Tarpaulins Here For Storm Victims

The Fulton Red Cross chapter has obtained several tarpaulins from Camp Campbell which it will lend temporarily to businesses or private individuals whose property was damaged in yesterday's windstorm.

Those who wish to borrow tarpaulins may see Bill Browning, chapter chairman, at Franklin's Quality Shop.

EXTENDED FORECAST:
Kentucky and Tennessee (Through Wednesday)—Rather cool Saturday, warmer Sunday, Monday, cooler Tuesday and Wednesday. Temperatures for the period will average normal to 2 degrees above normal.

Bishop Coming Here May 11, 12

Methodist Visitor To Preach Mother's Day, Attend District Meeting

Bishop W. T. Watkins of the Louisville area of the Methodist church, who was assigned to the Memphis conference upon the death of Bishop Lloyd J. Deceh, will be in Fulton May 11 and 12. On Mother's Day, May 11, Bishop Watkins will preach at the First Methodist church at 11 o'clock. The Methodist people and friends of Fulton and community are invited to attend these services.

The Paris District Conference will meet in Fulton on Monday, May 12. Ministers and delegates from the churches of the Paris District, including Paris, Murray, Dresden, Martin, Greenfield, and surrounding churches, will attend the Conference. Bishop Watkins also will be present.

Man Confesses Killing Wife

Kentucky Woman Found In Dayton, O., Hotel; Husband Gave Self Up

Dayton, O., May 2.—(AP)—Her face beaten beyond recognition, the nude body of a red-haired woman identified tentatively as Hazel Miller Ridge, 38, Bryansville, Ky., was found in a blood-spattered room of a downtown hotel yesterday.

Shortly afterward, a man who identified himself to Desk Sgt. L. H. Caylor as George C. Cummings, 41, Dayton, surrendered at police headquarters. He was quoted as saying he had killed his wife "at the Beckel Hotel." The officer said the man was intoxicated when he surrendered.

Coroner A. P. McDonald said the victim's face was beaten beyond recognition. He said the tentative identification came from a Social Security card found in the woman's purse and a birth certificate issued at Bryansville. The coroner said the room occupied Wednesday night by a man and woman registered as "Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings of Dayton" was a shambles. He said the killer left no weapon and observed it was "quite possible."

The slayer had beaten the woman solely with his fists.

Funeral Services For Miss Sugg Held In St. Louis Today

Brief funeral services for Alia Mae Sugg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sugg, Sr., were conducted at Grace's Methodist church in St. Louis this morning at 11 o'clock.

The body is being brought to Fulton and will arrive here early Saturday morning accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sugg and Mrs. Roper Fields.

Upon arrival here the body will lie in state in the chapel of Hornbeak Funeral Home until 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 4, at which time funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. W. E. Mischke, pastor of the First Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. T. E. Shauf, pastor of Union church.

Burial, under direction of Hornbeak Funeral Home, will follow in Greenlee cemetery.

State Is Air-minded, Report Points Out

Frankfort, Ky., May 2.—(AP)—Kentucky's growing air-mindedness is noted in a petition filed in Washington by the state Aeronautics Commission.

In 1945, the petition reports, there were 23 airports in Kentucky, today there are 43 and one seaplane base. Twelve airports are now under construction.

There were 17 charter operators two years ago; now there are 61. Only 15 aeronautics schools with 350 students were active in 1945 but there are 61 with 3,500 students today.

In the past two years the number of privately-owned aircraft has climbed from 200 to 780—plus many more not registered with the commission. The civilian use of airlines in Kentucky has more than doubled since 1945, the petition reported. The per capita ratio of the state is highest in enlistment of the (military) Air Corps," it claimed.

Await Word Of Trapped Miners

A crowd gathers at the entrance of the Spring Hill mine at Terre Haute, Ind., to learn fate of coal miners trapped by an explosion. Eight of the 11 men working in the mine were killed. Three men who escaped unhurt from the shaft said they were knocked to the mine floor by a dynamite blast which miners 1,000 feet back in the tunnel were setting off just before quitting time. Authorities surmised the dynamite blast had touched off a dust explosion.

