the night I became broader awake, more tense, fairly sweating with nervousness. One night—good God, was it only last week? It seems ages ago, another existence, a state cut off from this by the wonder of a transmigration at least. Last week!

I did not sleep at all. The moon had risen, had mounted the heavens and now was sailing overhead. By the fretwork of its radiance through the einks of our rudely built cabin I had marked off the roofs. A thunderstorm rumbled and flashed, half down over the horizon. It was many miles distant, and yet I do not doubt that its electrical influence had dried the moisture of our equanimity, leaving us rattling husks for the winds of destiny to play upon. Certainly I can remember no other time in a rather wide experience when I have felt myself more on edge, more choked with the restless, purposeless nervous energy that leaves a man's tongue parched and his eyes staring. And still that infernal cricket or whatever it was chirped.

I had thought myself alone in my vigil, but when finally I could stand it no longer and kicked aside my covering, with an oath of protest, I was surprised to hear it echoed from all about me.

"D—that cricket!" I cried.

And the dead shadows stirred from the bunks, and the hollow eyed victims of insomnia crept out to curse their tormentor. We organized an expedition to hunt him down. It was ridiculous enough, six strong men prowling for the life of one poor little insect. We did not find him, however, though we succeeded in silencing him. But no sooner were we back in our bunks than he began it again, and such was the turmoil of our nerves that day found us sitting upon about a fire, hugging our knees.

The darkness in front of us was alive with fiery eyeballs.

We were so genuinely emptied, not so much by the cricket as by the two years of fermentation, that not one of us stirred toward breakfast. In fact, not one of us moved from the listless attitude in which day found him until after 9 o'clock. Then we pulled our-

THIN PEOPLE.

Of Paducah Try This.

Weigh yourself. Take Vinol a while. Weigh yourself again. The gain in flesh, strength and appetite will be better arguments for Vinol than all we can say.

This is because Vinol contains in a concentrated form all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil taken from fresh cods' livers, but it is a better body builder and strength creator than cod liver oil or emulsions because the useless, indigestible and nauseating oil has been eliminated and peptonated of iron added.

Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens every organ in the body, tones up the digestive organs, makes rich, red blood and firm, healthy flesh.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, and after sickness and for pulmonary troubles, Vinol is recommended by over 5,000 of the leading druggists of the United States.

selves together and cooked coffee and salt horse. As a significant fact, the nigger left the dishes unwashed, and no one cared.

Handy Solomon finally shook himself and arose.

"I'm sick of this," said he. "I'm goin' seal hunting."

They arose without a word. They were sick of it, too—sick to death. We were a silent, gloomy crew indeed as we thrust the surfboard about, clambered in and shipped the oars. No one spoke a word; no one had a comment to make, even when we saw the rocky slide into the water while we were still fifty yards from the beach. We pulled back slowly along the coast. Beyond the rock we made out the entrance to the dry cave.

"There's seal in there!" cried Handy Solomon. "Lots of 'em!"

He thrust the rudder over, and we headed for the cave. No one expressed an opinion.

As it was again high tide, we rowed in to the steep shore inside the cave's mouth and beached the boat. The place was full of seals. We could hear them bellowing.

"Two of you stand here," shouted Handy Solomon, "and take them as they go out. We'll go in and scare 'em down to you."

"They'll run over us!" screamed Pulz.

"No, they won't. You can dodge up the sides when they go by."

This was indeed well possible, so we gripped our clubs and ventured in to the darkness.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Matinee Musical Concert on April 20.
The Matinee Musical club will give a popular concert on Monday night. It is probable that the auditorium of the Woman's club house will be secured, though the place is not yet definitely settled. The event will be attractively featured by notable local talent.

Arbor Day Attractively Featured.
"Arbor Day" is being patriotically observed this afternoon at the Washington school building with appropriate exercises, under the auspices of the Paducah Alumni Association. The program includes songs by the school children, addresses by Mayor James P. Smith and Mr. Hal S. Corbett, and a recitation, "Woodman Spare the Tree," by Edward Mitchell, of the High school. The singing of "America" follows the planting of the trees. Members of the local Forestry association and the Civic department of the Woman's club are among the interested attendants on the ceremonies.

