NFTW Drops Nationwide Bargaining Company, Union Leaders Predict Earlier Decision

STATE PAY RAISED

Washington, May 7.—(AP)— Officials of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, which has called the cross-country telephone strike last April 7, have abandoned efforts to negotiate their demands with the Bell System on a nationwide basis.

This decision to shift the emphasis to local bargaining was announced today by Bell officials as well as union leaders as a move likely to hasten the end of the 31-day-old tieup.

Officials of the Bell System and its parent concern, the A. T. & T., had consistently refused to yield to union insistence on nationwide bargaining, contending that negotiations should be on a local basis because of local factors involved.

The 49-member policy committee of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, which had been in almost daily session since March 24, was adjourned indefinitely. Its members returned home to help bargain out settlements in their own areas.

The most important bargaining conference being held here under government auspices was called into "continuous sessions" at 10 a. m. with conciliators saying agreement was possible "any hour."

This involves the American Union of Telephone Workers, one of the NFTW's 49 affiliates.
NFTW President Joseph A.
Beirne said the policy committee's decision to strike separately for new wage agreements with the more than 30 Bell companies was not a step backward but would "intensify" negotiations.

He said the union decided in the first week of the strike to bargain locally if that would help end the walkout.

The Southern Bell Telephone Company announced in Louisville today that wage increases ranging from 8 to 10 per cent have been given more than 100 local employees who remained on the job after the telephone strike began April 7.

"This was in appreciation for their unusual hours and type of work and what has been demanded of them during this period," C. Hunter Green, district manager, said. "People eligible for union membership also received scheduled increases if they were on the job." The union's strike committee said that "management employees have been given a 10 percent wage increase, yet the company has not offered a nickel to the lower paid rank and file workers."

Green said the wage increase was not a flat 10 percent but varied among the individual employees.

ton B. Morton, Louisville, who announced from Washington Monday that he was withdrawing from the governorship race.

Christian Church Convention Starts At Owensboro, Ky.

Owensboro, Ky., May 7.—(AP)— The first business session of the 12th Kentucky convention of the Christian Churches of Kentucky is scheduled to be held here today, with other events and speakers to be heard throughout the day.

The convention opened yesterday with approximately 600 persons from 500 Christian churches in Kentucky in attendance. It will continue through Thursday.
Last night the Rev. Monroe G. Schuster, pastor of the Ninth Street Christian church at Hopkinsville and president of the Association, outlined objectives of a world-wide crusade by the Christian churches. He said the crusade is not concerned only with getting persons to become Christians in order to go to Heaven when they die, but is concerned with making a Heaven out of this earth.

W. Crutchfield Dies In Oklahoma

Funeral services for Willard Crutchfield, 58, were held in Enid, Okla., at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. Crutchfield, a former resident of Wingo, died at his home in Enid.
He leaves his widow, Mrs. Mae Crutchfield, two children, Dorothy and John Crutchfield; two sisters, Mrs. B. W. Dodson, Mayfield, and Miss Amy Crutchfield, Paducah; and three brothers, H. Crutchfield, Wingo, Ed Crutchfield, Detroit, and Lex Crutchfield, Hoidenville, Okla.

Frankfort last night when asked about the possibility of his entering the race for the Republican nomination against Atorney General Eldon S. Dummit and Jesse W. Knox of Frankfort.
Last week Watkins announced he was "definitely not a candidate" for the nomination for governor, but Morton's withdrawal and pressure by his supporters could possibly make Watkins change his mind, observers say.
In his present post as highway commissioner, Watkins is barred from public political activity by the federal Hatch act. If he should become a candidate, he would have to resign his highway job.

Yesterday (Tues.) Watkins received many telegrams, long distance telephone calls and personal visitors who urged him to enter the race. Watkins is from Laurel county in the Ninth district.

Dummit has been endorsed by Jonett Ross Todd and Edward C. Black, men high in Republican circles in Louisville. A number of other Louisville and Jefferson county officials also endorsed him immediately after Morton withdrew.

Before Morton had entered the race, Watkins was considered by many as the choice of Gov.
Simeon Willis for administration support, but when Morton announced, the governor termed the Louisville "acceptable." Friends of Watkins yesterday said that although the highway commissioner had undergone some disappointment politically, he has done nothing to alienate Willis.

