STATE BOARD OF HEALTH ISSUES A PROCLAMATION ON CLEAN-UP DAY.

Proclamation by the State Board of Health:

Whereas; A careful study of the official returns under the vital statistics law for 1915, about an average, shows that 65 per cent of all sickness and 41 per cent of all deaths occurring in this state in recent years are from diseases which the health authorities and doctors could have prevented with the intelligent co-operation of all the people, a large part of them from what are known as filth diseases, caused by an almost criminal ignorance and carelessness, even in the best homes and schools in unsewered towns and country districts, in the disposal of the discharges of the human body, and lack of daily vigilance in keeping the house and school premises, and especially the back yards and cellars, absolutely and at all times, clean and healthful, and,

Whereas; These preventable diseases, causing such an enormous sick and death rate, more constantly, as the statistics show in the small cities, towns and country districts, where people ought to be healthiest, levy a heavier tax every year, in loss of time, medical, drug and nurse bills, and for premature funerals, than all the taxes paid into the municipal, county and state treasuries for all purposes, can and ought to be prevented, now, therefore,

Be it known, that the State Board of Health, for the reasons above set forth, and by virtue of authority vested in it by law as guardians of health and life, hereby names and sets apart the period beginning on Monday, May 8, and ending on Saturday, May 13, as "Clean-Up Week" and urges every family, teacher and other owner or occupier of premises to gather and burn or remove all refuse from their premises, especially in the back yards and cellars; to treat with plenty of fresh lime all damp and especially soiled spots and then grade them up; to whitewash all fences and outhouses; to look after the grading and tops of wells and cisterns and see that surface drainage is kept out; and, even more important than any of these things, construct "A Kentucky Septic Tank Privy" for every home, school or other building occupied by human beings not on a line of sewers. The cement, gravel or broken rock and sand for such a tank costs $10 to $25, depending on the size, it can be built by any intelligent person, and it is self-cleaning, odorless, fly-proof and lasts forever, and if they are made the receptacle for all the "spitum from consumption, and all discharges from typhoid fever patients and similar diseases, these will soon interest our people no more except as a matter of history. It is important that farmers and householders understand that all these precautions are as desirable for the homes of their tenants and servants as for their own families. The law is now preemptory that these tanks must be constructed for all schools, hotels, court houses and railway stations, and one of our leading circuit judges has recently begun instructing the grand juries of his district to return indictments against all school trustees and others who are responsible for neglect of this salutary requirement. Notice is now given by this board that no "health resort" or new mining camp without an approved system of sewers will be permitted to open this season, or in the future, unless such tanks are provided for the guests, or for employees and their families; and the Board calls upon all civil and health officials, physicians, editors, members of women's clubs, teachers and other organizations and leaders of opinion, to construct these tanks and make the other improvements suggested for their homes and then, with their own premises as models, start this life saving campaign among neighbors and friends. Where, for any reason, the tanks can not be constructed at once, the Board urges that garden outhouses be boarded up at the back and sides, and lids made for the seats, so as to make them absolutely fly-proof, and guarded against chickens and other domestic fowls and animals. If these things are done properly and the purpose of it is appreciated, it will be easy to keep any premises clean the year round, and if all stables and barns be cleaned out once a week and the manure put on the fields and gardens, where it is badly needed, the breeding of flies will be prevented, and one of man's most ubiquitous and dangerous enemies will be gotten rid of forever, as has already been done by many cities and towns and on a few farms where the plan has been tried.

Illustrated bulletins with full instructions for the construction of the sanitary tanks, and containers for samples of water for analysis will be sent free to anyone for the asking.

JOHN G. SOUTH, M. D., President.

A. T. McCORMICK, M. D., Secretary.

Judge Hanbery's Condition.

While nothing direct has been received in Murray from the bedside of Judge Hanbery, indirect information contains the intelligence that his condition is quite critical. The Cadiz Record of last week says regarding his condition:

"Late reports from Judge J. T. Hanbery, who is in Walker's Sanitarium at Evansville, are to the effect that his condition is quite serious, and friends have become very uneasy about him."

Tobacco News.

The local market showed considerable strength this week, and the best sale of the season was held at loose leaf warehouse. While only a small quantity of the weed was offered it found ready purchasers at prices that established a new record for the season. Lugs brought from $4.60 to $6.65, and common to medium leaf sold at $6.65 to $9.30. Since the rains the first of the week quite a large amount has been delivered to local dealers, and with continued favorable weather conditions the deliveries are expected to continue heavy.

Paducah, Ky., May 1.—The last thirteen hogheads of old leaf tobacco stored in Paducah warehouses were sold the past week. It was medium wrappers and sold at 10½ to 11 cents. There remains a few scattering hogheads over the district; in first hands, but practically all the old crop has been sold.

Mayfield reported sales of 130 hogheads new leaf and lugs. The leaf was low and common grades, selling at 7 to 8 cents. Lugs of common and medium grades sold at 5½ to 6 cents.

During the week the weather was cool and dry. Loose leaf receipts were light. The market for loose tobacco of all grades continued strong and little is left unsold in farmers hands.

Farmers report plants plentiful and growing nicely.

Hopkinsville, Ky., May 1.—Business has picked up on the loose floors during the past week and nearly 375,000 pounds of tobacco were sold at an average of $7.65. The war rumors have had no effect unless it be to give additional strength to the market, now drawing to a close. Sales are now more than 3,500,000 pounds greater than this time last year and almost up to the entire season's record.

Clarksville, Tenn., May 1.—The receipts of tobacco fell off in the open market last week. Sales, however, held up to an average. About 400,000 pounds of loose tobacco were sold at prices ranging from $5.75 for lugs to $11.25 for leaf. About 100 hogheads of tobacco were sold at good prices. The tone of the market showed an improvement, and farmers seemed satisfied with prices secured.

Much ground is being prepared for the 1916 crop.

Takes Body of Son From Grave.

Clarksville, Tenn., April 29.—The village of Shiloh, near here, was thrown into a fever of excitement by the conduct of Herbert Allen, an undertaker of that place. About six months ago Allen lost his only son, 21 years old, from typhoid fever, the body being buried at Shiloh. Thursday he took an assistant and his hearse and going to the cemetery, exhumed the body and carried it to his place of business. The lid was removed from the casket and persons who happened in were invited to view the body, which was in a perfect state of preservation.

Allen was placed under arrest. The only explanation he gave when questioned was he had bought a farm in another neighborhood and wanted to take his son's body to his new home. It is supposed he was temporarily mentally unbalanced from grief.

Ten Commandments.

With a view of aiding the annual spring clean-up campaign, these "Ten Commandments for a Clean City" are given:

Thou shalt locate, report and abate all public nuisances.

Thou shalt provide a covered receptacle for all manner of house and stable refuse.

Thou shalt remember that filth breeds flies and that flies make funerals.

Thou shalt gather and burn all sorts of combustible rubbish.

Thou shalt wage continual warfare on weeds, dandelions and untrimmed trees.

Thou shalt whitewash or paint thy buildings and keep thy premises constantly clean.

Thou shalt not spit on sidewalks or in any public place or conveyance.

Thou shalt not sweep thy sidewalk in the business section after 7:30 a. m.

Thou shalt not throw tin cans or rubbish in any back yard, vacant lot or alley.

Thou shalt strictly obey these precepts that our name and fame may be the foremost of the cities of the land.

Marshall Citizens in Trouble.

Paducah, Ky., May 1.—A $2 bill crudely raised to a "twenty" was responsible for the arrest of Sylvan H. Clark and Amos Nanney, farmers, living near Hardin in Marshall county, by Patrolmen Dunn and Alma. According to Lena Berry, of 1008 South Tenth street, the two tried to pass the bill on her last night and she called the police. The men were taken to police headquarters but made bail. Clark, who had possession of the raised bill, claimed he got it from a stranger whom he gave $20 in change. A warrant charging them with counterfeiting was issued and Police Judge Crossland held both over to the grand jury in $500 bail this morning.

Hogs Drown in Post Hole.

Two fine hogs belonging to Mr. James Rogers, on the farm of Mr. T. N. Wadlington, east of town, were drowned last week under rather peculiar circumstances. Mr. B. C. Wadlington, living near by, had dug two large post holes and the rain had partially filled them. The hogs, presumably water hunting, slipped in, and unable to get out were dead when discovered. Moral: Don't leave post holes unprotected. —Cadiz Record.

MAYOR HOLTON ASKS ALL CITIZENS TO OBSERVE CLEAN-UP WEEK--8-13

The city of Murray, acting together with the board of health and other civic associations, hereby declares and designates the week of May 8 to 13, inclusive, as "clean-up and paint-up week" for Murray.

During this week every citizen of Murray should make an effort to clean up his house and property so as to avoid fire risks, to clean up his front and back yard, paint his premises if necessary, to abolish all places that might breed flies and mosquitos, to eliminate weeds, and to help clean up vacant lots.

The clean-up campaign will afford an excellent opportunity for every Murray citizen to show his civic pride. No city is attractive or healthy if it is dirty and littered up. All should be willing to co-operate in cleaning up not only his own premises but in helping to clean up the premises of others when help is necessary.

Let us all work together to clean up and paint up Murray

during the week designated—to give the city a thorough spring cleaning as does the good housewife the interior of her own home, and to brighten up things with fresh coatings of paint—then keep the city that way throughout the year. Let us plant grass and flowers. Murray is a pretty little city and can be made more attractive with a little effort on the part of property owners and the effort will bring in large returns in health and cleanliness. The result will be that we will have a cleaner, happier, healthier and more attractive city in which to live.

(Signed) H. E. HOLTON,
Mayor of the city of Murray.

This April 25, 1916.

All trash and rubbish placed in convenient places will be called for by wagons furnished by the city and anyone having trash to be removed and which is not called for notify the city marshal and same will be called for immediately.

More Money for Tobacco Worm Fight.

Washington, May 1.—A mightier battle against the tobacco worm will be waged in Kentucky next year by experts of the department of agriculture as a result of an increase of $10,000 for investigation, experimentation and demonstration for eradication of the tobacco horn worm provided for by the item in the annual Agricultural Appropriation Bill adopted by the house.

The increase in the appropriation was put into the bill by Chairman Lever, of the agricultural committee, at the instance of Representative R. Y. Thomas, Jr., who appeared before the committee. About $13,000 was expended for this work last year, that amount being an increase of the previous year's appropriation, for which the Kentuckian was also responsible.

No objection to the increased appropriation was made on the floor of the house when the tobacco item was reached. Representatives Alben W. Barkley and David H. Kincheloe were ready for any opposition, as they were armed with an array of facts to show the need of the larger sum of money.

The additional money will enable experts of the department of agriculture to cover a wider area of tobacco-growing sections to demonstrate to the growers the use of a solution of arsenic of lead, which kills the dreaded horn worm without injuring the tobacco leaf or endangering the user of tobacco. For many years growers who have not resorted to the tedious method of picking off by hand the worms, have used Paris green, and this was shown to be a menace to the user of chewing tobacco. Many demonstrations in the use of the new solution, discovered by the agricultural experts, were given in Kentucky last year, and the additional appropriation obtained by the state's congressmen from the dark tobacco sections will permit even broader service.

Data Shows Tobacco Demand Keeping Pace Equal to the Production.