Mine Blast Survivor Greeted By Family

House O. K.'s Rent Control Bill With "Local Option" Provision

Washington, May 2.—(AP)—A House-passed bill extending rent control, but letting each city, town and county decide whether to take it or leave it, was tossed over to the Senate today.

The "local option" feature immediately got a friendly reception there.

The House approved the measure 204 to 182 last night, after beating down attempts to require a 10 percent rent increase where ceilings now apply.

Modified in several ways that are not to President Truman's liking, the bill provides:

1. Continuation of controls from June 30 to December 31, with the President given authority to continue them by proclamation to March 31, 1948, if he deems this advisable. Mr. Truman asked for extension of controls in their present form until June 30, 1948.

2. That "the governing body in any county, city or town may in their discretion terminate rent control earlier by a finding that the necessity therefor no longer exists." This amendment, by Rep. Redden (D-N.C.), was adopted by a vote of 129 to 84. It would not apply to state rent control laws.

3. Authorizes landlords to raise rents 15 per cent in return for a two-year lease if the tenant agrees.

4. Exempts from ceilings all new houses and apartments and any that have not been rented in the last two years.

5. Abolishes all government priority and allocation controls over building materials and construction under the Veterans Housing Act, except that the government may require a permit for construction of buildings to be used for amusement or recreational purposes.

14 Hopefuls Ready To Go In 73rd Derby

Star Reward Was Annual Sleeper; Phalanx Favored

TRACK MAY BE FAST

Louisville, Ky., May 2.—(AP)—A field of 14 three-year-olds—the 13 expected and the annual unheard-of "long shot sleeper"—was entered at Churchill Downs today for tomorrow's 73rd running of the Kentucky Derby.

The dark-horse from the Blue Grass automobile body beat Charlie Fisher's Star Reward, was the first to enter, even before the Downs' secretary's office opened for business, and the California plumber's horse, Earl Stice's On Trust, was the last. But the two to beat still were the Virginia galloper, Phalanx, and Warren Wright's Faultless, whose stable "family" was all smiles this morning when the sun came out and held hope for a fast track.

The "sleeper" in this smallest Derby field since only nine others dared to go against Count Fleet four years ago, was Balheim, a fair mud runner from the Murlog Farm of Mrs. R. J. Murphy and her daughter Susan Kellogg of Evansville, Ind. Given no consideration as a Derby starter in all the pre-race speculation, his stable decided to enter him after he won the last race on yesterday's Downs program.

Then there were the high speed Jet Pilot, the stretch-sizzling Riskolater, Cosmic Bomb, tiny Bullet Proof, the movie entry of Stephafer and W. L. Sickle Double Jay, who was last year's second best two-year-old, Liberty Road and the mud running Jett Jett, all of whom were placed in the lists by trainers, jockeys or stable agents in the steady parade to the entry box that began at 7:30 a. m. (CST) and wound up at 10:30.

E. C. Dodson, trainer of Jett Jett, who was mentioned as a Derby starter only yesterday for the first time, probably spoke for all the outsiders when he entered his mud runner.

"There've been 72 Derbies, and 72 horses have run last in them," he pointed out. "So if we run last, we won't be alone."

Even while the entries were being filed, a number of the Derby dandies came out in the muddy gully for their final speed "blowouts."

Quickest of these was turned in by "The Cosmetics Kid," Jet Pilot, owned by Ippistek princess Elizabeth (Arden) Graham, who breezed three eighths of a mile in 37 seconds flat. Other three eighths workouts caught Double Jay, the Wilmington (Del.) pride and joy, in :38.5 and W. L. Sickle in :38.2-5 and his stablemate, the $200,000 Stephafer, in :38.4-5.