The governor himself has not commented on Morton's withdrawal.

Fulton Lady Lands 6-Lb. Bigmouth Bass At Reelfoot

In case you heard a whoop of joy from the general direction of Reelfoot Lake Monday afternoon, it probably could have been traced to Mrs. E. M. Scott of Scott's Floral Shop, who was landing a six-pound big-mouth black bass all by herself.
Mrs. Scott and her husband were fishing in Buzzard Slough on Reelfoot when she hooked the prize bass on a Jitterbug.
In the excitement, Mrs. Scott fell in the boat and tore the knee out of one stocking and almost went overboard when she tried to lift the fish into the boat.
Mr. Scott was exhibiting the prize catch, and other nice fish the two caught, around town yesterday afternoon.

Paducah, Ky., May 8.—(AP)— Any flagrant violations of the law prohibiting lotteries will be prosecuted, City Manager yesterday.

The city manager said he would insist that policemen make arrests for "open and flagrant" violations by civic and charitable organizations.
His statement came after he had informed the Junior Chamber of Commerce "the answer is just simply no" in connection

8,000 Southern Baptists Convene At St. Louis; Uproar Marks First Day

St. Louis, May 7.—(AP)—The Southern Baptist Convention, following a theme of "Human Designs—God's Destiny," opened today with more than 8,000 delegates and visitors expected to attend the sessions which will continue through Sunday.
A pre-convention meeting of 1,000 Baptist pastors yesterday was thrown into an uproar when Dr. J. Frank Norris, Fundamentalist leader of Fort Worth, attempted to gain the floor. He said he desired to question convention President Louie D. Newton of Atlanta concerning his views on Russia.

Dr. M. E. Dodd of Shreveport, La., chairman of the meeting, asked the audience if it desired to hear Norris' questions and there was a thunderous reply of "No." Norris then left the meeting.

The Fort Worth pastor said last week he opposed Newton's re-election on grounds of what he termed Newton's "appeasement attitude toward Russia." Norris' church has not been a member of the Southern Convention for many years.

Among the speakers at the convention will be former Governor Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, former Governor Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, Evangelist Charles F. Taylor and Judge Gamble Kelley, an authority on juvenile delinquency.

"Happy" Chandler and Shelby Peace Help Fulton Baseball Association With "Most Successful" First Night

PLAY U. C. THERE TONIGHT. HERE AGAIN MAY 8

National Commissioner A. B.
Chandler and Kitty League President Shelby Peace, with an estimated 2,200 other basebal-fans, saw Fulton's Chicks open their 1947 season with a 12-9 win over Union City's Greyhounds last night in Fairfield Park. The total of 2,180 paid admissions set a new attendance record for the Fulton park.
Highest previous attendance was recorded at the close of last season during the playoff series with Owensboro.

Whitey Lynch was the winning pitcher, going the route for Fulton and giving up 14 hits, Tom Ladd, starting Union City hurler, was relieved in the third by Dutch Neuman, and together they yielded 14 safeties to Chik sluggers.

The visitors tallied twice in the top of the first, were one behind after the Chicks batted for the first time, and made one apiece in the second and third while holding Fulton scoreless.
Fulton forged ahead again in the fourth with two runs, and the Hounds countered with a run in the fifth to make it 5-5.
Then in the sixth Union City got one, and Johnny Gill, new Fulton manager, socked a homerun with two on to make it Fulton 8, Union City 6.

Both teams got two in the seventh, Fulton added two more in the eighth, and the Greyhounds got their last run in the ninth.

Pre-Game Program

"Happy" Chandler, Mr. Peace, and Managers Johnny Gill of Fulton and Steve Byrso of Union City each spoke briefly in a short pre-game program arranged by the Young Men's Business Club. The 1947 season was opened with prayer by the Rev. W. E. Mischke, pastor of the First Methodist church. He and other speakers were introduced by Billy Blackstone, YMBC program committee chairman.

The Fulton high school band, Boy and Girl Scouts, and Cubs led a parade from the Methodist church to the ball park. Yewell Harrison directed the band in playing the National Anthem.

The first ball was thrown by Tom Elam, president of the Greyhounds. J. H. Lowe, mayor of South Fulton, declined to take a swing at it on first bounce, and the wild pitch eluded Fulton's Mayor T. C. Boaz, who was behind the plate.