Washington, May 1.—According to Representative J. Campbell Cantrill, who framed the law under which the semi-annual statistics of unmanufactured leaf tobacco are gathered and published by the census bureau, today's report of conditions on April 1, 1916, is gratifying.

The report shows an aggregate of 1,417,693,262 pounds of tobacco on hand April 1 last, as against 1,481,028,438 on April 1, 1915; a decrease of 63,335,176 pounds. On April 1, 1914, there were 1,380,987,689 pounds on hand and on October 1, 1915, 1,205,762,948 pounds. Of burley there were 319,489,475 pounds on hand this year, as against 343,738,796 on April 1, 1915, a decrease of 24,249,321 pounds. On April 1, 1914, there were 311,288,658 pounds on hand and on October 1, 1915, 249,803,577 pounds.

Dark tobacco from the Hopkinsville-Paducah-Clarksville district shows a decrease over last year, as did the Green River and one-sucker type, indicating that they are being manufactured for the foreign market in no small quantity.

"I am very much gratified at the report issued today as of April 1, especially so far as the burley type is concerned," said Congressman Cantrill. "The reports show in round numbers 319,000,000 pounds of that tobacco in the hands of the manufacturers, as against 343,000,000 pounds a year ago. The fact that manufacturers hold today 24,000,000 less than a year ago should be encouraging to the growers of burley. Despite the fact that all of Europe is at war, the consumption of our burley crop is practically normal."

"Taking under consideration the entire stocks of tobacco of all types in the hands of manufacturers, the supply held by them shows a decrease of 63,000,000 pounds, as compared with a year ago. It is remarkable both as to the burley type and all types of tobacco that for the last three years the stocks of tobacco have remained practically stationary, proving, beyond any controversy, that the consumption of tobacco about equals the production during the three-year period. However, in my opinion, the growers of tobacco should not undertake to increase the acreage over what it was last year, as it is to the advantage of the tobacco growers to have the present situation continue—namely, to balance production and consumption."

Clean-Up and Paint-Up Week Program

SUNDAY—Special Sermons at all Churches.

MONDAY—Fire Prevention Day.

Clean your basements and attics of rubbish, greasy rags and waste paper, wherever possible.

TUESDAY—Front Yard Day.

Cut lawns, plant flower beds, clean walks and gutters. Salt cracks in sidewalks; exterminate ants.

WEDNESDAY—Weed Day.

This day can be very profitably used in ridding your lawn of dandelions, trimming bushes and gardens. There is no more important work which the campaign could accomplish than to rid this city of the weed pest.

THURSDAY—Paint Day.

Paint up inside and out, porches, fences, woodwork and porch chairs.

FRIDAY—Back Yard Day.

Clean alleys, repair fences and sheds, screen garbage cans. Put fly traps on garbage cans. Put on screen doors. Complete various other tasks.

SATURDAY—Vacant Lot Day.

IRISH REBELLION IS REPORTED CHECKED

707 PRISONERS ARE TAKEN, INCLUDING THE COUNTS MARKEVICZ.

MARTIAL LAW FOR IRELAND

Members of Provisional Government at Headquarters, Agreed To Unconditional Surrender—Pearce Issues Proclamation.

Kingstown, Ireland (via London).—The main body of the Sinn Féin rebels in Dublin surrendered during April 30. There was, however, considerable fighting throughout Sunday in Dublin and the suburbs. It was especially severe at Balls Bridge, outside of Dublin. The rebels in the College of Surgeons surrendered May 1. The proclamation issued by "Provisional President" Pearce, advising the surrender of all the rebels, follows: "In order to prevent the further slaughter of unarmed people, and in the hope of saving the lives of our followers, who are surrounded and hopelessly outnumbered, the members of the provisional government at headquarters have agreed to unconditional surrender, and the commanders of all the units of the Republican forces will order their followers to lay down their arms."

An official statement issued in London concerning the situation in Ireland says: "Seven hundred and seven prisoners have been taken, including the Countess Markievicz, the leader of the Dublin rebels to other been broken."

An official statement issued by the British Press Bureau said: "Messengers have been sent from the leader of the Dublin rebels to other rebels in Galway, Clare, Wexford, Louth and Dublin counties ordering them to surrender."

The text of the statement follows: "The general officer commanding in chief the Irish command has reported the situation in Dublin much more satisfactory. Throughout the country there was still much more to be done, which would take time, but he hoped that the back of the rebellion had been broken. "Messengers were sent out from the rebel leaders in Dublin to the rebel bodies in Galway, Clare, Wexford, Louth and Dublin counties ordering them to surrender, and priests and the royal Irish constabulary are doing their utmost to disseminate this information."

GEN. MAXWELL IN COMMAND

He Recently Commanded the Troops in Egypt—Has Been Given Full Disciplinary Powers.

London.—Martial law has been declared throughout Ireland and Major-General Sir John Maxwell, who until recently commanded the troops in Egypt, has gone over to take charge. He has been given full disciplinary powers for the extension of the operations and the suppression of the rebellion.

The revolt, which broke out in Dublin April 24, has spread to other parts of Ireland, chiefly to the west and south. This information, together with the fact that the rebels are still in possession of parts of Dublin, was given to the nation by the ministers in parliament on the 27th.

Premier Asquith, who had given reassuring news respecting the situation, caused a flutter of anxiety by his statement in the house of commons announcing the spread of the movement to other parts of Ireland, the retention by the revolutionary forces of certain parts of Dublin and the fact that fighting was still going on in the streets.

The government, the prime minister announced, was convinced that the forces now in Ireland and those proceeding there were adequate to deal with the situation.

STEEL EARNINGS BIG.

Usual Quarterly Dividend of 1 1/4 Per Cent Declared.

New York.—The United States Steel Corporation declared its usual quarterly dividend on the common stock of 1 1/4 per cent.

The total earnings of the corporation for the quarter ended March 31, last, were $60,713,624, according to the quarterly report.

Prepare Big Offensive.

Rome.—The Austrians are preparing a great offensive against the Italian line under the supervision of Archduke Charles Francis, who is inspecting troops on the Isonzo and in the Trentino, according to the Giornale d'Italia.

All civil traffic has been suspended on the railroads from Graz to Agram and from Laibach to Tarvis. The paper adds that a proclamation has been issued to the troops announcing the early end of the war and the triumph of Austria.

IN CHARGE OF THE CAPITAL

British Regulars From Belfast and England Occupy Dublin—Drastic Steps to Stop Movement.

London.—British regulars from Belfast and England are in Dublin and have recaptured several important centers which the members of the Sinn Féin party and their adherents had occupied. These include St. Stephen's Green and Liberty Hall.

Martial law has been proclaimed in the city and county of Dublin and the official announcement is made that drastic steps are being taken to suppress the movement and arrest those responsible for it.

That the government intends to deal with the offenders with a heavy hand is indicated by the publication of a proclamation in the official gazette suspending in Ireland section 1 of the defense of the realm amendment act of 1915, which gives to a British subject charged with an offense under the act the right to be tried by a civil court.

The proclamation recites that "the present state of affairs in Ireland is such as to constitute a special military emergency" as specified in subsection 7 of the act, which enacts that in the event of an invasion or other special military emergency arising out of the present war the operation of section 1 may be suspended either generally or in a specified area.

REVOLT IS SERIOUS.

Irish Troubles Said To Have Been Financed in United States.

New York.—The revolt in Ireland far exceeds in extent the admissions of the British government, according to information reported to have been received in Irish circles here. A force of 10,000 rebels is opposing authorities in Dublin and neighboring Irish counties, it is asserted.

The reports had it that John MacNeill, leader of the Irish volunteers and editor of their official organ, the Irish Volunteer, has been shot.

The activities of Sir Roger Casement were partly financed by Irish-Americans, who contributed more than $100,000 to the cause, according to Jeremiah A. O'Leary, director of the United Irish Societies of this city.

THREE ORGANIZATIONS MEET

Much Discussion By Delegates To the Convention of Nurses at New Orleans.

New Orleans.—Courses of training for public health nurses, standardization and equipment of hospital wards and rules to be followed in care of specific diseases were themes that received much discussion by delegates to the convention of the three national organizations of nurses here. The early sessions were devoted principally to business meetings of the organizations represented—the American Nurses' Association, National League of Nursing, Education and National Organization for Public Health Nursing.

Training in marketing, in economic management of a household, in social service and modern methods for preventing disease was advocated by Miss Helen Cleland of Decatur, Ill., and Mrs. Katharine Tucker of Philadelphia.

The mass meeting dealt with problems in public health nursing and included papers and addresses by Dr. C. E. Terry, Jacksonville, Fla.; Helena R. Stewart, state supervising nurse of Ohio; Olga S. Halsey of New York, and Dr. Robert G. Paterson of the Ohio state board of health.

30,000 ARE LOCKED OUT.

Workers in Women's Cloak, Suit and Skirt Factories Affected.

New York.—Thirty thousand workers in women's cloak, suit and skirt factories received notice of the beginning of a lockout affecting 409 shops controlled by members of the Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Protective Association.

In retaliation the president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union and officers of the eleven cloakmakers' unions announced that they will declare a strike, to become effective May 3, involving not only the 30,000 affected by the lockout, but also about 35,000 employees in 1,800 shops not controlled by the manufacturers' association.

SNOW IN TWO STATES.

Eastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island Experience Fall of Beautiful.

Boston.—Snow fell over Eastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island on April 28, the latest date for any appreciable fall in more than 27 years. Unusually large flakes fell. The fall here was estimated at approximately two inches. It melted rapidly, and little inconvenience was caused.

Snow was reported from Providence, R. I., and other points in that state; from New Bedford and other South-eastern Massachusetts cities, and from Lowell in the northeastern section of Massachusetts.

MORE TROOPS ARRIVE.

Russians Reaching Marseilles Disembark Immediately.

Paris.—A Havas dispatch from Marseilles reports the arrival there of a further contingent of Russian troops. The Russians reached Marseilles April 29, the dispatch says, and disembarked immediately. They were received with the same military and civil honors as were accorded previous Russian detachments and were cheered by the people as they marched to Camp Mirabeau. They will be sent in a few days to Camp Mailly.

CONFERENCES WAIT WASHINGTON REPLY

THE MEXICAN WAR MINISTER WITH HIS AIDES IS IN BORDER TOWN.

MEETS SCOTT AND FUNSTON

On Answer of President Wilson and Secretaries Lansing and Baker Depends the Future Status of Conference.

El Paso.—Gen. Alvaro Obregon, minister of war of the Mexican de facto government reached Juarez April 28 to confer with Maj. Gen. Scott and Funston on military questions involved in the American punitive expedition into Mexico.

Gen. Obregon, accompanied by Gen. Jacinto Trevino, military governor of Chihuahua; Gen. Samuel S. Santos, Gov. Enriquez of Chihuahua, and President José de Luz Herrera of Parral, came to Juarez on a special train.

Mexican officials here believe Obregon will assure America that when the last United States troops cross the boundary the de facto army will render future raids impossible.

Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott and Frederick Funston met Mexican Minister of War Alvaro Obregon in the customs house in Juarez on the night of April 28th.

The meeting was the formal preliminary to the opening of the international conference by which the right of the United States troops to continue the pursuit of Villa and his bandits is to be settled.

Official etiquette required that the two distinguished generals make the call, as Gen. Obregon is a member of the cabinet of the de facto government, by virtue of his office as minister of war.