Three others splashed through half a mile in their preparatory final. Cosmic Bomb, hope of New Orleans old man William Helis, was clocked in :50.3-5; Star Reward in :52.4-5 and Bullet Proof, the pony-sized Virginian, in :53.1-5.

C. of C. Plans New Projects

Has Goal of 100 Per Cent Membership in Fulton; New President At Work

Dr. R. V. Putnam, newly-elected president of the Fulton Chamber of Commerce, is beginning his new duties with interest and enthusiasm, and plans to outline a program of projects for the organization, which he hopes will be successfully concluded.

The goal toward which the Chamber of Commerce is working this year is a progressive Fulton, backed by 100 per cent membership of the business and professional men of the town, with whose cooperation Fulton can be made a better place in which to live.

The Chamber of Commerce is one of the city's oldest civic organizations and has sponsored many fine projects. For a number of years, it was largely responsible for work on the Harris Fork Creek, with an active committee in charge of cleaning out the creek, and other necessary work. It was the Chamber of Commerce which started the present creek project.

The Chamber of Commerce sponsored for several years a program of improving dairy herds by buying purebred Jersey sires and placing them among farmers in the trade territory. It has also encouraged members of the 4-H clubs by helping to provide funds for prizes for the best beef type cattle at the annual county 4-H Club Fair.

The new directors of the Chamber are: R. V. Putnam, president; Ernest Fall, Jr., secretary; Louis Kasnow, treasurer; Ward Johnson, Leon Browder, Joe Davis, Smith Atkins, Bob White, W. C. Graham and Frank Beadles.

Decrease Recorded In Jobless Pay

Frankfort, Ky., May 2.—(AP)—A 7.572 slump in the number of claims for jobless pay in Kentucky was noted by the state Unemployment Compensation Commission today.

For the week ending April 26, veterans claims for the $20 weekly readjustment payment fell from 23,098 to 19,230. State-worker applications dipped from 13,803 to 10,266 and interstate claims from 2,371 to 2,204.

The commission said yesterday that payments to jobless veterans will be held up pending appropriation of more money by Congress. State and interstate claimants will continue to be paid.

Paducahan Held In Mayfield Jail

Jack Cook, who listed his home as Paducah, is being held in the Graves county jail to await action on charges of violating a three-year probation from New Jersey courts. He was convicted of violating the Dyer Act.

Cook was arrested early Wednesday morning after Mayfield police found him in an alley with a pistol and a blackjack in his possession.

ANSWERS CALL

Waterfield's Plans For gubernatorial Campaign To Friends In First District

Underwood For Race Tax

But Lexington Editor Is Unable To Tell What Clements' View Will Be

Louisville, Ky., May 2.—(AP)—A state tax on parimutuel betting is favored by Tom R. Underwood, Lexington, campaign manager for Rep. Earle C. Clements, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, but Underwood says this isn't a commitment for Clements on the issue.

Underwood, editor of the Lexington Herald, said in a speech before the Louisville Cooperative Club, "I have always thought we should have a tax on parimutuels, but I don't think it would ever get out of committee (in the state legislature) unless it is proposed in a friendly spirit."

In the 1946 general assembly, two bills to tax parimutuel betting in Kentucky were introduced but died in committee.

Underwood also is secretary of the National Association of Racing Commissioners. He told newsmen after his address that his statement is not a commitment for Clements on the tax issue.

"As far as I know," Underwood said, "he hasn't made any pronouncement on that. He would have to say whatever he wanted to say about it himself."

Harry Lee Waterfield, speaker of the 1946 Kentucky House of Representatives and the other candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, recently announced he favors a tax on pari-mutuel betting on horse races.

Kentucky now derives revenue from the racing industry in the form of licenses and a 15-cent admission tax.

Storm Lashes Johnson City

Tennessee Community's City Hall Damaged, Carnival Is Hit Hard

Johnson City, Tenn., May 2.—(AP)—A section of the city hall and several business houses were unroofed by an afternoon wind storm which struck here yesterday a few hours after winds caused heavy damage in other Tennessee towns.