The Chick lineup was altered last night by the absence of Tommy Bue, regular third sacker, who has an injured ankle. Pete Peterson was at the hot corner. Johnny Gill played left field, Hal Seawright was in center and Larry Workman in right.

Penalties Imposed For Exceeding '47 Tobacco Allotment

Lexington, Ky., May 6.—(AP)— The state office of the Federal Production and Marketing Administration announced here yesterday that tobacco growers whose 1947 crops exceed farm acreage allotments will be subject to both marketing quota penalties and limited participation in government price support loans.
Excess production, State Director M. D. Royce declared, will nullify loans on the tobacco produced within the allotted acreage on a farm. Royce said the reguaffected by marketing quotas, chiefly burley in Kentucky.

Md., where he will enter radio school.

One Last Run

In the last go-round in the top of the ninth, Tomlinson, batting for Wilson, fanned, and Jackson walked. Jackson went the first after singling to short left field. He advanced to second on Peterson's error, which put Majerick on first, and went to third on a wild pitch. Joe Sadovy, Union City first baseman, drove both teammates in with a single to right.

Larry Workman, first Fulton batter, struck out. Dutch Gray waited for a fast ball, got it, and slammed it over the centerfield fence. Propst was hit by a pitched ball. Seawright made first on the shortstop's error, and Peterson brought them in with a sharp double to center.

In the second frame, Sepanek drew a walk and came in on Majerick's two-bagger to left center, to give Union City 3 for Fulton's 3. Fulton went scoreless in the second. Dutch Gray rapped out a double, but died on base.

Three Hits, One Run

Union City's Pete Burnette, left fielder, doubled to center and came home on Sadovy's single to right in the third.
Johnny Kustich singled to put two men on base, but Lynch fanned Jackson. Wilson fanned out to Workman and Ladd fludded to end the inning. For Fulton, Seawright walked but was forced out at third after Rhodes hit an infield grounder. Gill struck out for the second and last time, Peterson got a single and Lis was out on a fly to left field.

Bob Sepanek led off again for Union City in the fourth, and again hit safely. Majerick also hit a single, and both advanced on Lynch's error in handling Brawner's easy roller. Pete Burnette got a sacrifice hit which put him on first, but Sepanek was trapped coming home.
Lynch to Lis. Burnette was out at second, and Sadovy went down. Gray to Propst, in a double play, got Lynch out of another hole.

Fulton Rallies

Larry Workman knocked one out of the park on a hop in Fulton's part of the fourth, and was held up at second. Propst also doubled to bring Workman in. Seawright went to first on the shortstop's fumble, and Gill singled to score Propst.

Kustich reached first for the Hounds on an infield grounder down the third base line, but later was thrown out at home by Rhodes after Jackson singled to short. Jackson, Seawright, tagged up and scored, on Ladd's high fly to center field. For the first time in the game, three Chicks were set down in order in the last of the fifth, Rhodes and Lynch by strikeouts and Lis on a fly ball.

Two Homers

Pete Burnette walloped a home run over the right field fence for Union City's only hit and run in the sixth. Then Gray got to first when the Union City second-sacker booted the ball, and Seawright doubled to advance Gray to third. Johnny Gill, who had gotten only one hit in three trips to the plate previously, connected with a round-tripper over the right field wall good for three runs, and the stands yelled "Same old Johnny" as he trotted around the bases.

Union City got back two runs in the seventh, however. Kustich walked, moved up a couple on Jackson's single, and both scored on Wilson's two-base blow.

Rhodes hit safely to left for Fulton in the seventh, waltzed home on Lis' double, and Lis dashed home on a wild pitch.

Whitey Lynch bungled a grounder from Brawner to hit to Rhodes, forcing Brawner to second. Then the Fulton twirler struck out Sadovy and Kustich. For Fulton, Propst and Gill go on base by a hit and a walk respectively, and were brought on around on singles by Peterson and Lis.

Mother's Day, 1947

Sunday, May 11, will be the thirty-third of Mother's Day in the United States. The Congress on May 8, 1914, designated the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day, and it has been observed since then by millions of our people.