Gen. Obregon, standing in a semi-circle formed by members of his staff, all of whom were dressed in service uniforms, received the American officers at the entrance to the reception room where the conference was held. Gen. Scott, in civilian dress, advanced first and shook hands with Obregon in vigorous American fashion, then proceeded to greet other Mexican officers present. Gen. Funston followed and went through the same formalities.

The presence in Northern Mexico of 40,000 Carranza troops was the most potent argument brought to the border by Gen. Obregon in his effort to convince Generals Scott and Funston that the American expeditionary forces should be withdrawn.

El Paso.—"United States troops can not remain in Mexico, whether one mile or 500 miles south of the border, without offending not only the de facto government, which I represent, but also the sovereign people of Mexico."

Minister of War Obregon made this statement April 30 after reading the Washington dispatch sent out by the International News Service. The comment followed the announcement that Gen. Scott had been urged to impress upon Gen. Obregon that American troops could be kept in Northern Chihuahua without offense to the de facto government.

This news was the first intimation received by Gen. Obregon of the probable attitude of Washington. He listened with great interest to the translation of the message, and several times asked that certain portions be repeated to him.

Mexican and American conferees over the disposition of the American forces in Mexico mark time while Gen. Hugh L. Scott and Frederick Funston await word from Washington as to the next step to be taken in the negotiations with Gen. Obregon.

The report of the American representatives on the first conference went forward by wire early. On the answer of President Wilson and Secretary Lansing and Secretary Baker to its recommendations depends the future status of the conference.

In the meantime the following facts developed: That to date the apparent intention of the Washington government to keep Gen. Pershing's columns in Mexico has not been changed.

That Gen. Obregon in Saturday's conference served no sort of notice on Gen. Scott and Funston that could be construed as an ultimatum demanding immediate withdrawal.

That the desire of the de facto government for withdrawal was again stated, but that the only discussion along this line was regarding the advisability of an American retirement.

SINK BRITISH SUBMARINE.

Berlin Claims British Cruiser Alap Hit By Torpedo.

Berlin.—The German admiral announced that the British submarine E22 had been sunk by German naval forces. The announcement also says a British cruiser of the Arctura class was hit by a torpedo from a German submarine.

"A German submarine on the same day hit with a torpedo a British cruiser of the Arctura class."

SAY BERLIN IS OPTIMISTIC

Developments Impending Which Demonstrate Desire of Emperor William to Retain Friendship.

Berlin.—The German answer to the American note may not be expected before the end of the week.

Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg and Admiral von Holtzendorff, chief of the naval general staff, departed for headquarters to consult with Emperor William in regard to the reply to the American note.

The chancellor's conference with James W. Gerard, the American ambassador, April 26, lasted for half an hour.

The Associated Press learns that developments are impending which demonstrate unmistakably the desire of Emperor William to follow a course which will lead Germany and the United States out of the present crisis. The situation is viewed more optimistically here.

Ambassador Gerard is still maintaining silence, following his latest conference with Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, but the Associated Press has been able to obtain information from other sources indicating that the outlook has improved.

NO BREAK LIKELY.

Gerard's visit to Kaiser May Settle Submarine Crisis.

Washington.—The visit of Ambassador Gerard to German army headquarters, at the personal invitation of Emperor William was regarded in Washington as the forerunner of a favorable reply to the American submarine demands.

An administration official familiar with the exchanges between Washington and Berlin, said without qualification there will be no break between the United States and Germany because of the latest acute phase of the submarine controversy.

The interpretation generally placed on the German mission was that Emperor William wished to obtain the ambassador's views as to what the United States expects Germany to do before the reply to the American note is forwarded.

PATTEN DIES IN CHICAGO

President of Chattanooga Firm Attending Trial of Libel Suits in Chicago Passes Away.

Chicago.—John A. Patten, president of the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, died at a local hospital on April 26 after a short illness.

Mr. Patten was here in attendance at the trial of libel suits which he and Z. C. Patten, Jr., owners of the medical company, had brought against the American Medical Association, for alleged libel in connection with articles published in the medical association journal.

The cause of Mr. Patten's death was poisoning through an ulcer in the intestines. He was taken ill, on the 25th and was hurried to a hospital, where it was said an operation offered the only hope of saving his life.

The operation was performed and death occurred shortly afterward.

DISCUSSION PRELIMINARY.

Washington Regards Conference at the Border as Proceeding Normally.

Washington.—While no inkling of the contents of Gen. Hugh L. Scott's report to Secretary Baker on his conference with Gen. Obregon, the Carranza war minister, was given out here, it was learned that administration officials regard the discussion as still in its preliminary stages.

Mr. Baker took the message to President Wilson before sending a reply. Afterward he declined to discuss the situation. Few other officials had any knowledge of the report, and these were equally silent. The impression prevailed, however, that they viewed the progress of the conference at the border as normal and regarded it up to this point merely as an exchange of views.

There is nothing to indicate that Gen. Obregon's views as to the withdrawal of the American expedition were presented as demands.

FIRST TO USE NEW ROUTE.

Holland-American Vessel Follows Newly Selected Course.

New York.—The freight steamship Westerdijk, first of the Holland-American vessels to follow the newly selected route north of Scotland on the voyage from Rotterdam to New York, arrived here in ballast. The change in the route was announced recently, war dangers being assigned as the reason. The line's ships formerly passed through the English channel, a voyage about five days shorter than the present one.

The Westerdijk put in at Kirkwall and 125 sacks of mail were removed by the British authorities, according to the officers.

AMBASSADOR THREATENED.

Anonymous Communication Received By Sir Cecil Spring Rice.

Washington.—The British ambassador, Sir Cecil Spring Rice, has received and referred to the state department an anonymous threatening communication, declaring that any treatment of Sir Roger Casement other than due to a prisoner of war of the highest rank would be a sentence of death against him "and other English servants in this country."

DAINTIES FOR TEA TABLE

Sandwiches of Many Kinds Are at the Command of the Hostess—Various Forms of Cakes.

Sandwiches of various kinds and dimensions are always a good beginning. Better have the loaf a day old, and sandwich bread, close crumb, is the best to make them with. Spread the butter on smoothly and add a thin layer of nut paste. The top slice will not need butter. Trim the crusts off and cut diagonally across. Even smaller sandwiches, making four out of the square, are large enough for the bite.

Finger rolls, very fresh, with a soft crust and a paste made of chicken mashed with the yolks of eggs, boiled six or seven minutes, and just a little milk to make it smooth, are very appetizing. Graham bread, buttered and sliced the same as the sandwich loaf, spread with a mixture of jam and cream cheese, is very nice, too.

Meat minced very fine, with some milk to moisten it for smooth spreading, or thin slices of tongue with graham bread, makes good sandwiches.

Fresh Boston-brown bread, mashed with cream cheese and sugar and made into balls, like butter, only smooth and larger, looks like great chocolate creams and makes a delicious titbit.

Meats that are potted and already minced into a paste for spreading of chicken, tongue and turkey make excellent sandwiches of white or brown bread.

If the sandwiches are made in the morning and intended for later use it is well to wrap each separately in paraffin paper. This will keep them soft and perfectly fresh until served.

Ginger nuts and cinnamon cakes have some snap to them, and macaroons and kisses are always ready at the baker's if the busy housewife is too rushed to make them.

It is not necessary to have so many kinds of sandwiches or cakes, but a choice of two or three of those mentioned here will be sufficient. The finger rolls are especially attractive, as they can be daintily disposed of without removing the gloves.

For Luncheon.

Omelette with tomato sauce is a delicious dish for luncheon. Beat the yolks of four eggs until foamy, then add two-thirds of a cupful of milk, with which has been mixed a teaspoonful of flour, one-third of a teaspoonful of baking powder and a pinch of salt. Beat well together, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites and bake in a buttered pan in a hot oven.

For the sauce melt a tablespoonful of butter in a saucepan and fry in it until brown a small, finely chopped onion. Add a little of any small vegetables and a half a can of tomatoes rubbed through a sieve. Thicken with a tablespoon of flour moistened with a smooth paste with salt and pepper and cook for five minutes, stirring constantly. Pour over the omelette as soon as it comes from the oven and serve hot.

Rice a la Conde.

One-fourth pound Carolina rice, two ounces butter, three ounces sifted sugar, one pint milk, one tin apricots or peaches, one teaspoonful vanilla essence, cherries and angelica. Wash the rice thoroughly in cold water, put into a pan of cold water and bring to a boil, then pour away the water. Add the milk and give until boiling. Then cook slowly for three-quarters of an hour, stirring occasionally. Add the butter, sugar and vanilla, and turn into a bordered mold—one with a hole in the center—and set aside to cool. When cold turn out, lift the center with apricots or peaches and decorate with cherries and angelica. The peaches should be cut in half and the juice poured around.

Good Round Steak.

A very palatable and economical dish can be made from a round steak as follows: Pound four into both sides of the steak, as much as the meat will take up. Fry in drippings or other fat in an ordinary pan or kettle, then add water to cover it. Cover the vessel tightly, so that no steam can escape, and allow the meat to simmer very gently for two hours. It is then ready to serve, the gravy being already thickened by the flour beaten into the steak. The gravy is delicious and far superior to the kind made in the ordinary way after the meat is cooked.

Vegetarian Turkey.

One-half pint mashed potato, half pint shelled English walnuts or pecans, one-half pint lentil pulp, one-half pint graham flour (coarse grains sifted out), two beaten eggs, two teaspoonfuls salt, one small onion minced, one teaspoonful sage, one heaping teaspoonful minced parsley and two tablespoonfuls butter. Mix ingredients, press in pan and steam one hour. Let cool, mold in shape of turkey and bake until brown. Baste with butter or meat stock. Serve with cranberry sauce.

Egg Sandwiches.

Try these for the lunch boxes: Boil as many eggs as desired until yolks are meaty. Chop the whites fine, add yolks rubbed to a paste. Moistened with salad dressing. Spread between slices of white or graham bread.

Fire Dish Cloths.

One would think there could be no possible use for an old lace curtain, but you will find in washing dishes three times a day that an old lace curtain, cut in squares, makes the finest of dish cloth.

INTELLIGENT DRUGGISTS KNOW WHAT KIDNEY MEDICINE TO USE

I have been selling Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root for six and one-half years and my customers are always satisfied with the results obtained from the use of the medicine and speak favorably regarding it. I have used it for "pain in the back" and a bottle or two put me in good shape and made me feel like again. I believe Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root will cure any cases for which it is recommended if they are not of too long standing. Very truly yours,

Not Altogether a Success.

"Yes," the young medico sighed, "the healing profession is full of difficulties. The other day, for instance, I had a patient who ought to have gone to a warmer climate. Couldn't afford it. I decided to try hypnosis. I painted a large sun on the ceiling and by suggestion induced him to think it was the sun."

"And how did it work?" inquired the listener.

The doctor passed a hand wearily over his brow.

"He's down with sunstroke," he said, sadly.

TRY DARKENING YOUR GRAY HAIR WITHOUT DYES

Shampoo your hair and scalp each morning for about a week with Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer. If your hair is gray, streaked with gray, prematurely gray or faded, brittle, thin or falling, all your hair will then be beautifully darkened and to such a natural, even dark shade no one would suspect that you had applied Q-Ban. Q-Ban is no dye, perfectly harmless, but makes all your hair soft, fluffy, thick, with that lustrous dark shimmer which makes your hair so fascinating. Big bottle sent prepaid or sold by druggists for 50c. Address Q-Ban Laboratories, Memphis, Tenn.—Adv.