One person was reported slightly injured when the wind blew down a ferris wheel and leveled tents at a carnival playing in the city. The storm blew windows from residences and business buildings, uprooted trees and caused extensive damage to telephone and telegraph lines. Part of the ballpark fence was leveled.

Earlier storms yesterday injured two men slightly in Chattanooga and persons in near-by Ringgold, Ga. The Chattanooga were struck by falling debris.

At Ringgold, 14 children and a teacher were treated after they suffered minor injuries when a one-story grammar school annex was blown from its foundation. Approximately 150 children were in the building, an old army barracks, when the storm lifted it from its foundation and moved it about two feet.

New Farm Official Reports To Agent In Graves County

Thomas Duffy, a native of Midway, Ky., reported to Graves County Agent Glynn E. Williamson yesterday as assistant agent for Graves county.

Duffy, a graduate of the College of Agriculture at the University of Kentucky in 1942, will take over the 4-H club work in the county, which has been under direction of Harvey Ellis, who becomes a West Kentucky county agent June 1.

The new official specialized in dairying at the University. He was a member of the college's dairy judging team who attended the National Dairy Show in Memphis in 1941, and spent several days in Mayfield at the Purchase Dairy Show that year.

Magazine Fraud Worked In M'field

Mayfield, Ky.—The Mayfield Messenger yesterday reported two magazine salesmen who said they represented a Texas magazine agency and one of whom claimed to be a nephew of the Rev. Herman Gross, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, have taken subscription money fraudulently from a number of Mayfield residents.

Mr. Gross has no nephews of his own, and none by marriage. It was thought that the two men read in the newspaper that Mr. and Mrs. Gross were to be out of town, and immediately "adopted" him as an uncle.

Good Revenue Source

Harry Lee Waterfield's statement saying he favors a fair tax on pari-mutuel betting at Kentucky racetracks, to provide revenue for welfare and teachers' salaries, was courageous and eminently proper.

Candidate Waterfield did not raise this issue and is not seeking new taxation for political purposes only, as has been charged. On the contrary, his statement specifically says: "The fair and equitable tax on pari-mutuels, sufficient to be of great assistance in carrying out the State's increased responsibilities and commitments to education which I shall advocate, will be justified when the present cash surplus, (amounting to more than $27,000,000) has been exhausted."

This does not sound like a candidate who would, for political purposes only, favor any sort of tax.

It has been widely admitted by well informed persons that use of part of the present State cash surplus to meet current demands of teachers for higher salaries would be, at most, only a temporary expedient.

But, Candidate Waterfield says clearly, he favors no additional tax, on betting machines at racetracks or on anything else, until this cash surplus has been exhausted and the need is real and pressing. Then, he says, he will ask for a fair levy on the only legalized gamblers in the State who should have been paying such a tax long ago.

Losers at racetracks will get back nothing and winners will feel little if any pain if 5 percent of their winnings is deducted for State revenue. If, as the racetrack people maintain, a tax on the pari-mutuel tickets should endanger the great breeding industry, with its center in the Blue Grass region where the race horse has been king more than 100 years there is nothing to prevent a sympathetic Governor and Legislature from giving prompt succor.

In northern Kentucky recently a commonwealth's attorney has been barred from the practice of his profession for closing his eyes to widespread gambling in his district. Now even church-sponsored bingo games are banned; yet betting on horse races is legal in Kentucky and the millions poured through the pari-mutuel machines go untaxed.

It is a well recognized fact that tax legislation is the hardest to enact and that there is no such thing as a painless tax. The proposed pari-mutuel levy is among the less painful revenue producers, in the experience of other states, and Kentucky is entitled to receive money from this source, as her need for new revenue develops in proportion to demands of her people for expanded service.