Kalopsophic Club.
The Kalopsophic club met this morning in regular session at the Woman's club house. Interesting papers were presented by Miss Mary Scott, Mrs. David Flournoy and Mrs. Edward Brinkhurst. Miss Elizabeth Sinnott's paper was read by Mrs. Vernon Blythe.

STRONG AS A MULE

Farmer Gets Power From Food.

Anyone can better his condition, if eating improper food, by changing to the right kind.

It is becoming well known among all classes of people in this country that strength of mind and body come from the nourishment that is taken into the system in the form of food.

A cowboy whose stomach got all out of order on a ranch, went to farming and incidentally found the cause of his trouble and the way out of it. He writes:

"I was raised on a cow ranch, lived like the rest, on beef and potatoes, often eating too much, until my stomach became so weak and I was so run down I had to quit the job."

"Then I tried farming, but did not get any better. My nerves were all unstrung and I could not sleep at night. A year ago I saw an ad. about Grape-Nuts being such a wonderful food, and told my wife I was going to try it."

"So I bought a box of Grape-Nuts and by the time I had used this food two weeks, the weakness began to leave my stomach."

"Now I weigh 184 pounds and am as strong as a mule. We eat Grape-Nuts for breakfast, and I also take some as a lunch between meals. I must say that Grape-Nuts is the best food there is, and nearly everyone in town, seeing my improvement, has taken to eating it."

"There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in packages.

AIRSHIP

WILL BE REPAIRED IN LOCAL MACHINE SHOP.

W. J. O'Neal, of Denver, Will Have Gasoline Engine Built in This City This Summer.

One airship will be reconstructed in Paducah this summer, and the gasoline engine will be built entirely by a local firm.

Mr. W. J. O'Neal, of Denver, Colo., was in the city several days ago, and contracted with Mr. Julian Grear to build a gasoline engine for his airship.

Mr. Grear has known Mr. O'Neal for many years and the order was placed because of the care needed in construction.

Mr. O'Neal is in St. Louis at present, but will return in a short time and have his airship shipped here to receive the new engine, and for repairs.

The engine will be air cooled and all parts will be readily accessible. At present his engine is water cooled, but it has given him trouble in stopping, and his last accident resulted from this source.

The preliminary repairs to the ship will be made in the second story of Mr. Grear's shop, on Broadway, but later when the tests come, and the big bag is inflated, it will be transferred to some spacious commons for trials.

TAFTITES TICKLED

OVER THEIR PROSPECTS IN THE SECOND DISTRICT.

Hopkingsville, Ky., April 17.—The New Era says:

"The local Taft supporters are jubilant over advice which they claim to have received from Henderson and Hopkins counties assuring them that those counties will instruct for the secretary of war as the Republican nominee for president. According to these advices the tide is turning strongly every day toward Taft and every indication points to his receiving the instruction from the Second congressional district."

"The stationery which the Taft forces are using in Hopkins county is very striking. On the envelope appears a likeness of Bill which covers one entire end of the envelope. Accompanying it are the words, 'Taft for President, Slogan, the Second District of Kentucky for Taft.' The letter head contains the same matter."

MANY MILES OF TRACK

Will Have to Be Reconstructed on Montana Central Railroad.

Great Falls, Mont., April 17.—The loss of practically every foot of the Montana Central road between Dearborn river and Cascade by the breaking of a dam, will necessitate the reconstruction of about 22 miles of the line. In consequence of the crippling of all transportation facilities the Boston and Montana Smelter will be compelled, it is said, to cause operations for a period.

ITALIAN COLONY DRIVEN AWAY BY IRATE CITIZENS.

Decatur, Ill., April 17.—An Italian colony, numbering 100, left Clinton hurriedly during the night, following an attack by a mob of Americans armed with guns. More than 500 shots were fired into Italian homes.

The police made no effort to disperse the mob. The attack was the result of Italians taking the Americans' places on the Illinois Central railroad. The Italian counsel at Chicago was notified.