AFTER SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING

Woman Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbus, Ohio.—"I had almost given up. I had been sick for six years with female troubles and nervousness. I had a pain in my right side and could not eat anything without hurting my stomach. I could not drink cold water at all nor eat any kind of raw fruit, nor fresh meat nor chicken. From 178 pounds I went to 118 and would get so weak at times that I fell over. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and ten days later I could eat and it did not hurt my stomach. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel like a new woman. I now weigh 127 pounds so you can see what it has done for me already. My husband says I owe your medicine has saved my life."

The SEA
WOLF
JACK LONDON

THE STORY OF A MAN WHO
IN HIS OWN
LITTLE WORLD
ABOARD SHIP
WAS A LAW
UNTO HIMSELF

SYNOPSIS.

Humphrey Van Weyden, critic and dilettante, is thrown into the water by the sinking of a ferryboat in a fog off San Francisco bay, and becomes unconscious before help reaches him. On coming to his senses he finds himself aboard the sailing schooner Ghost, Captain Wolf Larsen, bound to Japan waters.

CHAPTER II—Continued.

Pacing back and forth the length of the hatchway, and savagely chewing the end of a cigar, was the man whose casual glance had rescued me from the sea. His height was probably five feet ten inches, or ten and a half, but my first impression, or feel of the man, was not of this, but of his strength. He was firmly planted on his legs; his feet struck the deck squarely and with surety; every movement of a muscle, from the heave of the shoulders to the tightening of the lips about the cigar, was decisive, and seemed to come out of a strength that was excessive and overwhelming. In fact, though this strength pervaded every action of his, it seemed but the advertisement of a greater strength that lurked within, that lay dormant and no more than stirred from time to time, but which might arouse, at any moment, terrible and compelling, like the rage of a lion or the wrath of a storm.

The cook stuck his head out of the galley door and grinned encouragingly at me, at the same time jerking his thumb in the direction of the hatchway. Thus I was given to understand that he was the captain, the "Old Man," in the cook's vernacular, the individual whom I must interview and put to the trouble of somehow getting me ashore. I had half started forward, to get over what I was certain would be a stormy five minutes, when a suffocating paroxysm seized the unfortunate person who was lying on his back. He writhed and writhed about convulsively.

The captain, or Wolf Larsen, as men called him, ceased pacing and gazed down at the dying man. So fierce had this final struggle become that the sailor paused in the act of flinging more water over him and stared dazedly, the canvas bucket partly tilted and dripping its contents to the deck. The dying man beat a tattoo on the hatch with his heels, straightened out his legs, and stiffened in one great, tense effort. Then the muscles relaxed, and a sigh, as of profound relief, floated upward from his lips.

Then a most surprising thing occurred. The captain broke loose upon the dead man like a thunderclap. Oaths rolled from his lips in a continuous stream. And they were not namby-pamby oaths, or mere expressions of indecency. Each word was a blasphemy, and there were many words. They crisped and crackled like electric sparks. I had never heard anything like it in my life, or nor could I have conceived it possible. The cause of it all, as near as I could make out, was that the man, who was mate, had gone on a debauch before leaving San Francisco, and then had the poor taste to die at the beginning of the voyage and leave Wolf Larsen short-handed.

While I appreciated the power of the terrific denunciation that swept out of Wolf Larsen's mouth, I was inexplicably shocked. But the dead man was unconcerned. He was master of the situation.

CHAPTER III.

Wolf Larsen ceased pacing as suddenly as he had begun. He reloaded his cigar and glanced around. His eyes chanced upon the cook.

"Well, Cooky?" he began, with a suaveness that was cold and of the temper of steel.

"Yes, sir," the cook eagerly interpolated, with appeasing and apologetic servility.

"Don't you think you've stretched that neck of yours just about enough? It's unhealthy, you know. The mate's gone, so I can't afford to lose you too. You must be very careful of your health, Cooky."

His last word, in a striking contrast to his previous utterance, snapped like the flash of a whip. The cook quailed.

"Yes, sir," was the meek reply, as the offending head disappeared into the galley.

At this swiftest rebuke, which the cook had only just begun to feel, the rest of the crew became uninterested and fell to work at one task or another. A number of men, however, were lounging about the hatch, and one who did not seem to be talking in low tones. These, I saw, were the hunters, the men who shot the seals, and a vessel's main reliance.

"Johansen!" Wolf Larsen called out. A sailor stepped forward obediently. "Get your palm and needle and sew the beggar up. You canna be in the sail locker. Make it do."

"Any of you fellows got a Bible or prayerbook?" was the captain's next demand, this time of the hunters lounging about the mainmast.

They shook their heads, and someone made a jocular remark which I did not catch, but which raised a general laugh.

The captain shrugged his shoulders. "Then we'll drop him over without any palavering, unless our clerical-looking castaway has the burial service at sea by heart."

By this time he had swung around and was facing me.

"You're a preacher, aren't you?" he asked.

The hunters—there were six of them—to a man, turned and regarded me. I was painfully aware of my likeness to a scarecrow. A laugh went up at my appearance—a laugh that was not lessened or softened by the dead man stretched and grinning on the deck before us; a laugh that was as rough and harsh and frank as the sea itself; that arose out of coarse feelings and blunted sensibilities, from natures that knew neither courtesy nor gentleness.

Wolf Larsen did not laugh, though his gray eyes lighted with a light glint of amusement; and in that moment, having stepped forward quite close to him, I received my first impression of the man himself. The face, the jaw, the chin, the brow, rising to a goodly height and swelling heavily above the eyes—these, while strong in themselves, unusually strong, seemed to speak an immense vigor or virility of spirit that lay behind and beyond and out of sight.

The eyes, wide apart as the true artist's are wide, sheltering under a heavy brow and arched over by thick, black eyebrows, were of baffling, preternatural gray which was never twice the same; they were eyes that masked the soul with a thousand guises.

But to return. I told him that, unhappily for the burial service, I was not a preacher, when he sharply demanded:

"What do you do for a living?"

"I confess I had never had such a question asked me before, nor had I ever canvassed it. I was quite taken aback, and before I could find myself had stammered, 'I am a gentleman.'"

His lip curled in a swift sneer. "I have worked, I do work," I cried impetuously, as though he were my judge and I required vindication, and at the same time very much aware of my arrant idiocy in discussing the subject at all.

"For your living?"

"There was something so imperative and masterful about him that I was quite beside myself—'rattled,' as Furuseth would have termed it, like a quaking child before a stern schoolmaster."

"Who feeds you?" was his next question.

"I have an income," I answered stoutly, and could have bitten my tongue the next instant. "All of which, you will pardon my observing, has nothing whatsoever to do with what I wish to see you about."

But he disregarded my protest. "Who earned it? Eh? I thought so. Your father. You stand on dead men's legs. You've never had any of your own. You couldn't walk alone between two sunrises and hustle the meat for your belly for three meals. Let me see your hand."

His tremendous, dormant strength must have stirred, swiftly and accurately, or I must have slept a moment, for before I knew it he had stepped two paces forward, gripped my right hand in his, and held it up for inspection.

"I tried to withdraw it, but his fingers lightened, without visible effort, till I thought mine would be crushed, when he dropped it with a flint of disdain."

"Dead men's hands have kept it soft. Good for little else than dish-washing and scullion work."

"I wish to be put ashore," I said firmly, for I now had myself in control. "I shall pay you whatever you judge your delay and trouble to be worth."

He looked at me curiously. Mockery shone in his eyes.

"I have a counter-proposition to make, and for the good of your soul. My mate's gone, and there'll be a lot of promotion. A sailor comes aft to take mate's place, cabin-boy goes forward to take sailor's place, and you take the cabin-boy's place, sign the articles for the cruise, twenty dollars per month and found. Now what do you say? And mind you, it's for your own soul's sake. It will be the making of you. You might learn in time to stand on your own legs and perhaps to toddle along a bit."

But I took no notice. The sails of the vessel I had seen off to the southwest had grown larger and plainer. They were of the same schooner rig as the Ghost, though the hull itself, I could see, was smaller.

"That vessel will soon be passing us," I said, after a moment's pause. "As she is going in the opposite direction, she is very probably bound for San Francisco."

"Very probably," was Wolf Larsen's answer, as he turned partly away from me and cried out, "Cooky! Oh, Cooky!"

The Cockney popped out of the galley.

"Where's that boy? Tell him I want him."

"Yes, sir," and Thomas Muiridge fled swiftly aft and disappeared down another companionway near the wheel.

A moment later he emerged, a heavy-set young fellow of eighteen or nineteen, with a glowering, villainous countenance, trailing at his heels.

"What's your name, boy?"

"George Leach, sir," came the sulky answer, and the boy's bearing showed clearly that he divined the reason for which he had been summoned.

"Not an Irish name," the captain snapped sharply. "O'Toole or McCarthy would suit your mug a damn sight better."

I saw the young fellow's hands clench and the blood crawl scarlet up his neck.

"But let that go," Wolf Larsen continued. "You may have very good reasons for forgetting your name, and I'll like you none the worse for it as long as you toe the mark. Telegraph Hill, of course, is your port of entry. It sticks out all over your mug. Tough as they make them and twice as nasty. I know the kind. Well, you can make up your mind to have it taken out of you on this craft. Understand? Who shipped you, anyway?"

"McCready and Swanson, sir."

"Who got the advance money?"

"They did, sir."

"I thought as much. And damned glad you were to let them have it. Couldn't make yourself scarce too quick, with several gentlemen you may have heard of looking for you."

The boy metamorphosed into a savage on the instant. His body bunched together as though for a spring, and his face became as an infuriated beast's as he snarled, "It's a—"

"A what?" Wolf Larsen asked, a peculiar softness in his voice, as though he were overwhelmingly curious to hear the unspoken word.

The boy hesitated, then mastered his temper. "Nothin', sir. I take it back."

"And you have shown me I was right." This with a gratified smile. "How old are you?"

"Just turned sixteen, sir."

"A lie. You'll never see eighteen again. Big for your age, at that, with muscles like a horse. Pack up your kit and go forward into the fore-cabin. You're a boat-puller now. You're promoted; see?"

Without waiting for the boy's acceptance, the captain turned to the sailor who had just finished the gruel.

"I saw the Young Fellow's Hands Clench."

some task of sewing up the corpse. "Johansen, do you know anything about navigation?"

"No, sir."

"Well, never mind; you're mate just the same. Get your traps aft into the mate's berth."

"Ay, ay, sir," was the cheery response as Johansen started forward. In the meantime the erstwhile cabin-boy had not moved.

"What are you waiting for?" Wolf Larsen demanded.

"I didn't sign for boat-puller, sir," was the reply. "I signed for cabin-boy. An' I don't want no boat pullin' in mine."

deck alongside the corpse on his head and shoulders, where he lay and writhed about in agony.

"Well?" Larsen asked of me, "have you made up your mind?"

I had glanced occasionally at the approaching schooner, and it was now almost abreast of us and not more than a couple of hundred yards away. It was a very trim and neat little craft. I could see a large, black number on one of its sails, and I had seen pictures of pilot boats.

"What vessel is that?" I asked.

"The pilot-boat Lady Mine," Wolf Larsen answered grimly. "Got rid of her pilots and running into San Francisco. She'll be there in five or six hours with this wind."

"Will you please signal it, then, so that I may be put ashore?"