The modern observance, however, stems from the ancient Greek custom of mother-worship. Ceremonies in honor of "the Great Mother of the Gods," Cybele, was anciently held on the Ides of March throughout Asia Minor. With the coming of Christianity, this developed into worship of "Mother Church," the celebration occurring on mid-Lent Sunday, when children returned home with gifts for their parents, especially their mothers.

In medieval times, Mother's Day was the Virgin's Day. Presents were brought to her shrines, and living mothers were similarly remembered. In England, the custom of bringing presents on this day was called "Going-A-Mothering."

A more recent example of a man's veneration for his mother is that of General Chiang Kai-Shek, who erected a Buddhist shrine in memory of his mother. He goes there to seek inspiration and guidance.

The thought of having a special Mother's Day in schools and churches belongs to Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia. The idea came to her when the superintendent of a Sunday school in Virginia asked her to arrange a memorial service for her mother, who had been a leading spirit in the church during her lifetime. The idea was swiftly adopted by schools and churches over the country, and now has been expanded to include outward demonstrations of love and gratitude to mothers by gifts, acts of kindness, words of appreciation, etc.

Inspiring poems have been written and soul-stirring sermons preached on mother love and what each one owes to his mother. Those who are fortunate enough to be with their mothers on May 11 should thank God for that privilege. Those whose mothers no longer are in the realm of the living can draw comfort, hope and inspiration from the knowledge of what their mothers' love has meant to their lives.

Got Wrong Call-Ador

New York.—(AP)—Several calls for "Colador Tostado" at a magistrate's hearing on an OPA rent case produced no results until Manuel Casiano arose, told the court maybe he was the man wanted, and suggested:

"Whoever copied down my name from the sign on the front of my store doesn't know Spanish. Colador Tostado isn't a name. It means I sell all sorts of roast coffee."

Mrs. J. J. Parker told Police she put a $2000 diamond bar pin in the toe of a shoe for safe-keeping—then gave the shoe away in a charity drive.

Synopsis Of Senior Play

Following is a synopsis of the Fulton high school senior play, "Don't Take My Penny," which will be presented in Carr Institute auditorium Thursday night.

Sixteen-year-old Penny is walking around with a book on her head and a dreamy look in her eyes, practicing elocution with her mouth full of bubbles, preparing herself to play the star role in the movie version of a popular novel. The author is searching the country for his ideal—he's coming to town tomorrow—and Penny just knows she'll be chosen! What Penny doesn't know is that Sally, the new maid, is a former child movie star, now grown up, whom a clever publicity agent has planted there to be miraculously "discovered" by the author. So Penny ignores Sally (who practices dance steps when

Reds Want Class War

By Dewitt MacKenzie.

Editorial minds of three big London newspapers—the News Chronicle (Liberal), the Daily Mail (Conservative) and the Daily Graphic (Conservative)—got to running in the same channel with the result that yesterday these papers appeared simultaneously with articles on the burning question: "Does Russia Want War?"

The writers, all of whom had been in the Soviet Union recently, arrived at the same conclusion in the military sense, but the Daily Mail gave an interesting deviation. Here are the answers:

News Chronicle: "As things stand now, and as they must stand for some time, the Russian regime cannot want war."

Daily Graphic: "The last thing Russia wants today is war. Nothing could be further from what Stalin is aiming at now than conflict with Britain and America."

Daily Mail (and note the deviation): "Russia doesn't want war. Class war, yes, but international war, definitely no."

These three verdicts, including the Daily Mail decision that Russia wants class war, undoubtedly represented the consensus of objective observers the world around. Certainly this column has pointed out often enough that Russia couldn't fight a major offensive war with guns now—or for years to come—because, apart from other considerations, she is too exhausted from the last conflict. Former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill in his historic speech at Fulton, Mo., on March 5 of last year, sized the position up like this:

"I do not believe that Soviet Russia desires war. What they desire is the fruits of war and the indefinite expansion of their power and doctrines."

As for class war, that is one of the cardinal tenets of Communism. So no argument arises over its existence. It is being waged in all countries where a Communist party or Communist cell exists, and that takes in most of the inhabited globe. Communism depends mainly on class war for success.

It is a truism that no other political doctrine can exist along with Communism within the confines of the same country. Therefore if the crusade of the Red is successful in a Democracy, the old government must fall and make way for a totalitarian dictatorship.

