20 Are Killed As Winds Lash Three States

Small Missouri Town Is Razed Tuesday Night

ARKANSAS, IOWA HIT

Winds, Thursday, turned into a raging tempest, twisting and tearing through the Middle West, causing extensive damage and killing 20 persons in the three states.

Winds of hurricane speed flattened all vegetation within an area comprising parts of 11 counties in northern Arkansas and southwestern Iowa. The winds were accompanied by heavy rains which washed away unsecured earth and downed many trees and power poles.

Small Missouri Town Is Razed

It was unexpected and quick. The town of Eldora, Mo., population 300, was razed in an instant, leaving only ruins.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Climber of Eldora were in Bullard when they received word that their town was in ruins.

Mr. Climber added, "We heard the wind howling. We went outside to see what was happening and were amazed by the sight."

The Climbers said they were planning to move to a new home in Eldora where they expect to start a new life.

GETS "THANK-YOU" FROM MISS TRUAN

Miss Truan, who is in charge of the school's mail room, received a thank-you note from a student.

"Thank you," the note said. "I appreciate your hard work."
An Unselfish Decision

The willingness of a man to sacrifice his personal traits for the good of another nation is what the present conflict has brought to light.

The courage of those men who have chosen to serve their country has touched the hearts of all who listen to their stories.

It was felt that those men would want to be remembered. It was an important moment, and everyone was present to witness it.

The decision to honor them was made, and the gathering was adjourned with a round of applause for their bravery.

That Pakistan Problem

As always, the Pakistan problem continues to be a source of controversy. The dispute between India and Pakistan over the control of Kashmir is a constant reminder of the ongoing tension in the region.

The recent meeting between the leaders of both countries did not yield any significant progress in resolving the issue.

The situation is delicate, and any misstep could lead to a further deterioration of the situation.

It is crucial to find a peaceful solution that respects the interests of all parties involved.

The Glad Girls Sunday School Annual Picnic

The Glad Girls Sunday School held its annual picnic, and it was a great success. The children enjoyed a day of fun under the sun, and everyone had a wonderful time.

The picnic was organized by Mrs. Robert Adams, who did an excellent job of making sure everything went smoothly.

A Special Request

Mayfield's Mayor, Mrs. W. I. Jackson, has requested a special meeting of the City Council to discuss an important issue.

The topic is related to the ongoing development of the city's infrastructure, and the mayor believes it's crucial to address it as soon as possible.

The meeting will be held on Monday, and all council members are expected to attend.

The Water Carnival

The Water Carnival, an annual event held in Mayfield, was a great success this year. Thousands of people came to enjoy the fun and games, and the weather was perfect.

The carnival included a variety of activities, such as water fights, slides, and a special performance by the Mayfield High School band.

The event was organized by the city's recreation department, and everyone had a great time.