"Sorry, but I've lost the signal book overboard," he remarked, and the group of hunters grinned.

I debated for a moment, looking him squarely in the eyes. I had seen the frightful treatment of the cabin-boy, and knew that I should very probably receive the same, if not worse. As I said, I debated with myself, and then I did what I consider the bravest act of my life. I ran to the side, waving my arms and shouting:

"Lady Mine ahoy! Take me ashore! A thousand dollars if you take me ashore!"

I waited, watching two men who stood by the wheel, one of them steering. The other was lifting a megaphone to his lips. I did not turn my head, though I expected every moment a killing blow from the human brute behind me. At last, after what seemed centuries, unable longer to stand the strain, I looked around. He had not moved. He was standing in the same position, swaying easily to the roll of the ship and lighting a fresh cigar.

"What is the matter? Anything wrong?"

"That was the cry from the Lady Mine."

"Yes!" I shouted, at the top of my lungs. "Life or death! One thousand dollars if you take me ashore!"

"Too much 'Frisco tang' for the health of my crew!" Wolf Larsen shouted after. "This one"—indicating me with his thumb—"fancies sea serpents and monkeys just now!"

The man on the Lady Mine laughed back through the megaphone. The pilot-boat plunged past.

"Give him hell for me!" came a final cry, and the two men waved their arms in farewell.

WHERE LITTLE MEN WIN OUT

As a Rule They Have Much More Assurance Than Their Fellows Who Are Big.

As a rule, big men are shy and lacking in assurance. A daughter of the gods, divinely tall, fills them with something like terror. The woman who appeals to them is usually some sparkling, vivacious, fairylike creature with kittenish ways, and roguish glances. The little man, on the contrary, is seldom burdened with humility. He is a being of great aspirations and stupendous ambitions; he believes in himself, which is the reason why he generally can get the woman of his choice to smile upon him. The dainty, wee, Titillike woman possesses no charm for him.

"A nice little thing," he says of such a one. "Fall in love with her? Oh, she isn't grown up enough to inspire the tender passion."

He likes a woman to be one or two inches his superior and thoroughly mature. He reads any trace of the bread-and-butter schoolgirl. His ideal resembles the strong, heroic women Shakespeare has pictured, full-blooded and vital, full of character and spirit, with a fair spice of temper.

The big man dreads a woman's tongue. He is alarmed at the lightning of her eyes when they flash in anger; but the little man is amused, and rather likes it. That's one of the subtle secrets of the little man's mastery. Tall and willowy, with the promise of richer, rounder curves as the years go by, is the ideal of the little man. He admires a regal carriage, a touch of hauteur and, above all, style.

First United States Treasurer. Alexander Hamilton was the first secretary of the treasury (1789-95).

Michael Hillegas was the first United States treasurer. Hillegas was appointed to the office July 29, 1976, when he and George Clymer were chosen together in the formation of what was the germ of the treasury department. Hillegas served alone through practically his entire term, however, as Clymer soon resigned to take a seat as delegate to congress. Hillegas term expired September 11, 1793, and he was succeeded by Samuel Meredith. Both men were from Pennsylvania. The treasury department was formally organized by act of September 2, 1789, but, strictly speaking, this was merely a reorganization, for the department under various names had been in existence since 1774.

TECHNICALITIES ARE OVERRULED

SCHOOL ELECTION FOR CONSOLIDATION IN WARREN COUNTY IS UPHOLD.

COURT DENIES AN INJUNCTION

To Halt Tax Collections—County Board Said to Have Failed to Set Place and Time of Voting.

(Special Frankfort Correspondence.)

Frankfort.—The method of conducting elections for the consolidation of school districts and levying a tax for the support of the consolidated districts was discussed in an opinion of the court of appeals written by Judge Carroll, upholding an election to consolidate Woodburn and Mt. Zion districts of Warren county and a vote of a 25-cent tax levy. Buford Travelstead sued Sheriff Ray to enjoin the collection of the tax and was denied an injunction.

The county board called the election thirty days before the date set; but did not designate the place of holding the election or the hours or specify that officers should be chosen by the voters. The court said that Section 4395, Subsection 8, Kentucky Statutes, under which the election is held, provided only for thirty days' notice of the election, but did not specify the details of the manner of conducting it and the legislature intends these elections to be governed by the statutes covering school elections, "at a time fixed by the board of education at the school-house in the consolidated district, between the hours of 1 and 4 p. m., and the officers should be chosen by the voters before the polls open."

Notwithstanding the informality of the election, the court said an unusually big vote was polled and the voters knew the time and place and the question before them.

Final Increases Made.

Final increases have been made on the assessments of twenty-eight counties by the State Board of Equalization. They follow: Adair, Barren, Bath, Whitley, 10 per cent on lands and town lots; Allen, 5 per cent on lands, 6 per cent on town lots; Ballard, 20 per cent on lands, and 10 per cent on town lots; Bracken, 15 per cent on lands, and 5 per cent on town lots; Boyle, 5 per cent on lands; Breckinridge, 2 per cent on lands, and 5 per cent on town lots; Butler, 5 per cent on lands; Caldwell, 5 per cent on lands; Carroll, 5 per cent on lands, and 10 per cent on town lots; Clark, 5 per cent on lands; Christian, 2 per cent on town lots; Crittenden, 5 per cent on lands, and 5 per cent on town lots; Cumberland, 5 per cent on lands; Clinton, 15 per cent on lands, and 5 per cent on town lots; Davies, 3 per cent on lands and town lots; Estill, 12 per cent on lands; Elliott, 8 per cent on town lots; Edmonson, 20 per cent on town lots; Fulton, 20 per cent on lands; Fleming, 5 per cent on lands; Fayette, 2 per cent on lands, and Floyd, 20 per cent on town lots.

Road Bonds Valid. Road bond elections may be held at the regular elections, said the court of appeals, reversing the Campbell circuit court in the case of Frank Houston against County Judge J. E. Boltz and the fiscal court, seeking a mandatory injunction to require the fiscal court to issue $100,000 in road bonds and $150,000 in bonds for the purpose of turnpikes. Neither received two-thirds of the votes cast. The court held that the road bonds require only a majority to refuse to issue bonds, but must do so when the people have voted them. The bonds to purchase turnpikes, however, require two-thirds of all the votes necessary to carry, and this issue, therefore, was defeated. The latter would also carry a twenty-five-cent levy, which is inconsistent with the section of the Constitution authorizing road bond issues. This limit

RECORD OF THE PAST.

No Stronger Evidence Can be Had in Murray.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Any kidney sufferer should find comforting words in the following statement:

Mrs. I. L. Jones, N. Thirteenth St., Mayfield, Ky., says: "I was troubled a great deal by kidney complaint. The kidney secretions were unnatural and I felt miserable. Doan's Kidney Pills soon regulated the kidney action and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

OVER EIGHT YEARS LATER Mrs. Jones said: "We still use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and find them an excellent kidney medicine."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Jones has twice publicly recommended. Foster.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by continually failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucus surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Chicken Livers.

An old hen has a much larger liver than you in proportion to weight or food eaten. Then it follows that they get "billious" just like you do. They are grouchy, cross, unhappy. Start her liver and make her happy. Then she will lay eggs all winter. Come and get a package of B. A. Thomas' Poultry Powder. Feed it occasionally. See your hens perk up—hear them sing—look for eggs. Your money back if it fails.—Sexton Bros.

Settlement Notice.

Notice is hereby given that all persons holding claims against the estate of T. G. Tourmond, deceased, are hereby notified to present same to me, properly proven, on or before May 20, 1916, or be forever barred from collecting same. And all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate must make settlement on or before said date. This April 20, 1916.—T. B. Tourmond, Administrator. 4230

WADLINGTON & COMPANY'S Two Weeks' Specials

SAT., MAY 6 to 20 INCLUSIVE

We are determined to make May the greatest month for business that we have had since we have been in Murray. To do this we have got to start the month with all the rush of business that we can. Now, we are not going to advertise a lot of old odds and ends or carried stock at a reduction, but everything advertised is of new Spring Goods, unless marked (carried stock). You know it is our policy to never carry any stock from one season to the next if we can help it, and this being a late spring, together with our desire to make May our banner month makes it necessary for us to put on this Special Sale right at the time when the goods advertised will do you the greatest good, as you yet have the greater part of the season ahead of you in which to use the goods.

Goods of every kind are advancing in price every day; considering this fact and the low prices we are making you can readily see that it will be to your interest to come at once and supply all your needs, as these prices cannot and will not be equalled by any house in Murray. Notice there will be no cut in prices on goods that are not advertised, so please don't ask it, or come expecting it, for we do not want to disappoint anyone.

	Oxfords and Pumps that sold from $2.50 to $3.50. Sale price
	Nothing off on this spring's shoes, so don't ask it.

We are the people who originated the low prices on high class merchandise. Be honest with yourself and just stop and think. Did you ever know a house in Murray to put on a real cut price sale on new high class merchandise before we opened up here two years ago? We have been told by many of the best people in Murray and Calloway county that this was never the case here until we came to your town. While this is no general sale on all lines, you will find our prices on every class of merchandise LOWER THAN ANY HOUSE IN MURRAY. We will not dare ask you to take our word for this, but the doors of every dry goods house in Murray are open every day in the week and you can get their prices and then give us a look and see for yourself just what you can save by shopping at Wadlington's. If for any reason you haven't bought goods of us just ask your neighbor if what we say is not true.

We are the exclusive Dry Goods and Ladies' and Children's Store in Murray. We give these lines our whole attention, and in doing this we can keep right up with the market and know just when and where to buy. Our goods are all marked in plain figures, and you can see for yourself just what we are charging everyone.

If You Have Eggs or Chickens Just Bring Them Along, We Can Use Them.

Which Do You Prefer?

It is important for reasons of health and practical economy for every housekeeper to ask herself this question:

"Do I prefer a pure baking powder like Royal, made of cream of tartar derived from grapes, or am I willing to use a baking powder made of alum or phosphate, both derived from mineral sources?"

The names of the ingredients printed on the label show whether the kind you are now using or any brand, new or old, that may be offered is a genuine cream of tartar powder, or merely a phosphate or alum compound.

Royal Baking Powder contains no alum nor phosphate.

PACKED HOUSE EXPECTED AT HOGWALLOW PLAY MAY 12TH

The Fulton Leader of April 29 says the Hogwallow play, presented by George Bingham in that city last Friday night, was without doubt one of the most original and enjoyable productions ever seen in that city. It was greeted there, as at Mayfield and Paducah, by a very large audience. The play is written around Bingham's mythical village of "Hogwallow, Ky."

and twenty or thirty people are made up to represent and look like these Hogwallow folks, which have become well known through the United States through the Hogwallow Kentuckian and the Judge Magazine.

The play is given in Murray under the auspices of the U. D. C. Some of the features of the play are the Excelsior Fiddling Band, the Tickville Brass Band, and a genuine, old-fashioned, backwoods square dance, the latter taking place in the last act. There will also be much music of the better class throughout the play. This play will be presented in Murray Friday night, May 12, at the opera house.

Church of Christ.