France now is in the process of fighting this issue. The Communists there are under command of Maurice Thorez, one of the world's most powerful Red leaders who got his political education in Moscow. Italy is in much the same position, and of course the Balkans—barring Greece and Turkey—along with Hungary and Poland have been Communized by undisguised class warfare which has brought vigorous protests from America and Britain in numerous instances.

Only a few days ago L. S. Chakales, chief of the Associated Press bureau in Athens, stated that confidential Allied reports said a super-administration of the Balkans decides territorial questions, supervises military operations across the Greek border and directs political thought in Romania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Albania. These Allied reports declared this super-administration was composed of Moscow-trained men and women and received orders from the Soviet capitol. The head of the directorate is said to be Georgia Dimitrov, 65 year old Russian-born Communist who now is premier of Bulgaria and was head of the Soviet Third International, or Comintern, until this general staff for world revolution was abolished.

So our conclusion must be, I believe, that it isn't a "shooting" war which the Western Allies have to fear from Russia at this juncture but rather—if they fear anything at all—the penetration of totalitarian Communism into their countries.

no one's around), and she ignores the talent of her quiet, unselfish older sister, Mavis, who has small parts in radio. Penny and Joanna have their hands full with preparations for Penny intends to take her girl friend, Joanna, with her to Hollywood. Penny and Joanna give up playing in the tennis tournament with their boy friends, Greg and Kerry. They tell them they are putting childish things like tennis behind them. Greg and Kerry confer with Gram and decide to outwit Penny and Joanna by posing as the great author and the disgraced Greg and Kerry poke fun at each lovely outfit and finally kick the indignant Henri out the door. Then, just as Penny is prepared to say "thumbs down" on famous authors—Dad shows up with the real author. But the plans for the "discovery" of Sally go awry, for Sally has fallen in love with Mark, the older brother, whose one ambition is to run a chicken farm! That seems to Sally a lot more glamorous than a screen career, for she remembers the real Hollywood of hardships and disappointments. Sally and Mark plan their little white cottage, with its picket fence and roses, and about this time their first chicken triumphantly lays an egg! In the midst of all the excitement, the author does choose a star for his play—but the girl he chooses surprises everyone.

But by this time Penny and Joanna have changed their minds again and paired off for the tennis tournament with Greg and Kerry. And Gram has given Mother a piece of her mind for running about giving lectures on child rearing when she should be looking after her own family. This is a play that has everything youth, charm, funny incidents, and good parts for all.

tered fractional extension of Tuesday's declines in dwindling volume of dealings. A moderate flurry at the opening soon dried up and the ticker tape loathed frequently. Near midday price quotations were well mixed.

In the wake of profit-taking operations, customers were reported by commission houses to be awaiting further news that might stir a response in the market.

Giving up ground at times were Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Goodrich, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, American Telephone, Johns-Manville, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Southern Pacific, J. C. Penny, Glenn Martin, American Water Works and Anaconda. Radio Corp. improved on a good first quarter earnings report. Others advancing included Montgomery Ward (on a high sales report), Kennecott, Sears Roebuck, Texas Co., Standard Oil (N.Y.) and Consolidated Edison.

Bonds were uneven and cotton steady.

14 Horses Ready For The Preakness At Pimlico May 10

Baltimore, May 7.—(AP)—All 14 possible starters in Saturday's richest horse race in the world—the 7th Preakness—had their harness hanging at Pimlico today, and the backfence gossip was that Derby winner Jet Pilot won't be lonesome at the finish.

The speed horses from the Derby, and such others with early "lick" as King Bay and Secnav and Cornish Knight and Mityme, who won the Survivor Stakes her yesterday, will be winging at the Cosmetics Kid from the opening gun this time.

Another that might be added to that list, incidentally, it developed today, is Contest, from the Texas King Ranch, who is a more-or-less mystery galloper. No one knows for sure if he'll come out and play Saturday. All the others in this heat—which will carry a record $141,140 gross pot if 14 get to the post—also are making plans to get right out there and look the Pilot in the eye and see if he can take it.

Virtually everything except stretch.

Phalanx will run at the Pilot early. Faultless, who was beaten only two heads by the Pilot and Phalanx for the whole pot last week, figures on pushing the Derby dandy that large question early instead of waiting for the stretch.
