God's Gift

Lesson for December 25, 1961

ON THE last Sunday of the Year, it is fitting that thoughts should go back along memory's lane through the shadows and sunshine of these past months. But since the last Sunday is also Christmas, our minds far, far back on the road of time to a story we all heard as children. It is a story that ordinary prose can scarcely tell. The story of the first Christmas is told in poetry. The light of beauty shone on the child at Bethlehem. Not only in the gospel of Luke, but all through the New Testament, whenever a writer speaks of Christ's coming to earth, joy and wonder break all bounds. A baby was born on that first Christmas, a baby who was a statistic in the Emperors census. Some people live and die, no more than numbers in a census-book. But with Jesus it was altogether different.

Dr. Foreman

Looking only at Luke, we select three expressions out of the first words about Jesus after he was born. The reader can do no better, if a little open time comes on this Christmas afternoon or evening, no better than to sit down with this second chapter of Luke and mull over the other things that were said about the baby and the child Jesus. The three thoughts where we center attention all come from the angel who spoke to the shepherds.

"A Great Joy Which Will Come"

The first thing he said was "Be not afraid." It would have been a good thing if all the creeds, and all the thinking about Jesus that learned and unlearned men have done for the 20 centuries, nearly gone, had started at this point. A scholarly theologian had just finished preaching about Jesus, one morning, and after the service an older Christian in the congregation, a former missionary, remarked: "If that is what Jesus was like, the mystery is how he managed to have my friends." The theologian had preached a book-Christ, there was no joy about him, a Christ who was correct but not contagious. Another professor writes about Jesus and calls him "God's attack on man." If that had been the case, the angel should have said with a scowl, "Crawl in the dust, you worms! God has invaded you, he is about to attack, you have no room to hide." Not at all. This was good news of a great joy which will come to all the people. Christianity which is not a great joy, which does not begin with joy, is no more than a sad imitation.

"A Savior Who is Christ the Lord"

Christ is given many names in the New Testament. Three of the most important are here in the angel's words to the shepherds: Savior, Christ, Lord. What Christ had, and has, to do with the forgiveness of sins, was left in God's providence for other men to learn. God did not send his angel to instruct the Shepherds in a Theory of the Atonement, they were not told a word about a Virgin Birth. They were shepherds, not theologians. They would not have understood such matters. But they could understand "Savior." It was an Old Testament word, sometimes it meant God and sometimes it meant a man. "Deliverer" expresses the meaning the Old Testament puts into the word. A Savior was always one who did for others what they most desperately needed and did for them what they could never do for themselves.

The shepherds understood the other words too, Christ and Lord. Christ the Messiah, God's chosen King, we have seen how this promise was clung to through long centuries. If this baby was the Christ, it meant that the long waiting and hoping was over, God's Kingdom was now at hand. And Lord—the word was not new. It was on imperial documents, it was on the imperial statues, men had died cruelly, and would die again, because they would not call the Caesar "Lord." But here was a Lord, THE Lord of mankind, even of Caesar.

SAYING 'GRACE' IS NO DISGRACE

Dear Amy:

I want your honest opinion on this disagreement between my wife and me. She is very religious minded. So much, in fact, that when we dine out, she insists on saying Grace before dinner. I have no objection to this in the privacy of our home, but I find it embarrassing in a public dining room. People do notice and I don't think it is proper. What do you think?

Mr. S. F.

Dear Mr. S. F.: There is absolutely nothing wrong or improper about saying Grace in a public dining room. I have seen it done many times. Be proud of her! She is setting a shining example.

Dear Amy:

I'm a seventeen-year-old high school student and I want to quit school. It's not because I don't like school nor is it because I want to get married. The reason is that I'm quite heavy for my height and all my schoolmates make fun of me and the boys never invite me to any of the school dances. My parents insist that I finish this year and go on to graduate next year, but I can't face the kids at school any more. What should I do?

