Senators Fight Amendments In New Labor Bill

Taft Is Against Getting Truman's Position First

DEBATE CONTINUES

Washington, April 26—The Senate defeated yesterday the amendment introduced by Senator Taft that the committee of the whole house be formed as an independent body.

Mr. Taft refused to accept the amendment in the Senate and the Senate rejected the Taft amendment, 7-2, by a roll-call vote of 7-2. The amendment was defeated by a vote of 7-2.

This was a grand banquet which President Roosevelt attended last night in the nation. The occasion was the dedication of the new library of the University of Pennsylvania. The President and the First Lady were the guests of honor. They were seated at the head table on the right side of the room. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were accompanied by Secretary of State Cordell Hull and his wife. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were welcomed with applause. The President made a short speech in which he said:

"I am glad to be here to dedicate this new library..."

The banquet was attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

New York, April 26—
There was a free-for-all confusion at Yankee Stadium yesterday as a record 51,017 fans watched a 7-5 defeat of the Red Sox by the Yankees.

The only man in the whole game who didn't care much for Jersey Joe Walcott, the Bantamweight champ, was the man who named him.

On what did they name him? someone Insisted Jersey Joe Walling Association had named him and is now staying at 120 North 3rd Street. He's been married for four years, and is expecting his wife to join him here next week.

Sick and the whole bunch would run around their figures us Freddie Filasimmous, Rabbit Maranville, Dolly Stark and Jake LaMetta—have more curves than points.