Naturally, the racehorse people regret, to see this issue come out into the bright light of a political campaign. They would rather deal with it in the Legislature, where their power has all attempts to levy on the pari-mutuel gambling. We believe Harry Lee Waterfield has done the State and its people a real service in facing up squarely to this issue at a time when it is perfectly clear that Kentucky must raise additional funds, in the next year, if she is to meet her obligations in some measure of respectability. (Princeton Leader).

Most of the men who poke fun at their wives' hats will be sweating and sweating in tight collars and uncomfortable coats this summer while the missus is enjoying armless and backless play clothing.

FULHAM NEWS

RECITAL IN SPRINGTIME

After tripping over hillsides and shore, "Beauty" sat on the stage Monday night. In the midst of bluebirds and butterflies, with a rose trellis background, "Miss Beauty" was performed in a group of lovely girls dressed in pretty formal. Truly, we had music in the air as they rendered their piano and vocals. The audience was generous in expressing appreciation and due credit goes to Mrs. E. J. Bennett, director, Marlene Brown, Mrs. Jack Vaden and 25 music students.

Tuesday night the freshman class presented their play "Good Gracious Grandma." Rev. and Mrs. Ed Dennington, of Arcadia, Fla., have arrived for the Fulham alumni meeting Saturday night, May 3.

Mrs. Cora Ringo, of Detroit, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. J. Bennett, and the judge, and attending commencement. Sen. Denton McDaniel and family, of Clinton, and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Barclay and children, of Fulton, were among the visitors seen here last night at the play.

Mrs. Gordie Hopkins enters the hospital today for an operation. Mrs. Boyce Story, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, and Mr. and Mrs.

Jewell Rochell and baby have returned home from a visit with relatives in Columbia, Tenn. There they had a reunion of the Jewell children.

Miss Patti Mae Vaden and mother, Mrs. Ari Vaden, returned to their home in Marshall county Tuesday. Pat will receive her diploma tomorrow night, but will not be able to attend.

Cliff Taylor and family have moved from Fulton to the Glyn Weller house.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Latta (Evelyn Hopkins), of Detroit, are announcing the arrival of Dale Warren, born April 22. Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Latta and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Hopkins.

Barbara Jean Pillow is spending the week in Graves county with her sister, Mrs. Roy Duke, and family. Glad to hear that our schoolgirls, Frances Martin and Martha Jane Duke, are both improving in the Fulton Hospital.

Mrs. Jack Vaden is working in Clinton at the Clinton Lumber Co., as bookkeeper, taking the place of the "regular," who is out on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Burkett are laying the foundation for their new home near the U. O. Jackson home.

Ten Years Ago

Commencement exercises were held in the old Watts school house (new building here unfinished). M. C. Anderson, Wick-liffe, delivered the address to 14 graduates: Frances Pillow, Saline Cunningham, Etha Mae Crawford, Katie E. Fraser and Gwyneth Nicholas. Buster Pillow, Albert Gray, William Clark, Glenn Murphy, Ollie Batts, Ira Henderson, A. D. Gatewood, Mack Watts and Curtis Watts (all now married but Curtis).

Members of the high school faculty were Prin. M. B. Rogers, Frank Rhorer, Patti Bollen and Rachel Hood.

Junior entertained the seniors with a trip to Mammoth Cave. John Roney died May 2, and on that day Roy Hilliard, son of the late Rev. C. D. Hilliard, was buried at Clinton.

Mrs. Ivis Bailey and daughter, Henda, returned here from California.

Brazil Has 56,200,000 People: Five To The Mile Rio De Janeiro, (AP)—Brazil's present population is 56,200,000, according to statistics just released by the Bank of Brazil on the basis of a recent survey. The same figures say that the nation's density is only five persons to the square mile. (Parts of Europe have a density of several hundred to the square mile.)

The cost of food of Columbus' expedition was fixed at 6 pesetas a month per each man, or about four or five cents daily.