Marsha

Dear Marsha: Quitting school will not alter you or the situation. You have to face people in all walks of life. Have a talk with your family doctor and if a diet is called for, muster all your willpower and stick to it. You may have a lot to lose but much more to gain!

Dear Amy:

After 27 years of marriage it seems like this is the end unless you can tell me of something to help. I have found out that my husband has started going with another woman. He doesn't have much to do with me now (and that is quite all right) but I sure don't want this woman to have him. She is married and I don't know why she can't leave him alone. I'm thinking about leaving him as soon as we finish the crop because I intend to get my share of it. I have tried talking to him but he said he is going to do as he pleases so there is nothing else for me to do. I sure don't intend to work for another woman. Can you please help me out?

Worried

Dear Worried: Don't dash off to the divorce court after 27 years of marriage. If your husband has decided to sow his oats, you had better look the field over very closely. Find out what you are lacking, then make up the deficiency. A workhorse won't keep a man from straying, but FEMININE know-how will!

Dear Amy:

I am 18 years old and am going with a boy who is a Catholic. I'm a Baptist. I am very much in love with this boy but I don't approve of his religious faith and he doesn't approve of mine. What should I do about this? Do you think I should stop going with him because of this or do you think we could make a happy marriage under the circumstances?

Undecided

Dear Undecided: You BOTH disapprove of the most important thing that you both should approve of. Under these circumstances a happy marriage would be impossible.

Dear Amy:

We're proud of you for offering to help the 14-year-old baby sitter who never got paid for her services. We mothers hope you write that woman and tell her plenty. It is hard enough for youngsters to earn money in their spare time without having someone cheat them out of it.

How could a mother with young children of her own be so heartless!

The Northeast Village Mother's Club

PERSONAL to All My Readers: I would like to take this opportunity to wish each and every one of you a joyous holiday season!

Fight Tensions of Homemaking

Ever notice how tension builds up when you think you don't have time to finish your daily chores? Tension, doctors tell us, is a frequent cause of painful headaches. The wise housewife knows how to run her household smoothly . . . and still have time to spend

By making a daily list, she knows just what chores have to be done and how often. By crossing off finished jobs with a bright color, she becomes more aware of her progress.

A kitchen blackboard or a second-hand tape recorder for messages can be great time savers and tension reducers. The modern housewife will find such devices save repetitious speech-making and hunting for pencil and paper.

All the kids can chip in to help. Girls can make beds, wash laundry, put food away, boys can take out garbage, wash and polish furniture and floors. Such chores are a help to mother—and a valuable part of the kids' self-development.

But even for the well organized housewife, there will be days when everything seems to go wrong and tension headaches will build up. During such days she will learn for herself that a couple of Bufferin will bring fast relief.

Mrs. Brooks Cross Speaks At Session Of Benton WSCS

The Women's Society of Christian Service met at the Methodist Church in Benton Monday, Dec. 12, at 1 p. m. for a period of prayer led by Mrs. C. E. Woodman.

Just after the regular meeting of the society, Mrs. Bob Long introduced Mrs. Brooks Cross, director of the Methodist Wesleyan Student Center at Murray College, who very impressively told the Christmas story of "The Other Wise Man."

Christmas carols were sung by the group, with Mrs. George Long at the piano.

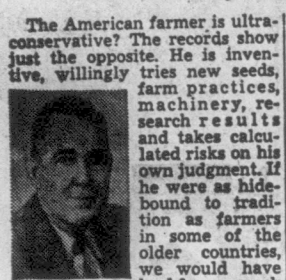

Mrs. Orville Taylor, president, conducted the business session. The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Ward Dappert.

Those attending were Mesdames B. A. Walker, Marcus Gurley, R. R. McWaters, Orville Taylor, Java Gregory, Ward Dappert, Ivory Adair, George Long, Albert Nelson, Bob Long, D. E. Werner, C. E. Woodman, Rudy Holland, Herman Kanatkar, Oscar Shemwell and Brooks Cross.

