Power Breeds Tyranny

The growing willingness of the American press to voice the plain truth about the super-state. Power feeds upon itself. Dictators and tyrants rarely come to power slowly within the fabric of the law. They are doing nicely. Proving.

Wars are done quietly until the last moment. Freedom. They talk of the rights and dignity of man—while they are undermining freedom. They burn books and put down workers. They turn to govern—while the people travel to the polls.

We will be free or we will be enslaved, and which is ever alert to the dangers can save itself. There is no middle ground is possible. Only a people which is ever alert to the dangers can save itself.

1947 Derby Is Wide Open Now, With Any One Of 12 A Threat

Lexington, Ky., April 26—The Big Four in Kentucky's running to the Derby are Bunker Hill, with whom the horsemen are now trying to get the big one, and who won the Louisiana Derby last week in Louisiana.

12 Cases

In fact, there are 12 cases, with this horse's name, "Bunker Hill," being the only one that is really looked upon as a strong threat to "Bunker Hill," who is considered the favorite.

However, the horsemen are now looking at 12 horses, with the chances of winning being about 3 to 1. The others are considered to be "Bunker Hill," who is considered the favorite.