Britain Levels Off

By Dewitt MacKenzie,
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Death duties on the vast fortune left by Britain's fourth Marquess of Bute, who died the other day, provide a striking illustration of how that country deliberately is "leveling off" private wealth and rapidly eliminating its "landed" aristocracy.

The Marquess, who ranked as one of the world's richest men, is said to have left an estate of some 60,000,000 pounds, which in the language of Uncle Sam is $240,000,000. This tidy sum came largely from the Welsh coal fields and from lucky investments by ancestors in the fishing village which became the big city of Cardiff.

Now along comes the British Chancellor of the Exchequer and by a simple wave of his magic wand will reduce this mountain of gold to a mere hill only a quarter the size. And if you have the patience to watch him through another generation you will see him just about make the hill itself disappear.

The estate duty in this case is 75 percent, or $180,000,000. After that the eldest son and others who have received legacies pay a tax on their inheritances which come out of the remaining property valued at $60,000,000. Well, sixty millions aren't to be sneezed at, but the story doesn't end there.

The government wants its share in cash or securities—not in real estate. I have no details about the Bute fortune, but in many other cases in the past only a small portion of the estates have been in securities and so land and other possessions have had to be disposed of to raise the tax. These more or less forced sales have resulted in losses sometimes, and in any event the heirs often have wound up with a lot of real estate on their hands, as a heritage perhaps without much cash for running expenses.

There have been instances in which big estates have changed hands twice through death in a year or so, and it doesn't take much figuring to demonstrate that after death duties have been paid the second time there is only a whisper of the former wealth left. Result: most of the money has gone into the public coffers, and there has been a wide distribution, through sales, of the rolling acres which often have been maintained for generations as parks or for shooting or fox hunting.

It's by no means through chance that things have worked out in this manner. The heavy death duties were imposed for the express purpose of producing the result which is being achieved. And here it should be noted that these taxes were not originated by the present Socialist government, but started way back under the Conservative regime. However, I think it's fair comment to say that England's socialistic trend already was being felt. The New Labor (Socialist) government didn't just happen out of the blue, you know.

Along with the rapid disappearance of the landed aristocracy is going a lot of tradition and color which have been dear to England. Still, tradition and color are no fair substitute for food and raiment, and the British government maintains that the lot of the little man and his family is being improved.

Of course death duties aren't the only "levelling-off" taxes in Britain. The man who earns say $200,000 a year, is able to salvage a little better than $20,000 at the best. Even on the little man the standard rate of tax is 45 percent with basic allowances.

Pet Dog Turns On His Owners

Paris Couple Battled Doberman for Half Hour Until Policemen Came

Paris, Ky., May 2—(AP)—Details of a fight-to-the-death with his pet dog suddenly turned savage were told today by James Mitchell, who with Mrs. Mitchell held off the dog for 30 minutes until police arrived and clubbed the animal into unconsciousness.

Mitchell said the dog, a 40-pound Doberman Pinscher, lunged at him last night as he started to turn out the bedroom light. Then followed a nightmarish struggle, Mrs. Mitchell sprang to her husband's aid and finally he got a stranglehold on the dog.

While he held on, Mrs. Mitchell called police, who beat the dog senseless with a heavy bronze ash tray and then shot it. The dog's head was sent to Lexington for a rabies test.

FIRES

A smoldering fire under the floor of the diner on the Illinois Central's new City of New Orleans was extinguished here yesterday afternoon by the Fulton fire department. Smoke was first noticed in the car at Memphis. Firemen tried unsuccessfully to put out the blaze at Dyersburg, and a call was made for the Fulton fire department to meet the train when it arrived here. A small hole was cut in the floor to enable firemen to reach the burning insulation material. The train was due here at 4:48, and arrived at 5:05.

"Wouldn't Swap The Chicks," Manager Gill Tells Lions Club

Lexington, Ky., May 2—(P)—

Manager Johnny Gill told the Fulton Lions Club today after discussing prospects for the season which opens here May 6.

"We should have the best infield in the league," he said,

"and if the loop isn't over 50 per cent better than it was last year,

we should finish 1-2."

