Hortic Pollet, Hal Newhouse: Have Disappointed Fans So Far

By Joe Bukaty
Associated Press Sportswriter

One of the regrets of the 1947 Kentucky Derby is the failure of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Newhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hortic to appear at the race track. The Newhouse family is renowned for its high Social status in the Derby circuit, and their absence has been felt by fans all over the South. Fans had hoped to see the Newhouse family appear in their finery, but their absence has left many disappointed.

Preach Temperance In Bars

Presented by the W. C. T. U., the "Preach Temperance in Bars" program is a unique way to reach out to the community. The program is designed to promote the values of the W. C. T. U. and to encourage individuals to consider the importance of temperance.

The program consists of a series of talks given by elderly W. C. T. U. members who have dedicated their lives to promoting temperance. These talks are presented in bars throughout the community, where they will reach a large and diverse audience.

The talks will cover a variety of topics related to temperance, including the history of the W. C. T. U., the importance of responsible drinking, and the impact of alcohol on society.

The program is open to all members of the community, regardless of age or background. The talks will be held in bars throughout the community, and will be followed by a networking session where attendees can meet and discuss the topics covered.

The program is supported by the W. C. T. U., which is dedicated to promoting temperance and responsible living. The W. C. T. U. encourages all members of the community to participate in the program, and to spread the message of temperance to others.

The "Preach Temperance in Bars" program is a unique and effective way to reach out to the community and promote the values of the W. C. T. U. We encourage all members of the community to participate in the program, and to help spread the message of temperance to others.