CAPTAIN ARRESTED.

For Smuggling Foreigners Into This Country.

Port Huron, Mich., April 17.—The Point Edward ferryboat was seized on the American side here, and her captain, Joseph Glass, lodged in jail on the charge of illegally importing foreigners into the United States.

The boat is tied up at North Port Huron, by direction of the United States immigration officials, and Glass will have a hearing before United States Commissioner Harris.

BOTH HURT WHEN WHEELS COLLIDE BUT WILL RECOVER

F. S. Buchanan, 632 South Twelfth street, was the man that collided with Ed Fletcher, 17 years old, at Ninth street and Kentucky avenue yesterday about noon.

Mr. Buchanan was thrown from his wheel, and his back is wrenched. His head is also painfully injured, and today he is confined to his bed. He is employed by E. H. Pennington & company, of South Second street, and was en route home to dinner when he and Fletcher ran into each other.

Buchanan says he was stunned for several minutes, but was able to ride home when revived. This afternoon the Fletcher boy is resting fairly easy at his home, 1008 Bridge street, and Dr. Washburn entertains some hope of his recovery.

The injury did not result in a fracture of the skull, but he is suffering from the shock and concussion of the brain. This morning he regained consciousness for the first time since the accident, but remembers nothing of the collision.

NEWS OF COURTS

In Circuit Court.

J. W. Williams, guardian for Cora Jones and Raza Buttrum, who were injured in the collapse of a walkway at the Paducah Box and Basket plant, February 24, filed suit in circuit court yesterday against the basket company and the Illinois Central Railroad company for $10,000 damages for each of the girls and $1,999.99 for Rosetta Buttrum and Dora Jones, mothers of the girls, who claim they were damaged that much by the accident, inasmuch as the girls were their mothers' only support.

The accident was caused by a box car being derailed and striking the supports of the walkway causing it to collapse.

In Police Court.

The docket this morning was: Drunk, W. W. Lawson, M. M. Duff, Jim Davis, $1 and costs each. Using insulting language—W. L. Reed continued until Saturday.

Marriage Licenses.

Joe Attrip and Sarah Duley.

FARMERS ARE MISSING.

Norman, S. D., April 17.—Louis Grant, his wife and five children, farmers, whose buildings were destroyed by the fire, are missing and believed to have perished in the flames. The fire burned over several square miles, twelve miles west of Cogswell, and was the most destructive the county has ever known. Dozens of farmers lost their barns and granaries.

Reduction in Car Shops.

A further reduction of 30 men were made from the working force of the car department at the Illinois Central shops this week. The reduction was made because of the fact that the company has all the cars necessary at present and there is no need of rushing repairs on cars that are not needed. The locomotive department continues to work full force and time.

Gets Death Sentence.

Omaha, April 17.—Saverio Colombo was today given a life sentence for the murder of his friend, Joseph Florenza. Colombo himself took Florenza by accident and then by Florenza's request shot him in the body to relieve his agony. The case will not be appealed.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL

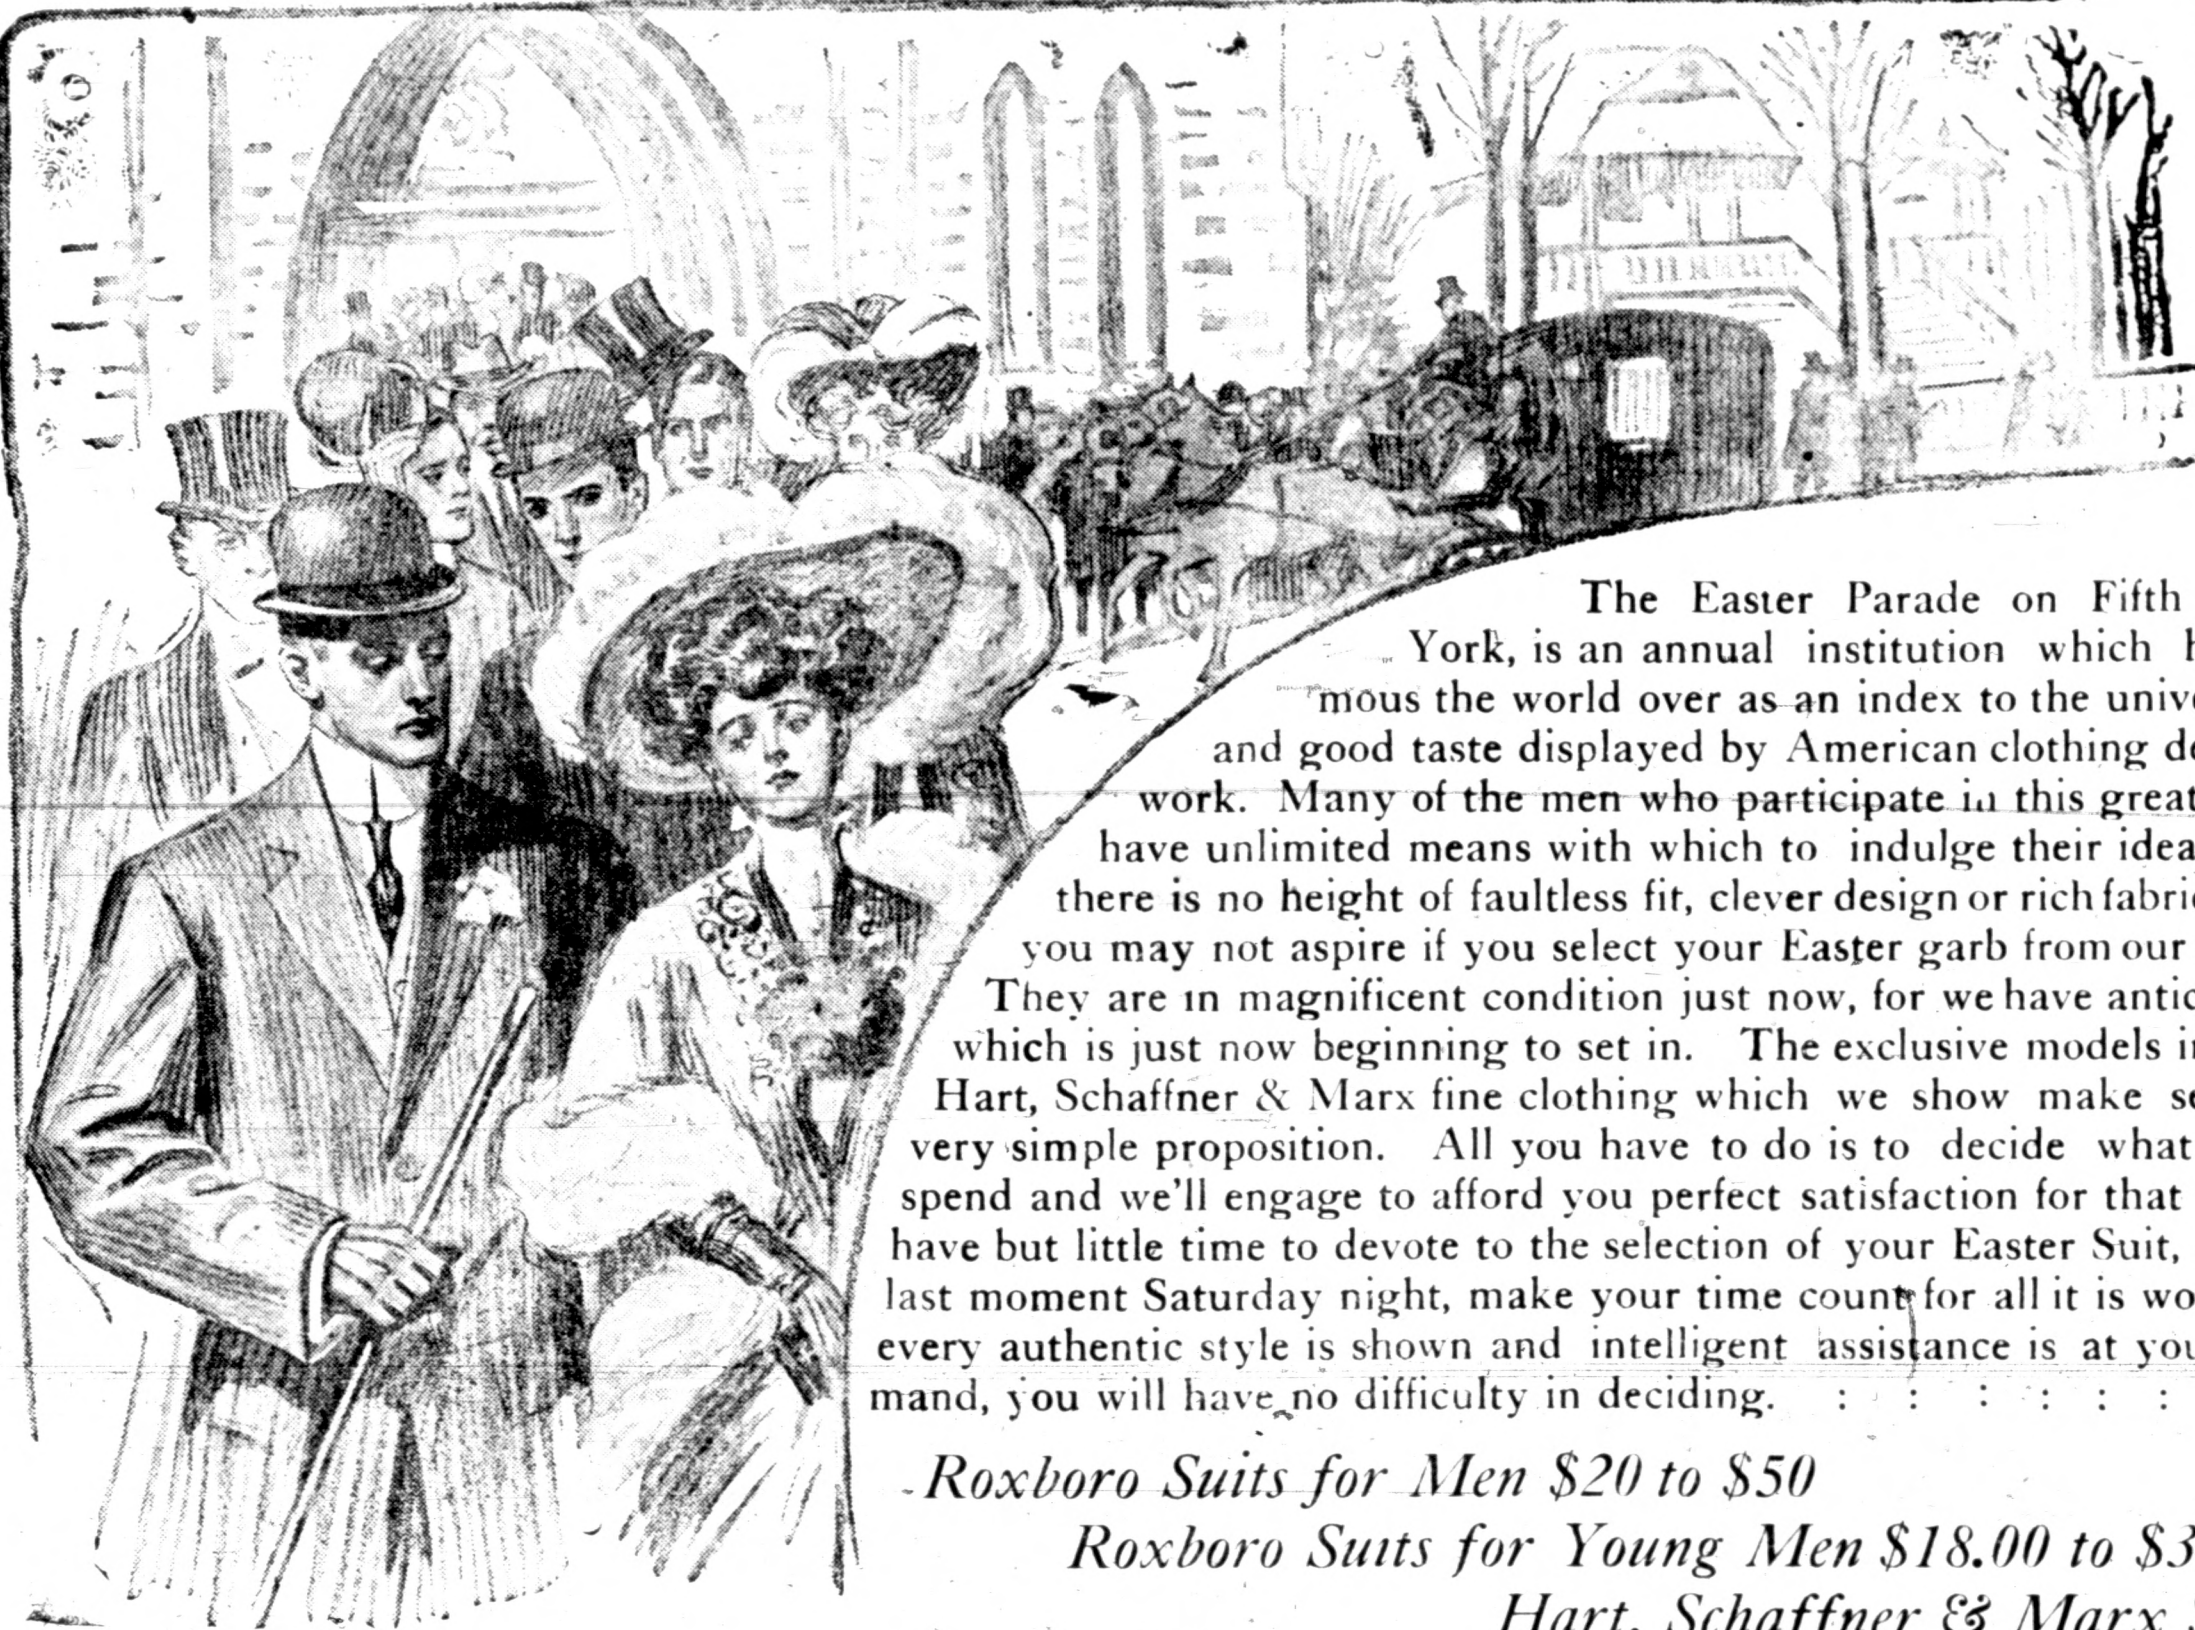

TO BE REPORT OF HOUSE COMMITTEE OF FORESTRY BILL.

Appalachian Park Measure Coldly Treated By Ten of Nineteen Members.

Washington, April 17.—The report of Chairman Jenkins, declaring unconstitutional the Appalachian and White Mountain forestry bill, was by him submitted to the house judiciary committee in executive session and when the committee adjourned at the call of the house the indication was it would be concurred in by at least ten of the nineteen members. Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, also submitted a report holding the bill to be unconstitutional. It is thought that it will be adopted by the minority as embodying their views. A deciding vote on the bill is expected today.

THE EASTER PARADE

The Easter Parade on Fifth Avenue, New York, is an annual institution which has become famous the world over as an index to the universal smartness and good taste displayed by American clothing designers in their work. Many of the men who participate in this great Fashion Show have unlimited means with which to indulge their ideas of dress, yet there is no height of faultless fit, clever design or rich fabric there to which you may not aspire if you select your Easter garb from our ample displays. They are in magnificent condition just now, for we have anticipated the rush which is just now beginning to set in. The exclusive models in Roxboro, and Hart, Schaffner & Marx fine clothing which we show make selection here a very simple proposition. All you have to do is to decide what you want to spend and we'll engage to afford you perfect satisfaction for that price. If you have but little time to devote to the selection of your Easter Suit, and that at the last moment Saturday night, make your time count for all it is worth; here, where every authentic style is shown and intelligent assistance is at your instant command, you will have no difficulty in deciding.