You are invited to hear the following subjects next Lord's day morning and evening: Morning: "Walking With God." Evening: "The Outward and the Inward in Religion." These subjects are brimful of real interest to every child of the King. How close God's child can walk with Him and how vital may be that communion will be shown in the former. How the outward acts of obedience are related to the heart promptings, showing how we "obey from the heart," will be investigated in the latter subject. Bible classes at 9:45 a. m.—T. B. Mrs. C. D. Jagoe, who has been here the past several weeks the guest of her daughters, Mrs. Edwin Wilkerson and Mrs. Clyde Downs, returned to her home in Cadiz the latter part of the past week.

Mrs. Lee Paschall, Crossland section of the county, was received at the Murray Surgical Hospital the past week where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. She is recovering rapidly.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

VITAL SUBJECTS BEFORE AGENTS

DOMESTIC ENGINEERS DISCUSS
BIG PROBLEMS WHICH CEN-TER IN THE FARM HOME.

FROM ALL PARTS OF STATE

Twenty-Five Counties of Kentucky
Are Represented at Meeting at State University.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.
Lexington, Ky.—Home sanitation, juvenile lunches and poultry clubs were subjects of major interest at the sessions of the women demonstrators from 25 counties who attended the State university in a ten days'
course of instruction. All activities of the farm home were embraced in the field of study mapped out for this conference, and a new phase of domestic engineering was taken up each day.

Great objectives of the work which the government is prosecuting in Kentucky were read in the subjects of discussions and addresses. Among topics were the disposal of waste from the home, care of the sick, suitable clothing for country children, pattern making and alteration, breeding and selection of poultry, marketing poultry and marketing home products, canning in glass and in tin, home supplies, invalid cookery, prevention of disease, physiological effects of bad cooking, food in relation to health,
dress and hat making, saving steps,
utilization of waste, standardization of products. The agents who participated in the conference—pioneers of a band who will carry the work into every county of the commonwealth—
are: Mary Burrier, Paris, Bourbon; Mary Frances Brown, Shelbyville;
Theodosia Barnett, London,
Laurel; Iris Bogess, Greenville, Muhlenberg; Mrs. Ailie S. Cope, Paducah, McCracken; Roxie Campbell, Williamsburg, Whitley; Paulette Davis,
Louis, Lawrence; Jessie Florence,
Whitley City, McCreary; Mrs. Julia
Gentry, Mt. Vernon, Rockcastle; Mrs.
May K. Geary, Monticello, Wayne;
Mrs. Anna B. Goddard, Harrodsburg, Mercer; Mrs. Eloise N. Graves, Hopkinsville, Christian; Mrs. Jennie C.
Grubbs, Junction City, Boyle; Hester

Jonas, Louisville, and Aubyn Chinn, Lexington. State agent—Mrs. Helen B. Wolcott, Lexington.

PADUCAH CLUB IS INDICTED.

Former Mayor Hazelip and Several Other Officers Are Accused.

Paducah, Ky.—The McCracken county grand jury has returned seventeen indictments against the Independent club, an alleged political organization,
and City Commissioner Thomas N.
Hazelip, George Jacobs, John Hast, alleged officers of the club; Casper Jones and Kelly Franklin. One bill was returned against the club for alleged gambling; one bill against Hazelip, Jacobs, Hast and Jones on the charge of assisting in setting up and operating a game of chance; six bills against the same charged with selling intoxicating liquor without a license, and nine bills against Hazelip, Jacobs, Hast, Jones and Franklin for alleged selling intoxicating liquor on Sunday. Hazelip formerly was mayor.

INTERCOUNTY SEAT ROAD BEGUN

Surveyors at Work—Bids to Be Asked Soon on Shelbyville-Lagrange Pike.

Lagrange, Ky.—W. E. Roe, dean of the engineering department of the University of Kentucky, with a corps of surveyors, will soon begin on the survey of the intercounty seat road from Lagrange to Shelbyville. District Engineer H. E. Read and Judge De-Haven completed the viewing of the road and as soon as the survey is completed bids will be asked for and the work of reconstruction will begin.
Judge Ralph Gilbert, who met the viewing party at Squire Robert Mallory's, said that as soon as the Oldham authorities selected the route from Ballardsville he would take up the matter with his court and Shelby county's route would be chosen.

SEVERAL DEMANDS WITHDRAWN

Louisville, Ky.—Though concessions have been made by both sides, representatives of the United Mine Workers, Western District of Kentucky, and of the operators in session here,
have not yet been able to arrive at an agreement. The miners now are willing to forego their demand for an increase of three cents a ton for mine run work and 5 per cent for day work and, accept the scale prevailing at the present time. The operators have withdrawn their demand.

SUES TO COLLECT TAXES

State Agent Sues Estate of L. V. Harness, Valued at $141,100,000.

Lexington, Ky.—Walton Byars, of Louisville, revenue agent for the state-at-large, filed suit in the county court against Harry S. Harkness, executor of the estate of L. V. Harness, for five years' back taxes, interest and penalty, on personal property valued at $141,100,000. "Byars"
entry into the field institutes a contest
between the sheriff of Fayette county, T. C. Bradley; County Attorney Hogan Yancey and W. W. Muir, state revenue agent, on one side, and Byars on the other. Byars declares in his petition that he has the approval of L. B. Green, supervisor of the revenue agents of Kentucky. At the sheriff's office it was announced that Green's approval had nothing to do with the case.

KENTUCKY BREVITIES

Whitesburg, Ky.—Fifteen indictments charging polluting streams in Letcher county were returned by the grand jury just before its final closing.

Paintsville, Ky.—A disastrous fire which did considerable damage at Chandlersville, this county, destroyed
the post office with a large supply of stamps and mail.

Hopkinsville, Ky.—All the druggists
in the city have entered into an agreement whereby, beginning next week,
all but one of the stores will be closed
all day Sundays.

Cynthiana, Ky.—The fourth annual Sunday School convention of the Union Association of Baptists was held at the Cynthiana Baptist church. A large delegation was present and some of the most learned speakers in the Southern Baptist church attended.

Trenton, Ky.—Howard Smith, of Huntington, Ind., the new owner of the famous "Big Pond," six miles south of this city, has just begun draining the pond. There are more than 200 acres in the pond and for years it has been the mecca of sportsmen for fish and wild ducks.

Bloomfield, Ky.—The District Conference for the Shelbyville district is being held in the Methodist church and about 110 delegates and preachers are present. Among the speakers are the Rev. B. C. Horton, of Lagrange; Dr.
H. M. Dubose, of Nashville, Tenn.; the Rev. F. K. Struve and the Rev. C.
Humphrey Greer.

Owensboro, Ky.—Fire in the business district of Owensboro did damage to the amount of at least $40,000. The fire started in the dry goods store of Frank C. Brown, on Second street, and the building was destroyed, with a loss of over $18,000. The fire then jumped to other buildings, causing a total loss of $40,000.

Paducah, Ky.—Paducah is seeking the annual encampment of the state militia this year and local industrial organizations will put forth a strong effort to secure it. This year, there will be a joint encampment of the Kentucky and Tennessee militias, and a company from the United States army will attend.

Whitesburg, Ky.—Five moonshiners' establishments, including three copper still, one of seventy-gallon capacity, were destroyed in a raid through the Rockhouse Creek and Kentucky River sections of Letcher county led by Marshal U. G. McFarland, of Glasgow, and Marshals S. W. Phatte and John Rid-die, of Whitesburg.

Harlan, Ky.—The term of office of Miss Nannie L. Ward, postmistress, will expire in August. She was appointed by President Taft and has been allowed to serve out her term.
There are a number of applicants for the appointment. Senator Beckham, who probably will recommend the appointee, has not indicated whom he will name.

Island, Ky.—The first annual meeting of Dayless County Sunday School convention was held with Island Battist church last week. Speakers announced were: The Rev. Sam P. Martin, Prof. A. Powell, M. J. Holbrook, C.
W. Wells and W. B. Rowe. The women of Island Baptist church served basket dinner under the trees in the grove near the church.

Island, Ky.—Work has been resumed
here on sinking the shaft of the E. M.
T. Coal Company, a mine which is being opened at this point. Work was started on this mine last fall, but had to be stopped on account of inclement weather. Work will be rapidly pushed now on building a railroad to connect with the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company.

Cassile, Ky.—A large consignment of fish taken from breeding ponds in Bourbon county are to be distributed in the streams of Nicholas county soon. The fish will be brought here by the State Fish and Game Department.

Flemingsburg, Ky.—A petition was filed in the Fleming county court asking that an election be called to determine whether this county should issue bonds to the extent of $150,000 for good roads. The date of the election has not yet been fixed.

ENCAMPMENT OF KENTUCKY G. A. R.

VETERANS FROM ALL PARTS OF
STATE CONGREGATE IN LEX-INGTON FOR AFFAIR.

PROMINENT MEN PRESENT

Doors Are Opened to Enemies of Fifty Years Ago—National Commander
Speaks at "Camp Fire."

Western Newspaper Union News Service.
Lexington, Ky.—The 34th annual encampment of the Kentucky Department, Grand Army of the Republic, convened here for a two days' session.
Members of the John C. Breckinridge
Camp, United Confederate Veterans, joined with the G. A. R. in giving them welcome, and some even opened their homes to their "enemies" of 50 years ago.

With more than 100 veterans representing thirty odd posts from all parts of Kentucky registered, the meeting was called to order by Commander
John T. Gunn. The morning session was given over strictly to business, while in the evening a great
"campfire" held the attention of the visitors. Among the prominent visitors here who are identified with the organization are: E. R. Monfort, of Cincinnati, commander in chief of the National G. A. R.; Col. A. E. Stephens, of Cincinnati; Col. John McElroy, of Washington, D. C.; Col. D. J. Palmer, of Washington, Iowa, and Capt. Edwin Farley, of Paducah.

National Commander E. R. Monfort, Cincinnati, at the same campfire meeting, said the country should be by all means stand loyal to "One great leader, President Woodrow Wilson," and he pledged the support of the G. A. R.
to the president in any difficulty that might arise between this and another nation.

Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, leader of the campaign in Kentucky for woman suffrage, welcomed the women visitors to the city on account of the G.
A. R. gathering.

2,600 STRENGTH OF MILITIA

Three Infantry Regiments, a Medical Department and Signal Corps.

Louisville, Ky.—Twenty-six hundred officers and enlisted men constitute the peace strength of the Kentucky
National Guard, as at present organized, according to the latest official roster. Three complete regiments of infantry, a medical department and a signal corps company compose the organization. The program for mobilization in Kentucky, in event the guardsmen were called upon, would have to be worked out largely subsequent to receipt of mobilization orders, according to Adj. Gen. J. Tandy Ellis, "but it is believed that mobilization could be effected in a reasonable time without unnecessary confusion and delay and in ample time for the service that the government probably would desire."

While no permanent mobilization camp site has been designated for the forces in Kentucky, the matter is being considered by the war department and state authorities. As soon as a site is decided upon complete plans for mobilization will be drawn. Brig.
Gen. Roger D. Williams, Lexington, commands the First brigade, composed of the state's entire force. Headquarters of the First regiment, commanded by Col. William A. Colston, is in Louisville.

ROAD FUNDS ARE APPORTIONED.

Trenton, Ky.—The Good Roads Commissioners of Todd county met recently and apportioned by magisterial districts the funds to be realized from the $200,000 bond issue to be voted June 10 as follows: Elkton, $45,000;
Guthrie, Allen'sville and Haden'sville,
$37,000; Trenton, $29,000; Fairview,
$25,000; Kirkmansville and Allegree,
$32,000; Clifty and Sharon Grove
$32,000.