Mrs. Arlie Edwards of the county was a shopper in Benton Thursday of the past week.

FARMING AROUND

By Mark Welsh

The American farmer is ultra-conservative? The records show just the opposite. He is inventive, willingly tries new seeds, farm practices, machinery, research results and takes calculated risks on his own judgment. If he were as hide-bound to tradition as farmers in some of the older countries, we would have half our work force on the farm instead of the 10% or less that now produces our food. He eliminated millions of horses and mules and replaced them with tractors in about one generation. Labor-saving machinery and tools were tried and bought on faith. Today our farmers have some $17 billion invested in them. Chemical and pharmaceutical laboratories tremendously expanded because farmers bought huge quantities of fertilizers to boost crop yields and antibiotics like Aureomycin to promote growth and safeguard the health of their animals and poultry. Chemical weed killers may well replace hoes and cultivators, yet most of them were unknown 10 years ago. Too many folk believe farms, farm homes and farmers are the same today as when they visited the country as children. Today's American farm home usually has the charm of the old combined with the convenience of the new and the farmer is a well-informed business man in overall. Conservative, maybe; but soundly progressive and alert.

Did you know that the first American silo was built in Maryland in 1876? It is said that someone observed that cabbage fermented as sauerkraut kept well and thought that the corn plant could be preserved for food in the same way. He was so right.

(Editors Note: Dr. Mark Welsh is a former university instructor and state livestock sanitary service director who has spent a lifetime in agriculture. He now is agricultural consultant to American Cyanamid Company.)

Ruth Bible Class Of Benton Holds Dinner in Paducah

The Ruth Bible Class of the First Baptist Church in Benton met Dec. 12 at 7:30 p. m. in the private dining room at Clymer's Restaurant in Paducah.

The table held an arrangement of Santa Claus, white reindeer and pine and silver ornaments flanked by red candles. The piano was banked with pine and colored ornaments.

Following dinner, gifts were exchanged from a beautifully lighted Christmas tree that stood on one side of the room. Mrs. Roy Buchanan was presented a lovely gift by members of her class.

Those attending were Mesdames Glen King, W. T. McDermott, Graham McGuire, Warner Adamson, Luke Ross, James E. Acus, Neal Tolbert and the hostess.

Miss Thelma Brandon was a shopping visitor in Paducah Saturday.

LETTER

Dear Editor:

If you asked me today who the meanest person in the world was I would quickly answer the person who cut my bee tree.

Last summer I found a bee tree on my granddaddy's property and had been watching it in order to cut it when the weather got cold. One Saturday morning about two weeks ago my dad and I went to cut the tree and somebody had already cut it. So that is my definition for the meanest person on earth.

Sincerely yours,
David Sutherland

Telephone Talk

By HAROLD WILEY
Paducah Manager

THREE GUESSES what old Santa'll have in his pack this year. Princess phones, of course. Just where he decides to deliver them will be up to you. It can be your friends and relatives who'll thrill to lovely little Princess extensions for Christmas if you'll just call us and make the arrangements. Who wouldn't like to have a pretty Princess extension... so little, so lovely... with a night light that glows softly in the dark, and a dial that lights up when you lift the receiver. ... Mother, of course, in her bedroom, sister in her chatting nook, or Dad beside his easy chair! The Princess phone takes hardly any room at all, is light in weight and pretty to look at. There aren't many shopping days left 'til Christmas, so you'd better give us a ring right away to arrange for these delightful gifts.

IF YOU CAN'T BE with your family during the holidays, why not wish them Merry Christmas by phone. Long Distance is the next best thing to being there. (Remember, you get extra bargains after six PM and on Sundays and all day Christmas).

CHRISTMAS IS a time of worship, warmth, turkey, presents and family reunions. On this happy occasion, all of us at Southern Bell extend our warmest greetings to you and your family. We hope you will have a wonderful and blessed holiday.