Gill and K. P. Dalton, Baseball Association president, were peppered with questions about this year's edition of the Chicks at about half an hour at the regular Lions meeting.

The new manager said he had hoped that "Dusty" Rhodes will develop into the outstanding shortstop in Kitty ball, and agreed with Doc Prothro's high estimate of the new Chick's natural ability.

"Our outfield may be a little

but he expressed confidence that they would come along all right.

Hal Seawright and Pete Peterson, who were with Fulton last year, have been joined by Workman, a rookie, in the gardens.

The infield remains about the same as last year's, with Propst

at first, Gray at second, Buck at third, and Lis and Secret receiving. Bob Shultz' move to Memphis weakened the pitching staff, but Gill figures he'll make out all right with the boys

he has. "We could use a left-handed pitcher," he said, "but we probably won't get one this

Gill and Dalton were introduced by Happy Edwards, program chairman. Other guests of the Lions were Ronald Jones, former Fulton club member, and

Mr. Weaver, of Mayfield.

Western, Eastern Nines Play At Bowling Green

Wall Street Report

New York, May 2—(AP)—Forward tendencies were exhibited by individual stocks in today's market although profit taking on the two-session rally restrained many leaders.

Buying by professionals for a further technical revival provided the principal trend prop. Numerous skeptics regarding business, taxes and labor relations, however, held aloof.

Dealings slowed after an active opening but pivotal issues were irregularly higher near midday.

Ahead most of the time were U. S. Steel, General Motors, American Telephone, American Water Works, Kennecott, American Can, du Pont, Eastman Kodak, Owens-Illinois, Standard Oil (N.J.), Santa Fe and Southern Pacific. Backward at intervals were Bethlehem, Goodrich, Goodrich, American Airlines, North American, Union Carbide, J. C. Penney, Texas Co. and N. Y. Central.

Bonds were mixed and cotton futures lower.

Frankfort—The office of Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit ruled that Fayette county Tax Commissioner William J. Lynch is not entitled to any fees that would boost his salary above $5,000 a year, the state constitutional limit.

Frankfort—Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit said in an opinion that falsification of records by teachers is punishable upon conviction by $50 fines and revocation of their teaching certificates. Justice of the Peace A. J. Riley, Buckhorn, asked for the ruling. Riley asserted violations had been committed. Dummit advised Riley to present the evidence to the commonwealth's attorney who could turn it over to the grand jury for action.

Louisville—Suits seeking $79,515—triple the alleged gambling losses of her husband, Charles F. Francke—were filed in circuit court here by Mrs. Leonor F. Francke. The suits named three establishments and their owners. The attorney who filed the suits in Mrs. Francke's behalf, Harold R. Marquette, said they were brought under a Kentucky law authorizing triple damages for certain gambling losses.

Carlisle—Sheriff John Anderson reported a search was under way for traces of Allie Clyde Laughlin, 42, who disappeared Wednesday night with his automobile at the height of a "flash" flood in northwestern Nicholas county. Waters swirled over the road where his car had been stalled.

Scottsville—Robert H. Robinson, 16, St. Paul, Minn., was convicted on an armed-robbery charge by a jury which deliberated only five minutes. His punishment was fixed at life imprisonment. The charge had been filed in connection with the holdup of Carline A. Gilliam, cashier of Farmers National Bank here, in Gilliam's apartment last Feb. 16.

If You Want To Join A Club, Name It, And There'll Be One

By Saul Pett
AP Newsfeatures Writer

New York—Some sociologists of the future may try to measure our civilization by the clubs we join. The odds are he'll go nuts. The current Manhattan telephone directory, alone, lists 3,214 clubs and associations of all types, or approximately one for every 600 residents of one New York City borough. And that doesn't include the organizations too secret, too screwy, too temporary or too small to have a phone.