CAN ONLY HOLD ONE OFFICE.

Newport, Ky.—"No man can serve two masters," was the Biblical quo-tion of Circuit Judge Wolf in his decision to the effect that Joseph Hermann can not hold the office of City Commissioner of Newport and the office of City Engineer of Bellevue. Under his ruling Hermann may continue in the Newport office, but must vacate the other.

$25,000 LEFT TO BERE A COLLEGE.

Berea, Ky.—Miss Martha H. Andrews, member of an old New York family, who died February 5, bequeathed the bulk of her estate, valued at $1,150,000, to religious, educational and charitable institutions, most of which are in New York City. Bequests of $50,000 each were made to the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute in Alabama and the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute in Virginia. Berea college, of this city, was left $25,000.

RUNNING HIM OUT OF TOWN

LET'S BE NEIGHBORLY TIME TO CLEAN UP HERE

Spotless Town Means Happier and Healthier People.

We Should "Clean Up and Paint Up"
This Community at Once to Protect Our Families.

NEIGHBORHOOD improvement is home improvement multiplied. It is the sum of all the efforts made to make houses look attractive and beautiful.

Neighborhood improvement illustrates the influence of a good deed well done. On a dingy street one householder starts to improve the appearance of his home. He keeps yard and house spick and span. He paints his house, fences and outbuildings. He plants grass, flowers and shrubbery.
Soon his neighbors notice the improvement. They begin to clean up, paint up and green up. Within a few months the street is transformed.

It not only looks better, but it is better. People are happier and more neighborly. Property values have increased. Neighborhood improvement has worked a "before and after"
change that is really wonderful.

One of the modern poets has been inspired by neighborhood improvement work in his own town to express himself in the following language:

Little beds of flowers,
Little cans of paint,
Make attractive neighborhoods
Out of those that ain't.

In many villages, towns and cities Clean Up and Paint Up effort has become popular in recent years. The immediate results have been a marked improvement in the appearance of the places in which they have been attempted.

In a certain western town one of the residence streets with a row of about fifteen houses was the shame of all the public-spirited citizens. Houses were greatly in need of repairs and paint. They looked bad and they kept looking worse every year. Finally one of the good citizens got an idea. He went to the owner of the house in the middle of the block.

"I want to make you a proposition," he said. "If you will permit me I will give you, without cost, all the paint necessary to paint your house if you will do the work."

The owner accepted the proposition and later the paint was delivered. The philanthropist exacted the promise that the owner would not tell any of his neighbors that the paint was a gift.

In the course of time the house was painted and the effect was marvelous to behold. Like a new house it stood among its dingy neighbors as conspicuous as a fairy in a minstrel show.
The owners of the other houses noticed the contrast. They saw how miserably poor the newly painted house made theirs look. One after the other they went to the stores and ordered paint. During that season every one of the fifteen houses was painted and the premises cleaned and the street became one of the best looking in town.

That is what was accomplished
when one man started to improve his home. If whole neighborhoods, street by street, should start to improve in our town what a tremendous difference it would make in the appearance of this community. Let's get together and try it.

Let Us Win the "Spotless Town"
Title for Ourselves.

Officials, Business Men, Women and Others Will Work to Make Place
Inviting and Healthful.

Our town ought to have a cleaning
such as has never been known here before. The alleys, the lots, the buildings, the homes, in fact, all parts of the place should undergo general renovation. When it is all over we should be able to give it the title of "Spotless Town." Let us get together and start something.

The housewife should get to her spring housecleaning. Mr. Hubby should be beating the carpets. It's the time to Clean Up and Paint Up.

In other communities North, South, East and West, the Clean Up and Paint Up period has always been a big success. For that reason under the present activity and growth, our town should be able to show results that will compare favorably with other communities. The business men will show an interest in the movement and will lend support in any way possible to aid in the cleaning up. They think the Clean Up and Paint Up movement is a mighty good one, not only to advertise, but to make the town attractive for the visitor.

A woman in Bay City, Mich., where the Clean Up and Paint Up campaign was a big event last year, became disgruntled because she had worked dif-ficultly all week cleaning her own premises while her next-door neighbor refused to touch even a weed. To ward the end of the campaign this woman saw her next-door neighbor go downtown, leaving the cluttered-up premises behind.

Taking three other neighbors with her, the woman went next door and "cleaned up." Even the weeds were dug out of the grass before the rest dent returned from downtown. And when she did, there was a neighborhood row. Mrs. Next-door declared the others had no right to clean up her premises. But in the end, the street and the neighborhood was better for it. This year Mrs. N— probably will Clean Up and Paint Up voluntarily and gladly.

Only one example, yet this little example was heralded in many weekly magazines and some of the big newspapers, giving Bay City more publicity in one day than might have been earned otherwise in twenty years.

The civic league, the Federation of Women's Clubs, the Boy Scouts, the board of health, the city council and many other civic and official organizations stand behind the movement in practically every city and town in the United States.

Get Rid of Weeds.

In connection with the Clean Up and Paint Up campaign in this community it has been wisely suggested that we take steps to remedy the un-sightliness of weed-grown vacant lots
all over town. There is no reason why it cannot be done.

CLEAN UP AND PAINT UP!

How to Start a Campaign That Will Produce
Results in Our Town.

FIRST: Take your telephone in hand—get a half-dozen boosters together—"the fewer the quicker" you'll get started. Talk it over and before you part, agree upon a meeting to be held a day or two later—each of you agreeing to have present at that meeting other certain ones whose interest will be valuable, especially some public official and some physicians who can tell about the need of public and private cleanliness.

Second: When the meeting is called, organize at once.
Select a chairman and other officers (we suggest enough vice chairmen to include every co-operating organization and interest), and instruct the new chairman to appoint all the chairmen of the various sub-committees within a day or two—these and the officers to constitute the general committee. There should be committees on co-operation, finance and publicity, one to provide wagons for rubbish collection, one to obtain the co-operation of the school children, and one to interest all merchants.

Adopt a resolution requesting the board of health to proclaim the opening of the Campaign for the Cleaning, Sanitation and Beautification of the town.

Adjourn, after fixing date for a Get-to-Work meeting a few days later, which all these chairmen and members of their committees will attend to plan their work.

Third: Write to Chairman Allen W. Clark of the National "Clean Up and Paint Up" campaign bureau, Kinloch building, St. Louis, Mo., and get free literature telling how to clean up and paint up the town, together with reports of results in cities, towns and villages throughout the country.

Fourth: Get as many men and women as possible to WORK, each at some specific thing. Don't make the mistake of heaping upon one willing and patient enthusiast all the detail and responsibility of this work. Committees to do specific work, and chairmen who will think and work and inspire suggestions and zeal among the members of their committees, are essential.

You'll want enough committees to put everybody to work; but not too many committees to complicate and confuse. Select a half dozen or more for specific work, and do well that specific work.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get things just right, begin drinking phosphated hot water. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach. To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your druggist or storekeeper a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish tinge which is not unpleasant. Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.—Adv.

DICTATED BY GREED

Shameful Policies Formulated by Manufacturers.

Summed Up, It Would Appear That the Cotton Manufacturers' Association Stands for Extortion, Cruelty, Tyranny, and Monopoly.

The American Cotton Manufacturers' association, in session at Atlanta, enthusiastically adopted resolutions demanding a high protective tariff, the defeat of the child-labor bill in congress, the denial of Philippine independence and the legalization of combinations to control foreign trade. Why nothing was said in favor of burglary and abduction is not explained. We do not believe that our business men are as vicious as the policies of the lackeys supported by their organization often make them appear. In this declaration an important element of producers subscribed to extortion, cruelty, tyranny and monopoly. Practically all the social and political advancement made by humanity since the days of John Hampton was belied and repudiated in these utterances.

Only one excuse was made for such a platform of abomination, and that was fear. There is fear that the present prosperity will not last; that European competition after the war will be deadly; that humanity toward childhood will shorten the supply of cheap labor, and that freedom in the Philippines may restrict a market. Fear is one of the basest of passions, because it is made a cover for violence and injustice.

Many people are inclined to marvel at the desperation to which war has brought the highly-civilized nations of Europe. Here under conditions of profound peace we have a spirit no less rapacious. War is greed with arms in its hands, but it is open and unashamed. The greed of the cotton manufacturers is war by indirection, but the weapons that it uses are those which progress always disclaims and withholds.

PITY THE POOR STEEL TRUST

Report of Business Conditions Shows How Badly "Infant Industry" is in Need of Protection.

The National Bank of the Republic of this city has published the following analysis of the steel business in general and that of the steel trust in particular:

"The unfilled orders of this one producer on February 29 reached the largest total ever reported. Incoming business was 60 per cent in excess of shipments, although the orders already on the books would be sufficient to maintain the present output for more than six months without the acquisition of a single additional order. The existing demand for steel products is estimated to be just double the productive capacity. The rising prices are met without hesitancy. Pig iron production is now at a yearly rate of nearly 40,000,000 tons, and the greater part of this output is contracted for six months in advance."

Consider further that the demand for steel products will not decline at the close of the war, owing to the enormous reconstruction necessary. Under such circumstances, isn't it positively pitiful that the poor steel trust must face the future without any mortgage on the White House and without being able to bar all foreign metal goods from the United States by an Aldrich tariff?—Chicago Journal.

Honest Tariff.

The Democratic view of the tariff was possibly best stated by Senator Underwood, who, as a member of the house, helped to frame the original tariff measure. "Our tariff," Mr. Underwood said, "has succeeded in reducing the tariff wall. If there has been mistakes made on some points, they have been mistakes of the head and not of the heart."

Not An Ideal Cry.

Those well-meaning persons who demand a ringing utterance from potential presidential nominees on the issues of 1916 would occupy a more intelligible position if they would kindly indicate just what the issues of 1916 will be. Among them, anything to beat Wilson may leave something to be desired.—Indianapolis Star.

That Perpetual Candidate.

It may be stated with accuracy that there are no candidates at the present time for the Republican nomination in the usual acceptance of the term—Senator Penrose.

Or perhaps he intended to say only one candidate in an unusual acceptance of the term, and he the usual one.

Oyster Bay Theory.

Mr. Roosevelt's devotion to the United States, as set forth in his latest manifesto, is not to the United States over which Woodrow Wilson presides, but to a United States of the future which will be worthy of every man's loyalty because Mr. Roosevelt himself will be at the head of it. Until that happy day arrives, it is the Oyster Bay theory that every American is at liberty to sandbag the president, jayhawk the army and navy and hang the old flag bottom side up.

TAKES THE PLACE OF DANGEROUS CALOMEL

New Discovery! Dodson's Liver Tone Acts Like Calomel But Doesn't Gripe, Salivate or Make You Sick—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Harmless Liver Medicine for Men, Women, Children—Read Guarantee!

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work. Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated, or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight. Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Adv.

Nonsensical.
A naval officer said in a naval argument at a Washington reception: "Some of these naval critics show such appalling ignorance of the simplest sea terms—their criticisms become in consequence such arrant nonsense—Really, it reminds me of the recipe for shirred eggs." The humorous recipe for shirred eggs runs: "Shirred eggs: Take six eggs, peel carefully, remove the yolks and baste the whites with No. 40 cotton. Cut yolks into quarter sections and sew them to the white at regular intervals, fastening with knots of orange silk. Gather top edge with pink twine and draw to a circle. Roast before open gas jet."