Roxboro Suits for Men $20 to $50

Roxboro Suits for Young Men $18.00 to $35.00

Hart, Schaffner & Marx $20 to $35

Exclusive Easter Cravats

The Easter demand has been anticipated with the widest range of new and refined novelties we have ever offered in our spring displays. Every popular weave and every especial color or design is represented—ideas reflecting the most tasteful conceptions of the leading makers. Keiser Cravats are featured, of course. 50c to $2.00

Fancy Vests for Easter

Our Easter display of Fancy Vests will arouse particular interest among men desiring the very latest styles and novelties in imported fabrics. Distinctive styles in a wide range of light, dark and medium shades in Marseilles, flannels and tubable materials; fast colors. $1.50 to $7.50

Correct Easter Hats

There is a noticeable difference between the spring Hats of this season and last season. The "telescope" Hids fair to be most popular, especially with the young men. There are any number of beautiful new shades in which we have blocks which will be becoming to you—pearl, slate, mouse, brown, tan and green are favored ones. We're showing all the different dimensions in the telescope, as well as the more staple shapes in stiff and soft hats. The display of spring blocks in Knox, Stetson, Ludlow and Imperial Hats is now at its best. $3 to $5

The Boys' Shop

No department of this store responds so quickly to the influence of spring as The Boys' Shop. It is now resplendent with spring and even summer freshness, and we are able to say in all sincerity that there is not a style of any consequence not represented in our Easter exhibit, and all are of quality unquestioned. The display is so full and overflowing with beauty that we merely generalize in this announcement. Suffice it to say that we have the grandest showing for this spring that we have ever had the pleasure of showing. $1.50 to $12.50

Seventh Annual Congress of D. A. R.

Washington, D. C., April 17.—The seventh annual congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which will convene in Continental Memorial hall April 20, will be largely attended. A number of the delegates arrived today and by Saturday night they will all be in the city. Fourteen hundred delegates are expected.

Representatives of the several Memphis chapters will arrive Saturday morning. They have all engaged hotel accommodations.

Many states report that their delegations will be larger than ever before.

This is an "off" year for D. A. R. elections and there will consequently be no election of officers.

The program of the congress will be a most interesting one, and will include the selection of a new president, the election of officers, and the presentation of a number of resolutions. The congress will be held in the city of Washington, D. C., and will be a most important event in the history of the organization.

Candidates for High Officers. Many of the present vice-presidents are ineligible, because of a rule of the organization, which provides that a candidate for high office must have been a member of the organization for at least one year. This rule has caused a number of the present vice-presidents to be ineligible, and a number of new candidates have been nominated.

UNFORTUNATE MAN

COMMITTS SUICIDE BY DROWNING HIMSELF AT VICKSBURG.

William Alvis Throws Himself Into Cumberland River to Escape His Misery.

Smithland, Ky., April 17.—William Alvis committed suicide at Vicksburg by drowning himself in the Cumberland river. It is supposed that he walked through the ferry boat at the landing and deliberately threw himself into the water. He was unaccompanied and the finding of his hat led to the suspicion of suicide. His body was found.

Mr. Alvis had been an inmate of the poor house several months and was in bad health. He was suffering with a cancer of the bone affecting the jaw bones.

At the February term of the fiscal court, $50 was appropriated to Dr. J. V. Hayden to treat him or have him treated. Dr. Hayden sent to Paducah and an examination was made there. It was found that an operation cutting out the bone was the only remedy, and it was also said that he could not undergo the operation, hence he was sent back to the poor house.

Doubtless despondency and pain drove him into committing the rash act of ending his own life which could not have been prolonged much longer.

He had never shown signs of insanity. Squire E. C. Coffey held the inquest and found that he came to his death by purposely drowning himself.

LIFE TERM

GIVEN MONROE BACON, COLORED, FOR MURDER OF WIFE.

The insanity plea made by the attorneys for Monroe Bacon on trial yesterday for murdering his wife, probably saved the negro from the gallows, a life sentence being given. The Bacon trial will be the last murder trial at this term of court, the cases against Charles Freeman and Charles Lee Hill being continued until the September term.