The reasons Americans join clubs seem as endless as the list of clubs themselves. Harold Labow, a New York advertising man, makes it a hobby to collect information on joiners. His favorite is an extinct group, the Farragut club. It's a good commentary on "joinitis."

Word went around town of this new, highly exclusive club. Applications were distributed. All candidates were black-balled. Inferiority complexes were beginning to spring up in high places until the truth came out. The membership of the Farragut club consisted of one man. He held club sessions all alone every afternoon near the Farragut statue in Madison Square.

The business of each meeting was simply this: the membership sat on a bench, lighted a cigar and thought of all the people invited to join and then black-balled. Labow has been collecting information on clubs and societies for years. Here are a few, with odd titles or missions: Skyscraper Club, for men 6 feet, two inches, or more, demanding longer beds in hotel rooms; Blitzard Men of 1888 who will never forget that storm; Tall Story Club; the Pandettes, some New Jersey women who play golf in the snow; Society of Former Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Inc.; Society for the Prevention of Disparaging Remarks About Brooklyn, recently replaced by the First Families of Brooklyn.

The Moles, subway contractors; Society for the Promotion of Good Will Toward Men; Seafood Eating, Whiskey Drinking and Fist Fighting Society of Greater New York (in the making); Committee to Abolish Inhumane Treatment to Horses in Motion Pictures; Society of Timid Souls, a fraternity of stage-frightened musicians and actors.

We Do Your Excavation. Watching for You Society; Wine and Turkey Tasting Society; Collectors of Religion on Stamps Society; The Plug Shrinkers, for reducing radio commercials; Society for Protection of Animals in North Africa; Dotted Line Club; National Man's Club, whose slogan reads: "for prosperity and defense, abolish all female labor"; Horseless Carriage Club; Society for Prevention of Married Men Posing as Bachelors; Original Order of Zunks—they're stamp collectors; Seraphic Secretaries of America, secretaries to 83 top-flight people.

Society for the Prevention of Calling Sleeping Car Porters George; The Thank God It's Friday Club, started at the University of Missouri; American Grandmas Association; Seven O'Clockers' Club; Philadelphia to New York commuters Electric Railroaders Association, just a bunch of guys who like to ride trolleys; Gag Writers Protective Association.

Colonial Brick Club, people looking for historic bricks; International Association of Peaceful Pipe Smokers; Association for Prevention of Taking O'f Hats in Elevators; Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels; Fellows of the Bellows, well known men who once pumped the organ in their boyhood; Bald

Judge Lifts Picketing Ban

Louisville Court Says Pickets Must Stay 10 Feet Apart In Future

Louisville, Ky., May 2—(AP)—Circuit Judge W. Scott Miller late yesterday lifted an outright ban against mass picketing by striking telephone workers.

He put into effect a temporary injunction allowing an indefinite number of pickets provided they walk no less than 10 feet apart. Judge Miller's earlier restraining order had limited to two the number of pickets permitted at one time at each of the Southern Bell Telephone System's buildings in Kentucky.

The temporary injunction was addressed to four striking telephone unions, their leaders and their members. It also prohibits sabotage and violence in connection with the strike. In addition, the injunction bars strikers from "threatening" company employees still on duty. And it provides protection for patrons and customers of the firm.

Attorneys for the unionists said the whole case would be appealed to Kentucky's Court of Appeals.

Kentucky Needs Young Engineers, Watkins Declares

Lexington, Ky., May 2—(AP)—An assembly of engineering students at the University of Kentucky was told yesterday by State Highway Commissioner J. Stephen Watkins, "we need you in Kentucky."

Watkins cited statistics showing that eight of every 10 engineering graduates at the University leave the state to find gainful employment.

To keep qualified professional men in Kentucky, Watkins continued, "We must bring in sufficient industry to allow all engineers to stay in Kentucky and develop the state we all love so much." He said diversified small industry that will offer such employment is one of Kentucky's chief needs. Back of this need, Watkins added, is the need of a more adequate system of roadways making all the state reachable.