Not the Gordian Knot.
"What is your name, sir?"
"My name is Knott Martin, your honor."
"Well, what is it?"
"It is Knott Martin."
"Not Martin again? We don't ask what your name is not, but what it is. No contempt of court, sir!"
"If your honor will give me leave, I'll spell my name."
"Well, spell it."
"K-n-o-double-t, Knott, M-a-r-t-i-n, Martin."

Oh, very well, Mr. Martin; we are through it now, but it is one of the most knotty cases we have had before us for some time.

EXPERIMENTS
Teach Things of Value.

Where one has never made the experiment of leaving off coffee and drinking Postum, it is still easy to learn something about it by reading the experiences of others.

"Drinking Postum is a pleasant way out of coffee troubles. A Penn. man says: 'My wife was a victim of nervousness, weak stomach and loss of appetite for years; and although we resorted to numerous methods for relief, one of which was a change from coffee to tea, it was all to no purpose. We knew coffee was causing the trouble but could not find anything to take its place until we tried Postum. Within two weeks after she quit coffee and began using Postum almost all of her troubles had disappeared as if by magic. It was truly wonderful. Her nervousness was gone, stomach trouble relieved, appetite improved and, above all, a night's rest was complete and refreshing.'"

"This sounds like an exaggeration, as it all happened so quickly. Each day there was improvement, for the Postum was undoubtedly strengthening her. Every particle of this good work is due to drinking Postum in place of coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled, 15c and 25c pkgs. Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both forms are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup. "There's a Reason" for Postum. —sold by Grocers

TO KEEP HER FROM FALLING

Would Have to Catch Hold of Things. Lost Strength and Flesh. Doctor Recommended Cardui. Results Gratifying.

Brookhaven, Miss.—"I am in fine health now," writes Mrs. H. M. Russell, of R. F. D. 5, of this place, "and have been for some time. I owe this good health to Cardui. I am certain. I think I would have been dead before this if I had not taken that medicine. I was down in bed five months last summer. I had chronic inflammation of the uterus, so the doctor said. I suffered untold misery, mostly in my right side, but both sides hurt me—aching constantly. I got to the place where I couldn't even eat without severe pain. I had much headache and would often be quite blind from dizziness. I would have to catch hold of things to keep from falling. I lost all my strength and flesh. I became so poor that I was just bones covered with skin. The doctor, on his visit told me to get Cardui and go to taking it. I took eight bottles in 3 months. In just a few days after starting with it, I began to improve and kept on until I got completely well. Today I am in really good health. I can do anything in the world in the shape of work. I am sure that I owe this all to Cardui. I would like to tell all women so."

Careful St. Jo. Mothers Treat Children's Colds Externally

They Say Internal Dosing Harms Delicate Little Stomachs—"Outside" Applications Better.

Careful mothers everywhere realize that internal medicines are injurious to the delicate stomachs of the little folks. Still croup and cold troubles must have some form of treatment. The answer to this problem is the Southern "external" treatment Vap-O-Rub. This was introduced in St. Jo, Mo., for the first time last winter, and a number of ladies were presented with complimentary jars by their druggists on condition that they give Vap-O-Rub a thorough test. Here are the reports from several of these ladies—

Mrs. Sam House, 1206 Prospect Ave., writes—"My little daughter had Diphtheria last fall, and now every little cold she takes settles in her throat. We have thought twice she was going to have Diphtheria again, but during one of her bad spells my druggist sent me a jar of Vap-O-Rub. I used it for four nights on her throat with such good results that now I don't like to be without it. I have used it on myself and my husband for bad colds and have found it just fine."
Mrs. John Paynter, 2432 S. 17th St.,

writes: "My druggist sent me a trial jar of Vap-O-Rub, which I soon had occasion to try on my 'croupy' baby. Before putting her to sleep for the night, I applied the salve over her chest and throat, with my fingers. The results proved very satisfactory, and now I would not be without it."

Mrs. M. A. Myers, 2943 Sylvan Ave., says—"When our three year old boy had a severe cold, about a month ago, I tried a jar of Vap-O-Rub. I rubbed it on his chest and let him inhale it, and he was relieved almost immediately, and got better in a few days. I think your remedy is the best thing for colds we have ever used."

Vick's Vap-O-Rub comes in salve form, and when applied to the heat of the body the ingredients are vaporized by the body warmth. These vapors, inhaled all night long, carry the medication with each breath, through the air passages, to the lungs. Vick's will be found better than internal medicine for all forms of cold troubles—from head colds, catarrh and asthmatic troubles—down to deep chest colds, bronchitis, sore throat or incipient pneumonia. Three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00.

Mrs. John L. Wrather Buried Sunday

Mayfield, Ky., May 1.—The funeral services of Mrs. John L. Wrather, who died last week in Houston, Texas, was held from her former home, known as the Grant place, five miles south of Mayfield on the Stubblefield road, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The body arrived here at 12:30 Saturday night and was taken direct to her old home during the early Sunday morning hours. Rev. J. J. Castleberry, pastor of the First Christian church, made a brief and impressive talk and the congregation was dismissed with an appropriate and impressive prayer by Uncle Matt Rogers. The services were attended by a large gathering of relatives and old neighbors of the deceased from the city and country. The body was laid to rest in the family graveyard.

Mr. Wrather was a resident of the Kirksey section of Calloway, leaving here some few years ago to make his home in Texas. He has many friends in the county who will regret to learn of the death of his wife.

Mortuary

Mrs. Johnnie Seawright, wife of Eugene Seawright, died Sunday morning of paralysis. Mrs. Seawright was one of the most highly respected and beloved ladies in this community, and to say that she numbered her friends by the score is expressing the esteem in which she was held mildly. The Christian fortitude with which she bore her suffering, the words of comfort and cheer she gave to Christians while sick and the burning message of warning to those who were not prepared, will ever linger in the minds of those who were permitted to be with her in her last days. She was 29 years of age and a member of the Pine Bluff Baptist church, and is survived by a mother, a brother and sisters. After funeral services by Bro. Thurman the body was laid to rest in the Lassiter grave yard.—Hamlin correspondent to Ledger.

The little daughter of David Ray was buried at Mt. Pleasant Friday. She had been suffering of tuberculosis of the bone for the last two years. She will be greatly missed by relatives and friends.—Buchanan correspondent to Paris Parisian.

Jones Manning, an aged and well known man, who has been living in and out of Mayfield for a number of years, died Monday night at the home of relatives in the west part of the city. He was formerly a familiar character on the streets, having his violin with him on most every occasion and with a willingness to furnish music at the first request. He formerly lived in Calloway county, where he leaves relatives and the body will be taken to that county for burial Wednesday. The cause of his death was dropsy and Bright's disease.—Mayfield Messenger.

Mrs. Madie Dunn, widow of the late Dr. Williford Dunn, died last Sunday night at about 8 o'clock at her home, 512 S. Ninth street, Paducah, Ky., after a lingering illness of nephritis. She had been making her home in that city the past eight months, moving there from this place. Mrs. Dunn was a daughter of Mr. John Whitnell, and was 55 years of age. The remains were brought to this place Monday afternoon and carried to the home of Robt. Clayton, and Tuesday morning were carried to Mt. Carmel, north of Kirksey, and laid to rest. She is survived by her father, two daughters, Misses Alma and Mildred; four sisters, Mrs. Mike Eaker, of Paris, Mrs. Ed Phelps, of near Fulton, Mrs. Robt. Clayton and Miss Lizzie Whitnell, and one brother, Mr. Lee Cook Whitnell, of this city. Mrs. Dunn was an estimable lady, a member of the Methodist church and leaves many friends and relatives to mourn her death.

Mrs. Sam Egman died the latter part of the past week at the home of her father, Dan Goins, in this city, after a long illness of pelagra. For the past two years she had been making her home in Paris together with her family and only returned to this city some few weeks ago. Mrs. Egman was about 35 years old, and besides her parents is survived by a husband and two children. She was a splendid woman and had many friends in this county. The burial took place Friday in the Old Salem grave yard.

Mrs. J. W. Wade, who lived a few miles east of Almo, died last Saturday after months of suffering of cancer. Mrs. Wade was about 40 years of age and one of the popular and beloved women of that section of the county. Besides her husband and several

He was a widely known city and is survived by several children. The burial took place Monday in Singing Springs grave yard.

Mrs. Jane Altom died last Saturday morning at the hospital in this city. She was received at the institution some several days previous to her death and underwent an operation for cancer. At the time it was feared that she would not survive the heavy operation owing to her advanced age, 70 years, but she insisted that she had rather take the chance than to survive for a few months longer and undergo the terrible suffering. Mrs. Altom was a sister of the Downs boys of this county and was held in high esteem by a wide circle of acquaintances. The burial took place in the Old Salem grave yard Sunday.

Commissioners Sale

Calloway Circuit Court, Kentucky

C. B. Fulton, Administrator.

W. A. McCusick, etc.

Vs. Judgment.

James McCusick, etc.

By virtue of a Judgment and Order of Sale of the Calloway Circuit Court rendered at the April term thereof, 1916, in the above cause for the purpose of payment of debts and a division of the remaining proceeds.

I shall proceed to offer for sale at the court house door in Murray, Kentucky, to the highest bidder at public auction on the 22nd day of May, 1916, between the hours of 1:00 and 3:00 o'clock p. m., being county court day, upon a credit of six months, the following described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the above judgment, same lying in Calloway county, Kentucky, to wit:

10 acres out of the southeast corner of the southwest quarter of section 22, township 1, range 6 east, and described as beginning at the southeast corner of said quarter, thence west 50 poles, thence north 32 poles, thence east 50 poles, thence south to the beginning.

30 acres out of the southwest corner of the northeast quarter of section 27, township 1, range 6 east. The same being 80 poles north and south and 40 poles east and west.

Also all of the northwest quarter of section 27, township 1, range 6 east, except 85 acres, more or less, sold and deeded to J. B. Hodges by W. A. McCusick and described as beginning at a rock 29 poles north of the southwest corner of the north west quarter of section 27, township 1, range 6 east. On the mouth of Sandy road, thence east with said road to a walnut tree, thence nearly east parallel with the quarter section line 117 poles to the quarter section line, thence about north with quarter section line 85 poles to a rock, thence about west parallel with the section and quarter section line to the west line of the said quarter section, being also section line, thence south with section line 81 poles to the beginning. For description of said land see deed book 19, page 560.

Also, except 11 1-2 acres, more or less, sold and deeded to J. I. Hodges and described as beginning on the west line of the northwest quarter of section 27, township 1, range 6 east, thence north 19 poles, thence east 21 1-2 poles, thence north 5 poles, thence east 60 1-2 poles, thence south 24 poles, thence 82 poles to the beginning.

Also, except 5 acres, more or less, beginning at a rock in the northwest corner of the northwest quarter of section 27, township 1, range 6 east, thence south 36 poles, thence east 22 poles, thence north 36 poles, thence west 22 poles to the beginning.

Also, except 5 acres, more or less, out of the northeast corner of the northwest quarter of section 27, township 1, range 6 east, and being 56 poles north and south and 15 poles east and west. Which leaves to be sold in section 27, township 1, range 6 east, about 35 acres, including the improvements and this on the north side of said quarter section line, including all to be sold about 65 or 70 acres as above described.

For the purchase price purchaser with approved surety or securities must execute bond, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid, and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.