REMINDER for your enjoyment — The Bell Telephone Hour TV show — a special Christmas program Friday night, December 23, NBC network. You'll find time and channel listings in your newspaper.

3 Years Of Work Needed To Collect Social Security

Anyone who has been told by the Social Security Office that he did not have enough quarters of coverage to be entitled to benefits should get in touch with his nearest Social Security Office again. This suggestion was made by Charles M. Whitaker, district manager of the Paducah Social Security Office.

The amount of quarters necessary to receive benefits has been reduced. Just how long you must have worked under the law depends on when you were born. No one needs more than 40 quarters, but no one can be entitled with less than six.

For example a man becoming age 65 or a woman reaching age 62 in the first six months of 1980 would have needed 4 1/2 years or 18 quarters of coverage under the old law. Under the new law either would need only 12 quarters or three years of work to be entitled to retirement benefits.

However the work requirements to qualify for disability insurance benefits were not changed. A person needs to have worked five years out of the ten years immediately before becoming totally and permanently disabled.

If you have previously had your claim for retirement benefits denied, you should contact your nearest Social Security Office.

METHODIST MEN WILL GATHER AT PADUCAH

A district-wide Methodist men's banquet will be held at the Paducah Junior Chamber of Commerce Building on Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 8:30 p. m. Dr. Wayne A. Lamb, superintendent of the Paducah District, has announced. Bishop Marvin A. Franklin of Jackson, Miss., will be the speaker.

The banquet is sponsored by the district board of lay activities. H. Wallace Tanner of West Paducah is district lay leader. The associate district lay leaders are: John Ed Walker, Mayfield; William B. Byrd, Paducah; Robert Siegfried, Calvert City; G. H. Coker, Milburn; William Nave, Kevil; D. E. Werner, Benton; and Joe Ward, Clinton.

Uncle Ned From Dogtown

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Christmas is about to get here again and the fellers at the country store Saturday night was having their annual discussion about peace on earth and good will toward men.

First off, it was agreed that the peace wet git is pritty shaky but it was better'n none and that this Christmas we better be mighty thankful fer what we got. Of course, the fellers all admitted that ole Khrushchev was slow but sure worrying us to death.

On the other hand, even Bug Hookum, that laments about everything, said it was better to depart this earth worrying and painless than to git hit with a atom bomb.

Clem Webster sorter put a sour note to the session by claiming that it didn't take near as long to worry us to death as it used to. He allowed as how us Americans can't take it like we could 30 year ago, that we're getting softer ever year. I'd have to vote with Clem on this item.

There was a time, Mister Editor, when you could say the average American was a pritty solid citizen. But he's been pushed around so much with the New Deal, the Old Deal, the Queer Deal, taxation, red tape, Government forms, rules and regulations that he's getting a heap of give in him, ain't near as solid as he used to be.

But, anyhow, we got peace on earth at this Christmas time and it was agreed by all that everybody ought to say a prayer of thanks fer it on Christmas Day. On the topic of good will, the fellers was a little bit divided. Zeke Grubb, fer instant, allowed as how good will ought to start out with your neighbors and spread from there. Zeke said some of his neighbors had the meanest youngsters ever brung into this world. They was so mean, allowed Zeke, that he was thinking about fencing in his pigs to keep 'em from mixing with the little hellions, said they set a bad example fer his pigs. But maybe after Zeke gits his pigs fenced in and his neighbors kids fenced out the good will bug will hit him a little harder. It was agreed that especial at Christmas time everybody ought to ferget old grudges and get over, with good will toward men. In spite of the mess the world's in, all of us ought to try and make this a happy Christmas. I can recollect them war years when our loved ones was fighting far from home and friends and how we wished they was at home fer Christmas. Now that we've got 'em here, fer this Christmas, let's try to make it one to remember fer years to come, regardless of what comes with them years. MERRY CHRISTMAS!
